

Good Roads Movement to be Launched by Carolina Club

OPERA HOUSE FOR GREENVILLE IS CONSIDERED

After weeks of stalling heat, during which period activities in any direction seemed to be out of the question, the Carolina Club is to resume its campaign for improvements for county and community.

OLD PITCHERS VERSUS YOUNG

Are Veteran Stars Preferable to Collection of Newcomers?

WHICH WOULD MANAGER PICK?

Would He Take Marquard, Alexander, Gregg and Johnson in Preference to Mathewson, Coombs, Bender, Rucker or Walsh?

By TOMMY CLARK. If a big league manager had his pick today between a squad of veteran pitchers and a squad of youngsters which would he select?

Baseball men, as a rule, accept without argument the proposition that Mathewson is the greatest pitcher in the world, and they base it upon the fact that he has been great for a decade.

Ed Walsh is certainly a great pitcher. Year after year the big spitballer has gone along and stood all tests. Napolean Rucker is counted truly great. McDrew of the Giants claims that he is one of the best left handed of all times, and he bases it largely upon the fact that the southerner has been great during all the years of his service.

Bender and Plank will have everlasting place in the hall of fame. These two established their class—not one year, but year in and year out, and there is no indication that they have commenced to decline.

One of the new generation of pitchers who are still regarded in the light of youngsters, but who cannot be denied recognition as among the greatest of the time, is Walter Johnson, the Washington speedster. There are many people who believe that Johnson is the best pitcher in the country today, but that sort of proposition would always provide a long argument.

It is the object of this institution to enthrone Pitt counties and Greenville's toward better things and their energetic tackle of the hotel proposition has fall given evidence of what the Carolina Club can accomplish when it starts.

At an early date the Carolina Club is to hold a meeting when these matters will be properly threshed out and it seems that a strong campaign will be started to get Good Roads and that Opera House.

CIGARETTES ARE BAD FOR WOMEN

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson Has Declined Views on Subject.

A CONFUSION OF NAMES

Wife of Democratic Candidate Gives Out Letter Taking Strong Stand on Smoking Habit.

New York—For the first time since Woodrow Wilson became the Democratic presidential candidate his wife, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, has been interviewed by a reporter, although heretofore she has made special requests that she be not quoted nor written about in the papers.

What Mrs. Wilson wished to have fully understood was that it is she who is the first lady of the land who will not, as has been said, give a distributed interview, but packages of cigarettes in her personal desk at the White House and indulge in smoking them with her callers.

Through Governor Wilson, Mrs. Wilson asked that publicity be given to a letter she had written to the editor of the State Journal at Columbia, O., repudiating an alleged interview with her in which she defended cigarette smoking for women.

Dear Madam—I can scarcely think of any greater calamity to the young women of this nation than to read such a proclamation as your interview offers. I am a workman and I see men lose their jobs almost every day because they are incapacitated for work by the use of the cigarette.

Smoking cigarettes is a question of manners, not morals. It promotes good fellowship. Some women feel that a cigarette calms their nerves and helps their work. Personally I have never smoked a cigarette. I enjoy it as I enjoy after dinner coffee.

The editor of the Ohio State Journal, it was clear, had been much incensed at the article for the cigarette habit among women attributed to Mrs. Wilson, as he wrote on Aug. 19 an editorial in which he called for the defeat of Governor Wilson or a repudiation from his wife.

It is reported that papers which are supporting the bull moose have ordered extra copies of "The" and they will be secured when they get to talking.

Wonder how the colonel likes being an outcast?

World's Sculling Champion Practices on Thames For Meet With Barry. Great interest is being attached to the coming sculling contest between Ernest Barry, the challenger, and the present champion, Dick Armit. Though this race is scheduled to take place on July 23, Armit has been out on the Thames learning the deviating water course and hardening his muscles in preparation for the contest.

As yet, despite the apparent interest, Barry is finding great difficulty in raising the $2,500 which he has guaranteed Armit as expenses to cover the trip up from Australia, and he is so worrying him that training is next to impossible until the source of the amount is in clear view.

HOW HORINE WAS SAVED. Osteopaths Prevent Operation on Jumper's Knee and Preserve Sinews. Those who admire the high jumping of the California wonder, George Horine, do not know how near the surgeon's knife came to ending the athlete's career of the Stanford man.

Two or three years ago Horine twisted his knee, and in doing this a minute portion of the ligament was broken off. Occasionally this loitered the jumper, and about eight months ago he went to the doctors for advice. Nothing would satisfy them but an operation, and Horine went to Dad Moulton, his athletic mentor, to tell him that he was to undergo an operation on the knee.

Black Jack Tobacco at the Star Warehouse

ACRE OF TOBACCO BRINGS $214.00

Quite one of the notable sales so far in the tobacco market was that of an acre of tobacco from the Black Jack district, which brought $214.00 at an average of over 20 cents a pound. People who have been growing tobacco warehouses for some time pronounced this tobacco as some of the finest they had ever seen and the record price it brought certainly did "second the notion". The proud and lucky seller of the tobacco was Mrs. Jessie H. Hardy, of Black Jack. Mr. Foxhall says he is making some of the best sales in the market and the above certainly substantiates what he says.

