WHO WILL GET THE PIANO.

Watch the List Grow, and Help Somebody With Your Votes.

Today marks the closing of another week in The Reflector piano contest, and the list published below shows what the candidates and their friends have been doing. Miss Mary Johnson, who started out with a good lead, still holds this position, with Miss Lottie Blow not far behind in second place. The vote of other candidates also climbs higher each week.

There are not many more weeks in which to work, as the contest will end Dec. 24th at noon, and no one can tell what the closing weeks will develop. The vote is not so high but what some candidate lower down in the column, or even a new one, may catch up with the lead. The candidates should all do their best, and get their friends to help them, from now until the contest closes. Every day's work will count, and the more votes you get the better your chance for winning the beautiful baby upright Boudoir piano which can be seen at the music room of Fineman & White. It is worth working for, and working hard, for it is an instrument of merit and value, possessing volume and tone equal to the best made.

Who is to win this beautiful piano? That is the question. It all depends upon who has the most votes in by noon Christmas eve. The way to vote is to pay your subscription to The Reflector, or to subscribe if you are not already taking the paper, or get someone else to do so. Subscriptions paid in advance count twice as many votes as paying up arrears. Come on and get a subscription receipt and vote for your choice. If not convenient to come to the office send it by mail and tell us who to cast your votes for. The votes will be recorded just as you direct.

Hundreds of people ought to pay their subscription to The Reflector in the next five weeks, and many new names should be added to the subscription list. Every day as the end of the contest draws near it will increase in interest. Do not let the opportunity pass to help somebody win this beautiful piano. It costs nothing whatever to vote—you only have to pay your subscription to The Reflector, or subscribe for it, and the paper gives you full value for your money.

Here is the way the vote stands today as far as the candidates have turned them in. Miss Mary Johnson 25,000 Miss Lottie Blow 21,000 Miss Lillie R. Tucker 8,275 Miss Mavis B. Evans 4,075 Miss Beulah Mumford 3,775 Miss Maud Mooring 3,485 Miss Tingle 2,050 Quinerly School 1,900 Mrs. D. E. Nichols 1,270 Miss Christine Johnson 1,050

Do You Own a Piano?

If not, and you expect to own one soon, you owe it to yourself to examine the magnificent display shown at the Fineman & White Warerooms. A display really creditable to a large city. In a glance you will inspect a line of pianos that not alone stand in character of tone, durability and general worth in a distinct class to itself, but you will meet with prices that stand unopposed here and incomparable anywhere. Eight different makes to select from, none of those cheap western department store stencils, but each one a standard, of acknowledged fame and reputation in the trade. Four different player-pianos of best known makes.

We will take your old piano in exchange for one of these self players. We also carry the ESTY ORGAN, the standard of the world. Old organs and pianos taken in exchange, terms to suit your convenience. When in Greenville visit our ware room.

SOMEBODY'S PIANO. SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY. SOUTHERN COM. CONGRESS. STATE NEWS. BATTS' CORN YIELD. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS.

But Who is to be the Winner in the Question. Everybody who goes into the music store of Fineman & White sees a beautiful baby upright Boudoir piano bearing the placard "This Piano is to be given away by The Reflector as a Christmas Present." That is a fact, the piano is going to be given away, but who is to be the recipient of this handsome prize piano is as much an uncertainty as the day the contest began on the first of October. Miss Mary Johnson started out in the lead with votes, and still holds that position, with Miss Lottie Blow a close second. But others, as well as these, are at work, and there is no telling what surprises the closing few weeks of the contest will develop. The 24th of December will tell the story.

A Day of Interest at Memorial Baptist Church—Collection for Orphanage. All the services in Memoria Baptist church Sunday were under the direction of Superintendent C. W. Wilson, of the Sunday school, and it proved a day of unusual interest to the large congregations in attendance. The importance of Sunday school work was emphasized in all of the services, and a greater interest was awakened that will doubtless result in much good. The Sunday school which met at 9:45 recorded an attendance of 274.

At 11 o'clock Rev. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston, addressed a large audience, his subject being "The Problem of the Big Boy." Mr. Spilman spoke of that period in the boy's life when he is crossing from childhood to young manhood—too large to be longer regarded as a child yet too small to be looked upon as a young man—and with much interest pointed out the duties of the Sunday school especially the teacher, toward these big boys. He said that 75 per cent. of the boys in this period of life are lost to the Sunday school, and of the 25 per cent. remaining 80 per cent. become members of the church, hence is seen the importance of doing something to hold the 75 per cent. who are being lost to the Sunday school. Several suggestions were given by which this may be done—by keeping in touch with the individual boy and knowing his life, by giving him something to do in his class room, and making the Sunday school so interesting that it will attract him. Boys are naturally drawn where they find something doing, and he said he knew of no instance where a boy had attended Sunday school regularly for twenty years without becoming a member of the church.

At the evening service there were three interesting Sunday school addresses. Superintendent Wilson spoke on "Our Duties to the Children," Mr. J. W. Bryan on "Our Duties to the Young People" and Prof. W. H. Ragsdale on "Our Duties to Ourselves."

The choir gave excellent music at each of the services, and the splendid solos by Mr. M. Leslie Davis, of Beaufort, were greatly enjoyed. A voice superior to Mr. Davis, is seldom heard and he sings with much sweetness.

Announcement was made before the conclusion of the morning service that no service would be held on Thanksgiving day and that the church might make a Thanksgiving donation to the orphanage a collection was taken for that purpose, amounting to about $25.

Awarding of the Gold. Over fifteen hundred persons witnessed the awarding of the gold at the store of C. T. Munford last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. Mrs. Ernest Daughtridge holding coupon number 11044 won the first prize of $12.50 in gold. The second prize $7.50 in gold was won by J. T. Moseley who held number 15690 and Blaney Stocks drew third prize $5.00 in gold on coupon number 2289. Little Miss Bertie Warren was blind folded and drew the lucky coupons. Mr. Munford is tendered our hearty congratulations on the success of this sale.

