The Philo-Allean Literary Society gave a most delightful entertainment Saturday night in their beautifully decorated hall. The boys of the Vance Literary Society were present to participate in the enjoyment, and the boys say that the time passed away so rapidly that they could not realize it. The program was to celebrate Washington's birthday and every part was most highly enjoyed.

Rev. C. L. Greaves, pastor of the first Baptist church in New Bern, will deliver the annual commencement sermon of Winterville High School Wednesday evening, May 12th. Rev. Mr. Greaves is a graduate of Prof. Lueberger, is one of the strongest preachers in the State. With Dr. Pate for the literary address, Mr. Greaves for the sermon, a strong debating team for the debate, a fine music class to furnish music and a plenty of other material for the concert, the commencement bids fair to be a record breaker.

TWO STORES ENTERED. There Was Only a Small Loss at Easter.

Sometime Saturday night two stores in town were broken into. One of the blinds of a tack window to the store of J. S. Mooring, on Five Points was prised off and entrance made through the window. A small quantity of stoff tobacco and flour are all that were missed from the store.

The store of C. D. Tunstall, on Dickinson avenue, was also broken into, entrance supposed to have been made by a false key. A few dollars in change left in the cash register is all that was missed.

Another Boy's Answer.

Dear Editor: I have seen in the Reflector that you want to find out when Pitt county was formed. This is my answer to your question which is correct as far as I know. Pitt county was formed in 1769 from Beaufort county, named in honor of William Pitt, of Chatham. Pitt county is also 820 square miles.

I found this answer in the North Carolina year book and business directory by the News and Observer.

Asher McLawhorn.

GOOD LINIMENT. You will hunt a good while before you find a preparation that is equal to Chamberlain's Liniment as a cure for muscular and rheumatic pains, for the cure of sprains and sores of the muscles. It is equally valuable for lame back and all deep seated muscular pains, and all contusions or sprains. J. L. Wooten and Coward & Wooten.

THE LEGISLATURE.

What Our Law Makers Are Doing at Raleigh. FORTY-NINTH DAY. SENATE.

This was the last day for the introduction of new bills, but only a few were offered. One by Senator Barringer was to establish a card index system for registering grants in the office of the secretary of State.

Senator Ormond offered a bill providing for the appointment of a commission to investigate the needs of the State, prepare plans and specifications for needed buildings and report to the session of 1911.

HOUSE. The house also had some new bills but none of them of special importance.

The bill to submit to a vote of the people an amendment to the constitution relative to repeal of homestead exemption was killed on third reading.

The bill to allow married women to contract as if unmarried was also killed.

FIFTIETH DAY. In both branches the day was taken up mainly in considering old matters that had been set for special order. In the house the trust bill passed just like it came from the senate, this being the Blow-Bassett substitute for the Lockhart bill.

The night session of the senate was devoted to consideration of the revenue bill.

FIFTY-FIRST DAY. Both branches had a busy day clearing up the calendar and getting the work completed ready for adjournment.

The house killed the bill to license people who drink, and the bill to allow osteopaths to practice in the State hospitals was also turned down. A resolution was passed to add fifty cents per day to the pay of clerks and laborers in the house.

The senate completed the consideration of the revenue bill, and also gave a number of bills their final passage. A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a public grounds commission to investigate congested conditions in the departments and recommend plans for adequate buildings, their report to be made to the legislature of 1911. Ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis was named as one of the members of this commission.

In naming the boards of education for the several counties, the same board for Pitt county is re-appointed—A. G. Cox, L. C. Arthur and M. O. Blount.

FIFTY-SECOND DAY. Saturday both the senate and house had busy days clearing up the calendars and trying to get ready for adjournment. It became evident that the work could not be completed Monday, and Representative Julian got the pledge of a considerable majority of the members of the house that they would hold over Tuesday without pay in order to get through with some matters yet pending.

It was also a day of incidents in the house. A silver service was presented to Speaker Graham and a dozen silver spoons to Chief Clerk Cobb. There were also resolutions of thanks to the speaker, speakers protem and clerks. Representative Dowd, of Mecklenburg, gave the session somewhat of a stir when he had recalled a bill, passed during his absence the day before, in regard to placing a history written by Capt. S. A. Ashe in the public schools of the State. This history discredits the date of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, May 20th, 1776, and Mr. Dowd did not want any reflection cast on that event the authenticity of which has been established and recognized by both state and national governments. Mr. Dowd defended his ground well and the bill was recalled.