"WHOLESALE GAMBLERS" ARREST

Fayetteville Club Members Caught by the Police

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Sept. 2.—Five additional indictments have been returned against members of the Fayetteville Industrial Club, the most fashionable social organization of this city, charging them with gambling in the club rooms, while several of the eight club members who were indicted appeared before Judge Dray and submitted to the gambling charges.

The indictments returned were against C. C. McAlister and T. G. McAlister, prominent in the lumber trade; W. P. Claxton, of a cigar company; H. M. Pemberton, a piano dealer; and J. Sprunt Newton, a well known member of the bar. The counts against Messrs. Pemberton and Newton were not pressed by Solicitor Smith when the cases were brought up in court.

The defendants submitting on whom Judge Dray suspended sentence on payment of the costs of the cases, were C. N. Dunn, wholesale grocer; E. E. Cochran, of a book and music company; E. J. Lilly, an insurance agent; A. H. Shocomb, Jr., a naval store manufacturer; Joseph E. Updegraff, a broker; and Mayor John Underwood and A. L. Williamson, secretary of the Holt-Morgan Cotton Manufacturing Company.

The remaining defendant, L. B. Hale, who is clerk to the House of Representatives' Committee on Reform in the Civil Service, is in Washington. C. C. McAlister is also out of the city and their cases together with that against Mr. Hale were continued to the next ensuing court.

PENN STORM KILLS MANY

Over Twenty Drowned and Many More Missing

WEST VIRGINIA ALSO SUFFERS

Houses and Railroad Tracks Swept Away by Searing Torrents as Down Pour Continues For Hours

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—Twenty persons are known to have been drowned and many others are missing following a series of storms which swept over Western Pennsylvania and the panhandle of West Virginia early today.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Panhandle Railroad were badly washed out. It is stated that days will pass before traffic can be resumed.

Through trains were marooned during the night in the wooded districts. Many mansions and houses were under water and the property damage will be heavy.

Reports from colliers in the panhandle of West Virginia are that nine persons have been drowned there and many more are missing, but the exact loss of life cannot be ascertained until the searching parties along the valley of Hannock's Creek have completed their work.

The storms came after a day of unusual heat and burst with little warning. Rain fell in torrents, small streams soon became raging torrents. Houses were swept away and lives lost before the people were aware the flood was upon them.

Cherry Valley, a mining town on the creek, was flooded within half an hour after the rain began to fall. Foundation of houses were undermined and they toppled over in the flooded streets. The Gillespie family were asleep and did not hear the shouts of warning. They were drowned in the house and the bodies of the children were found on the little boat in front of the house.

Ell Hancock, a farmer in the outskirts of Barstowtown, when he heard the sound of flood, rushed to the stable to save his horse, but was drowned and a son who went to his rescue was swept away, but catching the branches of an overhanging tree threw himself to safety.

Cannonsburg, Pa., also suffered from the storm, hardly recovered from a like experience last week. Charles Creek, overflowed its banks and swept through the town, flooding the railroad and trolley tracks, and many of the streets. A number of houses were filled with water, but the residents received ample warning and hastened to places of safety.

Hancock, who lost his life, had turned back to recover some valuable papers. He was seen to enter the front door as the house collapsed. His body has not been recovered.

An unknown boy fell into the flood when the porch of a house where he had taken refuge went down and although scores of persons attempted to save him he was swept away. The body had not been recovered this morning and his identity had not been established. A number of children in the community are among the missing.

The foreman who had taken refuge on the roof of a house on the stream on the edge of Cannonsburg ed in the flood. At Avela, Washington county, 3 children of Henry Crow were drowned. The house was located near a little stream which rose so rapidly that it undermined the building and when it collapsed Mrs. Crow was badly injured. Crow hastened to her rescue and saved her, but before he could return for the children they were swept away. They were Amelia, aged 15; John, aged 12; and Grace, aged 4. Two other children were tossed about for a time on the surface of the flood and then thrown on the bank of the stream, where they were later found by the distracted father. After spending the force south and west of Pittsburgh the storm swung north to Butler county, where great damage was done, but so far known no lives were lost.

Oil derricks were blown down, small streams flooded and scores of persons spent the night in lumber camps while repairs were being made to lines and tracks. The Pittsburgh baseball club was on one of the trains delayed by the city's flood and did not reach the city until 1 o'clock in the afternoon until one o'clock this afternoon compelling postponement of the morning game with the Chicago at Forbes field.

To Probe Into Crime Syndicate

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The extraordinary term of the superior court called by Governor Dix "for a speedy vigorous prosecution of indictments which may be found" as a result of the Rosenthal murder investigation convened today with justice John W. Goff on the bench. Some rapid fire developments of an sensational character as those that followed the famous Lexow investigation some years ago, and which resulted in putting several high police officials into prison stripes, are expected to result from the testimony of grand jury, resort keepers and other ten dollar habitués who have been subpoenaed before the grand jury now in session. As rapidly as indictments are returned accused persons will be before the Justice Goff for trial.

