CAROLINA CLUB.

By a vote of almost two to one or to be exact, 25 to 14, Carolina club at a meeting held Tuesday night to consider the question, voted down the proposition to place individual lockers in the club rooms.

Another lesson that Greenville needs to learn is to feel as much interest in home people and home business enterprises as is shown to outsiders. The home people are the ones who make the town and pay the taxes.

A large committee was appointed to make an early canvass among the business men of the town who are withholding their support, with a view of inducing them to become members of the club and unite with it in helping to advance the interests of the community.

It is certainly the duty of every business man in the town to do this, and the solicitation of the committee should meet an early response. Greenville is now at that stage when an united effort is needed to make the town go forward, and new life and enthusiasm in Carolina club can be made a great factor in this.

WORK AGAINST THE LOCKERS.

Though Carolina club has only been fifty and sixty members, (there should be more) the entire town, or should be, interested in what it is and what it does. Because there has for some time been shown, even among the members themselves, a want of interest in the club, at a meeting not long since some one advanced the idea that to place individual lockers in the club would arouse more interest and cause a larger membership.

The leniency of judges is not always well applied nor appreciated. In Guilford Superior court Judge O. H. Allen, before whom three young criminals were convicted of larceny, gave them a sentence of twelve months each, and directed that they be thrust out rather than serve the time on the roads.

Greenville has numerous needs, and the Reflector from time to time calls attention to them in the hope that somebody able to do so will see the need and supply it.

TIME STORES NEEDED.

If Greenville is to receive a share of the good things passing around, she must at least put herself in a receptive attitude. Enterprises and business are like people in some respects—wait for an invitation.

Why should the government take such interest in the prevention of disease, and get license and receive revenue from the whiskey traffic which is a greater curse to health and destroys more people annually than any disease?

From accounts in the papers we take it that the train of Richmond boosters which visited several places in North Carolina this week, was principally a boost for the Richmond pig dealers.

When Major Hemphill becomes editor of the Charlotte Observer, wonder if he will still be agitating the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. The number of people reported to have lost their lives in the dam breaking at Austin, Pa., last Saturday, has dropped from eight hundred to less than a hundred.

An important change is to take place with the Charlotte Observer on the first of November. The Observer Publishing Company will be reorganized and a controlling interest passed to other hands.

Locke Craig has made the formal announcement of his candidacy for governor in 1912, though that was hardly necessary. We all regard him as a candidate, and what is more most of us are for him.

The members of the North Carolina press have a heartfelt sympathy for Secretary J. B. Sherrill, editor of the Concord Tribune, in the death of his aged mother which occurred a few days ago.

The article in another column from the lockers to the club that is put in the lockers. Really it is a reflection on the town to have a locker club in it, and it is hoped a majority of the members will see the wisdom of voting down such a proposition.

Greenville's greatest weakness is a lack of organization and co-operation among the business interests. So much could be accomplished in this direction with the proper effort.

The government is now after the coal trust, and if the same experience follows as with sugar it may give an excuse for an increase in the price of fuel.

As his family have picked out the convicted wife murderer, hope of his getting a new trial must have been abandoned.

When Major Hemphill becomes editor of the Charlotte Observer, wonder if he will still be agitating the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR INAUGURATES BIG SUBSCRIPTION VOTING CONTEST FOR ENERGETIC YOUNG WOMEN!

ELEGANT PRIZES TO AGGREGATE FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS IN VALUE

The announcement that appears on another page of The Daily Reflector today, of the grand prize distribution to be made by it, has never been equaled, either in interest or importance.

The prizes offered for energetic work in securing subscriptions to The Daily Reflector and the Carolina Home and Farm and Eastern Reflector are of royal value, and the conditions under which they will be distributed are so liberal that they are bound to enlist a vast number of contestants in the effort to possess them.

Men Behind the Fair.

The Reflector has been asked to print the names of the officers and board of governors of the Pitt County Fair Association, so that persons contemplating making exhibits at the fair may know whom to look to for information.

PITT COUNTY FAIR NOVEMBER 2 AND 3

Governing Board Getting Everything In Readiness

FRIDAY WILL BE A SCHOOL DAY

All Teachers Invited to Come And Bring Their Schools—Commissioner of Agriculture Graham Will Make Opening Address on Thursday—Fair Free to Everybody.