The bill to place certain officers of Pitt county on salary was passed at the night session. The bill does not go into effect until December, 1910, therefore will not affect any of the present officers.

The chief sensation in the senate was a protest by Senator Lockhart against the passage of Blow-Bassett substitute for his anti-trust bill which he wanted spread upon the senate journal. In his protest Senator Lockhart called the substitute the "Blow-Bassett blowout substitute" and said it was "worthless and toothless." Senator Bassett objected to the protest being spread upon the journal as it showed disrespect to the senate and the whole general assembly. The matter was discussed and then went over to Monday for Senator Lockhart to remodel the protest and modify his objectionable language.

Senator Barringer introduced a bill to establish a reformatory for the criminal colored youth of the State, which was opposed by Senator Holden on the ground that it is equivalent to putting a premium on crime, offering to the negro youth an education, clothing and all earthly needs if he will steal a chicken.

The senate passed quite a number of bills on third reading in the effort to finish up the work of the session.

The thanks of the senate were extended to the Capital club of Raleigh for courtesies to the general assembly during its session.

A resolution of thanks to Lieutenant-Governor Newland for the able manner in which he has presided over the senate was adopted. He was also presented a silver service.

Senator Whitehead Klutz, senator protem, was extended a vote of thanks, as were also the different clerks and their assistants.

The clerks presented Chief Clerk Maxwell a cane. The senators presented Mr. Staley, the sergeant-at-arms, with a watch and the laborers presented him a signet ring. Mr. DeBoy, assistant, was also presented a watch and signet ring, and he presented flowers to every senator, clerk, page and laborer of the body. Reading Clerk Squires was presented a cane.

The first business of the house that began early was to pass the omnibus magistrate bill. A large number of bills passed third reading, but one to tax dogs was tabled.

Reading Clerk Phillips was presented an Elk's badge; Mr. Kilpatrick, the sergeant-at-arms, a cane, and some of the clerks also received testimonials for their efficiency. Speaker protem Barrington was presented a cane and assistant door keeper D. H.

James a watch. The house continued in the night session until after one o'clock trying to get through, but had to leave some business over for today.

Everything was finished up today and adjournment sine die of both branches was at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CORN JUDGING DAY.

GREAT GATHERING OF FARMERS AT HERTFORD. An Occasion That Means Much to Farming Interests of Eastern North Carolina.

Mr. J. F. Evans, agent for Pitt county of the Farmers Co-operative Demonstration work, returned this morning from the corn growers meeting held in Hertford on the 9th, and dropped in to give The Reflector a report of the meeting.

There were estimated to be between 1,000 and 1,200 farmers present, practically every county in the first district being represented. Those from Pitt in attendance were J. F. Evans, J. T. Thorne, A. J. Moye, W. M. McArthur, J. B. Speight, S. H. Smith, S. C. Whitehead and Peyton Atkinson.

There were 213 different exhibits of corn, 35 ears to each exhibit, some of it as fine as was ever seen anywhere.

The meeting was called to order by Congressman John H. Small, by whose efforts it had been arranged, and whose work in behalf of the farmers of his district is well known to all.

Mr. W. A. Graham, State commissioner of agriculture, made an address along general agricultural lines. Mr. Kile, of the bureau of plant industry, Washington, D. C., spoke on seed breeding and selection. J. P. Campbell spoke on preparation of the seed bed. C. K. Hudson, State agent of the Farmers Co-operative Demonstration work, spoke on cultivation of crops.

At 1 p. m. dinner was served the entire assembly by the citizens of Perquimans county who showed the visitors every attention.

At the afternoon session an educational address was delivered by Dr. D. H. Hill, of the A. & M. College, who was followed by J. O. Wright, civil engineer and drainage expert, and several others in interesting short talks.

The judges of the corn exhibit were T. B. Parker, C. R. Hudson, C. B. Williams and J. P. Campbell. Congressman Small offered three prizes for the best exhibit, $5, $3 and $2, respectively. The first prize was awarded to Mr. Stokesberry, of Pungo; the second to C. C. Archbell, of Aurora; the third to J. H. Carter, of Pungo.

A Corn Growers' Association for the first district was organized with the following officers: President—T. W. Blount, of Washington county. Vice Presidents—Frank Wood, of Chowan county; R. O. Bagley, of Currituck county; Jonathan Havens, of Beaufort county. Secretary and Treasurer—T. E. Brown, of Hertford county.

