

AURORA NINE VS. GREENVILLE--RAIN

GAME CALLED IN FOURTH INNING

Report in News and Observer Somewhat a Preverification.

"Aurora Defeats Greenville."

Greenville, N. C., July 12.—In a snappy game of ball here today the fast Greenville ball team were defeated by Aurora, the champion amateur team of Eastern Carolina. Fike, of Aurora, was at his best and was never in danger. The score was: Aurora, 1; Greenville, 0.

The above item appeared in The Raleigh News and Observer this morning and is "news" to the Greenville fans.

The game between Aurora and Greenville here yesterday was called on account of rain in the forth inning. That left five to be played and we can't see how the correspondent—evidently an Aurora man—could possibly figure that our team lost the game with a score of 1 to 0, although it stood thus at the call.

The game promised to be a cracking good one, and but for the rain, Aurora might not have been able to make any such claim as the above.

Aurora, the champion amateur team of Eastern North Carolina! Bah! We've beat them three games to one this season.

"Fike, never in danger!" Why, we had a man on both second and third and one out when the game was called—(No danger?).

GREENVILLE BEAT KINSTON "WUSSER"

THE SCORE BEING 12 TO 1.

Slow and Uninteresting Game From The First Inning.

Since Greenville went to Kinston July 4th and got beat so badly the people here thought the game to be played here yesterday would be hard fought and closely drawn and the fans turned out in full force expecting to see something good, but the day proved to be Greenville's and the boys slugged the Kinston balls all over the field, the score being 12 to 1 in our favor.

Kinston took the lead in the first inning by scoring one run, but in the second Greenville recovered with six to the good, making seven runs, thus standing until the sixth, when two more runs were added, and then to the eighth and ninth when three more were put on, making a total of twelve. Heavy slugging of the Sloan balls and some misplays put Kinston to the bad.

Features of the game were: Darden's running, one-hand catch, and Forbes' home run.

Score by innings:

R. H. E.
Greenville . . . 070 002 012—12 15 2
Kinston . . . 100 000 000—1 8 6
Batteries: Lanier and Reddick;
Sloan, Pittman; Fleming, Rogers.

Religious Ceremony Performed.

By Cable to The Reflector.

Paris, July 13.—The religious marriage ceremony between Emma Eames and Emilio Gorgos was performed today. They will spend their honeymoon in Switzerland and Italy.

NORTH CAROLINA IN 1781.

Gov. Nash's Letter Describing Conditions at That Time.

An interesting letter from Abner Nash, Governor of North Carolina and member of the constitutional congress, to Gen. Nathaniel Greene, Greenville county, May 24, 1781, brought $26 at auction in Philadelphia a few days ago. Nash, whose autograph is rare, gives in the letter an account of the deplorable condition of affairs in his state at that trying period, when Gen. Greene was trying to defeat the British forces under Lord Cornwallis. Nash writes:

"At my endeavors to raise the militia, even to obstruct the march of Lord Cornwallis through this state, proved in vain. I was myself in their front most of the way, but able to effect nothing. They have now passed over Roanoke into Virginia, where the joined enemy are greatly an overmatch for the Marquis, (Lafayette.) His force is not only small, but he mentions in the letter of the 15th that he knows nothing of the Pennsylvania troops.

"The Virginia militia are for the present fresh and spirited, and I hope they will prove of great support to the Marquis. Our militia, especially of the lower parts, are good for nothing. I congratulate you, sir, on your success against the enemy to the southward, their being compelled by the judicious methods you took to abandon their strong posts in the heart of the country.

"The Marquis is very public spirited and disinterested. He wishes me to have much more at heart the reinforcing you than himself. Great numbers have taken protection on parole of Lord Cornwallis on his march through the country, and parties of robbers, commanded by officers of his commissioning, are ranging through the country committing murder, robberies, and every species of enormity. Could you permit Gen. Sumner to remain a while to assist in punishing the guilty and in recovering Wilmington to this poor distressed, and wretched country."

In the course of nine months Gen. Greene recovered from the British the three Southern states, North Carolina and South Carolina, Georgia, and, at the close of 1781, had all of the enemy's forces below Virginia hemmed within the cities of Charleston and Savannah.

Pony For Ayden.

The express office in this city was called upon Tuesday to "entertain" practically all day, a gentle (?) banker pany, shipped by express from Beaufort to Ayden. The pony was crated and gave the officials of the express company here all the fun they were looking for. All day was the express messenger kept busy repairing the damages done to the crate by the gently kicking and protesting pony. It was, however, gotten on the 4:15 train in the crate in which it arrived here. As to what happened after leaving Kinston, we are unable to state.—Kinston Free Press.

Edward, Prince of Wales.

By Cable to The Reflector.

Carnarvon, Wales, July 13.—In the six centuries old Carnarvon castle has there been the scene of ceremonies little less impressive than the coronation of Prince Edward today, which invested him with the title of Prince of Wales.

"Weber"

King of all Farm Wagons.

The man who uses Weber wagons will use no other. His judgment is good. Why not follow his advice? We have a Weber wagon awaiting your inspection. If you want to save yourself money, investigate. For sixty-six years the Weber has been the pride of all users. Use one and let it be your pride. We have literature concerning this wagon that we want you to call for. Call to-day. Let us talk over the wagon proposition. If you don't buy, you will know the merits of the Weber wagon and will be in position to know a good wagon when you see it. Get a Weber and you will get the best. We have what you want. We will be glad to see you any time.

Hart & Hadley

Greenville, N. C.

TOBACCO

YES SIREE!

THOROUGH BRED TOBACCO

A quarter pound plug of sure enough good chewing for 10 cents. Got 'em all beat easy. No excessive sweetening to hide the real tobacco taste. No spice to make your tongue sore. Just good, old time plug tobacco, with all the improvements up-to-date. CHEW IT AND PROVE IT at our expense, the treat's on us. Cut out this ad. and mail to us with your name and address for attractive FREE offer to chewers only.

LIPPERT SCALES CO.,
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Name _____
Post Office _____

"Yellow Tag"

"Horse's Head Red"

Agriculture is the Most Useful, the Most Healthful, the Most Noble Employment of Man.—George Washington.

Volume XXXII.

GREENVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1911.

Number 29

NEWS THAT IS OF IN- TEREST TO TAR HEELS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Told For The Reflector's Busy Readers.

A part of Melville and Haw River township held an election a few days ago to vote on a special tax for a school at Woodland. Every vote was in favor of the proposition and not a single vote opposed.—Mebane leader.

The town has bought eight thousand gallons of oil to be used on the streets. It is figured that this will cover the streets of the business portion of the town and that it will keep the dust down for about a year. The total cost is about six cents a gallon. It will be put down at once.—Monroe Journal.

Wilmington.—Manifesting in a most substantial way its confidence in the future of Wilmington, the directors of the Seaboard Air Line, at a recent meeting in New York, authorized an expenditure of $200,000 for still further improvements at Wilmington, the amount being immediately available. All told this will make about $400,000 spent by the Seaboard in the enlargement and improvement of its terminals at this port within the past three years.

The splendid new steel bridge of the Atlantic Coast Line across Roanoke river has been completed and the work on the entire new route is about completed. Freight trains will begin to run over the new bridge by August 1st. Work is now progressing on the new passenger station and before September 1st it is expected that passenger trains will be running regularly over the new route. The building of this new route through Weldon for the Atlantic Coast Line has been a great piece of work and has cost over $1,000,000, including the fine new bridge and viaducts.

Aviators Gathering.

By Cable to The Reflector.

London, July 20.—Aviators are gathering for the race from London to Edinburgh, Saturday, for the $50,000 offered by the London Daily.

MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS.

Pitt Lumber and Manufacturing Co. Elect Officers and Declare Dividend.

The second annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pitt Lumber and Manufacturing Company was held in the office of the company yesterday, the attendance being large. Business has been good and a dividend of 8 per cent. was declared and a good amount carried to the surplus fund. During the year many additions and improvements have been made, costing a neat sum. Otherwise the dividend would have been much larger. This was the first dividend declared by the company. About thirty men are employed and the company does an extensive business.

Officers elected at this meeting for the ensuing year, are:
E. A. Moye, Sr., president.
F. J. Forbes, vice-president.
T. W. Whitehurst, secretary and treasurer.

Another To Kinston Jail.

Deputy Sheriff T. R. Moore returned yesterday from Kinston where he went to take a prisoner, Josh Williams, colored. Josh was under bond to answer the charge of an affray and some time ago skipped, but was recently caught and now in jail for court.

In New Office.

Mayor F. M. Wooten has moved into his new office, up stairs in the Wooten building, on Third street. Mr. J. L. Wooten also has his office up stairs. The offices on the lower floor are not ready for occupancy just yet.

Fell Three Stories.

Boston.—Two-year-old Edith Young is alive today only because when she fell from a third story window she fell in a half opened parasol. Three ribs were broken but they belonged to the parasol. The child was unhurt.

Aviator Will Die.

By Cable to The Reflector.
Berlin, July 20.—Aviator Heink fell eight hundred feet from his machine today. He will die.

THE ROANOKE UNION

To be Held With the Dawsons Baptist Church, July 28-30—Program.
Friday, July 28.

11:30 a. m.—Introductory sermon by Rev. C. M. Rock, Greenville.
12:30 p. m.—Recess—Dinner.
2:00 p. m.—Organization.

2:15 p. m.—Church Authority: (a) What is it? (b) How best enforced?—C. W. Blanchard, Wilson; E. C. Andrews, Plymouth.

2:45 p. m.—The Modern Baptist Church: Similar to, and Dissimilar from the New Testament Church—J. G. Blalock, Weldon; T. L. Vernon, Hobgood.

3:15 p. m.—What should be done with a member who is not, and will not become interested in the work of the church?—O. L. Powers, Scotland Neck; Walter Daniel, Esq., Weldon. Adournment.
8:30 p. m.—Sermon by Duncan McLeod, Whitakers.

Saturday, July 29.

9:30 a. m.—Inspirational exercises—D. F. Putman, Spring Hope.
9:45 a. m.—When is a church truly fulfilling its mission?—I. M. Mercer, Rocky Mount; R. E. Hoffman, Chocowinity.

10:30 a. m.—The spiritual interpretation of the ordinances: Baptism, W. O. Biggs, Elm City; Communion, J. L. Rogers, Farmville; J. A. Sullivan, Washington.

11:15 a. m.—Baptist World Alliance, by those who were there.

12:00 m.—Song and prayer service.
12:20 p. m.—Recess—Dinner.
2:00 p. m.—Miscellaneous.

2:15 p. m.—Singing (10 minutes).
2:25 p. m.—The Sunday School; For its own sake, G. J. Dowell, Williamston; For the child's sake, A. V. Joyner, Tarboro; For the church's sake, N. H. Shepherd, Stantonburg. Adjournment.

Sunday, July 30.

10:00 a. m.—Sunday School.
11:00 a. m.—Missionary sermon, by I. M. Mercer, Rocky Mount.
Open discussion on all topics.

King Reviews Boy Scouts.

By Cable to The Reflector.
Edinburg, July 20.—King George reviewed eleven thousand boy scouts here today.

Train Robbed.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Buffalo, N. D., July 20.—The Northern Pacific passenger train was held up near here last night by three bandits, who shot engineer Olson twice and robbed the passengers, and then they escaped.

Plunges Through Trestle.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Muskogee, Okla., July 20.—The passenger train of the Midland Valley Railroad plunged through a trestle near Avant this morning, injuring many people.

Robbers Get $10,000 from Italians.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Janesville, Wis., July 20.—Three hundred Italian laborers on the Chicago and Northwestern railroad were held up by four robbers who obtained at the point of pistols, $10,000.

Ex-Shah Defeated.

By Cable to The Reflector.

St. Petersburg, July 20.—Rebels headed by the deposed Shah of Persia, Mohammed Ali Mirz, were defeated on the Persia frontier today. The ex-Shah escaped into Russia.

Cholera Situation Better.

By Wire to The Reflector.

New York, July 20.—The cholera situation is well in hand. The Italian steamer, Principe Die Piedmont, has arrived. General quarantine is enforced.

Detectives Find No Clue.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—Detectives are still at sea in the Beatty murder case.

Gates Improves.

By Cable to The Reflector.

Paris, July 20.—Gates condition shows marked improvement. His family is much encouraged.

Store Wrecked.

By Wire to The Reflector.

Chicago, July 20.—His failure to pay the black hand demands resulted today in a bomb wrecking the store of Vincent Cognatu.

A FARMER WHO STAYS HOME AND WORKS

SEN. SIMMONS TELLS THE TRUTH

Raise Everything Needed And Be An Honor To Your Calling.

Ayden, N. C., July 18, 1911.
Good Morning, Mr. Editor:

Haven't been to see you for some time. Hope you are feeling fine this beautiful day since having such splendid rains for the last two or three days. By the way, we had a gully washer the 15th and judging from the looks of the cloud fear our neighbors to the west of us had a storm.

The outlook for corn and cotton is most auspicious. Tobacco is doing well, but is too late and irregular for good results. We have not been as dry as in some other sections; notably, around Ormondsville, Ayden and Greenville. Our cotton has not had any yellow leaves at the bottom like it has in other sections mentioned.

It makes us feel good some times to think we are a farmer, to have such bouquets thrown at us—I mean not myself only, but all farmers—are those thrown us by Senator Simmons in his speech of June 23, 1911, on "Government aid for improvement and maintenance of Postal Banks." On page 5 of his speech he says: "It is they, who through the hardships and trials of pioneer life, subdued and made habitable the vast wilderness stretching from the Atlantic to the Pacific; it is they who have borne the burden of those tariff laws that have contributed so largely to the development of our manufacturing; it is they who have chiefly furnished the traffic that has made railroading profitable and the gratuities which have so largely stimulated their construction; it is they who have sustained the balance of world trade in our favor and brought to our shore a constant stream of gold; it is they who have contributed most largely to the production of national wealth; and it is they who have been our main dependence in peace and our bulwark of safety in war."

He says more along the same line, but these quotations suffice for my time. These would be a fitting peroration in a speech made in praise of the farmer at some grand agricultural rally. Young man, read and ponder, and cast your lot with us. All that was said above is true, but some one will be ready to say, oh, he wanted to tickle the farmers just now. We are not writing in this strain to tickle Senator Simmons for we do not know that we shall support him in the senatorial contest, but rather think we will not.

Hold up your head, brother farmer, don't be ashamed of your calling nor your clothes, either. Just pay your honest debts, make your land produce much of everything you use on your table as you can and your stock, and a little to spare, and then you will be an honor to your calling. Stay away from town and the country store unless you have real business, for Uncle Sam brings your mail to your door so you do not need to go for that. Help the madam, improve your farm buildings, patch the old rickety gate and make everything around the kitchen and yard as convenient as your circumstances will allow.

Here's how we celebrated the 4th of July. Hung and adjusted four wire doors while the boys were gone to the base ball game and the negroes were gone on an excursion and loading up with whiskey. The best thing that can happen to any man is to be engaged in some legitimate business most of his time. Idleness breeds mischief and extravagance.

W. A. DARDEN.

Happyest Girl in Lincoln.
A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and got better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." For sale by all dealers.

Will Teach In Greenville.
Miss Julia Tucker has been elected teacher of art in the Greenville graded schools. Miss Tucker is a young lady of fine talent, and the Greenville people are to be congratulated on having secured her services.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by all dealers.

of July. Hung and adjusted four wire doors while the boys were gone to the base ball game and the negroes were gone on an excursion and loading up with whiskey. The best thing that can happen to any man is to be engaged in some legitimate business most of his time. Idleness breeds mischief and extravagance.

W. A. DARDEN.

MR. PHELPS HURT.

Horses Scared By Automobile—Mr. Phelps Thrown Out of Wagon.

This morning when Mr. E. S. Phelps was coming down Dickinson avenue with a wagon heavily loaded with lumber, his horses were frightened by an automobile near the Norfolk Southern depot and ran away down the avenue to the Presbyterian church, where Mr. Phelps turned them into Greene street. In making the turn Mr. Phelps was thrown out, falling under the wheels of the wagon, one of which ran over him. The wheel struck him on the left hip and passed over his body to the left shoulder, hurting him very seriously. He held on to the reins and stopped the horses, with the wagon wheel on him.

He was taken to his home and Dr. Hassell attended to his injuries, and while finding no bones broken, he found that Mr. Phelps was very seriously injured. It will be some time before he recovers. He received several bruises and hurts on his face and one ear was badly hurt.

Mr. Phelps is seventy-two years old, which makes his injuries so much slier to get well.

CHANGE AT GUM WAREHOUSE.

Mr. J. J. Gentry to Have Charge The Coming Season.

Mr. J. J. Gentry, formerly of Winston-Salem, who last season managed a tobacco warehouse in Ayden, has been engaged by the Farmers Consolidated Tobacco Company to conduct the Gum Warehouse in Greenville the coming season. Mr. Gentry is already here and at work among the farmers. He has had seventeen years experience as a warehouseman and is a valuable addition to this market. He is cordially welcomed here.

Happiest Girl in Lincoln.

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and got better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." For sale by all dealers.

Will Teach In Greenville.

