Advertising Rates on Application

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Feb. 27.—tributors. They have the Cole and Mr. H. M. Hardie and little daughter, Spangler style, also the Cole cotton, of Norfolk, spent one day with Mr. B. W. Tucker last week.

Harrington, Barber & Co. have received a large shipment of shoes, something new and up to date for ladies, gentlemen and children.

Mrs. M. A. Adams returned last week from Abbeville, where she has been spending several weeks with friends.

A. W. Ange & Co. are headquarters for all kinds of hardware. Examine their stock before purchasing.

Miss Anna McLawhorn and father, Mr. C. L. McLawhorn, attended a box party near Fountain last week.

Harrington, Barber & Co. have received another large shipment of Royal flour right from the mills.

Spring time in all of its beauty will soon be here. You will enjoy driving over the hills and making a study of nature when she is at her best.

As you spin around you will seemingly make the flowers and blossoms smile if you are riding in a "Hunsucker buggy," manufactured by the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company, Winterville, N. C.

Better place your order for a new buggy now. Don't forget Dr. Hess' sickle tooth and panacea at A. W. Ange & Co's.

Miss Mamie Chapman, who has been teaching near Shelderville, came home Saturday, her school being closed.

When you need nails, both cut and wire, Harrington, Barber & Co. have them in any sizes.

Rev. Mr. Kigo, of Ayden, filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church here Sunday morning and afternoon.

Remember the A. G. Cox Manufacturing Company carries a complete line of heavy hardware.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGowan, of Cox's Mill, spent Sunday in town. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Chapman.

It will play you to see Harrington, Barber & Co. for your fertilizer.

JAUREZ AGAIN FALLS IN HANDS OF REBELS

Little Resistance Offered By Government Troops

REVOLUTIONISTS ARE FOR GOMEZ

Town Authorities, Fearing American Intervention, Give up City to Rebels

Without Much Resistance—Revolution Will Not Grow (Say American Ambassador at Washington)

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 28.—Offering scant resistance to invasion, Jaurez fell into the hands of rebel troops soon after 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The attack had been begun hardly an hour before. Throwing a ball of machine gun fire into the city, the rebel troops—self-styled adherents of Emilio Vasquez Gomez—advanced on the city from two directions.

Troops coming from the northwest were met by feeble firing from the government soldiers. But this soon ceased. Their way cleared, the invaders took complete possession of the city.

Before 11 o'clock they were marching through streets of the town that was the scene of a Madero triumph ten months ago.

Business houses were closed but apparently there was no attempt at looting.

Not long after the beginning of the rebel advance Mexican Consul Llorente in El Paso declared that to prevent violating of American rights the Jaurez garrison had been ordered to offer no further resistance and that the rebels would be permitted to take the town.

At 10:12 o'clock only the shots from the rebel guns were heard. Apparently after firing the first volley in answer to the attack the defenders quit.

At 10 o'clock a part of the rebel forces had entered the out skirts of Jaurez had opened fire. The defenders replied. The entrance was made at an irrigation ditch leading into Jaurez almost parallel with the Rio Grande.

Durham Civic Progress Club Organized

DURHAM, Feb. 26.—A civic progress club was organized in this city tonight with a membership of some of the most prominent citizens of the city.

Ex-Judge J. Crawford Biggs was elected president and Prof. W. H. Gause, vice-president.

The purpose of this club is to make a thorough study of all kinds of civic problems. They will make a special study of road building, sewerage and city parks; also there will be a special study of the commission form of government.

In all probability at a later date this question will be submitted to the people for adoption at an election.

Instead of using one or two percent matter to bear in mind. It may be mixed with the soil at the time of planting with advantage.

All realize who have had practical experience in the cultivation of farm crops that it is better and more desirable to incorporate the fertilizer with the soil at or before the time of planting than to put it on as side applications or top dressings later in the season.

It can be done at the time of planting with great economy and can be mixed more thoroughly with the soil which is an advantage to the crop grown on the land in that it enables the roots to spread through a wider territory in search of food.

When mixed with the soil there is also less danger of its escape through the drainage water.

It would appear from the facts set forth that cotton seed meal furnishes nitrogen in a most satisfactory form for farmers. Its efficiency is unquestioned. It can be applied in the cheapest and most satisfactory manner. It furnishes the nitrogen in a sufficiently quickly available form to meet the needs of our principal farm crops, and it has the advantage of being a home-made product which costs less per pound of available nitrogen at the present time than this element does when derived from other desirable sources.

The farmer who uses cotton seed meal not only has the satisfaction of applying nitrogen in a desirable form, but he enlarges the market for his seed and insures their bringing a better price on that account.

While it is to be regretted that cotton seed meal can not all be fed so that the largest profit might be derived from its use in animal nutrition and as a fertilizer when applied to lands in which it is not to be used, it is quite evident that under no circumstances should it be purchased and used if it is the best.

