MR SMALL'S POSITION.

Cannot Personally Favor Any Particular Site for Public Building. Washington, N. C., May 28, 1909. Editor Reflector: In view of a number of letters which I have received from prominent citizens of Greenville, regarding the selection of a suitable site for the proposed public building in Greenville, I deem it proper to make a public statement of my attitude regarding the matter. I ought not, and I cannot, take a position favoring or opposing any particular site. This is exclusively a local matter, and should be left to the citizens of Greenville to determine.

SEEKER AFTER INFORMATION.

Questions Passed Up to the Town Officials. Greenville, N. C. May 29, 1909. Dear Mr. Editor: I noticed with gratitude a corner set apart for women in Friday's paper. I am sure every woman in town thanks you. Now in consequence of this space you have so kindly given, I make bold to beg a little information, trusting that this may not be in vain. First, Can you tell me on what days the trash man goes north and south, and east and west? I am continually in dread of some one's complaining of my trash box as a nuisance on the street, yet I dare not move it for fear he will pass just at that time. "But he has not passed yet." If you will publish a schedule of his trips it will be greatly appreciated. Second, If you are unable to do this, can you tell this ignorant man who to apply to for the above information. Third, Can you give me the name of the sanitary inspector? As he has not called thus far, I should like to have him inspect my premises, and see that there is nothing to endanger the health of my neighbors or my family. Any light on the subject will be appreciated. Very cordially, Mrs. Information Seeker.

JONES-TUNSTALL.

A Pretty Evening Marriage of Popular Couple. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Tunstall, their daughter, Miss Minnie Thorpe, was married to Mr. J. Arthur Jones, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. At the front hall door was Mr. K. R. Tunstall, of Kinston, with Miss Minnie Ruth Tunstall, sister of the bride, received the guests. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Tunstall were at the west parlor door and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hall were at the east parlor door. At the punch bowl, Mr. T. M. Hooker with Miss Vernessa Smith. At 6:45 Mrs. W. L. Hall sang "Because" and charmed all present with her sweet voice. Mrs. T. E. Hooker then sang "O, Promise Me," to the delight of all present. While the singing was accompanied by Mrs. J. L. Carper in her happy mood and mastery touch, the guests were arranged to await the arrival of the bride and groom. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Carper. Miss Mattie Phillips, of Kinston, entered the parlor as bridesmaid, then followed the groom with his best man, Mr. C. H. Ferguson, and following came the bride, leading on the arm of her father. She wore a traveling suit of green with hat to match and carried bride roses. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. W. Arnold, pastor of the bride.

BURN THE TRASH.

Timely Suggestion to Help Keep the Town Clean. Dear Mr. Editor: As another Monday has passed and the trash man has not passed, we have to say a few words in behalf of our town officials. In your reply to Mrs. Information Seeker last Friday, you stated that as there was so much work to be done, the trash man was unable to make his usual rounds. We are glad that the street force is busily engaged, and while some may say that the force is inadequate, and should be increased, we must all remember that Greenville's treasury cannot be overloading, on account of recent heavy drains. Therefore it is incumbent on every citizen to do all he can to help these good officials keep the town free of rubbish and trash. We have noticed in several places that piles of paper and trash have been burned. Now this is a good example to be followed by everyone, and it is amazing how the town work of carting away the trash could be lightened if every householder would do the same thing. Let us, therefore, work together, and by burning everything that can be burned, lighten the work of the town officials in keeping the streets clean of loose paper and trash. A Helper.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Hall at Covenant Lodge No. 17, I. O. O. F. Whereas, an Allwise Providence has seen fit to take from this world the soul of our beloved brother, Dr. J. N. Bynum; therefore be it resolved: 1st. That in the death of Brother J. N. Bynum our lodge loses one of its oldest and faithful members, the county one of its best and truest citizens. 2nd. That we, the members of Covenant Lodge, deeply mourn the loss that has come upon us by the death of Brother Bynum, and feel that a place is made vacant that will be hard to fill. 3rd. That we extend to the bereaved family of Brother Bynum our heartfelt sympathy in their great loss, and would commend them to Him who doeth all things well, who alone can comfort them in their sad bereavement. 4th. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother, and a copy spread on our minutes, and that a copy be sent to The Reflector for publication. D. C. Moore, L. H. Mr. Wilkinson says this is easy done, as the liberal conditions of the old Mutual Life appeals to the people taking sound insurance. FRIDAY JUNE 4 1909.

Patten stands pat on the wheat situation.

"Even a blind tiger" can see things sometime.

The man who talks against his town discredits himself.

