Why should not all Populists who were former Democrats, now return to their old party and vote the straight Democratic ticket from "President down to constable"?

They are going to vote for the Democratic candidate for President, the highest office in the land and why not vote for the Democratic candidate for lower offices.

Four years ago, in 1892 when those former Democrats abandoned their old party and joined the People's party, they gave as their excuse or reason that the Democrats had nominated Cleveland—a goldbug—for President...

Some of the New York preachers are persistently active in politics this year. The Rev. Tommy Dixon is the loudest-mouthed and wildest-eyed of them all, but Dr. Parkhurst, just back from Europe with a new outfit of vituperation took a pretty rank hold last Sunday when he said in his sermon that the purposes of the Democrats are "thoroughly false to the spirit of the Gospel and accursedly treasonable to our collective interests and national destiny."

The following is a list of offenses under the present law designed for protection of cruelty to animals. A half-starved horse under a burden; an over-laden horse, mule or ox; the turning out of a disabled domestic animal to die of starvation; the over-driving of a horse, mule or ox; failure to feed, water or house domestic animals in winter; and the killing of birds of song or plumage, except such as may be of use as food; the robbing of birds' nests; mauling birds' young in their nests; the mauling or crippling of any bird or beast in sport. The offenses are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

This Peculiar Campaign

The following is a true story, illustrative of the peculiar political change going on:

Down in Collierville there is a preacher who has been a fighting Democrat. A Wichita has a life-long friend that has been a life-long Republican.

They visited each other two or three times a year, and most of their time was spent in trying to convince each other that they were wrong politically.

The Wichita man met the Collierville man last winter, and he appealed to him strongly to come over to the Republicans and find salvation and that peace of mind that it brings. The Collierville man could not be persuaded.

Finally the Democratic convention was held in Chicago, with results familiar to everybody.

The Collierville man changes his politics and becomes a Republican. He felt good, as every Democrat does who sees the error of his ways. He could not keep his joy to himself, so he took the train and came post haste to Wichita, and went direct to the home of his friend.

"Well, Ed," said he, reaching out his hand, "I feel good and could not help coming up to tell you about it."

"That's it—another boy?" "Guess again."

"Struck a gold mine?" "It's better than that."

"Rich uncle died, eh?" "Still better."

"What, has your mother-in-law left you?" "Well, it's nearly as good as that."

"What is it, for goodness sake?" "I have seen the error of my ways. I have turned Republican and am hurrahing for McKinley. Shake on me, old boy."

He didn't shake, but hung his head. "Why, Ed, old boy, what's the matter with you? Why don't you shake and welcome me into your ranks?" "If you want to be with me politically," said Ed, "you'll have to change back again."

"What do you mean?" "I mean simply that I have changed myself. I am hurrahing for Bryan and free silver.—Wichita Eagle

Bryan's Weaver Vote.

To clear the whole matter up once for all, we clip from the Richmond Dispatch the following telegram from Chairman Faulkner, explaining Mr. Bryan's vote for Mr. Weaver:

"WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.

"I have submitted your telegram of yesterday, requesting me to explain why Mr. Bryan voted for Weaver in 1892, to Senator Gorman, who was a member of the Democratic campaign committee in 1892. He says that the National committee, of which Mr. William G. Harry was chairman, with Mr. Don M. Dickinson chairman of the campaign committee, determined to request all the Democrats in Nebraska and the States West thereof, to unite with the Weaver people in carrying these States, so as to prevent Harrison from receiving electoral votes in Nebraska, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Oregon, Nevada and California, and as a rule the Democrats followed the request of the Democratic National committee. In addition to this the New York World made an appeal for a special subscription to carry out the plan of campaign determined on by the Democratic committee. Therefore, whatever Mr. Bryan or any other Democrat did in the support of Weaver was at the request of the National Democratic committee.

CHARLES J. FAULKNER, "Chairman."

Politics in Billville

The polls will open early. Bring your dinners with you and spend the day in voting.

There are thirty candidates for sheriff in Billville, and yet there are only three men to be hung this year.

Somebody has skipped with the Billville campaign fund. We never believed in this fund business. Let the candidate deal with the voter direct, is our motto.

It was thought that Colonel Jones had arrived too late to register, but it was a mistake; he had his shotgun with him and will vote, as usual, in this election.

WITH HIS "SAVAGES."

And How the Little Darkies Did Shout.

D. L. Russell, the Republican nominee for Governor, reached Greenville on Friday evening's train. His coming was a grand event, and the colored band and about fifty negroes, nine-tenths of them boys, were at the depot to meet him.