The Sine Qua Non.

The efforts that are making to cultivate closer relations between the United States and the Latin-American republics should, of course, be encouraged.

Secretary Knox's tour of the South American countries, as was that of Secretary Root some few years ago, is an excellent thing in its way; so also is Mr. John Barrett's Pan-American Society for the promotion of intercourse between the people of the two Americas.

But neither of these touches, except incidentally, the real question of strengthening the commercial relations between the two halves of this hemisphere.

International trade is based upon something a great deal more substantial than sentiment. It is international barter, the exchange of one commodity for another. So long as we wear, by means of tariff barriers, from our markets the things that the Latin-American republics have to sell, so long will the Latin-American republics buy from us only those things which they cannot obtain elsewhere at all or only at great disadvantage—and this regardless of how much touring among them may be done by our ministers of state or with what persuasive eloquence Mr. Barrett and his associates may preach the reciprocal advantages of Pan-American union.

The prime essential the sine qua non to bringing to the United States that portion of the Latin-American trade to which our geographical location and other natural advantages entitle us lies in removing the artificial shackles imposed upon commerce by our inordinate tariff duties. Unless and until that is done, we can never hope for anything even approximating maximum development of our trade opportunities in the Latin-American field; and when and where, of the trade from that rich and fruitful territory now going across the Atlantic to Great Britain, Germany and France, will be drawn to our shores just as naturally and just as inevitably as the tides of the sea respond to the influence of the moon.

The fact that our commerce with South America has more than doubled in value in the last ten years, notwithstanding and in spite of the tariff handicap, only shows the more conclusively how great that expansion would be were this handicap removed.

Certainly it is only the blindness that will not see which can fail to discern in our experience with limited trade with Cuba and a measure of free trade with the Philippines that it is freer trade relations which are needed to insure maximum commercial expansion in the Latin-American field.

Nothing more is required; nothing less will suffice. Norfolk Virginia Pilot and Landmark.

SHOULD APPEAL SAYS GOMPERS

President of Federation Attacks Executive Order

PREVENTING APPEALS TO CONGRESS

Representative Lloyd of Missouri, at Attacks Order Which Prevents Employees of Postoffice Department From Making Appeals to Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 5.—The Postoffice Department was a target for prominent speakers at the twelfth annual convention of the National Civic Federation which began here today.

Attacks on the executive order which prohibits the appeal of government employees to Congress or Congressmen in question affecting wages and working conditions, were made by Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, and Representative Lloyd of Missouri, a member of the House Committee on Postoffice and Post Roads.

Second Assistant Postmaster-General Stewart vigorously defended the department and the Postmaster-General.

A lively colloquy which opened between Mr. Stewart and Mr. Gompers and Mr. Lloyd over the interpretation of the order was terminated abruptly by the chairman ruling the proceedings out of order.

"No other department of the government has dreamed of carrying out 'such letter this order,'" declared Mr. Gompers. "The Postoffice Department has not only dreamed of it but has actually had a nightmare over it."

Representative Lloyd declared the policy of appealing to Congress through superior officers to be ineffective.

LEXINGTON JURY OUT HAS NOW BEEN OUT 36 HOURS

IT IS EXPECTED, HOWEVER, THAT THE JURY WILL BRING IN A VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY

LEXINGTON, March 5.—The jury in the Leonard murder case has been out since yesterday evening at 6 o'clock and has not yet reached a verdict. This morning the jurors returned to the courtroom for instructions as to the weight of circumstantial evidence. Juror Hedrick declared that some of the jurors wanted to know if a man could be convicted on circumstantial evidence, and Judge Ferguson entered into a long explanation of the various phases of the subject. It is persistently rumored about town that the jury stands nine to three for acquittal. The prevailing opinion, however, is that the jury will bring in a verdict of not guilty early tomorrow morning.

A verdict was expected tonight, but they went to their rest without deciding. Though a verdict of acquittal is expected, there is no doubt in the minds of many of the people of Lexington as to Leonard's guilt, who is now in the hands of the county jail.

Cotton Unpicked.

It is said there are at least 500 bales of cotton still in the fields in Lexington township unpicked. This estimate was based on the information given by one of the Falkland farmers and farms with five bales or less were not considered. Most of the cotton will no doubt remain in the field and be ginned.

YOUNG MERCHANT SHOT

M. P. RITCHIE BADLY INJURED

IS RUSHED TO SALISBURY WHERE OPERATION IS QUICKLY PERFORMED—NOT MUCH HOPE

CONCORD, March 5.—A sensational shooting took place in Concord last night when Mr. Marion Hamilton, a well-known clerk in the street, shot Mr. M. F. Ritchie, a prominent young hardware man, and dangerously, if not fatally, wounded him.