Senatorial Contest is Warming Up

Raleigh, Sept. 1.—The senatorial campaign, which was inaugurated last spring when Judge Clark and Governor Kitchin, became active candidates, will open up now until the election in November and it is expected that the friends of all three candidates will become aggressive. For six months Governor Kitchin has been carrying the campaign into every quarter of the state; Judge Clark has made over a dozen speeches in the last month and Senator Simmons' friends have spoken a score of times. Senator Simmons will not himself get into the fight but his supporters will and Judge Clark who is tied down by the sessions of the supreme court will make week end tours in the interest of his candidacy.

Democrats visiting the capital say that the senatorial campaign has already become warm in their sections, although not many of the speakers have become aggressive. It will be noted by the sessions of the supreme court will make week end tours in the interest of his candidacy.

Negro Tragedy Near Bethel

Two Revolvers Found Near Body of Willis Harrington, a Negro With a Hatful of Blood

At about 5 o'clock yesterday morning the body of Willis Harrington, a negro was found near the house of Mr. J. H. Whitehead, a farmer of Lighthousen, was summoned and towards eleven o'clock he held an inquest over the deceased.

According to the evidence elicited from the witnesses hastily summoned from the neighborhood, it was ascertained that another colored man, William Henry Casson, had done the fatal shooting and the coroner's report charged him with the killing, together with Susan Williams, the woman in the case.

It seems that Susan who does general housework for Mr. Jim Taylor and the freed with her parents had been carrying on a love affair with one of the men. Probably the other negro interfered or tried to, and the result was last Sunday morning's shooting. The three parties in the crime had got together Saturday evening at a house in the neighborhood and when they returned to the Williams home in the small hours of the morning, William Harrington, upbraided Susan Williams for paying attention to Casson and this led to the quarrel in which Harrington found his death.

Several witnesses testified before the coroner had heard the shooting towards four o'clock in the morning one of them especially, John Crandall, who lives about 200 feet from the spot where Harrington's body was found, distinctly heard five shots fired in rapid succession and two a little later.

Moore, together with Geo. Johnson made an examination of the ground surrounding Harrington's body and close to him they found an Iver Johnson pistol and a 32 Smith and Wesson hidden in a clump of bushes.

On being questioned, Susan Williams told that Casson killed Harrington, but that she took no active part in the killing. She was brought back to the local jail yesterday, where she is being held, until a 1 o'clock inquest is being made in an effort to capture Casson, who had made his escape before the murder had been discovered.

Winked at Defendant, Judge Fines Man

FAYETTEVILLE, Sept. 1.—J. L. Roberson, one of the noted dealers here whose cases have attracted much interest, was tried in criminal court and a mistrial resulted, the jury standing ten for conviction and two for acquittal. Last night Judge Bragow tried the two jurors who were for acquittal on the ground of contempt of court and improper conduct, the action being based on an affidavit of one of the jurors in the case. The juror, John V. Jones, came clear, while the other, H. C. Burke, was fined $50 and costs. An appeal was taken by Burke's lawyer, E. G. Davis.

Judge Bragow at a late hour set aside all other testimony and made his ruling on the evidence that the respondent, Burke, while walking the streets to dinner with the balance of the jury, winked at the defendant, Roberson and that Roberson smiled back at him.

Wisconsin Primary Day

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 3.—Wisconsin voters engaged in a general primary election today for the nomination of candidates for governor and other State officers, representative in Congress, members of the Legislature and county officers. Four tickets are on the ballot, Democratic, Republican, Prohibitionist and Social. The Democratic Governor McGowan was supported for re-nomination on the Republican ticket, though the hostility of Senator LaFollette to the Roosevelt party may have the result of bringing into the field later on a rival candidate to Governor McGowan. The Progressive will hold a convention today for the nomination of a candidate for governor. They were Adolph J. Schmitz and John C. Kard both residents of Milwaukee.

United Synagogue in Session

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 2.—The United Synagogue of America began its 26th annual convention in Chicago today with an attendance of members representing the printing industry of the entire country. The convention will be three days and will be devoted to the consideration of a variety of questions of importance to the trade. The most of the members report the present condition and the future outlook of the printing industry as very satisfactory.

Birthday of Former Queen

HONOLULU, Sept. 2.—Former Queen Liliuokalani, who entered up on her seventy-fifth year today, held a large public reception in honor of the anniversary. During the day she received presents and messages of congratulations from friends and followers in all parts of the islands.

Ted Roosevelt is Full of Fight

From the Bull Moose Mansion in Oyster Bay, Ex-President Sends Note of Refiance to His Peers

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 1.—In his letter to Senator Clapp, made public today, Colonel Roosevelt believes that he has a complete victory as the result of a walkout caused by any testimony bearing on him that was given before the senate committee that investigated campaign contributions.