As the train rolled in the band struck up "Sweet Marie" and the boys brandished lighted torches that had been prepared for the occasion. They gathered around the first-class coach and shined their torches in the windows like they were trying to smoke "Mars Dan" out, but while this was going on Russell slipped out at the front end of the second car.

"Da's him! Da's him!" cried one of the crowd, and instantly a shout went up and torches waved around him. At this ovation Russell raised his hat and to red to the little negroes as augustly as if he had been in the presence of a king.

The carriage occupied by Russell and Bernard started off to town, the band and screaming boys following after in an irregular procession, there being a jam every now and then to see who could get closest to the vehicle.

That this reception and escort committee should be marked by the conspicuous absence of men, leads to the suggestion that it is going to be a hard thing to make the voting part of the colored folks swallow Russell and all the bitter things he has said about them.

The object of Russell's coming of course was to make a speech, which took place Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A little before the time for the speaking the band paraded main street to draw the crowd to the Court House. When Russell entered there was not the slightest ripple of applause that greeted him.

He was introduced by C. M. Bernard and spoke for about an hour and a half. The general sentiment with everybody is that the speech was the greatest disappointment to which they had ever been subjected.

He made no reference that there was any Republican ticket, either State or National, to be voted for by Republicans, but advised his hearers to vote the Populist ticket straight through and ask no question.

Not a word was said about voting for himself for Governor. Not a word was said about voting for McKinley for President. No candidate of any prominence has ever spoken here in any campaign who created so little enthusiasm.

There was some applause at times, but it seemed manufactured for the occasion. As a political speech it was the dearest failure we ever listened to. No better evidence of this was needed than to view the countenance of those who went there expecting to hear something from their leading candidate.

The speech was only remarkable for what he did not say, and from it no one is able to tell what he does or does not say.

One can only judge from the speech and the way he advised his hearers to vote, that Russell has no ideas of being a candidate for Governor when the election comes.

Jake Russell, colored, who says he is a half brother of the candidate for Governor, was spruced out in his best Sunday rig to meet Dan, and was quite prominent in his attentions to the latter. Jake says "Dan bears a little closer resemblance to the old man than I do."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Co. respondent.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28th, 1896.

Hon. W. E. Chilton, Secretary of State for West Virginia, was one of the party which came to Washington to escort Mr. Bryan to that State.

It was not a fraud of the result in West Virginia, and have no hesitation in predicting that Bryan will get its electoral vote. Our people are strongly in favor of the republicans.

The Palmer and Buckner ticket will not poll much of a vote. The republicans are making the most strenuous efforts for McKinley, and the allegations of coercion and intimidation of railway employes are strictly true.

It was generally understood that the Republicans would put on R. D. S. Dixon for Sheriff, and B. W. Patrick for Treasurer, the remainder of the slate to be finished later.

The Populists nominated the following skeleton ticket, leaving the remainder of the offices to be named by the Republicans:

Commissioners—W. E. Bell, W. D. Newborn, T. U. Lassiter.

It was generally understood that the Republicans would put on R. D. S. Dixon for Sheriff, and B. W. Patrick for Treasurer, the remainder of the slate to be finished later.

The Populists nominated the following skeleton ticket, leaving the remainder of the offices to be named by the Republicans:

Candidates in Greene County.

The Democrats and Populists of Greene County both held conventions on Saturday to nominate county candidates. The Democrats nominated the following full ticket.

Commissioners—W. E. Bell, W. D. Newborn, T. U. Lassiter.

It was generally understood that the Republicans would put on R. D. S. Dixon for Sheriff, and B. W. Patrick for Treasurer, the remainder of the slate to be finished later.

A Month Before Election.

"The whole thing hinges on what the labor element may do," said Mr. Stevenson of the National Democratic party. Eighty-five per cent of the farmers are for free silver.

If the capitalists and money brokers succeed in coercing or other methods in gaining the support of the labor element, Mr. McKinley will be elected, but I do not think they can do anything with that element.

At Democratic national headquarters it was stated that convincing evidence is daily accumulating that Bryan will sweep the Southern, Western and Central Middle States.

This claim is not based on reports of enthusiastic politicians but is the result of careful investigation and very careful canvasses made in debatable territory by national, State and local managers of the free silver campaign.

It is farther stated that "in many counties in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota there is a wholesale stampede of Republican farmers to the support of Bryan," and that "Republican reports show that German Americans are coming over to the Bryan standard by the thousands, a state of affairs that is largely due to the Biswark letter, millions of copies of which have been sent out all over the country."

