

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourn, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

What is Mince meat. It is no harm to enquire—and we really admire Secretary Wilson's inattentive yearning for knowledge. He is constantly on the hunt for weird facts, and nothing can baffle him, no matter how obscure the trial may be. Moreover, he is absolutely fearless. Things that the average man would shrink from engaging at close quarters have no terrors for Uncle Sam's secretary of agriculture. He is as the true scientific spirit that hesitates at nothing. With such a man in action some startling discoveries are imminent. The mysteries of mince meat are now engaging Secretary Wilson's earnest attention. Experts of the department of agriculture, acting under his orders are engaged in tracing back each component part of a mince pie to its original source. A treatise on the subject, submitted to the government by a manufacturer of commercial mince meat, is a modest little pamphlet that follows mince pie back to the fifteenth century, but here loses it, unfortunately, in the mists and cobwebs of antiquity. Secretary Wilson hopes, when the evidence is all in, to settle the question definitely, whether mince pie is suitable for food purposes, or whether it should be shunned by mankind. In the meantime he who has a piece of mince pie in his hand and hesitates, is lost.—Greensboro. News.

NEGRO GIRL STEALS DIAMOND RING

BELONGED TO MRS. J. S. TUNSTALL

Girl Arrested But Ring Has Not Been Recovered.

On Saturday Mrs. J. S. Tunstall missed a handsome diamond ring, valued at about $175, from a jewel case on the bureau in her room. Suspicion at once rested upon a colored girl, Caroline Wilks, who worked about the house and had been sent to the room the day before.

An officer was notified, and the girl, learning that she was suspected, left town. She was arrested Saturday night about four miles in the country and was brought to the lock-up. She confessed taking the ring, but could not, or at least did not, make a true statement of what had been done with it. Several different statements were made as to where she had hid the ring, but a search at these places failed to disclose it.

The girl is only about 14 years of age, and it is probable she turned the ring over to some older person who advised her to tell stories about it.

COLORED MAN DROWNED.

Came Near Drowning A White Boy Alike.

Saturday afternoon while swimming in Tar river at Stancills landing, about 4 miles above town, John Henry Nobles, a colored man, about 19 years of age, was drowned. The negro swam across the river and was returing when he became exhausted and sank in deep water only a few feet from the shore. The body was recovered Sunday.

A son of Mr. T. J. Stancill, who tried to rescue the negro, also came near being drowned.

WASHINGTON DEFEATS GREENVILLE

"BUCK" DARDEN WAS ALL ALONE

Rest Of Greenville Bunch Had Off Day Yesterday.

The Greenville base ball team went down to Washington Tuesday to play a game with the team of that town. A heavy rain that proceeded the game caused it to be delayed until 5 o'clock to start, and then it had to be played on a very wet ground.

Darden, for Greenville, pitched a fine game with wet balls, allowing only four singles and one two-base hits, but had no support of the team. The boys know how to play ball, but this seemed to be an off day with them, and a succession of errors cost them the game. Lutterloh, as usual, lined out for a home run, but owing to the wet diamond, slipped and fell and only made three bases.

The batteries were, for Greenville, Darden and Riddick; Washington, Smith and Chadwick.

The score was as follows:
R. H. E.
Greenville 5 11 14
Washington 10 5 5
This is Greenville's first defeat this season.

DOESN'T LIKE WILSON'S PRINCIPLES

STILL OLD TIME DEMOCRAT.

Former Governor Against Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

Hon. Thos. J. Jarvis, of Greenville, is not in favor of Dr. Woodrow Wilson, especially the initiative, referendum and recall. "Truth is truth, and democracy is democracy," said the ex-governor, "and I am for the simon-pure article. I don't know anything about standpat or progressive democracy. I know about the old-time democracy."

It is related by one of Governor Jarvis' friends that during the convention at Chicago in 1906 the North Carolina delegation was the only one who did not cheer Mr. Bryan's free silver speech. Governor Jarvis remarked then, it has been said, that Mr. Bryan would never bring victory to the Democratic ticket.

He thinks well of Dr. Wilson, he said today, but he does not think anything of the things the New Jersey governor advocates. Incidentally Governor Jarvis believes that Hon. C. B. Aycock will be elected to the senate and that Hon. Locke Craig will be chosen governor. These are "two things that are fixed in the political calendar," he declared.

Governor Jarvis was looking unusually well and many of his Raleigh friends remarked the fact. He leaves this afternoon for Durham to attend Trinity commencement. Mrs. Jarvis will remain in Raleigh.—Raleigh Evening Times.

BIG EARTHQUAKE IN MEXICO CITY

SHOCK FELT IN NEW YORK.

Much Damage Was Done in Mexico City—Soldiers Killed.

By Wire to The Reflector. New York, June 7.—The heaviest earthquake shock in years registered on the seismograph of Fordham University this morning. The tremors lasted an hour. The distance from the United States was five thousand miles.

Mexico City, June 7.—The big earthquake today was in Mexico City. Two hundred soldiers, asleep in the barracks, were killed by falling walls. The city is in a panic.

Mexico City, June 7.—Great carterstation and destruction was caused here today by an earthquake. Tremors were felt for two hours, and the entire city fairly rocked. Many buildings collapsed and scores of persons are buried under ruins. Storm and lightning added terror to the frightened population. Many sought safety by fleeing to the fields. Mob and soldiers throw away arms and fled from the city; thousands seek refuges in churches.

Mexico City, June 7.—President Madero arrives in the city today and receives great crowds of the citizens, despite the great earthquake confusion and calamity that the people are now suffering under.

Rioting, Brigandage, Murder, Pillage.

Mexico City, June 7.—The populace is eagerly awaiting the arrival of Madero. Meanwhile reports are coming from various parts of the republic that tell of rioting, brigandage, murders and pillage. There was much rioting last night in the suburbs of the capital.

THE ALDERMEN NOMINATED

The Ward Meetings Were Held Friday Night

BOARD WILL HAVE THREE CHANGES

But All of Them Have Previously Served on the Board—First and Fifth Wards Re-nominate by Acclamation—One Ballot Each in Third and Fourth, and Two in Second.

Meetings were held in all of the wards of the town, on Friday night, to nominate one candidate for alderman in each ward. All of the meetings were well attended and much interest was shown in selecting the nominees. The board of aldermen is composed of eight members, the first and third wards each having one, and the second, third and fourth wards two each. Three of the men elected each time hold for two years, so that each year all five of the wards hold an election to choose one member in each. By this arrangement if no member should be re-elected the board would not make an entire change in any year, three of the old members always holding over. While three changes are made in the nominations this time, all of them have served as aldermen in previous years. The proceedings of the several primaries follow:

First Ward.

Met in county clerk's office and was called to order by Committeeman F. C. Harding.

Dr. J. E. Nobles, the present alderman, was re-nominated by acclamation.

F. C. Harding was re-elected ward committeeman.

Second Ward.

Met in the mayor's office. In the absence of Committeeman J. G. Moye, A. L. Blow was made chairman, and J. R. Moye was made secretary.

C. S. Carr, present alderman, E. B. Ficklen, A. B. Ellington and D. S. Spain were placed in nomination for alderman. Mr. Carr stated that he could not serve longer, and asked that his name be withdrawn.

The result of the first ballot was Ficklen, 22; Ellington, 13; Spain, 11; Carr, 2. Second ballot, Ficklen, 38; Ellington, 13. E. B. Ficklen was declared the nominee.

J. G. Moye was re-elected ward committeeman.

Third Ward.

Met in the Centre Brick warehouse and was called to order by Committeeman J. B. James. B. B. Sugg was made secretary.

J. S. Tunstall and D. W. Hardee were placed in nomination, and on the ballot Tunstall received 31 and Hardee 18. J. S. Tunstall was declared the nominee.

J. B. James was re-elected ward committeeman.

Fourth Ward.

Met in Star warehouse and was called to order by Committeeman T. M. Hooker. W. F. Evans was made secretary.

B. F. Tyson and E. L. Daughtridge were placed in nomination, and on the ballot Tyson received 35 and Daughtridge 18. B. F. Tyson was declared the nominee.

T. M. Hooker was re-elected ward committeeman.

Fifth Ward.

Met in the city hall and was called to order by Committeeman D. C. Moore. D. J. Whichard was made secretary, and J. F. Stokes assistant.

H. C. Edwards, present alderman, was re-nominated by acclamation.

D. C. Moore was re-elected ward committeeman.

POOR TOBACCO OUTLOOK.

Some Farmers Are Substituting Other Crops.