The governing board and township committees of Pitt County Fair Association held a meeting here Friday in office of President J. L. Wooten to further discuss details for the first county fair to be held here on Thursday and Friday, November 2 and 3.

Those persons who are to make exhibits should let the president or secretary of the fair know as far in advance as possible, so that the necessary space can be provided for them.

The fair will open to the public at 10 o'clock on Thursday, November 2, and Hon. W. A. Graham, state commissioner of agriculture, will deliver the opening address at 11 o'clock.

On the premium list that has been sent out, attention has been called to the omission of some crops that might have been included, so the premium committee decided that any meritorious article exhibited, even if not mentioned specially in the premium list, will be properly rewarded.

It was decided to make the second day of the fair, Friday, a school day, and an invitation is extended to every teacher in the county to bring their schools to the fair that day. It will be worth much to the pupils to see and learn what their county is doing. It is hoped to have a school parade that morning, and details of this will be announced later if the plans for the parade can be perfected.

Now, if people all over the county take hold and do their part, November 2 and 3 are going to be great days for Pitt County.

The governing board will meet again on Friday, October 27th.

CAN WE REALLY STOP WORRYING?

SOME POINTS ON THAT SUBJECT

What Worry Is And How We Can Cure It. It is a curious fact that man is the only animal that makes himself ridiculous by worry.

Now it is a curious fact that man is the only animal that makes himself ridiculous by worry. The biologists teach us that intelligence—the liability to worry—exists only in those animals that possess associative memories.

Of course the fact that man is the only animal that makes himself ridiculous by worry is but a demonstration of the superiority of the human mind over that of the lower animals.

The causes of human worry are indeed varied, but in the last analysis they are usually found to consist of some form of irritation, anxiety or fear.

Whatever the immediate cause of worry a soliloquy for our own general welfare, material prosperity and mental richness, or that of our loved ones, must be recognized as the real cause of all our worry.

The desire for happiness is generally found to be the real, fundamental cause of worry. But is it not amazing that we should forget that under no circumstances can worry ever contribute to our happiness?

THE HAPPENINGS ALL AROUND AYDEN

Contentnea People Interested in County Fair.

AYDEN, N. C., Oct. 17.—Mr. W. F. Hart, of Morehead City, is here looking after some work in South Ayden.

Mr. Benj. Stott died Sunday night of paralysis. For a long time he has been a prominent figure around here, making shingles, well hollows, etc., and at election time he was always true as steel.

At a meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Pitt County Oil Mill, our townsman, Mr. L. L. Kirtrell, was elected president.

The family of Mr. J. J. Hines left Saturday morning to make their home at Black Mountain. We are loth to see them go, as they are some of Ayden's oldest and most substantial landmarks.

There is a new arrival at Rev. Mr. Caraway's on East avenue.

Rev. Lewis Marrel is holding a series of meetings here in the new Methodist church. He is striking square from the shoulder and holding up the blood stained banner of King Emanuel.

Our people are emulating the ants and busy bees by laying in their supply of fuel for winter use.

Mr. Eugene Cannon, of Ayden, and Miss Carrie Smith, of Reedy Branch, will be married on the 18th and take a bridal trip to Washington City and other northern cities.

Mr. Richard Wintzle left Monday for Richmond to buy horses and mules for the Ayden market.

CHRISTIAN TEACHING AT TRAINING SCHOOL

IMPRESSIVE Y. W. C. A. SERVICE

Pres. Wright Urges Students Work Together in Christian Harmony.

An impressive service for the recognition of new members of the Young Woman's Christian association was held in the assembly hall of the Training school on Sunday evening.

President Wright made a talk that evinced his keen interest in the spiritual development of the students.

Today in this Christian land we are facing the same conditions that the Jews faced then; each individual must make his own choice.

The music was especially fitting. There were three numbers besides the hymns: Misses Marguerite Davis and Arlene Jenner sang a duet; Miss Davis a solo, and at the close of the service, the full school sang a chorus.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives.

Rev. Mr. Spigelant invited in marriage yesterday at the parsonage Mr. Thos. W. Bowling, of Pitt county, and Miss Millie D. Crumpler, of Tolantownship.

