We would suggest to repair and repaint the present school building and build a double porch all around it. Also build a fence from the ground and cover it with tin and beautify the interior by painting the doors and ceilings with some cheerful colors and ceiling with some cheerful for sale.

Sam Pierce, while cranking an automobile yesterday said it kicked and broke his arm. Dr. Dixon dressed it and Sam is all smiles today.

What the Traveling Man Finds Around Winterville

(By J. F. Stokes)

Editor Reflector: My trip to Winterville Tuesday was interesting from two standpoints—cash for the pocket and some interesting news for the columns of this sheet.

The political situation is warming up and assuming shape. Dr. B. T. Cox, who so efficiently represented Pitt county in the legislature of 1909, is again a candidate for the nomination. Winterville is enthusiastic for him and there is hardly any doubt that he will be nominated by a substantial majority. The people of this little town believe that Blow, Clark and Cox will make a splendid ticket.

Mr. W. H. Allen, a member of the anti-rod end of the party, was in Winterville Tuesday liberally advertising that his friend and candidate for the senate would address the citizenship of the town and neighborhood on the burning issues of the day next Saturday. The two Bills are live wires and to come in contact with either means a political shock. Some times, however, the shock has an invigorating effect. Thus it was when Mr. Allen requested one S. S. Smith to vote for Will Evans. If I understand Smith, his reply was something like this: "If I had to make a choice between swallowing a red hot wedge and voting for Will Evans, I would try the wedge." Now that must have been shocking to a man of my friend Allen's daring; yet, he is an old warrior at the game and no doubt is well prepared for such reports even from a plain farmer like Sam Smith.

As for United States Senate, it is conceded that Contentnea is Kitchin soil.

Wreck of the Schwaben, Latest Zeppelin Airship Destroyed

COUNT ZEPPELIN surely has had tough luck with his airships. The recent wreck of the Schwaben by an explosion of gas, when thirty-four soldiers were injured, several of them fatally, recalls the series of misfortunes to his dirigibles. The Zeppelin I was wrecked on Aug. 5, 1908, after making a flight which astonished the world. The Zeppelin II was wrecked in a windstorm on April 25, 1910. On June 23, the same year, the Deutschland I was wrecked in a gale. On the following Sept. 14 the Zeppelin VI was destroyed when a steam motor blew up. On May 16, this year, the Deutschland II was caught in a gale and completely demolished. The Schwaben was being at anchor before the balloon shed when a strong gust of wind tore it from its moorings. The ship broke in the middle, and a few minutes later it exploded, caught fire and was entirely burned.

By Five Votes, Bill, Twice Vetoed by President Taft, Passed by the House When 21 Republicans Vote With Democrats

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—By the narrow margin of five votes the house today passed the wool tariff revision bill over President Taft's veto. It was the first time since the bill was vetoed by the president that it has passed by the house.

The announcement of Democratic success created a wild outburst in the house and amid great cheering the bill was passed. The bill provides for a reduction of the wool tariff from 15 cents per pound to 10 cents per pound. It also provides for a reduction of the wool tariff from 15 cents per pound to 10 cents per pound.

NEW BOOZE AND GIZZIES RECORD

1912 Sees a High Mark for Cigarette Consumption

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The people of the United States produced more whiskey and rum and smoked more cigarettes during the fiscal year 1912 than ever before in the history of the country, according to the preliminary annual report of Royal E. Cabell, commissioner of internal revenue, submitted to Secretary McVeigh today. The consumption of whiskey was exceeded only by the year 1907, but being drinking fell off by a substantial percentage.

The unprecedented smoking of 11,221,624,884 cigarettes exceeding the record of 1911 by nearly 2,000,000,000.

In Kentucky alone are stored 158,000,000 gallons, which exceeds the amount of whiskey and rum in the whole United States eleven years ago.

The record production of these intoxicants for 1912 was 15,000,000 gallons, or 13,000,000 gallons greater than in 1911. The consumption of whiskey and rum for 1912 was 123,377,458 gallons, the nearest approach to the record of 134,031,000 gallons in 1907.

The consumption of beer for 1912 was only 1,108,000 barrels, as compared with 1,108,000 barrels, as compared with 1,108,000 barrels, as compared with 1,108,000 barrels.