It is true all over Pitt county, and reports from other tobacco growing counties are to the same effect, that the outlook for a tobacco crop this season is very poor. The continued dry weather rendered it almost impossible to set out plants and get a good stand, and much that was set out died in the fields. In not a few instances farmers have plowed up their tobacco patches and are planting the land in some other crop. Some are setting out tobacco now where plants can be obtained. It is not too late to make a crop if subsequent seasons are favorable.

A SPORT RIGHT.

"Rings On My Fingers And Bells On My Toes."

Will Bryant, the colored chauffeur of Mr. H. A. White, was the envy of the colored population this morning. Will appeared on the street dressed in his best. His pants were rolled at the bottom a little bit higher than the regular turn, displaying bright blue socks above his low shoes, and from the bow of each shoe dangled a dollar bill. Every "coon" eyed him with envy and admiration as he passed.

BUYER GUILTY AS BOOZE SELLER

Judge Connor Lays Down This Rule In Federal Court.

Raleigh, May 31.—For the first time in the Federal court here Judge Connor has laid down the rule that the purchaser of liquor from a "blind tiger" is equally guilty with the "tiger" who sells to him. This rule has just developed in the prosecution of three Johnston county men, George Potter, W. H. Bailey and Z. C. Strickland, on the charge of furnishing whiskey for a "blind tiger" run by J. E. Young. They came to trial with the plea that they did not furnish whiskey for Young, but that they did, on the other hand, buy whiskey from him. In charging the jury as to the issue of furnishing whiskey, Judge Connor declared that the three are by their own admission equally guilty with the "tiger" for having purchased from him. The jury, however, acquitted them of the charge of furnishing the "tiger." The judge has not passed judgment on the men for buying the whiskey as admitted.

GREENVILLE GRADED SCHOOL

Arrangments Are Made for the Next Year

MOST OF TEACHERS RE-ELECTED

Report of Superintendent For Past Year Showed Enrollment of 482 in White School And 409 in The Colored--Average Daily Attendance White 410, Colored 192.

The board of trustees of the Greenville graded schools held a meeting Thursday night in the school office. The report of the superintendent was read, and plans made for taking care of the schools for next year.

The present corps of teachers was re-elected, Miss Lewis and Principal F. C. Brewer excepted, they having resigned. Miss Lewis will be in charge of the drawing at the Training school hereafter. Mr. Brewer will teach in his native state of Louisiana.

For the colored school, C. M. Epps was re-elected principal. Amy D. Bowen and Isabelle Spaulding were re-appointed as teachers.

The report of the superintendent shows a total enrollment of 482 pupils at the white school, and 409 at the colored. The average enrollment of white children per month was 434, and the average daily attendance for the year was 410. The average attendance at the colored school per day 192. The average cost per pupil enrolled this year was $1.29 per month. The cost per eligible pupil in the district has not exceeded $1.00 a month.

The enrollment at the white school will exceed 500 children next year. With limited funds and house room, the school authorities have a big task ahead of them to care for so many children.

Good News for Catarrh Sufferers.

So many hundreds of catarrh victims who have taken the HYOMEI treatment, have written thanking us for publishing our method of taking the HYOMEI vapor treatment in connection with the inhaler that we gladly publish it again.

The vapor treatment is especially recommended in stubborn cases of chronic catarrh of long standing, but remember that the inhaler should be used daily as usual.

This treatment only takes five minutes time before going to bed. Pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises.

You will be surprised at the result of this treatment; it makes the head feel fine and clear; you will sleep better, and that stuffed up feeling will gradually disappear.

This method will break up the worst cold in the head in one night. A bottle of HYOMEI cost 50 cents at Coward & Wooten's, who guarantees it. Complete outfit, which includes the little pocket inhaler, costs $1.

No stomach dosing; just breathe HYOMEI and cure catarrh and all diseases of the breathing organs. Free trial bottle by addressing Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y. 5 15,25-65.

No Need of a Trust.

Is there a paper trust? If not what head does it come under? The President of the American Paper and Pulp association testified before the senate finance committee the other day and denied that there is a paper trust, but said that the object of the association was to "educate paper manufacturers to get all they could for their product." In pursuance of that policy of education, he sent out a letter last year to the various manufacturers recommending a curtailment of production to maintain uniform prices.

Suppose we accept the statement of the association's president, that there is no paper trust, it makes little difference. There is no need of one while his organization is in existence. A trust could not improve any on his methods, when it included the curtailment of output to maintain prices and the inculcation of the doctrine that the manufacturers must "get all they could for their product." His testimony makes it easy to understand why the price of print paper has advanced at an unratural rate, and why the output has not kept pace with the growth of newspapers. White paper is an enormous item in the expense of publishing a paper.—Greensboro News.

Wins Fight For Life.

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B. Mershon, of Newark, N. J., of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was evry weak and rundown. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began, three weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim." For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, la grippe, asthma, hay-fever or any throat or lung trouble its supreme. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Sundown.

Hills, wrapped in gray, standing along the west; Clouds dimly lighted, gathering slowly; The star of peace at watch above the crest— Oh, holy, holy, holy!

We know, O Lord, so little what is best; Wingless, we move so slowly; But in thy calm all-knowledge let us rest— Oh, holy, holy, holy! —By John Charles McNeil.

Two Ways of Saying It.

THIS "It's the constant drop of water That wears away the stone. It's the constant exercises That develops all the bone. It's the constant advertiser That brings the bacon home."

AND THIS The constant drop of water Wears away the hardest stone; The constant gnaw of Towser Vanishes the toughest bone; The constant cooing lover Carries off the blushing maid; And the constant advertiser Is the one who gets the trade.

ELECTION FOR MAYOR AND ALDERMEN

A VERY LIGHT VOTE WAS CAST.

After The Nominations But Little Interest Was Shown.

The election for mayor of the town and one alderman for each ward was held Tuesday. As a nomination is practically equivalent to an election here, there was not much interest after the primary had nominated Mr. F. M. Wooten for mayor, and the ward meetings had nominated candidates for aldermen. This is shown by 388 votes being cast in the primary for mayor, while only 182 were cast in Monday's election.

The vote by wards was as follows:

First Ward.
F. M. Wooten, mayor 41
J. E. Nobles, alderman 41

Second Ward.
F. M. Wooten, mayor 42
E. B. Ficklen, alderman 42

Third Ward.
F. M. Wooten, mayor 26
J. S. Tunstall, alderman 31

Fourth Ward.
F. M. Wooten, mayor 45
B. F. Tyson, alderman 44

Fifth Ward.
F. M. Wooten, mayor 43
H. C. Edwards, alderman 43

This will make the board of aldermen for the fiscal year beginning July 1st, as follows:

First ward—Dr. J. E. Nobles.
Second ward—W. A. Bowen and E. B. Ficklen.

Third ward—J. F. Davenport and J. S. Tunstall.

Fourth ward—Z. P. VanDyke and B. F. Tyson.

Fifth ward—H. C. Edwards.

Presidents Who Were Masons.

A few days ago the press dispatches announced that President Taft, wearing the Masonic apron, had posed for a photographer in Washington, so that his picture may be hung beside that of George Washington in a Masonic lodge in Virginia. This incident caused the Boston Globe to inquire what other presidents of the United States have been Masons, and it is ascertained that Jefferson, Jackson, Polk, Buchanan, Johnson, Garfield, McKinley and Roosevelt were Masons, but there is some doubt as to whether Jefferson was a member of the order.

George Washington was the master of a Virginia lodge and subsequently became the head of the order in this country. Gen. Jackson was a grand master in Tennessee, McKinley was a Knight Templar, and both Roosevelt and Taft were raised to the Master Mason's degree after their election to the presidency.

It is understood that President Fillmore was also a Mason, but as in the case of Jefferson, there is some doubt about it, because the absence of records going back into the early days makes it difficult to say whether he was or not. In the time of Washington, however, Benjamin Franklin, Lafayette, Benjamin Harrison the elder, John Hancock, Joseph Warren and many other men who figured prominently in the American revolution belonged to the fraternity. It is the proud boast of the Masons of Massachusetts that Paul Revere, after the revolution became the grand master of their state.—New Orleans States.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.

WEEKLY LETTER FROM NATIONAL CAPITAL

EXTRAVAGANCE EXPOSED.

Wall Street "Farmers" Against Reciprocity.

(By TAVENNER).

Washington, D. C., June 6.—That the "farmers" principally interested in killing reciprocity are Wall street "farmers," whose "crops" consist chiefly of lumber and paper trust dividends, was revealed in testimony taken by the senate finance committee.

It was shown that Allen & Graham, alleged attorneys for the National Grange, are really professional lobbyists for the big tariff trusts. Their argument, when seeking business, is that they can pull the necessary wires in Washington to defeat or bring about the passage of any legislation they may be assigned upon.