Mr. Thos. W. Bowling, of Pitt county, and Miss Millie D. Crumpler, of Tolantownship. The groom is a prominent member of Pitt county and the bride is highly esteemed in her community and is a sister to Mrs. J. W. Beland, of this city—Wilson Times.

$500 Voting Contest $500

AND WHAT IT IS ALL ABOUT.

WHO CAN ENTER--

HOW TO ENTER--

AND WHAT TO DO THEN--

AND HOW TO WIN THE PIANO

OR ANYTHING ELSE YOU WANT

Rules of the Contest.

Any woman, either married or single, is entitled to enter this contest, provided she is a resident of the territory included in the contest.

No employee of the Daily Reflector, or member of his or her immediate family, will be permitted to participate in this contest as a candidate.

In case of a tie, the value of the prizes will be equally divided.

Votes once issued to a candidate cannot be transferred to the credit of another candidate.

Candidates and their friends are not limited to their own particular districts in securing votes on subscriptions. Subscriptions may be taken from anywhere.

Candidates must fill in every blank on the daily ballot plainly, their name, address and district number.

All ballots must be trimmed to uniform size, fastened together and sent in flat; do not roll the ballots.

Candidates compete only against the candidates in their own districts for the district prize, but all have a chance to win the Piano or the Victrola.

Votes cannot be bought; they must be clipped from the Daily Reflector or decreed on subscriptions.

A committee of unimpeachable public men will be chosen to judge the finish of this contest and will assemble for this purpose immediately after the contest closes on Saturday, Dec. 9, at nine o'clock, p. m.

The contest manager will decide all questions which may arise in the course of the contest and contestants in entering this contest agree to abide by any and all rulings which he may make.

Here's your chance!

Each lady and each neighbor has an equal chance. The prize list is most attractive and the apportionment is made so that each locality reached by the Daily Reflector, in town or country, is sure of an equal share with every other locality in the winning of prizes.

FIRST GRAND PRIZE--A $300 PIANO

The first grand prize, the prize that will be awarded to the young woman who has the most votes in the whole contest, is a beautiful, high-grade instrument, purchased from a local dealer, in whose store it will be displayed shortly.

5 Gold Waltham Watches

The prize in each of the five districts--irrespective of the two Grand Prizes--will be five Gold Waltham Watches purchased from the immense stock of a local jeweler, in whose window these handsome watches will be displayed in the course of a day or two. These watches carry a 20 year guarantee, are beautifully engraved and are indeed representative specimens of modern watchcraft. Little need be said about the movement of these watches for the Waltham movement is too well known in this country to be questioned in the least. See these watches and know their worth.

The Second Grand Prize--

a Victor Victrola

In harmony with the record-breaking scale in which this enterprise has been launched by the Daily Reflector, is the second prize to be given in this Contest. The Victor Victrolas the last word representing musical instruments. Outside of its value as a musical instrument, its beauty as an ornament would be enough to qualify it as a most desirable object in the most handsome apartment home. The ten records given away with this instrument can be chosen by the winner from an illimited stock ment can be chosen by all subscriptions to the Daily Reflector and The Carolina Home and Farm and The Eastern Reflector, paid in advance and on all arriages paid during the contest.

Don't Judge A Manure Spreader By Looks

Every manure spreader is not a Cloverleaf that looks like one. You can't judge a manure spreader by its looks because there are many features which are found in the construction of one machine that are not found in others. Cloverleaf manure spreaders are the most easily operated, the strongest and best machines on the market. If you will examine one critically, you will agree with us that the is the best machine you ever looked at. Drop in. Let us discuss the manure spreader proposition. Let us explain the many meritorious features found in Cloverleaf construction. Better still, buy one, then you will be in a better position to know why you can't judge a manure spreader by its looks. If you are not ready to buy, call and get a catalogue. It is filled with valuable information on soil maintenance and fertility. We are reserving one for you. Won't you call and get it today?

DEBATE HELD IN WINGATE HALL

Subject That the South Should Encourage the Settlement Within Her Borders of Such Immigrants as Are Lawfully Admitted into the United States.

President was A. J. Hutcheson, of the Euzelian Society, while O. P. Campbell, of the Philanthropic Society, occupied the chair of secretary.