"I have answered every question as fully and explicitly as is possible," he said. "I think I have covered the ground. Of course I cannot go on indefinitely explaining the things which always are being brought up. They are brought up five million times and after I have explained them five million times they are brought up again, just as though I had never explained them."

To illustrate his point, the colonel said that his opponents were always saying that the corporations contributed to his 1904 campaign and that he had denied it, although he said, he had denied merely that money from corporations had been accepted in return for promises for favors from the government. In the Democratic text book just issued, he said it had stated that the U. S. Steel Corporation had contributed $100,000 to his campaign.

"I never said that no such contribution had been received," said he. "I have no knowledge of such a contribution, but if it was made, I suppose it was a perfectly proper one."

Col. Roosevelt will leave shortly on the principal speaking tour of his campaign. After stopping at Hartford from 11 until 2:30 tomorrow he will start on his way to Springfield, Mass. No election is scheduled until he arrives at St. Louis at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

Minnesota State Fair Opens

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 2.—The Minnesota State Fair opens today with every indication of setting a new high mark for success. The management this year is bringing up a total of $85,000 in cash prizes, which is said to be the largest amount ever offered at a State fair anywhere in the country. The result of the best prize list is a record-breaking display in almost every department. The machinery is the largest ever seen in the Northwest. The domestic art halls, the agricultural section and the live stock pavilion are filled with high-class exhibits. An excellent program of light business racing was inaugurated today and will continue through the week. Aeroplane flights, balloon ascensions and vaudeville shows will afford additional entertainment for the visitors.

They Want Taft in Helma

THELMA, Sept. 1.—At a Republican convention held in the town of Helma on the 29th day of August, R. J. Lewis was elected chairman and Ashley Wilkins secretary. And being duly organized, eight precincts best represented by 19 Republicans present. On motion of A. Wilkins, resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing the administration of President Taft and vice President Sherman and secondly of State Chairman Jas. M. Morchard. Then delegates and alternates were elected to the Republican convention to be held at Charlotte, N. C., on September 4, 1912 and after electing a county executive committee adjourned.

It's Simmons in Randolph

RANDOLPH, Sept. 1.—At the Democratic primary Saturday Simmons for the senate received unanimous endorsement, with the exception of two for Clark. Kitchin had no supporters. All the county officers were endorsed for reelection.

REASONS FOR A STRONG NAVY

It is highly regrettable that vast sums of money should be spent in the construction of battleships which within a few years would be obsolete. All sensible men should hope for the early coming of a time when the greater part of our naval expenditure can be given up. Mr. Carnegie is of the opinion that we need practically no navy at all. He defends his view with strong logic. Mr. Roosevelt believes that we should build the two battleships a year and for the present keep our navy in its relative rank and highly efficient. Those who hold this view believe that the cost of a strong navy is a small price to pay for peace and security. They consider the navy as a whole, in relation to its objects. Since we have in any case a large and expensive navy on our hands, they would argue that the entire expenditure becomes virtually meaningless if we are not willing to pay the additional sum that would make our navy commensurate with its objects. They would say that an unfinished ship is as useless as an unfinished ship. We can easily afford to stand next to Great Britain and ahead of Germany, France and Japan in naval strength, if we believe that it is worth while to build battleships at all. A navy that is losing its relative rank could scarcely give us that sense of security that must go with a navy that is gaining strength as fast as those of other maritime powers. Holding to our program of shipbuilding just now may help to hasten the date of an international agreement under which such lamentable expenditure of resources can be rapidly and permanently remedied. For the present we must have a strong navy, because we owe it to ourselves and to the world that peace shall be maintained. There is no international organization for peace keeping, and we must do our part. The stronger our navy, the sooner will come the welcome day when all the maritime powers can abandon at least three-quarters of their naval expenditures.

GOOD WORK BY THE HOUSE

The work of the Democratic House has been far from perfect, yet it has been fully as good as could have been expected. Its tariff work in the extra session, early in 1911, has stood the test of public discussion to a remarkable extent. It does not seem to us an exaggeration to say that without regard to party, there was general approval of the Underwood bills. When those measures, with some compromises and changes, were accepted by the Senate, through the co-operation of the Progressive Republicans, there was a more general acquiescence and approval throughout the country than has been accorded to any tariff legislation since the Civil War. President Taft's vetoes of those measures last month were not sustained by public opinion. His action against last month in vetoing tariff bills was not unexpected, inasmuch as it had been practically announced in advance that he would obstruct the path of any tariff bills that could be criticized from his argumentative standpoint. An organization of protest was launched by housewives who, if compelled to pay insurance for domestic servants will reduce wages. A more serious difficulty in the way of the smooth working of the law is the opposition of the doctors, represented by the British Medical Association, who are unwilling to attend the workmen at the rates of pay offered by the government. It will be January 15 next before any benefits can accrue to those who are insured and it seems probable that in the meantime the doctors and the government will come to some working agreement.