City politics will have the right of way this week.

Tax listing has begun, and the day of our lamentation is at hand.

The commencement orator has about finished his job for this season.

We wish the stay of The King's Daughters had been longer.

It is getting time to lose the Thaw name and quit putting it in the papers.

Beginning with June Acts 5:1-9 is suggested as timely reading for tax listers.

Greenville should do things to draw people to the town, not drive them away.

The crop of June poor people will be as large as usual. Tax listing time you know.

The seashore and mountain resorts are opening and the summer exodus will follow.

The strike scene has changed, and Philadelphia is having it with the street car men.

Mr. North, director of the census, did not like the way things were going and has resigned.

Trying to win favor by misrepresentations and false accusations does not pay even in politics.

The Durham Herald thinks if the country ever gets tariff reform it will have to look to a new party.

In the depot at Charlotte is a barrel of liquor that is begging for an owner. Punch the bung out and let it go.

Chicago was shaken by an earthquake shock on Wednesday. That city is bad enough for something to shake it.

A lady remarked that hearing the honk of automobiles running along paved streets made Greenville look very much like a city.

Since it was announced that Charlotte has above 45,000 population, Greensboro has set about to have another city directory made.

A Georgia man who escaped prison thirty-two years ago was recently re-arrested and returned to prison. He is now 75 years of age and made a fortune in the West while a fugitive.

July first is the date suggested by which the special session of congress will adjourn. So there will be another month of the agony.

Petersburg, Va., held a prohibition election Thursday, and the city voted "wet" by a large majority. That is a reflection on the city.

The month of May gave us only one new enterprise to record for Greenville—an automobile garage. Let us hope the month of June will do better.

Charlotte has evidently set about to break up the near beer selling in that city. The aldermen have levied a license tax of $1,000 per year for selling the stuff.

The strike on the Georgia Railroad has come to an end and trains are running again. The differences with the engineers have been submitted to arbitration.

Those fellows who want to hold an indignation meeting to denounce President Taft for appointing Judge Connor, must have time hanging heavy on their hands.

You can't always go by a name. The town of Zephyr, in Texas, was struck by a tornado that almost demolished it. Thirty-two persons were killed outright and fifty others wounded.

The tariff agitation in congress has warmed up until it is leading to blows. Senator Bailey, of Texas and a New York newspaper man got in a scrap the other day and exchanged licks at each other. They had all better quit and go home.

A Fayetteville bigamist who had been married five times was given a five years' sentence of imprisonment, just one year for each wife. Three of his wives were in court to testify against him and had their photograph taken together.

The result of the primary for mayor Tuesday shows that a great majority of the people of Greenville have not lost interest in the welfare of the town. Now let the same good common sense prevail in the ward primaries for aldermen Friday night.

From the way somebody was counting votes beforehand that he was going to be in the primary, and the number actually received, it is inferred that he must have been taking lessons from a Greensboro directory maker and learned how to count names that were not.

The Chronicle says that fully half a dozen men in Charlotte are ready to fork over the $1,000 license tax on "near beer" saloons imposed by the aldermen. There must be an immense profit in selling the stuff, or perhaps, it is easy to operate a "blind tiger" in connection.

Either several of the Democratic senators and congressmen are wrong in their views on the tariff, or the Democratic platform is wrong on that question. The way these senators and congressman are speaking and voting is much at variance with the declarations of the platform.

A party of congressmen under the chaperonage of Congressman John H. Small is making a trip of inspection of the North Carolina section of the inland waterway. Congressman Small has been a great factor in interesting the government in the waterway and its accomplishment is due largely to his efforts.

In order to give points to immigrants coming over, the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society of New York will put lecturers on each of the big liners, who, by means of addresses in the immigrants' native language, as well as by moving pictures, will point out the disadvantages of life in the American cities and the advantages of life on the farms.—N. Y. Herald.

One Southern Democratic senator wants protection on lumber, another wants it on that new fangled tan bark, another wants it on sugar, and so it goes. Just as well fall in line with the straight-out Republican policy of protection and go the whole thing flat footed. There seems to be no use of putting "tariffs for revenue only" planks in Democratic platforms any more.

"It is getting time that some of the big excursions were being brought to Raleigh," says The Evening Times of that city. Just wait until June 20th, brother, and you will see one roll in that is worth looking at. The Baraca class of Memorial Baptist Sunday school will take a big part of Greenville to Raleigh that day, and they are going to take possession of the capital for the time being.