Convict Shot and Killed by Guard

RALEIGH, Aug. 12.—Solemon Shepard, a negro, who was serving a thirty year term for murder, was shot and killed by a guard today when he attempted to escape from a convict camp near Aberdeen. Shepard was convicted at Durham three years ago as the murderer of Engineer Holt of the Southern Railway. The negro had made three previous attempts to escape.

The next heard from the convict was when Mr. Smathers, a lawyer at Canton, came to Statesville two or three days ago in the interest of the Canton bank and the Canton folks who endorsed the check. He got little satisfaction here, however, and returned to Canton with nothing more than the two rocks which Long had secured for him. Mr. Smathers said that Long visited his brother in Canton and did not leave there for several days after the check was cashed. But the mess publican party and protective tariff sages sent by Mr. Anselby was delivered to the wrong bank at Canton and the check was filled out as a joke and later, after consulting counsel, ordered protested. The check was endorsed by W. L. Long, another Long and Smathers and Co., and had been cashed by the Champion bank of Canton. Attached to the check was a little slip asking that the decisions must rest on a yea and nay vote.

Representative Fitzgerald of New York, Democrat, supported Mr. Olmstead and Mr. Gardner in their contention while Minority Leader Mann supported the speaker's position. The speaker, when the debate broke out with renewed vigor, quickly put a damper on it.

"You may talk all you want, he said, but your chair has no intention now or Minority Leader Mann appeal to his followers to stand by the Re the check was cashed. But the mess publican party and protective tariff sages sent by Mr. Anselby was delivered to the wrong bank at Canton and the check was filled out as a joke and later, after consulting counsel, ordered protested. WHITMAN INDICTS THEM ALL

In my announcement of the principles for which I would stand if sent to the legislature, I advocated the Initiative and Referendum and have written two articles explaining this splendid system of direct popular government.

I feel however, that some of the people of Pitt county do not exactly understand the advantage of the system and therefore in the way of further explanation I wish to say that: The Referendum not only provides that no stock law, bond issue or any other law that vitally affects the people, shall be passed without the consent of the people but in the event such a law is passed then the effect of it is null and void.

Under this system no law can ever be passed upon the people without the consent of the majority of the qualified voters. That is, if the people should demand a Referendum, the Initiative is very similar to the Referendum—the difference being by the use of the Initiative the people can pass a law though the legislature should refuse to do so.

I am opposed to any bond issue or stock law unless submitted to a vote of the people.

McINTYRE STILL A FREE MAN

Alleged Sender of Bomb Has Not Been Captured

HIGH POINT, Aug. 12.—Ed R. McIntyre, accused of sending an infernal machine addressed to Miss Ollie Hoover of this city and which exploded in the express office, here, serious by injuring two officials of the company, has not been arrested.

There are scores of people, according to reports, who have seen him in many different places at the same time, but there are no developments since the names of McIntyre and his alleged intended victims, Miss Ollie Hoover, were first given the public.

Miss Hoover is a daughter of Mrs. Howard Maxwell and niece of United States court clerk J. M. Milikan. McIntyre is believed to have been located in Asheville.

Miss Hoover, who is a demure brunette, is stenographer for the Stamey Printing Company. She had not received McIntyre's attentions favorably until she was informed of the explosion and the names of the victims.

There seems no possibility of his escape.

For Over a Year the System Has Been Lying on Gambling and Disorderly Houses, Waldo Still Speechless

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—Blackmail extorted from gambling and disorderly houses in New York city is said to find its way into the pockets of 3 men higher up who are the real heads of the graft syndicate that provides police protection for a price to the underworld.

Information has been placed in the hands of District Attorney Whitman by private detectives working with him on the Rosenthal case that these men higher up are a lawyer, a hotel proprietor who claims strong political affiliations and a police official.

Two police inspectors also are said to be profiting richly from graft.

District Attorney Whitman is now convinced that Jack Rose told the truth when he said that at least $24,000,000 was collected from gambling houses in one section of New York alone.

The district attorney is not willing to hazard a guess on the total amount of blackmail extorted but he is convinced that it runs into millions.

