DR. ALEXANDER DID NOT COME.

His Place Supplied by Dr. Templeton, Who Delights His Hearers.

There was disappointment among the many farmers here Saturday when it was learned that Dr. Q. H. Alexander, president of the Farmers' Union in North Carolina, could not be here to speak as announced, being detained by sickness. The farmers assembled at the Star warehouse and heard some short addresses by local speakers.

Later those who remained over until the afternoon got a "fast any way," as Dr. M. Templeton of Raleigh, came in on the 1:15 train and at 2:30 spoke in Dr. Alexander's place. Many heard him with much pleasure, as he is a fine speaker.

No. 16.

WITH PROF. W. H. RAGSDALE.

Entertains Faculty of the Training School and the Graded School.

On Thursday evening, at his residence on Sutton Lane, Prof. W. H. Ragdsdale, who is county superintendent of education and a member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers' Training School, was at home to the faculty of this school and of the Greenville graded school.

While Greenville is noted for brilliant social entertainments, and has had many that were truly delightful, it is no disparagement to say that in plan and uniqueness this surpassed any that has occurred here.

The guests being mainly those connected with our educational interests, every feature of the entertainment was in keeping with this idea and carried out most impressively.

The beautiful and well arranged decorations of the home, even to the flowers, portrayed the colors of the schools—royal purple and old gold of the training school, and blue and white of the graded school. In some instances the colors of each school were prominent to themselves, and in others were mingled together with harmonious effect.

The flowers were white carnations, daffodils, violets and Spanish iris, with a variety of pot plants and ferns, the festoons and draperies being malene and crepe.

All the rooms were very attractive with these artistic decorations, but the dining room was especially beautiful. On the table was a centerpiece of purple with lace cover, on which was a cut glass bowl of violets and carnations. At each end were silver candelabra with yellow lights, and extending from the electric chandelier to the corners of the table were draperies of white malene with bunches of violets and smilax.

The guests began arriving a little after 9 o'clock and were received at the front door by Prof. Ragdsdale with his daughter, Miss Hennie Ragdsdale. Those who assisted in receiving the guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Whitchard in the parlor, and Rev. B. F. Huske with Miss Eula Cox in the library. In the hall California fruit punch was served by Misses Janie Brown and Hennie Whitchard.

After some time had been spent in pleasant mingling together and listening to delightful songs by Miss Olive Gaston and Prof. H. E. Austin, a magazine contest was introduced by the host. The arrangement for this was in full keeping with the marked features of the entertainment. The contest was on a folder, the first page bearing an embossed monogram of E. C. T. S. underneath which was printed the quotation from Lord Bacon "Some books are to be tasted, others swallowed, and some few to be digested." On the corner of the inside page having the blanks to be filled out were beautiful hand painted forget-me-nots in the colors of the schools. The contest supplying the names of magazines was very interesting. The first prize, a copy of Lowli's poems, was won by Mr. C. M. Jones and presented by Prof. R. H. Wright. The consolation, a toast book, went to Miss Lillie Bennett and was presented by Prof. H. B. Smith.

The guests were then invited to the dining room where refreshments were served by Misses Willie Ragdsdale and Essie Whitchard. Even here the fea-

BARACA AND PHILATHEA

Just What These Two Names of Bible Study Organizations Signify.

There are a great many people who do not know the unique origin and the meaning of the word "Baraca." Indeed, there are some Sunday school workers to whom this will be a bit of new information. Since the word "Baraca" is now a most usual one in the vocabulary of Sunday school workers throughout the entire world, it will be well to know how we came to have it.

In the 20th chapter of 11 Chronicles will be found the story from which "Baraca" is secured. Briefly it is this: The Kingdom of Judah was threatened by an army of its enemies. Good King Jehoshaphat prayed unto Jehovah for deliverance, and the Lord answered this prayer by vexing the hosts of the enemy, so that they fell upon and slew each other. Thus when King Jehoshaphat and his people went from Jerusalem to the scene of the camp of the enemy, they found most of them slain and the remnant fled. They also found so many jewels and riches that they were three days gathering up the spoil.

