

URGENT RENOMINATION OF COL. BRYAN GRIMES

As the time approaches for the nomination of state officers, it is natural that all of our people should be considering the most competent and available man for each position.

COL. J. BRYAN GRIMES.

great record office of the state. Here are deposited all the plats and surveys upon which all the lands of the state have been granted.

The National League teams played during the Spring inter-league series. Manager Charlie Dooler of the Phillies believes that Pitcher Masters, a young recruit, will develop into another Alexander.

The New York Giants will be the attraction at Cincinnati when Garry Herrman's new baseball park is formally dedicated on May 18.

Arthur T. Sheahan is the youngest business manager in the big leagues. At the age of 23 Arthur is looking after all the coin gathered by the Detroit Tigers.

It is said the Cubs are angling for Bob Fisher, Joe McGinnis's star second baseman. Fisher was a star in order to plug up the infield in case Evers fails to "come back."

The circuit of the Upper Peninsula-Wisconsin League will be composed of Menominee, Escanaba and Gladstone in Michigan and Marinette, Wis. The season will open May 18 and close on Sept. 18.

John Franklin Baker of the Athletics, should be a drawing card this season. His home run stunts during the world's series last fall will be worth more than four dollars to Connie Mack.

It was in 1901 that Fred Clarke pitched the "unbeatable" team right field to short, and Fred certainly showed he was there with the managerial nous when he switched Her Honus.

May Speak at States Capital

Col. Roosevelt May go from Greensboro, where he is to speak next Monday, to the State Capital to Deliver Political Speech.

RALEIGH, April 17.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt, who is billed to speak in Greensboro next Monday, will likely speak in Raleigh and Charlotte later in the week. Mr. Zeb Vance, who is to speak in Greensboro, will arrive in Raleigh on Monday and Mr. Walser will arrive in Greensboro on Monday.

Should Colonel Roosevelt visit Raleigh he will be the guest of Col. and Mrs. J. C. L. Harris on Fayetteville street.

BASEBALL NOTES

CORPS OF ROGUES

French Foreign Legion a Unique Military Body. It gathers recruits from the Social Outcasts of All Grades of All Other Countries—From Discipline and Brutal Punishments.

The French Foreign Legion is unique. There is no other military organization like it on earth. It was first raised in 1831 for service in the then newly conquered colony of Algeria. The officers are French officers of course, but the ranks are made up of outcasts of all social ranks of all other countries.

The legionnaire who struggles in the desert is lonely. Hundreds of men have died a dreadful death in this way. The Arab women pounce upon them, being helpless in the sand, and with shrieks of fiendish delight, proceed to torture and mutilate them before killing them outright.

A legionnaire's pay is only a half penny a day. True, while in Algeria costs only a penny a night, and for three to four months a year he is in the desert. But a half-penny a day!

His rations, too, are of the scantiest. Two meals a day only are served—breakfast at 7 o'clock in the morning and supper at 4 in the afternoon. Each meal is exactly alike, consisting of a thick soup made up of meat and vegetables, with bread, and every other day a small quantity of wine.

The discipline is ruthless in its severity; the punishments are cruel in the extreme. For grave offenses, like desertion, insubordination or striking a superior officer, death is frequently inflicted, or, failing that, the offender is sent to serve in the penal battalion on the edge of the Sahara desert.

This nearly always means a slow and painful death in place of a quick and comparatively painless one.

Minor offenses are punished with from twenty to a hundred days in prison or with "cellular," which is a solitary confinement in the dark plus starvation. I have seen strong, robust men so reduced after doing thirty days cellular that they have hardly been able to stand, yet they had to resume their ordinary duties nevertheless.

The Case Against Beach

One may readily sympathize with the anxiety of the people of Alken and the mastery of the attack on Mrs. Fredrick O. Beach some months ago cleared up. That a woman of wealth and cultivation spending the winter in Alken was brutally and murderously attacked and no adequate explanation of the act offered seemed a reflection on the safety of the city as a place of residence and it is of peculiar concern to a popular and famous winter resort that its reputation as an orderly community do not suffer.