Bring your furs to S. M. Schultz for high prices.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Hon. Jno. A. Fox, who has just returned to Washington after completing his trip of the country in the interest of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, said: I found the most remarkable interest, at a number of cities throughout the Pacific Coast, in the Southern Commercial Congress movement. A large number of prominent men, whom I had no idea knew of the movement, commend it as one of the finest steps ever taken for the advancement of any section of the United States, many having seriously considered taking the same step for the Pacific Coast States. It would not surprise me at all to see a Trans Mountain Commercial Congress organized in the near future, with the same end in view—the cooperative advancement of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States. The practical lines on which the Southern Commercial Congress is being carried out appeal to me most strongly. It is an organization for the purpose of stimulating all other organizations and for the purpose of interfering in any way with any endeavor made for any one place. I expect to attend all its sessions this year.

All in attendance upon the Southern Commercial Congress which is to convene here Dec. 6th and 7th, will be welcomed as part of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, meeting in the same—Hotel Willard—opening December 8, 9 and 10. Opening address by President Taft.

By the falling of heavy roof girders at a large fertilizer factory being built in Wilson, Monday afternoon, a colored man was instantly killed and several other laborers badly injured.

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 22.—Telephonic advices received here Saturday night told of the sudden death of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Griffin at their home north of Marshallville, just over the line in Union county. Death came to both of these old people within the hour without previous illness and was caused by heart failure. They were old settlers, well known and honored, both were over seventy years of age. Three daughters and one son survive. The funeral services were held yesterday.

Wherever The Reflector man strikes any of our home boys who have cast their lot in other places, it is always a pleasure to find them getting along well and making success of their business. While in Norfolk Friday we took enough time off from the festivities to look over the new building being erected by Whichard Bros. Co., wholesale dry goods and notion dealers there. This firm has had such a successful career that though they have moved once to larger quarters, it was not long before they found them selves again cramped for room to accommodate their growing business. To provide for this they decided to erect a modern building, and for this purpose secured a desirable lot on Randolph street near the Atlantic hotel. They now have nearly completed a splendid building 41 x 100 feet, four stories and basement, and expect to move into it about the middle of December. Folks who know them, and that includes nearly every Eastern North Carolina retail merchant, will be glad to know that these "down home" boys are meeting success.

A magnificent tragedy occurred Friday evening near Pollocksville that has cast a gloom over that entire community. Mr. Shade Clark, a prosperous farmer living near there, had gone out in his cotton field to pick some cotton that had been left over from the last picking and in the meantime leaving his two children, aged 2 and 3 years old respectively, alone in the house. In some unknown way the children pulled some burning wood from the fireplace which ignited the carpet and in a few moments the entire house was in flames. Mr. Clark seeing the fire rushed to the house, but before he could reach it the roof fell in and both the children were caught in the ruins and burned to death. Mr. Clark and family are prostrated over their loss, and the sympathy of the entire community is extended them in their bereavement.—New Bern Journal.

For the benefit of those who, like Mr. Stockton, want to be "shown" the proof of Mr. Batts' remarkable yield the facts in the matter have been fully investigated, and they bear out the claim that has been made. Mr. Batts, whose postoffice address is Garner, in a written certificate which he filed with a committee consisting of Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, Col. F. A. Olds and T. B. Parker, says that during the year 1909 he grew on one acre of land in Wake county 226 2/3 bushels of corn; that he measured the land in the presence of J. P. Edmondson and J. J. Jordan, two disinterested freeholders, who are not related to the said Batts; that he gathered and measured the corn in their presence. The land was square tract "measuring seventy yards on every side." Mr. Batts certified to the above statement.—Raleigh Times.

On Saturday evening the infant son, aged six weeks, of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan, died at their home on Evans street. The little one had been sick through most of its brief life, and its death was not unexpected. A sad incident connected with the death of this child is that the father, who was so badly injured in the automobile wreck two weeks ago, is in the hospital in Raleigh and could not be at home when his little one passed away.

The funeral took place at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Cherry Hill cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. D. W. Arnold. The casket was borne by Messrs. J. S. E. Wain.

Representative M. L. Davis, of Beaufort, who has been spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. R. L. Lumber, left today.

Barber Draws Line on Long Faces. WHO WILL GET THE PIANO.

Watch the List Grow, and Help Somebody With Your Vote.

Today marks the closing of another week in The Reflector piano contest, and the list published below shows what the candidates, and their friends have been doing. Miss Mary Johnson, who started out with a good lead, still holds this position, with Miss Lottie Blow not far behind in second place. The vote of other candidates also climbs higher each week.

There are not many more weeks in which to work, as the contest will end Dec. 24th at noon, and no one can tell what the closing weeks will develop. The vote is not so high but what some candidate lower down in the column, or even a new one, may catch up with the lead.

The candidates should all do their best, and get their friends to help them, from now until the contest closes. Every day's work will count, and the more votes you get the better your chance for winning the beautiful baby upright Boudoir piano which can be seen at the music room of Fineman & White.

It is worth working for, and working hard, for it is an instrument of merit and value, possessing volume and tone equal to the best made.

Who is to win this beautiful piano? That is the question. It all depends upon who has the most votes in by noon Christmas eve. The way to vote is to pay your subscription to The Reflector, or to subscribe if you are not already taking the paper, or let someone take to do so. Subscriptions paid in advance count as many votes as paying up arrears. Come on and get a subscription receipt and vote for your choice. If not convenient to come to the office send it by mail and tell us who to cast your votes for. The votes will be recorded just as you direct.

Hundreds of people ought to pay their subscription to The Reflector in the next five weeks, and many new names should be added to the subscription list. Every day as the end of the contest draws near it will increase in interest. Do not let the opportunity pass to help somebody win this beautiful piano. It costs nothing whatever to vote—you only have to pay your subscription to The Reflector, or subscribe for it, and the paper gives you full value for your money.

Here is the way the vote stands today as far as the candidates have turned them in.

Miss Mary Johnson 25,000
Miss Lottie Blow 21,000
Miss Lillie R. Tucker 8,275
Miss Mavis B. Evans 4,075
Miss Beulah Mumford 3,775
Miss Maud Moorring 3,485

Do You Own a Piano?