R. O. Bagley, of Currituck, had about 400 ears of fine seed corn at the meeting which was donated for distribution among the exhibitors.

Mr. Evans says the meeting at Hertford was one of the most interesting he ever attended, and he feels sure that much good will result from it. He is going to use his efforts to have a similar meeting held in Pitt county.

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 5.—Just after hearing of a retailing case before the recorder this morning, Policeman N. B. Williams accosted Hen. J. C. Buxton, a prominent local lawyer, who represented the defendant on trial, just outside the court room and demanded that the lawyer cease his attacks upon him (Williams) in his arguments. It is alleged that the officer had his hand on his pistol and Mr. Buxton promptly returned to the court room and asked for protection, saying that if such men are to be assaulted by lawyers as Williams it was time for him to be removed from the police force. Mr. Buxton also charged Williams with being under the influence of liquor.

Wilson, N. C., March 5.—All kinds of rumors as to the cause of the death of Jonathan Parriner, a prominent planter of the Black Creek section, have reached this city. The latest report from Black Creek is to the effect that when the storm was at its worst, Mr. Farriner, who was attending to some duty around his barns, became so badly frightened that he died in his tracks. Deceased was about sixty-two years old and leaves a family.

Asheville, N. C., March 5.—A special today from Sylva, Jackson county, says: Four unsuccessfull attempts have been made during the past few days to burn up the Jackson county jail, at Webster. The attempts have been unsuccessful because of the activities of the prisoners and Sheriff Worley.

Winston-Salem, March 6.—K. Renigar, a wealth ex saloon keeper here, was declared guilty of retailing in the recorder's court this morning, and sentenced to the county roads for twelve months. Through his counsel Renigar appealed to Superior court.

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 6.—R. H. Smith, of Greensboro, engineer on local freight train No. 160, castboard, on the Atlantic and Yadkin railroad, was killed about two miles west of Walnut Cove at 10 o'clock this morning by his engine turning over.

Winston-Salem, March 6.—While brooding over family troubles, Adolphus Thomas, a well-known farmer residing a few miles south of town, attempted suicide last evening by tying a rope around his neck and leaping out of his barn window. He was found unconscious by a member of the family and was in a dying condition. Blood was flowing from his nose and mouth. Little hope is entertained for his recovery. Thomas has a wife and several children.

Raleigh, March 6.—A. L. Sainsting, of this city, shot himself at his home on West Johnson street early this morning. The ball entered his head just over the right eye and he died a few hours later.

FUGI MOUNTAIN.

The Spell Cast by Japan's Matchless Cone of Pearl.
Other mountains may be painted with some fair degree of truth and justice—even the beautiful Jungfrau—but not Fuji. Its loveliness is so delicate and its moods so ever changing and evanescent that no painter could hope to accomplish its only to give some faint idea of its charm of a moment. The spell cast by the softness, grace and symmetry of that matchless cone of pearl floats in the sky is far beyond his reach.

Every nature worshiper visiting Japan has fallen in adoration at the foot of Fuji, and foreign writers and poets have followed their Japanese brethren in vainly attempting to describe the feelings which which they have inspired.

Who that has seen the snow clad crest gleaming so white and pure against the deep blue of the winter sky can doubt that the mountain is worthy of all the praise that has been bestowed upon it, and more.

It is not only the physical charms of the mountain that captivate the soul, but the spiritual atmosphere that surrounds it. The mountain is a shrine of the gods, and the clouds that surround it are the breath of the divine. The mountain is a shrine of the gods, and the clouds that surround it are the breath of the divine.

Geologists say that Fuji is but a young volcano, not yet having developed its beauty by bursting the crater rim—a fate that usually overtakes mountains of this nature sooner or later.

A HARD TASKMASTER.

Agassiz Forced His Pupils to Find Out
When I set me down before my tin pen Agassiz brought me a small fish, placing it before me with the rather stern requirement that I should study it, but should on no account talk to any one concerning it or read anything concerning fishes until I had his permission. I did not know what to do. "What shall I do?" he said in effect: "Find out what you can without damaging the specimen. When I think that you have done the work I will tell you to do the next day."

"Good morning!" At length on the seventh day came the question, "Well? and my discharge of learning to him as he sat on the edge of my table, pulling his chair. At the end of the hour's lecture he swung off and away, saying, "That is not right."