On account of the promptness of the parties and shooting suddenness of the act, it aroused great excitement, which soon developed into a gloom that cast itself over the entire community.

A misunderstanding over an account aroused the trouble. Mr. Hamilton owed the Ritchie Hardware Co. for a buggy. There arose a misunderstanding between them on the interest on the account. Mr. Ritchie went into the store this afternoon to collect it. Mr. Hamilton was about midway the store, behind the counter, when Mr. Ritchie went to him. There were very few people in the store at the time and most of the clerks had gone home.

Mr. Hamilton says that Mr. Ritchie became offended at what he said and was "knocking" him when he pulled his pistol and fired.

SEC. STIMPSON T. R.'S FRIEND WANTS TAFT

Praises His Administration and calls it Progressive

CHICAGO, March 5.—Henry L. Stimpson, of New York, secretary of war, and the Roosevelt candidate for governor of New York, in 1910, tonight declared himself for President Taft, and said that, while he remained the sincere friend of Mr. Roosevelt, he could not support him for the presidential nomination.

Mr. Stimpson entered President Taft's cabinet last year, after consultation with Mr. Roosevelt, and with the distinct understanding with the President that he would be bound in no way to understand the character of the administration. In a speech before last night's meeting, in opening his address Prof. H. E. Austin said that President Roosevelt's administration represented the highest expression of progressive Republican policy.

"I am here tonight to speak for the nomination of President Taft," said Mr. Stimpson. "I am now and always have been a progressive."

"I am for Mr. Taft because I believe he has faithfully carried out the progressive faith of the Republican party; that his administration stands for orderly, permanent progress in our national government; and that to refuse him the nomination on the assumption that he has been made against him, would be a blow that progress and would put a premium upon hasty and unfounded criticism."

Of snow storms there seems to be no end and this section had the eighth of the winter Tuesday night. It began about 10 o'clock and continued to a depth of about two inches. A cold rain followed, taking away most of the snow. The weather is about as bad as it could be.

John W. Sickelsmith, Greensboro, Pa., has three children, and like most children they frequently take cold. "We have tried several kinds of cough remedies," he says, "but have never found any yet that did them as much good as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by all dealers."

From a business point of view is the strongest driving force that attract desirable citizens to that town or city.

In closing his lecture Prof. Austin moved that the Carolina Club appoint a committee to federate with similar communities from other Greenville sections. The "business" of this federation of communities to be the keeping up later the ideal of a sanitary and beautiful Greenville.

Prof. Austin was greatly applauded and his motion that a committee be appointed for the purpose above explained was supported by every member present.

Prof. R. E. Wright was appointed delegate to the Southern Commercial Congress to be held in Nashville, Tenn. The 6, 7 and 8 of the coming year to the people living in it, and April.

Blind Tiger Leaves

RALEIGH TIGER LEAVES FOR PARTS UNKNOWN—3,000 MILES OF FLEE IN HIS PURSUIT—GOING SOME

RALEIGH, March 5.—It is reported on reliable authority that W. C. Poland, the notorious blind tiger, has jumped his bond and is now perhaps many miles from this city and on account of his mysterious action the department of Raleigh is increased by $500 and the county is $100 better off.

Foland was convicted at Police Justice Watson's court for selling liquor and given a sentence on the roads. He appealed to the Superior court and Judge Watson placed him at $500. Judge of the Peace E. M. Hildreth also had Poland before him on a similar charge and found him guilty. He also appealed and was put under a $100 bond.

It was said yesterday that Poland was seen at Cary by a citizen of that place who is well acquainted with him. He was there from Raleigh in a car, and told this citizen that he was gone. "I have left $500 bail at Raleigh," but they may have that; I am going to parts unknown," is what he said to have remarked. Foland also said to have remarked.

SHOOTS AND KILLS HUSBAND

HAD ONLY A SHORT TIME AGO LEFT A SANITARIUM WHERE SHE HAD BEEN TREATED

ASHEVILLE, March 5.—About 7:20 this morning, while apparently suffering from a spell of melancholia, Mrs. W. A. Harrison shot and almost instantly killed her husband, who was sitting on the porch of their home on the corner of the building where she had been treated for mental treatment. Mr. Harrison was a fireman on the Southern, and had an excellent record. He formerly lived near Salisbury. He was about 25 years of age. His wife was a native of this city and was in hysterics. She declared that she did not mean to kill him, that she was trying to kill herself and he tried to get the pistol when it was discharged. She is in jail.

When you have rheumatism in your foot, in your arm, in your back, in your chest, or in your joints, you will get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

OPENED-EYED JUSTICE.

The originator of the idea that Justice goes around prying into domes of buildings where she is dispersed with an old rapier in one hand, a pair of scales in the other and a broad band across her eyes, hit the nail square on his thumb.

