GOD'S PITY FOR THE HEATHEN
Jonah 3:5 to 4:11—April 30
"Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations."— Matt. 28:19.

SEPTICS have long been inclined to treat the story of Jonah's experiences in the belly of the great fish as a seaman's yarn. Many pulpites even laugh at the account of Jonah's experiences as suitable only for the credulous and not for wise, "Higher Critics." Nevertheless, the Great Teacher refers to Jonah and his experiences in the belly of the great fish, and those who believe the Scriptures will seek no better ground for their faith in the story than this. Nor is Jonah's account without a considerable parallel. One of the New York Journals recently gave a detailed account, profusely illustrated, showing how a sailor, overboard, was swallowed by "a great sulphur whale," but after several hours escaped, his skin made purplish from the action of the digestive fluids of the whale's stomach.

So far as we know, Jonah's case was the only one in which any one spent parts of three days and nights in the belly of a fish. True, the throats of the majority of whales seem too small to admit a man. We remember, however, that they are quite elastic. The great sulphur variety is of enormous size and is said to have a throat capable of swallowing a skiff, much larger than a man and less flexible.

Preaching to the Ninevites

Our special lesson, however, is connected with Jonah's mission to the Ninevites. Jonah's preaching was that within forty days God would destroy Nineveh. But the people, impressed by his message, repented of their sinful course and sought Divine forgiveness.

We are, of course, to understand that God knew the end from the beginning—that He knew that the Ninevites would repent and that He would not blot them out within forty days, in accordance with Jonah's preaching. Nineveh did pass away utterly, great city that it was, but not within forty literal days. Possibly the time meant by the Almighty was what is sometimes prophetic or symbolical time, a day for a year—forty days, forty years.

The lesson shows us how much greater is the compassion of the Almighty than that of His imperfect servants of human kind. God was pleased to have the Ninevites turn from their sins to hearty repentance. He was pleased to grant them an extension of earthly life. But Jonah was displeased. His argument was, There, God did make a fool of me. He told me that this great city would be destroyed within forty days, and I preached it. But all the while He must have known that it would not be destroyed within forty days. God has brought discredit upon me, and I am now to be regarded as a false prophet.

Jonah was more interested in himself and his own reputation than in the Ninevites and their interests. The Lord's servants must not do so!

God Repented of the Evil

The query arises in some minds, How can God repent and change His mind if He knows the end from the beginning? The answer is that the word repent has a wider meaning than is generally appreciated. Humanity uses it only in respect to a change or purpose. But, as modern dictionaries show, the word may mean either a change of action or a change of purpose, or both. God's purposes do not change. He never repents of them. But He does change His conduct.

Thus Israel, His favored people for centuries, was cut off, and God's dealings toward them changed. But God's purposes never changed toward Israel. He foreknew and foretold their rejection of Jesus and his rejection of them, and how later they would be repented to their own land and be forgiven and blessed by Messiah.

The Lord taught Jonah a lesson respecting his sympathy for a gourd, an inanimate thing, and his lack of sympathy for the Ninevites. So it is with many preachers and others. They have sympathy for the flowers, for the birds, for the lower animals, for children and, to some extent, for all mankind under Men may be brighter than they look, but they seldom look it.

The repentant king of Nineveh.

will be manifested in giving all an opportunity to attain to human perfection, a world-wide Eden and everlasting life, if they will hear and obey the Great Messiah—whose Head is Jesus and whose members, the elect Church, have been in process of selection and preparation throughout this Gospel Age.

THERE ARE TWO CONTESTS.

Boys Can Compete in Both With Same Acre of Corn.

The Reflector has been advised that several of the boys who are in the corn contest in this county have failed to send their names in for the state contest as well as for the county contest. The two contests are entirely separate, but the rules of each are such that the boys can belong to both and compete for the prizes offered, with the same acre of corn, provided they have filled out and returned their application for membership. Application blanks for the state contest, together with a leaflet of rules governing the contest, can be obtained by writing to Mr. T. B. Parker, Raleigh, N. C. Every boy who has not yet done so, should send in his name and get one of these blanks.

Pitt County Fair Association--Meeting Held Here

A representative meeting of citizens of all sections of the county was held here today, in response to the recent call sent out, to consider the matter of organizing a county fair association and hold a county fair next fall. A. J. Moye called the meeting to order and was elected chairman, and D. J. Whichard secretary.

After some discussion of the benefits of holding a county fair and plans for inaugurating it, the chairman on motion, appointed a committee consisting of R. L. Little, J. F. Evans, B. M. Lewis, A. G. Cox, O. L. Joyner, and J. B. Tucker, to retire and formulate some plan for organizing, and report back to the meeting.

While this committee was out there were several other talks about the fair in which pledges of hearty support were given. Upon returning the committee submitted the following, which was adopted:

We, your committee, recommend the following:

1st. That we organize a Pitt county Fair Association, with a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and a board of governors, consisting of one from each township and division of townships in the county, and that the mayor of each incorporated town be requested to appoint one additional man from his respective town to act as one of the board of governors.

That the secretary of the association ask the mayors of the different towns to make his appointment at once, and notify the secretary of said appointment.

We further recommend the assembling of the officers and board of governors in the city hall on May the 12th, at 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of advising ways and means of promoting a successful exhibit of agricultural and live stock products of Pitt county in Greenville in the fall of 1911. Time and place to be arranged by the officers and board of governors of the association.

In order to facilitate the work of the association, we suggest the immediate appointment by the president of a committee of three to petition the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, to suspend the tobacco sales during two days—Thursday and Friday—and ask them to co-operate with the association to assist in bringing about a successful exhibit.

In compliance with the report of the committee the following officers were elected:

President, J. L. Wooten.

Vice-President, A. J. Moye.

Secretary, D. J. Whichard.

Treasurer, J. B. Tucker.

Board of Governors for Townships,

J. H. Cobb, W. W. Bullock, C. J. Whitehurst, C. G. Little, J. C. Galaway, J. Mc. Dixon, H. G. Mumford, W. H. Moore, B. M. Lewis, R. L. Little, S. I. Fleming, H. A. White, M. T. Spear and J. P. Quinerly. The members of the board to be appointed from the towns by the mayors will be announced as soon as they are sent in.

The meeting was a very enthusiastic one for the fair, and it means that great good to Pitt county will come out of it.

The officers and board of governors will meet here on the 12th of May, as above suggested, to suggest the date and location for holding the fair and make other arrangements for starting off the enterprise. Every citizen of the county should give his co-operation to this movement.

THE LEGISLATIVE MILL

Of The Making of Laws There is No End.

In a document recently prepared by Herbert Putman, librarian of congress, is included an illuminative table showing the number of laws and resolutions passed by the congress and the state legislatures in two periods. In Washington the number of bills introduced has risen from 20,893 in the Fifty-sixth congress to 44,363 in the Sixty-first. Fortunately this proportion of increase did not obtain in the number of laws enacted. In the Fifty-sixth congress this was 1948, including 1505 private acts and resolutions, and in the Sixty-first 328, including 288 private measures. Thus in the earlier congress 443 public measures were passed, and in the later 594. In private measures the Fifty-ninth congress exceeded all others in this group; it took favorable action on 6249.

In the state legislatures the years 1906 and 1907 seem to have been particularly productive. The table prepared by Mr. Putman shows the output to have been:

men and travelers, however, and to keep track of these is a well-nigh hopeless task.

Mr. Putman's contribution to the statistics of statute making is incidental to a review of the practices of various members in the different task of bill drawing. The absurdities and contradictions into which members fall in preparing measures the notorious. There is a movement in congress in favor of the creation of a bill drafting bureau, manned by experts, and the examples of muddled English and inexact phraseology that abound in the measures submitted in senate and house may be thought to indicate the desirability of such an institution.—New York Sun.

SCOTLAND NECK HAPPENINGS.

Planning for Handsome Graded School Building.

Scotland Neck, N. C., April 25.—As I failed to do so in my last letter, will now say, notwithstanding the loss of the graded school building, they did not miss but one day of school. They took some of the grades in the residence of Prof. Aiken and others in other residences, the citizens held a meeting a short time afterwards and decided to rebuild at an early day and they pledged seven thousand dollars at that meeting, making sixteen thousand with what they had on hand. They appointed a committee to get up subscriptions to the amount of four thousand dollars more. They want a twenty-five thousand dollar building.