If not, and you expect to own one soon, you owe it to yourself to examine the magnificent display shown at the Fineman & White Warerooms. A display really creditable to a large city.

In a glance you will inspect a line of pianos that not alone stand in character of tone, durability and general worth in a distinct class to itself, but you will meet with prices that stand unexcelled here and incomparable anywhere. Eight different makes to select from, none of those cheap western department store stencils, but each one a standard, of acknowledged fame and reputation in the trade. Four different player-pianos of best known makes.

We will take your old piano in exchange for one of these self-players. We also carry the ESTY ORGAN, the standard of the world. Old organs and pianos taken in exchange, terms to suit your convenience.

When in Greenville visit our wareroom.

SOMEbody'S PIANO.

But Who is to be the Winner in the Question.

Everybody who goes into the music store of Fineman & White sees a beautiful baby upright Boudoir piano bearing the placard "This Piano is to be given away by The Reflector as a Christmas Present." That is a fact, the piano is going to be given away, but who is to be the recipient of this handsome prize piano is as much an uncertainty as the day the contest began on the first of October. Miss Mary Johnson started out in the lead with votes, and still holds that position, with Miss Lottie Blow a close second. But others, as well as these, are at work, and there is no telling what surprises the closing few weeks of the contest will develop.

The 24th of December will tell the story. From now until the close the list will be published more frequently than heretofore so the friends of the candidates may keep in closer touch with their standing in the list. True all the votes are not published, as some of the candidates are holding votes in reserve to come in before the close, but the list gives a general idea of how they stand. The candidates and their friends should do their best work from now on.

Of course the purpose of this contest is to get more subscribers to The Reflector, and if you want to help a candidate win this piano you can vote for your choice by subscribing for The Reflector, or by paying up if you are already a subscriber. This must be done before noon on the 24th day of December if you want the votes to count. It costs nothing to vote, as the paper gives full value for the price of subscription. Here is the standing of the votes today:

Miss Mary Johnson 27,000
Miss Lottie Blow 21,825
Miss Lillie R. Tucker 9,000
Miss Mavis B. Evans 4,865
Miss Beulah Mumford 3,775
Miss Maud Moorring 3,485
James Tingle 2,050

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY.

A Day of Interest at Memorial Baptist Church—Collection for Orphanage.

All the services in Memoria Baptist church Sunday were under the direction of Superintendent C. W. Wilson, of the Sunday school, and it proved a day of unusual interest to the large congregations in attendance. The importance of Sunday school work was emphasized in all of the services, and a greater interest was awakened that will doubtless result in much good. The Sunday school which met at 9:45 recorded an attendance of 274.

At 11 o'clock Rev. B. W. Spilman, of Kinston, addressed a large audience, his subject being "The Problem of the Big Boy." Mr. Spilman spoke of that period in the boy's life when he is crossing from childhood to young manhood—too large to be longer regarded as a child yet too small to be looked upon as a young man—and with much interest pointed out the duties of the Sunday school especially the teacher, toward these big boys.

He said that 75 per cent. of the boys in this period of life are lost to the Sunday school, and of the 25 per cent. remaining 90 per cent. become members of the church, hence is seen the importance of doing something to hold the 75 per cent. who are being lost to the Sunday school. Several suggestions were given by which this may be done—by keeping in touch with the individual boy and knowing his life, by giving him something to do in his class room, and making the Sunday school so interesting that it will attract him. Boys are naturally drawn where they find something doing, and he said he knew of no instance where a boy had attended Sunday school regularly for twenty years without becoming a member of the church.

At the evening service there were three interesting Sunday school addresses. Superintendent Wilson spoke on "Our Duties to the Children," Mr. J. W. Bryan on "Our Duties to the Young People" and Prof. W. H. Ragsdale on "Our Duties to Ourselves."

The choir gave excellent music at each of the services, and the splendid solos by Mr. M. Leslie Davis, of Beaufort, were greatly enjoyed. A voice superior to Mr. Davis is seldom heard and he sings with much sweetness.

Announcement was made before the conclusion of the morning service that no service would be held on Thanksgiving day and that the church might make a Thanksgiving donation to the orphanage a collection was taken for that purpose, amounting to about $25.

Awarding of the Gold.

Over fifteen hundred persons witnessed the awarding of the gold at the store of C. T. Munford last Saturday afternoon at 3:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ernest Daughtridge holding coupon number 11044 won in the first prize of $12.50 in gold. The second prize $7.50 in gold was won by J. T. Moseley who held number 15690 and Blaney Stocks drew third prize $5.00 in gold on coupon number 2289. Little Miss Bertie Warren was blind folded and drew the lucky coupons.

Mr. Munford is tendered our hearty congratulations on the success of this sale.

SOUTHERN COM. CONGRESS.

To be held in Washington City Dec 6th and 7th.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Hon. Jno. A. Fox, who has just returned to Washington after completing his trip of the country in the interest of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress say: I found the most remarkable interest at a number of cities throughout the Pacific Coast, in the Southern Commercial Congress movement. A large number of prominent men, whom I had no idea knew of the movement, commend it as one of the finest steps ever taken for the advancement of any section of the United States, many having seriously considered taking the same step for the Pacific Coast States. It would not surprise me at all to see a Trans Mountain Commercial Congress organized in the near future, with the same end in view—the cooperative advancement of the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast States.

The practical lines on which the Southern Commercial Congress is being carried out appeal to me most strongly. It is an organization for the purpose of stimulating all other organizations and not for the purpose of interfering in any way with any endeavor made for any one place. I expect to attend all its sessions this year.

All in attendance upon the Southern Commercial Congress which is to convene here Dec. 6th and 7th, will be welcomed as part of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, meeting in the same—Hotel Willard—place December 8, 9 and 10. Opening address by President Taft.

By the falling of heavy roof girders at a large fertilizer factory being built in Wilson, Monday afternoon, a colored man was instantly killed and several other laborers badly injured.

