Are You a Trust Buster?

Yes, YOU'RE the man we mean. You're always talking about the harm the trusts are doing. The country's going to the demnition bowwows, you say, because of the uncurbed trusts. Rich growing richer, poor getting poorer. Used to be that a poor man could go into business for himself in a modest way and make a good living. Now he must become a clerk or a roustabout or a hodearrier for some corporation-some combination that has grown to be a Goliath of bigness, that has devoured the fat of the land and is still gourmandizing upon it, +ill there's not a scrap of bone left for the under Didn't we see you stalk up to the postoffice just now and mail a letter with the address of a city Mail Order Store on the envelope? Hey? Didn't we?

Don't you know that the Mail Order Store is a trustone of the most dangerous in the crowd? Don't you know that it is secretly and silently and slyly closing the doors of opportunity to the young men in country towns and small cities like ours? Don't you know that the Mail Order Trust is collecting the patronage of town and country people by the mail route, thereby cutting down the patronage of the smaller merchant, the local man who is trying to build up a modest, independent, antitrust business?

Didn't that ever occur to you?