Witness the case of the Carnegie polish employee who through the inability of expression and the unfortunate lack of means got convicted of a murder which somebody else committed. After serving twenty years of a life sentence for the alleged crime, a dying man confessed the crime and the government making use of its clemency, graciously pardoned him—yes, pardoned him for something he had never done. The handsome Carnegie, he of library, scholarship and peace-fund fame, came to the rescue and calling to mind the poor fellow had a week's salary due him in the Government, decided to pay him the week's wages with interest accruing during the twenty years of imprisonment.

With this handsome reward a broken down old man with the prison pallor on his cheeks was sent out to begin all over again. Tell that man about Justice and his failure to "start something" will be only due to want of energy and spirit that must be long to a man who has served twenty years. Coming to a more recent case—Brandt, a young Swede who was once a valet for Schiefel, after serving five years of a thirty year sentence for an alleged assault and robbery has succeeded in having his case reopened and surprising facts have come already to the surface—facts which strongly lead to believe that Brandt has been the victim of otherwise than blind justice.

In opposition to these two cases we are glad to see that now and then things are changed and that Justice is fair. In the Tarboro Southern we see where a dispatch from "La Temps" tells of a man who after serving a long part of a sentence was found innocent. The court of as-sises awarded him damages to the extent of thirty thousand francs, or six thousand dollars and furthermore all the important dailies of the country tell of his innocence.

Now that's something like Justice.
What is a gracious pardon to a man who has been snatched from his family, his friends his country, thrust into the confinement of a 10x6 cell and told to expect some crime which he never did commit. The best in the land is not enough for that man and yet a country which will worship some heroes to the border of idolatry, will simply "pardon" such a man and release him into the midst of a society which must be hateful to him for the little interest it showed when it failed to investigate him where his innocence would have been made clear.

Society is there to protect itself and every one of its members and when society through its representatives, the government, makes a mistake should not be backward in making the kind of apology that will assuage most.

HOW ABOUT IT?

Every week we reprint from the Chattanooga Tradesman a report of the new enterprises launched in different parts of North Carolina. This report in itself is a piece of news matter interesting to all North Carolinians. In publishing it weekly as we do our sole aim is not only just to give the news, but also to spur the well to do of our community to "loosen up" and give Greenville the push towards progress and a financial success that could easily be Greenville's if the mentioned people would only "sit up" and take a notice.

To be sure, a majority of the enterprises launched, receive their impulse in large centers, such as Baldwin, Charlotte, Wilmington, Greensboro, etc. But every week, millions of people, not even as important as Greenville make themselves heard and it's right from these smaller towns we ought to take a good example.

Still there are other communities, which are not getting into print are accomplishing some things which ought to make some of our people look green—not with envy or jealousy, but shame.

In order not to stray too far away from home in the quest of our example, we'll simply mention Farmville.

Only fourteen miles west of Greenville and already with a population of twelve hundred it is conceded to be one of the fastest growing towns in Eastern North Carolina. Ask a Greenville man who is not a "Jingo" what his opinion of Farmville is. Ask several such neutral people. The average answer will be: "For its size Farmville does more business than Greenville." And you all have heard of that old proverb, "When the carrier makes a noise, it's because it carries water." In other words, Farmville's success is a fact.

And why should Farmville, in comparison, do more business than Greenville, with its well supplied stores, its beautiful court house, fine streets and other comforts?
That's just the "X" that Greenville's well-to-do people supply unconsciously.
It is not a question of money, but a question of local patriotism, the kind of local patriotism that makes the Atlanta Journal feel proud of being in Atlanta, and the Durham Sun happy of forming a parcel of Durham. It is in fact a something with which the growth of a town is an utter impossibility.

When the case of the need of a hotel came up in Farmville there was not the slightest difficulty about finding the money to build it.

How did we go about it? Enough warm air to raise a freight balloon was generated but as soon as the air cooled off the balloon collapsed and came down.

A great opportunity is now offered to start something in the way of a water line from here to Norfolk.
Two to one foreign capital will have to be introduced to make the thing a possibility.

Once upon a time we were in need of a laundry. We got it. But, the man had to come from abroad and start it. Best luck to him. It's just like this, we either have no confidence in ourselves or we prefer to see others prosper. Both very painful points of view.

GOOD WORDS.

Good words, encouraging words, when coming from somebody engaged in a task equal to that in which we ourselves are busying are appreciated in their full value, because we cannot doubt of their sincerity.

Especially are we in a position to appreciate Brother Stokes' very encouraging remarks in his editorial of the last Pitt County News issue.
It is very seldom that a brother newspaper man will waive aside his own claims in favor of another editor, even if the latter is many years the senior of the former. This evidence of courtesy is doubly appreciated.