Mr. Allen was made to admit under cross-examination that the anti-reciprocity literature with which agricultural districts have recently been flooded came direct from the lobbyists headquarters within a stone's throw of Wall street. Mr. Allen also admitted that the American Lumber Manufacturers' association, the Pulp and Print Paper association and the American Wool Manufacturers association (lumber trust, paper trust and wool trust, respectively), are among those who pledged themselves to finance this holy crusade for the farmers.

Allen & Graham have among their clients some of the best "farmers" in Wall street. The firm was shown to have represented as lobbyists the Whisky Security Company, (whisky trust) and the Standard Oil Company, the latter of which organizations is ahead of John D. Rockefeller, whose occupation as a big oil "farmer" is beyond controversy.

Commission Aply Named.

It is known now why Senator Aldrich calls his lame duck commission a "monetary" commission. It is because it spends so much money.

The monetary commission, according to a treasury report, has expended $207,134.48 of the people's money on European travel, meetings at famous summer resorts, on manuscripts, book translations, monographs and members' salaries. The report also contains various insinuating entries that read "account clerical force and persons in attendance on commission."

The European trip cost $19,250.18. It was a nice summer trip and anybody who has traveled with a Cook party will tell you that a select little party of a half dozen can make a mighty fine circuit of the continent for $19,250.18. The account is not itemized beyond this statement. Indeed, Senator Aldrich has fixed it so the commission may spend any amount of money it desires without consulting anyone, and without giving a detailed report to anyone. The former senator is not hampered by any formalities whatever. He has only to reach into the treasury, get money and sign a receipt. It is appalling to contemplate what would happen to the treasury if all commissions and departments of the government were permitted to employ simply loose business methods while spending the people's money.

However, a fresh air fund to promote the recuperation of lame ducks, the commission is manifestly a big success. To this end witness the meeting of the commission at Narragansett Pier in July, 1909. It takes monetary backing to go to Narragansett in July. The bill was $9,493.74!

And Senator Cummins, of Iowa, is sufficiently inconsistent of the health of the lame ducks to contend that the commission is absolutely useless to the people, and that it ought to be abolished.

Cut Out of Bag.

Soon after President Taft entered the White House a movement was started by members of congress to bring about an investigation of the sugar trust. It was not a partisan movement. Senator Borah, of Idaho, Republican, introduced a sugar investigation resolution in the senate, and Campbell, of Kansas, introduced a similar one in the house. The president was greatly displeased. He sent a message to congress advising against an investigation on the ground that it might give immunity to the men higher-up and otherwise embarrass the government. The message was based on an opinion of United States Attorney General Wick-ersham, who was inspiring Washington dispatches at the time with the impression that he was about to prosecute the men higher-up for the $2,000,000 sugar underweight frauds.

Now, comes the attorney general with the statement, made under oath before a house investigating committee, that he never believed that the heads of the sugar trust could be successfully prosecuted for the underweight frauds. He also says that they would not have secured immunity from prosecution had they testified. In other words, the reasons given by both the president and the attorney general as to why the sugar trust should not be investigated under a Republican house, are now admitted to have been fictitious.

The real reason as to why the Republicans were unwilling to permit a congressional investigation of the sugar trust now becomes debatable. Was it because the attorney general had been a former sugar trust attorney and was prejudiced in favor of the innocence of the men higher up? Was it because Henry P. Taft, the brother of the president, was a sugar trust attorney? Or was it because the sugar trust has always been a friend and ally of the Republican party, and one of its star campaign contributors?

Running Down A Cue.

While investigating expenditures in the state department, where it cost $200 to shoe four horses for a year, the house investigating committee struck upon a clue tending to show that an artist named Rosenthal had been paid $850 for painting a portrait of Justice W. R. Day and that the government had been charged with $2,450. Rosenthal testified he had signed a blank voucher for $850. It appears that subsequently some one made the voucher appear that Rosenthal had acknowledged the receipt of $2,450.

As it is the duty of the committee under the law to investigate the expenditures in the state department, Chairman Hamlin of Missouri, ordered the state department to produce its books. Instead of producing the books Secretary of State Knox appeared before the committee with a letter from president ordering him not to comply with the committee's demands. For the present the matter ends here. Chairman Hamlin will probably bring the matter before the PROVINCE OF THE NEWSPAPER.

Not Its Aim to Supplant Pulpit or Rod Sabbath School.

To be sure, many changes might be made in newspapers if newspapers were to be reformed with a view to making them purely educative and regenerative in their effect. It is not, it must be admitted, the aim of the press to supplant the pulpit, rob the Sabbath school of its function, remove the need of the high school and devote itself wholly to spiritual and temporal preaching and teaching. What the effect of a newspaper made to fulfill the ideals of persons who view the press of the times with alarm because it publishes a dangerous comic supplement can be best judged by the wide circulation of worldly dailies and the narrow scope of the circulation of those that most nearly approach those ideals. Circulation is not the sole consideration, but without it no educative or missionary work can be done. The most useful newspaper is one whose general effect is improving, and not one so virtuous and piggish that those standing in need of mental or spiritual tonic will have none of it. It is as the layman friendly to the projects of the school, the university and the pulpit, and not as a militant parson, that the press may be useful. The newspaper must be human or unread. To be widely read it must make a broad appeal. It is Horace, we believe, who asserts that it is right to unbend upon fitting occasions. And there is a well known couplet about nonsense being occasionally relished by the best of men. The comic supplement may not be absolutely necessary to the welfare of newspapers, but that it is inimical to the welfare of any class of newspaper readers, has not been convincingly argued, and it gives enjoyment to many lovers of humor.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Town Election.

The town election for one alderman in each ward, and for a mayor for two years, has been in progress today. The election has proceeded so quietly that it could hardly be told, except about the polling places, that an election was going on. A nomination being equivalent to election, the voting is all one way without any opposition to the nominees, hence no great interest is shown.

house and ask that the state department be compelled to produce its records.

Fighting Reciprocity.

The senate is attempting to kill the reciprocity bill by so amending it that it will not be acceptable to Canada. Senator Root, of New York is preparing an amendment in the interest of the paper trust. It will be recalled that when reciprocity was before the senate at the last session Senator Root was one of those who were boisterous in their protests that amendment was impracticable and impossible. That was less than five months ago, and now Mr. Root, reversing himself, declares the agreement must be amended so as to benefit the paper interests. His opposition is only a part of a systematic campaign being waged against reciprocity.

SUMMER COURSE AT TRAINING SCHOOL

A STRONG FACULTY IN CHARGE.

Large Student Body Present And More Arriving.

The summer course of East Carolina Teachers' Training School began today under most favorable conditions. A large number of teachers from all sections of Eastern North Carolina are here to get the benefit of the splendid advantages offered in this summer course for teachers, and many more are coming by every train.

At 11 o'clock this morning the student body assembled in the auditorium for the classes to be arranged. President Wright addressed some very timely words to the teachers. He said the purpose of this summer course was to help those who had not had the necessary professional training to do their best work. It is to help them do their work more intelligently. If they know how to organize and manage their school they can do much better work. It is also to help those who have not made first grade certificates or the 5-year state certificates. It is to help teachers on the points where they are most lacking. As they had come here for work, there must be no loafing during study hours if they are to get the most benefit out of their stay. A loafer with nothing to do is not happy, but the busiest person is the happiest.

President Wright then fully outlined the study periods and the different courses that had been planned and the organization of classes proceeded so that the work can start off the very first day of the term.

The outlook is for a most successful eight weeks' course, and the teachers will go back to their respective fields much better equipped to do their work well.

The faculty for the summer school is as follows:

Prof. R. H. Wright, president.
Mrs. Kate R. Beckwith, lady principal.
Prof. C. W. Wilson, bursar in charge of office work with Miss Emma Jones and Miss Ola Ross, as stenographers.
Dr. Geo. D. Strayer, Columbia University, school administration and supervision (county and city superintendents and principals).

Prof. Harold Barnes, of Princeton, Ind., pedagogy.

Prof. Leon R. Meadows, Haynesville, La., English.

Miss Sallie Joyner Davis, of Greensboro, history.

Prof. Herbert E. Austin, science.
Miss Estelle Davis, of Atlanta, mathematics.

Prof. Harry P. Harding, of Charlotte, Latin and assistant in mathematics.

Miss Mary E. Wright, primary methods.

Miss Elizabeth Pugh, of Monroe, La., domestic science and sanitation.

Miss Kate W. Lewis, of Milton, drawing.

Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, school organization and management in elementary schools.