I think I can safely say that among the many good sermons that I have heard since I came to Scotland Neck, that the two last Sunday by Rev. Mr. Powers, pastor of the Baptist church, were the best. At the morning service he announced his subject for the evening service which was "Home."

The old soldiers will have a re-union here the tenth of May, but I expect to try to be in Greenville on that day for I don't want to fail to be there to see my old comrades once a year. I don't see some of them only at our yearly re-union.

Last Sunday a week ago, Mrs. Robinson went to church and on her way home was stricken with paralysis and died before night.

Mr. Thos. Price, a citizen out in the country, died suddenly yesterday, heart failure being the cause.

We had another novel marriage in our city a short time ago. The bride-to-be came from her town and went to the house of the groom-to-be, and they were married there in the presence of a large crowd of spectators. We have heard that the bride was only about sixty and the groom sixty-five. They are living happily together and we hope for them a happy future and a long life. We think they are old enough to know how to keep house all right.

There came very near being a terrible accident yesterday on Main street. A horse some distance up the street ran away and run over a child without hurting it, and run in the passage of the livery stables and came very near running over a man and some horses, and did damage a mule some and tore up a buggy considerably.

We are still having cold weather, though it is the 25th of April, the time of year for warm weather. We have had frost for several days.

Evans-Tucker.

On Wednesday at 6 o'clock, at the home of Mr. C. A. Tucker, three miles from Greenville, his daughter, Miss Novella, and Mr. James L. Evans, were married, the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. M. Curtiss, of Greensboro.

After the ceremony a supper and reception were held at the home of Mr. James Evans, uncle of the groom.

"PEOPLE MUST RUN ME IF I AM CANDIDATE,"

SO SAYS EX-GOVERNOR AYCOCK

Makes No Definite Statement as to His Position on Senatorship.

"If I am to be a candidate for the United States senate the people must run me," is the way ex-Governor Aycock expressed himself today in conversation with a close friend.

The ex-Governor is known to be averse to a long-drawn-out and strenuous campaign. He don't mind the strenuousness, it is said, but he don't want such a long siege of it, as would be the case should he come out at this time with the primary to be held way next summer or fall. However, there are many of his friends who believe the people of the state under the circumstances should be advised as to whether or not he will undertake the race.

That Senator Simmons is standing for re-election is officially known and that Governor Kitchen is in the race against him is settled to the extent that he has so stated to numerous friends, with his definite public announcement only awaiting whatever he may consider the most opportune moment to take the whole people into his confidence. Then there is the possibility of some others getting into the race and Aycock's friends want him to get in on the ground floor. This may bring from him some definite statement of the possibility of his making the race, although it is not expected that he will come out in a formal announcement of candidacy for a great while yet.

Along with other senatorial talk there come persistent expressions from the "politically-wise," that Chief Justice Clark not only proposes to stand for the senatorship, but that he is now busy with the "mending of his fences," indeed, that he is actually running for the senate so far as steady work among the people as he can reach them in a quiet way is concerned.

Many believe that whether ex-Gov. Aycock gets in the race or not, Judge Clark will be in the running and will put up a strenuous campaign. Thus far he has not expressed himself in such way as would bring about the newspaper presentation of his real attitude.—Charlotte Observer.

Dangerous Aliens.

Moved by the recent affray in London between foreign anarchists and the police and soldiery, the British Parliament is taking measures to require from all refugees from other countries guarantees of good behavior. The Washington Post sees in this action a noble contrast with the weakness of congress in dealing with dangerous aliens that come to our shores. Outbreaks of foreign criminals such as that which London experienced, are not infrequent in this country, says the Post; New York, Chicago and San Francisco having been the scene of such occurrences, without congress paying the slightest heed, whereas in England one is enough to bring about vigorous action by Parliament. Our Washington contemporary thinks it advisable that aliens subject to suspicion should be compelled to give bond for their good behavior. This, of course, would amount to practical exclusion, for what kind of a bond could the average immigrant of this type furnish? Probably not one of a thousand immigrants, good, bad or indifferent, could find means of furnishing a bond of any kind.—Pittsburg

Of Policy That Had Been in Force 24 Hours.

Greenville, N. C., April 28, 1911.

Mr. C. L. Wilkinson, Agent, Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:

I acknowledge receipt of check for $916.67 by the Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York, covering claim for loss of my left hand on the evening of February the 11th. I wish to thank you for the prompt manner in which you handled this claim.

This policy was issued to me on the 10th day of February, and on the evening of the 11th of February, just the next day I had the misfortune to lose my hand and under the policy contract the Fidelity & Casualty Company paid me without any "red tape" the above amount.

Very truly yours,

A PLEASANT EVENING AT TRAINING SCHOOL

ORIGINAL PROGRAM PRESENTED.

Makes Decided Hit and Much Applauded.

Saturday evening the E class of the E. C. T. T. S. gave an entertainment in the auditorium of the school. This was the last of a series of pleasant evenings that have been given by the various classes of the institution. These occasions have been delightful, both to the student body and their friends who have been fortunate enough to be present. The following thrown upon a canvass by the elegant lantern of the school, gave the first information as to what the elegant lantern of the school, tainment would be:

"The Ladies Home Journal. E class presents a sample copy."

Then came upon the same canvass immediately preceding the rendering of each number the following "Table of Contents:"

De Coppah Moon,

That Reminds Me

Spring Styles.

Mrs. Rorer with her Class.

The Lady from Philadelphia.

The Most Active Actors, Part I and Part II.

Sweet Miss Mary.

The Country Distributor of Common Sense.

The Advertising Department.

From the beginning to the end of the entertainment there was not a dull moment. Each piece was followed by prolonged applause and encores were the fashion of the evening. Colored lights thrown upon the various scene added much to the effect. It would take more space than we have today to note what richly deserves to be mentioned about each number presented. To be appreciated it had to be seen. We must say, however, for originality of conception and preparation, and for unique presentation, the program commended itself and gave a number of surprises to everyone present.

The "hits" in many of the pieces were much enjoyed by the entire audience. To Miss Jenkins, the class advisor, and Miss Muffy, the music director, is largely due the pleasure of this most delightful evening. Under their direction and training the class surpassed the most sanguine expectations of their most ardent friends.

These entertainments have already become an interesting feature in the work of this, the state's youngest institution, and are looked forward to with real joy, both by the students and the people of the town.

Scotch Humor.

Mr. A. C. Artan, sends us a copy of The Edinburg Evening Dispatch with the following item marked:

A Scotch farmer one day called to a farm lad, "Here, 'I am gan roon' and give the coos a cabbage each, but min' ye g'ie the biggest to the coo that g'ies the maist milk." The boy departed to do his bidding, and on his return the farmer asked him if he had done as he was told. "Aye, maister," replied the lad. "I g'ied 'em a' a cabbage each, and hung the biggest on the pump handle.—Fayetteville Observer.

BOOSTING A CITY.

Six Men From St. Joe Show How It Can Be Done.

Six men from St. Joe, Mo., were gracefully disposed on the sofas in the lobby of the Holland House yesterday morning, but mystery hangs about why they suddenly left home the other day and headed for New York. News may come out of it yet, according to two of the party, but the cat was not let out of the bag yesterday morning. However, the two, when asked for a line about St. Joe itself chanted a paean of praise about the place and told why the last census made it out that St. Joe had retrograded.

The party consisted of F. P. Snowden, B. C. Donnell, Geo. D. Bright, M. H. Alderman, C. Knight and C. Rea, but only two talked. These affirmed that out there the inhabitants refer to the town as "St. Joseph" and it is only outsiders who abbreviate it. And as for the town's apparently not having grown in the ten years preceding the last census, why somebody padded the figures in 1900. "For," said one, "according to the school statistics we have grown in ten years 16 per cent."

"St. Joe," said the other, "is a great jobbing centre. It has a population of about 95,000."

"It has a big candy manufactory that employs 500 girls," said the other.

"And the largest overall manufacturing industry in the whole country" added the other.

"There are five such factories, and they employ between 5,000 and 6,000 girls," came from the right.

"We have one of the best woolen mills in the United States," was heard from the right. And from the left came of the antiphonal, "and it sells some of its products in this city."

St. Joe is a packing centre for all the big canneries. We have built a new high school and three ward schools. There is an interurban railway running twelve miles, and half of it was financed by local people."