Then comes the 25th verse, as follows: "And on the fourth day they assembled in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed Jehovah; therefore the name of that place was called the Valley of Beracah unto this day." The margin translates this Beracah as "blessing."

When Mr. Marshall A. Hudson organized his first class for young men, he wanted a name for it. In carefully reading his Bible, he came upon this word meaning "blessing," and seized it for his class. The spelling of the word changed slightly, so as to permit making of the monogram design which is so familiar in well organized Sunday schools today.

Baraca has indeed been a real "blessing" to thousands, and literally hundreds of thousands of young men all over North America and the world. It could not but bless them, when it has brought them into the Sunday school and to the Bible and to God.

In like manner, the young ladies have a most appropriate name for their organization. The word "Philathea" is made up from two Greek words, and means "Lovers of Truth."

The history of the derivation of these two great words in our modern Sunday school and religious life will make an interesting item for the scrap book of the reader of this article.—C. E. Crossland, in Presbyterian Standard.

EMANUEL MOVEMENT FAILS

Combination of Religion, Mental Suggestion Falls Flat.

The Emmanuel movement having to do with the treatment of disease by a combination of religion, mental suggestion and medicine, and in which it was hoped an effective cure had been found for neurasthenia and other disorders of the nerve system, has proved a failure at St. Luke's hospital in San Francisco, according to a statement made by Bishop Nicholas, of the Episcopal Church.

The local experiment has lasted a year. Every effort has been made to test the efficacy of the prescribed treatment. The hospital's psychopathic ward has been discarded and Dr. A. B. Shields, D. D., the clerical superintendent of the institution, has sent in his resignation effective May 1.

Bishop Nichols thus accounts for the failure of the treatment at the hospital:

"We discovered that it was impossible to secure beneficial results by placing patients in a psychopathic ward associated with a hospital. All the depressing influences of the hospital bore down upon them. The constant atmosphere of suffering made a cure impossible and finally we were forced to the conclusion that we failed."

The San Francisco experiment has been closely watched by medical men throughout the country.

WITH THE CITY FATHERS

Board Meeting Held Tuesday Night—In Session Until 12 O'clock.

The Board of Aldermen held its monthly meeting Tuesday night with seven of the members present. Much business was transacted, holding them in session until twelve o'clock.

W. L. Brown, C. T. Munford, B. F. Patrick, James Brown, J. J. Corey, R. A. Tyson and F. G. James appeared before the board in respect to paying for the paving and curbing abutting their property. Time in which to pay for curbing was extended to January 1st, 1911, for James Brown and J. J. Corey, as they had previously paid for their paving.

C. T. Munford, B. F. Patrick and Mrs. P. E. Vance were given three years in which to pay for paving and curbing.

R. W. King asked for the usual donation to the old soldiers' reunion to be held May 10th and received $100.

A petition from the citizens of Fourth street was presented, asking that a sand-clay pavement be put on their street. The street committee was instructed to begin work on same as early as possible, provided the property owners will place heart or stone curbing abutting their property under direction of the committee.

Privilege was granted Mr. Constantine to run a merry-go-round for not less than fifteen days at $2 per day.

T. S. Norman appeared before the board and asked that his taxes be reduced. The matter was deferred until the county commissioners act upon it.

A request for fire protection from one of the suburban districts of the town was referred to the fire committee of the board to investigate and report at the next regular meeting.

The committee appointed to establish a property line on lot corner of Fifth and Washington streets recommended that the line established by street committee be sustained, and asked that the said committee be discharged. The report was accepted and committee discharged.

J. J. Corey was granted privilege to run boarding house through balance of this year for $250 license tax.

C. L. Wilkinson appeared before the board and asked that an ordinance relating to surtaxes be published elsewhere.

D. D. Overton, chief of the fire department, reported that the hose ordered by the town had arrived and had been placed on the reels.

Chief Overton and Alderman W. S. Moyer were instructed to have the hose reel house recently destroyed by fire replaced as cheaply as possible on the old site near the John Flanagan Buggy Co. property. The matter of providing apparatus for drying hose was referred to the fire committee. The matter of providing suitable fire alarm was also referred to this committee to investigate and report at the next meeting.