I went at the task again, discarded my first notes, and in another week had another set of notes. I had results which astonished myself and satisfied him. Still there was no trace of praise in his words or manner. It was not until the next day, by his side before me about a half a pack of bones, telling me to see what I could make of them. He had three directions to guide me. Two months or more went to this task, with no other help than an occasional looking over my growing notes. "That is not right," "That is not right." Finally the task was done, and I was again set upon alcohol specimens. — "Autobiography of Professor Silliman" in Atlantic.

HE FED THE STAFF.

Five Dinner For a Hungry Crowd on a
Years ago the late Senator E. W. Carmack was called to the Nashville, Tenn., at a dinner that had a peculiar character. It was a dinner on Thanksgiving day.

When the staff came around on Thanksgiving afternoon Carmack told them the circumstances that the paper was dead and that they were all without jobs. This was sadder than it seems now, for the paper had not been paying salaries for some time.

"Thank you, boss," replied the waiter, "thank you, boss, but about this thing check of $10.00 for that dinner you all just had?"
"Yes," exclaimed Carmack, "what is your status here? Are you a waiter or are you the financial manager of this concern?"
"Well, boss, I'm only a waiter."

Miss May Brooks went to Grifton Saturday to spend Sunday with her people and returned Monday morning. Mrs. Pattie F. Smith, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. P. Willoughby last week, returned home Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Willoughby and children were with us Sunday evening at our Sunday school. Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Smith, Mr. F. M. and Miss Rosa Smith, D. Smith, Mrs. Mills Smith and T. E. Little attended the burial of Mrs. Zilphia Taylor near Farmville Friday evening. Mrs. Taylor was in good health Wednesday. She went to help one of her neighbors quilt and late in the evening in returning home she stopped at Mrs. Olla Burnett's to spend a short time with her. She was soon taken with a severe head trouble. A physician was summoned who said he could not have done her any good if he had been present when she was first taken. She will be greatly missed in her community and in the church. She was looked to as first by all in the neighborhood and church. She leaves five children, three sons and two daughters, all married except one son. She was about sixty years of age. "Aunt Puss" as they all called her is gone but not forgotten. We extend much sympathy to all her relatives and friends.

PROF. H. A. HOWELL OF HAVANA, CUBA, RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. "As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's African School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe coughing fit, his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by J. L. Wooten and Coward & Wooten.

WAKE UP, MAN. Tell us, are you advertising in the same old foolish way that your granddad did before you, and persist, "It doesn't pay?" The whole world knows your address "Cause it hasn't changed in years?" Wouldn't the pathos of such a gig drive a silly-guy to tears? "Just a card" is all you care for, H-I-Cen, lonesome old man, Give the sign upon a tombstone: "Telling folks that you are dead, Bunch your hair and make a drive, Run a race, and change your copy, ADVERTISE and keep alive!" —Es.

UNEQUAL AS A CURE FOR CROUP "Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a cure for croup," says Harry Wilson, of Waukegan, Ind. FRIDAY MAR. 12 1909.

Teddy, get your gun.

Roosevelt is out of it and Taft will now hold down the lid.

Congress killed the ship subsidy bill. Good for congress.

The ground hog gave Washington a mess for the inauguration.

Raleigh will now have to look to herself for interest for some time.

Tornadoes are beginning their work of destruction early this season.

The New Bern Sun has coined a new word, but we will not quote it.

Some of the towns are having a clean up day. It would not be bad if all had them.

When Charlotte gets a new charter and Greensboro gets the State capitol—yes, when.

Now see if you can make the second week in March land something for Greenville.

Guess the ground hog squinted his eye over what he thinks March is going to do for us.

After it is over you are going to hear that pickpockets reaped a harvest at the inauguration.

It is more than likely that Crum will get his reward for letting Mr. Taft out of a bad job.

As soda fountains now run all winter they do not have to wait for warm weather to begin sizzing.

They could get plenty of material for an Annapolis club out of the witnesses in the Cooper trial.

March makes one score for Greenville in promising the early erection of a municipal building.

A booster can talk all he pleases, but a kicker should learn to keep quiet in seventeen languages.

Hunting something to fill up the papers with will be harder now since the legislature has adjourned.

Maybe there is some excuse for the weather man, as it changes so often it is hard to guess right.

Friday was hangedman's day in Louisiana, seven men, all negroes, being executed in that State that day.