Wadesboro, N. C., Nov. 22.—Telephonic advices received here Saturday night told of the sudden deaths of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Griffin at their home north of Marsheville, just over the line in Union county. Death came to both of these old people within the hour without previous illness and was caused by heart failure. They were old settlers, well known and honored, both were over seventy years of age. Three daughters and one son survive. The funeral services were held yesterday.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 22.—Sheriff A. S. Richardson, of Columbus county, this State, was twice shot and severely but not fatally wounded while engaged with a posse in effecting the capture of a white man named Burkin, charged with murder, in a swamp near Causey, S. C. yesterday. Burkin had fortified himself in a camp in the swamp, where he had been in hiding since the murder, two weeks ago, and as the posse approached fired from ambush with a shot gun. It was while returning the fire that Sheriff Richardson was wounded. Burkin having finally surrendered under threat of the posse to set fire to the swamp and kill him on sight when he came out of his hiding, the prisoner was landed in jail at Whiteville, N. C., today.

A frightful tragedy occurred Friday evening near Pollockville that has cast a gloom over that entire community. Mr. Shade Clark, a prosperous farmer living near there, had gone out in his cotton field to pick some cotton that had been left over from the last picking and in the meantime leaving his two children, aged 2 and 3 years old respectively, alone in the house. In some unknown way the children pulled some burning wood from the fireplace which ignited the carpet and in a few moments the entire house was in flames. Mr. Clark seeing the fire rushed to reach it the roof fell in and both of the children were caught in the ruins and burned to death. Mr. Clark and family are prostrated over their loss, and the sympathy of the entire community is extended them in their bereavement.—New Bern J.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Louisburg, N. C., 19.—Mrs. W. O. Stone came near being crushed to death by a 125 pound bell which she attempted to ring. The bell was on a twelve foot right side of the head, cutting a gash to the skull and at the same time bruising her shoulder. She was knocked senseless. She is getting along remarkably well.

Wilson, N. C., Nov. 19.—At the session of the State convention of the Christian church, conducted by J. H. Moharter, general secretary of the National Benevolent Association of Christian church, the sum of $670.70 was raised in cash pledges for the orphan's home in Baldwin, Ga. Besides this amount the Atlantic Christian College gave $140 and the Hospitaller society, of the same institution, gave between seventy-five and one hundred dollars.

BATT'S CORN YIELD.

Yield of 226 2 3 Bushels Per Acre by Created Comment.

Mr. J. F. Batts' remarkable yield of 226 2 3 bushels of corn on one acre has created a great deal of comment, as will be seen by the following letter to T. H. Briggs & Son from Mr. R. H. Majestic Manufacturing Company, of St. Louis:

St. Louis, Nov. 5, 1909. T. H. Briggs & Son, Raleigh, N. C. Gentlemen: The writer noticed in your evening paper the following statement: "The winner in the corn growing contest in this country was announced today by the State Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. Graham, as Mr. J. F. Batts, who had grown 227 bushels of one acre." The writer has been interested in matters of this kind, and possibly you may not know that the exploitation of corn growing has been progressing very rapidly in the west and for two years Omaha has had a corn exposition where $50,000 in premiums has been given, but no such record of production has ever been shown. The writer has also offered a premium there for the last two years. Last year the premium was not worked correctly and a seed man of Connecticut captured it, but with a great deal less number of bushels than this.

Will you kindly advise what security was thrown around this measurement and inspection, obliging. Yours truly, R. H. Stockton.

RESOLUTIONS OF ESTEEM.

Hall of Sheldermine Lodge No. 293 I. O. O. F.

November, 15th, 1909.
Your committee appointed to draft resolution expressive of our sympathy for Brother Ernest Williams, report:

That the angel of death having again entered the family of Brother Ernest Williams and removed therefrom his brother, Mr. Jesse Williams, again reminds us that in the midst of life there is death. Therefore be it resolved,

1st. That in the death of Mr. Williams, the county loses a useful citizen.

2nd. To the home of sorrow we assure them our sincere sympathy and we commend them to God for His comfort and protection.

3rd. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge, a copy sent to the family and copy sent to The Reflector with request to publish.

Pres. Wright's Inaugural.

The editor regrets much that the press of duties prevented his attendance upon the inaugural exercises of Mr. Robert H. Wright, as president of the East Carolina Training School at Greenville last Friday. Greenville thru wide open its doors to the throng attending. The exercises were held in the auditorium of the school. Many notable addresses were delivered by leading educators of the State. President Wright's address was a splendid effort and demonstrated the wisdom of the trustees in selecting this young North Carolina educator as the head of this school which is destined to exert a powerful influence upon the educational development of Eastern Carolina. The school now has over a hundred young women who are being trained as teachers. Practically all the eastern counties are represented in its student body. The school has a strong faculty. Snow Hill Standard Laconic.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all druggists.

When a cold becomes settled in the system it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy to use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all druggist.

FARMVILLE ITEMS.

Farmville, N. C., Oct. 27.
A goodly number of farmers brought tobacco to Farmville today and were very well pleased with the prices which they received.

At 12 o'clock today a public sale was conducted by Mr. Carl Turnage at the home of Mrs. Hill for the purpose of selling household and kitchen furniture.

The last quarterly conference for this year was held at the Methodist church on the 16th. On Thanksgiving day the ladies of the Methodist church at Farmville will conduct a bazaar, serving meals both night and day.

M. D. Horton has opened a new grocery store on Main street.

There will be prayer meeting at the Baptist church Thursday night each week. All are cordially invited to attend.

Work has been resumed on the Disciples church.

A Thanksgiving service will be held at the Baptist church at 7 p. m. Nov. 25th. The collection will be for the orphanage.

It is reported that there will be a Thanksgiving dance in Farmville. Which will have the largest number to give thanks, the devil, by those who attend the dance, or God, by those who attend Divine services and make an offering to God for the Orphanage?—Which?

Lame back comes on suddenly and is extremely painful. It is caused by rheumatism of the muscles. Quick relief is afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by all druggist.

"The Style."