The Democratic managers claim Indiana by 25,000 majority, and also claim a gain of nine Democratic Congressmen in that State.

For the Benefit of Those Who Haven't Any.

A clergyman was anxious to introduce some hymn-books into the church and arranged with his clerk that the latter was to give notice immediately after the sermon. The clerk, however, had a notice of his own to give out with reference to the baptism of infants.

Accordingly, at the close of the sermon he arose and announced: "All those who have children whom they wish to have baptized please send their names at once to the clerk."

The clergyman, who was stone deaf, assumed that the clerk was giving out the hymn-book notice, and immediately arose and said: "And I should say, for the benefit of those who haven't any, that they may be obtained at the vestry any day from 3 to 4 o'clock; the ordinary little ones at one shilling each, and the special ones with red backs at one shilling and four pence."

It is high time for Democrats to stop so much quibbling over rumors of this man coming down or that man's to be withdrawn—rumors which are started for the purpose of weakening the ticket and destroy confidence—and get down to united, solid work.

The Democrats are going to be beaten if they spend their time and energy in chasing non-essentials, and waiting for something to turn up, which may never turn, and leave them waiting. The tickets are up. Doty sounds the call to the front.

Go to the nominees with your whole heart and soul, and let us make it an overwhelming victory. Quit fighting among ourselves over this don't suit, or that is not right, and charge upon the enemy. It is time to present a solid front.

THE STORY OF A CANDIDATE.

This is the man Who for office ran; And these were his methods— His campaigning plan.

Rose at six With all his tricks; And went into the race like a buck! Had fired the clock Had chimed for ten Had paid the tax Of twenty men; Had sent their children Off to school, And raised a mortgage From a male; Had gone to court Had with smiling face, And quikly won A lady's case; Had plucked five shining Dollars down, To help 'em build A church in town, Had warded off A sheriff's sale.

And paid a poor man Out of jail; Relieved six widows' Destitution And made a campaign Contribution; And still they never Heard him groan When fifteen fellows Asked a loan. He took no notes— Expressed no doubt But freely stelled his money out!

Is the lowest price any object to you? Are the best qualities any inducements? If so come in and see our new stock which we have just received. Our store is full of New Goods and Prices were never lower. To the Ladies we extend a cordial invitation to examine our stock of

Dress Goods & Trimmings

We have a beautiful and up-to-date line. You will find the latest styles and we know we can please you. Oh, how lovely, how beautiful, the prettiest line I have ever seen, is what our lady friend say of them. We have a large line both in colors and blacks and can please you.

In Ladies and Gents FURNISHING GOODS we have a splendid line. In LADIES CLOTH for Wraps we have just what you want. In Men and Boys PANTS GOODS we have just the best stock to be found and prices were never lower.

Our object is to sell good honest goods at the lowest prices. We have a large line of FURNITURE and can give you anything you may need at the lowest prices ever heard of. Come and see our $12.50 Solid Oak Bedroom Suits. To pass us by would be an inexcusable injustice to your pocket book. This is not so because we say so, but because our goods and prices make it so. Here is a fair proposition: If we deserve nothing, give us nothing, but if you find our goods and prices satisfactory, acknowledge it with your patronage. Hoping to see you soon and promising our best efforts to make your coming pleasant and profitable, we are SHOES. In shoes we endeavor to buy such as will please the wearer, the prices on shoes are much lower than last season. Give us a trial when you need shoes for yourself or any member of your family. We can fit the smallest or largest foot in the county. Our L. M. Reynolds & Co.'s Shoes for Men and Boys are warranted to give good service. We have had six years experience with this line and know them to be all we claim for them.

Wilson Air-Tight Heater. With Patent Automatic Smoke Doors.

The Wilson Heater, which is a stove for house heating, is the most remarkable that has ever been patented. In the first place it radiates more heat than any stove known, and will save 25 per cent in fuel over any stove made.

Second, with two or three ordinary stoves of this size wood it will keep the fire from 36 to 48 hours, and with ordinary care the fire will never go out.

Third, being entirely closed at the base there is no danger of fire, and it is the cleanest stove in use. It is not necessary to remove the ashes often than once a month. These stoves are made of different styles—the small one, which is made for bed rooms, is especially recommended for health as well as comfort.