We fully agree with Bro. Stokes in everything he says in mentioned editorial. We had felt the same way about it ourselves for quite awhile and although it would have been unbecoming for us to "blow our own horn," we have at times tried to bring some people to think that our paper was not merely the outcome of a scheme to corner a business, but that it also has always been towards the uplift of the community. And in realizing this a dry subject with a great deal more "kicks than kale" coming in, we have not whimpered, but we have gone on with our task in the hope that "some day" recognition would come our way and our efforts towards the rebuilding of Pitt county's seat would be rewarded in some way that would make our lives easier and bring into them a few of the comforts others enjoy.

For thirty years The Reflector has been issued to the people of Pitt county and throughout its years of publication it has always stood and fought for every measure of progress.
Whatever degree of support it has had is left for the readers to answer.
Financially we can truthfully say The Reflector has not made the success of a New York World or a Chicago Tribune. Still we are publishing it.

As we have said before the paper is the favorite son of its publisher and nothing is too good for it. Only sometimes the publisher has to throw up his hands and feed it on bread and water. When he is forced to do that, he sure that somebody is withdrawing the support that would buy the butter—but would buy it not only for the paper, but also the supporter. And here is where we can't understand the scarcity of home support we get.

When people who do not belong to our community think so well of the selling ability of our columns, as to place with us contracts extending over many inches and months it is puzzling, to say the least of it, why the home man will not avail himself of the opportunity to do a better and larger business.

What's the answer?

WOODROW WILSON.

The Atlanta Journal, the South's leading newspaper, in one of its editorials of Wednesday, strongly recommends Governor Woodrow Wilson for the nomination and election.

In that editorial, headed "Wilson and Roosevelt," the Journal makes a study of both men in regards to the politics they stand for and it calls attention to the fact that while Roosevelt is supposed to stand for all the progressive principles Wilson really stands for, the governor of New Jersey is the very antithesis of the colonel when it comes to being a defender of constitutional government and state's rights.

It follows in part:

Governor Wilson's peculiar fitness in this connection was forcefully expressed in an interview with Senator Gardner, of Maine, which appeared in Monday's Journal. Senator Gardner is the second Democrat ever elected by Maine to the United States senate. He is a particularly keen observer of political conditions in his own state and the country over. He speaks advisedly when he declares:

"If the Republicans nominate a Progressive like Colonel Roosevelt and the Democrats nominate Representative Oscar Underwood or Speaker Clark, or Governor Harmon, Roosevelt will have every chance to sweep the country overwhelmingly."

This opinion is all the weightier, because, as Senator Gardner declares, he has high personal admiration for Mr. Underwood and Mr. Clark, but this does not prevent him from seeing that neither of them stands before the people of the entire nation with such strength and such power to lead as does Woodrow Wilson. It is because he is broadly representative of the best thought and the deepest political ideals of the American people as a whole that Governor Wilson is Democracy's most advisable candidate.

As recent events have shown, Governor Wilson has a large and enthusiastic following in the west, where Roosevelt is supposed to be strongest. His substantial and progressive record as governor of New Jersey is as well beyond the Mississippi as in the east or the south. The fact is, Woodrow Wilson has done for foreignly popular government and the square deal during his first year as chief executive of New Jersey that Roosevelt accomplished during his two terms in the presidency.

Regardless of whom the Republicans may nominate, Woodrow Wilson is the logical Democratic leader in the approaching campaign. When he opposes Taft and high tariff or Roosevelt and the New Nationalism, he is competent in every sense to lead the party to victory.

A FLIMSY CONTENTION.

A recent item in the press dispatches from Washington says that the Postal Telegraph company has instituted proceedings before the interstate commerce commission against the Western Union Telegraph company, that looks to forcing the latter to make a special rate on messages which the Postal turns over to the Western Union for delivery. In the complaint it is admitted by the Postal company that it accepts messages to all destinations, whether it may have offices at those points or not. In the event it has not, it sends the messages as far as it can over its own wires and then turns it over to the Western Union for transmission on to destination. In taking such messages from the Postal to be forwarded, the Western Union charges the local rate from the point at which the message is turned over to the point of destination, with a charge for three additional words which have to be put on a forwarded message. In some instances it costs the Postal company more to get a message through in this way than was originally received for the message.

It looks to us that the Postal company has put up a very flimsy complaint, and wants to get the courts to help it carry on its business on the facilities of a competitor. It is deceiving the public to accept messages for points at which it has no office and cannot guarantee the delivery of such message, or subject it to the unnecessary delay of transferring it from one telegraph company to another. To handle such a message the Postal sends it as far as possible over its own lines, where it has to stop long enough to be copied and taken up by a messenger from the Postal office to the Western Union office, and there goes through the filing and checking the second time for transmission, causing that much delay. As to the matter of charges for such forwarded messages, we do not see that the Western Union could be expected to handle messages any cheaper for the Postal than it does for the public and should not be allowed to do so if it desired to. The Postal might save itself the charge in such cases by not taking messages for points where it does not have offices. In the contention in question the interstate commerce commission would serve the interests of the public to rule that telegraph companies be for-bidden to accept messages for points at which they cannot guarantee delivery.