Why does a man when he becomes possessed of a $4.50 raw-boned plug and a $10 cart have to rein the poor crowsbit up like a turtle treading water until it can't see the ground before it, and goes along as if trying to read the answer to the stars? Why does a girl whom nature has given a clear and healthy complexion have to paint it until she can't wink for fear of cracking the enamel? Why does she bang her hair like a Spitz poodle and make her head look like a window mop? [And why does she wear a hat that makes her look like an overloaded pack mule?] Why, bless you, all these things are the style, and that is all that can or ought to be said about them.—Waxhaw Enterprise.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all druggist.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

Whereas, the Great Spirit has again entered the family circle of a worthy brother, S. T. White, G. S., of our tribe, and taken therefrom his sister's devoted husband, therefore be it resolved,

1st. That we, as members of Withlacoochee Tribe No. 35, extend to our brother and his family the sincere sympathy of our tribe.

2d. That we commend the bereaved ones to the loving care and keeping of the Great Spirit that He will keep them through this their sad hour.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, a copy be sent to our brother and a copy published in The Daily Reflector.

Mrs. Sarah Dudley Passes Away.

One of Washington's oldest landmarks passed this morning in the person of Mrs. Sarah Dudley, relic of the late W. L. Dudley, at her home No. 520 West Third street.

Mrs. Dudley was stricken with paralysis last Saturday and never survived. At the time of her death she was 73 years of age. She was a woman of broad intellect and noted for circumspectness of walk. The deceased leaves four children to mourn their loss: Mrs. J. A. Dudley, Mrs. R. J. Manning, Miss Lula Dudley and Mrs. Maud Slocum, of Rochester, Pa., besides a large number of grandchildren.—Washington News, 16th.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in North Carolina.

Winston Salem, N. C., Nov. 15.—Five men were killed and seven others are believed to be dead as the result of a cave in today on the Southern Railroad near here. All of the victims, negroes and Italians, were employed by concrete contractors.

Suffolk, Va. Nov. 17.—Miss Mattie Taylor, 22 years old, who was struck by a Norfolk and Southern train at Corapeake, N. C., died in Lakview hospital yesterday morning. Miss Taylor had been buying her wedding trousseau in Suffolk and on getting off the train in Corapeake drove across the track and was struck by a moving freight. Her body and face were terribly mangled, both arms being crushed. The young woman is a daughter of Cator Taylor, of Gates county, N. C., and was popular and pretty.

FRIDAY NOV. 26, 1909.

INLAND WATERWAYS CONVENTION

By far the best meeting the Inland Waterways Association has held was the one in Norfolk last week. The attendance was very large, and more interest was awakened in the movement than has been known heretofore. About the best speech made at this convention was by Congressman John H. Small, who was one of the leading spirits there. Mr. Small spoke on Thursday and emphasized the need of immediate work on that portion of the waterway between Norfolk and Beaufort.

The most notable day in the history of Norfolk was Friday, when President Taft went down to speak on the waterways and other questions, and to be the guest of the city for the day. The city was beautifully decorated and every mark of respect and honor was shown the distinguished visitor. Features of the day were a military and naval parade, an oyster roast at Cape Henry, a magnificent display of fireworks and a smoker to the members of the press. President Taft spoke three times and at every appearance was given a great ovation. Norfolk did herself great credit in the way the president, the delegates to the waterways convention, the members of the press and the thousands of visitors were entertained.

There were a thousand covers at the smoker given at night in honor of the press. Besides editors from other places, there were some seventy odd from Washington City, among them being correspondents representing leading papers of all parts of the country. It was a distinguished gathering of the profession and they were given a royal reception. Norfolk made a most favorable impression on her visitors and all left singing the praises of the leading seaport city of the South.

The Washington News prints the story of a man trying to enter a house in that town by going down the chimney. He got hung in the chimney and came so near suffocating that he cried for help. His cry awoke the owner of the house, who, taking in the situation, called several neighbors to help extricate the would-be burglar. The chimney had to be torn down to get the man out. The News adds that the man was committed to jail and will be tried for burglary. Wonder if that point will not be an interesting one for the lawyers to contest. While the man slid eight feet down the chimney, can it be shown that he entered the house? No doubt that was his intent if he had not got stuck. The case is going to be an interesting one.

MEN WHO ARE DOING THINGS.

It is well to be patriotic and keep in mind the glories of the past, to think of men long since gone and rehearse their achievements, and to dwell upon the progress our country has made. These things keep alive in us a spirit of pride and patriotism, for ours is truly a goody heritage. But today we are living in the present, and the Reflector is of those who love to talk about things right now, to speak of men who are doing things today in uplifting and bettering those around them, and who are making things come to pass. We have in mind a man of this type, Mr. John F. Evans, who is agent for Pitt county of the farm demonstration work under the direction of the State and government agricultural departments. Mr. Evans is a good farmer himself, and in addition to carrying on his own work his duties take him much among farmers who are co-operating with this demonstration work, to instruct and advise with them wherever it is needed. In this way he is doing great good to his fellow farmers, and the result is better farming, improved crops and larger yields. Not only this, but Mr. Evans is a good roads advocate from the heart. He believes in good roads, talks good roads, and says he is going to keep it up until Pitt county has a bond issue sufficient to build good roads all over the county. He says it does his heart good to find this sentiment growing so rapidly wherever he goes about the county. That is what the Reflector likes to hear—good schools, good farms, good roads. These are the things to make our county blossom with prosperity.

In his speech at Norfolk, Friday, President Taft expressed himself as favoring the building of a large fort between Cape Charles and Cape Henry to protect the entrance of Hampton Roads against invasion from a foreign enemy. There is already a land fort at Old Point (Fortress Monroe) and if this additional fort suggested by the president is built, Norfolk harbor, one of the best on the Atlantic coast, would be impregnable to attack. President Taft said he is going to devote himself during the remainder of his administration to securing this fort between the Virginia capes.

A dispatch from London says that one person out of every thirty-two in that city is a pauper. If that statement is true it shows an appalling condition of poverty and hardship. It is hard to understand why people will congest a place where there is nothing for them to do. The largest cities attract them and they seem to prefer to stay there and suffer hardship rather than go to the country or towns where there is better opportunity to get something to do.

On Saturday twenty men were taken alive out of the Cherry, Ills., mine after having been entombed there for a week. This discovery led to the belief that others of the miners are yet alive. A large number of dead have been found.

