F. C. Nye and G. E. Lineberry returned from the Wake Forest commencement yesterday afternoon, and report a most delightful trip.

AS TO MR. LOCKE CRAIG. rather than a divided union. Many of our best men in the South held similar views. The Rev. Mr. Craig died leaving Locke and Braxton to the care of their mother, who, being without means to educate them, sent them to the University of the State, ran a boarding house and by that means educated her sons.
Letter From a Prominent Man Who Knows Him.
Hon. C. W. Mitchell, a prominent farmer and business man of Bertie county and whom his people have for years honored as their representative in the legislature and as State senator, writes the following letter to a citizen of Greenville that speaks for itself:
Aulander, N. C., May 23, 1908. Mr. Joseph Rawls, Greenville, N. C.
Dear Sir:—
Your letter received. I do not know the character of the slanders that are being used against Mr. Craig in your county. I desire to say that no man has ever lived and gone from Bertie county who is held in greater esteem by the best people of this county than Mr. Craig. Four years ago I represented this county in the legislature, the Democracy of the county without a dissenting voice instructed me to vote for him for U. S. Senator. I know that some of the men who were enthusiastic for him then are now retracting and trying to injure his good name. If by a united voice of the county he was worthy to represent the State of North Carolina in the U. S. Senate, surely he is worthy to be governor of the State. There has been no charge in the man in the last four years. I think I know Craig almost as well as myself. Both of us were born in Bertie county on the same day of the same year. His father was a strong Baptist preacher, coming to the county prior to the war and marrying a Baptist country woman. I am told that his father, who was not a resident of the South, when the question of secession was agitating the minds of the people, held views against secession and his sympathies were for a united

MR. KITCHIN TO SEN. SIMMONS. It is more serious to me than the opposition of the Southern Railway and the American Tobacco Company. It may be serious to the people. If the Senator and the ex-Governor now, cannot they and the one they name hereafter constitute a triumvirate, who will operate a more powerful machine in naming candidates than the one I am now up against? The Democratic party shall not, with my consent, fall under such a ring rule. Never before in the history of this State has such a bold attempt been made against the time-honored custom of letting the people choose their nominees free from the undue influence and hypnotic suggestions of the mighty ones whom the friends of all candidates have raised on high. After I am nominated I shall have the consolation of knowing that I made a bold and open fight with charity to all and malice towards none, and did it in my power to keep the Democracy near to the people and free from the baseness which ever threatens its usefulness as well as free from that wrongful influence of foreign corporations that ever seek unjust advantage over the public.
W. W. KITCHIN.
As a manufacturer but few, if any, men are furnishing employment to more labor than does Ashley Horne in the cotton factories, fertilizer factories and the various other industries with which he is associated. We Democrats have never nominated a manufacturer for Governor.
GREAT VICTORY PLEASES GLENN. Governor is Tired and Worn but Happy Over Result.
Tired and worn from a campaign of nearly two months, during which time he spoke nearly every day, Governor Glenn returned to Raleigh today from Winston-Salem, where yesterday he cast his vote for prohibition. He delivered an address there Sunday.
" You may say," said the governor, "that I am broken down, but am in splendid spirits. I am happier over the result of the election than I have been over anything in a long time."
Governor Glenn is considerably tanned from constant exposure to wind and weather and is hardly able to be up. He was at his office early today, however. — Evening Times.
We appeal to the merchants to support Ashley Horne. No business man has been named by the Democrats of North Carolina in 60 years.

THE VOTES FOR CON. KITCHIN FOR GOVERNOR.
MR. MANNING SAYS YESTERDAY GREATER THAN EXPECTED.
States That Kitchin Led Craig by Forty Four Votes, is Only Twelve Behind Craig Now and Will Lead Him This Week.
Mr. J. S. Manning, of Durham, the State manager for Hon. W. W. Kitchin in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor, last night telephoned the following statement to the News and Observer:
"The result from the counties holding primaries today gives Mr. Kitchin more votes than I estimated in the News and Observer on Thursday morning.
"The votes of today, as far as ascertained, gives Kitchin 54 61, Horne 12 or 13, Craig 10.65, making Kitchin's lead over Craig in these counties netting, practically 44 votes. This leaves Craig with a lead of only about 12 votes. Kitchin will lead in the primaries to be held this week, and will overcome this lead of Craig. I stand by my statement that Kitchin will lead Craig by 50 votes at Charlotte."—Raleigh News and Observer.
If elected, Mr. Horne will be Governor, and he will not use the great office as a stepping-stone to something higher.
FOUR BREAK JAIL.
Sometime after midnight Sunday night four colored prisoners made their escape from the county jail, and two of them are yet at large. Their names are John Teel, Jesse Valentine, Cleveland Taylor and Charles Williams. John Teel is the negro who made a dash for liberty, a few weeks ago, while being taken from court to jail, and was shot through the hip. Since being placed in jail, because of his wound as he was not confined in a cell with other prisoners, but was given a cot in the corridor where he could be better attended to. He had not walked at all since being shot but had made much complaint of his wound all the time, especially when an officer was around. Sunday night John got off his cot, took some pieces of iron from a stove in the corridor and broke the lock of the cell in which the other three were confined. Being released from the cell they found it easy to cut a hole through the brick wall and swing out to the ground.
Teel was soon captured, Williams came back and gave himself up, and officers are after the other two.
We Democrats have never nominated a merchant or business man for governor. Now is the time and Horne is the man.
MR. G. S. PRICHARD DEAD.

FOR GOVERNOR.
"MR. KITCHIN AND FUSION."
Chairman Howard A. Foushee Corrects New Bern Sun's Statement.
Durham, N. C., May 27, 1908. Mr. R. M. Phillips, Editor of New Bern Sun, New Bern, N. C.
Dear Sir:—Knowing you as I do, I was astonished to see in your paper of May 23rd your double column editorial entitled "Mr. Kitchin and fusion," in which you say that Mr. Butler fused with Mr. Kitchin in 1896 and gave him the populist vote against Mr. Settle, thereby bringing about what is claimed as a brilliant Democratic victory. This is unqualifiedly untrue. I was chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Durham county that year and a member of the Fifth district Democratic congressional executive committee and was then and have been since in close political touch with Mr. Kitchin. The populist chairman fused with Tom Settle and Mariu Butler did everything he could to get the populist vote for Tom Settle—confidential letters were sent out by the populist chairman urging the populists to vote for Settle. Some of them fell into the hands of the democrats and their contents were published throughout the district. After the campaign opened, it soon became apparent that Mr. Kitchin was getting the better of Mr. Settle and that many populists were going to leave their party and join the democrats and their own Mariu Butler had the populist vote in their congressional nomination and nominated Dr. A. J. Dalby, of Granville county, who has served as populist senator from that county. This nomination was brought about by the sole purpose of riding Mr. Settle.
In the interest of fair dealing, I request you to publish this letter and to correct effronterly the error into which you have fallen.
Yours truly,
HOWARD A. FOUSHEE, Ch'm Durham Co. Ed. Elections.

Mr. F. M. Hornaday Dead.
Information has been received by friends here of the death of Mr. Fred M. Hornaday which occurred in Roxboro Monday. He was a son of Rev. J. A. Hornaday who was recently pastor of the Methodist church in Greenville and made his home here for a few years. It is said he learned here with sorrow.