W. C. Willis was the first speaker on the affirmative. He clearly stated the question, outlining the argument of his side and basing his speech on the fact that the question as stated by the query was not one of getting new immigrants into this country...

After transacting this business part of the meeting, it seemed to resolve itself at once into a boosting assembly, and a number of good short speeches were made on Greenville's needs and what can be accomplished through organization.

Many a man is in great fear that he will get all that is coming to him. There is no place for the immigrant in the political life of the South; the presence of such foreigners as commonly come to America would not aid in the social development of the South...

CAROLINA CLUB DOWN TO BUSINESS

Adopts Suggestion of Committee to Add Business Features. There was a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of Carolina club, Monday night, to consider the matter of adding a commercial feature to the club and making it more of a business men's organization.

At a meeting of the club two weeks ago a committee was appointed to address an appeal to the business men of the town and invite them to become members of the club and give their influence.

It was to consider this feature and act upon the suggestion of the committee that the meeting was held Monday night. The matter was discussed by several members of the club as well as some outside business men...

Another committee, consisting of Messrs. R. H. Wright, C. O. H. Laughlignouse, C. T. Munford, J. B. Higgins and D. J. Whichard, was appointed to draft rules covering the change to the club and outline a plan of work for the organization under the new feature and report to another meeting to be held next Monday night, 30th.

After transacting this business part of the meeting, it seemed to resolve itself at once into a boosting assembly, and a number of good short speeches were made on Greenville's needs and what can be accomplished through organization.

THREE SEEK TO SUCCEED ROBE SMITH

THE FIGHT LAUNCHED TODAY. Prohibition is Expected to Figure Prominently in the Campaign.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 26.—What promises to be one of the hottest fights for the governorship that Georgia has seen in years was formally launched here today when the state Democratic executive committee met to fix the date and make other arrangements for the state primaries to choose the successor of Governor Hoke Smith, who resigns next month to assume his duties as United States senator.

There are three leading candidates for the race for the governorship. They are former Governor Joseph M. Pope, former State Treasurer J. Brown Brown and Richard B. Russell, judge of the court of appeals. This is Joseph M. Brown's third race for governor. He defeated Hoke Smith for a second term in 1908, and in 1910 was defeated for a second term by Smith. His entry into the present contest has aroused the fighting blood of the Smith adherents who look on his candidacy as part of a plan of former Governor Terrell and the old machine to gain control of the Georgia Democracy and defeat Smith when he goes before the people at the re-election as United States senator.

The prohibition issue is expected to figure prominently in the campaign. Judge Russell is to make the race on a local option platform, while J. Pope Brown is a supporter of the present state-wide prohibition law. Former Governor Brown straddles the prohibition question.

THROUGHS OF TEACHERS. Attending Twenty-Ninth Annual Minnesota Educational Association. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 26.—From every direction and on every train and interurban car throngs of teachers came to Minneapolis today to attend the twenty-ninth annual convention of the Minnesota Educational Association.

His Father Dead. Mr. W. E. Hayward left Monday evening for Fayetteville, where he was summoned by a telegram announcing the sudden death of his father, Mr. T. J. Hayward. He received a telegram stating that his father had died and suffered from paralysis, and a little later another message came announcing his death. Only last week his father was in Greenville visiting him, and was then in apparent good health, and the news of his sudden death so soon thereafter came as a severe shock. His friends sympathize with him in this bereavement.

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dipped with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on over affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one-third as much. For sale by all dealers.

Bad Spells. "I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 23 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE THE CARDUI Woman's Tonic. If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers.

HOUSE BURNED IN BEAVER DAM. The Residence of Mr. Luther Warren Destroyed. FARMVILLE, N. C., October 25. Mr. Luther Warren's residence was burned last night about 8:30. The fire was discovered in the kitchen where it had gotten too far to put out as the citizens went back to get out his furniture and save the surrounding buildings.

COLORED WOMAN LOSES LIFE. Building And All Household Effects Destroyed. Dave Davis, a colored man living on Mr. S. W. Irvin's place, in Beaver Dam township, lost his house by fire, Wednesday afternoon, together with all his household effects. An old colored woman, aged about 90 years, who was in the house at the time, was burned to death. When the fire was discovered everything was in flames and nothing could be saved.