"And we have a fine 10-story hotel, which is as good as any you could want to find anywhere." And then, in final chorus, "St. Joe is a great town!"—New York Sun.

NEW SERIES OF STOCK.

In Home Building and Loan Association.

The eleventh series of stock in the Home Building and Loan Association will open on Saturday, May 6th, and the secretary is ready to take your name for shares. The large advertisement in this paper gives an idea what the association is doing. The association is now six years old, and in that time ten series have been opened. The table printed in the advertisement shows the number of shares in each of these series and what they are now worth. The total number of shares is 1,937 and their value is now $76,036.71 which is loaned to persons to help them own their home.

The new series to open next Saturday should have a large number of shares, for there is no institution in the community helping it as much as The Home Building and Loan Association. The larger the number of shares in it the more good it can do. It also helps to acquire the saving habit which is an advantage. Any boy can carry a share on 25 cents a week and have $100 saved up in a few years.

THE MEN DISCUSS THE SUBJECT, BUSINESS HONESTY

SUNDAY'S MEETING A GOOD ONE

You Always Miss Something If You Are Absent.

The Men's Prayer League had a discussion of a practical topic at the meeting in the Baptist church, Sunday afternoon, the leaders, Messrs. G. E. Harris, T. R. Moore and F. M. Wooten, making most timely and interesting talks on "Business Honesty," followed by short talks from some of the others present. Honesty as it relates to various phases of life was discussed—in business, in home, in the church, in social life and in meeting engagements with others. Those who heard gained a better idea of what real honesty is, the teaching of "love thy neighbor as thyself" and have charity for all were prominently impressed.

The league had a pleasant surprise at this meeting in a quartette rendered by Messrs. Warren, Dupree, Whitchard and Pugh. Such surprises as this are likely to occur frequently in these meetings, and you never know when you will miss them. In fact, you miss something interesting and good every time you miss one of these meetings.

Next Sunday afternoon the meeting will be held in the Methodist church when the subject will be "What Think Ye of Christ?" Text, Matt. 22:42 and Matt. 16 15-16. Leaders, Messrs. O. E. Warren, M. W. Wallace and R. L. Jones.

EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS TRAINING SCHOOL NOTES

HAS SEVERAL ENTERTAINMENTS

Members of Faculty Visit Other Schools.

President Wright attended the fourteenth meeting of the Educational Conference of the South recently held at Jacksonville, Fla.

President Wright has delivered the literary address at the closing of the following schools: Mt. Olive, April 14; Stantonburg, April 23; and Jacksonville May 2.

Mr. W. H. Ragsdale attended the closing exercises of the Grifton Graded school April 27th and 28th.

Mr. C. W. Wilson well attend a picnic and educational rally this week at the closing of the Saratoga school.

Miss Crane, secretary of the Virginia-Carolina territory of the Y. W. C. A., spent two days at the school recently. Her visit was a great help to the organization.

On Sunday evening Miss Jenkins showed a number of interesting pictures of Korea that her mission study class has collected. She used the magic lantern. The lantern is a source of much pleasure and profit.

The second year class gave a most delightful vaudeville performance on the evening of April 22nd. There were some very amusing original features, a hypnotic show and a minstrel number; tableaux, an illustrated song, a beautiful gavotte and a clever play.

The senior class served a delicious luncheon to the faculty and Ex-Gov. and Mrs. Jarvis on the afternoon of April 29th. The luncheon of four courses, prepared and served by the class, reflected great credit upon both the class and the instructor, Miss Pugh.

The one year class gave on Saturday evening, an unique entertainment, presenting a sample copy of the Ladies' Home Journal. The magic lantern was used for throwing poster headlines. The cover picture pages and advertising department were shown in tableaux; the other departments were dramatized.

Miss Dabney, teacher of primary methods, has visited several schools near by. By observing the actual work in the school room she is brought in much closer contact with the teachers.

Every indication is that the summer school this year will be much larger than last year. The school has received at present one hundred per cent. more applications for attendance than at this time last year.

Many county and city superintendents and high school principals will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the course in school ad-

COURT ADJOURNED.

Judge Ferguson's Brother Died This Morning.

While in court this morning, Judge G. S. Ferguson received a telegram announcing the sudden death from paralysis of his brother, Mr. W. B. Ferguson, at Franklin. As soon as the bar learned of the contents of the message, there was a common consent to a continuance of all cases so that the judge could leave to attend the funeral. He left on the afternoon train for Waynesville.

HAPPENINGS AROUND ROCHDALE.

Union Meeting, Personal Mention and Other Notes.

Rochdale, N. C., May 3.—The union meeting at Arthurs was largely attended at every service. There were many visitors from Wilson, Farmville, Greenville, Grimesland and Grifton, also from other places.

Misses Mattie Little and Virginia Mayo, of Wilson, came Saturday afternoon to visit friends and returned Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Liss. McLawhorn, of Ayden, spent several days at Mr. F. M. Smith's. They returned to Ayden Monday.

Mrs. Meeks, of Farmville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Pattie Smith.

Miss Janie Tyson, of Remston, is visiting Mrs. C. E. McLawhorn.

Mrs. Mary Smith, of Farmville, is visiting Mrs. L. W. Smith.

Miss Agnes Smith, of E. C. T. T. Scholl, came home Sunday and returned to Greenville Monday.

There will be regular services at the new Christian church at Arthur, every third Lord's day and at night. Every one is extended a cordial welcome to attend.

GALLOWAY'S CROSS ROADS.

News Happenings and Personal Notes.

Galloway's Cross Roads, May 3. The farmers in this section are busy setting out tobacco.

Mr. R. D. Edwards and nephew, Macon, spent Sunday in Ayden.

Mr. W. P. Buck and son, L. R. Buck, went to Greenville today and took in the game of ball.

We have several people attending the Mason meeting at Grimesland tonight.

There was a large crowd at Sunday school at Salem Sunday, glad to see them out.

We heard that Mr. J. C. Galloway was to go to Hookerton Saturday. Hope he had a nice trip.

Miss Mamie Hudson, who has been visiting Miss Maggie Hudson returned home Wednesday.

We are very sorry to hear that Mrs. Johnson Mills is quite ill. Hope she will soon improve.

People down this way believe in getting married. We had a couple to get married twice. The man said this made his fourth time.

Mr. John Galloway's horse got frightened at an automobile Sunday and run in the wire fence and got cut very bad.

Mr. J. A. Hudson attended the union meeting in Greene county last week and returned home Sunday.

Mr. H. J. Stokes went to Washington today.

Miss Velma Porter spent Sunday with Miss Myrtle Stokes.

Mr. B. F. Buck was all smiles Sunday. He was with his girl. Guess they will change about the fifth of May.

Mr. Lester Edwards and mother spent Saturday and Sunday near Vanceboro.

Messrs. J. C. Galloway and G. S. Porter went to Greenville yesterday.

Dwelling Burned.

Sunday night between 11 and 12 o'clock fire destroyed the dwelling house on the J. R. Moye farm just beyond the old race track, about one mile above town on the Farmville road. The house was occupied by Mr. Walter Jones, who lost all of his household and kitchen furniture.

The origin of the fire is unknown. When Mr. Jones' family was awakened the kitchen roof had just collapsed and there is no means of telling how it caught afire.

POPULATION OF NORTH CAROLINA

Detailed Figured Announced by Census Director Durand.

1910 AND 1900 COMPARED

Gains and Losses Shown in a Decade by the Various Cities, Towns, Villages and Townships Throughout the State—Total Population is 2,206,287, as Against 1,893,810 Ten Years Ago.

North Carolina's position in the front ranks of the southern states in regards to population has been greatly strengthened during the decade from 1900 to 1910.

Detailed population statistics of the state has just been issued by Census Director E. Dana Durand at Washington. They give the figures for every minor civil division and incorporated city.

The total population of the state is 2,206,287 for 1910, as against 1,893,810 in 1900, an increase of 302,477.

Unlike some of the northern and middle western states, the movement from the farming districts to the cities is not nearly as pronounced in this state.

The cities almost without exception show decided increases, in some instances as high as 100 per cent. Charlotte, with a population of 11,557 in 1890 and 18,091 in 1900, is returned with 34,014 in 1910, an increase in ten years of 5923. Wilmington had 20,978 in 1900 and now has 25,748, while Raleigh shows an increase of approximately 50 per cent, having 19,218 in 1910, as compared with 13,643 in 1900. Asheville is another city that prospered, having a population of 18,762, as against 14,694 ten years ago.