THE PITT COUNTY FAIR.

Yesterday morning the Pitt County Fair Association held a meeting to receive the report of its officers. In every case were they thoroughly satisfactory—so much so that all last year's officers were unanimously re-elected. Although the association has only passed the first mile stone of its existence, success was sure when it held its first Pitt county fair last October.
It proved a "howling" success. We all remember the crowds that attended it and more vivid still is in our minds the living picture drawn for us by the county schools' education day.

This fair did more to bring the people of Pitt county together than anything we know of. Every Pitt counedian was welcome and treated like every other Pitt counedian and the spirit which reigned during the fair is the spirit that makes great nations.

The importance of our farmers is most far-reaching in Pitt county and for this reason nothing should be spared to bring them forward with their products to win the recognition they so well deserve.

During the last fair the Star warehouse presented a scene of activity as had never been seen in Greenville and the products competing for the premiums offered by the association spoke well for the Pitt county farmer. Such exhibitions are going to do a world of good to our country and will greatly help in giving our farmers all the confidence which by their efforts should be always with them.

Long Life to the Pitt County Fair Association.

ABOUT INDEXES.

We were amongst the lucky listeners to Prof. H. E. Austin at the Carolina Club. We were glad to hear him because his address was of the most interest to us, who are so interested in this corner of the world called Greenville. In this part of the Old North State that some of us call "home." And we were very glad to hear him say what he did about Greenville's "carriage" because this one subject upon which we have been
"hammering" some few times and to which we always return whenever the iron gets hot again. It seems a little to hammer on cold metal. That's why we sometimes give the matter of "civie beavy" a rest.

Not that we forget about it. Far from it. As it behooves every man that makes his living by telling of things that happen and how they happen to be, we, allowing for modesty, are also students of those signs which were so fitly called "Indexes" by Prof. Austin, the other night.

If thus far we had only spoken about the beautifying of Greenville, was simply because the business side of it had not suggested itself to us.
Although having things shipshape in a community is after all a pure matter of business when coming down to the real character of the undertaking.

This task of calling the attention of the people of Greenville to the ugly spots existing in this community is far from being in any way attractive. In fact, no more attractive than it is to go up to the dentist and having a few teeth filed. Just because they are "beyond the pale," (that is perhaps out of sight) there is no reason on earth why we should not hurry to the dent dentist. Along the same lines we can not formulate a single reason why some of the things mentioned in Prof. Austin's address should not be tackled and tackled energetically. Even if some of them happen to be in back alleys.
And there is really more than what is exposed to the eye along the streets.

THE STOCK LAW CASE.

Last Saturday morning a representative crowd of Pitt county farmers gathered in the court house and in words which admit no doubt strongly resented the thrusting upon them of the Stock Law.

It is right that the farmers of this county should get together to discuss a subject which so concerns them and we are glad to see them do it.

We sincerely hope that they will obtain what they need. Nobody is in a better position to understand these needs than themselves. For this reason, we repeat it, we are glad they took the step that they did take. Now there is one thing that we would like to mention in connection with this mass meeting. The Reflector has in every occasion done all in its power to be of service to the farmers of the county and will continue this policy whenever the farmers are right as they are in this question.

Unfortunately a something happened previous to this mass meeting for which the willful and malignant there are bound to be some evidence, tried to tax The Reflector.
Through no specific fault of anybody when we announced the mass meeting a mistake was made in the date.
Absolutely no harm was meant by it and it was the kind of a mistake which is liable to happen in the best regulated paper. We are sorry the mistake was made and would have made mention of it had our attention been called to it. But it was not. At least not until the evening previous to the meeting. And when our attention was called to it, the complaint was formulated with insinuations unworthy of a hearing. Being at fault we did listen very patiently. And as far as we are concerned got our own reward.

Now we want to be perfectly understood. To those farmers who, through our mistake failed to attend last Saturday's meeting, we sincerely apologize for a purely innocent mistake. To those who tried to make of our mistake a willful act, entirely in discord with our policy towards the Pitt county farmer, we have nothing to say. Roosevelt would call them "muck-rackers." We don't call them anything.

We were amongst the lucky listeners to Prof. H. E. Austin at the
interested in this corner of the world
called Greenville. In this part of the Old North State that some of us
call "home." And we were very glad to hear him say what he did about Greenville's "carriage" because this
one subject upon which we have been
little to hammer on cold metal. That's
of "civie beavy" a rest.