The Beaches and their friends have indulged in loose and indirect expressions. C. Oliver Iselin's remark that he would gladly join in the lynching of Mrs. Beach with a knife in her front gate has been suggested that we have heard of.

Swamp and overflow lands are naturally the most fertile to be found. They are the treasuries of long ages and the drying forests have brought to the soil their fattest bonnies. It needs only to be made arable to become wondrously productive.

The work of reclaiming swamps and overflow lands, however, is not to be lightly undertaken. True, the individual acre or district can accomplish much through its own energy and resources. But this task, if pressed to its due proportion, requires the aid of the federal government.

To secure such aid is one of the chief purposes of the Congress now in session at New Orleans. Assemblies of the kind are held every year from every quarter of the South and the United States. Each of them will return home to work under a cooperative plan, first to arouse popular interest in the cause of drainage itself, and then to organize this interest toward the benefit end of securing state and national appropriations.

Georgia is ably represented at the Congress by a number of public-spirited men, headed by State Geologist McCallie and Dr. L. P. Akin, president of the state Drainage Association. No commonwealth of the Union has greater cause to be interested in the success of the movement, for with the single exception of Florida, Georgia has a larger area of Swamp land than any other state on the Atlantic coast. It is much to be hoped that through the New Orleans meeting liberal appropriations may be obtained both from the national and the state governments.—Atlanta Journal.

Getting Ready For Corn Show. One of the most striking exhibits at the last National Corn Exposition, held in Columbia, Ohio, was that of North Carolina. It showed the entire process of textile manufacturing, and was a relation to the visitors from other sections, unfamiliar with the textile industry. The exhibit was prepared under the auspices of the North Carolina Agricultural College, which is to be held in Columbia, South Carolina, next January, and he writes the exposition management that he has on foot plans that will ensure a most attractive representation of North Carolina.

Mr. Schaub, whose address is West Raleigh, N. C., where he is in charge of the boy's corn club work and connected with the agricultural college, is keenly alive to the benefits of the corn exposition, which is much more than its name would imply, and it can be counted as certain that North Carolina will be well represented at the exposition, with receiving both the special interests of the state.—Raleigh Times

Reclaim The Swamp Land

The National Drainage Congress, which opens Wednesday at New Orleans, is of interest to the entire country and practically, to Georgia and the South, for it is farmers and the property holders of this section who will be most directly benefited when the Congress achieves its purpose.

Scattered through the South, and in other parts of the Union as well, are millions of acres of land now practically worthless to the state in which they lie, and the individuals owning them are either swamped or subject to frequent overflows from adjacent rivers. They are not valueless, but in most instances they are a positive menace to the health of the surrounding community.

It is the object of the Drainage Congress to reclaim such lands and through the use of methods known to engineering science and thoroughly proved to convert them into inhabitable and productive farms. When this is done, lands that today are worthless will be among the most desirable in all the country and what is now a heavy liability to the state and the people will become a golden asset.

The work of reclaiming swamps and overflow lands, however, is not to be lightly undertaken. True, the individual acre or district can accomplish much through its own energy and resources. But this task, if pressed to its due proportion, requires the aid of the federal government.

Maxton in the Game. MAXTON.—The baseball season has opened in earnest in this town and Maxton has started off with several big victories already. Last season the home team won about 90 per cent of the games played.

Headquarters For Wilson In This State. Greensboro to Be Center of Activities of North Carolina Wilson Party.

S. E. WILLIAMS APPOINTED AS N. C. MANAGER. GREENSBORO, N. C., April 24.—That the state headquarters for pressing the presidential campaign of Woodrow Wilson will be established in Greensboro at once was the statement yesterday made by S. E. Williams, manager of Governor Wood Wilson's campaign and also at the request of Hon. William P. McComb, manager of Governor Wood Wilson's campaign and also at the request of many Wilson admirers in North Carolina, has agreed to accept the management and lead the Wilson men are coming here at once to the end that they make what effort they can to get a fair expression of sentiment.