Miss Julia Tucker has been elected teacher of art in the Greenville graded schools. Miss Tucker is a young lady of fine talent, and the Greenville people are to be congratulated on having secured her services.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

For summer diarrhoea in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, and a speedy cure is certain. For sale by all dealers.

of July. Hung and adjusted four wire doors while the boys were gone to the base ball game and the negroes were gone on an excursion and loading up with whiskey. The best thing that can happen to any man is to be engaged in some legitimate business most of his time. Idleness breeds mischief and extravagance.

W. A. DARDEN.

BEES SAVE
WHY DON'T YOU?
NATURE
TEACHES US
TO SAVE

PUT IT INTO THE BANK NOW SO YOU'LL HAVE IT WHEN YOU NEED IT. ITS SAFE IN THE BANK

JAMES J. HILL, the great railroad king, made money slinging a pick when a young man. He BANKED and SAVED his earnings. He became a contractor and multi-millionaire.

Make OUR Bank YOUR Bank.

THE BANK OF GREENVILLE
JAMES L. LITTLE, Cashier
R. L. Davis, Pres. S. T. Hooker, V-Pres.
H. D. Bateman, Ass't. Cashier

Columbia Bicycles

We have on sale at our factory the celebrated Columbia, Rambler, Crescent and Fay Bicycles, for ladies and Gentlemen, boys and girls. These bicycles are known the world over for their easy running and durability. We guarantee them. If you are thinking of buying, come to see us.

THE JOHN FLANAGAN BUGGY CO.

LOST—A SILVER IDEAL WATER-
mans fountain pen between the home of C. H. Langston and Bethany church, or Chas. McLawhorns residence and Tuckers school house. Name of H. J. Langston engraved on it. Finder will be rewarded upon return. 7 21—ltw

After a man has been touched he begins to realize that he was hard hit.

Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is certain to be needed and cannot be obtained when on board the cars or steamships. For sale by all dealers.

The average man would want to be president of a railroad before he could tell an airbrake from a locomotive.

GOOD ROADS CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

APPOINTED BY ASSOCIATION.

Will Ask County Commissioners At August Meeting to Order Election

On the Fourth of July a meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a good roads association for Greenville township. The officers of the association selected at that meeting were authorized to appoint a committee of twelve to be known as a central committee in the interest of good roads, to work in conjunction with the trustees named in the bill passed by the last legislature relative to issuing bonds for building good roads in the township.

Before making the appointment of the campaign committee, the officers of the good roads association invited the trustees to confer with them and this conference was held this morning in the city hall. Several of the trustees, as well as some other citizens, were present and there was considerable discussion of good roads and the best methods to obtain and maintain them. Some argued for direct taxation, some favored private subscriptions, while other were for a bond issue as the quickest and best method of getting good roads.

As to the campaign committee it was decided that twelve, as first intended, was too many and the number was reduced to five. Those appointed on this committee were Messrs. H. A. White, Major Mills, Harvey Allen, A. A. Forbes and C. E. Fleming.

The committee, with the trustees provided for in the bill, will ask the county commissioners at August meeting to order the election on the question of issuing bonds to build the roads.

LICENSE HOLDERS.

Will Probably Resist Searching Of Their Premises by Police Officers

It is stated that a number of persons holding United States license to sell whiskey, or malt, will not receive without a contest searches by police officers, in accordance with an ordinance adopted by the council at the recent meeting conferring this right. It is stated that they will not tolerate the presence of an officer on their premises for the purpose set forth in the ordinance, resorting to force if necessary to eject him from the building. It is reported that persons holding licenses have been advised by their attorneys that the ordinance cannot be enforced and that they have a perfect right to protect their places against inspections by police officers. On the other hand both City Attorney McClammy, and Assistant Attorney Perchau are of the opinion that the city is within its right in the ordinance as adopted. The first section of the ordinance makes it unlawful for persons or firms to keep for the purpose of illegal sale intoxicating drinks; the second section declares such places a nuisance; the third gives the chief of police, or any officer, the right to make an inspection of all places holding United States license.

It is said that several persons holding such license have said openly that they will not submit to searches, and if necessary will resort to force to keep officers off their premises. The ordinance becomes effective July 22. Members of the bar are said to be divided as to the legality of the ordinance and some lively times may be expected when the police begin the enforcement of the ordinance next week.—Wilmington Dispatch.

The Printer's Unique Distinction.

The interesting statistical fact was recently developed that among the 1,200 or more convicts in the Virginia penitentiary there is not among them a printer. It seems that the editor of a weekly newspaper recently wrote to Governor Mann, making inquiry on the subject with a view to giving a man employment, the governor sought information at the penitentiary with the result that not a printer could be found among the felons in striped garb.

It might be asserted that this is a mere curious accident, inasmuch as there have recently been preachers, lawyers, physicians and men of every avocation among this large criminal class, and perhaps the condition is unique. There is a reason, however, why more printers are not criminals: In the first place the trade or art is one in which a man need rarely remain long unemployed. The demands for printers is still great, even since the invention of several typesetting machines. The hand compositor cannot be dispensed with yet and there is scope for much taste and judgment in the business of hand composition. In the first place the printer is seldom a loafer. If he loafs or sprees for a time, he goes back to work again. Another reason for this immunity from criminality is the fact that the printer who has been at the business for any length of time is usually intelligent and well informed. Not a few men have acquired practically all the education they have at the case. They think as they work and read. Indeed, no man man will become a competent printer who does not soon begin to understand what he reads. Generally the ability to speak and write correctly and fluently comes to the man who stands all day picking up type and aligning them in a "stick." Life would be a dreary monotony to him if he did not comprehend what he is putting in type.

Intelligence, education and employment are antipathetic to crime, just as ignorance and idleness are contributory to it. All honor to the calling whose thousands have no representative in the felon class. May the avocation maintain its present high standard and prove an example and an inspiration to future apprentices to maintain the ethics of the "art preservative of all the arts."—Danville Register.

Miss Mary Shelburn Entertains.

On Thursday afternoon, Miss Mary Shelburn delightfully entertained a number of her friends at a porch party, given in honor of Miss Ruth Abernethy, of Hickory. When the guests arrived they were received by the hostess and the guest of honor and were served punch by Misses Margaret Blow and Ethel Skinner.

After all the guests had arrived "Whist" was played and Mrs. L. C. Skinner, progressing the greatest number of times, won the prize. There was also a prize for the guest of honor.

After the game was over a delightful

A girl has the neatest way of letting a man make her understand questions at which she could lose him.

Condensed Statement of
THE NATIONAL BANK
GREENVILLE, N. C.
At Close of Business June 7, 1911.

RESOURCES
Loans and Discounts	.....	$187,343.35
Overdrafts	.....	2,925.78
U. S. Bonds	.....	21,000.00
Stocks	.....	2,500.00
Furniture and Fixtures	.....	7,136.30
Exchanges for Clearing House	.....	10,929.31
Cash and Due from Banks	.....	37,007.70
5 per cent. Redemption fund	.....	1,050.00
		$269,892.44
LIABILITIES
Capital	.....	$50,000.00
Surplus	.....	16,000.00
Undivided Profits	.....	2,366.95
Circulation	.....	21,000.00
Bond Account	.....	21,000.00
Rediscouunts	.....	24,325.00
Dividends Unpaid	.....	91.42
Cashier's Checks	.....	723.33
Deposits	.....	140,385.74
		$269,892.44

ORGANIZED 1906. TOTAL DIVIDENDS $11,500.00
We invite the accounts of Banks, Corporations, Firms and Individuals, and will be pleased to meet or correspond with those contemplating changes or opening new accounts. ¶ We want your business.
F. J. FORBES, Cashier

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad

SCHEDULES

Between Norfolk, Washington, Plymouth, Greenville and Kinston. Effective May 16th, 1911.

8:15 a.m.	Lv.	Norfolk	Ar.	1:35 p.m.
11:53 a.m.	Lv.	Hobgood	Lv.	9:53 a.m.
11:55 a.m.	Lv.	Hobgood	Ar.	9:42 a.m.
1:40 p.m.	Ar.	Washington	Lv.	8:00 a.m.
1:17 p.m.	Ar.	Williamston	Lv.	8:17 a.m.
2:15 p.m.	Ar.	Plymouth	Lv.	7:23 a.m.
1:18 p.m.	Ar.	Greenville	Lv.	8:18 p.m.
2:15 p.m.	Ar.	Kinston	Lv.	7:10 a.m.

For further information, address nearest ticket agent or W. H. WARD, Ticket Agent Greenville, N. C.

W. J. CRAIG, P. T. M. T. C. WHITE, G. P. A.
WILMINGTON, N. C.

Meredith College

One of the few colleges for women in the South that confers an A. B. degree representing four years of genuine college work according to the Standard Colleges.
Diploma awarded in the Schools of Eloquence, Art and Music. Library facilities excellent. Systematic training in Physical Education under Director. Courts for basketball and tennis. Boarding Club where, by about half an hour of daily domestic service students save from $52 to $65 a year. Students not offering the necessary units for entrance may prepare in Meredith Academy. Believed to be the cheapest woman's college of its grade in the South. ¶For catalog, Quarterly Bulletin, for fuller information, address

Richard Tilman Vann, Raleigh, N.C.

Top Tobacco High.
The Free Press has been requested by tobaccoists to advise the farmers to top their tobacco just as high as possible this year, as, on account of the dry weather, the potash is still there and will make the high leaves mature and ripen well.—Kinston Free Press.

A King Who Left Home.
Set the world to talking, but Paul Mathulka, of Buffalo, N. Y., says he always keeps at home the king of laxatives—Dr. King's New Life Pills—and that they're a blessing to all his family. Cure constipation, headache, indigestion, dyspepsia. Only 25 cents at all druggists.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT

IN CHARGE OF C. T. COX

Authorized Agent of The Carolina Home and Farm and The Eastern Reflector for Winterville and vicinity
Advertising Rates on Application

Winterville, N. C., July 15.—Mr. H. A. White, of Greenville, president of the Pitt County Oil Co., was in town Wednesday looking after the interest of the mill.

You farmers have just had a nice rain for your tobacco. When you house it, show your gratitude by giving your tobacco a nice comfortable ride to the barn on a Handy tobacco truck, manufactured by the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Co.

Messrs. R. L. Abbott, O. C. Daughety C. T. Cox, Rev. M. A. Adams and his two sons went to Greenville Wednesday evening.

Mr. J. S. Ross, of Ayden, was in town Thursday shaking hands with his many friends.

If you need a good sewing machine examine The Free at A. W. Ange & Co.'s.

Mr. J. R. Smith, of Ayden, was in town Thursday.

Get you a hat to wear while they are going cheap at Harrington, Barber & Co.'s. They are closing out their stock at very low prices.

Prof. F. C. Nye returned a few days ago from a trip to Hertford and Bertie county. He reports the prospects for the school good.

Mrs. R. G. Chapman and daughter, Miss Clyde, went to Greenville Friday.

We have a good line of farm fence in different heights. We also carry the most popular style of poultry fence. Come down and look over, any time. A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company.

Prof. F. C. Nye left yesterday for a several days' trip through Pamlico county in interest of the school.

Mr. Gordon Johnson made a flying trip over to Ayden yesterday evening.

Get your lime, flour and poultry netting at Harrington, Barber & Co.'s.

Prof. F. C. Nye and J. R. Carroll have been busy sending out catalogues for the school.

Mr. J. F. Stokes, of the Pitt County News, Greenville, was in town Friday.

Harrington, Barber & Company can supply your wants in carts, cart-bodies and wagon bodies, or make them to order on short notice.

Miss Esther Johnson returned home yesterday, after a several days' visit in Greenville.

Miss Nina Mayo, of near Greenville, is visiting at Mr. C. J. Harris'.

Mr. C. T. Cox and Miss Jeannette Cox drove over to Ayden yesterday evening.

Since one of our girls have returned to town from a visit away, one of our young men has improved in health greatly. "Guess?"

Mr. Eugene Cannon bookkeeper for the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, spent part of last night in Ayden.

We have seen some nice churns at A. W. Ange & Co.'s. They the cheap, too.

Mr. Roy T. Cox was a pleasant visitor in Ayden last evening.

Flooring and ceiling at Harrington, Barber & Co.'s.

ton, Barber & Co.'s mill. They will be glad to have your order at any time.

Mr. R. L. Abbott made a trip down the road yesterday.

Belts, suspenders and neck ties at A. W. Ange & Co.'s.

Winterville has a good opening for a good barber shop awaiting someone.

Assessment Not Completed.
The work of the assessors is so far not complete enough for any idea to be had as to what the increase in the assessment of Pitt county property will be, though it is thought that it will be considerable.

Winterville, N. C., July 19.—Miss Lizzie Cox, from near Cox's Mill, and Miss Annie Wooten, of Simpson, spent Sunday night with Miss Clyde Chapman.

Messrs. F. F. Cox and J. R. Carroll went to Greenville Saturday.

Get your corn and wheat ground at Harrington, Barber and Co.'s mill. They are thoroughly equipped for making good flour and meal.

Ernest Cox returned Saturday from a few days' trip to Asheville. He reports a fine time in the land of the sky.

Mr. H. T. Oglesby went to Kinston Saturday.

Those summer pants at Harrington, Barber and Co.'s are moving off rapidly. The price is low and the quality good.

Mr. A. D. McLawhon went to Norfolk Sunday morning.

Mr. W. J. Bullock, of Grifton, spent Sunday in town.

It is a good time to paint your roofs and Harrington, Barber and Company can furnish you with a paint that will stop leaks, guaranteed to give satisfaction and the price is very reasonable.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carroll left Sunday to spend a day or two with Mrs. Carroll's mother, near Kinston.

Messrs. Herbert and C. T. Cox attended services at Bethany Sunday.

Don't forget that Harrington, Barber and Company can sell you up to date patterns and magazines.

Miss Isabelle Williams, of Washington, is visiting Miss Sarah Barber.

Misses Olivia Cox and Clyde Chapman are spending the week with Miss Lizzie Cox, of Cox' Mill.

Harrington, Barber and Company have a large stock of paint on hand in all the colors, and the prices and quality is guaranteed.

Mr. J. B. Williams, of Snow Hill, was a pleasant visitor in town Sunday.

Mr. Eugene Cannon left Sunday morning for the country.

Hunsucker is continually receiving congratulations from his many friends and patrons on the many nice arrangements he has made in order to turn out buggies, surries, wagons and carts so much faster and in the very best shape. Always glad to have you drop in and will take pleasure in showing you around.

When writing address A. G. Cox Manufacturing Co., Winterville, N. C.

Miss Alys White, of Wilmington, spent Sunday with Miss Minnie Cox.

Rev. M. A. Adams left Monday morning for Marines, Onslow county, to hold a two weeks' revival there.

Mr. E. B. Tucker, one of the clever R. F. D. men, came near having a serious accident Saturday night. He was coming out of his new building and stepping on a box it turned over, throwing backward and his neck and head striking the edge of the piazza floor, hurting him very badly. He is able to be out, but he holds a very stiff neck.

If you want a good sewing machine, examine those at A. W. Ange and Co.'s. They have the best.

Miss Hattie Harrell, of Ahoskie, spent Sunday with Miss Mimie Cox.

One of our boys got tangled up with the days of last week. The reason of this, a young girl was out of town on a visit and the week was unusually long for him, but at last his troubles are ended. She has returned.

Mr. J. D. Cox left Monday for Fairmont.

Fruit jars rubbers at A. W. Ange and Co.'s.

Miss Leona Cox returned Saturday after spending some time with friends in Norfolk.

Miss Minnie Lassiter, of Kinston, is spending a few days at the home of Mr. Louis Cannon.

When your neighboring farmers inquire where to get tobacco flues that are guaranteed to go together all right and at the same time best material being used in their make-up for the money, don't forget the name of the firm "A. G. Cox Manufacturing Co., Winterville, N. C."

Miss Myrtle McLawhon left Monday evening for a visit at Grindool.

Miss Pearl Hester, who has been spending a few days in Greenville, returned home Monday evening.

Mr. F. F. Cox spent a pleasant Monday evening over the river this week.

We were glad to see Miss Janie Kittrell, of Ayden and Miss Lillie Bunting, of Bethel in our town yesterday.

We know that you are going to buy a wagon for your farm, and this fall you will have some heavy hauling. That is why we are giving special attention to our farmers "Tar Heel Wagons", right now. It is ready for you. If you wait until the spring to buy, we might have to build you one from the jump. Write or make a personal visit to the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co., right away.

Messrs. F. F. Cox, Jno. R. Carroll and Eugene Cannon attended the would-be game of ball yesterday at Ayden.

Winterville has an ideal married man. He has learned to forget things that happened in married life. This is exactly the thing to do, but one of our married men actually forgot his wife's name so completely he could not get a letter to her while she was away on a visit.

Mr. J. R. Cooper is all smiles. He has a young girl stopping with him for several years.

Mr. H. D. Cooper, of Roanoke Rapids is visiting his brother, Mr. J. R. Cooper.

Winterville Loses to Grimesland.
In one of the most exciting games witnessed on the local diamond this season, Grimesland won from the locals by the score of 8 to 7.