Not that we forget about it. Far

New Bern Sun the story of a beautiful lawn, pretty flowers and well kept grounds, is the story of TRUE LOVE, A HAPPY HOME—etc., and as becomes every editor of a town paper, he urges the New Bern citizens to GET BUSY!

Edwin Dunn is right. A beautiful lawn, with pretty flowers, says something for the occupants of the house they surround that no amount of talking would do.

We wandered once through the South. That is anywhere along the Southern R. R. system from Alexandria to New Orleans and although not everything went as if we had been going the country in a high powered touring car, we have many recollections of that "tour of inspection." And of the things we can remember, and there are many, uppermost amongst our recollections are the beautiful lawns and gardens and pretty houses of a Virginia town called Charlottesville. We were badly treated in that particular town, but we had to hand it to them for having a pretty city and under ordinary circumstances would have been deligtated to make our visit a stay. A lengthy one, too.

We are sure that the people of Greenville have traveled. And we are also sure that when traveling they have always looked out for such pretty and attractive towns as above mentioned. And that on their return home they have remarked, "My! but what a pretty place Swellville is! I surely would like to have a home there!" But that's just it, their home is right here. And a home is like a mother, like a country. The elder and the poorer, the dearer she is to us and the closer we snuggle up to the embrace of that country and that mother.

Was it in our power to come to the rescue of that poor mother or that poor country, where the bad son and ungrateful citizen that never came to the rescue?

But Greenville is not poor, neither is Greenville our mother, or our country. Just a piece of it. Yet it certainly is our home and besides Greenville CAN stand a little decar-ing and if the ladies of the Civic League and those citizens that do really take an interest in Greenville are only able to enlist the help of those that are a little backward in the movement for better surroundings we are sure Greenville can be as pretty as any Charlottesville that ever lapped on the map.

So, we will again quote Owen Dunn: TRUE LOVE—HAPPY HOME—That is the story of a beautiful lawn, pretty flowers and well kept grounds—GET BUSY!

Edward Benton, an aged Confederate soldier recently committed suicide at the Soldiers' Home in Raleigh, having previously killed his body to the State University to be dissected.
The body was shipped to Chapel Hill and when the boys of the medical class opened the casket and looked on the face of the old soldier, they refused to dissect his body and gave it a Christian burial. This was a lovely act in the boys.

MRS. ANNA ABERNETHY DIES

IN CHAPEL HILL LAST FRIDAY

MOTHER OF SOLICITOR CHAS. L. ABERNETHY DIED AT CHAPEL HILL—SONS ALL ATTAINED PROMINENCE

RALEIGH, N. C. March 3.—Dr. C. O. Abernethy returned yesterday afternoon from Chapel Hill where he went to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Anna M. Abernethy, who died the evening before in Chapel Hill. Mrs. Abernethy had been ill but a few days, three in fact, pneumonia of a malignant type developing the middle of the week. She was seventy-one years of age and this told in the resistance offered to such a treacherous disease.

Mrs. Abernethy was the wife of the late Rev. John T. Abernethy, Methodist minister and twenty years professor of Mathematics at Rutherford College in the western part of the state. He died in England in the summer of 1899 and she has lived a considerable portion of her life in Chapel Hill.

She leaves seven children. Five of these are boys and have gained prominence in the world. They are Solicitor Charles L. Abernethy of Beaufort, Dr. Eric A. Abernethy of Chapel Hill, B. S. and C. O. Abernethy of New York and Dr. C. O. Abernethy of this city. Mr. B. S. Abernethy has returned to the South and is not living in New York at this time. There are two daughters, Miss Dora E. Abernethy of Roxobel and Miss Dora Abernethy of Farmington, Davis county.

BOYS ADRIPT IN BOAT.

Timely Rescue by Two Citizens Effected.

Thursday afternoon two little boys, sons of Messrs. H. D. Bateman and W. A. Bowen, found a boat tied at Anderson's landing on the river near Greenville Heights. The boys untied the boat and got in it to play. The boat drifted from the shore and swung against a tree, knocking one of the boys overboard, but he caught the tree and clung to it, crawling back in the boat when it swung around again. Messrs. J. W. Turnage and Joseph Fleming happened along about in a short while, and seeing the dangerous predicament of the boys waded out and rescued them.

STOCK LAW FENCE CUT.

Opponents Resort to Illegal Methods.

It is commonly rumored on the streets here that the portion of the new stock law fence that was erected before the injunction was started, has been cut to pieces. The report says that parties had gone the whole length of the fence and cut it in two every few yards. We regret to have to state that there are people of Pitt county who would resort to steps of this kind.

"I used Sloan's Liniment on a male for 'high lameness' and cured her. I am never without a bottle of your liniment; have bought more of it than any other remedy for lameness." Emily Kinney, Canby, Ky.