The private investigation is still being continued into the police blackmailing system which Mr. Whitman is learning more each day. It appears that for a year a perfected system has been in operation by which all gambling houses and disorderly houses have been put under the screws.

The investigation already has shown that there always has been police blackmail through intimidation, by which police officials fattened their bank accounts, but when it was recently organized better results were shown. Private detectives reported to the district attorney that under the present system of doing things thegraters were protected from the complaints of victims. It being one of the boasts that one of the men higher up was influential enough to prevent the trouble.

Whether or not such influence could be delivered is being investigated.

District Attorney Whitman is said to have been furnished with a list of prominent persons who played in various gambling houses. It is said these persons may be subpoenaed to give information.

No warrant for Scheiter's arrest has been issued.

Information has been placed in the hands of District Attorney Whitman by private detectives working with him on the Rosenthal case that these men higher up are a lawyer, a hotel proprietor who claims strong political affiliations and a police official.

Two police inspectors also are said to be profiting richly from graft.

District Attorney Whitman is now convinced that Jack Rose told the truth when he said that at least $24,000,000 was collected from gambling houses in one section of New York alone.

The district attorney is not willing to hazard a guess on the total amount of blackmail extorted but he is convinced that it runs into millions.

The private investigation is still being continued into the police blackmailing system which Mr. Whitman is learning more each day. It appears that for a year a perfected system has been in operation by which all gambling houses and disorderly houses have been put under the screws.

The investigation already has shown that there always has been police blackmail through intimidation, by which police officials fattened their bank accounts, but when it was recently organized better results were shown. Private detectives reported to the district attorney that under the present system of doing things thegraters were protected from the complaints of victims. It being one of the boasts that one of the men higher up was influential enough to prevent the trouble.

Whether or not such influence could be delivered is being investigated.

District Attorney Whitman is said to have been furnished with a list of prominent persons who played in various gambling houses. It is said these persons may be subpoenaed to give information.

An important witness in the Rosen case has been furnished with a list of prominent persons who played in various gambling houses. It is said these persons may be subpoenaed to give information.

ANNONYMOUS CIRCULAR CALLS FORTH PROTEST FROM PITT COUNTY CITIZENS

Author But Thinks Veils Identity in Guilt-Laden Pamphlet Which is Broadcasted For Vote-Getting Purpose Throughout Pitt County, Following is Two Communications

The Issues Before the People... Mr. Editor: By the mere chance that I am serving the best interest of the people in recalling their attention to these times, I cannot believe that I set to work immediately to unearthen its author and to a circular whose author is ashamed to learn who is circulating it.

Who wrote this circular? What is its purpose? What credit ought we to give a circular which the author himself did not think enough of to let it be known that he wrote it?

When Butler began his career he went over the state crying "Rise the program of the risk should be "banned". This unsound paper is a feeble imitation of his evil example.

notice a point or two in the circular. It is stated in paragraph 16 that those who prompted Mr. Cotten to pass the stock law are deserting him like rats leaving a burning barn.

Torrens Land System Advocated by Clark

To the Editor: Having advocated this measure in my candidacy for the House of Representatives, I think a system that insures a man's title would not be out of place.

No harm can possibly come from a system that insures a man's title to his own property and allows him to borrow money on that property without the inconvenience and expense of each time having his title looked up and mortgage drawn.

The Torrens System has been adopted by several states and has without an exception proven a perfect success for those who wish to use it.

If the system is adopted by North Carolina a land court will be organized and maintained on the funds contributed by those wishing to take advantage of the conveniences of said system.

This court will proceed to investigate and perfect the titles that come before it and give certificates for the number of acres of land owned by each participant.

Having received this certificate of title the land owner is given the same advantages in borrowing money or selling property as the owner of corporation stock now has.

The owner of real estate can deposit his certificate of title with any bank and borrow money on his property without the extra expense of each time having title looked up and mortgage drawn.

Welcome Tobacco Farmer

Within two days from issue of this number the 1912 Greenville Tobacco season will be officially opened and a few days later the song of the auctioneer, the rapid pencil and pen scratching, the heavy rattle of cart wheels bringing in the loads, the overtime working of the bank clerks and a generous flood of money will make it a certainty.