TAKES A TRIP TO "LAND OF THE SKY"

A BROTHERLY LOVE THAT BINDS.

Takes in a Convention and Enjoys Freedom of City.

Hanrahan, N. C., June 2, 1911.

About May 15th, 1893, I boarded the train at Kinston, went to Goldsboro, had about an hour to lie over there in a very uncomfortable waiting room. So rather than spend the time in that smothered-up and dingy looking room I strolled across the railroad to the other side of the street, feeling sure I would not get lost if I did not get out of sight of that old dilapidated building which stood right in the heart of the city. While across there I stumbled into a book store, and looking around I saw a beautifully bound volume of Thos. Moore's poems. I was sentimental in those days, so I bought it and as it was drawing near to train time, I sauntered back, watching the beautiful ladies as they came and went. Again reaching that same old waiting room I purchased a ticket to Asheville. Soon the train for Raleigh pulled out and I got a comfortable seat, and opened my new book at Lalah Rookh. So from there to the historic old town of Hillsboro, I had what I deemed then a feast of good things. By the time I reached the sight of those three little mountains near Hillsboro, I expect I felt like I could say as charming words as did that disguised prince. So I wrote a little note and placed it in the front part of the book and carefully wrapped the volume up. On reaching the station a little to one side of the town, I saw several men standing there, all strangers to me, but I noticed one especially who had a more pleasant look and not that of an iceberg. I stepped towards him and as I approached, he said, "Good morning," and extended his hand. Said I to him, "Do you know Miss J. J. Mast?" assuredly I do," said he. Said I, "She lives, I think, about three miles in the country," "yes," said he "Well, will you get her this package by tomorrow noon?" "I will even go on foot and much out of my way to help or in any way to accommodate a man who I believe worthily wears that pin."

There was pinned on the lapel of my coat a miniature slipper with perhaps some other emblems engraved on it. Said I, "Thank you," and we clasped hands again and I boarded the train which was then moving off. I had never seen him before, nor have I seen him since. The note read thus:

"Miss ———, I am on my way to Asheville to spend three days, will pass Hillsboro Friday on the 1 p. m. train, will have 4 hours to stop over, and would be pleased to spend that time with you, as I am aware you will be in Hillsboro for a few days at that time. You will please accept this, my most frequented volume, and believe me that many of those sentiments are mine with reference to you, only they are more beautifully expressed than I can ever hope to speak through tongue or pen. Hoping to see your bewitching eyes, golden tresses and stern countenance next Friday, I am, sincerely,

I shall not attempt to describe the beauty and grandeur of the scenery from Hillsboro to and that surrounding Asheville. Other pens far more gifted than I have done this. Suffice it to say that I did not read any more books written by human hand, but looked and tried to drink deep from the great book of nature that greeted me every where.

Asheville reached, we were met at the depot, and driven four in hand to Battery Park and given the freedom of the city. We listened to a few learned papers and heard a few great speeches, and even attempted myself to read a paper which was afterward published and, of course, I was eager to read it when it came from the press. I was agitating the great importance of pure drinking water as a preventative for diseases, and said this among other things:

Pure water from the fountain me thinks
Is nectar such as the gods used for drinks,
When the people as a beverage, this elixir will use;
Health to the nations Hygeia'll not refuse.

So when it came out in print, behold these lines were marked with quotations, then I thought, well, that was about the only real original thing I did get off, and now the publishers make me quote that.

As I said they gave us the freedom of the city, they dined us, they banquetted us, and oh, in such splendor as some deem splendor. The courses were by the dozen, the champagne flowed free as water. A few turned their glasses down, or instead took ice tea. Many of our men, who of all men should have clear heads, I am sorry to say, drank until they dozed and fell from their chairs, but be it said to the credit of this body of leaders, for the next year they adopted a resolution to exclude wines from their annual banquets. And today the brightest lights of this profession are proclaiming to the world that there are no medical properties or nutriment in alcohol, it is only a dangerous stimulant, and that there are many others that will answer a better purpose. I said I heard a few speeches. I was too busy beholding the beauties to listen. I stood on the banks of the French Broad and thought of the inspiration she had given so many pens. But my time came to an end, and I must wend my way home again.

(To be Continued.)

SHOULD BE KEPT MOVING.

The Sidewalks Are Too Frequently Blocked.

It is often the case, and especially on Saturdays, that so many people congregate and stand in bunches on the sidewalks, as to make it necessary for those who want to pass by to get out in the street. People have a right to be on the sidewalks, of course, but they should be kept moving and not stand together in such numbers as to block the passing of others.

The town ordinance covering this, Chapter 2, Section 20, reads: "All crowds or assemblages of persons, who shall congregate on the sidewalk or the town, thereby obstructing the same to the inconvenience of pedestrians, shall be dispersed by the police, and any person, who refuses to obey the warning of the officer, shall be deemed to violate this ordinance, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined five dollars for each and every offense."

If you are not in favor of good roads you ought to be.

ASK $160,000,000 FROM U. S.

University to Honor Jewish Banker Who Aided in Revolution.

A movement has been broached by the Federation of Jewish Organizations of this state to secure from the United States government about $660,000, with compound interest from 1776 or about $160,000,000, which, it is claimed, is due the heirs of Haym Salomon, the Polish Jew banker and patriot of New York and Philadelphia, who during the American Revolution helped finance the Federal cause.

The federation wants congress to pass an act creating the Haym Solomon National University in Washington, D. C., with this money, and to set the movement afoot will hold a mass-meeting Sunday evening, June 11, in the synagogue Kehal Jeshurun, 177 East Eighty-fifth street.

They have invited to speak Governor Dix, ex-President Elliot, of Harvard; Governor Wilson, of New Jersey; ex-Supreme Court Justice William N. Cohen, Congressmen H. M. Goldfogle and William Sulzer, Louis Marshall George Sulzberger, of Philadelphia; Mayor Gaynor and Edward Lauterbach.

Louis Friedman, of the federation, issued a statement last night telling of the intention of the organization. In it he says:

"A blot has been resting on the American nation for over 135 years—the ingratitude of ignoring the services of the greatest patriots of the revolutionary period, who financed and backed the government in freedom's cause, the great Polish Jew, Haym Solomon, of New York and Philadelphia, banker and patriot. The proposed university is to be the clearing house of the intellect of American universities and colleges; of research work in all branches of human thought that are at present philanthropically carried out by some of our tainted money philanthropists."—New York American.

A CARD OF THANKS.

To The School Children of The Town of Greenville.

My dear Children:
The Daughters of the Confederacy wish to thank you most sincerely for your generous gift to the monument fund. Your superintendent, Mr. Smith, has just deposited in the bank two shoe boxes full of pennies, which, when counted out, amounted to $32.36. Now, we think that is splendid; and shall I tell you how it makes some of the grown folks feel? We feel ashamed to think we have done so little, and you have done so well.

We are sure when grown people see this, they will want to follow your noble example, and contribute also to this fund.

We thank you, one and all.
Sincerely,
THE U. D. C.,
Per. Mrs. T. A. Person.

Six Children and Six Dogs.

This section of North Carolina is a good stock country and times would be much better if more people would give attention to sheep raising and less time to the worthless dog industry. There are a few folks who appear to place a higher estimate upon an ordinary hound than they do upon their families. We have learned of a certain family composed of a father, mother, six children and six dogs. There are no chickens, pigs or cows on the premises and the dogs are fed and cared for whether the children have sufficient food and clothing or not. If the head of this family would substitute pigs and sheep or other stock for his dogs the problem of supplying the household with the necessaries of life would be solved and his neighbors would find life more pleasant.—Lenoir Topic.

Size of The Feet.

Paris is just now having a wave of interest in human feet. Two scientists, Marie and MacAuliffe, recently advanced the observation that the sanest type of men had the biggest feet, while the sanest type of women had the smallest feet, which has started the boulevardiers to scanning the feet pedestrians.

Out of 100 normal men, these scientists have asserted that only 18 have small feet, while of 100 insane men only 20 have large feet. These proportions for women are almost exactly the reverse. Out of 100 sane women only 23 have large feet, while of 100 insane women 18 have small feet. On the male side of the proposition the American—long having looked upon Lincoln as one of the sanest and sagest of American statesmen—probably will agree with the French scientists.—Chicago Tribune.

HE GETS BACK TO HILLSBORO

THERE SEES AN IDEAL WOMAN.

One Who Lives, Moves And Does Things.

Hanrahan, N. C., June 5.—It was Friday and just 1:53 p. m., when the whistle blew a long blast and the porter called out, "Hillsboro!" As soon as the train came to a stop, I with suit case in hand, stepped off and into the waiting room deposited it. Then I took a northwardly direction up a rocky street hedged on either side by stately oaks, or I suppose they were oaks. I was not observing streets or trees very closely then, my mind being intent on something besides.