The Wilson Heater has a great advantage over any similar stove, because it has Patent Automatic Smoke Doors, which prevent the smoke from coming into the room when you take the top off to put in the wood. These doors are so constructed that they can be taken off and put back on in one minute. These stoves can be seen our store, come and look at them.

H. M. HARDEE.

Prices will talk louder than anything else we can say. All the arguments in the world would not induce you to buy from us unless you were to find prices right. We will sell you goods from 15 to 35 per cent lower than any house in town and don't you forget it. We have done it before and are doing it today. The proof of the pudding is in eating. Give us a trial and we warrant like Oliver Twist "You'll ask for more."

and a lot of other goods to name as to mention. H. M. HARDEE. Leader of Styles.

Resolution of Respect.
Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God on the 18th day of September 1896, to call our esteemed brother, Henry W. Brown, from Labor to Rest, who has been a member of Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M., and an ever ready supporter of the principles and works of Masonry:
Resolved 1. That we bow in humble submission to this ruling of the great Architect of the Universe, who we trust has taken our deceased brother from this earthly abode to that temple not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.
Resolved 2nd. That we tender to the widow, sons and daughter of brother Brown our profoundest sympathy in this their saddest day of bereavement and an assurance of our interest in their welfare through the days that they shall live to perform the duties of life.
Resolved 3rd. That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy of the same be sent to the widow and family of the deceased and to the EASTERN REFLECTOR and Kings Weekly for publication.
Resolved 4th. That the members of this Lodge be requested to wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Joint Debate.
Hon. J. B. Reppas and Hon. J. H. Small, Republican and Democratic Electors of this district, spoke in the Court House here yesterday to a crowd of about 250 people. Both gentlemen made good speeches on their respective sides of the political issues confronting us today, the former taking a stand for the high tariff and against free silver, and the latter advocating the free and unlimited coinage of silver as the great issue confronting the American people. Owing to the late hour at which the speaking closed we are prevented from commenting upon the speeches today.

75 Cents Worth for 20 Cents

Phoenix and Riato.
The two brick blocks erected by Elliott Bros., and which so far could only be referred to as the Elliott buildings, have been christened. The one on the east side of the street has been given the name of Phoenix building, and the one on west side Riato building. Run over this a few times and get the names and location fixed in your mind.
A Bright Answer:
A little 3 year old girl of this town was taken by her mother to the clothing store to visit her grand mother. While there the mother found it necessary to administer some slight punishment for which purpose the little one was taken into an adjoining room and left there. Later the grand mother went in to comfort the little one and asked "How did you feel when mamma was punishing you?" "I felt very embarrassed," was the prompt reply. That was a bright remark for a child of that age.
The weather prophets are already saying what kind of a winter we are going to have, with the usual variance between their predictions. The truth is we have got to take the winter just as it comes.
Remember that the REFLECTOR phone is No. 80, and we would appreciate being called up at any time when an item of news can be given the paper. Many items, especially of a personal nature, might be given us in this way.
Two of the days for registering have gone by and only two more left, next Saturday and the Saturday following between the hours of 9 A. M. and 4 P. M. Every voter should see that his name is on the registration book of his precinct.
Sparks & Allen's Show
Sparks & Allen's show arrived here Wednesday evening 4:30 o'clock and began at once to erect their tents in the rear of the Palace's warehouse and make ready for the performance. They were greeted with a packed tent at night and general satisfaction was expressed on all sides. It was a very good show, there was not a dull feature in it. The acrobats, tumblers, contortionist and trapeze work was all up to date and in many instances surpassed anything ever seen here. The top of trained horses acted like humans and showed remarkable training. The trick work was very funny and he took well. We commend this show and think it the best 25-cent show we ever saw. They had another performance today.
All Manned.
The other night the watchman on the C. F. & Y. V. yards heard a noise in a freight car and taking his lamp went out, where he found eight tramps in it, four of whom had but one leg, one only one arm and the others were short on noses and eyes.
Yet they seemed to be happy, but awfully sleepy.—Greensboro Record.

Though the summer season is over Shelburn will continue to serve Coca-Cola. It is a good drink for all the year round. It has gained an enviable reputation and has taken position at the very front of the leading and popular soda fountain beverages.

The Fire Cistern.