Farmers from Pitt and adjoining counties will again bring the fruit of their labors, the piles will be methodically arranged in the spacious floors of our five magnificent warehouses and we'll be selling tobacco. When the fray is over, after many weeks of incessant toil and the exchange of the crops for the crisp bank certificates and the shining silver dollars, it's a sure bet that Greenville will lead Eastern North Carolina once more.

It is not a spirit of jingoism that makes us set down that statement. Greenville has led the market before and naturally with the big crop already housed and ready to be sold, it is not risking much if we say that once again this market will make a mark for itself in tobacco selling.

On the other hand conditions in this part of the state and facilities offered by the people making up the Greenville market make up a combination that can't be beat. Five warehouses with an approximate capacity of 120,000 feet of selling space throw their doors wide open to the tobacco farmer.

Seven enterprising firms on the market represented by capable buyers ready to go to the limit for their concerns. No wonder that a conservative tobacco man on the market says that Greenville can handle one million and over pounds of tobacco every working week. Factories fitted with the most modern machinery and giving employment that represent many thousands of dollars every season are here ready to handle with the greatest ease the output of the market.

No wonder, we repeat, that taking all these facts into consideration, the Greenville tobacco market has led and will again lead this season for the Entire Eastern North Carolina.

Every year additions are made to our warehouses and the newest machinery erected in our factories to keep up with the ever increasing demands of our growing market. Moreover, this season an entire new warehouse has been added to the already four established ones, and farmers will find in this new warehouse improvements such as its very latest arrival have made possible.

Managers of our warehouses pay the most careful consideration to the matter of the auctioneers that actually sell the tobacco. No man that holds a position in any of the houses has not been engaged after his worth to work in this market had been ascertained beyond all manner of doubt. This again has a great deal to do with the success of our market. Men trained for efficiency in the position they occupy. At the head of each warehouse men of integrity, men whose close acquaintance with the tobacco farmer, makes them valuable friends of the farmer when he has to dispose of his crop through them.

For years past, Pitt farmers, and farmers from other counties have found it to their advantage to bring their tobacco here. There is not a more shrewd man than the farmer and he soon finds out whether it is to his advantage or not to market his product here or there. For this reason the growth of the tobacco market in Greenville is in a measure a great compliment to the men and firms who compose it. The endorsement of the tobacco farmer, implicitly given by his coming to Greenville, is valuable both for the men on the market and the farmer.

We are told that approximately fourteen million pounds of tobacco will be sold this season. We would like to see the prophecy realized. In the meantime we welcome to the Greenville market all those farmers whose confidence in the honesty of treatment accorded them here has made Greenville their market and in the name of the Greenville Tobacco Market we invite all those others who heretofore have not had an opportunity of availing themselves of the great advantages offered the tobacco farmer here.

MANY THANKS

We wish to thank those firms who, through their timely help with information have made this page possible. Of course, in helping us they are helping themselves, perhaps because of that proverb "The Lord helps him who helps himself."

Compare Figures of 1909 With 1912.

1909—11,285,000 pounds were sold; 1912—9,265,000 pounds were sold for $1,066,993.01, or on an average of $121.648.62, or an average of $8.93.

1910—8,103,000 pounds were sold for $883,136.17, or on an average of $10.90. (These figures were furnished by Mr. E. B. Ferguson, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade.)

FIRMS THAT CONSTITUTE the MARKET

GUM WAREHOUSE

Owned and Operated by the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company. After many alterations and additions of value the New Gum Warehouse will throw open its doors this season to the farmers under the management of Mr. O. L. Joyner, the President of the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Co.

NEW BRICK WAREHOUSE

Owned and Operated by Gorman and Gentry. The New Brick Warehouse, the latest addition to the Greenville market is everything that the latest building devices can make. Light, air, floor space, automatic scale, convenient accommodations for farmers and their horses, in fact each and every detail that will make this new house a model for tobacco farmers.

STAR WAREHOUSE

Owned and Operated by the Farmers' Consolidated Tobacco Company. The Star one of the oldest tobacco warehouses in Greenville and also one of the largest, owes a great deal of its popularity and success to the efforts of its manager, Mr. P. D. Foshall, who is closely acquainted with most of the tobacco farmers within a radius of many scores of miles.