Durham, with 6679 people in 1900, is returned with 18,241 in 1910, an increase of nearly 200 per cent.

The census returns indicate that North Carolina is forging to the front as a manufacturing and mercantile state, while it is losing little as an agricultural state.

Beautiful Spanish Dancer Gives Praise to Pe-ru-na.

NERVOUS prostration is usually the result of a vocation which requires a continual strain on the nervous system.

In such cases it would be wise if a change of vocation could be made. But this is not always possible and a good tonic becomes a necessity.

Peruna is a tonic that invigorates without producing a drug habit.

Peruna is not a beverage nor a bitter, but an honest, straightforward tonic that increases the appetite and encourages digestion.

There is a great demand for tonics during the depressing heat of summer, and especially in countries where hot weather is very prevalent.

Such a demand is exactly met by Peruna.

Miss Pilar Monterde Praises Peruna as a Tonic.

A letter sent to the Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., from the popular Spanish dancer, Miss Pilar Monterde, is as follows:

Teatro Principal, City of Mexico, Nov. 3, 1905.
The Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.
Gentlemen: Having used your justly celebrated remedy, "La Peruna," for some time, I have the pleasure of informing you that I consider it the best tonic I have ever used.
It is a wonderful fortifier of the nerves after exhaustion and it increases the vitality of the whole body, and my own case has produced the most complete and permanent restoration. It is also pleasant to the taste.
I do not hesitate, therefore, to recommend this remedy to all women as the best and most pleasant tonic that they can possibly take.
Yours very truly,
(Miss) P. Monterde.

COMMEMORATING THE PANAMA CANAL

NEW ORLEANS WILL CELEBRATE

Southern Commercial Congress Will Hold Series of Conventions.

Washington, April 29.—Managing Director Dawe, of the Southern Commercial Congress, returned today from a two weeks trip that included New Orleans and ten other Southern cities. It resulted in a national movement to commemorate the transformation of the Panama ditch into the Panama canal.

In an interview today, Mr. Dawe explained the connected details of the idea. He said:

"Water will be turned into the Panama ditch between September and November, 1913.

That there will be the time for the nation to celebrate the existence of the Panama canal.

The logical point for such a commemoration is the nearest great city to the thing commemorated, so that the canal itself may be visited as part of the commemoration.

Louisiana, having gone in and failed to secure the 1915 exposition, is by that fact unable to move in the matter of a national celebration.

The Southern Commercial Congress being southward in extent will move to give to the celebration a national significance with the Southern States acting unitedly as hosts.

The region affected by the Panama canal is the entire nation and the congress will, therefore, invite to New Orleans the leaders of the nation along various lines.

Under the guidance of President Fletcher and the executive committee of the Southern Commercial Congress, there will be held a series of conventions in New Orleans at Pacific exposition of 1905.

Each chief commercial interest of the nation, and running through out the month of November. Concurrently with the convention, Louisiana will arrange a series of land and water pageants, historical and allegorical, setting forth the progress of the nation from the time of the savage to the date of the wedding of the Atlantic and Pacific. At certain pre-arranged dates in the month, or possibly daily, throughout the month, one or more excursions will leave New Orleans to carry the nation's business leaders to see the canal on which so much of the nation's money has been used. The plan will endeavor to make it possible for men living within one thousand miles of the gulf to spend not more than $100 in traveling expenses to the canal and home again.

The Southern Commercial Congress and the Louisiana leaders are emphatically of the opinion that as this celebration will have no exposition feature, it will aid rather than hinder the work of the victorious Pacific coast during the Panama-

GRAND JURY REPORT.

Of the April Term of Pitt Superior Court.

To the Hon. Garland S. Ferguson, Judge presiding at the April term of Pitt county Superior court:

As foreman of the grand jury of Pitt county, and in behalf of such grand jurors, I beg to report that we, through our committees, have visited the various institutions of the county, and that we have visited the sheriff's office, the clerk of superior court's office and the register of deeds' office, and find their offices and books in as good condition as could be expected, taking into consideration their temporary quarters.

We find the treasurer's books well kept, and commend him upon the excellent and simple system of keeping same. We recommend that the commissioners purchase at once the necessary books for the keeping of the accounts for the county by the treasurer, as the books now used are

BASE BALL

Tarboro Vs. Greenville Monday Afternoon.

The Greenville juniors will cross bats with a similar team from the city on the upper Tar Monday afternoon. Tarboro puts out a good team every year, nevertheless the locals will go into the game with the determination to win and will stick to the finish. The boys have been practicing this week and have shown some classy fielding. The line-up is yet uncertain, but will be picked from the following men: Bowling, Bryan, Kittrell, Murphey, Moore, Ragsdale, Burch, Otterbridge, Phillips and Fleming.

The Tarboro team will come down on the boat and bring a number of rooters and fannies. Come out and root for the home team. The game will be played at Moye's new park, the future home of the Greenville team in the Coast Line League. The time of the game will be announced later on the hand-bills. Watch for them.

TOOL HOUSE BURNED.

Mr. B. F. Patrick Sustains Loss on His Farm.

About one o'clock this morning, a two-story building and shelters on the farm of Mr. B. F. Patrick, about three miles from town, was destroyed by fire. The upper story of the building was used as a hay loft and a large quantity of hay was in it at the time. The fire started in this hay in some unaccountable way. The first floor and the shelters attached were used for storing farm implements and tools, and a quantity of these, including a peanut planter, were burned with the building.

The loss is about $250 with $50 insurance on the building. There was no insurance on any of the farm implements.

Classification.

"Sir," said a little blustering man to a religious opponent; "I say, sir, do you know to what sect I belong?"

"Well, I don't exactly know," was the answer; "but to judge by your make, shape, and size, I should say you belonged to a class called in sect."

INCREASE IN POPULATION

This Also Hits Conditions in Pitt County.

If you say good roads mean an increase in wealth—which is a fact—the anti-bond people, or some of them, will answer that an increase in land valuations simply means more taxes and they don't want that kind of wealth—they don't want their property increased in value. It seems strange that one should not want his property enhanced in value, but there are folks who honestly take that position.

But there is one other thing that good roads mean, in this same connection, which it seems would be generally advantageous, but that is more population. Just as a town which has modern improvements and advantages attracts capital and population, so will a county that has good roads, good schools, etc., attract population and capital. People looking for new locations prefer to go where these improvements have been made. There is plenty of land for sale in Ireland, there is an abundance of room for more people. More people, more workers, means more property; and an increase in population and wealth will help to pay the taxes. The more people who come in and create more wealth, more taxable property, the more taxes we will have and the less the tax rate will be.

The Stony Point correspondent of the Taylorsville Scout, whose articles appears in another column, makes a strong point when he asks why it is that people in Mecklenburg and other counties where bonds have been issued and large sums expended for road building, do not sell out and move to Ireland and Alexander, where land is cheap and taxes lower. If bonds for road improvement are such a calamity as some people profess to think, it is surprising that this sort of exodus does not take place, but it doesn't and we all know why. People do not as a rule voluntarily locate in a backward, undeveloped and unprogressive community. There are exceptions of course, for sometimes, in an undeveloped and unprogressive community, where land is cheap, a shrewd business man may see a chance to make money. But people who want permanent homes will as naturally drift to a community that has churches and schools and good roads as a duck will take to water; and they will gladly pay two, three and four times as much for property in a community that offers such advantages as they will pay for the same property in a community that lacks these advantages.—Statesville Landmark.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil, when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy, only 50c at all druggists.

IN OKLAHOMA

They Find Poor Results of the Bank Guarantee Plan.

Reports of the banking situation in Oklahoma indicate that the "guarantee" plan that has been followed in that state since February, 1908, is meeting with many of the troubles its critics predicted. Under the law the state banks and trust companies contribute to the guarantee fund 1 per cent. of their average deposits, new institutions adding to the fund 3 per cent. of their capital stock. When a bank or trust company fails, the depositors are immediately paid from this fund, the state then having a first lien on the assets of the insolvent corporation. A great increase in the number of state banks came after the plan was put into operation. It is said that in one village of 150 inhabitants two banks were started, with aggregate deposits of only $15,000. Irresponsible promoters rushed into the banking business, and, too, the national banks themselves were forced in many instances to become state institutions by the advantage the latter held in bidding for deposits. But the cost of the guarantee system has been found too burdensome, chiefly owing to the assessments which, by the law, had to be made when the guarantee fund was drawn too low. Now the rush is the other way. Not only are the former national banks, which had, under pressure of the guarantee plan, become state institutions, re-incorporated under the Federal law, but many original state banks are doing the same thing. The process recalls the experiences of three other states, New York, Vermont and Michigan, over three-quarters of a century ago.—American Review of Reviews.