Mr. Williams said he intended to press the campaign vigorously, but he does not intend to organize the state in the short time he has in such a manner as to try to form or mould sentiment but only in as far as he may, to get a fair expression of the popular will, and that this is wanted. For the expense incurred in the campaign, he said he should have to look for such voluntary contributions as can be secured. He claims the expense will not be great, as he does not propose to do more than get those who are for Governor Wilson acquainted with each other to some extent.

He feels sure Governor Wilson is going to be the nominee of the Democratic party at Baltimore, "for," he said, "he stands for the highest ideals of Democracy and the great mass of the whole country knows it."

Wilmington Divine Accepts Work in City of Churches. WILMINGTON.—Rev. Dr. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, this city for the past eight years and one of the leading ministers of the denomination in North Carolina, has tendered his resignation in order to accept a call to St. Luke's Lutheran church, Brooklyn, and will leave here the latter part of July to take up his new work.

Killed by Lightning. DURHAM.—News was received here today that a young white boy, Lonnie Baber, had been struck by a bolt of lightning at his home in Holly Springs. The boy was sitting by the fire-place when the bolt came down the chimney killing him instantly. None of the other members of the family were hurt.

Insulting Pitt's Court House. Mr. H. B. Allen, chairman of the board of commissioners of Anson county and Mr. E. P. Liles, a member of the board spent Wednesday here inspecting Pitt county's new court house with the view of getting some information incident to the building of a new court house in their county. They expressed much admiration of Pitt's handsome building.

Hon. H. S. Ward Speaks on Chief Clark's Candidacy

Introduced by Mr. C. C. Daniels of Wilson. Courthouse Filed to Overfiling.

As previously announced Hon. H. S. Ward arrived Monday from Washington to address Pitt Countians on the subject of Chief Justice Walter Clark's United States Senatorial candidacy.

The speaker was introduced by Mr. C. C. Daniels of Wilson, who up to the death of Mr. C. B. Aycock had been a warm supporter of the lamented Governor. In introducing the speaker, Mr. Daniels mentioned the death of the lamented Governor, and that the man in the field able to represent the Democratic party in the Senate and that the man was Clark.

Hon. H. S. Ward began his speech declaring that he was not there to show either Simmon's or Kirtchick's record. He said he was not there to show enough along this line to tell the people of the Old North State where and how they had erred. The speaker argued that North Carolina wanted a bigger interpretation of the word Democrat and said that many a good man may call himself a Democrat and yet be far away from the party as a true Republican is in opposition to a true Democrat.

A. B. WHITE DIES SUDDENLY.

Well Known Man and Head of Estimable Family Stricken on Street. Death came suddenly last night to A. B. White, a well known and long time resident of Greensboro and head of one of the city's most estimable families. A disease of the heart was assumed as the cause of the quick summons, the deceased having suffered for several years from this cause. It was announced last night that the funeral service would be held Monday morning from the residence of O. L. Grubbs, Schenck street, a son-in-law of the deceased and at whose home the body now rests. The sudden death of Mr. White's sudden death surprised and shocked the city and relatives and friends it caused a distinct shock. He was stricken on East Washington street, placed quickly in an ambulance and hurried to the home of Mr. O. L. Grubbs, where medical aid had been summoned. He died a few minutes after being carried to his bed. Members of the family in the city, summoned by telephone arrived after he had breathed his last. A son in Greenville and one in Asheville were notified last night and they will reach here today.

The deceased was about 60 years of age and was a native of Greenville, N. C. In 1875 he married and located in Greensboro, being a conductor on the old Richmond and Danville. A number of years ago he was seriously injured in a wreck at the Yadkin river, though recovered and had since held stationery positions in the local departments of the Southern. He was held in high esteem by both officials and trainmen and his bravery was never questioned after the wreck, which came near costing him his life and left him permanently maimed. As a husband and father he was known to be affectionate, kind and attentive; as a friend loyal and true, and as a man honest, brave and considerate.

Mr. White is survived by a widow and five children, they being: Herbert A. White, of Greenville, N. C.; Norris E. White, Asheville, N. C.; and Hazel M. White, Mrs. J. P. Minette, and Mrs. O. L. Grubbs, of Greensboro—Greensboro News.