CENTER BRICK WAREHOUSE

Owned and Operated by Messrs. Brinkley, Rice and Spain. This warehouse, close by the Atlantic Coast Line Depot, is because of the warm, honest and courteous treatment accorded the farmer, one of the most popular of the so-called independent houses.

LIBERTY WAREHOUSE

Owned and Operated by the Liberty Warehouse Company (S. T. Hooker, Proprietor and Manager). The Liberty Warehouse has the distinction of offering more selling space than any other warehouse on the market.

EXPORT LEAF TOBACCO CO.

Leaf Tobacco Buyers and Exporters. As its name implies this firm does a buying and exporting business and pays an important part in the Greenville market. It has and operates here a modern plant where many hands are employed throughout the season.

HUGHES, MEADE & CO. Buyers.

Among the prominent firms of Greenville is that of Hughes, Meade and Co., organized in 1910. They are buyers of leaf tobacco on order and they are also extensive exporters. They employ a large force and own and operate an extensive plant equipped with the very latest machinery for the steaming and packing of the leaf.

THE IMPERIAL TOBACCO CO. OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND. Buyers and Manufacturers.

Like the American Tobacco Co., the Imperial Tobacco Co. of Great Britain and Ireland is too well known to require any comment here. Like the American, also, this company has a most complete and extensive plant here to take care of the tobacco it buys and its dealings in the market are comparatively responsible for its success.

T A PERSON & CO. Buyers.

Since its establishment in 1903 this firm has been doing a magnificent business in the Greenville market, always keeping ahead of the times by installing the most modern machinery in their factory. Capitalized at $20,000 and with still the addition of more machinery this firm is ready to take care of 25,000 pounds of tobacco daily.

LIBGETT-MYERS TOBACCO CO. Buyers and Manufacturers.

Although a comparatively new firm when classed with such concerns as the American Tobacco Co., and the Liberty Warehouse, it is one of the oldest established firms in the market, its birth dating back to 1896, when with a capital of $25,000 it began business. They are buyers of leaf tobacco on order or contract. This firm has had a most successful career since its establishment and has proved of great value to the market.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO. Buyers and Manufacturers.

This is one of the strongest companies in the world and are well represented here in Greenville. Comment upon the nature of business done by this branch of one of the strongest concerns in the tobacco world would be a waste of time, as the nature of their transactions is too extensive for us even to attempt a short sketch.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO. Buyers and Manufacturers.

The American Tobacco Company's force in Greenville this year will be composed as follows: E. B. Ferguson, Buyer. T. A. Duke, Asst. Buyer. R. C. Bagby, Bookkeeper. G. A. Clapp, Factory Foreman.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO CO. Buyers and Manufacturers.

This is one of the oldest established firms in the market, its birth dating back to 1896, when with a capital of $25,000 it began business. They are buyers of leaf tobacco on order or contract. This firm has had a most successful career since its establishment and has proved of great value to the market.

GENERAL BOOTH DIED IN LONDON
Salvation Army Head Peacefully Asleep
HAD BEEN AILING FOR YEARS
Probable Successor of Earnest Social Worker is His Eldest Son. Whole World Mourns Booth's Death
LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Rev. William Booth, general and commander in chief of the Salvation Army, passed away at 10.15 tonight. He was born in Nottingham in 1829.
The veteran Salvation Army leader was unconscious for forty eight hours previous to his death. The medical bulletins had not revealed the serious nature of the general's condition, which for a week past, was hopeless.
Twelve years ago General Booth underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract in his left eye. For two days after the operation indications justified the hope of the general's recovery. Then, however, septic poisoning set in and from that time, with the exception of occasional rallies, the patient's health steadily declined.
The general recognized that the end was near and often spoke of his work as being finished.
Throughout the commander in chief's illness his son, Bramwell Booth, chief of staff of the army and Mrs. Bramwell Booth, gave their undivided attention to him both night and day.
The aged evangelist died at his residence, the Brookstone, Hadlow, some eight miles from London, where he had been confined to his bed ever since the operation.
Public interest now centers in the question of a successor to the late commander. Under the constitution of the Salvation Army the general nominates his successor. That General Booth did several years ago, placing the names in a sealed envelope which was deposited with the Salvation Army's lawyers with instructions that it should not be opened until after his death. While nobody knows what name the envelope encloses, the general belief among the Salvation Army is that it will prove to be of Bramwell Booth, who for 30 years has been its chief of staff.
Where General Booth will be buried has not yet been decided. While every English member of the Salvation Army is convinced that no man was more worthy of interment in Westminster Abbey, it is not expected this honor will be awarded to General Booth by the Abbey authorities. It is the general belief that the commander in chief's last resting place will be along side that of his wife, who 21 years ago was buried in Abney park, Stoke Newington.