THANKSGIVING.

In keeping with its annual custom to observe Thanksgiving day, The Daily Reflector will not be issued tomorrow. We hope every reader of the paper has enjoyed sufficient blessings during the year to fill his heart with such a feeling of gratitude to God as to observe the day with the real spirit of Thanksgiving. Who can recount the blessings of the year without realizing that they have been more than were deserved? True some have received more than others, but to every one has come enough for gratefulness to the "Giver of all Good." The best spirit of Thanksgiving is that which prompts us to impart some blessings to those who are less fortunate, and the orphan especially should be generously remembered. There are few so poor but what they might do something, though it be small, to help someone more needy than themselves, and the gift that God loves best is that which comes cheerfully out of a grateful heart. Let your offering be "In His Name" and greater blessings will be yours.

Near Outhbert, Ga., a few days ago, there was a terrible automobile wreck. The car contained three men and two ladies. While on a bridge the man who was driving turned loose the wheel to light a cigarette, and the car ran off and fell a distance of 40 feet. All three of the men were killed and the ladies badly injured.

One thing The Reflector regrets very much to learn is the probable disorganization of Carolina Club. The club has been of such great benefit to Greenville that it would be a serious loss for it to cease to exist. We hope some arrangement can be made for the club to continue.

There is likely to be some weather from now until spring that will show the need of good roads.

The president's Thanksgiving proclamation has come, and even if it was late and short, it is good.

If the Standard Oil Company is dissolved, hook worm cure may not be so rapid.

The Piedmont Press is the name of a new paper started at Hickory.

One class that Greenville has no use in the world for is the growler.

Surprise marriages seem to be in order now-a-days.

And now South Carolina is trying to claim the "birthplace" of Charlotte's slogan. The News and Courier says it was originally "Watch Charleston Grow" instead of Charlotte. Friend Wade Harris of the Chronicle has promptly called it down. Envious South Carolina is always trying to claim something that belongs to North Carolina.

Greenville has the best slogan we have ever heard, and it is entirely original—"Our Greenville, yours if you come."

The Federal court in Missouri rendered a decision declaring the Standard Oil Company an illegal combination and ordered its dissolution within thirty days. The company took an appeal to the Supreme court of the United States, so that the final outcome of the matter is yet to be determined. The government regards this decision of the Missouri court as a great victory in the prosecution of trusts.

Quite a number of near-beer dealers in Wilmington were arrested Wednesday on the charge of running "blind tigers." Detectives from Baltimore were employed to work up the case and catch the lawbreakers, which they did in a few days. It would be a good idea to have regular paid detectives for this purpose in every county in the State.

We read the other day of a man who hid his money in a bed tick. His house burned down and the money was lost with it. Had the money been put in a bank he would have been that much better off after the fire. Some people do not seem to realize what banks are for, and the protection these institutions afford them.

The latest in the way of mergers is about the largest yet undertaken in this country. It is the absorption of the Western Union Telegraph Company by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, which will ultimately bring practically all telephone and telegraph companies under one control.

According to Editor Herman Ridder, Speaker Joseph Cannon should be given the highest seat in the Roosevelt Annanias Club.

In other words Editor Ridder says Speaker Cannon is a liar or he (Ridder) is a fool. And it goes without saying that Editor Ridder is no fool.

President Finley, of the Southern Railway, in a speech at Salisbury Thursday said that "in no area of equal extent in the world is the agricultural outlook brighter than in the Southern States." And he said lots of other good things, too.

A Harnett county jury rendered a verdict for $35,320 damages against the Atlantic Coast Line in the suit brought against the railroad for the killing of W. A. Stewart, a lawyer in Dunn, who was run over by a freight car in February.

Poor old Duncan! He gets all the blame every time! The Durham postoffice fight is the latest.

The Beaufort cut in the inland waterways was endorsed by the waterways convention just held in Norfolk. This cut, which has been partly made, will mean a great deal to all Eastern North Carolina.

The man who does not talk for his town is not the right kind of a citizen; and a class not much better are those whose only interest is what they can get out of somebody else.

Asheville is having a bad time over the schedule the Southern Railway recently put on, making it so inconvenient for passengers in lying over at a junction going to and from the south.

With the government after the oil trust, the tobacco trust and the sugar trust at the same time, some of the lawyers see good times ahead.

The farmer who sold his cotton at 10 cents and has to deliver now with the price of the staple 15 cents is a joke, but it serves him right.

Norfolk done things up in great style for the entertainment of President Taft, but we venture to say she did not beat Wilmington.

The Wilmington near-beer dealers are learning that our prohibition laws were enacted for a purpose and are not to be ignored.

Planning for Christmas presents is now uppermost in the minds of many people. We hope it will be a sane Christmas in this respect.

The Greensboro Record has started its twentieth year. The Record is one of the papers that does things and makes its presence felt.

The division that existed for sometime in the Baptist church of Wilson has been adjusted and the two factions have re-united.

Congressman Morehead has proven that he has a stronger pull than some of them thought. He carried his point all right.

You cannot express your thanksgiving in any more grateful way than in remembering the orphans.

The report now comes that the government holds that the telegraph and telephone merger is illegal, and is going after it. Try it.

THE BEST FOOD FOR WORKERS.

The best food for those who work with hand or brain is never high priced. The best example of this is found in Quaker Oats. It stands at the top among foods that supply nourishment and vigor, without taxing the digestion, and yet it is the least expensive food one can eat.

This great food value and low cost makes it an ideal food for families who want to get the greatest good from what they eat.

Laborers, factory or farm hands, fed plentifully on Quaker Oats will work better and with less fatigue than if fed on almost any other kind of food.

All of these facts were proved and very interesting information about human foods were gathered by Prof. T. A. Fisher of Yale University in 1908. You'll find Quaker Oats in regular size packages, and homestead sized tins; the latter is best for school climates.

Nice turned work, buckets, window and door frames made on short notice by J. R. Smith Co. & Dixon.

We regret to hear of the sudden and untimely death of Mr. J. L. Keen, of Grifton. He was buried Monday. Mr. Keen had been a prominent figure in Grifton for a long time and will be sadly missed.