It will not take long to see if President Taft is going to make good on his expressed feelings toward the South.

A term on the roads for every convicted offender is a good way to check the sale of whiskey through blind tigers.

The members of the legislature have certainly earned their money the past week holding three sessions a day.

The South Carolina legislature beat the North Carolina brethren out a little and adjourned a few days ahead of them.

A barefoot dance is the latest fad in New York society. We hope there will be no effort to imitate it down this way.

No more legislature for two years, as it is not likely the one just adjourned will have to be called into extra session for anything.

The folks who use advertising space in The Reflector would not do so if it did not pay them. A hint to those who are not advertising.

Don't wait on your planning if you want March to keep up with preceding months of the year in bringing things around for Greenville.

The talking baby has bobbed up again, one being reported from Roanoke, Va., that is doing tongue stunts at the age of three weeks.

Kinston had a big controversy at home over the question of establishing a recorder's court and then lost it on the last day of the legislature.

The Durham Sun expresses much in few words when it says "Our national income is ample. It is national outgo that is foolish and wasteful."

The Reflector expects Chief Smith is going to make a better record for tiger catching in Greenville than Mr. Roosevelt is going to make in Africa.

The Greensboro Record insinuates that there is something behind that note of thanks the legislature extended to the Capital Club for its many courtesies.

At the next municipal election Greenville will elect her mayor by popular vote. The town could vote a long time and not get any better mayor than at present.

A fellow will sometimes say his hands are tied, meaning that he cannot do what he wants to. It might not be inappropriate to also say that he is tongue-tied.

Since Mr. Roosevelt was so partial to Crum he might take the latter along with him to Africa. Charleston would readily consent to losing him for the time being.

If Roosevelt goes to Africa in the North Carolina, he should be careful how he climbs into the big bath tub aboard for Mr. Taft. It is an easy way for him to get lost.

Dr. Moye gets off a good one. He says that when Mr. Taft spent the previous night with Mr. Roosevelt, and on inauguration morning looked out on two inches of snow, he said "I knew it would be a cold day when I got to be president." "Yes," added Mr. Roosevelt, "and I knew I would get out in a blizzard."

The papers are now busy keeping up with what President Taft does on Sundays. Whether he rides or walks, or does anything Rooseveltian, makes an item for the watchful reporters.

The negroes of Washington City have presented Senator Foraker with a massive silver loving cup in appreciation of his efforts in behalf of the discharged negro soldiers at Brownsville.

One thing that has been noticeable about the legislature is that the members have been voting according to what they thought and not according to what was said to them on the outside.

The recent South Carolina legislature passed a law making it a misdemeanor for a newspaper to publish the name of the victim of a criminal assault. Some strange laws do sort on the statute books.

With the inauguration, congress, legislature and the Cooper trial soon out of the way, baseball can have a clear right of way without any other promised interference except school commencements.

PRESIDENT TAFT'S ADDRESS.

From his inaugural address Thursday it is evident that President Taft will follow to the letter the policies of ex-President Roosevelt. In fact he said:

"I should be untrue to myself, to my promises and to the declarations of the party platform upon which I was elected to office, if I did not make the maintenance and enforcement of those reforms a most important feature of my administration. They were directed to the suppression of the lawlessness and abuses of power of the great combinations of capital invested in railroads and industrial enterprises carrying on interstate commerce.

"The steps which my predecessor and the legislation passed on his recommendation have accomplished much, have caused a general halt in the vicious policies which created popular alarm, and have brought about, in the regard for existing law."

President Taft went on to urge relief of railroads from certain restrictions of the anti-trust law, and urged legislation giving federal supervision and restriction to prevent excessive issue of bonds and stocks by companies owning and operating interstate railroads.

Other topics outlined in his address were to safeguard all legitimate business and to make such revision of the tariff as will restore confidence. He wants such adjustment as will wipe out the hundred million dollars annual deficit in the treasury. He wants the Panama canal to be paid for with bonds, wants a proper army and navy and suitable fortifications maintained, and says "a strong navy is the best conservator of peace."

He expressed hope for the increase of good feeling toward the South and said it was his purpose to effect a change in the Southern electoral vote.

The program committee of the teachers' meeting have been fortunate enough to secure the presence of Prof. J. Henry Highsmith for their meeting Saturday night, the 12th, for the benefit of the school and request all that can attend and help a good cause.