What It Will Be In Ten Years.
If the people of North Carolina could have the curtain pulled back and see what we will be in ten years from this time, there would be an optimism that would make every man get busy and put his shoulder to the wheel.

The Charlotte Observer of this morning carries a story of an interview with R. H. Edwards, of the manufacturers' Record, telling of the immense amount of money being spent in the development of water power in the South. Mr. Edwards says: "The companies organized within the last six months to develop water-powers throughout the south, not including any undertakings in operation prior to six months ago, have an aggregate capital of over $200,000,000, and represent ultimate projected developments of about 1,500,000 horsepower."

"A Georgia company, which is now developing about 100,000 horsepower, has a capitalization of $57,000,000, and controls waterpowers, which when fully improved will aggregate about 600,000 horsepower."

"An Alabama company organized a few weeks ago with $55,000,000 capitalization has been financed by several of the leading banking houses of London, in connection with some strong financial interests in this country, and the bond issue of this company, $10,000,000, covering the first power plant to be constructed, put out through Parr's Bank Ltd., of London was largely over-subscribed."

Pittsburg, Mo., bankers have just organized a $25,000,000 company to develop waterpowers in West Virginia for the purpose of operating electric railroads in Pennsylvania; while Chicago people, in connection with New York bankers, are at work constructing power plants in southwest Virginia to have an aggregate of 100,000 horsepower to be used

Almost a Miracle.
One of them out starting changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all of our family thought he was going into the consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and was completely cured within ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 pounds. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for coughs and colds with excellent results. It's quick, safe and reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at all druggists."

And some men are such chronic kickers they even dislike to ring a door bell.

Many a man doubles his strength by taking advantage of another's weakness.

Fads and Fancies

NEW YORK, April 22.—Even the most casual observer cannot fail to notice that the Spring season has brought some unmistakable changes in woman's fashions, yet the changes are by no means of a radical nature. Tailored costumes of a conservative type, for instance, do not show very decided changes of line. A woman may have almost any sort of coat that is most becoming to her and yet not be conspicuously out of style. Generally speaking, however, the new line prevails. Coat fronts sharply cut away from the bust line and revealing either little waistcoats or favorites with Parisian tailors, but can be successfully worn only by the exceptionally slender women. The cutaway models which are more successful in fasten down to the waist line or little above and are sloped away gradually from there. In this model, too, there is often a waistcoat cut, it appears above the button line, not below it.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Nally, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

Elections in Bay State Show Close Calling of Third Term Although Conceding An Advantage

SEN. LA FOLLETTE "ALSO RAN" IN EVERY DISTRICT

BOSTON, April 30.—The contest in the primaries presidential today for the 36 Massachusetts delegates to the Republican national convention far exceeded in interest that for control of the delegation to the Baltimore Democratic delegation. Early returns showed that four Republicans voters went to the polls to one Democrat.

The race between President Taft and Col. Roosevelt, which on the showing of the preference of voters, was a neck and neck affair, for several hours absorbed so much attention that the long lead of Speaker Clark over Gov. Woodrow Wilson was almost forgotten.

In the first district in 23 out of 70 small towns, Crane had 386 to Baxters 324. This is Senator Crane's home district, and the election of the two Taft delegates was conceded by Roosevelt leaders in the early evening.

In the second district 12 out of 47 towns gave Crane 432 and Baxter 299, with a similar lead for the Taft men over Roosevelt district candidates.

President Taft carried Boston, exclusive of Hydepark, by more than 600 but ran behind in all the small towns that had reported up to 10 p. m. In these smaller towns, together with a number of wards in the cities of North Adams, Haverhill, Newbury Port, Lynn and Woburn the vote stood Roosevelt 6,468; Taft 6,355.

These same cities and towns gave Baxter, who headed the Roosevelt group of delegates 6,584 to 4,537 for Senator W. Murray Crane, who led the Taft group.