Two blocks from the depot on the east side of the street stood a quaint old house, such as only Hillsboro has. In front was a porch with a trellis from end to end save the doorway, and that was arched with a semi hoop. The trellis and arch were covered with variegated roses and sweet peas. Just back of this stood a woman. She was neatly dressed, though not gaudily. She was not beautiful, not even pretty as many see beauty. She was about 5 feet tall, weight 170, rather out of proportion for a symmetrical or graceful form. Her tresses were more red than auburn, large ears, prominent nose broad mouth which when she laughed exposed a well kept set of broad and irregular teeth, her face more round than long with freckles not very thinly scattered here and there, her hands rather short and not well tapered and not as soft and white as the foam that floats on the ocean wave.

She could drive the team afield. She could mow the grass, rake the hay and stack it, too, if the hired help would not stay. She gracefully mounted on her charger, for she was graceful on horseback. With her well trained shepherd dog she could each day just before the shadows were too fast falling drive the well kept flock of sheep to their fold. She could hurdle each named Jersey and command that each go to her own stall, and in perfect quietude they would obey. Then she could scientifically collect and measure each one's food and give it in the proper proportion to get the best results. She could prepare and cook a meal fit for a lord on earth. She could cut, fit and make her own dresses neat enough for a princess to wear. Yes, she could do this and more. She could comment on the complicated political problems of the day. She could discuss the needed reform movements of that time. She could charm you with quotation after quotation from the best books and standard magazines. She never wasted a precious moment reading trash. She could quote almost verbatim a series of sermons that she had heard Sam Jones preach, but she never made a dunce of herself attempting to mimic him. No, she was not a preacher in the sense that she took to the pulpit and tried to make the world and the church believe that she was a great power by trying to mimic someone else, but her life was a sermon more forceful than many a pulpit oratorical display that has the sound of great beauty but not spirit of the lowly Master. She did things in her own inimitable way in the fear of God and Him only, even doing what she conscientiously believed to be her duty. That done the world might think or say as it choose.

She had but little regard for that class who for lack of better principles or training only think and say evil of those who prove a great humanity, especially their own sex. She had, indeed, the one brightest gem that adorns the female sex, that of true modesty, but she was as far from that false article called or practised by some as modesty, as is the heavens above the earth.

She would not hesitate at any time to get to a fallen woman if by so doing she could lift her up. If necessary, she would not hesitate to lay hold of a drunken sot and pull him out of the gutter, if by so doing she could hope to alleviate his suffering or help him to a better life. But every one, be he dude with sparkling diamonds, with flippant words and a contracted upper extremity of the spinal cord, or be he polished with ever so enticing words, when in her presence he well knew that only thus far can I go and no further.

This is a real woman, one that lives moves and does things, and not one created in my shallow mind. Several of our "F. F. G's" know her well, and a number of Kinston's best people have heard her laugh and seen her broad teeth. Here the curtain falls.

Home.

What is the home that we dream of—
That poets have pictured as such?
Is it the work of the builder,
Or is it the infinite touch?
Is it that cot built by fancy
Whence all our desire have led?
Oh, is it that which we have fashioned
With sheltering roof overhead?

What is the home that we dream of—
Is it merely to shelter us here?
Now as I hark, through the gloaming
The answer comes sweet to my ear,
Patter of feet on the stairway,
The music of childish delights,
Soft spoken prayers through the silence
The lisp of their whispered good-nights.

Books, my good friends and companions,
Look down upon me from their shelves—
Each shares the home with its master,
And all loving children themselves;
Comforts far more than I merit
Surround me to cheer and bless—
Lo, as an end of my musing
I sense a soft, loving caress.

What is the home that we dream of?
A mansion and cot are the same—
Builders but fashion the body,
'Tis love makes the heart and the flame—
Love and the prattle of children,
The patter of feet in the hall,
Happiness, some one to share it,
And tenderness over it all.
—John D. Wells.

There's Work for Us In Every Home

Don't sleep on an old musty, moth-eaten feather bed or pillow when you have the opportunity to have it washed and medicated & made clean & sanitary at a very low cost. Don't use an old lumpy, hard hair, felt or any kind of mattress when it costs practically nothing to have it made good as new. This Company did over 700 beds in Greenville between 3 and 4 years ago. Ask your neighbor about us.

The Eureka Mattress and Cleaning Co. have been operating in North Carolina for the past 14 years, and have made over and cleaned over 500,000 beds and have agencies in all the principal towns and cities in this State. We clean the only things you have in your home that you can't clean yourself, Mattresses, Feather Beds and Pillows, and are the sole makers of "THE NEW ROLL MATTRESS," a mattress we make out of feather beds, that has a Summer Side and a Winter Side, and is conceded by experts and connoisseurs to be the finest bed made.

Our Agent will gladly show and explain to you how we do our work, quote you prices, etc. Don't be afraid to ask him. It costs nothing for information regarding our work. Don't forget that cleanliness is godliness. The agent for this company will be in the city for a few days only. Phone or address, Ayden, N. C., June 6.—The many friends of Mrs. Jesse Cannon are glad to learn that she has passed a successful operation at John Hopkins Hospital. We hope she soon may return home to her family and loved ones.

Mrs. Allie Harrington and her charming daughter, Miss Velend, who have been taking in the commencement, returned to their home in Kinston Thursday.

We have a letter from Mr. W. F. Hart, of Morehead City, stating he is catching all sorts and kinds of fish, sharks, etc., when they do not bite off sinker, hook, bait, and all. This letter gets our sporting blood warming up.

Dr. Wm. McKinney has moved his family to the residence recently vacated by Mr. J. B. Patrick.

Dr. Jos. Dixon and family left last Thursday morning to make their home in Rhapadan, Va. The large crowd assembled at the depot to bid them adieu was only a token of the high regard our people held for them. Dr. Dixon was one of our prominent citizens. He located here when the town was in its infancy and was one of those progressive men that boosted his town and county, and plucked thorns and planted roses where ever the rose would grow. He built up an extensive and lucrative practice and at present is numbered among the most wealthy men of the community. We regret exceedingly to see him and his family leave us, but wish for them much success in his stock farming.

The Pikeville vs. Ayden game played on the local diamond Thursday resulted in a tie 3 to 3. The Ayden team played Tarboro Friday, 4 to 2 in favor of Ayden.

We hear that Miss Annie Ross, who was a former Ayden girl, has married a very wealthy young business man and made her home in Panama.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. J. J. Stroud to Miss Lela Brown, on the 14th of June, 1911 at the home of Mr. Theophilus Stan-cill.

At a regular communication of Ayden lodge No. 498 A. F. and A. M., the by-laws were changed so as to meet each first Thursday at 10 o'clock, and the brethren will furnish a barbecue, taking the roll alphabetically, 4 at a time. We hope this will increase attendance. The next meeting will be the regular installation of officers and work in initiatory degree and barbecue. Editor of the Reflector has a stading invitation. (Thanks.—Ed.)

The Ayden base ball team played Plymouth here on our local diamond today. As each team has won one game each, this will no doubt be an interesting game.

Ayden will carry up at least 200 strong Friday week on the opening of the Coast Line League when they play Greenville. The boys will leave here with a determination to win the opening game.

Miss Sallie Bett Quinerly and Miss Bessie Lawrence returned from Greene county Sunday, where they had been spending a few days.

Dr. W. H. Dixon returned from Baltimore Friday night.

Beginning Sunday night, June 11,

Rev. Mr. Caraway, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hocutt, of Hookerton, will hold a series of meetings in the Methodist church.

Sunday with Mr. J. R. Turnage. Messrs. W. B. Alexander, J. F. Hart, J. A. Harrington and Richard Wingate left this morning for Florida. Mr. A. F. Cox, proprietor of St. Abrams Spring, moved his family from here to his summer home today.

A Daughter of Dixie.

Her eyes are soft with dreams of love
And dark as some lagoon
In which through woven branches shines
The glory of the moon.
Her silver voice is sweet and long,
Her brow is broad and meek,
And pure as waxen orange flowers
The oval of her cheek.

Her dusky tresses thick and fine
In many a silken fold
Are bound about her shapely head
And filleted with gold.
Her lips are like the dewy rose
That finds a nesting place
Upon her heart in filmy frills
Of organdy and lace.

A knight of old who crossed the sea
With nothing but his lance,
Bequeathed to her that regal air,
That dark and tender glance.
Oh, daughter of the sunny South
Where summer never dies,
The North that never feared your guns
Surrenders to your eyes!