Bruton Bryan and Hugh Smith, of Winterville, were visiting in Smithtown Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Smith went to Farmville this morning. Eld. E. B. Joyner, of the Ayden seminary, came to May's chapel Saturday night and preached one of the best sermons that we have heard in a long time. It was said by one brother that it was the best sermon that he ever heard preached in that church. Elder Joyner also preached very good and instructive sermons Sunday morning and night to large congregations, and we hope he will come again.

One of the most disastrous storms passed through our section last Wednesday about 2 o'clock that we ever had here. It blew down buildings, uprooted trees, broke down large trees, tore orchards to pieces and completely demolished Mills Smith's packhouse, blew B. P. Cobb's pack house off the pillars and took the roofing off his dwelling, set Job Tyson, Jr.'s house off its foundation, and did considerable other damage in the neighborhood.

Man Killed at Shalmerdine. At Shalmerdine this morning two young colored men, Lawrence Taylor and Ed Harris, got into a row over a pair of gloves when Harris drew a pistol and shot Taylor twice through the head, killing him almost instantly. The body of Taylor was shipped to Whitakers, his former home, this afternoon.

Next Friday Night. There will be an entertainment at Smith's school house, in Beaver Dam township, on Friday night, March 12th, for the benefit of the school. A good program will be rendered.

The good people of our section had choir practice at Smith's school house Friday night. Mrs. C. D. Smith and Miss Mattie Little went to Greenville Saturday.

We had the best Sunday school Sunday evening at Smith's school house that we've had during this quarter. The whooping cough is played out so the children can attend.

C. D. Smith went to Greenville Saturday on business. Miss Rosa D. Smith was visiting at Farmville a portion of last week. Miss Cecil Nichols, of Pockitink, was visiting at Mills Smith's Sunday.

ANIMALS AND EARTHQUAKES. Forelight Displaced by Beasts Before Great Calamities.

A prominent Italian family in Messina was saved from death during the earthquake by a pet cat, says the Anderson Daily Mail. Several minutes before the shock came the cat aroused the father by unusual and continued cries and an attempt to get from the room.

Apprehending some great danger he pulled the wife and children from their beds in time to save them from the falling house. For a week he remained in Messina looking after the wounded. He never saw the cat after the shock.

When the earthquake destroyed Caracas a citizen owned a very fine stallion. He had become so vicious that he was confined in a large stall and taken out only when his keeper was on hand. Just before the earthquake came he tore down his stable, made a wild rush from the city and next morning he was found twenty miles away in the mountains.

How do scientific men and students of psychology account for the foresight of animals by which they are warned of impending calamity? asks an exchange. It is well known that cattle and other animals show signs of terror before approach earthquakes. "There are more things in Heaven and earth than are dreamt of in your philosophy."—Charlotte News.

DAMAGE BY THE STORM.

Much Worse Than at First Supposed.

Since telephone lines have recovered from the effects of Wednesday's storm, more reports of damage have come in.

Around Farmville the storm was very severe. The tops were blown off of several freight cars standing on the railroad tracks, the roof was blown off a colored school house, a colored lodge building was lifted off the underpinning and let down on the ground, a market building was blown down and the chimneys
to a number of houses torn off.

The roof of the home of Mr.
J. H. Cobb, in Beaver Dam township, was blown off and the rain in so that his furniture was badly damaged.

The Jackson school, taught by Miss Arsh Davis, in Contentnea township was thrown into a panic.
There were 25 or 30 children in the building and while Miss Davis was standing in the door watching the storm the wind tore the door from its hinges, so frightening her that she fainted. The wind lifted the building off the foundations and moved it about six feet. Two or three of the children were slightly hurt, one of them getting a broken finger.

KILLS WOULD-BE SLAYER.

A man whose murderer is apprehended with many victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills did it by prevention.
They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, preventing that clogging that invites appendicitis, curing constipation, biliousness, chills, malaria, dysentery and indigestion. 25c at all

FOUND IN CHOWAN RIVER.

Man Missing for Over Two Months.

John H. Mayo, of Tarboro, who was in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Company as a lineman, suddenly disappeared on the 23rd of December last, and though diligent search was made for him it was fruitless. About 10 o'clock Friday morning two fishermen found his body floating in Chowan river near Tunis. The body was so mutilated from its long stay in the water, the skin and hair all being gone from the face and head, that it could only be identified by an overcoat and letters in the pockets. Mayo was 26 years old and is survived by one brother and two sisters.