At the beginning of the ninth inning the locals were in the lead but with one man on base, L. Buck realizing that it was an opportune time for him to capture the honors of the day, lifted one over center and for three bases, scoring one man and later coming in himself. This gave the visitors a lead which the locals were unable to overcome.

Tucker, who was on the ground for the locals, pitched a splendid game and but for the "punky" playing of two of his team-mates the score would have been quite different.

Edwards, the twirler for the visitors, was very effective in pinches and was given good support as the error column will indicate.

The slugging of Suggs and the fielding of D. Cox was the feature for Winterville while the work of Suggs (a Greenville boy) at short and the hitting and fielding of L. Buck won the game for Grimesland. The base running of G. Buck also deserves mention.

Summary — Three-base hits, L. Buck. Two-base hits, Suggs and Tucker. Struck out, by Tucker, 6; by Edwards, 8; Base on ball, by Tucker, 1; by Edwards, 1.

Umpire, Cox.

Winterville .. 7 7 6
Grimesland .. 8 6 3
R. H. E.

Went From Court Room to The Minister.

Granted a divorce this morning at 10:30 o'clock in Mecklenburg Civil court from her husband, James Stockton, Mrs. Lula Grant, alias James Yates, walked down stairs with J. J. Owen, where they obtained a marriage license from Register of Deeds W. M. Moore and announced their intention of going to Rev. Dr. H. H. Hulton, of the First Baptist church, to be married at once.

Mrs. Grant was married a few months ago to a man who gave his name as James Yates. The ceremony was performed by "Squire S. H. Hilton at his office at the court house. It developed in a few days that Yates' real name was Stockton and that he already had a wife in King's Mountain. He left for parts unknown a few days after the marriage before "Squire Hilton and has not been heard of since.

The court granted the divorce this morning in a few minutes after hearing the case. J. J. Owen has been a boarder at the home of Mrs. Grant on South Brevard for some time. He was present in the court room this morning when the verdict was rendered by the jury. The couple walked at once down stairs to the register of deeds office and license to marry was granted them.—Charlotte News, 17th.

If you want to make good there is no time like the present.

AN OLD ADAGE SAYS

"A light purse is a heavy curse"
Sickness makes a light purse.

The LIVER is the seat of nine tenths of all disease.

Tutt's Pills

go to the root of the whole matter, thoroughly, quickly safely and restore the action of the LIVER to normal condition.

Give tone to the system and solid flesh to the body.

Take No Substitute.

TRINITY COLLEGE

1859

1892

1910-1911

Three memorable dates: The Granting of the Charter for Trinity College; the Removal of the College to the growing and prosperous City of Durham; the Building of the New and Greater Trinity.

Magnificent new buildings with new equipment and enlarged facilities. Comfortable hygienic dormitories and beautiful, pleasant surroundings. Five departments: Academic; Mechanical, Civil and Electrical Engineering; Law; Education; Graduate

For catalogue, and other information, address

R. L. FLOWERS, Secretary, Durham, N. C.

TRINITY PARK SCHOOL

Established 1898

Location ideal; Equipment unsurpassed. Students have use of the library, gymnasium, and athletic fields or Trinity College. Special attention given to health. A teacher in each dormitory looks after the living conditions of boys under his care.

Faculty of college graduates. Most modern methods of instruction.

Fall term opens September 13.

For illustrated catalogue, address

W. W. PEELE, HEADMASTER, Durham, N. C.

"Cardui Cured Me"

For nearly ten years, at different times, Mrs. Mary Jinks of Treadway, Tenn., suffered with womanly troubles. She says: "At last, I took down and thought I would die. I could not sleep. I couldn't eat. I had pains all over. The doctors gave me up. I read that Cardui had helped so many, and I began to take it, and it cured me. Cardui saved my life! Now, I can do anything."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

If you are weak, tired, worn-out, or suffer from any of the pains peculiar to weak women, such as headache, backache, dragging-down feelings, pains in arm, side, hip or limbs, and other symptoms of womanly trouble, you should try Cardui, the woman's tonic. Prepared from perfectly harmless, vegetable ingredients, Cardui is the best remedy for you to use, as it can do you nothing but good. It contains no dangerous drugs. It has no bad after-effects. Ask your druggist. He sells and recommends Cardui.

Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent free. 154

PURE SODA WATER A GODSEND.

Dr. Wiley Condemns Use of Bad Chemicals.

The soda water fountain is as great a menace to femininity, in many cases, as the bar room to masculinity, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the government pure food and drug expert. Let it be understood that Dr. Wiley is not defending the bar room. While not a prohibitionist, he is "ferntist" strong drink, and has said so officially numerous times.

Dr. Wiley is not opposed to soda water in itself, nor to gayly bedecked fountains from which it issues. He is strongly opposed to dangerous ingredients which are hidden in the foam-covered glasses handed out to young and old alike.

"I am a friend of the soda water man," Dr. Wiley said. The honest soda water man who sells real soda water is a godsend. I would not part with him for the world. It's the man who sells injurious chemicals and habit-producing drugs in soda water glasses to whom I am opposed and whom I would like to see driven out of business. I have been quoted from one end of the country to the other as being on the trail of all the people who sell soda water. I am not, and never have been. But it would give me great pleasure to aid in putting out of business that contemptible class of persons who make their flavors of injurious chemicals and who sell them as pure fruit flavors.

To be pure and healthy, soda water should contain three ingredients—pure fruit flavors, pure carbonated water, and sugar, not saccharin or some other injurious sweetening. To sell flavors that are made of chemicals instead of fruits is criminal. To begin with, what is soda water? That is one question I would like to have congress and the various state legislatures define positively. Until there is some authoritative action taken on the question there is little reason to believe that we will ever get pure, clean soda water in the ordinary drug store.

There is no law which compels the druggist to put specified ingredients into his concoction. He may put virtually anything under the sun except the poisons which are prohibited by law into a glass and squirt a little foam on top, and if the mixture is satisfying to the palate of the credulous he will make money. Some day I hope congress will tell us what soda water is and what it is not. Then we can proceed with some prospects of success, to drive some of the shysters out of business.

"First of all, soda water does not and is not supposed to contain any soda. The name is a misnomer. A great deal of the stuff that is sold under the name of soda water contains saccharin instead of sugar. Saccharin is injurious, and affects children seriously. Much of the carbonated water that is mixed with the flavors contains lead. Such a mixture should be prohibited by law. A great percentage of the flavor is made of various kinds of chemicals all of which are more or less injurious to young and old alike.

"Caffine, which is being used so generally by many unscrupulous soft drink dispensers, should be driven from the market by law. Its effects especially on young people, compare with the effects of cocaine and morphine.

"I could not venture an opinion on the yearly number of little children whose lives are ruined by the use of caffeine and other dopes which are hidden in soda water glasses. The number is frightful. The same is true of grown up folks. Of course, their systems are calculated to withstand the ravages of these insidious dopes better than children.

"At any rate silly parents are allowing children to ruin their nervous systems and stomachs by drinking the dregs of dirty, insanitary, filthy drug store soda fountains. I am inclined to believe that the next generation will find that we have developed a race of nervous wrecks.

Many mothers would lift their hands in holy horror if their little girls or boys should walk into their homes puffing cigarettes, but still they will lead them to soda fountains and allow them to fill themselves with all sorts of stuff that has just as bad effect on their systems.

"Children should not be allowed to touch anything that tends to excite the nervous system, whether it is coffee or caffeine, or any of the other drugs that are passed out so freely.

"It's rather a hard matter to point to the soda water fountain where you will get a habit-producing drug or where you will get pure soda water. I know of a number of stores where scrupulous proprietors sell only pure soda water. I know of many others where they will sell anything that will help fill their coffers.

"The only thing to do is to find out which man sells pure soda water and then stay away from other shops. This is not a hard job for any one who has much respect for his nerves and internal organs.

"The matter is in the hands of the health officials of every city. While there may be no specific legislation regarding soda water, there is broad legislation everywhere guarding the physical well being of the people who constitute the community, and under such laws there is no reason, in my mind, why a druggist or soda water fountain man should not be made to show exactly the sort of goods he is offering to the people. This rule should apply as well in Washington or any other great city as it would in a town in the West, and it should apply as well in a town in the West or South as it does in Washington;

SUFFERED THREE YEARS WITH CHRONIC CATARRH.

Mr. Disch, of Louisville, Gives Peruna the Credit for His Recovery, and Recommends it to His Friends.

MR. JOSEPH F. DISCH, 454 W. Jefferson St., Louisville, Ky., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending your valuable Peruna as a catarrh remedy."

"I have been suffering for the past three years with catarrh, and had used almost everything in the market until I read of your wonderful Peruna remedy. After using two bottles of Peruna I can cheerfully recommend it to any one having the same disease.

"I was almost compelled to give up my business, until I used your remedy, and I have never been bothered with catarrh since."

Hon. C. Sloop, Congressman from Virginia, writes: "I can cheerfully say that I have used your valuable remedy, Peruna, with beneficial results, and can unhesitatingly recommend your remedy to my friends as an invigorating tonic and an effective and permanent cure for catarrh."

People who object to liquid medicines can now secure Peruna Tablets. Sold by druggists, and manufactured by The Peruna Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Man-a-lin an Ideal Laxative.

for where there is an inclination to crookedness, environment has little to do with the guiding of it.—Washington Post.

Party In Beaver Dam.

A very delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nichols, July 17, in honor of Miss Juniata Manning, of Richmond, who is visiting relatives in the neighborhood. Pleasant games were indulged in until a late hour. Refreshments were then served and other games played until time for the guests to take their departure.

Those present were Misses Kennie Forlines, Maybelle Flanagan, Carrie B. Smith, Rosa Forlines, Lucy Nichols, Sallie Smith, Jennie Allen, Blanche Forlines, Nannie Smith, Anna Nichols, Ethel McArthur, Ora Nichols, Gertie Smith, Drucilla Sutton, Juniata Manning and Messrs. Alfred Tyson, Coy Forbes, Leon Tyson, Jim B. Smith, Raymond Tyson, Lil Blow Allen, David Smith, Willie Vandford, Willis Allen, Earle Hemby, Jasper Joyner, Hugh Sutton, Thad Nichols, Leslie Smith, Robert Willoughby, Kid Tyson, Robert McArthur, Bob Allen and John Leggett.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hemby chaperoned the party, and it was greatly enjoyed by all.

OUR WEEKLY LETTER FROM WASHINGTON

STICKING THE PROBE FURTHER.

Investigations, The Order Of The Day —Some Samples of Graft.

(By Clyde H. Tavenner).

Washington, July 17.—Did President Taft throw open Controller Bay under conditions especially designed to permit the Morgan-Guggenheim interests—and no other—to gobble up this richest of the Alaskan land prizes before anyone else could have a chance to file?

This is the big important question to which the house committee on expenditures in the interior department is seeking an answer. If such was not the deliberate plan of the administration, why were these lands thrown open by such unusual procedure—by a secret executive order instead of by proclamation?

Another query: If there was no conspiracy between the administration and the big exploiting interests, how does it come that Specular Ryan, supposed agent of the Morgan-Guggenheims, alone knew of the issuance of President Taft's secret (?) order and was able to file a soldiers' scrip on 160 rods of Controller Bay strip front within three days after President Taft signed the order eliminating the land from the national forest and before any other man could have known of the order?

Another extraordinary feature of the case is this: The unvariable rule had been to give 60 days' notice before any claimant could file on this land, but, according to Mr. Dennett, of the general land office, when the president's order first came to him the 60-day provision was in it, and when he next saw the order there was no time allowed whatever for notice to the public—not even a day.

Before the investigation into this newest Alaskan land jugglery is finished it promises to develop a condition of affairs beside which the attempted theft of Alaskan coal lands is inconsequential.

The probe is in charge of Representative James M. Graham, of Illinois, one of the really big men in the Democratic house, whose career from the very first day he entered congress has stamped him as a man above partisanship and one especially qualified by service on the Ballinger investigating committee to make the inquiry he is now so conscientiously engaged in.

For many years the government paid a handsome rental for the use of the Union building in Washington. It develops now that one of the principal owners of the building is a daughter-in-law of Senator Hale, and that Senator Hale had inserted in the senate appropriation bill an item which compelled the government to lease the building. Senator Hale also caused millions of dollars of public money to be expended on a naval shore station off the coast of Maine, the bulk of which expenditure was sheer waste. The principal mission this yard performed was to provide a place for Senator Hale's political henchmen. Nor was that all. While Senator Hale was in the exercise of almost unlimited power in the senate as chairman of the appropriations committee, his son, Frederick Hale, secretly received a fee of $5,000 out of the secret service fund for alleged diplomatic labors in helping to fix a Canadian boundary line. No one can find out what young Hale actually did to earn this $5,000. These and other acts of Mr. Hale while he was senator justify the demand that he be given a chance to explain. Perhaps he will demand it in justice to himself. If modesty restrains him, the opportunity may be forced upon him by one of the house investigating committees.

Expensive Trust Busting.

Fifty-nine thousand dollars was the amount paid Frank B. Kellogg, the Republican trust-buster, by the government between 1907 and 1911. It is believed that Kellogg received as much, if not more, from the trusts. It was developed before the Stanley committee that in one instance he received fees from the steel trust while being paid by the government to prosecute its friend and ally, the oil trust. J. B. Reynolds, another "trust-buster" received $64,000 from the public treasury for his services in the tobacco and coal-carrying railroad cases. In all the Republicans spent more than $3,000,000 in ten years for "trust busting" and the trusts are still with us.

Feed Fruit In Summer.

Puree of Fruit.—Prepare a stiff compote or puree of any fruit preferred and partly freeze it. Have ready some cups of quaint shape, partly fill each with fruit mixture, drop a spoonful of clotted cream on each, and keep on ice till wanted. Serve as cold as possible with sponge fingers.

Fruit Pyramids.—Have ready some sponge cake pyramids made in deep molds. Scoop out the centers, taking care to leave a firm wall around. Mask this on the outside with a meringue mixture; fill the center of each with a fruit compote that has been kept on ice. Affix little handles of cut angelica strips, and set on ice till wanted for table.

Fruit Custard.—Prepare a good custard mixture with eggs and new milk, as for boiled custard, sweetening it very lightly. Partly fill a deep glass dish with a layer of fresh fruit. Sprinkle with light wine, cover with custard, and set on ice or in an ice cave till wanted. Garnish with fruit glacé, and serve as cold as possible.—Exchange.

In Miss Holoman's County (?)

Last week in writing of our visit to Boone we stated that while Watauga had 2,000 voters, 2,200 people owned their homes and farms. Here are the exact figures sent us by Mr. Laurie Hill who took them down: 2,357 voters and 2,409 people who own their farms. She has 72 school houses among them. The average of scholars to each school is 75 and 50 per cent. attend regularly.

The state appropriates $15,000 to the Appalachian Training school, which has in attendance 125 girls and 100 boys, has turned out 200 trained teachers, who teach in the few years of its service.—Ex.

Married In Cemetery.

Lawton, Okla., July 15.—Beside a new-made grave, Miss Nora Blankenship and Isaac Upton were married here yesterday by Rev. W. E. Humphries. When the couple called at the ministers residence they learned he was officiating at a funeral. They hurried to the cemetery and meeting the pastor near the grave, insisted that they be married there.

Get The Habit

The department store habit is growing stronger and stronger all the time, and you need not be surprised, when you realize the many advantages to be derived from trading at a store that can supply you with all the necessities and most of the luxuries of life, without the needless worry and fatigue of shopping at one store for Dry Goods, another store for Notions, and still another for Groceries, etc.

Come To See Us

Our many departments are complete in every respect, and we guarantee you satisfaction in both quality and price. Now is the time to get the habit. Make our department store your headquarters for everything you need, and save both time and money. Don't hesitate, but come or phone, No. 100.

J. R. & J. G. Moye's

Department Store

Greenville, - - North Carolina

Paint The Farm Buildings.

A movement has been started in Anson county to have all the farm houses, barns, school houses and churches painted and to further that end, an enterprising firm in Wadesboro, the Blalock Hardware Company, is selling paint to the farmers at actual costs. In consequence of this offer, there is a "run" on that particular firm, but it is making its word good and has ordered an additional supply to meet the demand. The Progressive Farmer commends the idea as one that some merchant in each town might adopt. "Sell paint at cost" it says: "That fact will be talked and will be good advertising. More than this, the man who comes to you to buy paint will buy other things, and this call on you will not be without profit after all." The Wadesboro Ansonian is helping the Blalock firm to dispose of its paint, while the farmers are plying the brush and enjoying the fun.—Charlotte Chronicle.

CHANGE IN MANAGERS.

Mr. F. C. Smith Succeeded by Mr. H. M. Phillips.

Mr. F. C. Smith, who for nearly five years has been manager here of the local telephone exchange for the Home Telephone and Telegraph company, has been transferred to New Bern, and will leave with his family for that town in a few days. He has made many friends during his stay here, and the people regret that he and his family are to leave Greenville. The new manager of the local exchange is Mr. H. M. Phillips, of Weldon, who has taken charge. He was in Greenville for a few months some years ago, and is not a stranger to our people. He has much experience in the telephone business and will keep the local exchange up to its high standard under Mr. Smith's management.