The Booster.

I'd rather be a booster than a knocker any day.

I'd rather thing with hope than doubt the words I have to say.

I'd rather miss my guess than on another man's success.

Than to view his bitter struggle and to prophesy his fall.

I would rather say, "He's coming" than "He's going," when I'm summing.

Up the labors of my brothers; I would rather boost them all.

I would rather speak the kind things than the mean things any day.

I'd rather swing a baton than a hammer, let me say.

I would rather sing my rhyme in a sort of two-step time.

Then to let it drag in dirges in a gloomy, heavy style.

I would rather say "God bless you" And with words of cheer impress you,

Than to preach about your follies all the while.

I would rather be a booster than a knocker any day.

I'd rather praise than criticize in what I have to say.

I'd rather not be wise.

At the cost of other's sighs.

I would rather see the good things than the evil that men do;

When I boost a man along Than be perfect in my judgment, but make everybody blue.

Microbes and Cats.

A Chicago man has organized to kill off the cats. He is a doctor and gives as a reason for his murderous intent that the cat's whiskers are the roosting places of numerous unsightly and terrifying microbes, ready to pounce upon their victim at the first chance. In order to expedit the massacre of the felines the doctor has invented a sort of gibbet trap, which is said to terminate the cat in the most painless manner. The doctor is now being assailed on every side, especially by the women who have taken the cat tribe to heart.

We do not expect this man's microbe scare will result in the death of a single cat. People are getting tired of microbe scares. There are too many of them. If they run from all the microbes discovered they will keep on the run. A person should know how to live—how to keep clean pure, temperate, brave, hopeful, and then snap his fingers at the microbes, especially those in the cat's whiskers.—Ohio State Journal.

Who Can Accommodate Borders During The Summer School.

At present the indications are that we will have many more applicants for admission to the summer school term than we can accommodate in our dormitories. Many of these will be men. If these people can get rooms and board in Greenville it will be an accommodation to them and we will appreciate it very much. Some of them will wish accommodations for four weeks only, and others for eight.

If you will take some of these teachers this summer, please write me a note (write the note even if you have told us over the telephone) stating your street address, the number of people you can room and board, whether you prefer men or women, or if you can accommodate both men and women, and what you will charge per week for room and board. If you can furnish rooms but not table board let us know this, or if you can furnish table board but not rooms, let us know. In either event give your charges per week.

We are not taking men into our dormitories for the summer term. Several men have requested that I provide a place for them to board. I hope you will let me hear from you by Saturday of this week.

Bad Headaches Quickly Disappear.

Mrs. Chas. Hartley, 516 Franklin St., Jackson, Mich., says: "I had suffered all kinds of pain and agony from stomach complaint for several months. The pains in my stomach were very bad, the gas forced the food up into my throat, my food did not digest, headaches of the worst kind attended, I became weak, nervous and in a condition so I could not sleep.

Was alarmed at my condition as doctoring did not benefit me, finally I was induced to try MI-O-NA, and after using for about two weeks, I found a cure.

If you have a sallow complexion, pimples, blotches, or dull eyes, your digestion is all wrong, and you should take MI-O-NA stomach tablets immediately, and put your stomach right.

MI-O-NA instantly stops belching of gas, sour stomach, heartburn and foul breath and gives complete relief in five minutes.

MI-O-NA is guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, sea sickness, vomiting of pregnancy, or money back.

Don't hesitate to try MI-O-NA. It is for sale by Coward & Wooten and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box.

Catherine Cameron, who boasted when she stepped ashore from the steamer Minnehaha yesterday that she was the first woman to wear a harem skirt in the streets of London, earned for herself the further distinction of being the first woman to be held up by the customs inspectors and asked to pay duty on three harem skirts she had brought with her. After a little objection, she paid the $50 duty and the skirts came in.—New York American.

MONEY BACK.

Hyomei Cures Catarrh Without Stomach Dosing, or Money Back.

Yes, dear reader, catarrh can be cured; but not by pouring vile, nauseating drugs into the stomach.

And catarrh germs thrive, flourish and multiply in the nose and throat. Can you kill these tough and persistent little health destroyers by swallowing pills or nostrum? Any physician will tell you it cannot be done.

HYOMEI (pronounced High-o-me) is a germ killing vaporized air which, when breathed either through the mouth or nose, will kill catarrh germs and soothe and heal the inflamed and mutilated membrane promptly. It gives relief in two minutes.

HYOMEI is such a powerful germ destroyer that it penetrates every fold and crevice of the mucous membrane of the nose and throat.

A complete outfit, which includes inhaler, a bottle of HYOMEI and sample instructions for use, costs $1.00.

Should you need a second bottle of HYOMEI the price is only 50c at Coward & Wooten and leading druggists everywhere sell HYOMEI.

$50,000 FOR A BIBLE.

First Book Printed From Movable Type—Highest Price Ever Paid.

The first book ever printed from movable type brought the highest price ever paid for any book. The prize was the Gutenberg Bible. The purchaser, Henry E. Huntington, of Los Angeles, and the price $50,000.

The purchase was made at the opening session of the sale of the library of the late Robert Hoe, the largest public auction sale of books ever attempted. Experts have estimated the collection to be worth more than a million dollars, and wealthy amateurs and dealers from Europe have come to vie with the American collectors in the bidding. It was evident from the progress of the sale that American bidders would take in the cream of the offerings at prices averaging higher than any ever offered at a public book auction.

The highest price previously paid for the Gutenberg Bible was $20,000, at which Bernard Quaritch purchased it in England fourteen years ago. At a private sale he disposed of it shortly afterward to Mr. Hoe at a profit of $2,500 and it has remained in the Hoe collection ever since.

The copy was printed some time between 1450 and 1455.

Bidding for the treasured book was spirited, with Bernard Quaritch, son of the former owner, participating until the bids passed the $21,000 mark. From there it jumped by thousands at a clip to $45,000. At $49,000, P. A. B. Widener, of Philadelphia, who had been the most determined of the runners up, dropped out of the race and the even $50,000 was bid by Mr. Huntington. The winner is a son of the late Collis P. Huntington.—New York World.

REENVILLE GRADED SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

SCHOOL WILL CLOSE MAY 14-15.

Sermon By Dr. Massey, Address by Dr. Brewer.

The annual commencement exercises of the graded schools of Greenville will be held May 14th and 15th. On the evening of the 14th, which is Sunday evening, the annual sermon will be preached before the graduating class by Dr. L. S. Massey, of Raleigh. Dr. Massey is said to be a strong preacher, and we believe all who hear him will be pleased with his discourse. The service will be a union service, the pastors of all the churches having very kindly agreed to join with it. The sermon will be preached in the Methodist church.

On Monday evening, the 15th, the graduating exercises will be held, at which time the annual literary address will be delivered by Dr. Chas. E. Brewer, of Wake Forest. Dr. Brewer is one of the strongest members of the faculty at Wake Forest, and the management of the school congratulates itself on being able to secure so eminent a scholar and speaker.

The class of 1911 numbers fourteen, the largest by two that the school has yet had to complete the course at one time. There will also be four or five to graduate in music.

Some weeks ago the seniors elected three of their members to represent them as essayists on the night of their graduation. These were Misses Marguerite Higgs, Bettie Pearl Fleming and Mr. David C. Moore, Jr. The essays are nearly completed. The class will not be disappointed in the work of its representatives, as these are of a high order.

The undergraduates in the music class above the sixth grade will give a recital on Tuesday evening, May 16th. In connection with this recital, the usual exhibit of the children's work in drawing will be given.

One more week of school, and then the examinations begin. These latter days are very important ones, and the pupils who make good use of the next few days will find the results in their grades. Most of the children have studied well this year, and the percentage of pupils promoted will be fully as good, as heretofore. There is no season that teachers dread quite so much as the one just ahead of the graded school teachers. Review work is hard, giving examinations is trying, and the reading of the large bundle of papers each afternoon and night that was collected from the test of the day, is the most exhausting work a teacher has to do.

