POST OFFICE OFFI-CIALS WERE PUZZLED

WASHINGTON, N. C., Dec. 26 .-Post office officials have been having considerable trouble with the mails here recently, and have been at a loss to account for it. Whole boxes of mail that had been distributed properly and found its way into a certain box, would later be found i another box in the extreme opposite end of the building. It had reached that point where all employes wer watching to see the wonderful transposition -- Vigilance, however, rewarded them. Two youths who had been stopping in regularly on their way to school, and who seemed very much interested in the boxes when no one was looking and very indiffer. ent when watched, were suspected. They entered Saturday about o'clock and found the employes quite busy, but not reckoning without their host. A close watch was set upon the youngsters, and they were finally seen to commence th pillage. As soon as detected, Deputy Marshall J. A.