CRAVEN COUNTY NEWS.

The Happenings Down in Vanceboro Section.

Vanceboro, N. C., June 7.—We are having some awful dry weather. Some of our farmers are planting cotton on their tobacco land and some are planting corn. The crops are looking bad for the time of year.

Mr. John Powell, one of our oldest and most esteemed citizens, passed away Sunday morning. He leaves three sons and three daughters and a host of friends to mourn his death, but our loss is his gain. His whole aim was to do good and work for the kingdom of the Lord. He was a faithful Sunday school worker as long as his health would permit and his place will not be filled soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Adams spent Saturday night and Sunday with their son, Mr. G. W. Adams, at Askin.

Mr. H. E. Dudley went to New Bern Sunday.

A number of our young people attended the Holy Ghost preaching at Nobles school house Sunday.

Mr. A. D. Barrow and mother, Mrs. Jane Barrow, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John May, near Black Jack.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrow spent Sunday with their brother, Mr. B. B. Barrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrow.

GALLOWAY'S X ROADS.

Matters Going On Down In That Section.

Galloway's X Roads, N. C., June 7.—Mr. Caraway filled his regular appointment at Salem Sunday. A large crowd attended and we were glad to see so many out.

We are having some fine weather now and farmers are all busy.

Miss Nancy Mills, from near Cox's cross roads, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Myrtle Stokes.

Mrs. W. D. Barrow, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is improving.

Mr. J. B. Fornes and wife, of Greenville, attended church at Salem Sunday.

Mr. G. S. Porter has put up wire doors to his store and house. We guess he is getting tired of being bothered with flies.

Miss Maggie Evans and Miss Minnie Stokes spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Rosa Barrow.

Mr. Darve Cannon and Mr. Mason Edwards say it is a lonesome place staying in a store, but we don't see why it should be, when they can so often have the pleasure of waiting on pretty girls.

SIMPSON ITEMS.

Base Ball And Crops In That Neighborhood.

Simpson, N. C., June 7.—The boys are getting busy around here playing ball. The Corey team went out last Saturday and played Simpson, and I learn they went back home beaten. That was good for the home boys.

The Juniper Run team will play a game next Saturday. Some of the Juniper Run boys love to play ball and they have some good players. You can try them when you want to.

We have some good tobacco in this section. Mr. Mason Evans has some from knee to waist high and says he is going to lay it by next week.

Mr. J. Raymond Tucker has some nice corn which will be laid by in a few days.

Misses Daisy Tucker and Olive Kirtrell attended church at Salem Sunday.

WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH.

The Season Has Opened With A Rush.

Wilmington, N. C., June 7.—The season at Wrightsville Beach has opened with a rush. The hotel facilities have been largely increased and improved. No efforts are being spared for the comforts and entertainment of visitors at the beach this year. Lumina, the people's pleasure palace, will be the scene of many a state gathering during the summer season. One of the chief attractions at Lumina is the splendid 16-piece orchestra, which is composed of the finest musicians on the coast, who will furnish music for the evening dances and concerts which have become so generally popular at his famous resort.

The Seashore hotel has installed a complete electrical equipment in the kitchen, enlarged its dining room, built a covered concrete walk and station and made many other notable improvements, which with its splendid ocean pier, and the protection afforded its guests by a competent life saving service will make it, as of yore, the center of social life at Wrightsville Beach during the approaching summer. The Seashore hotel has also engaged an orchestra of five young ladies from Chicago, which has been playing at the Stratford and the Auditorium Annex in Chicago during the past season. The orchestra consists of Mrs. Harry Lenden, 1st violinist; Miss Anger Tully, 2nd violinist; Miss Katherine Neal, flute; Mrs. Julius Ferman, pianist; Miss Florence Mills, cello. As a violinist, Mrs. Lendon is without a peer among the musicians who have been engaged at this resort during the past year. Her interpretation and expression call for most enthusiastic applause of the audience. Miss Tully, the 2nd violinist, is also gifted with rare talent, and her solos are highly appreciated by the visitors at the beach, and have added greatly to the pleasure of the guests at the Seashore Hotel, as well as the residents on the beach.

STOKESTOWN ITEMS.

The News Around Our Progressive Village.

Stokestown, N. C., June 7.—We have had some rain during the past week which did crops lots of good, especially cotton and tobacco. Corn is extra fine throughout this vicinity, considering the excessive drouth we have had.

Mr. Guss Stokes, of Fairmont, came in Friday night to spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Mr. Heber Stokes harvested some fine oats Friday. He reports 1284 medium size bundles from an acre. Messrs. Roy, Herman, Calvin and Gus Stokes went to Timothy Sunday afternoon.

Mr. John D. Stokes is on the sick list.

Mr. Jasper House, of Greenville, spent Saturday and Sunday here.

"SAVED AT SEA."

A Sermon In Story And Song Sunday Night.

Rev. C. M. Rock and the choir gave the second of a series of sermons in story and song in the Baptist church Sunday night. The subject was "Saved at Sea," and it gave an interesting story of the wreck of a vessel near an island on which was a light house, the only person saved being a little girl, who was taken to the home of the aged light house keeper. The keeper was not a Christian, but those coming to hunt for the child led him to build his hopes upon "the Rock" instead of upon the sand. The songs were an appropriate part of the story.

Fine Cabarrus Wheat.

Mr. H. B. Parks brought us yesterday a lot of wheat stalks that are just a little ahead of anything that has ever been reported to us. There were 38 stalks and heads of wheat which came from one grain of wheat. These heads averaged 85 grains to the head, making 3,200 grains produced from one.

The wheat was of the Fulcaster variety, and came from Mr. Parks' farm in No. 2 township, about 2 1/2 miles from the city, formerly the D. F. Cannon farm. Mr. Parks has 12 acres of this wheat, which he says will probably make 35 bushels to the acre.—Concord

Peruna Tablets Tested.

The Peruna Drug Co.
In regard to the Peruna Tablets, I have used about ten boxes in all.

While I was in Chicago my oldest daughter was bothered with a cough all the time. She has had it for four years. Sometimes it would go away, and in the winter time it was so bad that the doctors and professors said that she had consumption, and the only way to give her any relief was to perform an operation.

I spend so much money for different medicines, and for doctors also. Nothing seemed to help her.

So I saw the Peruna Tablets advertised in the paper, and I got a box and tried them. She could get some sleep by taking them. She would be up all night and cough. So in all she took six boxes, and never was bothered any more.

I will leave this for any one to inquire at our old residence, where we lived in Chicago. All our neighbors would say that she could not live with such a cough. You don't know how thankful I am. She is eighteen years old.

My oldest son also was bothered with his stomach, throwing up, and his bowels so loose all the time. He was all run down for four months. I also doctored with him. One would say this and the other something else. I started in to give him the Tablets, and now he is all right and healthy looking. He took four boxes. That is all he wants to take whenever anything ails him.

So I praise your Tablets just as high as I have your Peruna. That is all the medicine that ever comes in my house. Whenever I travel I take some with me. I have had three of my children sick with scarlet fever two months ago, and that is all I used, was the Peruna and the Tablets. I did not lose any of them.

If there is any more information you want, why just let me know and I will be glad to do so. Yours truly,
Mrs. L. LOHR, Ravenna, Mich.

ALDERMANIC PROCEEDINGS

Regular Monthly Meeting of the Board Thursday Night

STREET WORK STILL PROGRESSING

Several Committees Make Reports—Water and Light Revenues Increase Sufficiently to Reduce Expense For Service to the Town—Claim For Property Submitted to Arbitration.

The board of aldermen met in regular session, Thursday night, in the mayor's office. Every member was present promptly on the hour appointed for the meeting.

The finance committee reported the general fund overdrawn.

That it had held a conference with the Water and Light Commission that the commission is now receiving sufficient revenues to enable it to recommend to the board of aldermen that the monthly allowance for public service be reduced from $350 to $200, beginning June 1, 1911.

The street committee reported Fifth street work well progressed.

That the Atlantic Coast Line crossing on Fifth street will be made more safe by the railroad company, with Mr. Roy C. Flanagan's consent, will grade down the embankment on the south side of Fifth street so that the trains approaching the street may be seen from a safe distance.

The street committee was directed to grade Fifth street between Pitt street and the Atlantic Coast Line railroad.

The cemetery committee reported work being done to put the cemetery in better condition.

H. C. Edwards, having filed a claim against the town for a strip of land taken from him, to widen Evans street near the court house, the claim was not allowed and the board made a counter proposition, which was not accepted. The parties agreed to leave the matter to arbitration.