STREET PEDDLERS

places to buy foods, fruits and confections, the street stands and pushcart peddlers take the first place. Did you ever stop for even a few minutes to watch the various ways in which these foods are continually exposed to dirt and disease? Who has not seen some more or less unkempt, filthy looking foreigner hovering around an old push cart loaded with the cheap, old grades of sticky candies, stale nuts and overripe fruits? In many cases his entire stock of wares is exposed to flies and dirt. Some of the more progressive vendors now have their candies and fruits protected from flies by means of mosquito netting. But this affords little protection against the clouds of dust that are stirred up by street sweepers, gusts of wind, and passing vehicles. The idea of having to inhale such dust is revolting enough, yet in this case it is eaten—only in a disguised and more palatable form. All thoughtful persons recall at once the possibility of eating dangerous germs in dried tobacco material from the street sweepings.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

In his speech of acceptance President Taft said the great issue before the people was the retention of "popular constitutional representative government." It never occurred to Mr. Taft that the greatest period of unrest in this country since the war days has been brought about by the millionaire trust owners, who by shouting about popular government, have made a farce of common every day justice. The Payne-Adrich tariff bill tax, which Mr. Taft signed, did more than any other one thing to make the people dissatisfied with the particular brand of "popular constitutional representative government," that Mr. Taft and his aides have administered.

SEAR PLUMS

The ownership of one half interest in the Western Sugar Refining Company netted the Havemeyer interests $12,950,000 in 21 years. In one year, 1898, this concern paid the Havemeyers six hundred thousand dollars. When the company was organized the Havemeyers put in a million dollars capital and the Spreckles people another million. Two years later this money was returned to the investors, so that all the profit they subsequently took out was "velvet." Thus the tariff on sugar is shown to be a good thing for the millionaire owners of the sugar trust.

CARNEGIE AND PEACE

Andrew Carnegie is raising a bulabulo because somebody praised Pittsburgh's part in the manufacture of equipment for fighting ships. "Pittsburgh's triumphs are those of peace," writes Andrew. Strange he was not so wrapped up in peace in the years gone by when he was piling up millions out of the manufacture of steel for Uncle Sam's warships. Wasn't it Carnegie's hirelings who shot down the Homestead strikers in cold blood when they tried to organize a union at the steel mill? He wasn't so peaceful then.

MEAT PRICES HERE AND ABROAD

On Friday, August 24, prime air line of beef sold in London for 19 1/2 cents per pound and in New York for 28 cents per pound. Just at present prices are higher in this country than ever before, while the identical cuts that bring such high prices here are sold in London for about two thirds as much. This despite the water haul, first from Chicago to the two rail hauls, first from Chicago to the Atlantic sea board and from Liverpool to London.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

Majority Leader Underwood, chairman of the Ways and Means committee of the House of Representatives, estimates that the American people would have saved just $650,000,000 next year had the Senate and the President approved the tariff revision bills sent up to them by the Democratic House.

GOV. WILSON AND THE BULL MOOSE

Next President Points Out Party Flaws

MAKES THOROUGH ANALYSIS

No Federal Commission to Regulate Monopoly—Against the Minimum Wage Idea, as Undermining Men's Associations.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Governor Wilson today analyzed the third party platform in its relation to the laboring man.

The occasion of his speech was a labor day celebration under the auspices of the United Trade and Labor Council. It was the first expression from the democratic candidate on the merits of the Progressive platform.

The governor said that while on the one hand was to be found there "warm sympathy with practically all projects of social betterment," that part was merely "a proclamation of sympathy," which the real program lay elsewhere "where the tariff and trusts are spoken of."

The governor assailed the minimum wage idea, declaring that employers would take occasion to bring their wage scale as nearly as they could down to the level of the minimum permitted by law.

With the idea of a federal commission to regulate monopoly, the governor took emphatic issue. He declared that the plan suggested not only would legalize monopoly, but give the chief employers of the country a "tremendous authority behind them."

"What the employers do will have the license of the Federal government, including the right to pay wages approved by the government, declared Governor Wilson. He pointed out that it always had been the policy of the masters of the consolidated industries to undermine labor in a great many ways and that a plan of Federal control as advocated by the new party systematically subordinate workmen to monopolies and looks strangely like economic mastery over the very lives and fortunes of those who do the daily work of the nation."

MRS. JOHN EARLY WANTS A DIVORCE

WIFE OF FAMOUS LEPER EARLEY WANTS TO PROTECT HER CHILDREN AS MALADY GROWS.

PRACTICALLY SURE TO OBTAIN DECREE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Allegations of a most sensational nature involving extreme cruelty, are contained in the divorce papers of Mrs. John Earley, wife of the leper whose detention in Washington aroused a bitter controversy, and whose transcontinental flights ended at Tacoma, Wash., according to a dispatch from that city.

Early is now at the Diamond Head quarantine station on Puget Sound, where he was removed in March this year, after a county, state and United States Government had been appealed to by frightened residents of the district where he lived.