Ancient Boats

Joseph Hopkins, who lives near Spring Hope, has a pair of fine calf skin boots of which he has been the possessor 48 years.

These boots were made for him
by Phil Tidale, who was a boot maker at Nashville before the war. They were cut from choice parts of four calf skins. Mr.
Hopkins wore them for two years all the time, during the time married Miss Rennie Cellins, and he wore the boots, too, for ladies and gentlemen, in those days it was not permissible that a man merry unless he had boots. Then Mr. Hopkins volunteered and for three years did valiant service for the Southern Confederacy. During the three years he wore the boots constantly. Today these boots are at his home oiled and in good condition.
If it ever becomes a popular thing to wear boots again these calf skins are no doubt good for five ears more of constant service.—Spring Hope Leader.

Broken Will.

Where there is a will there's a way to break it. Your will may be broken. So that your beneficiaries will lose your bequest to them. But a life insurance policy cannot be tampered with by anyone. It provides comfort for your loved ones, no matter how entangled your estate may be. The Mutual life of N. Y. stands head.

An Effective Sample

A clergyman was very fond of a particularly hot brand of pickles, and finding great difficulty in procuring the same sort at hotels when traveling, always carried a bottle with him. One day when dining at a restaurant with his pickles in front of him,
a stranger sat down at the same table, and, with an American accent, presently asked the minister to pass the pickles. The minister who enjoyed the joke, politely passed the bottle, and in a few minutes had the satisfaction of seeing the Yankee watering at the eyes and gasping for breath.

"I guess," said the latter,
"that you are a parson?"

"Yes, my friend, I am," replied the minister.

"I suppose you preach?" asked the Yankee.

"Yes, sir; I preach twice a week, usually," said the minister.

"Do you ever preach about Hell fire?" inquired the Yankee.

"Yes, I sometimes consider it my duty to remind my congregation of eternal punishment," returned the minister.

"I thought so," rejoined the Yankee, "but you are the first of your class I ever met who carried samples."—Exchange.

"A Good Ad."

The women of a church in a suburb of Chicago were soliciting money to pay for decorating their house of worship. They were told diplomatically, that if they would call on Casey, who kept the leading saloon in the village, they might get a good donation. They called. Casey met them genially, listened to what they had to say and promptly subscribed $300.

This was so much more than the solicitors had hoped for that they were much flustered, and could do nothing but stammer their thanks. Finally one of them rounded to and said:

"Why, Mr. Casey, this is most generous of you. It will allow us to get what we want very much—a fine stained glass window."

"And, Mr. Casey, said the spokeswoman, "in view of the most magnificent donation, isn't there some sentiment you would like to put on the windows?"

"Well, said Casey, "I think it would be fine to have on the glass, because th' two parus at it, in nate letters, somethin'
like this: 'Ather Mass Visit Casey's!'"

SANS SOUCI CLUB.

Reported for Editor:

The Sans Souci club was most delightfully entertained on Thursday afternoon by Miss Luz Jones. After dispensing with the business and the passing of the books, the literary program for the afternoon was enjoyed. This consisted of an interesting sketch of Mrs.
Crowning's life very charmingly read by Miss Irma Cobb and two of her selections read by Miss Keanne Ragsdale.

The hostess then furnished us with a romance of Romeo and Juliet, the blanks to be filled in with some of Shakespeare's plays.

Mrs. Charlie Forbes and Miss Keanne Ragsdale cutting for the prize, Miss Ragsdale was the lucky and happy winner of a very attractive book of toasts.

Delicious refreshments were then served in two courses,
after which the club adjourned to meet with Miss Irma Cobb on Tuesday afternoon March 6th.

We were delighted to have with us Misses Jeffress, of Chase City, Va., Gertrude Williams, of Baltimore and Ellen Parker, of Washington, N. C.

No Charge at the Rest Rooms.

It has been stated that some people throughout the county have the idea that there is a charge for using the Rest Rooms that have been opened in Greenville under the management of The King's Daughters, but this is a mistake. The use of the rooms is entirely free to all ladies coming in from the country or neighboring towns to spend a day here, and they are invited to call in and rest any time they please or leave their wraps or parcels there while out shopping or visiting. A matron is in charge of the rooms to wait on the ladies and to take care of their wraps and packages, and it is all without any charge whatever to the visitors.