The officers made their reports for the past month, which were approved.

The meeting adjourned to meet Tuesday at 12 o'clock to caucuss the election returns.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it's hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, and perfect health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

GOOD ROADS FOR WEST VIRGINIA

Fine Progress Made in Preliminary Construction.

A State Department of Public Roads was created in West Virginia in 1909. The first work of the commissioner was to hold public meetings in order to inform the people concerning the aims of the department and to arouse interest in its work. It was also necessary to prepare standards for maps, plans, contracts and specifications; also to aid the county road engineers in systemizing their work and improving the standard of maintenance, at the same time reducing the cost. A meeting of the county road engineers was held in December, 1909, at which more than forty counties were represented. Previous to this it had been decided to establish the standard scale for county maps at 4,000 feet to the inch, these to show the districts, important towns, railroads, streams and all public roads. In addition standard plans are provided for having a scale of 100 feet to the inch for recording surveys of public roads.

The law of 1909 required each county to appoint a road engineer and so far only one county has not met this requirement. By the end of 1910 2,454 miles of county roads had been surveyed, 12,371 miles had been measured, and maps had been made of 18 counties.

An idea of the preliminary construction work being done may be given by the report for Fayette county. This county has an area of 730 square miles and contains about 933 miles of public roads. "The roads in Fayette are being completely overhauled, consisting of cutting the brush and weeds, blasting out the ridges of rock that cross the roads in so many places opening up good side ditches and crowning the roads well, so they can be maintained with the road drag. Seven miles radiating from Fayetteville are being worked with convicts at a cost of $25 per mile, and 475 miles have been let by contract at an average cost of $75 per mile. The remainder of the roads are being kept up by the supervisors working under the county road engineer. Three and a half miles of road will be constructed with convicts. The maximum grade of the present road in 16 3-4 per cent and the maximum grade of the new road will be 5 per cent."—Municipal Journal.

PITT COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION

The Outline of Its Aims and Intentions Are Given

FAIR WILL BE HELD IN NOVEMBER

No Shows of Any Kind And No Horse Racing in Connection With It—Farmers Are Invited To Get Some Of Their Crops, Poultry and Stock Ready For Exhibition.

In the month of April a number of farmers met in the town hall at Greenville, the county seat, and discussed forming an association for the purpose of bringing together annually the farmers of our county that they might show or exhibit their products and discuss our possibilities and probabilities. That association has now become a fact, with officers elected, a board of governors and township committees. Now that all the people of our county may understand its object and meaning this article is written. It is intended between November 1st and 15th to have at Greenville an exhibition of all agricultural products—corn, cotton, tobacco, peas, peanuts, potatoes, friuts, chickens, turkeys and such other fowls as are raised in this county, hogs, cows, oxens and other farm animals. There will also be space devoted to the showing of bread, cakes, canned fruits and needlework.

Prizes will be offered in each department. While the prizes for this year will be small in money value still we hope to stimulate those who will exhibit that the value will not be in the prizes awarded, but by learning from the man who has produced the most or best, at the lowest cost to cause the others of us to strive to reach his point of productiveness and lower his cost of production.

It takes a long time to conduct a crop experiment, and when Mr. A. has followed one course and Mr. B. another we want to bring them together and let each man prove himself to be a teacher to his neighbor and his countyman. There will be no shows of any kind. The aldermen of Greenville have been requested not to issue permits to any show during this exhibition. It has not been decided yet whether the exhibition will be held one or two days. The boys corn judging contest will be on the same day. This is not a money-making proposition. The men who are pushing it are doing so for their love of their people and confidence in the development of their home county. We invite you to get ready some farm products of whatever kind you see fit to enter into the contest, be with us on that day, lets exchange ideas and experience and make it a day of pleasure only as it is a profit to ourselves, our families, our neighbors and our county.

Yours truly, J. L. WOOTEN, President. U. J. WHIGHARD, Secretary.

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS PRIZES

OFFERED BY THE STATE TO BOYS IN CORN GROWING CONTESTS—Pitt Has 17 Entered.

Raleigh, N. C., June 5, 1911. Editor Reflector:

At the December meeting of the Board of Agriculture there was appropriated $500 for prizes to the boys of the state who made the most corn on an acre of ground. Rules and regulations governing the contest were sent to all applicants. Since then there has been subscribed by manufacturers and fertilizers about $500 more, making about $1,000 to be given to the boys who excel in growing corn. In many counties the number of boys entering the contest has been disappointing. In view of this I am going to hold my books open through the month of June, and will enroll any boy of the right age who sends in his application. There is yet a fine opportunity for some boy who has not entered to do so and win a prize. There will be about $100 worth of prizes to each Boys Corn Club district. Only 73 boys have sent in their applications from the third district, as follows: Pitt, 17; Greene, 0; Wayne, 22; Lenoir, 15; Craven, 3; Jones, 1; Carteret, 0; Onslow, 2; Duplin, 9; Pender, 3.

So far Wilkes is the banner corn club county in the state. The county superintendent of that county, Mr. C. C. Wright, has sent in 132 applications. If every county in the state would do as well as Wilkes, we would have more than 10,000 boys in the contest studying corn growing and laying the foundation for better and more profitable farming against the day when they shall become men and undertake the responsibilities they will then assume. What a state, agriculturally, North Carolina might become in a few years, if we had 10,000 of her boys now studying how to grow more corn and incidentally learning the foundation for better farming along all lines! Enough county pride should possess every progressive person in the district to encourage him to give the movement the benefit of his or her influence. Let the fathers and mothers of the boys in the district encourage them to enter the contest and see how much corn they can grow on an acre. The experience will be worth a great deal, even though they should not win a prize. Besides, we hope to continue this work, and if a boy fails to get a prize this year he stands a better chance of getting one next year, if he enters the contest now, than if he waits until 1912 to enter.

I shall be pleased to send blanks to any boy who wishes to enter the contest. Do not write to me to enter your name, but ask for a blank to fill out, as only those who have signed applications in my office will be considered members of the corn club. I will send with the application blank one of our Boys' Corn Club buttons.

TRIBUTE TO MRS. W. R. HORNE— Her Death A Great Loss To The County.

On May 24, 1911, about half-past eleven o'clock a. m., of heart failure, the spirit of Mrs. Florence Horne took its flight for the better world. She was the daughter of Mr. Henry Edwards and Fannie Moye Edwards, and grand daughter of Mr. Alfred Moye, the most useful man of Farmville township prior to the Civil war. She was born May 24, 1860, in Greene county, N. C., near where Mr. W. A. Darden now lives; her father died in 1863 and her mother in 1865. Miss Mary Edwards, who afterwards became the wife of Mr. E. A. Moye, took the poor orphan to bring up, and she lived with them until 1883, when she married Mr. W. R. Horne and removed to the residence in which both spent the remainder of their days. No children came to them to gladden their hearts.

She became obedient to her Savior when quite young and connected herself with Cornith church and remained a devoted member until after she took up her residence so much nearer Antioch Christian church, that she thought it her duty to cast her lot with them. Her husband's people being Primitive Baptists, he was naturally inclined that way and many nice dinners has she provided for them at the yearly meetings at old Tyson's church. So many as forty have taken dinner with them at some of these annual gatherings. She always prepared these dinners willingly and enjoyed serving them because it was so wished by her husband. She was true to attend the services of her church and was a constant contributor to its support.

She, in the life time of her husband, gave the first hundred dollars towards building the new brick church in Farmville, and had it not been for her anxiety and persistent advocacy of a better church house, we should have been worshipping in the old church now.

Having been brought up in the family of her uncle, Mr. E. A. Moye, his children always seemed to her as her own brothers and sisters, and, as was befitting, she left the major portion of her estate to her cousin, Mary Alice Carper. If public opinion were better educated along certain lines, the residue of her estate would have gone where it would have showed the most glory upon her name and where her near relatives wish it had been devised.

Having been left on orphan in her infancy, she was in some respects unfortunate in all her life—in other respects, she has been fortunate all her life. She had her hours of sunshine and her hours of sadness and sorrows. That which she most desired she was denied, but she had many things upon which her heart was set. She was a kind friend, but for those she disliked, she had no use and took up no time with them.

The county has lost an excellent citizen, the family a very dear relative, the church a loving, consistent member. M.

INTEREST IN MEN'S PRAYER LEAGUE

CONTINUES IN WARM WEATHER. Good Meeting Sunday Afternoon and Splendid Talks.

Even though the afternoons are warm the attendance upon the Men's Prayer League continues good, and the meeting in the Methodist church Sunday afternoon was fully up to the usual interest. Two of the appointed leaders, Messrs. E. A. Moye and J. C. Lanier, Jr., made splendid talks on the subject "Give Your Best," emphasizing the text "What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me?"