A man can make himself much better looking to a woman by her marrying him.

WARE-KRAMER VS A. T. COMPANY

PLAINTIFF GETS VERDICT $60,000.

The Stockholders Get Nothing—The Defendant Appeals.

Raleigh, July 13.—A verdict of $20,000 damages was returned by the jury at 10 o'clock this morning after about 20 hours' discussion in favor of the plaintiffs in the suit of the Ware-Kramer Tobacco Co. against the American Tobacco Co. The verdict, it is stated, is the first to be brought in by a jury awarding damages under section 7 of the Sherman anti-trust law. This section provides for recovery of treble damages and attorneys' fees for the counsel of plaintiff, which will make the judgment $60,000, in addition to what Judge Connor decides the attorneys should have. The jury, it is said, stood five for the defendant and seven for the plaintiff until a very short while before a compromise was reached. For a while it looked like a mistrial. The jury fees alone were over $1,000, while it is estimated that the total cost to the American Tobacco Co., including court costs, will be about $100,000. A motion for a new trial was made by Junius Parker, of counsel for the defendant, and this was denied. An appeal was taken to the United States Circuit court of Appeals, and the plaintiff being uncertain whether it would also appeal, asked for several hours to communicate with stockholders of the company and receiver.

Late this afternoon Judge Connor allowed the counsel for the plaintiff $10,000, and he, therefore, signed a judgment for $70,000 and costs. The plaintiff decided not to appeal and the defendant appealed.

The $60,000 judgment if sustained by the higher courts will be paid into the receiver's hands and disbursed by order of the court.

Some of the counsel for the plaintiff today were very much disappointed at the comparative smallness of the verdict when they hoped to recover $120,000. The stockholders of the company will not get a cent for all their work in fighting the "trust" as the creditors will come in for all the recovery.

The Ware-Kramer company, of North Carolina, was organized at Wilson in 1904, manufactured a cigarette called "White Rolls." The North Carolina company went out of business in 1906 when its assets were transferred to the Ware-Kramer company, of Virginia, and this went into the hands of a receiver in 1906. They claimed the use of coupons and free goods, cut prices, and business methods of the American Tobacco company forced them out of business. Mr. Ware and certain other gentlemen paid $15,000 for the plant of the Ware-Kramer company when Receiver Thorpe sold it last year and are now operating it at Richmond as the Ware Tobacco company.

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Me., boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs, cuts, corns bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c, at all druggists.

RED BANKS ITEMS.

Personal Notes And Other Happenings In Our Section.

Red Banks, N. C., July 14.—Crops through this section are suffering very much for rain.

Elder William Jones, of New Bern, preached at Red Banks church Sunday.

Mrs. John Stokes, of Coxville, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Cherry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hardee, of Simpson, spent Sunday with relatives in this section.

Mrs. Della Tucker and Miss Olive Kittrell, of Simpson, attended church Sunday.

We hear that Mr. H. L. Tucker has purchased an automobile.

Mrs. J. L. Evans and Misses Esther Johnston, Pearl Hester and Louise Tucker, spent Tuesday afternoon with Miss Martha Cherry.

Mrs. W. A. Cherry and Mrs. John Stokes spent Tuesday night with Mrs. Della Tucker, near Simpson.

PROF. MEADOWS' BROTHER DEAD

He Was Doing Great Missionary Work In China.

A telegram from Chicago Sunday morning to Prof. Leon R. Meadows announced the death of his brother, Dr. J. G. Meadows, which occurred Saturday night. Dr. Meadows was a medical missionary to Wu Chow, China. After several years in the foreign field he came back this year on a visit to his native country. From the Southern Baptist Convention in Jacksonville in May, he came to Greenville to visit his brother, and while here delivered a lecture in the Memorial Baptist church. He was summoned from here to Chicago by the sickness of his wife, and was himself taken ill there and passed away. Much sympathy is expressed for Prof. Meadows in his sorrow over the death of his brother.

Dr. Meadows was thirty-four years old and leaves a widow and five children. He died of typhoid-pneumonia after undergoing two separate operations. His home was at Haynesville, La., where his parents live.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily In Greenville—Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Greenville still continues, and and citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than by experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

Mrs. C. Barnhill, of Greenville, N. C., says, "I have been so greatly helped by Doan's Kidney Pills that I am pleased to recommend them. My back and head ached and I had dizzy spells and pains in my sides. My kidneys did not do their work properly and caused me much suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at the John L. Wooten Drug Co., relieved my aches and pains and corrected the trouble with my kidneys. I most cheerfully recommend this preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

W. F. EVANS
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Office opposite R. L. Smith & Co.'s Stables, and next door to John Flanagan Buggy Co's new building
Greenville, N. Carolina

N. W. OUTLAW
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Office formerly occupied by J. L. Fleming.
Greenville, N. Carolina

DRESBACH & CLARK
Civil Engineers and Surveyors
Greenville, N. Carolina

S. J. EVERETT
ATTORNEY AT LAW
In Shelburn Building
Greenville, N. Carolina

MOORE & LONG
ATTORNEYS AT LAW
Greenville, N. Carolina

DR. R. L. CARR
DENTIST
Greenville, N. Carolina

HARRY SKINNER
LAWYER
Greenville, N. Carolina

H. W. CARTER, M. D.
Practice limited to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Washington, N. C. Greenville, N. C.
Greenville office with Dr. D. L. James.
Hours: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., Mondays.

ALBION DUNN
ATTORNEY AT LAW
Office in Shelburn building, Third St. Practices wherever his services are desired
Greenville, N. Carolina

WARD & PIERCE
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW
Greenville, N. C.
Practice in all the Courts.

S. M. Schultz

Established 1875

Wholesale and Retail Grocer and Furniture dealer. Cash paid for Hides, Fur, Cotton Seed, Oil Barrels, Turkeys, Eggs, Oak Bedsteads, Mattresses, etc. Suits, Baby Carriages, Go-Carts, Parlor Suits, Tables, Lounges, Sofas, P. Lot and Gail & Ax Snuff, High Life tobacco, Key West Cheroots, Henry George Cigars, Canned Cherries, Peaches, Apples, Syrup, Jelly, Meat, Flour, Sugar, Coffee, Soap, Lye, Magic Food, Matches, Oil, Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls, Garden Seeds, Oranges, Apples, Nuts, Candies, Dried Apples, Peaches, Prunes, Currants, Raisins, Glass and Chinaware, Woodenware, Cakes and Crackers, Macaroni, Cheese, best Butter, New Royal Sewing machines, and numerous other goods. Quality and quantity cheap for cash. Come to see me.

Phone Number 55

S. M. Schultz

Spring Bedding Plants

for beautifying the yard. Also Decorative plants for the house

Choice Cut Flowers

for weddings and all social events. Floral offerings arranged in the most artistic style at short notice. Mail, telephone and telegraph orders promptly executed by,

J. L. O'Quinn & Company
Florists.

Ask for Price List
Phone 149 Raleigh, N. C.

THE NORTH CAROLINA College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts

The State's Industrial College
Four-year courses in Agriculture; in Civil, Electric, and Mechanical Engineering, in Industrial Chemistry, in Cotton Manufacturing and Dyeing. Two-year courses in Mechanical Art and in Textile Art. One-year courses in Agriculture. These courses are both practical and scientific. Examinations for admission are held at all county seats on July 13. For Catalog address
THE REGISTRAR,
West Raleigh, N. C.

STILL WITH The Mutual Life Insurance Company of N. Y.

Assets (Jan. 1, 1911) $572,859,062.98
Insurance in Force
(Jan. 1, 1911) - 1,464,024,396
Annual Income (1910) 83,981,241.98
Paid to Policy Holders to date (Jan. 1, 1911) 56,751,062.28
H. Bentley Harris

THE MODERN BARBER SHOP

S. J. NOBLES

Nicely furnished, everything clean and attractive, working the very best barbers. Second to none.

OPPOSITE J. R. & J. G. MOYE.

DR. F. FITTS

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
Kinston and Greenville
In Greenville 8:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.
Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

All curable diseases successfully treated without drugs or surgery.
Office over Frank Wilson's Store
Phone No. 339. Examination Free

I HAVE OPENED A HORSE
SHOEING SHOP IN THE REAR OF
WINSLOW'S STABLES, AND HAVE
THE SERVICES OF A GOOD
WORKMAN, AND WILL GUARANTEE
SATISFACTION. BE SURE TO TRY ME.

SAM KINION

Central Barber Shop

HERBERT EDMONDS,
Proprietor
Located in main business of town,
Four chairs in operation and each one presided over by a skilled barber. Ladies waited on at their home.

POOR PRINT

THE CAROLINA HOME and FARM and EASTERN REFLECTOR

(Once a week)

Published by

THE REFLECTOR COMPANY, Inc.
D. J. WHICHARD, Editor.
GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA.

Subscription, one year, . . $1.00
Six months, . . . . .50

Advertising rates may be had upon application at the business office in The Reflector Building, corner Evans and Third streets.

All cards of thanks and resolutions of respect will be charged for at 1 cent per word.

Communications advertising candidates will be charged for at three cents per line, up to fifty lines.

Entered as second class matter August 20, 1910, at the post office at Greenville, North Carolina, under act of March 3, 1879.

FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1911.

THE DOOM OF WAR.

Within the next few days the signatures of Secretary of State Knox and the British ambassador, Hon. James Bryce, will be affixed to the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, which will provide for the arbitration of all questions arising between the two countries, including even matters of vital importance and national honor. The signing of the treaty will bring to an end the notable negotiations begun at the instance of President Taft and Ambassador Bryce early this year and will make what many believe to be the greatest step toward international peace ever taken. Only a few slight changes remain to be made in the treaty, mainly in the phraseology, to which the greatest attention is being given with the purpose of avoiding any ambiguity or possible chance of misconstruction when the treaty comes to be tested by actual recourse to its provisions when an issue arises between the two countries. It is to be a model from which general arbitration treaties between the United States and other nations will be drawn.—Greensboro Patriot.

This is a step in the right direction, and one that is hoped will lead to universal peace. If any other one of the great nations will join the United States and Great Britain in this treaty, and stick to it, the three could exert such an influence over other nations that war would hereafter be almost an impossibility. Universal peace and complete disarmament of all nations would be as great a blessing as could come to the world.

STAND BY THE OFFICERS.

Greenville is fortunate in having so diligent and courageous an officer as Policeman George Clark. The law breakers fear him, for they know he is going to catch them if the least clue is left to work on. The presence of such an officer is a deterrent to crime, and this is shown in the scarcity of offenses of consequence here. The purpose of this reference to Officer Clark is not so much to praise him, though his record deserves it, as it is to impress the fact upon the citizen of the town that they owe to him a duty. While he goes about his duty fearing no danger, he is nevertheless in danger, and the citizens should see that he is properly safeguarded. His official acts should have the moral support, and physical if need be, of every law-abiding citizen, and this support should be so strong as to impress any law-breaker who would think of trying to do him harm that people would not stand for it a moment. The way to have good officers is to stand by them in the performance of their duties.

HOME IS THE CHEAPEST.

Going along the streets in Baltimore the other day, watching the throng of shoppers and taking mental note of how things go on in the city, we stopped to look at the display window of a big store filled with articles placarded at "special" prices. One article noticed was "marked down" to 29 cents, and making a comparison after getting back home we found that a Greenville store was selling the same article for 25 cents. There are two lessons that can be learned from this comparison. One is the ease with which goods can be sold when advertised; the other that in most instances you can get an article cheaper at home than by going or sending away for it. People patronize mail order houses because those houses advertise their goods, and the goods often cost more that way than if bought at home. If the home merchant was as careful to advertise and let people know what he has, much of the trade that goes to mail order houses would be kept at home.

A STEP DOWNWARD.

On Sunday the New York Herald began the publication of a Sunday afternoon edition, in which it gave particular attention to sporting news. It is much to be regretted that the larger cities of the country are drifting more and more toward non-observance of the Sabbath. The invasion of sports and business on the day that should be kept sacred and holy is a tendency to moral degeneracy that will increase as the practice in these things grows, and it is deplorable that a great metropolitan newspaper should lend its influence to this desecration. The people should stand out against such things.

Up in Statesville they have a collector in whose hands the business men place their hard accounts. If the accounts are not paid they are advertised in the newspapers and bill boards and sold at auction if there is a bidder. While this plan does not always get the money, it serves to let the public know who are the dead-beats in a community and puts others on guard to avoid being caught by them.

Some of the cartoonists had Governor Kitchin a very interested spectator peeping over the fence at the timber tariff circular discussion between Chairman Eller, Clerk Maxwell and Senator Simmons. But the "before and after trust busting" clouds that Mr. Misenheimer and State Senator Lockhart have thrown at the governor will put interest on the other side watching him duck his head.

After consuming four weeks of the Federal court at Raleigh, the suit of the Ware-Kramer Tobacco Company against the American Tobacco Company for $1,200,000 damages, came to a conclusion Thursday. The jury gave the plaintiff a verdict for $20,000, which under the Sherman law can be trebled, and judgment for $60,000 was entered.

The death of Dr. J. B. Carlyle, of Wake Forest College, which occurred a few days ago, was indeed a great loss to the state. He was foremost among the educators of North Carolina, a scholar of high rank and a speaker of ability. The work that he did in raising the endowment for Wake Forest College will be a lasting monument to him.

It is given out that the new assessment of property will give the state a tremendous increase in taxes. If the next legislature finds a big surplus on hand, instead of hunting up too many ways to spend it, a lower tax rate might help the people. High valuation and low tax rate would be as good an advertisement as the state could have.

William Jennings Bryan, in his paper, The Commoner, names Chief Justice Walter Clark, of North Carolina, as one of the possibilities for the presidential nomination next year. While it is not probable Judge Clark will get the nomination, the convention might look a long time without finding a better man.

Governor Blease, of South Carolina, must be suffering mentally under the spell of hot weather. At any rate it does not look like a sane man would give expression to such utterances as are credited to him by the Spartanburg Herald.

The Misenheimer and Lockhart letters showing Governor Kitchin's "trust busting" record before and after election may keep him and Brother Claude both busy for a time, as things in those letters need answering.

As it was brought out in the evidence that the Ware-Kramer Company used practically the same methods to extend its business as did the American Tobacco Company, the verdict for damages looks to be large enough.

Next Monday, 24th, is the date for the meeting of the board of tax equalization for this county. Ample notice has been given those having complaints to make to be present on that day.

A horse prostrated from heat in Baltimore was brought around with three bottles of beer. If the beer remedy had been discovered earlier in the hot wave there might have been more folks prostrated.

A Wake county "blind tiger" did not know when to let well enough alone. Tried before a police justice and fined $10 he took an appeal to Superior court and the latter gave him a sentence of six months.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has a woman police officer. She declines to carry either a pistol or a club, declaring that coolness is the best weapon to subdue an obstreperous person.

No one thing is likely to cost Mr. Simmons more votes in the primary than the active support Republican papers are giving him. They should attend their own side of the fence.

Senator Simmons, in reply to the letter of Chairman Eller, seems to be able to take care of himself. Secretary Maxwell also says that Chairman Eller was faulty in his memory.

Right now following the rain is the time the sand-clay streets need a little attention. Work done properly accomplishes much more good than if delayed.

Those who say they favor good roads, yet are opposed to a bond issue to build them, should come forward with a more feasible plan, if they have one.

When the election comes you are going to see that a majority of the people in Greenville township favor issuing bonds to build good roads.

With the senatorial campaign warming up this far ahead, what will it be before the primary is held sixteen months hence.

Congressman Claude Kitchin is also doing his part in the North Carolina senatorial contest.

The sunny side is the one most avoided now.

Raleigh has got busy killing flies.

Feed the flies to the birds, they like 'em.

In politics this is the age of writing letters.

There are some who prefer knocking to boosting.

Dr. Wiley is to hold his job and only get rebuke.

One good boost helps a town more than a hundred knocks.

The man who has it in for everybody usually knocks everything.

With electric fans on each Senator's desk in Washington, they ought to be able to keep cool.

When they get the wreck of the Maine out, they will have nothing worth the price.

The breaking of the hot wave is a blessing to humanity the country over.

We hope Dr. Wiley's scalp is on tight, as he has done some good in pure food investigations.

The reports of new buildings planned for Raleigh indicate that the city has "woke herself up."

When congress gets through with it, if there is any vote buying hereafter it may come cheaper.

There ought to be one more coronation to which Uncle Sam could send John Hayes Hammond. That would be a plenty.

Mecklenburg county has some property, the last tax assessment showing a valuation of about $20,000,000.

Senator Terrell's resignation means that Senator-elect Hoke Smith must go on and take his seat or it will stay vacant.

We would like to see Greenville have more business but to get it the business men themselves must do something to bring it.

One good thing is to get rid of fruit parings and vegetable scraps that might be decaying near the house. These help breed disease.

We see an item about a railroad being leased for 999 years. Wonder if the lessees think they are going to need it that long?

Montgomery county, Oklahoma, must have a long thirst. A prohibition election was held and the county voted wet by nearly 1700 majority.

There is not a discordant tone in the clinking of the ice in the pitcher.—Greensboro News.