A large number of parents have already enrolled their children for the summer session of school. The plan to lengthen the term seems to meet the hearty approval of the people; the school authorities are gratified with the ready response of their proposal for extending the session. Already enough pupils have registered to continue four of the grades. The term is now a certainty.

Excellent Rolls.

Friday evening Principal C. M. Epps, of the colored graded school, left at the editor's home a plate of rolls made by the students in the industrial department of the school. The rolls were excellent and gave evidence of the good work the students are doing.

AN UNUSUAL CHICKEN.

Hatched With Four Feet and Three Wings.

Mrs. Charlie Dudley, of Grifton, writes The Reflector that on Thursday one of her hens came off with 12 little chicks and left 3 eggs in the nest. While making her rounds in the afternoon to gather eggs from a long row of nests, Mrs. Dudley saw a little chick, not even dry, in the recently deserted nest. This particular chick which was hatched out alone had four feet and three wings, and seemed perfectly natural otherwise. The chicken died.

Bethel Commencement.

The commencement exercises of Bethel high school will take place from May 5th to 9th. The program is as follows:

Friday, 5th, 8 p. m.—Entertainment by grades 1-9.

Sunday, 7th, 8 p. m.—Sermon by Rev. L. P. Howard, of Rocky Mount.

Monday, 8th, 3 p. m.—Class day exercises.

Monday, 8th, 8 p. m.—Concert by music class.

Tuesday, 9, 10 a. m.—Declamation and recitation contest, by 10th grade.

Tuesday, 2 p. m.—Graduating exercises. Address by Mr. Allen J. Barwick, of Raleigh.

Tuesday, 8 to 11 p. m.—Reception.

Other Moons Than Ours.

There are in all twenty-five moons besides our queen of night; Mars having two, Jupiter eight, Saturn ten, Uranus four and Neptune one. Of course, new lunar additions are likely to be discovered at any time, although it is improbable that Mercury and Venus have any satellites or that Mars has more than two. The two known moons of Mars are, indeed, very minute, neither being over fifty miles in diameter. On the other hand, Jupiter's first four satellites, as well as Ganymede, are each larger than Queen Lunar, Ganymede having a diameter of about 3,500 miles. Titan, of Saturn, possesses a diameter approximating 3,000 miles, while that of Neptune's sole satellite is about 2,000 miles.

As respects our own moon, Queen Luna has one-fourth the size and one-eighth the weight of our earth. Luna's distance from us varies a good deal, from 221,000 miles to 252,000 miles. Her mean or average distance is about 238,000 miles.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A man can be made worse off than he is by changing his job, so he generally does.

AN EXTRA MONTH OF GRADED SCHOOL

WILL BE HELPFUL TO STUDENTS

Superintendent Smith Outlines Plan For This Work.

To the People Served by the Graded School of Greenville:

A session of eight months is too short a term to do the work required of the modern-day graded school. It has not seemed wise to make our term longer than eight months on the public fund, because it is not large enough. In order to overcome in some measure the defects arising from our shortened term, we wish to propose to the people the maintenance of an extra month of school, to begin May 17th, and close June 16th. The tuition fee will be two dollars and twenty-five cents.

In schools with eight month terms, the children get further behind in arithmetic and English than in any other subjects. These are the chief subjects in which we offer instruction; and in these we propose to give some very careful and thorough drill. Our work in English will include instruction in composition, reading, writing and spelling.

A large number of the pupils in the graded school need some extra drill work in arithmetic and English. Few of them would fail to be helped from such instruction. Our intention is not to carry the pupils forward so much as it will be to broaden and deepen their knowledge of the subjects to be taught. And this is what is needed. All pupils who have been in Section B of the intermediate grades this year will profit very greatly by attending the school.

Section A pupils will be strengthened and improved by the course. A number of the pupils who fail of promotion in May can be advanced later if they will take the course.

The daily sessions will begin at 8:45 each day, and close at 1 o'clock. These hours are the best in the day for study. Plenty of time is also afforded for recreation.

We shall not let any of the grades become crowded. No teacher will have more than twenty-six pupils. As many of the present corps of teachers will be engaged for the term as the registration will justify, no new books will be purchased.

Persons who have not been attending the graded school this year may register. This is a good opportunity for a large number of young people in the community.

If enough pupils are registered to justify second grades are registered to justify her remaining, Miss Irvine will teach a class of pupils in these grades.

The proposed extra month of school will be taught if the registration by the fifteenth of May will justify it. I urge upon our people the importance of the term. For eight years we have been having thirty two weeks of school per year; the other twenty weeks the children have been doing but little save losing time. There seems to be no practical way for us to lengthen the term except to maintain a subscription school. Nearly all of the children in the intermediate grades need more drill in English and especially in arithmetic than we can possibly give them in eight months. Twenty weeks of a child's life every year is too long to spend in vacation. I sincerely hope we may have a large registration before May 15th, so that we may have an

A Story To Appear in the June National Magazine.

"Now for North Carolina" will embody the wonderful story of the progress and enterprise of the Old North State, and appear in the National Magazine for June. So great and so radical have been the changes during the last generation that it requires sixty-four pages to do justice to its enterprise and prosperity of today. The saying of Christ, that "a prophet is not without honor save in his own country," might be paraphrased today to the effect, that "The glories of a state are not without admiration and honor abroad, while not duly appreciated at home."

North Carolina is indeed an empire in itself. The coastal district, with its canals and lumber interests, has always been associated in Northern minds with the old school boy phrase "tar, pitch and turpentine," and too little with the fisheries of the great sounds and diversified productions of a light but generous sort. Westward the great plateau district and the mineral-bearing ranges support prosperous towns and agricultural valley hamlets, from which many swift and clear rivers afford waterways to the sea.

Many a European nation, great in the annals of antiquity, has no prouder record of man's bravery, woman's beauty, diversified resources and varied scenery, than the Old North State. The healing ozone of the pine belt, where many thousands go to find a new lease of life, the minerals and quarries of the mountain lands, the deposits of gold, sapphire, mica and iron, and the historical interests associated with the early settlement of a state where the first white child on the American continent was born, blend in the story of the old conditions and new triumphs. From Roanoke to Asheville, from Elizabeth City to Wilmington, in every section and every direction, the older towns are thriving, and new centers of population are carrying diversified business and industries into hitherto purely agricultural sections.

The farmers and farm population of North Carolina are increasing, and the comparative isolation of plantation days is passing away. With intensive farming and the progressive manufacturing and municipal enterprise almost everywhere dominating, the story, "Now for North Carolina," cannot fail to be of great interest to every American. The cover design, embodying an antique caravel, such as that in which Sir Walter Raleigh's first adventurers entered Croatan Sound, makes a spirited and especially appropriate setting for the title "Now for North Carolina." No one who has ever lived or been interested in North Carolina, can fail to find in the June National a story to be preserved as an up-to-date history and appreciation of the great "North State."

WINS $1,000 CUP FOR 1910

W. K. KELLOGG TROPHY GOES TO ILLS. MAN

BEST EAR IN 3,125,713,600 BU

R. A. James, of Charleston, Ill., is
The 1910 Winner of The $1,000
Cup—Grows Best Ear in the 3,125-713,600 Bushels of Last Year's Bumper Crop.

The W. K. Kellogg National Corn Trophy

R. A. James, of Charleston, Ill., has the proud distinction of having grown the best ear of corn in all the 1,125-713,600 bushels of last year's bumper crop. At the National Corn Show just held at Columbus, Ohio, this gentleman was awarded the W. K. Kellogg National Corn Trophy, donated in 1909 by W. K. Kellogg, president of

R. A. James, Winner of W. K. Kellogg
National Corn Trophy for 1910

the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Co., of Battle Creek, Michigan.

Thousands of ears of corn from all parts of the country and of all varieties were entered in the competition. The selection of the grand champion Sweepstakes and the award of the Kellogg trophy were made on general points of superiority.

The ear of corn grown by Mr.
James is of Reid's Yellow Dent variety. It is 10 inches long, 7 1/2 inches in circumference, and has 20 rows of kernels, 6 to the inch in the row, average 5-8 of an inch in depth, and 5-16 of an inch in width.
It is indeed a very correct type of yellow dent corn.