Work has commenced on the excavation for the cistern to be built at the intersection of Evans and Fourth streets. The cistern will be 12x12x23 feet, built of brick with a capacity for 25,000 gallons. B. Rus & Hublick have the contract for the work. Gutters will be run from the roofs of adjacent buildings to keep the cistern filled.
The Phone Exchange.
Manager W. S. Atkins has received some long distance telephones for use on the line to Farmville. The work is going forward on the line and we can soon be holding "shells" at our neighbors in the upper part of the county. Other connections will be made after this.
Can Accomodate You A'l.
Talk about one little item creating interest, the men in the REFLECTOR a few days ago that we had printed some handsome wedding invitations but just that effect. The question has so many times been asked, are they for "so and so" that we have secured an inquiring of about a dozen couples who are figuring on matrimonial dates in the near future. This gives us occasion to say to all these prospective parties that the REFLECTOR office is strictly in it when it comes to printing nice wedding invitations.
Probably the swiftest vessel in the world has recently been built in France. This extraordinary craft is the sea-going torpedo vessel constructed in Havre by the well known house of Augustin Normand, the contract requiring that it should maintain a speed of from twenty-nine to thirty knots for an hour or more at full steam. At its trial trip, it seems, this vessel, the Forlan, ran a distance of more than thirty-one knots in an hour, this being equivalent to about thirty-five miles, probably the greatest distance ever covered by a sea-going ship in sixty minutes, powerful engines being necessary, of course, to drive the vessel through the water at such a rapid rate.
Decided to Move.
Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M. held a special communication this afternoon to consider a motion to change the place of meeting from the present Lodge building to a hall downtown. Thirty members were present and the vote for removal was 22 to 8. The upper story on the corner of the Elliott building now going up, the place where the Opera House formerly was, is being constructed for the use of the Masons as their place of meeting. The change cannot take place until the action of the Lodge is approved by the Grand Master.
Investigation Discovers the Rotations of the Dispensary System.
The investigation of the liquor dispensary system began last week by the State Board of Control is but the forerunner of other investigations by the board and by the Legislature. There have been scandals enough already to make South Carolina sick of the experiment.
At the end of three years, instead of paying into the Treasury $1,500,000 profit, as was promised, the dispensary returned to the State the $50,000 which had been advanced out of the Treasury and that was all. Yet the State has seized and confiscated between $30,000 and $50,000 worth of liquor that did not cost it a cent.—Columbia, S. C., Dispatch.

Kolb Declares Against Watson

A Birmingham special to the Auburn Constitution says: "Captain Reuben F. Kolb, father of the Populist party in Alabama, and editor of the People's Tribune, the organ of the party here, is out in an editorial today, over a column in length in which he comes out for Bryan and Sewall and the entire ticket and the Democratic candidate for Congress, throwing Watson overboard with Dr. G. B. Crowe, the Populist candidate for Congress. He contends that the Populists are for Bryan, but cannot do anything for him by voting for Bryan and Watson. Kolb and his lieutenant, Peyton G. Bowman, have been invited to take the stump in Indiana and Illinois for Bryan and Sewall, and it is probable they will accept."
Closing of the Baseball.
The National League baseball season closed in the eastern cities last Saturday and in the western cities on Monday. The season of 1896 has been of more interest and more of a financial success than any previous year. Larger crowds have witnessed the games and better all-round playing has been done. The Temple cup games are all that is left of base ball for this year. In 1897 the season will begin about two weeks later than this season and last about that much longer in the fall. In other words, the contract season will be from April 13th to October 13th, instead of April 1st to October 1st, and the games will begin about May 1st, instead of April 16th. Baltimore won championship for the third time and Cleveland second place for the second time. Manager Tebeau has consented to play the first three Temple cup games in Baltimore Oct. 1st, 2nd and 3d. The three games in Cleveland will be played on October 7th, 8th and 10th.

	Won.	Lost.	Per Cent.
Baltimore,	90	39	.698
Cleveland,	80	48	.625

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which is a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

Sole Owners and Proprietors of the

STAR WAREHOUSE

O THE TOBACCO PUBLIC:—It is conceded by all the surrounding country that Greenville is the leading tobacco market for the sale of Leaf Tobacco in Eastern Carolina. This being so it behooves all within reach of the Great market to sell their tobacco here. There are four large Warehouse doors open to the public and chief among them is the STAR Warehouse with a corps of clever and gentlemanly assistants. We now have under construction a large Prizery to be used in connection with the Warehouse, that we may be able to handle the vast amount of Tobacco consigned to us. We have associated with us Messrs. H. L. Coward and T. E. Hooker, two large and successful tobacco raisers from Greene county, they having purchased the interest of Mr. McG. Ernul, we are better prepared to handle your tobacco than ever before and when you get your tobacco ready for market drive direct to the STAR where you will always receive prompt and courteous attention and highest market prices for your tobacco.