But the discordant clank comes with the bill from the ice man.

It is none of our business, of course, but we do know that the Southern Tobacco Journal, of Winston-Salem, is running advertisements of firms that have been long out of existence.

Governor Kitchin made somewhat an egotistical boast in saying it was his personality that secured his nomination. State Senator Lockhart's letter credits him with saying this.

It is a dull day around Washington that does not start a new investigation. They have found some hundred thousand dollar fees for doing a little special accounting.

If you only pick out the bad traits in a man to talk about, you will down that man. Likewise if you can see nothing but bad in your town to talk about, you knock your town every time you talk.

Congress is moving to keep members from spending so much money to secure their elections. A measure is being considered providing that a member shall not spend a sum exceeding ten cents for each vote in his district.

The business men may think they are saving a few dollars in not spending anything to extend the trade limits of Greenville, but while they are holding back, other towns are stepping in and getting the business that would come to Greenville if proper effort was made to get it.

Damage suits for $10,000 each have been started against the Raleigh News and Observer and the Asheville Citizen because of an article that appeared in both those papers relative to the recent suit by the Ware-Kramer Tobacco Company against the American Tobacco Company.

While Mr. Bryan could not be president himself, though he made several unsuccessful efforts to be, he still assumes to be dictator of the party and wants to say who shall receive the nomination. His latest movement in that direction is to prepare a list of questions which he says every aspirant to the nomination must answer. It is inferred from this that those who do not answer the questions satisfactorily to Mr. Bryan are to have his opposition.

That Picture.

Editor Harris, of the Charlotte Chronicle, says of the picture of the

"At the meeting of the press association at Lenoir, an enterprising photograph—Holliday, of Durham—equipped with a revolving camera, 'took a picture' of the editors and their wives, on the campus of Davenport college. The Chronicle's copy came to hand several days ago, but we have hesitated to imperil it by the half tone. It would not print good in the paper, and we are sure Colonel Bob Phillips' pose, which is the best thing in the panel, would not show up well. It is not very much to the credit of the Chronicle that it didn't wear a pleasanter look with its immediate background of three of the handsomest women in the party. But then it could not see what was behind it. In the foreground H. C. Martin, who had just completed his managerial job, appears in a delightful, refreshingly wearied attitude.

Poet Laureate Hill is looking over his glasses in a benevolent fashion. One not acquainted with the group might think he recognized John Temple Graves in it, but it is not the colonel. It is a bigger man, if anything—Sims, of the Raleigh Times. Sherrill always "takes" good and Robinson is the only man who can smile naturally at the camera. As a representation of congregated intellectuality, we will put this North Carolina Press group in competition with any that a camera has yet turned out. We have one of those pictures in a neat frame, hanging in our sanctum, but that pose mentioned by Colonel Harris is one of the unexplained things about it, unless it was caused by that revolving camera. But did you notice the expectant look on the face of Editor Klutz? and Scottish Chief Harker was wondering which way the bird would fly. The picture of Whichard looks quite handsome while one of the most attractive features in the case which Judge Clark maintains his position on the ground. The mendacity of the Siler City Grit turns into jeweled innocence sitting beside the Charlotte Chronicle. We prize the group highly, although we look in vain for the faces of Professor Patton and Jimmy Cowan.—Greensboro News.

Making A Lawn.

"We sowed grass seed early last spring (1910). It came up but has died out. Soil rocky with a clay bottom, and we gave it a good dressing of stable manure." Plow the land deeply now and sow cowpeas very thickly. Be sure to turn up a good deal of the clay, for grass needs clay in the South. In the fall when the peas are mature turn the whole growth under and harrow in a good dressing of lime and then a good application of acid phosphate and prepare the land well and smoothly, and sow seed very thickly in November. The best mixture is equal parts of Kentucky bluegrass, redbud and Rhode Island bent grass, and of these, five bushels of seed per acre will be needed to give the best results in a lawn. These seed weigh fourteen pounds to the bushel. Then rake or brush the seed in with a smoothing harrow and roll if the soil is dry. Then the next spring start the lawn mower as soon as the grass is tall enough for it to bite, and in all favorable weather run the lawn mower once a week and leave all the cut grass to rot on the land. Then every spring give it a top-dressing of raw bone meal, and once in five years a coat of lime.—W. F. Massey in Progressive Farmer.

Another Stumbling Block.

During a running debate on the wool tariff in the house recently Mr. Underwood, the Democratic floor-leader, was asked concerning the Democratic position generally in the matter of tariff revision. He replied: "We have announced that we intended to revise this tariff from top to bottom. The only thing that will stop us from revising it from top to bottom is the Republican senators and the Republican President. If they stop it, we will make an appeal to the country.

As a general proposition, this is a correct and encouraging statement. If the Democrats in the house will, as they have so far done, pass the right kind of revision bills and a Republican senator and a Republican President prevents them from becoming laws, the people will know where to place the blame, nor will they hesitate to put it where it belongs. But in representatives like Bailey, of Texas, and Simmons, of North Carolina, the Democracy has within its own ranks stumbling-blocks likely to bar the way to genuine tariff revision only less effectively than a Republican senator and a Republican President. They, too, should be held to account by their respective constituencies, and, doubtless, will be.—Virginia Pilot.

One Of Bishop William's Stories.

The late Bishop Williams, of Connecticut, was very fond of children, and it was always a joy to us youngsters when he came for his visit to my father's parish. His anecdotes and stories enlivened the entire household. Once, when he was staying with us, he told the following story:

"One Sunday morning, just after breakfast, I reported to the rector's study, where I was soon followed by his little four-year-old son, who climbed up on my knee and began to talk. Suddenly the little fellow looked up into my face and said: 'Bissop, do 'oo want to see my piggy book?' " 'Yes, indeed,' said I. So the child slid down and started to get the book. When halfway across the room a sudden idea seemed to strike him, and running back and putting one hand on my knee he looked up in my face and shook his little forefinger at me, whispering, 'Bissop, it's Sunday. We must do zis on ze sly.' "—Harper's Magazine.

Storm Does Great Damage.

Reports reached Raleigh yesterday morning of a severe hail, rain and wind storm, which visited the vicinity of Apex, late Tuesday afternoon, damaging the crops to the extent of $40,000 or $50,000. Much tobacco was totally ruined, being cut to pieces by the large hail stones which fell with great force.

The area suffering from the storm was about seven miles long and four miles wide. Within this territory of which Apex is the center, more than one hundred acres of tobacco was ruined, the hail completely snapping the stalks. Cotton and corn were also greatly damaged. Many of the farmers are preparing to plant peas on the ground where the tobacco grew before the storm.—New and Observer.

Rushing Work.

An effort is being made to get the court room of the new court house ready for holding the August term of court. It will require rush work, and that seems to be what is being

An effort is being made to get the court room of the new court house ready for holding the August term of court. It will require rush work and that seems to be what is being

A SLAVERY WORSE THAN DEATH

CHILDREN WERE BOUND OUT.

Days Before There Were Homes For The Orphans.

Hanrahan, N. C., July 14.—The way to usefulness, to glory and to fame often leads through darkness, struggle, toil and sometimes shame. On the following day after the sad and untimely death of Mrs. Meadows she was laid to rest without much ceremony or many flowers, and as there was no homes provided for orphan children, on Tuesday of the following week the two children were taken to the court house and there, according to the stern law, were each bound to separate masters, the girl going to a man with some parental feeling the boy to an old planter whose abiding place stood near the banks of the Neuse. An uncouth, illiterate overbearing man, one who thought that children were machines made only to toil and go from daylight until darkness drove them into their rude den, and if perchance they failed to respond to his tyrannical bidding, they only needed to be limbered up with a capacious use of hickory oil vigorously administered with a long stream of brutal elbow grease; or if ill health came and disease must follow unsanitary conditions, and come it will to those who with much less humanity than our beast of the field or driven half clad and entirely unshod. This 10-year-old boy most needs go through winters cold and summers torrid sun, through boggy mud and scorching sands, and soon the pink flush in his cheeks began to fade, his eyes were sunken and no longer gave out their sparkling hue; his limbs instead of their symmetrical form and solid plumpness were flabby, lean and lank; his abdomen that was once so well shapen stuck out well to the front as though he had swallowed whole a dinner pot; his foot steps that were once so fleet, light and nimble, had learned to drag, thump and even shuffle as an aged man trying to conceal fleeting years. His cheeks that were once so plump and rosy, faded into a sallow, yellow, even worse, they were as chalk and tallow mixed with a greenish cast added. Instead of his once musical and captivating voice, his words were harsh with an evident labored utterance. Accused of eating dirt, yes, he had this affront to bear, though he knew in his soul of this he was clear. Accused of laziness, yes, he was pointed to by his tyrannical master as a "lazy lout." Was there anything done to alleviate his suffering or to restore him back to health and vigor? Yes, he was lashed until he had to go, and cinders, rusty iron, soaked in vinegar three times each day washed down with brandy he must swallow, for his master thought this a panacea for all the ailments that the human body was heir to. What on earth could the trouble be? No one knew or would have known if he had done that which he did not, called in the most skilled physician of that day, even they could not have diagnosed his trouble. But the glorious light of the twentieth century has been turned on, and today bring such a case before a bright child in the eighth grade of our public schools and they will tell you that, that is hook worm.

For three long summers and two winters Eugene patiently bore his depression and suffering, being driven like an ox when death would have been even a sweeter cup than to continually have to go when there were no red corpuscles in the blood to give force to the flabby muscles.

I say he had borne this and worse until he had reached a point it seemed to him beyond which endurance could not reach. So one night after he had tried from fear to toil all day, and finished his chores that he had to run after the setting of the sun, he flung himself down on his rough shuck mattress on the porch with the stars keeping watch over his crude reclining place. Weary and restless for some hours he rolled and tossed until a halo seemed to hover around and cover him. Then half waking, half sleeping, he had, oh, such a dream. He saw his angelic mother coming down to where he lay. Her face was all radiant and beautiful, her garments glistened like pearls, the stars in her crown illumined the darkness and he saw in her left hand a cap of purest gold glittering all over with the rarest of diamonds, and then he heard her gently whisper, "My son, rise quickly, drink this, take courage and be of good cheer, for you are near your old home, and by the bank of yonder river, hid by the hills and a thick forest yet undiscovered save by the roving Indian tribes, is an elixir of life for you and for many yet unborn. Yes, there is a balm in Gilead for the emaciated child and a solace for those who weep, and to you it is given to discover this remedy and then to tell it to suffering nations. But there are many hardships and struggles yet in your pathway."

Thus saying, with her right hand she pointed down the river and with her left lowered the cup to his quivering lips. He shuddered and then eagerly drank until he could drink no more, for to his great surprise he found that the cup contained pure water. When he had finished drinking and the cup had been withdrawn, he looked and lo, his angelic mother was gone.

(To be Continued).

But It Was Statesmanship.

Senator Bailey spoke three hours in the senate Tuesday against the reciprocity bill, admitting that he was speaking merely to prevent and delay the passage of the measure. That is a fair specimen of the tactics used in congress to kill legislation the people want and the people have to pay for it, not only by frequently failing to get the legislation desired but also by having to foot the bills for unnecessary sessions of congress and for time wasted at regular sessions.—Greensboro Telegram.

State of Ohio, city of Toledo, } ss.
Lucas County,

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY.
Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

(Seal) A. W. GLEASON,
Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by all Druggists, 75c.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Established 1864. A Leading BUILDING SCHOOL. Low Rates.
Wide Patronage. Excellent
Buildings. Most Modern Location.
WHITSETT
with Views and Fully particulars sent Free.
Write to-day. Address the President
W. S. WHITSETT, Ph. D., Winston, N. C.

Where There's a Will There's a Way

This old saying that was spoken centuries ago is as true today, as then. We can furnish your home in the best quality, or most economical way. If you are not already our customer, why not join in the band and become one today?

Our Matting, Carpet and Rug department is in splendid order to select from.

Yours truly,

Taft & VanDyke

IF YOU ARE GOING NORTH

TRAVEL VIA

The Chesapeake Line

Daily Service Including Sunday—The new Steamers just placed in Service the "City of Norfolk" and "City of Baltimore" are the most elegant and up-to-date Steamers between Norfolk and Baltimore.

Equipped with Wireless Telephone in Each Room. Delicious Meals on Board—Everything for Comfort and Convenience.

Steamers Lv. Norfolk (Jackson St.) - - - - - 6:15 P.M.
Steamer Lv. Old Point Comfort - - - - - 7:15 P.M.
Steamer Arrive Baltimore - - - - - 7:00 A.M.
Connecting at Baltimore for all points North, North East and West. Reservations made and any information courteously furnished by

W. H. PARNELL, T.P.A., -:- Norfolk, Virginia

East Carolina Teachers Training School

A state school to train teachers for the public schools of North Carolina. Every energy is directed to this one purpose. Tuitions free to all who agree to teach. Fall term begins September 26, 1911. For catalogue and other information, address

Robt. H. Wright, President
Greenville, N. C.

J. S. MOORING
General Merchandise
Buyer of Cotton and Country Produce
FIVE POINTS, GREENVILLE, N. C.

Roofing and Sheet Metal Work
For Slate or Tin, Tin Shop Repair
Work, and Flues in Season, See
J. J. JENKINS 'Phone 76, Greenville, N. C.

The Home of Women's Fashions
Pulley & Bowen
Greenville, : : North Carolina

PITT COUNTY'S NEW COURT HOUSE

There is Not a Better One in the State

NOW NEARING COMPLETION

Architecture And Construction It
Is Almost Perfect—Well Arranged
For Carrying On The Work Of
The County And Holding Courts—
Fine View From Tower.

Though the editor of The Reflector had sit at his desk and see the work on the new court house, just across the street, going on and from day to day observed with some degree of pride the progress of the work as brick upon brick and stone upon stone brought out the symmetry and architectural beauty of building, it was not until Friday noon that he went over to take a personal inspection of the structure. In company with Mr. E. W. Wooten, superintendent of construction and Mr. J. L. Wooten, secretary of the building committee, he went up from basement to dome.

The building is now near completion for a good idea to be had of its perfect construction complete arrangement for the for which it is intended. The new building has a passageway through the center extending from east to west the length of the building, with a sliding door about two-thirds the height from the front and a steel door at either end to reach the floor. On the south side of the building is the dead end vault underneath the clerk's office. Next to this are inside reserve rooms that will be completed at present but kept for use when need for them arise. At the west end on the side is another dead end record vault underneath the register's office. The front room on north side of the passage is called the farmers' room, or for holding meetings that do require a large hall. Next to the furnace and coal room, are lavatories and toilet rooms, and at the west are lavatory and toilet rooms for women. The first floor are entrances on both Evans and Third streets, the halls running through the building both ways. From both ends are stairways leading to the room on the second floor. First left of the Evans street entrance are the offices and record or the Superior court clerk's room to the cross hall. At the end on the same side are offices for the register of deeds, on the north side of the hall are the rooms for the sheriff, and these is the room for the clerk. Both of these also have a vault. Beyond the treasurer's a double room for the county sioners, corner being an office of the county superintendent of schools. All these offices are well and excellently arranged. The second room contains the auditor for the court room which, in the gallery, has a seating capacity for about 700. The court room extends across the entire width of the building and is 64.2 x 52.2 feet inside. On the north side of the passage leading from the stairway to this is the grand jury room and on the south side are waiting rooms for witnesses. On the west end back of the bar and judge's seat are two retiring rooms for juries, a large sleeping room for juries that are held over night, a private room for the judge and a lawyers' consultation room. All of the jury and witness rooms have convenient toilets adjoining.

The building is wired throughout for electric lighting and the entire construction seems as near perfect as could be made. When finished it will be handsomely furnished in keeping with such a structure.

The dome rises from the center of the building and reaches nearly a hundred feet. The writer is not much for climbing, but reinforced by the two gentlemen above named, one leading and the other following, he decided to get up in the world for once. After much winding in and out over ladders the topmost landing was reached, and through the openings left for the clock dials a view of the town and surrounding country was had that was well worth the climb. We had no idea before that Greenville looked so good from a bird's eye view of nearly the whole town at once, and the panorama of the surrounding country was magnificent.

Before long The Reflector is going to give its readers a picture of this new court house and some views taken from the tower.

Court House Bell.

The bell for the new court house has arrived. It is a large one and a beauty. It is thirty-six inches in diameter at the base and about four feet tall. It is intended for use to strike the hours by the clock as well as to summon people to meet by its ringing.

The following is the inscription on the bell:

Pitt County Court House,
1910-1911.
Board of Commissioners:
J. P. Quinley, Chairman,
B. M. Lewis, D. J. Holland,
J. J. May, W. E. Proctor.
Building Committee:
J. L. Wooten, Secretary,
J. G. Moye, D. C. Moore
Sold by C. E. Rountree.

ON TO JAIL.

Andrew Couldn't Give Bond—Other
Stolen Goods Recovered.

Andrew Wilkins, whose capture charged with breaking into and robbing Messrs. Sheldon's store, was told in Thursday's paper, had a hearing this morning before Mr. C. D. Rountree, J. P., and sent to jail in default of bond for his appearance at the August court.