His disease during the last month has reached the easily contagious stage. Mrs. Early, who has had the divorce summons served on Early, has been in a hospital since April through nervous prostration.

Her three children, Manley, Paul and Loyal, are also living in seclusion in Tacoma with the past commander of the United Spanish War Veterans in the care of his mother, Mrs. Lamar.

Mrs. Early alleges that even after Early knew he was a leper he tried to conceal the knowledge from her.

The Spanish War Veterans camp raised $538 to buy Mrs. Early a home, all this money will be used by Mrs. Early as she chooses after her release from the hospital.

Early acquired leprosy in the Philippine Islands during the Spanish-American War. The best experts in the United States have differed as to whether he had leprosy until the disease had made itself plainly visible.

Mrs. Early, it is said, long wished for a divorce for the protection of her children.

Country Wide Booth Services

Messages From Royalty and Presidents Poured Into the Association Headquarters

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Filled to overflowing with fervent leaders and eager followers, Memorial hall at the National headquarters of the Salvation Army in this city was the official center of services held today at more than 900 Salvation Army posts throughout the country in memory of the late General William Booth. The services were also a part of similar memorials in 5,000 posts and outposts throughout the world, all of which being ordered at 3 o'clock, constituted, in difference in time is considered, virtually a continuous 24-hour service in which millions of followers paid tribute to the late founder of the army.

Services here were preceded by a parade of national and local officers headed by the national staff band. Over 500 men and women were in line.

The day was not only memorial to the founder of the army but consecration to carry on his work for humanity under oath of allegiance to his succeeding son, General Bramwell Booth. The congregation sang the general's favorite hymns, while tributes which the king and queen of England, President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt, Joseph Choate and many other distinguished persons had paid to the general were read. In the absence of Eva Booth, commander of the American branch of the army, who had gone to her father's funeral, Colonel Peart, of the national staff, delivered the formal address of the day, extolling the character and achievements of General Booth.

The other speaker was Dr. D. L. Ritchie, head of the Theological Seminary at Nottingham, England. General Booth's three sons were educated in the seminary and Dr. Ritchie spoke from intimate acquaintance with the family.

AMERICAN RANCHER SLAIN BY REBELS

JOSH, STEVENS DIES DEFENDING LIVES OF HIS TWO DAUGHTERS ON A MEXICAN RANCH

FIFTH AMERICAN KILLED BY INSURGENTS

EL PASO, Texas, September 2.—Murdered by a rebel soldier while protecting his two daughters was the fate of Joshua Stevens, an American settler of Colona, Pacheco, according to a report received by O. P. Brown, business agent here of the Mormon colonies in Mexico.

It was at first reported that Stephens, who was killed last week, had not died at the hands of an American, but this report was sent, it is said to avoid trouble with the rebels, who still infest the American settlements to the southwest of Jaurez.

Two rebels visited the Stephens home with apparent intention on the two young women of the household. Stephens met the intruders with a shot gun and escorted them to the limits of his property.

According to the story told by his daughters, one of the Mexicans drew a sword bayonet from his belt and thrust it into the American's body. Stephens fired and fell dead over the man whom he had slain. The other Mexican fled.

The case has been investigated by Junius Romney, president of the colonies. It is said to make the fifth murder of American settlers by rebels in the district.

President Romney has issued a warning that no families return to the colonies until quiet is restored. It is declared that the Federal soldiers strung out between Jaurez and Chihuahua have not left the railway and that the American colonies are absolutely protected.

Early is now at the Diamond Head quarantine station on Puget Sound, where he was removed in March this year, after a county, state and United States Government had been appealed to by frightened residents of the district where he lived.

Rural Carriers Get Good Raise

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Under authority conferred by the post-office appropriation bill Postmaster General Hitchcock today increased the salaries of rural letter carriers on standard routes from $1,000 to $1,100 a year thus affecting 30,000 men, with proportionate increases on shorter routes. The order will become effective September 30.

This will mean an increased disbursement of $4,000,000 a year. It is the second salary advance for rural carriers made in the last four years.

At the close of the last fiscal year, on June 30, there were 42,931 rural mail carriers, the aggregate pay being $40,655,740. When the rural delivery system was instituted sixteen years ago 53 carriers were employed, at an annual cost of $14,840, the maximum individual pay being $200 a year.

The increase provides rural carriers adequate compensation for additional burdens to be imposed by the parcel post system, effective January 1.

"The parcel post system on rural mail routes can be conducted practically with no extra expenses to the government, except the increased salary allowance to carriers," said Mr. Hitchcock. "In my judgment this additional cost will be more than offset by an increased revenue, thus insuring the maintenance and, from time to time, the extension of the rural delivery system as a self supporting branch of the postal service."

Mr. Hitchcock has directed also that rural mail carriers, on the completion of twelve months' service, be granted fifteen days leave with pay. This will require the additional expenditure of $30,000 a year in the payment of substitutes.