NEW BANKING BUILDING FOR "OUR" GREENVILLE
BANKING AND TRUST COMPANY TO ERECT SOLID STRUCTURE ON NEW BOUGHT LOT
EXPENDITURE WILL BE ABOUT $20,000
The Greenville Banking and Trust Company, one of Eastern North Carolina's most progressive banking institutions, is about to erect a magnificent banking building on the lot recently purchased on Main street. Hooker and Anthony are at present occupying the site but will find a new home sometime between now and the fall when the building operations will be started by the Greenville Banking and Trust Company.
Mr. C. S. Carr is already in receipt of the plans of the new building. These were shown by him to a Reflector representative this morning and we can truthfully say that they leave nothing to be desired, both in magnificence and solidity of appearance and in the distribution of the offices.
When this building is completed Greenville will have further occasion to be proud of the Greenville Banking and Trust Company and the directors of this institution will have something to show for their faithful labor.

On arrival the guests were welcomed by the hostess and presented to the guest of honor. Cherry smash was served by Miss Margarette Higgs.
The home was tastefully decorated with potted plants and asters. Baskets of asters were suspended from the chandeliers.

The games were played with much enthusiasm. At the conclusion of the games Miss Tuelbelle Forbes was declared winner of the "Euchre" prize, a deck of cards and Miss Hilda Critcher of the "Rook" prize, a box of handkerchiefs. The guest of honor's prize was a "boudoir cap". The visitors' prize which was won by Miss Robertson of Rocky Mount, was also a "boudoir cap". "The Search for Fairyland" In Central Park, New York
NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—A blanket indictment charging murder in the first degree was returned by the grand jury late this afternoon against Police Lieutenant Charles Becker and four gangsters in connection with the murder of Herman Rosenthal.
Letty Louis, Whitey Lewis, Dago Frank and Gyp the Blood.
Schepps was again the central figure in the Rosenthal murder case to day when he appeared before the grand jury to repeat the story he told District Attorney Whitman in which he corroborated in many essential details the confession of Jack Rose, implicating Police Lieutenant Becker in the killing of the East Side gambler, Herman Rosenthal.
It was this story of Schepps that Mr. Whitman desired the grand jury to hear before returning further indictments in the Rosenthal case.
Schepps's counsel, Bernard Sandor, declared that while his client was in the grand jury room that Sandor would make a clean breast of everything.
Other witnesses examined today were the clerk of a hotel at Far Rock away, where the gunman celebrated after the shooting and a photographer who made a group picture of them there.
Detective Casazza testified in regard to the police hunt for the murder suspects. Charles S. Pitt, described as Becker's press agent, also testified.
These witnesses it was said completed the testimony desired by the district attorney before he asked the grand jury to present a blanket indictment.
Sam Schepps' first act this morning was to give the keeper of the West Side prison a list of articles he desired to alleviate his confinement.
These included an undersown quilt, two pairs of white socks to be purchased at an exclusive Fifth avenue haberdashery which Schepps designated; a pair of slippers and many toilet articles.

First Bale of New Cotton Reaches Norfolk
NORFOLK Va., August 20.—The first bale of new cotton for the season of 1912-13 arrived in Norfolk this morning. It was consigned to Savage Son and Company and was shipped by R. J. Blackwell, of Marion, S. C., where it was raised. It came in over the Atlantic Coast Line Railway.
The grade of the new cotton was strictly middling and was sold to George Hogman and Company at 14 cents a pound. Cotton dealers look upon it as an indication that the crop this year will be of exceptional quality.
Let year the first bale of new cotton was received in Norfolk on August 22nd about two weeks earlier than this year. In 1910 the first new bale was received in Norfolk on August 24, a few days later than this year's first bale.