After being locked up yesterday he made a confession, telling where other stolen goods could be found. He said he had left two suit cases of stolen goods at the house of Major Pollard, colored. Chief Smith and Policeman Clark went to Major's house and found the suit cases.

When the cases were opened and the goods examined, they were found to contain goods other than those taken from the Sheldon store. Among them were clothes belonging to several white people in town, which had been stolen from the tailor and pressing shop of Frank Hopkins, colored, which shop was broken into and robbed the same night.

MR. WILLIAM W. PERKINS.

Passed Away Saturday Night at The Sanatorium in Wilson.

How uncertain is life, and what ravages death can work in a short while. Only a few days ago Mr. William Perkins was on our streets, the picture of health and mingling with his friends in his usual congenial and happy disposition. Today his body sleeps beneath a flower covered mound in Cherry Hill cemetery, his spirit having passed into the world beyond.

A week ago Mr. Perkins was taken sick, and almost from the beginning his condition was serious. Wednesday he was taken to the sanatorium in Wilson and operated on for peritonitis, but the trouble had reached such a stage that it could not be checked and he died a little past midnight on Saturday night. The remains were brought home on the Sunday morning train, and the funeral was at 5:30 o'clock that afternoon, services being conducted at the grave by Rev. J. H. Shore. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. M. Reuss, E. H. Shelburn, J. L. Horne, J. L. Smith, T. M. Hooker, J. L. Starkey, C. S. Carr, D. E. House, C. T. Munford, W. B. Brown, C. L. Wilkinson, S. M. Schultz, Frank Wilson, H. A. White, J. E. Williams, H. B. Harriess and Mack Hearn.

Mr. Perkins was 33 years of age and a son of the late Mr. J. J. Perkins. For several years he had been a railway mail clerk and was among the best in the service. His last run was on the Norfolk Southern between Raleigh and Norfolk, which gave him about two weeks on duty and one week at home. He was popular with postal officials and with the public.

In 1906 he married Miss Virginia Hamersly, of Virginia, and leaves the wife and two small children. He is also survived by one brother, Dr. J. W. Perkins, and three sisters, Mrs. R. A. Tyson, Mrs. R. C. Flanagan and Miss Annie Perkins. These with a large number of relatives and friends mourn his death.

Mr. Otto Hamersly, of Richmond, a brother of Mrs. Perkins, came in Sunday morning and was present at the funeral. Her father, Mr. L. H. Hamersly, of Rolling Hill, Va., and another brother, Mr. A. O. Hamersly, of Crewe, Va., came in today.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

Adopted By The Sunday School Of Jarvis Memorial Church.

Whereas, it is with deepest sorrow we learn of the death of Mr. W. W. Perkins, which occurred about one o'clock Sunday morning; therefore,

Be It Resolved, That this Sunday school offer to the bereaved wife and children, who are members of this school, our sincere sympathy in this, their sad hour of bereavement, and offer our prayers to our Heavenly Father that He may comfort them in their great loss.

Resolved, second, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday school, published in The Daily Reflector, and a copy sent to his family.

Signed,

H. D. BATEMAN,
R. L. HUMBER,
L. H. PENDER.

The artist who is married to a blonde makes most of his angels of the brunette type.

CONFEDERATES IN CONGRESS

They Largely Outnumber Statesmen
Who Wore the Blue.

Fifty years after the first guns of the civil war sounded the congress of the United States is comparatively in control of the Confederates. If the battle roll of the house and senate was called today it would show more Confederate veterans in each branch of congress than survivors of armies of the blue.

They are veterans of many battles and survivors of many trying situations. In the senate there are six of these Confederate warriors; three of them, Senator Bacon, of Georgia, and Senators Johnston and Bankhead, of Alabama, were captains in the Southern ranks; the others, Senators Martin, of Virginia; Thornton, of Louisiana, and Tillman, of South Carolina, fought either as privates in the regular army or as members of cadet corps that were enrolled for active service.

In the house of representatives there are eight Confederates, including Brigadier General George W. Gordon, of Tennessee; Major Charles M. Stedman, of North Carolina; Captain John Lamb, of Virginia, and William Richardson, of Alabama. The other Confederates include representative Talbott, of Maryland; Rucker, of Colorado; Taylor, of Alabama, and Estopinal, of Louisiana.

The only Confederate general in congress is representative George Washington Gordon, of Tennessee. At the recent Confederate reunion at Little Rock, Ark., General Gordon was a prominent figure. His history is a striking one. He was captured three times, dangerously wounded once, and slightly wounded several times; was in every important battle participated in by the Tennessee troops, and was finally taken prisoner and removed to Fort Warren, Mass., where he was held until three months after the war was concluded.

Two men in the house of Representatives—Captain John Lamb, of Virginia, and Major Charles Stedman, of North Carolina—were with the 1,200 Confederates who fought the battle of Bethel, the first battle of the war, and were still fighting with the army on northern Virginia when Lee laid down his arms at Appomattox April 9, 1865. The records show that only twelve men enjoyed this distinction.

Atteston W. Rucker, now a representative from Colorado, went through a trying prison experience as a 15-year-old boy.—New York Herald.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of publicly extending our sincere thanks to all those who so kindly aided and interested themselves in the arrest of the party and the recovery of some stolen goods from our store on the night of the 12th inst. Among those referred to we will name Chief of Police J. T. Smith, Policeman G. A. Clark Sheriff S. I. Dudley, Constable G. A. Jackson, and Messrs. J. M. Rice and C. L. Hatch.

JOSEPH SHEHDAN & BRO.,
Greenville, N. C., July 15, 1911.

Marriage Licenses.

Register of Deeds Moore issued only two marriage licenses the past week, both for colored couples. They were:

William Sneed and Lucy Jones.
Isaac Williams and Bertha Dudley.

OUR AYDEN DEPARTMENT

IN CHARGE OF C. L. PARKER

Authorized Agent of The Carolina Home and Farm and The Eastern Reflector for Ayden and vicinity.
Advertising rates furnished

Ayden, N. C., July 17.—Mr. Ollie Stokes, of Renston, tells us that section witnessed the heaviest rain fall Saturday evening since last February, also said he had a fine crop of tobacco, the white leaf Orinoco variety, that would average 22 leaves to the stalk after being topped. Mr. Stokes is an exceptionally fine tobacco farmer and gets good prices.

Rev. J. W. Fulford, of Bunyan, arrived Monday and will locate here and serve the following churches: St. John's Winterville, Ayden and Holy Innocentes. We extend to him and his wife, a most cordial welcome in our midst.

Miss Fannie Tucker, of Greenville, is visiting Mrs. R. W. Smith.

What was left of our ball team returned from Kinston Sunday morning. The game played Saturday evening resulted 4 to 2 in favor of Ayden.

We have heard of him who would take your money and good name, as the meanest villain in the scale of humanity, but ex-Judge J. L. Hobgood was in our sanctum Saturday and tells us that a man by the name of Kietler and his daughter are both down with typhoid fever, his wife barely recovering, and some non-scrupulous wretch went in his kitchen and stole the last mouthful of his meat, which was 14-12 pounds, just purchased the evening before. This family are honest and hard working people, and we feel like that the thief who stole their meat should have the hottest corner and the brimstone should grade No. 1 at the last day.

Work is progressing finely on the Seminary and dormitory. Our Free Will Baptist friends have surely taken on new life.

Messrs. J. J. Hines and F. Lilly left Saturday for Black Mountain. They will spend some time recuperating. We hope they will feel much improved after inhaling the pure air of the "land of the sky."

Mr. O. W. Rollins has been on the sick list of late.

Mr. Harry G. Burton has returned from Wrightsville.

Mr. Alphonzo Hart has returned from Morehead City, where he attended the pony penning. While there he purchased one, about the size of a yearling, and the expense of getting him home was $9.00.

Miles Cannon, colored, who for a long time was a station hand here for the Atlantic Coast Line, has lost his health and job, and is now an object of charity. The Masons and Eastern Star in which he holds his membership, are loyal to him and family.

Miss Rosa Skinner and her brothers, Dock, Ned and William, of Farmville, were in town Sunday. They report good crops in their section.

Mr. Jesse Wingate and wife have moved to the Guthrie building near the Baptist church.

Capt. Britt, who for many years was conductor on the local freight by here, but who for some time has resided at Wilmington, will move his family here in a few days and occupy the Stokes house on Lee street. Capt. Britt is still in the employ of the A. C. L. and has many warm friends who will welcome him and family in our town. He will also buy cotton for Alex. Sprunt and Company, of Wilmington, N. C.

Mr. John S. Hart returned Monday from Morehead, where he had been visiting his brother, Mr. W. F. Hart. Uncle Jack said he went in bathing thought the pond was too wide to swim across, and was over his head. He had a delightful time fishing.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Ed. Garris is again on the sick list. It is impossible for Governor Kitchin to give every body an office and keep them in good humor, but we say this much, he has dignified the office since his inauguration, and we dare say no one has dictated to him what he should do. This is "spine."

Mr. W. H. Smith, who has been real sick for some time with fever is improving.

Prof. H. H. Guyton, who has been taking orders for fruit trees this season, is moving his family to Greenville, having taken a position with Taft and Boyd Furniture Co.

Miss Lillian Bunting, of Bethel, is visiting Misses Hattie and Janie Kittrell.

Mr. L. L. Kittrell, who bought the mill of J. R. Smith and Bro. some months ago, has greatly improved this property, employed good workmen and is turning out beautiful mantles, columns, banisters, wire doors and windows, tobacco trucks, and will repair your carts wagons and buggies, saw your logs, dress your lumber, make moulding, grind your corn, sell you a coffin or casket and furnish you a hearse. When needing anything in this line call on L. L. Kittrell, "he will treat you right."

Miss Ethel Hill, of Kinston, and Misses Mamie Turnage and Bettie Herring, of La Grange, are visiting Misses Lucy and Jennie Turnage.

Miss Lucy Turnage, who has been visiting friends in Kinston, returned home yesterday.

We are sorry to learn of the sickness of Mrs. C. L. Parker. Hope she may soon recover.

Fly Killing Contest.

The Raleigh Health League, with the co-operation of the News and Observer and the Raleigh Evening Times, is offering $100 in prizes to any girl or boy, under eighteen years of age, in Raleigh township, for the largest number of dry, dead flies, caught in the township and brought in during a three weeks' contest, to begin Monday, July 17th. The first prize is $25, the second $15, the third $10. There are three prizes of $5 each, five of $2 each, and twenty-five of $1 each. There are thirty-six prizes in all.—News and Observer.

fell on yesterday.—Charlotte Observer.

CROWD AT WRIGHTSVILLE.

Visitors Get A View of a Water Spout At Sea.

Wrightsville Beach, N. C., July 19.—The many visitors at the beach were treated to a rare concert on Sunday last, when two special events were rendered, which greatly pleased the large number in attendance.

As a delightful surprise to those who gather every Sunday to listen to the music at the Seashore, Manager Binton invited Mrs. Pearson, who is now filling an engagement at the Grand, and whose splendid voice is well known in Wilmington and on the beach, to render a solo, to which she graciously assented. She was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Linden and on the violin by Mr. Linden. Mrs. Pearson's vocal selections were a fine feature of the concert, and added much to the pleasure of those who were present.

The visitors and residents of the beach, who were fortunate enough to be up at that hour, witnessed a wonderful sight on Friday morning about seven o'clock, when only a few miles from the coast a remarkable phenomena was observed in the form of a water spout. Differing materially from the average water spout that has been observed off this coast as it was not a perpendicular tower of water, but it arose from the water in an angle, leaning far to one side near the middle. It extended from the surface of the ocean far up into the clouds, its crest being entirely hidden. A short distance above where the column arose out of the sea it commenced to bend until at what appeared to be the middle, it resembled a bow. From here on up towards the clouds, it appeared to straighten out again, and where it disappeared into them it was almost in a straight line with the bottom.

Many of the "oldest inhabitants" have never witnessed a water spout, though from time to time they have appeared off the coast, so those who got up for an early morning dip were particularly fortunate in being able to witness this wonderful spectacle.

The concerts at Lumina Sunday afternoon and evening proved to be as popular as ever, when hundreds flocked to this attractive pavilion. The music was exceptionally good, and was greatly enjoyed by the large number present.

Horrors Of The Forest Fires.

Porcupine, Ont., July 14.—E. P. Ashmore, manager of the Philadelphia mine, who lies terribly burned in an imprudent hospital, thus describes the fire:

"Dante never imagined anything so horrible. The wind drove the flames toward us with hurricane velocity. Most of our men began to run through the woods, but I darted for the pond with C. E. Adams, our cook. It was a terrible race. Adam's heart gave out and I had to carry him. In the pond we were safe, but I had to keep Adams on my shoulder, and soon he died. For over half an hour I had to stand with the dead man on my shoulder before the flames had passed and I was able to reach land again.

"I left Adam's body by the side of the pond and began my long walk to South Porcupine. Charred bodies lay all around me as I walked, frequently stumbling over a dead body, and recognizing it as that of some friend. Finally I reached what remained of South Porcupine and felt exhausted."

Runaway Marriage.

For some time Mr. J. H. Melton, engineer at the electric light plant and boarding with Mrs. Lucy Rives, had been paying attention to her daughter, Miss Louise. There seems to have been some objection to the match so yesterday Mr. Melton and Miss Rives took a little trip to Washington and returned on the 3:25 train this morning as man and wife, having been married at Washington, and are receiving congratulations from their friends who were greatly surprised this morning.

SIMPSON ITEMS.

Personal Notes and Other News In That Section.

Simpson, N. C., July 19.—Mrs. W. A. Winn, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Wootten.

Miss Leona Tucker has returned home, after a visit to Greenville.

Mr. J. W. Tucker made a trip to Norfolk and other cities last week.

There seems to be a plenty of drummers around Simpson.

The rain has helped the crops very much, and the farmers are all glad.

Miss Annie Wootten, who has been visiting Miss Lizzie Cox, near Winterville, has returned home.

The force of the Norfolk Southern painters have repainted the depot here.

Mr. W. L. Wootten went to Greenville Monday.

Mr. Arthur Corey passed through our town selling gasoline irons. We were glad to hear that he had been so successful.

Agricultural Census.

Figures of the 1910 agricultural census for Southern States in addition to those already reported in these columns show the following increases between 1900 and 1910:

North Carolina—Improved acreage from 8,327,000 to 8,800,000, or 6 per cent.; value of land from $141,956,000 to $342,545,000, or 141 per cent.; value of buildings from $52,700,000 to $113,170,000, or 115 per cent.; average value per acre of land from $6.24 to $15.29, or 145 per cent., and value of implements and machinery from $9,073,000 to $18,415,000, or 103 per cent.—Manufacturers' Record.

Oh, He's Feeble-Minded.

Guy Hawkins, a negro, brought here about a month ago from Pitt county, to be kept in jail to await trial at Pitt court, on the charge of abandonment, has developed violent insanity, and is giving Sheriff Nunn to much trouble that he telephoned the Pitt authorities that they would have to send for him. Hawkins is an epileptic and has had several spells since being confined in jail here.—Kinston Free Press.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Having duly qualified before the Superior court clerk of Pitt county as administratrix of the estate of W. W. Perkins, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned; and all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present the same to the undersigned for payment on or before the 19th day of July, 1912, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery.

This 19th day of July, 1911.

VIRGINIA H. PERKINS,
Adm. of W. W. Perkins.

7 20—51w

CROPS ARE GOOD IN FARMVILLE SECTION

SOME DAMAGE DONE BY WIND.

Another Interesting Story of The Long Ago.

Farmville, N. C., July 19, 1911.

Editor Reflector:

The drouth is at last broken and at this time we are threatened with a superabundance of water. One extreme usually begets another, even in nature.

This part of the county did not suffer as badly as other portions from dry weather. Our cotton, corn and tobacco were fine and are now, but they are somewhat damaged by the wind which accompanied the rain Saturday afternoon.

My boy of "corn club" has a very fine piece of late corn which the wind did not injure. From the appearance of his corn now he may be as successful as those who planted earlier.

Intensive farming is fascinating and sometimes profitable. It is also risky and a course of much anxiety.

After having gone to very much trouble and expense upon a crop to see your prospects for a fine or phenomenal yield blighted in a moment, is indeed far from reassuring.

The wind did not do damage to more than one-third of Farmville township.

Only a few are curing tobacco this week, which is unusual, as we are generally two-thirds done by the third week in July.

Where were the parents of your Hanrahan correspondent when the clerk was binding out a nice boy, at their very door, to such a cruel and unfeeling man? I enjoy reading his pieces—but sometimes I feel sad.

I once heard of a town that was kept clean by every man keeping his own premises clean. How any man who had ever read the parable of the Good Samaritan could have permitted such is a wonder to me; unless in his opinion the Good Samaritan was a single man and therefore the principle did not apply in his case, I cannot realize.