Mr. James, the winner, is a vigorous farmer about 40 years of age, and of pleasing personality, a man who has given careful study to corn culture, and who has achieved his success as a grand champion winner only by years of hard work and painstaking seed selection and careful breeding from season to season.

Illinois growers are especially elated over the result for the season that this is the first time in four years that the honors have been wrested from the state Indiana. Last year's champion ear, the first winner of the Kellogg trophy, was grown by Mr. Fred C. Palin, of Newton, Ind.
It was also Reid's Yellow Dent variety, crossed with Alexander Gold Standard. Last year's prize winner is the most perfectly formed ear of the two, though it requires a careful judge to distinguish the points of superiority.

The trophy awarded to Mr. James was made by Tiffany, of New York, for Mr. W. K. Kellogg, at a cost of $1,000. It is made of Sterling silver, bronze and enamel, and is a truly artistic creation. It stands 30 inches in height. Mr. Kellogg's interest in corn growing can be understood when

World's Best Ear of Corn
for 1910

it is stated that the Kellogg Toasted Corn Flake Co., of which he is president, has an output requiring 10,000 bushels of corn a day, raw product, for its manufacture. A peculiar feature is that while the Kellogg product is made exclusively from selected white corn, the Kellogg trophy has been won each time by a yellow corn exhibit. The trophy is offered for annual competition until won twice by the same grower.

The National Corn Show at which the award was made, was an event of tremendous magnitude. At one of the sessions President Taft was present and delivered an address.

Just five days after the claim was

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF.

Jury Awards Mr. Cromartie $6,300 Against Railroad.

A suit that attracted much interest in the present term of civil court was that of Mr. Avon Cromartie against the Atlantic Coast Line. While at work for the railroad Mr. Cromartie lost a considerable portion of one foot which maimed him for life. He sued the railroad company for $20-000, and the jury gave him a verdict for $6,300.

THE MONUMENT FUND. School Children Asked to Assist the Daughters of Confederacy.

Request has been made of us to give each school child one of the "mile of pennies" strips, and ask the children to return the strips filled with pennies. The pennies will be turned over to the treasurer of the monument fund. In accordance with the request, each child in the graded school will be given one of the strips today, and be asked to return the strips on May 11th.

The cause is a most worthy one,
and while I know parents are often begged by children for pennies till they feel that a fortune would be needed to give every time the little ones want a penny or a nickel, yet I trust the people will encourage the children in this matter. We ought to have a Confederate monument in Greenville; to this I believe everyone will agree. The monument ought to be built by all the people, not by a few. And the children ought to contribute their share of effort and money towards it. The lesson they learn, and the veneration aroused in their hearts, for those who wore the gray through the long struggle, is worth far more than the pennies for which request is made. I hope our people will take this view of the matter, and that the children will be encouraged in their efforts for the monument.

H. B. SMITH,
Superintendent of Schools.
May 2, 1911.

It doesn't matter whether you give his satanic majesty his due or not;
he'll get it just the same.

LAST WEEK A BIG ONE FOR GRIFTON, N. C.

CELEBRATE SCHOOL CLOSING

Big Speeches, Large Barbecue and a Tremendous Ball Game.

Grifton, April 29.—The closing exercises of Grifton public schools were held on Thursday and Friday of this week and were largely attended by the citizens of the town and surrounding country.

On Thursday night the first examinations were held. They consisted of songs, drills, recitations and declamations, and were very much enjoyed by all who were present. The students went through their several parts in such a way as to reflect credit upon the teachers who have had them in charge for the past year. Every selection was full of interest and was presented in a spirited manner, resulting in not a dull moment during the entire evening.

Yesterday was the big day, through. The exercises were opened at 11 o'clock by prayer by Rev. L. B. Pattishall, pastor of the M. E. church, after which the children rendered a splendid chorus. This was followed by the annual address, which was delivered by Prof. W. I. Cranford, of Trinity College. Professor Cranford was introduced by Mr. Paul Webb, a bright young attorney and a graduate of Trinity College, who has been located in Grifton for a short while. Professor Cranford's address was a scholarly one and made a fine impression upon his hearers. He dealt with the educational and moral uplift of man, and his remarks were such as to instill a high hope for the future within the breasts of all who heard him. Prof. Cranford is a pleasing speaker, and it was a rare treat for all who had the privilege and pleasure of hearing him.

Professor Cranford was followed by Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, County Superintendent of Public Instruction for Pitt county, who, in a brief talk, gave a history of the good work that the school at Grifton was doing. His remarks were very interesting, and especially so to the patrons of the school, as they gave them an insight to what their school was doing for their children.

After the speeches came another song, after which all adjourned to the yard near by, where a free dinner and barbecue was served. This was a mighty good part of the program, for many were the thoughts that were flitting through the minds of those present of the good things in store for them, and only such good things as the housewives of Pitt county are noted for.

The dinner disposed of, all repaired to the baseball park, where a ball game was witnessed, in which the Grifton boys defeated the Hookerton boys to the tune of 11 to 9. There was much enthusiasm, by all who were present.

The exercises were closed last night by a play and tableaux by the pupils of the school, which were enjoyed by a large crowd that was present.

Professor Funderberg, the principal of the school, and his assistants, have done fine work at Grifton this year, and so satisfactory have been their labors that the trustees have unanimously re-elected them for the coming year. Professor Funderberg hails from Monroe, this state.

No county in the state is doing more along educational lines than Pitt, and right here in the neighborhood of Grifton, Ayden and Winterville are to be found three of the best schools in the state. They are doing a good work, the results of which will be far-reaching and will last through generations yet to come. Much of the credit for this good school work is due to Professor Ragsdale, the county superintendent of public instruction who is not only an able man, but is a hard worker and never tires in his labors to build up the schools in his county and to increase the interest in education among the people he serves—W. X. Coley, in News and Observer.

SAFETY AND SANITY.

Intelligence and Sobriety of the New Democratic Regime.

When the Democrats, for the first time in eighteen years, won control of the lower house of congress last November, the Republican politicians and papers pictured and cartooned the event as a sort of a barbaric dance of the hungry. The comic papers of the period dealt with the Democratic patriot, after eighteen years of exile, packing his lean bag, and taking a train for Washington to be in at the pie-cutting. In the light of all this Republican prophecy, the first official act of the Democratic congress is significant. They abolished ninety-eight offices, clerkships, and minor positions, attached to the lower house alone, aggregating about $150,000 annually in salaries. This was their own medicine, to be sure, but it was a pretty strong dose, nevertheless. Probably every Democrat in congress was under pressure from one or more of his constituents, from party workers to whom he is under obligations, for some of these jobs. The renunciation was not easy. The disappointment to hundreds of place-seekers will make every Democrat's re-election next year just so much more difficult. There is therefore, all the more reason for thoughtful persons, who understand and appreciate economy in government, to give sympathy and practical support to the party that has accomplished it.

Some of the committees of congress which were important and useful several decades ago—for example, the committee on Pacific railroads when the early transcontinental lines were being built with government subsidies—have been obsolete for nearly a generation. Some of these committees have not held a meeting for many years, but they went on, carrying a full equipment of idle clerks, and providing so many places for Republican heelers—political graft and nothing else. The new Democratic congress has abolished six of these useless committees, thus voluntarily abdicating about sixty honorary offices for members and paid clerkships aggregating nearly thirty thousand dollars a year. These voluntary sacrifices of power and patronage are creditable in the highest degree.

The economies already put in practice by the Democrats apply merely to the lower house itself. When they get around to the executive departments of the government, the opportunities will be incomparably greater. The new Democratic ways and means committee, together with the rules committee and the appropriations committee, have put in motion machinery which, it is confidently believed, will save the government one hundred and fifty million dollars a year. To any fair-minded observer, the most conspicuous impression of the new order at Washington is the

MR. B. C. PEARCE DEAD.

Passed Away At His Home in Sanford.

His many friends here at his old home are pained to learn of the death of Mr. B. C. Pearce, of Sanford, which occurred a little past midnight last night. He suffered a stroke of paralysis a few weeks ago and continued gradually to grow weaker until the end came.

Mr. Pearce was in his 83rd year, and a native of Pitt county. The greater part of his life was spent in Greenville where for many years he was engaged in the mercantile business. For a short while he was registrar of deeds of the county, filling out the unexpired term of Mr. W. A. Cherry, who died while in office. He always took a prominent part in public affairs and in politics, and was a staunch Democrat. In later years he became a traveling salesman and was very popular with the trade. He was a man greatly liked by every one, and was one of the oldest members of Greenville Masonic lodge, and Royal Arch Masons.