North Dakota and Roosevelt

FARGO, N. D. Sept. 5.—Colonel Roosevelt is to carry his campaign into North Dakota tomorrow. His program calls for special speeches in this city and Jamestown, with a number of short addresses at train-stops. Roosevelt visit has aroused much interest among the politicians of all parties here and there is a great amount of speculation as to what he may have in the coming election. The political situation in North Dakota at the present time is probably different from that presented in any other state. In the Republican primaries last spring Roosevelt was badly beaten by La Follette. The delegates to the national convention at Chicago voted for La Follette from start to finish. It is said that many of the Progressive leaders here are still inclined to look upon Roosevelt as having been responsible for the elimination of the Wisconsin senator from the presidential race. The Democrats have undertaken an energetic campaign to turn the anti-Taft votes from Roosevelt to Wilson. Whether the Roosevelt visit will be able to stem the tide of this movement remains to be seen.

Progressives Meet at Syracuse SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Several thousand enthusiastic delegates and visitors rallied in Syracuse today for the opening of the state convention of the Progressive party. In order that there might be ample time for the speech making it was decided by the party leaders to make the convention a two day affair. Today's program provided for but one session, devoted to the work of organization and winding up with an address by Governor John S. Watson of California, the vice presidential candidate on the Roosevelt ticket. The real business of the convention will be transacted tomorrow.

Watkins Hears the News ADA, O., Sept. 5.—Rev. Aaron S. Watkins, the Prohibition candidate for vice president, was formally notified of his nomination at his home here today. A number of Prohibition leaders of national prominence were in attendance.

Calgary Welcomes Connaught CALGARY, Alta., Sept. 5.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught and their party arrived in Calgary this afternoon and were accorded a patriotic welcome in which the thousands of carnival visitors joined with the people of Calgary. A guard of honor of the 163rd regiment of Calgary rifles was drawn up on the station platform when the ice-cream train arrived. The regimental band played the national anthem while the mayor and provincial officials extended the formal greeting to the Governor-General. The distinguished visitors are to remain in Calgary until a number of other social functions arranged in their honor.

Montana Republican Convention GREAT FALLS, Mont., Sept. 5.—Republicans of Montana assembled in state convention here today to select candidates for United States senator and representatives in Congress and a complete ticket of State officers to be voted for at the November election. It is the first time in the history of the state that the choice of a candidate for United States senator has been made in convention.

September 5 1761—Zachariah Poulson, publisher of the first daily newspaper in the United States, born in Philadelphia. Died there July 23, 1914.

1805—Malta capitulated to the British. 1842—Lord Ashburton left the United States after having concluded the important treaty that bears his name.

1847—Jesse James, the noted bandit, born in Clay county, Mo., April 3, 1852.

1873—Great Britain paid the indemnity awarded in the Alabama claims. 1898—Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands ascended the throne.

1905—Japanese and Russian envoys signed the treaty of peace at Portsmouth, N. H.

Sir John Newell Joddan Sir John Newell Joddan, for many years a leading figure in the British diplomatic service, was born in County Down, Ireland, September 5, 1852, and received his education at Eton College. He served in the diplomatic service covers a period of more than thirty-five years and has confined wholly to the Far East. He began as a student interpreter in China in 1876 and became successively the assistant secretary and secretary of the British legation at Peking, consul general in Corea and minister resident at Seoul. With the Japanese occupation at Corea he returned to Peking to become the British minister there, a position which he still holds.

GOV. WILLIAM J. BRYAN: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is admirable. It is original in its treatment of the issues of the campaign. I am sure the address will impress the country favorably."

JOHN W. KERN, SENATOR, INDIANA: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is a masterpiece, setting forth with great clearness his conception of the work to be accomplished by the Democratic party under his leadership. It is in complete harmony with the progressive sentiment of the country, but also appeals strongly to every legitimate business interest."

GOV. VIRGINIA H. MANN, OF VIRGINIA: "I think it was an admirable speech. It was wise, conservative, comprehensive, prophetic not only of Democratic success but of Democratic supremacy, for years to come."

GOV. FREDERICK W. PLAISANT, OF MAINE: "It is a splendid presentation of the issues for the American people. It rings true in every sentence and in every word. It represents the spirit of the Democracy of today. It is the address of a statesman."

GOV. EUGENE FOSS, MASSACHUSETTS: "It was an admirable presentation of the real issues upon which the campaign will be fought this fall. I think that it is bound to strengthen Governor Wilson among the thinking people of the country."

GOV. GEO. W. DONAGHEY, ARKANSAS: "It was a great speech. It will ring through the country. It is just what he should have said. The people have never felt more confident of success since the first nomination of Grover Cleveland."

JOHN E. LAMB, EX-REPRESENTATIVE FROM INDIANA: "Speech is discreet, able, safe and sane. Governor Wilson believes in the efficacy of the scalpel rather than the big stick. His dissection of trust and tariff evils is unique and convincing. His suggestions of reform in the methods of government and reduction of tariff schedules will meet with approval of legitimate business and the laboring masses as well."