I once knew a man whose name was Felix, who was so afflicted with hook worms that no one wanted him around them. So he went in the woods a mile or so from any road or cleared land, built him a log hut, did not even skin the logs, covered it with boards and had only a make shift for a floor, no windows and a very poor door. In this shanty he and his sister Annie lived or existed. In the summer time they would peddle huckleberries and Annie would beg. In the winter or fall I suppose they picked cotton. (I do not know about that). Once they came to our house and mother bought some of their huckleberries, though she was nearly afraid to eat them, even after they had been washed. He then asked for something to eat and mother gave him some fat meat and corn bread in the kitchen. His fat meat began to drip and mother said to him, "Do not spill your grease upon my floor." He replied, "Give me some lean meat and I will not spill any grease." Poor fellow, he and his sister had a hard time, as most beggars do. The saddest part of my tale is to come. Just as the war was ending and a hope held out for him to better his life, he went to his wife's house. His wife was occupying an old deserted dwelling near the public road, and begged for something to eat. She said that provisions were not plentiful at her house and that he must leave, whereupon, seeing a griddle cake of corn bread upon the fire about done, he snatched it up and out of the house he ran, followed by one of his wife's children. She had a gun in her hand. Shortly afterwards some of the neighbors heard a report of a gun. The maiden returned to the house, all serene. In the morning someone passing this place saw a man lying prostrate, when he was called to he did not answer, poor fellow, he was dead.

He was such a worthless fellow that no one ever inquired into the cause of his death. Whenever one boy wanted to insult another he had only call him Felix. Whenever a parent unmindful of his real responsibility to his child, wished to humiliate his child, he told him that he was as trifling as Felix. Many and many times have the hearts of the little ones been almost broken by being likened to Felix. The conditions that produced Felix have been removed, I hope never to return. Wonderful to relate, Felix's children are self-supporting, respectable citizens, and one of them, at least, is a land owner, and she who is suspected of killing him in old age is a very useful person.

A. J. MOYE.

Another Plague.

A most peculiar plague, which is leaving death in its wake and is assuming alarming proportions, is reported in Mitchell county.

Clerk W. S. Hyams, of the United States court, stated to a Citizen representative that he had recently talked with citizens of Mitchell county who are greatly alarmed at the rapidly spreading epidemic in their midst. Mr. Hyams stated that to his knowledge, Dr. F. P. Sagie had succumbed to the disease and that Dr. Charles Buchanan is now under medical attention at Johnson City, Tenn., as a result of the malady.

It is stated that several have died in the last few weeks and that the number afflicted with the deadly disease is increasing rapidly.

It is said that the trouble is first discovered by one or more fingers becoming blood-shot, without the slightest puncture or abrasion of the skin. The effects pass through the arm to the body, at which time death follows. So far it is said no relief has been found for those suffering from the disease, and that the nature of the malady has been heretofore unknown to medical science as far as investigations of the present trouble has disclosed.

The plague has been spreading for about three weeks in Mitchell county, it is reported.—Asheville Citizen.

After Bear.

Saturday morning early, while Mr. and Mrs. Hopewell, who live on the land of W. J. Riddick, near the A. C. L. bridge over the creek, were fishing, some one coming up the stream in a boat fired a gun and the shot entered the limbs of Mrs. Hopewell. Drs. York and Saunders were summoned hastily and found that the woman was not seriously wounded. There is a suspicion that a negro, thinking that he was looking at a bear, fired where Mrs. Hopewell was sitting on the banks and wounded her.—Williamston Enterprise.

Bitten By Mad Dog.

Last Sunday while a crowd was at Sunday school at the Nichols house, district No. 3, Deaver Dam township, Mr. James Vandiford, a young man grown, was bitten by a supposed mad dog. Several others had narrow escapes, and Mr. Vandiford would have escaped, but for the fact that in trying to get out of the dog's way he fell. Then the dog bit him. Dr. E. A. Moyer cauterized the wound and sent Mr. Vandiford to Raleigh for treatment.

The crowd was coming out of the school house when the dog was seen acting strangely. Then it was said, "Give the dog a wide berth, something ails him." But the dog rushed at them with the above result. The dog then went off and bit some hogs at Mr. Forlines, a dog at Mr. Alfred Nichols, some hogs at Mr. McArthur's and there are reports of other dogs being bitten.

Later a dog supposed to be the same one was killed at Mr. John Hemby's store. His head was sent to Raleigh and the analysis showed well developed hydrophobia.

When John Chinaman Dies.

For the Chinaman, however unimportant in actual life, becomes a man of importance as soon as he dies, and his grave must be carefully looked after. The finest place I saw in Canton was the Mortuary where the dead bodies of wealthy Chinamen are kept until burial. The handsomer coffins I saw ranged in value from $1,400 to $2,700 Mexican, or half amounts American money. The lacquered surfacing accounts for the high cost.

Nor are these departed Celestials kept here for a few days only. Sometimes it is a matter of several years, my guide told me, the geomancers or fortune-tellers being employed all this time in finding a suitable site for a grave. These miserable scoundrels pretend that the soul of the dead man will not rest unless he is buried in just the right spot and in the right kind of soil. Perhaps no professional man earns as much as these fakirs. Sometimes it happens that after a man has been dead two or three years, his family suffers a series of misfortunes. A frequent explanation in such cases is that the wrong site has been chosen for the dead man's burial place. Another geomancer is then hired and told to find a new grave where the soul will rest in peace. Of course, he charges a heavy fee.—Clarence Poe, in Progressive Farmer.

Snakes And Cows.

We know very little about snakes biting cows or their fear of cows. But it is generally known that snakes especially black snakes, are very fond of milk and never miss the opportunity to get it when they can.

Finding a cow lying down the snake proceeds to do the nursing act and the cow remains as still as a statue while the snake drinks to its fill. The evidence the milkmaid finds of this is that when she goes to milk that cow she finds the milk bloody and then it is best to not use her milk for a few days.

It is also said that cat fish are fond of cow's milk and that sometimes when a cow wades into water and stops to cool, if she is in deep water, if some cat fish finds her, he hastens to do the milking act to perfection.

Every mother's son of us has relatives he doesn't like.

Snake And Rabbit Story.

Cumberland, Md., July 14.—A snake and rabbit story worthy of the season and the weather comes from Knolly Mountain, near this place.

The story goes that while Harry L. Welch was cutting wheat in N. R. Taylor's field he observed a rabbit apparently engaged in a struggle with a large black snake that had invaded her home. The snake had swallowed two of bunny's little ones and was dispatching the third.

Mr. Welch struck the snake a stunning blow, rescued alive the third rabbit, cut the reptile open about eight inches and removed the two bunnies that had been swallowed.

About an hour later he returned and found that the snake was again swallowing the third little rabbit. It did so repeatedly, but each time the little animal came out of the slit cut in the reptile's anatomy.

We should have but few regrets if people didn't find us out.

MAN INFECTED BY COWS.

Consultations of British Commission Anti-Tuberculosis Investigation.

After investigations extending over ten years, the Royal Commission on Tuberculosis, appointed in the first year of King Edward's reign, today issued its final report, which shows that contrary to the theory of Koch, who declared in 1901 that tuberculosis in human beings and in cows was not the same disease and therefore not communicable from one to another, both forms of the malady are for all practical purposes identical.

There may be minute differences in the bacilli, but the Royal commission pronounces decisively that children can be and are infected by milk from diseased cows.

While Dr. Konch's views never met with general acceptance, it has been held by a large number of physicians to be partly correct in that the infection was only one sided. The Royal Commission decides that the mammals and man can infect each other either way.

After investigation of the cases of 128 persons suffering from tuberculosis the commission declares that the disease germ in adult consumptives, especially in lung cases, is nearly always the human germ, and not that from cattle, but with children the case is very different. Among young children who died from the wasting of the intestine the germ from the cow was the cause in nearly half the cases. Further, a large proportion of cases of diseased neck glands in both children and adults were the result of the same cause.

Fatal results in children do not always follow, though all the intestinal cases examined were fatal. In adults the experiments "might tend to discount the extent of the danger not only of the milk of tuberculosis cows but also of their flesh."

"But," adds the report, "we have found cases of tuberculosis in adult man sufficiently extensive to incapacitate the patient for the ordinary duties of life, and in two instances ending fatally, in which we were able to attribute the disease solely to the effects of the bovine tuberculosis bacillus."

The commission urges a variety of measures to guard against infection from tuberculosis.

Snake And Rabbit Story.

Cumberland, Md., July 14.—A snake and rabbit story worthy of the season and the weather comes from Knolly Mountain, near this place.

The story goes that while Harry L. Welch was cutting wheat in N. R. Taylor's field he observed a rabbit apparently engaged in a struggle with a large black snake that had invaded her home. The snake had swallowed two of bunny's little ones and was dispatching the third.

Mr. Welch struck the snake a stunning blow, rescued alive the third rabbit, cut the reptile open about eight inches and removed the two bunnies that had been swallowed.

About an hour later he returned and found that the snake was again swallowing the third little rabbit. It did so repeatedly, but each time the little animal came out of the slit cut in the reptile's anatomy.

We should have but few regrets if people didn't find us out.

Farmers and Roads.

The Kansis City Star, a good roads apostle, has made some interesting discoveries. It contents itself by saying that "twenty-five years ago the people who believed in letting well enough alone were objecting to railroads because they would compel the payment of rent for pasturing cows which otherwise might run large without danger of being killed by 'steam injuns'."

The Star says that in Missouri not long ago a man sold his farm because his neighbors had voted to build a rock road in front of it, which would force him to have his horses shod.

In Kansas a man recently declared he would favor good roads if the state legislature would enact a law preventing automobiles from using them.

An Oklahoma farmer is quoted as saying he does not want macadamized roads because they will wear out his wagons, buggies and farm machinery.

There is much said about the opposition of farmers to bond issues for good roads in this section, but the time has passed never to return when there is serious opposition to good roads. The objection is now made on other grounds, that we are not able to have them, that it will hurt politically or some other supposed calamity which may befall us in event good roads should come about.

The trouble is not with the farmers; it comes from various sources and on various pretenses. The opposition usually comes not from the farmers but from those who farm for the farmers, those who make their living out of the farmers.

There are some farmers who oppose good roads, but the number is diminishing rapidly.

The farmers have begun to understand the cost of bad roads. Somebody is asleep, but the people are not.—Asheboro Courier.

Buying Southern Land.

The Manufacturers' Record, summarizing recent big real estate transactions in the south, says it was but a few weeks ago when it reported the sale to England cotton spinners of 32,000 acres of land in Mississippi for $3,250,000 which was promptly followed by the purchase of 9,000 acres in the same state by Holland people for about $1,000,000. The announcement made two weeks ago of the purchase of a 75,000-acre tract in Florida for $900,000 by German buyers is this week followed by the purchase of about 106,000 acres in the same state, also by Germans, and likewise intended for colonization purposes. Chicago people have just bought 3,500 acres of land in Georgia adjoining the tract of 25,000 acres which they already owned and which will be developed by the building of an electric railroad, and which likewise intended for colonization. Hon. William Kent, a member of congress from California, and J. F. Jordan associated with him, have purchased 36,000 acres in North Carolina, which will be cut up into small farms and improved by good roads and suitable buildings. The conclusion of The Record is that these sales and many smaller ones, which are being constantly reported are indicative of the growing appreciation throughout this and other lands in the opportunity for safe investments in the purchase of southern property. The colonization forces which have heretofore carried population to the west and the Pacific coast are turning their attention to the south as the most inviting field in the world for operation.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Negro Back From "Up Norf."

Yesterday afternoon a natty and well-dressed gentleman of color entered a Charlotte drug store, and with the unmistakable accent of the "Narth," requested that some postal cards be procured for his august personage. The cards were secured by the clerk and placed in an envelope, but when returned to the negro, were rejected because they were not neatly wrapped in a package. With rage smouldering in his eye, the clerk complied with the stipulation of the negro, and the cards were returned as desired. Next he lounged over to the soda fountain, and, with all the nonchalance of a New York club man calling for a cocktail, ordered the clerk in charge of the fountain to produce a drink which would tickle the royal palate, as well as assuage the royal thirst. A moment was ample for the clerk to leap the counter, and a second-like space of time was sufficient for the colored gentleman to breathe devout prayers for his safe return to "Philly." Amid a storm of well-directed blows, the negro emerged from the entrance of the store, and with a final kick, was allowed to gaze upon the sad wreck of his "glad rage," and to remove himself off the sidewalk. The Afro-American immediately hastened to the police station, where he exhibited his sadly damaged countenance and attire as evidence that he, a free American citizen, had been brutally assaulted upon the streets of the municipality. However, the hard luck story of the tourist met with but scant reception at the hands of the chief and the desk sergeant, and no warrant was issued for the alleged perpetrator of the assault. It is doubtful if his friends in the Pennsylvania city will recognize their erstwhile companion, when he alights from the train carrying the marks of his visit to Charlotte.—Charlotte Observer, 16th.

For A Clean Fair.

Col. Joseph E. Pogue, secretary of the North Carolina State Fair, has announced that at the fair this year he proposes more than ever to be on the alert to keep out unworthy shows and the executive committee has officially gone on record as desiring only amusements of a high class.—News and Observer.

Willis Clark Dead.

Willis Clark, a well known colored man here, died Sunday. He was prominent as a well digger, and one of the best workers in the colored fire department. His health failed soon after the big fire last year that destroyed the court house.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuscles attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fail. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Cal., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

The Greenville Banking &amp; Trust Company

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Condensed Statement, June 7th 1911.

RESOURCES.

Loans and discounts .....	$180,191.79
Overdrafts .....	2,251.27
Stocks and bonds .....	1,227.96
Furniture and fixtures .....	4,115.86
Cash and due from banks .....	34,333.03
	$222,119.91

LIABILITIES.

Capital .....	$75,000.00
Profits .....	2,064.16
Rediscouunts .....	None
Bills payable .....	None
Deposits .....	145,055.75
	$222,119.91

J. R. SPEIR, President C. S. CARR, Cashier
A. J. MOORE, Asst. Cashier.

The Daily Reflector

Want Ads

Turn Tricks For You

INSURANCE

It is better to have it and not need it, than to need it and not have it. We write every kind.

MOSELEY BROS.

Mr. Thigpen Home.

Mr. W. J. Thigpen came in yesterday evening by way of the Tennessee mountain resorts, New York and Atlantic City, to visit his mother, brothers and sisters.

Mr. Thigpen gives a vivid description of the heat effects in New York. He saw many horses dead on the streets, and people sleeping on sidewalks, steps, fire escapes and other places, trying to escape the heat. Chinatown presented a scene of distress and misery.

fever, croup, quinsy or sore lungs. Price 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Judge Whedbee at Lumberton.

It is generally conceded that Judge Whedbee is the best that has held criminal court in Lumberton in many years, and it will cause much regret when his time is out on this circuit. Court was in session only seven days but more work has been done than was ever done here before in a full two week's term.—Lumberton Cor. Wilmington Star.

THREE LECTURES AT TRAINING SCHOOL

MR. SCHAUB ON TOMATO CLUBS.

Dr. Laughinghouse on Tuberculosis
And Dr. Ferrall on Hook Worm.

The Monday night lectures at East Carolina Teachers' Training school continue to be events of interest and profit to the many teachers attending the summer term at this institution.

Teaching in this age has gone beyond the old method of posing so many hours a day over books and getting the rudiments of "reading, riting and rithmetic," and the teacher well equipped for the work becomes a factor in the community in which she teaches, for she not only possesses a knowledge of text books, but is informed on matters of health and sanitation, on domestic science, on agriculture, and those things that go to increase a community interest and make life happier and better.

Education that instructs only the mind and carries with it no care of the body is not worth much. Mental culture may be ever so extensive, it is practically useless unless backed by physical and moral culture. The purpose of those weekly lectures is for development along all practical lines, that the teachers going out from this institution may be thoroughly equipped for their work.

Monday night there were three lectures that were heard not only by the student body but also by a large number of citizens of the town. Mr. I. O. Schaub, of the state and government agricultural departments, spoke on the canning of fruits and vegetables. He said as our people get the benefit of these only during the period of growth, a great product goes to waste, while if the surplus was canned it would not only provide for winter use but afford a means of profit as well. He pointed out the cheapness and simplicity of home canning outfits, and urged the teachers to encourage girls' tomato clubs in their schools and thus awaken an interest in this profitable enterprise.

Dr. Charles O'H. Laughinghouse spoke on the question of health and sanitation, mainly tuberculosis and its prevention. He went back to the first discovery of knowledge of this disease that has annually claimed its thousands of victims, and showed that by the progress of medical science through the succeeding centuries, and with it the increased knowledge of hygiene and sanitation, the death rate from this scourge has grown less year by year. Like almost all other diseases this is largely preventable under proper sanitary precautions. He urged the teachers to inform themselves in matters of hygiene and sanitation and prevention of disease, and be enabled to impart this knowledge to their pupils and the people among whom they teach. He also argued for a more rigid sanitary inspection of city markets and other places where public health is affected, declaring that such inspection should be made by one who has medical skill and is sufficiently acquainted with conditions to correct all evils that are found.

Dr. John A. Ferrall, of Raleigh, gave a lecture on hookworms. This was illustrated with stereopticon views, showing the beginning, progress and development of this disease that saps the energy and life of so many people. The campaign in North Carolina against the hookworm is new, yet with the aid of the press, the pulpit and the school, in co-operation with the medical profession, the progress has been wonderful, and much is being done to check the disease in its incipency and eradicate it.