A REMINISCENCE.

How Two Prisoners Used Their Brains to Save Their Lives.

The following is an incident of reconstruction days. Captain Ruble Clark and his lieutenant, Reynolds, guerrillas, were cast into prison, sentenced to be shot. Clark had powerful friends, who were confident of his release, but Reynolds, from Memphis, was without hope of success. The prison at Knoxville was a strong iron cage in a big room, whose window had no sign of a glass, and through the long winter Clark and Reynolds were confined there. For several months they suffered the agonies of the damned. At last, as the time for Reynolds' execution approached, it was noticed that he was going crazy. Clark declares to this day that Reynolds did not touch a morsel of food for three weeks. He would moan and sigh and twist his thumbs after the manner of a crazy person, recognize no one and laugh insanely in Clark's face whenever he tried to console him. Clark was sure of his insanity. Army surgeons and local physicians passed upon the case, and Reynolds was finally discharged as a lunatic. Clark's friends finally secured his release and hurried him out of Knoxville. Two entered a carriage with him—two of his old soldiers—and drove toward the mountains as hard as possible in the dead of night. Reaching a house in a dense forest, they stopped and asked him to follow them to a back room. The halls were darkened, and in the room there was only the light of a candle. On the bed in the corner lay a man, moaning, sighing, twisting his thumbs and giving other evidences of insanity. Clark recognized Reynolds.

"Poor, poor fellow," he said, leaning over the lieutenant to stroke his forehead. A tear came in his eye as he looked at the wreck of his faithful officer.

"Great God, captain, didn't I do it well?" he said.

They made all possible haste and soon reached New Orleans, where Clark felt that Reynolds would be comparatively safe. One night as they left the opera and had reached a lamp in the street an officer touched Clark on the shoulder.

"I want you," he said. "Make no fuss about it, but come quietly."

Clark pinched Reynolds' arm and signified that he must fly. The lieutenant needed no second warning. Then Clark asked the officer what he was wanted for.

"Hanging," said the latter. "I have been on your trail for three weeks."

"But maybe you have the wrong man. My name is Reuben Clark."

The officer took from his hip pocket a photograph of Reynolds and examined it and Clark under the lamp. Instantly he saw his mistake and began to swear.

"That is a likeness of my friend who has just left us," said Clark coolly. "His name is—"

"Reynolds!" shouted the officer. "I've got the wrong man!"

Well, Reynolds was never caught. He is living in Memphis today, I believe, and has grown rich. Clark is rich, too, but that long term in the iron cage affected his mind, and he is the most abandoned man in America.—New York Press.

CATARRH.

His Worst Enemy Defeated by

P. P. P., Lippman's

Great Remedy.

FOR THREE YEARS HE SUFFERED—COULD

HARDLY BREATHE AT NIGHT—ONE

NOSTRIL CLOSED FOR 10 YEARS.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of DeLeon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in his worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvellous. Instead of seeking his cure, and for the nights coming, he went to bed with terror, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him. He could not sleep on either side for two years. P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him in quick time.

THE STATE OF TEXAS—County of Comanche. Before the undersigned authority on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who, after being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him relative to the cure of P. P. P., medicine is true.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1891.

J. M. LAMBERT, N. P., Comanche County, Texas.

Catarrh Cured by P. P. P.

(Lippman's Great Remedy) where all other remedies failed. Rheumatism, twinges and distorts your hands and feet. Its agonies are intense, but speedily relieved and permanent cure is gained by the use of P. P. P. Woman's weakness, whether nervous or otherwise, can be cured and the system built up by P. P. P. A healthy woman is a beautiful woman. Pimples, blotches, eczema and all disfigurements of the skin are removed and cured by P. P. P. P. P. P. will restore your appetite, build up your system and regulate you in every way. P. P. P. removes that heavy, down-in-the-mouth feeling. For Blisters and Pimples on the face, take P. P. P. Ladies, for natural and thorough organic regulation, take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and get well at once.

GROVES Cotton.

With careful rotation of crops and liberal fertilizations, cotton lands will improve. The application of a proper fertilizer containing sufficient Potash often makes the difference between a profitable crop and failure. Use fertilizers containing not less than 3 to 4% Actual Potash. Kainit is a complete specific against "Rust."

Our pamphlets are not advertising circulars bearing special fertilizers, but are practical works, containing the results of latest experiments in this line. Every cotton farmer should have a copy. They are sent free for the asking.