Call on us for ceiling, flooring, weatherboarding, moulding and scantling. We guarantee satisfaction.

J. R. Smith Co. & Dixon. Quite a delegation of our Odd Fellows expect to attend the district meeting at Washington on Thanksgiving.

J. R. May and wife, of Greenville, spent Sunday in town visiting Water Gardner.

Mrs. Fred McGlohon and daughter spent Sunday visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Smith. T. J. West, who has been with J. J. Edwards & Son this fall, has accepted a clerkship in Kingston. We wish him good luck.

The infant of B. J. Skinner died last Tuesday. It was preceded by its mother a few days ago. We extend sympathy to the grief-stricken father.

T. L. Willingham and wife, of Wilson, are visiting at Jesse Cannon's. The Philatela class entertained at R. C. Cannon's in their honor Monday night.

There will be a mass meeting in Pullen Hall Tuesday night. Gov. Kitchin, Ex-Gov. Aycock, Mr. Joseph Daniels, members of the faculty, and others are invited to make short talks and help give the team an enthusiastic "send off" for their leave that night for Norfolk where they will get in final trim for Thursday's game.

Gov. Kitchin and family have been invited to go to the A. & M. -V. P. I. football game at the expense of the A. & M. team.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS WITH CHRONIC CATARRH.

Mr. Dick, of Louisville, gives glowing credit for the recovery, and recommends it to his friends.

Mr. Dick, of Louisville, gives glowing credit for the recovery, and recommends it to his friends.

"I have been suffering for the past three years with catarrh, and had almost everything in the market tried in vain. I suffered from urinary troubles, and after using two bottles of Peruna, I can cheerfully recommend it to any one having the same disease. I was almost compelled to give up my business, until I used your remedy, and I have never been bothered with catarrh since."

Hon. C. Stemp, Congressman from Virginia, writes: "I can cheerfully say that I have used your cathartic Peruna, with beneficial results, and can unhesitatingly recommend your remedy to my friends as a relieving, purgative, and a restorative by the Peruna Drug Co., Columbus, Ohio."

THE SOUTHERN CONGRESS.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18, 1909. The Southern Congress was organized in Washington D. C., at a meeting of representative Southern men from nearly every Southern State.

The purpose of that organization was to intelligently exploit the resources of the South so that our people might be posted as to the value of their possessions, the best method of how to utilize them, and an intelligent and united effort made to remove many misconceptions which existed in regard to our section.

Able men all over the South forcibly expressed their views, and unanimously agreed as to the wisdom of a course of this character.

Almost without exception, the press threw their columns open for news and information in regard to the work that we are carrying on, and gladly gave a helping hand, with therewith, we think (due to wide spread information through the papers of the South and the whole country) of a material increase in land values, a marked improvement in regard to general conditions, and a re-awakened interest in civic pride, commercial development and agricultural pursuits.

The men in this work represent each of the sixteen Southern States, and very varied lines of the interest, and, with the exception of the secretary have not received a dollar of salary, and have cheerfully given their time and energy for the cause.

It has remained for one paper, "The Manufacturers Record," of Baltimore, to make itself conspicuous during the past ten months by a continued series of insinuation and ridicule—attempting to prove that no move of this character throughout the South could possibly benefit the South. Perhaps the fact that the editor of that paper was prominent in a similar movement, which started in Philadelphia and dimly failed, is one of its motives, in this attack, and another, perhaps a stronger motive was brought out October 31st, 1909, when W. R. Hearst's exposure of the Archbold letters showed that this paper had been subsidized by the Standard Oil Company, which corporation today owns larger interests and meretriciously throttles more competitive interests than all other combined organizations in the United States.

Each year there are printed 17,000,000 Protestant Bibles, Testaments, and "portions"—such as the Psalms or the separate Gospels—in more than five hundred languages and dialects. Of these Bibles 10,000,000 are sold by Bible societies, are sold far below cost, and return no financial profit to anybody. The remaining 7,000,000 are printed commercially, and yield a handsome profit to the publishers.

Of the 10,000,000 Bibles and parts of Bibles printed and distributed by charity, almost 2,000,000 are issued by the American Bible Society, and over 7,000,000 more by similar organizations in Great Britain.—Munsey's Magazine, for December.

Do You Own a Piano?

If not, and you expect to own one soon, you owe it to yourself to examine the magnificent display shown at the Fineman & White Warerooms. A display really creditable to a large city. In a glance you will inspect a line of pianos that not alone stand in character of tone, durability and general worth in a distinct class to itself, but you will meet with prices that stand unopposed here and incomparable anywhere. Eight different makes to select from, none of those cheap "veteran department store stencils, but each one a standard, of acknowledged fame and reputation in the trade. Four different player-pianos of best known makes.

We will take your old piano in exchange for one of these self players. We also carry the ESTY ORGAN, the standard of the world. Old organs and pianos taken in exchange, terms to suit your convenience. When in Greenville visit our wareroom.

The World's "Best Seller."

John and Lam Adams, brothers of Norwood Adams, recently convicted of counterfeiting by the Federal court in New Bern and sentenced to a term in the Federal prison in Atlanta, were brought here Friday and placed in jail on the charge of burning the home of Julia Gardner, of Contentnea township, one of the witnesses against them in the recent counterfeiting trial. These men had threatened to burn Julia's house if she testified against them in the trial, which she did, and they apparently carried out their threats. While all three of the Adams' were convicted of counterfeiting, John and Lam were turned loose on account of a disease they were supposed to be suffering from.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR.

D. J. WHITCHARD, Editor and Owner. Truth in Preference to Fiction. One Dollar Per Year. No. 48

GREENVILLE, PITT COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, DECEMBER 3, 1909. VOL. No. XXVI

TEMPERANCE REPORT

Adapted by the N. C. Conference at Raleigh.

Your committee begs to report as follows: "First—From all information coming to us from the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League and other sources, as well as from our own experience and observation, we learn that prohibition or the no-license policy is the best policy for the State, and we desire to put ourselves on record as opposed to any license system whatever."