"Sloan's Liniment is the best medicine I have ever used. I have killed a quart of a mare that was awfully bad. I have also healed raw, sore necks on three horses. I have healed greasy hock on a mare that could hardly walk." Astoria G. Hines, Oakland, Pa.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you break down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardui helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life. It is the best tonic for women. Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist."

TO REOPEN DISPENSARY CASE STILL WAS IN POLK COUNTY

S. C. TO BEGIN INVESTIGATION WAS OF 65 GALLON CAPACITY

EVEN GOVERNOR PLEASE HIMSELF IS SUBJECT TO INVESTIGATION UNDER THE RESOLUTION

COLUMBIA, S. C., March.—Next Thursday will see the beginning of what may develop into a reopening of the affairs of the old state dispensary. On that day the special legislative committee appointed at the last session will begin its work. The committee is empowered to act with the widest possible latitude, the resolution calling for its appointment including with the scope of the proposed investigation practically everybody who ever had anything to do with the state dispensary. That is, the committee is empowered to go into the dealing of the old directors, of the legislative investigating committee which led to the new notations expenses of graft, of the winding-up commission and of the second winding-up commission appointed by Governor Blease when he removed the first. Besides this, the committee itself is only to be investigation under the resolution.

PASTOR'S ANNIVERSARY.

Splendid Year's Work at Memorial Baptist Church.

Sunday was the anniversary of Rev. C. M. Rock's pastorate of Memorial Baptist church, he having taken charge of the church on the first Sunday in March, 1911. He did not preach a regular sermon Sunday morning, but made an interesting talk on the work of the year, and how in every way the church helped and encouraged him in his efforts to advance Christ's kingdom. While his first duty was to the church of which he was pastor, he did not hesitate to take any and all times wherever he could be of service or render aid to the needy. During the year he received 66 members into the church and the offerings for all objects were largely increased.

Mr. Rock has truly been a factor in the spiritual and moral uplift of the community and he has a strong hold on the affections of his church and all people here.

"She Stoops to Conquer."

It is just a week from tonight March 11th, when you will have the opportunity of witnessing that charming play, "She Stoops to Conquer," presented by the senior class of East Carolina Teachers Training School. The young ladies deserve your patronage and should have a large audience.

Glorious News

comes from Dr. J. T. Curllis, Dwight, Kan. He writes: "I not only have cured bad cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is a most effective blood purifier. It is an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Price 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

Don't judge a Manure Spreader by Looks

Every Manure Spreader is not a Cloverleaf that looks like one. You can't judge a Manure Spreader by its looks because there are many features which are found in the construction of one machine that are not found in others. Cloverleaf Manure Spreaders are the most easily operated, the strongest and best machines on the market. If you will examine one critically you will agree with us that the is the best machine you ever looked at. Drop in. Let us discuss the manure spreader proposition. Let us explain the many meritorious features found in Cloverleaf construction. Better still, buy one, then you will be in a better position to know why you can't judge a manure spreader by its looks. If you are not ready to buy, call and get a catalogue. Its filled with valuable information on soil maintenance and fertility. We are reserving one for you. Won't you call and get it today?

Carr-Carson.
BETHLEHEM, N. C., March 5, 1912.—A beautiful marriage was quietly solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Rufus Carson, near Bethel, when their daughter, Miss Ora Carson, became the wife of Mr. Sidney Lanier Carr, of Winterville, N. C.
The ceremony, which was witnessed by many friends and relatives of the popular young couple, was performed by the Rev. D. A. Futrell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.
The drawing room where the ceremony took place was beautifully decorated with evergreens, ferns and bride roses and the bride, entering with her maid of honor, Miss Blanche Carr, of Farmville, a sister of the groom, proceeded to the altar which was surmounted by an arch of evergreens, where the solemn rites were performed. The bride wore a stylish tan going away gown, with hat and gloves to harmonize, and carried a bouquet of bride roses.
Miss Blanche Carr, maid of honor, was handsomely gowned in white net, trimmed with pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.
The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Processional. While the ceremony was being performed, Schubert's Serenade was softly rendered and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as a recessional; Miss Ruth Carson, of Bethel, acting as pianist.
Mr. James Carr, of Farmville, a cousin of the groom, was the best man. The happy couple left by the afternoon train for Florida and other points South.
The friends of Miss Allie G. Little were most charmingly entertained during the past week at a week end party at her beautiful country home near Bethel. Among those present were: Misses Frances Clark, Olivia Cheatham, Lillian Goodrich, Christine Stancill, Estelle Jones, Mary Mays, of Robersonville, and Messrs. Tom Andrews, M. P. Manning, Harvey Roberson, of Robersonville, Best Fleming, Robersonville, Jodie Woolson, Dr. C. O. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Stancill, Dr. and Mrs. V. A.