The week beginning Monday, April 18th, was set aside by the board as clean-up week. Chief of Police Smith was instructed to notify the citizens.

The clerk was instructed to have Accountant W. L. Hall swear to his report of the Water & Light Commission, and the same be filed with the town records.

Application of Jasper C. House as keeper of the market house was ordered filed.

Application of Andrew Moyer for restaurant license was referred to the chief of police for report at next meeting.

Jim Tucker was granted license to run a restaurant.

Accounts for the past month were approved an ordered paid.

ALBEMARLE PRESBYTERY.

Holding an Interesting Session in Washington.

Washington, N. C., 12.—Albemarle Presbytery convened in the Presbyterian church, this city, this evening at eight o'clock. Ministers and delegates have been arriving on every train today and the indications are very promising for a large attendance. This evening's meeting began with devotional exercises after which the opening sermon was preached by Rev. Isaac C. White, of Raleigh. Mr. White delivered a strong and interesting sermon taking as his text, Isaiah 53rd chapter and 6th verse. "All We Like Sheep Have Gone Astray."

Immediately after the close of the devotional exercises the roll call of the Presbytery was made and a large delegation found to be present. The Presbytery then went into the election of a moderator and Rev. R. C. Deal, of Kinston, was unanimously elected to this important office.

After the election the body adjourned for the evening and will begin its business session tomorrow morning at ten o'clock. The Presbytery will hold a three days' session, devoting the day sessions to business and the night sessions to devotional exercises and popular meetings.

One of the principle features of this session's work will be that of home and foreign missions, and a strong effort will be made to reduce popular interest in this important work. Ex-Gov. R. B. Glenn will deliver an address on home missions at a missionary rally on Wednesday evening. Rev. C. F. Hancock, of Chinkling, China, will address the Presbytery on Thursday in behalf of mission work in the celestial empire.

The ladies missionary union of Albemarle Presbytery will also hold its business meeting during the session of that body in the Methodist church which has very kindly been placed at their disposal. Albemarle Presbytery is one of the most influential religious bodies in North Carolina, and is composed of some of the finest ministers in the State.

Skinner Says he is Out of Politics.

Washington, April 11.—Col Harry Skinner, who spent several days of last week here, says that he is out of politics as far as office-seeking is concerned. But, the colonel's friends say that he must run for congress.—Charlotte Observer.

According to the Goldsboro Herald, a man in Wayne county has just been severely pricked by his conscience for a deed committed eight years ago. At that time he picked up a pocket book containing quite a sum of money. Knowing the owner, he kept the matter to himself and has all these years enjoyed the use of the money. Recently he "professed religion" and thereupon opened his pocket book and its contents, which, the Herald says, he did.

The New Form of City Government.
Hattiesburg, Miss., and Columbia, S. C., are the first two Southern cities east of Texas to try the commission form of government. (Columbia has not yet voted on the matter, but the result of the election is said to be a foregone conclusion.) When the Galveston flood came several years ago the affairs of the city were taken out of the hands of the ward politicians and party bosses—who had long controlled there as in most other American cities—and the government was vested in a commission of able business men. The results in the way of economy, enterprise, and efficient government were satisfactory that the temporary plan was continued, and the idea has spread from city to city until it now bids fair to become one of the most notable developments of twentieth century politics in America. We hope to see a great many other cities adopt the idea, and we should like to have some plan worked out whereby the same principle might be applied to county government. Senator Aldrich has just declared—and rightly—that a good business commission costs $30,000,000 a year in our present National expenditures.—Raleigh (N. C.) Progressive Farmer and Gazette.

Narrow Escape from Fire.
A night or two ago Mr. Z. W. Brown was going out Cotanch street to his home. In passing the mill plant of B. E. Moye & Co. on the corner of Fifth street, he saw the reflection of a light behind one of the buildings, and going there to investigate found a pile of straw burning. He pulled the straw away from against the building and stamped the fire out. If he had been a few minutes later the building would have been in a blaze. There is hardly a doubt that the straw was piled against the building and set on fire with incendiary intent.