Heavy Losses By Fire in Winston-Salem

WINSTON-SALEM, April 30.—The fire loss, according to statements made by the property owners in the fire here Monday night will aggregate $412,000 with insurance amounting to $410,000.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco company has had their tobacco insured for $350,000 and their loss is estimated at about that figure. They have plenty of leaf tobacco in storage here and the loss will not in any way affect their business.

Fire Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock also damaged the stock of Vaughan & company, wholesale grocers, to the amount of $20,000 fully covered by insurance. This business house is located only a block from the scene of the big fire.

Dr. Hyatt Coming.
Dr. H. O. Hyatt will be at Hotel Berlin Monday, May 6th, to treat diseases of the eye.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—The tariff fight in the senate opened today when Senator Simmons, in charge of the Democratic house measures, made the opening speech in support of the house tariff bill.

"Biggest of Them All" To Stand Thorough Trial

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 30.—Suit against the International Harvester company, charging it with being a monopoly in restraint of trade and asking that it be dissolved, was filed by the government in the United States court here today.

In a petition in equity, this $140,000,000 corporation, popularly called the Harvester trust, is declared to exist in violation of the Sherman law. To accomplish the disintegration of the so called trust, the government asks the court to issue injunctions to bar from interstate commerce the products of the International Harvester Company of America, its selling agency. The appointment of receivers to take charge of the property and wind up the business "if the court should be of the opinion that the public interests will be better served hereby," is suggested.

The filing of the suit came as the climax of five years of investigation by the government. Lately the case has figured prominently in political discussion between President Taft and Colonel Roosevelt regarding certain instructions which Mr. Roosevelt while president in 1907 gave to his attorney general, Charles J. Bonaparte, concerning prosecution of the concern.

Floyd Allen Faces Court at Wylville

Mountaineers Attend Opening Day

WYTHEVILLE, Va., April 30.—Floyd Allen was before the bar in circuit court this morning to be tried for his life for the part he played in the Hillsville court tragedy March 14. His case was selected for trial first. The outcome will shape the state's methods in prosecuting the other five accused claimants under guard in jail here. A large number of citizens was summoned. It was expected considerable trouble would be experienced in getting a jury.

Many Mountaineers in Court.
A caravan of mountaineers traveling over rain-soaked roads from Hillsville and the surrounding country, arrived last night to participate in the trials beginning today of the six members of the Allen gang indicted for five murders in the Carroll county court house, March 14, when the judge, prosecuting attorney, the sheriff, a juror and bystander were assassinated.

More than one hundred witnesses have reached here. Some came part way by rail, others by horseback, while many drove all day in country wagons and camped outside the town.

Mrs. Floyd Allen Present.

Mrs. Floyd Allen, wife of the man who was being tried in the Hillsville court when the shooting began, rode twenty miles from the mountains to Hillsville in a covered wagon to the nearest railroad station. She is a thin, frail woman, wrinkled with age, upon whom rests heavily the burden of seeing her husband and two sons—Claude and Victor, tried for murder.

Mrs. Victor Allen, three small children and Jasper Allen, a brother of Floyd, accompanied her.

Knapp Burnett, 5 Years, Will Nichols 1 Year

His Honor Hurdly Called to Court House at 6:30 A. M. to Hear Verdict of "Guilty Of Manslaughter"

JURY ASKS JUDGE TO BE LENIENT WITH NICHOLS

words must have gone some way to show the defendant in a light that could hardly be used in the bright surroundings of the court room. Yet he showed him up in that light; and "showed him up" to his heart's content and certainly for the safety of the people of the state. Mr. Solicitor talked for over an hour.

His honor charged the jury in his business like manner. This or that, and you have heard enough to know whether it should be this thing or the other thing. So, gentlemen, the case it with you.

The case was with the gentleman until half past six this morning when the judge was sent for. The jury filled into the court room, totally deserted except for the presence of the Solicitor and Lawyer Ward, "Guilty of manslaughter." The jurors begged the mercy of the court for the prisoner.

Nichols and Burnett were brought to court and his honor imposed the sentence of five years for the latter and one year for the former, in the state penitentiary.