In the open discussion that followed the suggestion was made that the members of the league read the Ten Commandments at least once each week.

The subject for the meeting next Sunday, which will be held in the Presbyterian church, is "The Treasure House." Text, Col. 3:2 and Matt. 6:19:21. Leaders, Messrs. W. J. Brown, B. S. Warren and B. W. Moseley.

MR. E. A. BALDREE DEAD.

Passed Away Saturday Afternoon of Pellagra.

At 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mr. Elias Baldree died at the home of Mr. R. L. Little, near Winterville, where he had lived for sometime. He had been in poor health about a year, and was confined to his bed for six months.

Mr. Baldree was a deaf mute and was born March 6th, 1864, making him a little more than 47 years old at the time of his death. In April, 1906, he married Miss Lula Spivey, of Johnston county, also a deaf mute, and is survived by the wife but no children.

Mr. Baldree was a painter by trade, and a most industrious and upright man. He had a host of friends, and though unable to converse except in the sign language, he was always a congenial companion. He was a member of the Baptist church at Winterville and a devout Christian.

The burial took place Sunday afternoon in Winterville cemetery, funeral services being conducted by Rev. M. A. Adams.

Town Election.

The town election for one alderman in each ward, and for a mayor for two years, has been in progress today. The election has proceeded so quietly that it could hardly be told, except about the polling places, that an election was going on. A nomination being equivalent to election, the voting is all one way without any opposition to the nominees, hence no great interest is shown.

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Told for The Reflector's Busy Readers.

Statesville.—The whole city was shocked late this afternoon, when the news was received that Claude Laugenour was drowned at Morrison's mill pond, about four miles north of the city. A large crowd immediately went to the scene in automobiles and buggies and on bicycles. It was about 4:30 when the accident happened and the body was not recovered until about 6 o'clock.

Mr. T. R. Rouse, cashier of the Rouse Banking Company, of LaGrange, was last night appointed temporary receiver of the Bank of LaGrange by Judge Whedbee, before whom application was made at Goldsboro. The order is made returnable before Judge Peebles at Kinston June 15 to show cause why the receivership should not be made permanent. The Bank of LaGrange was closed yesterday by the corporation commission because the officers had been running it contrary to law.—Raleigh Times.

As the result of too much liquor and a disagreement with Will Weaver, a negro, Ed Pearce, a white man of the Zebulon section, is dead, and his assailant is in the Wake county jail to await trial in July for murder. The tragedy occurred at Mr. S. Z. Gill's saw mill, three and a half miles northeast of Zebulon, last evening about 4:45 o'clock. Pearce, according to the best information, began cursing the negro, who returned in kind and later struck the white man twice across the head with a pine limb, crushing the skull and causing death.—Raleigh Evening Times.

The Call of The Nurse.

No calling has more rapidly advanced in public esteem the past few years than that of the trained nurse, and every movement looking to improving the efficiency, and widening the sphere of usefulness of those who adopt nursing as a life work should engage the attention and cordial approval of the public. The meeting next week of the American Society of Superintendents of Training Schools for Nurses in Boston promises to be a noteworthy occasion in the annals of the profession.

The trained nurse should be a nurse by instinct as well as by training. She should have that undefinable something about her that calms, rather than excites, the patient. She must love her work, as the true physician loves his, having an instinct for relieving the suffering.

The white-garbed angels of the hospital wards are doing a noble work. They give an air of gentleness and quiet to the sick room that robs the hospital of much of its dread, and those who have once been under their ministrations are their friends for life. All honor to the noble young women who go forth from their homes to the relief of suffering humanity.—Richmond Virginian.

BANK CASHIER KILLS HIMSELF

L. V. Hart, of Tarboro Bank, Commits Suicide

A SHORTAGE IN HIS ACCOUNTS

Motive For Desperate Act Found To Have Been The Discovery That Cashier's Accounts Had Been Found Short by State Bank Examiner Doughton.

Tarboro, June 14.—A more stunned or shocked community would be hard to find than Tarboro about 2 o'clock this afternoon. Report came down the street that Luther Hart had shot himself.

At one o'clock Mr. Hart was seemingly in his usual good humor, even told a man that he would see him after dinner, to which he was on his way. Soon after reaching home his wife, who was in a room superintending the serving of dinner, when in a room above, heard a pistol shot. A hurried visit up there disclosed her unconscious husband lying prone with a wound through his head. The ball had entered just above the temple and came out just back of the ear on the other side. Physicians were sent for, but they could do nothing.

For years he has been the accommodating cashier of the Bank of Tarboro.

The motive for the suicide became known about four o'clock, just about the time Mr. Hart died.

As Bank Examiner Doughton delved into the books, he began to find entries that needed explanation. Of this he asked Braxton Hussy, the assistant cashier, who, after being plied with questions, broke down and stated that the stealing had been going on for seven years and that he was glad it was all over, that he knew the crash would come and he was glad that the suspense was over.

Solicitor Ailsbrook, apprised of this confession, swore out a warrant for

Mr. Hussey and had him bound over to court.

There are all kinds of speculations about the extent of the shortage. Mr. Hussey says he received $12,500, but no one believes that this will begin to cover the amount of the shortage. Mr. Hussey's bond was fixed at $15,000.

Mr. Hussey not only made a confession, but he also conveyed to the bank every item of property that he had.

Bank Failed to Open.

Tarboro, N. C., June 15.—The Bank of Tarboro failed to open its doors today, following the discrepancies in accounts of Cashier L. V. Hart, who suicided yesterday. The deposits of the bank are $200,000 and the capital $25,000.

Sheriff S. I. Dudley took a climb up in the world this morning. He was seen up on the very highest timbers around the tower on top of the new court house, fully a hundred feet above ground, and with an imaginary field glass was viewing the landscape o'er. PARCELS POST MEASURE

Sub-Committee of Congress Giving It Consideration

WILL TAKE EXPRESS COMPANIES

And Operate Them By The Government In Connection With Mail Service—Exorbitant Charges of Express Companies For Carrying Small Packages.

Washington, June 15.—The sub-committee on post offices and post-roads met today and took up for consideration the Lewis bill, which provides for condemning and purchasing the express companies and adding them to the Postal system, and establishing a complete system for the quick transport of packages and the eatable products of the farm and truck garden, etc. At their last conference in Washington the representatives of the business men of the country and the farmers' granges asked congress to establish such a system, and representatives of these interests were present at the hearing before the committee today.

"There are two main reasons why the express companies must be added to the postal system," said Mr. Lewis in his argument. "First, the express company service does not reach beyond the railways to the country or the farmers, which the post office does, through the rural free delivery, which is waiting with empty wagons to receive the express packages and take them to the country stores and the farms, and carry back to the towns and the cities the produce of the farms and truck gardens for the people to eat, at living prices. Second, the contracts of the express companies with the railways give them an average transportation of three quarters of a cent a pound; and with this rate the express charges by post would be reduced from two-thirds to one-half on parcels ranging from 5 pounds to 50 pounds, and about 27 per cent. on heavier weights, as a consequence of the co-ordination of the express company plants with the post office and rural delivery, and the elimination of the express company profits, which are averaging over 50 per cent. on the investment.

"The express companies are positive hindrances and obstacles to the business of the country. The average charge for carrying a ton of express in Argentina is $6.51, and for the countries of Europe $4.12, while the average express Co. charge in the United States is $31.20. They charge 5 times as much to carry a ton of express as a ton of freight in other countries. Here the express companies charge 16 times as much. Of course, these charges simply prohibit by half or more of the traffic of the United States. Our average is less than one hundred pounds per capita while that of the other countries is over two hundred per capita, although we have far greater demand for quick transportation on account of our longer distances and more extensive business."

"We cannot have an efficient parcels post. The government cannot conduct it on mail railway transportation rates, at over four cents a pound, in competition with the express companies' paying but three-fourths of a cent a pound, excluding the weight of equipment in both cases which enables the express corporations to pay over fifty per cent. profits to themselves, although rendering no service whatever to the farmers and to points off the railways."

Mr. Lewis has worked out a system of "zones" based on scientific methods, from which a five-pound package, for instance, can be sent 1 mile for 11 cents, while the express companies now charge 25 cents a more for like distances; from Cala Maine, to San Francisco, will cost 30 cents for five pounds, and $2 for 50 pounds, as against the express company charges of 85 cents a $7.50.

With the rural free delivery a parcels post will market the farmer's produce and save them the time and labor of marketing their truck. Rates even lower than those quoted (Continued on Page 16.)