Three more helpful lectures than these have not been given during the present summer term of the Training school.

Legal Notices

North Carolina, Pitt County,
In the Superior Court.
Abram Mills
vs.
Offa Dail.

By virtue of an execution directed to the sheriff of Pitt county, from the supreme court of Pitt county in the above entitled action, I will on Monday, the 28th day of August 1911, it being the first Monday of the August civil term of the superior court of Pitt county, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, at the court house door in said county, sell to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said execution, all the right title and interest which the said Offa Dail the defendant, on the 15th day of January 1903, or at any time thereafter, had in the following description of real estate to wit:

One tract of land lying and being in the county of Pitt and state of North Carolina, and in Contentnea township, beginning at a small bridge in the Joseph Jones line, and runs with a ditch to the head nearly opposite the house, then S. 9 W. several small pines in the head of the branch, then N. 21 1-2 east 109 poles to a stake in the Joseph Jones line., then S. 71 1-2 east 41 2-3 poles to the beginning, containing 25 acres more or less. Also one other tract of land in said township, county, and state. Beginning in the Franklin line on the big ditch in the Fred Whitefield, then running up the ditch to Henry Bedard's line, then with Henry Bedard's line to Lorenzo McLawhorne's line, then with Lorenzo McLawhorne's line to Biggs Stock's line then with the Jones and Dail line back to the beginning, containing 22 acres, more or less.

Also one other tract of land in said county and state, bounded on the north by B. W. Tucker, on the east by the Haddock land, on the south by B. Tripp, on the west by the county road, containing 140 acres, more or less.

This the 4 day of July 1911.
S. I. DUDLEY,
Sheriff of Pitt county

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Having this day been appointed and qualified by the clerk of the Superior court of Pitt county, as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Margaret J. Moore, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against said estate to present the same, duly authenticated, on or before the 17th day of June, 1912, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will make immediate payment.

This June 17th, 1911.

C. G. LITTLE, Administrator,
of Mrs. Margaret J. Moore.
6 30—1td—5tw.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of Fineman and White has this day dissolved co-partnership by mutual consent, Samuel T. White buying the interest of G. G. Fineman in said piano and organ business. The business will be continued by Sam White Piano Company. All persons owing the firm of Fineman and White will pay the Sam White Piano Company. All accounts due by said firm should be presented at once to Sam White Piano Company for payment.

G. G. FINEMAN,
SAM'L. T. WHITE.

6 29—1td 3tw

ENTRY OF VACANT LAND.

State of North Carolina,
Pitt County.
A. A. Smith enters and claims the following piece or parcel of land, situate in the county of Pitt, Swift Creek township, described as follows:
Beginning at a sweet gum, near the run of Swift Creek, it being the corner of J. G. Weatherington and J. J. Moore, and runs eastward to a water oak, J. B. Smith's corner; thence southward to J. B. Smith's corner in the run of Swift Creek; thence with the run of Swift Creek to the beginning, containing eight acres, more or less.

This June 2, 1911.
A. A. SMITH.
Any and all persons claiming title to or interest in the above described land must file with the their protest in writing, within the next 30 days, or they will be barred by law.
This June 2, 1911.
W. M. MOORE,
Ex-officio Entry Taker.

6 3—1td 3tw

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Having duly qualified before the supreme court clerk of Pitt county as executor of the last will and testament of Mrs. Eunizer Sermons, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned; and all persons having claims against said estate will take notice that they must present the same to the undersigned for payment on or before the 8th day of July, 1912, or this notice will be plead in bar of recovery.

This the 8th day of July, 1911.
J. MARSHAL COX,
Extr. of Eunizer Sermons
1td—5tw—7-8

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Having duly qualified before the Superior court clerk as administrator of the estate of Mrs. Margaret J. Moore, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against said estate, to present the same, duly authenticated, on or before the 17th day of June, 1912, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will make immediate payment.

This June 17th, 1911.

C. G. LITTLE, Administrator,
of Mrs. Margaret J. Moore.
6 30—1td—5tw.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of Fineman and White has this day dissolved co-partnership by mutual consent, Samuel T. White buying the interest of G. G. Fineman in said piano and organ business. The business will be continued by Sam White Piano Company. All persons owing the firm of Fineman and White will pay the Sam White Piano Company. All accounts due by said firm should be presented at once to Sam White Piano Company for payment.

G. G. FINEMAN,
SAM'L. T. WHITE.

6 29—1td 3tw

EQUALIZATION NOTICE.

All delinquents who have not listed their taxes for the year of 1911 will please come forward on the 24th day of July and list the same. All persons having other grievances on account of valuation and assessments will please appear before the board of equalization on date as above stated for the purpose set forth.

W. M. MOORE, Clerk.

J. J. HARRINGTON, D. C.

7 12—1td 3tw.

Noah's Liniment is the best remedy for Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lame Back, Stiff Joints and Muscles, Sore Throat, Colds, Strains, Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, Colic, Cramps, Neuralgia, Toothache, and all Nerve, Bone and Muscle Aches and Pains. The genuine has Noah's Ark on every package and looks like this cut, but has RED band on front of package and "Noah's Liniment" always in RED ink. Beware of imitations. Large bottle, 25 cents, and sold by all dealers in medicine. Guaranteed or money refunded by Noah Remedy Co., Inc., Richmond, Va.

ESCAPES FROM HIS CRUEL MASTER

HE STARTS OUT IN THE WORLD.

To Find The Fame Pictured in Dream
Visit From His Mother.

Hanrahan, N. C., July 20.—Eugene slept the remainder of the night after his enchanting dream, for the quaff that he had taken from his angelic mother's hand seemed to him as real as did the life-giving fluid of infancy that he had so often imbibed from her breast as he lay in her arms, unconsciously clewed at her dress front and cunningly smiled into her sweet face, before any thought of sorrow or fear of storms had crossed his mind. But the crowing of the cocks, and the neighing of the horses that he at break of day must feed, aroused him and he raised from his reclining place to realize that what he had seen was only a dream. But surely it must not be deception. Yes, it was a messenger, an omen. Call it what you may, to him it was a signal that pointed him to what he deemed his only hope. So all that day he tried to work while he planned for his escape from his master. Near the close of the day, as he stood on the bank of the Neuse (his work was near by this river) he saw near the edge a canoe floating down the stream. With a pole he pulled it to the bank and moored it with a grape vine in a place he was sure he could find in the darkness of the night. At night fall he took the horse to the house, and with his daily routine finished he tried to seem cheerful in order to cover any suspicion of his intention to make his escape. He made his shuck pallet in the porch as was his custom, and threw himself on it until all was quiet within and then with no light save the stars twinkling above, he stole his way to the river, and to the spot where he had fastened his little boat. Carrying only a cross-bow that his father had made him, and a hatchet that his mother had given him, alone with the darkness and weary he unfastened his boat. With no pillow, save a square block of wood, he stretched out his exhausted form on the bottom of the boat as she drifted on the bosom of that somewhat swollen river. The night passed, he knew not how. Morning came and he found himself lodged on the upper side of that horse-shoe bend that the Neuse makes several miles above Goldsboro. So hungry and no supply of food to draw from, he must in some way replenish the inner man. Dire necessity, and especially when hunger is gnawing at our inmost vitals, will cause one to create thoughts and investigate plans that would have never been reached or thought of under different conditions. So he remembered his cross-bow which was stringless, but young birch trees stood thick on the peninsula against which his boat was lodged. With his hatchet he secured some of the strong bark and made from this a string for his bow. Thus armed he went in search of food. He had gone but a few stones' throw before he had crossed the narrow neck of land and had reached the river again, though the distance by the channel is perhaps 20 miles. Here he found some boatmen camping, but was afraid to approach them. So he stood in ambush and watched them eat their morning meal and when finished, they hastened to this raves of tar, leaving on the ground a pone of corn bread, some "hard tack" crackers and a hand full of salt in a little cloth sack. With eagerness he seized these and an oak chunk with a live coal on one end. Then he made his way back to his boat. He had not long to stay there before a squirrel crept out of a low hollow and was playing on the ground. A beautiful sight it was, but hunger forced Eugene to offer this innocent beauty as a sacrifice on his altar. So with his bow he shot an arrow that pierced its playful heart. He dressed and broiled it, and with part of this and the bread he broke his fast. After gathering up the fragments he loosed his boat from her mooring and again started down the river.

Ere this strict search was being made by the cruel master that he had left. Men were employed by him and sent east, west, north and south, with the strict injunction that if Eugene could any where be found that he be bound hand and foot and returned to him. Strict search was made, even among the rubbish of the cow shed, and sheep fold, but no tidings of the missing boy. His foot-steps had been traced part of the way to the river and then were lost because of the hard soil. The disappointed master made a trip of 40 miles to the neighborhood of Eugene's old home, and then offered a reward for the capture and return of the boy. But Eugene had apprehended this effort to capture him and he was ever on the alert, though he longed to get one glance at the scenery of his earlier days.

Some chapters in any book must necessarily be dull, but these lead up to where the first rung of the ladder that reaches to fame and usefulness is reached. So here we leave our hero floating down the river, but we'll meet him again in a more beautiful and healthful place in our next.

(To Be Continued).

The Way To Stop It.

At the term of the Superior court of Stanley county, just adjourned, Judge Daniels fined four men $500 each for selling beer unlawfully while running a social club in Albemarle. The judge at first sentenced them to six months on the county chain gang, but later changed it to a fine on the earnest pleadings of attorneys and some citizens.—Concord Tribune.

N. S. First Excursion.

Beginning next Sunday the Norfolk Southern will inaugurate its regular Sunday excursions to Morehead City and Beaufort. Rates will be the same as last summer.

Regular week-end rates to Norfolk and other resorts.

THE NORTH CAROLINA State Normal and Industrial College

Maintained by the State for the Women of North Carolina. Five regular Courses leading to Degrees. Special Courses for teachers. Free tuition to those who agree to become teachers in the State. Fall Session begins September 13, 1911. For catalogue and other information address
JULIUS I. FOUST, Pres.
Greensboro, . . . . . N. C.

"Weber"

King of all Farm Wagons.

The man who uses Weber wagons will use no other. His judgment is good. Why not follow his advice? We have a Weber wagon awaiting your inspection. If you want to save yourself money, investigate. For sixty-six years the Weber has been the pride of all users. Use one and let it be your pride. We have literature concerning this wagon that we want you to call for. Call to-day. Let us talk over the wagon proposition. If you don't buy, you will know the merits of the Weber wagon and will be in position to know a good wagon when you see it. Get a Weber and you will get the best. We have what you want. We will be glad to see you any time.

Hart & Hadley

Greenville, N. C.

TOBACCO

YES SIREE!
THOROUGH BRED
TOBACCO

A quarter pound plug of sure enough good chewing for 10 cents. Got 'em all beat easy. No excessive sweetening to hide the real tobacco taste. No spice to make your tongue sore. Just good, old time plug tobacco, with all the improvements up-to-date. CHEW IT AND PROVE IT at our expense, the treat's on us. Cut out this ad. and mail to us with your name and address for attractive FREE offer to chewers only.

LIIPFERT SCALES CO.,
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Name _____
Post Office _____

"Yellow Tag"
"Horse's Head Red"

Subscribe to The Reflector.

Agriculture is the Most Useful, the Most Healthful, the Most Noble Employment of Man.—George Washington.

Volume XXXII.

GREENVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1911.

Number 30.

GREENVILLE WINS THE FIRST SERIES

IN THE COAST LINE LEAGUE.

A New Series of Twelve Games To Begin Friday.

The first series of games of the Coast Line League was completed Tuesday, and the association held a meeting in Grifton Tuesday night, to arrange another series of twelve games to begin Friday, 28th, two games a week to be played in each town.

Greenville won the pennant in the first series with a percentage of 900, having lost only one out of ten games. In the new series of games that begins Friday, if some team other than Greenville wins, then a series of three games are to be played between that team and Greenville to determine which is entitled to the pennant for the entire season.

It was agreed at this meeting of the association that each town in the league may secure two new players provided their names are reported by August 2nd. With this exception only those players who were in the first series of games can play in the second series.

The opening games of the new series next Friday will be between Kinston and Greenville at Greenville, and Grifton and Ayden at Ayden, the games then to alternate to the different towns. Some good games may be looked for in this new series as all the teams will be in good trim.

Mr. E. L. Stewart Married.

At Chapel Hill Tuesday morning, Mr. Edward L. Stewart and Miss Nellie Barbee were united in the holy bond of wedlock, the Right Reverend Joseph Blount Cheshire, bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina officiating. Mr. Stewart is well known in Greenville, where he has many relatives.

When you bump up against a man who boasts of his iron will, an analysis will usually disclose the fact that it is pig iron.

OPERA HOUSE FOR GREENVILLE.

Manager Advises High Class Plays, Operas and Musical Comedies.

It was with the deepest regret that the people of Greenville last season were unable to witness a stage attraction of any interest, due to the fact that they had no place to accommodate the plays that were billed, due to the ruins of the opera house that was swept by fire previous to that time.

For the coming season the theatre goers will read with interest the opening of the new opera house now nearing completion in the Edwards block. As soon as the place is completed the managers of the Gaiety Theatre will occupy same until the fall season opens for theatrical troops, for which they have slated some of the very best in grand operas and musical comedies.

The building which is expected to be completed within the next two weeks will have a seating capacity of four hundred people. They now have en route opera chairs for same, of the very best quality, together with this they have a stage that will accommodate any ordinary cast of performers. The elevation of the floor is almost completed and together with the arrangements in front in the way of a ticket booth greatly adds to the appearance of an up-to-date opera house.

The manager for the coming season is Mr. H. G. Sparrow, who is well versed in this profession, and has several years of experience, which gives out information that they will only slate the very best on the road and assures us of some of the very best plays that are obtainable in North Carolina. He furthermore states that it is his intention to exhibit the very best in motion pictures during the time with the exception of the nights he has plays billed.

The proprietors of the Gaiety, who are Messrs. H. G. Sparrow and L. A. Squires, of Washington, are certainly displaying their ability and meeting with much success since their opening here.

Many a spinster insists that she is true to the memory of her first love, who was in the good-die-young class.

CONNEAU WINS $50,000.

Last Stage, A Neck to Neck Race of 264 Miles.

BROOKLANDS, England.—Lieut. Conneau, a French officer, under flying name of Andre Beaumont, today won the 1010 miles circuit England-Scotland air race, capturing the $50,000 offered by the London Daily Mail. This is the greatest aviation victory. Conneau flew the greater part of the last days stage, 264 miles, in a neck and neck race with his fellow country man, Pierre Jules Vedrine, Conneau won $45,000 in the circuit of Europe race.

Town In Revolt.

WASHINGTON.—Declaring the town of Glen Echo, Md., to be in a "state of revolt and absolutely in defiance of law and order," Mayor Louis C. Witowski has written to Governor Crothers of Maryland, asking intervention. Mayor Witowski complains of the non-observance of the Sunday labor law, especially at an amusement park in Glen Echo, patronized by Washingtonians. He declares that the town officials flatly refused today to carry out his orders to arrest offenders.

All Normal Students.

Don't forget the meeting of all past, present and future students of the State Normal College, Greensboro, in the auditorium of the graded school building at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The object of this meeting is to discuss ways and means of raising Pitt county's pledge of $250 to the McIver loan fund. The field secretary of this fund, Miss Jane Summrell, will be present at the meeting.

Meeting of Lumber Manufacturers

WAUSAU, Wis. — Wages, insurance rates, uniform accounting, the new workmen's compensation law and the general outlook in the lumber trade were among the subjects discussed at the summer meeting of the Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers' Association, which met here today.

The more coddling a man wants the more he thinks he's a hero waiting for his chance to show it.

NEWS THAT IS OF INTEREST TO TAR HEELS

GATHERED FROM EXCHANGES.

And Briefly Told for The Reflector's Busy Readers.

Governor Kitchin has honored a requisition from the governor of Georgia for M. E. Starling, who is wanted in Brooks county, Georgia, for forgery. Starling is now under arrest in Tarboro.

WILSON.—Petitions are being circulated and are being freely signed, asking the Chamber of Commerce to take steps to secure the erection of a union depot by the Atlantic Coast Line and Norfolk Southern railroads.

Senator Simmons has been invited to deliver an address before the National Good Roads Association at its meeting in Chicago the latter part of September and has promised to accept if his engagements at that time will permit.

REIDSVILLE.—Recorder Humphreys returned the verdict in the case against Elder L. H. Hardy for contempt of court and announced the verdict as guilty. On account of the age of the defendant and the fact that he is a minister of the Gospel, the court announced that judgment would be suspended.

The building on West Main street occupied by the Durham and Model steam laundries was gutted by fire at an early hour Monday morning. The plant of the Durham laundry was almost completely destroyed along with the undelivered stock on hand. The plant of the Model laundry was injured considerably by water.—Durham Sun.

A record was broken in the municipal court when eight drunks faced the judge. All were convicted and his honor took advantage of the occasion to threaten to "raise the limit" of the fines he has heretofore imposed for this offense unless a radical change for the better is soon noted on the police blotter.—Greensboro Record.

In stealing kisses, young man, be careful that the girl's mother doesn't catch you with the goods.