Mr. Pearce was twice married, his first wife being Miss Ann Kinsaul, of Greenville, who died in 1880. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ada

Cherry, by his first marriage. His second wife was Mrs. Maggie Hunt, of Sanford, to whom he was married in 1898. She also survives him. After his second marriage Mr. Pearce made his home in Sanford, where he also took a prominent stand in public affairs. He was most active in working for the establishment of Lee county by the legislature, and was the first treasurer of that county when it was formed.

Saved Child From Death.

"After our child had suffered from severe bronchial trouble for a year," wrote G. T. Richardson, of Richardson's Mills, Ala., "we feared it had consumption. It had a bad cough all the time. We tried many remedies without avail, and doctor's medicine seemed as useless. Finally we tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and are pleased to say that one bottle effected a complete cure, and our child is again strong and healthy." For coughs, colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, croup and sore lungs, its the most infallible remedy that's made. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

That's What.

"Is that a court house you are building over there?" asked a stranger as he walked up to the corner Thursday. Getting the right answer he added "It is certainly going to be a handsome one."

TO HOLD ATTENTION

The First Requirements of a Good Advertisement.

When you sit down to write an advertisement for your space in the local newspaper the first question you should put to yourself, if you are one of those men who want to see their advertisements bring results, is: What must be the first requirement of this advertisement?

The first requirement of an advertisement is to attract attention. To catch and hold the attention of a possible customer necessitates something in the announcement that is different from the usual run of type matter in the paper and also different from the ordinary style of advertisements therein. Further, that "something" must compel the attention sufficiently to hold it till the prospect realizes that she or he wants to read the rest of the advertisement for the sake of what is said in it.

There are several ways to attract attention. One is by means of a striking headline in bold type, another way may be planned by the use of plenty of white space in and around the ad, and still one more means is the use of some freak arrangement of the type matter. Attention may also be got by a combination of all these ways. But there is one other way of attracting attention that beats them all.

It has been found from experience in country towns and in dealing with goods that sell mostly to women, that a good illustration is the best way not only to attract attention, but to hold it, and create interest in the rest of the advertisement. The illustration should have human interest and should, as far as possible, enter into it by means of a figure of a man or woman performing something or having done something, the result of the "something" done being shown.

For a long time it was thought that comic pictures were the best means of attracting attention and while this may be so to a limited extent, it has been found that they do not create that necessary desire to read the rest of the advertisement. Because they are comic they cause laughter which means that the laughter often extends to the contemplation of the goods or even to the advertiser himself. When an advertisement is laughed at it seldom carries conviction to the mind of the possible customer. A well drawn picture with a psychological basis is therefore, the best means of attracting attention to an ordinary retail merchant.

The illustration should be well drawn. A badly drawn or silly picture reflects on the goods and the store. It is better to do without the illustration altogether than have a bad one. And the picture should not only be well drawn, but it should blend well with the rest of the advertisement. When it attracts attention it should also direct the mind to the other portion of the advertisement that creates and brings conviction. Pictures of the "reason why" kind in advertising are a natural evolution in retail publicity. They have been used for a long time in successful national advertising. A glance at the Saturday Evening Post or any of the good magazines will show this and it will also prove another thing, that comic pictures or caricatures are not usually used by

NEEDLESS CUSTOMS.

The Honey Bee and Its Intelligence.

It is surprising how many things pertaining to man and his progress springs up seedless. In the advance these seedless things take hold and ever and anon without clamor are in place. Apparently the mushroom asserts fecundity and stays a while. It may be earth in its chemical analysis holds place and gives us God's bounty to His creatures.

In the animate world bees are the curious denizens of earth. Their intelligence has not courted the wisdom of man, but the folklore of their colonies is a marvel to those who challenge their ways. The honey bee is eminently the friend of man. The legends of those countries cherishing the love of these bees are, as a matter of curiosity, very engaging.

Cornwall is in the highest degree the home of this lore. There betwixt owner and hive was intimate knowledge. Christmas morning the bees receive the compliment of the season just like other members of the household. Easter day they were told Christ was risen, and, a death occurring in the family, the ill news was whispered softly into the hive. Nobody inquired closely into the origin of these beliefs. They were accepted as seedless. It is said the best beliefs are found in Cornwall. There these are archaic, and are adorned by wealth of details. It used to be the rule to whisper to the bees all the principal events which happened in the family, so they would not think themselves neglected or roused to anger. Honey was taken from the hive on St. Bartholomew's day.

In the East lovers extolled the eyes of their mistresses as like brown bees.

Bees were not sold. They should always be bartered, the traditional price being a bushel of corn.

I may come back to the bee, holy Scripture having given him connection with events that transcend the common themes of this stumpy life.—Judge R. T. Bennett, in Wadesboro Messenger and Intelligencer.

A Big Truth.

The world believes and is going to continue to believe that in every man, some time, somewhere, under some circumstances, there is something of good. Therefore, a man weakens his own position before his fellows when he blankly and persistently refuses to give his opponent or his enemy credit for anything worthy. The world knows that no one man is likely to be found on the wrong side of every question, of whatever nature, that may arise during an entire life time.

those big advertisers to exploit their offerings.

Remember always, Mr. Retailer, that attention getting is classed as about sixty per cent. of all retail advertising and when next you write an advertisement without using the best means to get that attention, you are losing about sixty per cent. of the value of your whole announcement.—Henry Hendershott, in the Merchants Journal and Commerce.

The "easy marks" put some men on easy street.

Possibilities of Youth.

The pride of life looms large among the motives that determine aspirations. This is the golden season of opportunity. We should make much of it while it lasts. When old age creeps on and our youthful vigor becomes trophied it is too late to think of what we might have done.

It amounts to something to walk down the street and have people point you out as a man who has accomplished some great mission, whether it is to accumulate wealth or to carve a great name in the world of men and women.

The chosen youth gets what he goes after. The chance is open to all. The youth who thinks that he has only to idly wait and fate will thrust greatness upon him is sadly mistaken. He must work out his own salvation. The purse of fortunes may smooth the way, but real work must be done by the boy himself if he expects to be successful.

Most of our great men have started life with but little before them. One of our presidents was a tailor and his old-fashioned shop still stands as a monument to him; another was a carpenter, another chopped wood for an existence. At the time none of them ever thought the day would come when they would occupy the presidential chair.

Fate sometimes makes it easier for some than for others, but fate is usually just in the distribution of her gifts.

Great men are made. They are not born to greatness. They come into this world with the possibilities of being celebrated.

Take advantage of youth while the chance lasts. It can never be renewed.

The wonderful foundation of perpetual youth is a myth. It has caused the death of more than one adventure who sought to find it. There is but one youth to every life and it is all too brief. If the opportunity is not accepted in youth it can never be accepted at all.—Memphis Appeal.

The Danger of Going Barefooted.

As the season is now approaching when all children desire to go barefooted, it is well that they should be warned that this pleasure does not come without danger. Until recent years we attached little importance to ground-itch, or toe-itch, so commonly seen among barefooted children who go about in the dew or other damp places. We know that the ground-itch is the initial symptom of hookworm disease and that it would not develop unless the soil had been polluted by sufferers from the disease. The myriads of eggs passing daily along with the excreta from their bodies develop into tiny microscopic worms too small to be seen. These, when allowed to come in contact with the skin, burrow through producing an attack of ground-itch. The truth of this assertion can be easily proved by making a poultice of polluted soil and applying it for a few hours to some part of the body. Always at the site of such a poultice there develops the ground-itch rash if there be a sufficient number of worms entering the skin.

Moreover, it is known that about fifty days after the attack of ground-itch the little worms that entered the skin will have found their way in the small intestine and there developed to a size sufficient for them to be easily seen with the naked eye. They are nearly one-half inch in length. The medicine given to get rid of them, by acting as a poison, causes them to be expelled from the body. By washing the stools through cheese cloth they may be collected.

The harm they produce is too well recognized to require discussion at this time. Suffice it to say, that the blood is sapped, the body stunted, the vitality lowered. Thus, the life and happiness of those dearest to us may be blasted. It is now time every one should know what is meant by ground-itch, hookworm disease, polluted soil, and poor sanitary arrangements. Your state board of health will be glad to supply this information free to any one who will ask for it.