When a State votes prohibition on itself, it should be allowed to enforce prohibition, but is not able to do so under existing inter-state laws. Two things that congress should pass a law to stop is the shipment of liquor into a prohibition State and the use of the mails for carrying whiskey advertisements into a prohibition State. If this was done a State prohibition law could be made thoroughly effective.

We fail to see wherein the Eastern Carolina teams composing the base league can feel much interest in them when the teams are composed entirely of hired players without a local man on them. Teams made up entirely of home men and games in which no outsider is allowed to participate would be more occasion for local pride and enthusiasm. As it now is the idea seems to be what town can put up the most money and have the best players.

It really looks like Raleigh is going to move now in earnest and get that long-talked-about auditorium. A deal has been effected for a large lot in a splendid location and the plan is to erect thereon a municipal building and auditorium with a four to six thousand seating capacity. When Raleigh completes this auditorium and brings hotel accommodations up in keeping with it, the city may again come into note as a place for holding conventions.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. An American has been arrested in Norway on a confession that he murdered Mrs. Guinness, the Indiana woman who made her premises a graveyard for a number of men whom she lured to her home and murdered. The man arrested says he helped Mrs. Guinness commit several crimes and then murdered her. The fellow may be a sensationalist or just crazy, or may have this as a ruse to get free passage back to America in case he should be brought over for trial. It is recalled that one man is already serving a penitentiary term on the charge of burning Mrs. Guinness' home, what was supposed to be her remains being found in the ashes.

Paris, the Clearing House. The French Capital is the Chief Mart for the Disposal of Imitation Antiques—Italy leads in the Production of the Spurious Articles. Italy has always been the classic soil for fabrications, but in some departments Holland and Paris run her close. Vienna has a specialty for rock crystal and thirteenth century gold work, Florence and Lunca for fourteenth century enamel, London imitates the taste of Sevres, Constantinople makes ornate weapons, Madrid Damascus swords, Dresden sculptured bronzes, Alca-Chapelle pewter plate, Berlin Roman pottery, Amsterdam wrought iron, Odessa thras and antique jewelry, while Paris is the chief mart and clearing house for all these products. The timidity in his voice took a short cut to the woman's heart, and she smiled upon him kindly. "Oh, it doesn't matter," she said. Then as his eyes were still fastened upon hers she added, "Going uptown alone."

STATE NEWS. Happenings of Interest in North Carolina. Elkin, May 28.—The Chatham Manufacturing Company today shipped 18 solid cars of blankets to different places in the United States, about half of them going to Chicago and St. Louis, from which points they will be distributed to different cities on the Pacific slope. The other half goes to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York. Each car contained 1,100 pairs of blankets which made a grand total of 19,800 pairs or 39,600 single blankets. At $4 a pair, which is rather under the average, it amounts to $79,500 for this one shipment.

Boone, May 23.—Mr. Ransom Coffey, an aged citizen of Blue Ridge township, was found dead yesterday near the roadside on the head of the Elk. He had been visiting some of his relatives at this place and had started on his return home. A Mr. Triplett, noticing a strange mule in his field, went to turn it outside and recognized it as Mr. Coffey's. Thinking strange of the animal having the saddle on he told his wife to go to one of the neighbors and inquire if they had seen anything of the old gentleman while he went to ask another neighbor. On her way Mrs. Triplett came upon the old man sitting in a fence corner dead. The coroner was called and the verdict of the jury was that he died of heart failure.

THE BOY IN THE CAR.

He Won Forgiveness From the Woman Who Had Him Seized. The boy in the car cuddled so close to the woman in gray that everybody thought he belonged to her. So when he unconsciously dug his muddy shoes into the broadcloth skirt of his left hand neighbor she leaned over and said: "Pardon me, madam. Will you kindly make your little boy square himself around?" He is soiling my skirt with his muddy shoes.

For Twenty-Six Years

Mrs. Lamaster, of Kentucky, Suffered with Internal Catarrh and was Finally Relieved by Peruna.

MRS. W. W. LAMASTER. Catarrh is a frequent cause of kidney disease. The points of the kidneys, as well as the ureters, are lined with mucous membrane, and is therefore subject to catarrhal congestion. Some times the catarrh is so slight as to cause no attention, other times it leads up to very serious conditions.

Any remedy capable of mitigating the catarrh is a much more rational treatment than to give palliatives that only relieve the patient of one or more disagreeable symptoms. It is claimed for Peruna that it is an internal systemic catarrh remedy, and reaches the catarrh whatever organ it happens to be located in.

"I was cured of a severe attack of inflammation of the bowels by taking Peruna. I am glad to recommend Peruna to any one."—Mrs. J. J. Brown, 625 State St., San Antonio, Texas.