"Second—We realize that the battle is now on. Not all the advocates of license have been converted or have surrendered. Many are now trying to make the prohibition law odious by violating it, or by influencing others to do so. In some of our cities, towns and rural sections it is a well known fact that the manufacture or sale of liquor is going on. Often this is done under the guise of the near beer saloon. Sometimes the executive officers take no cognizance of these violations. Sometimes the citizens are indifferent. We believe that the law will fall into disrepute unless well enforced, and therefore urge all executive officers to be true to their official trust in the enforcement of this law along with other laws. We also urge all citizens to stand by their officers who are true to their duty, discriminating in their favor. We note with pleasure that many citizens and officers are doing their full duty in this respect, and we desire to express our appreciation and approval of their work."

"Third—We believe that the spirit of Christianity and the doctrine of our church teach total abstinence, and therefore plead with all our members to abstain from the cup. Surely none ought to sid and meet the violation of law by buying from one who has no right to sell."

"Fourth—We believe that our experience as a prohibition State this year has proven that the near beer saloon is an evil and a cover for the violation of law and we desire to protest against it."

"Fifth—We oppose the interstate liquor trade and the granting of federal tax receipts in our State, and request our congressmen and senators at Washington support legislation that will correct these evils."

"Sixth—Your committee has heard with pleasure the report of R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, and wishes to record its approval of the work of this organization. We are not unmindful of the influential part it has taken in bringing North Carolina to the forefront on this prohibition question and we believe that it is still necessary as the church's agency to fight the foe. Therefore, we commend it to our people, and recommend that our pastors take a collection for it as they do for the American Bible Society when they deem it practicable and advisable."

"Seventh—We recommend that the Bishop appoint Rev. R. L. Davis, superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, he having been elected to that office by that organization."

"Eighth.—In response to the invitation of J. L. Erwin, corresponding secretary of the Anti-Saloon League of America, we nominate Rev. D. H. Tuttle and H. A. Page, delegates, and Rev. A. J. Parker and Rev. T. N. Ivey, alternates to the Anti-Saloon League Convention at Chicago, Ill. December 6-7, 1909. "A. D. Wilcox, Ch'm C. K. Wrenn, Sec'y."

VICTORY OF THE SOUTH.

What It is Doing in Developing the Nation.

Washington, D. C. Nov.—The Mississippi society, last week, at its first meeting of the season, was addressed by G. Grosvenor Dawe, Managing Director of the Southern Commercial Congress. His topic was "The Approaching Victory of the South."

The speech, which was entirely extemporaneous, was a sweeping summary of the South's great resources; of their significance in the later commercial development of the United States; and of the opportunity which they offered to bring the South into victorious participation in national development. Mr. Dawe began by stating that it was idle to believe as to what would have been the effect upon the nation's history if victory had come to the South in 1865. The question was too complex for any man to answer, but any theory formed regarding the South's victory along commercial lines positively led to the belief that a greater nation would come into being through a greater South; and that therefore the victory of the South was something that the nation as a whole should earnestly desire.

Carrying out the idea of victory, Mr. Dawe explained the marshalling of Southern facts as if a general were to sit down to consider the forces that were at his disposal, the weak points in his own line which must be strengthened in order to produce a successful attack, and the forces that were arrayed against him. The speech was full of statistics and yet so closely associated with interpretation that the effect was illuminating instead of bewildering. The statistics dealt with coastline, rivers, ports, waterpowers, minerals in relation to transportation, forest distribution, temperature and rainfall as aids in agricultural development, etc. The effect was to show that, regarding the gifts of nature in combination, no other third of the United States could in any way vie with the South, and yet notwithstanding this immense advantage the South was still unquestionably the least developed third of the United States. The weakness of the South was shown to lie in a lack of self-knowledge regarding the South's future development. Mr. Dawe then proceeded to announce all the facts of the South such as a manner that the men of the South will come in an affirmative attitude of mind that can never be disturbed by temporary set backs. He showed that such an attitude of mind would in itself bring victory because victory is always first formed in the mind. He also showed that such general self-knowledge would prompt the whole South to more effective announcement of its resources and thus bring the nation at last to understand how much of its future greatness depends upon the South's development.

Special Sale. Taft & Vandye will on Wednesday morning begin a big special sale to run for ten days. A half page advertisement tells you about it. They have marked prices down to a figure that will move the goods.

TIME IS GROWING SHORT.

And Somebody is Going to Get a Handsome Piano.

There are now only about three weeks more of The Reflector piano contest, as it will come to a close at noon on the 24th of December, Christmas eve. Then the candidate who has recorded the highest number of votes will receive as a Christmas present the beautiful Boudoir piano on exhibition at the music store of Fineman & White. Those who contemplate voting for their favorite must do so before the last stroke of the clock at noon on that day, hence one minute after will be too late. The voting will close exactly at 12 o'clock on the 24th.

The remaining three weeks will mean much to the candidates, and some of them are working with a determination to win this elegant prize. The published list does not show just how they stand, as we know some of them have a large number of votes which they have not turned in. But they should be careful not to hold them too late, as votes must be in on time to count. Nor should any candidate lose any time at work between now and the 24th. Make up your mind that somebody else beside yourself is at work for the prize, and do your best to get new subscribers to The Reflector and collect from old ones.

Every one of our subscribers should feel an interest in this contest. It cost nothing to vote, as you only have to pay your subscription and give the votes to whom you please. If you have been promising to help a candidate with your votes, this month, before the 24th, is the time to do it.

Now for the race to Christmas.

GOOD PIECE OF DETECTIVE WORK

Changes Hands Several Times and Gets Back to Owner.

Recently a colored man named Arthur Dupree, was at work for Mr. S. I. Dudley at his dairy farm. A day or two after the negro left Mr. Dudley missed a fine Colt's pistol which he used when deputy sheriff. He believed Dupree took the pistol, but had no evidence to that effect. However, he told the case to Detective W. C. Hines, and the latter got busy.

As a result of Detective Hines' work Dupree is in jail and is likely to get back on the roads where he has been two or three times before. It turned out that Dupree had stolen the pistol and the first disposition he made of it was to pawn it for $1. He went back and