HOKE SMITH, SENATOR FROM GEORGIA: "I am delighted with Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance. It is a superb statement of the present purpose of the Democracy and points the way for justice to all through real progress by law, under the Constitution. With his election assured, it should give confidence to honest business and new courage to those who need a square deal."

JOHN F. FITZGERALD, MAYOR OF BOSTON: "Governor Wilson's acceptance is characteristic of the man. He lays his soul bare to the people and asks them to join with him, irrespective of party, in righting present wrongs without undue clamor or injury to legitimate interests. He is a man of the highest type of thinking and I believe this epitomizes one of the nation's greatest needs at the present time. It will be President Wilson overwhelmingly in November."

THOMAS MOTT OSBORNE, AUBURN, N. Y.: "Governor Wilson's speech fits the occasion and the man; progressive but not wild; sane, strong and unmistakably Democratic. It makes an inspiring appeal to the people, indicating clearly and nobly the spirit in which the leaders of our regenerated Democratic party must work: not one of mere partisan make-believe, but of honesty and justice toward all."

CHAMP CLARK, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES: "Considered from a literary standpoint Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance will take high rank in the political output of the year. It will make pleasant reading, and, therefore, will prove a fetching campaign document. He discusses the issues of the day philosophically, clearly and forcibly. His courteous tone will ally opposition and win him friends. It is an admirable pronouncement."

Further questions nettled the mayor or still more. "I decline to answer, he cried when asked if his system was defective. Curran to Sue Gaylor For Libel New York, September 10.—"The time for handling Mayor Gaylor with kid gloves is past," Alderman Curran, chairman of the aldermanic committee, investigating graft in New York, declared in a formal statement issued today.

"If Mayor Gaylor is not on hand at this afternoon's session of the committee he will be served with a subpoena and if he fails to respond I follow going to the courts to compel him to answer."

Alderman Curran's statement followed on the heels of Mayor Gaylor's refusal yesterday to confer with him regarding the committee's procedure. Mr. Curran repeated his declaration today that he had instructed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Mayor Gaylor, charging the Mayor with having made "maliciously false statements" about him.

Alderman Hamilton, a member of the committee, said: "I endorse every word Alderman Curran has said. The Mayor has trifled with us long enough."

Gotham's Mayor Goes Before Aldermanic Committee Investigating Police Grafting Probe

MUCH ABUSED TOWN OFFICIAL, AFTER SEVERE THRASHING ADMINISTERED BY METROPOLITAN PRESS CEASES TO IGNORE THE CLAMOR OF NEW YORK'S CITIZENS AND WILLINGLY CLIMBS WITNESS CHAIR.

Chairman of Committee, Curran, Instructs That the Mayor be Sued

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Amid a burst of handclapping William J. Gaylor, mayor of New York, took the witness chair at the City Hall this afternoon and was sworn in by Alderman Curran to testify before the Aldermanic committee appointed to investigate graft in the police department.

We are anxious to know, said Mr. Buckner, counsel for the committee, at the outset, how the mayor keeps in touch with conditions in the police department.

Majorly by letter from the commissioner, the mayor replied. Sometimes he talks with me.

Is there no special way in which you keep advised of conditions? Have you any special system?

Have you had any system of reports for ascertaining general conditions in the city for any week or any month?

Oh, yes, said the mayor wearily. I have hands and legs and ears and feet.

But you have no way of learning conditions except through the commissioner? Insisted Mr. Buckner.

Oh, take it that way if you want, replied the mayor.

Mr. Buckner pursued this line of questioning until the mayor lost his temper. "I came here to help the committee and give you facts, shall withdraw as a witness if you do not ask me pertinent questions as to whether the police department has failed to enforce the laws," he exclaimed.

Further questions nettled the mayor or still more. "I decline to answer, he cried when asked if his system was defective. IS SIMMONS A PROGRESSIVE?

Let W. J. Bryan's Commoner Answer The Commoner does not take part in contests between Democrats exceeding where a principle is involved. He is not a progressive and it is a mystery to the outside world why a state like North Carolina has tolerated him so long.—The Commoner, August 30.

Trinity College Names New Electric Battery Cars For Dormitory Jarvis Hall

The new dormitories at Trinity College will be called Jarvis Hall, Aycock Hall and Alspaugh Hall, after Governor Thomas J. Jarvis, whose administration set the state in the way to material prosperity in which it is now traveling. Governor Charles B. Aycock, who made popular education the chief motive of his administration and Colonel J. W. Alspaugh, of Winston, the oldest living graduate of the College and one of the men who stood in the breach in the days of financial struggle. So voted the executive committee of the board of trustees at their meeting today. In commenting upon the action President Few says that Trinity College, although it rests upon a private foundation, is a state institution just as much as if it were supported by public taxation. The heroes of the state are its heroes; and it counts as a privilege to name two of its buildings after two distinguished governors of the state, the one now dead and the other full of years and crowned with honors, both of whom it can already be safely predicted will rank among the greatest North Carolinians of their generation. The honoring of Colonel Alspaugh will be approved by all who know intimately the history of the college.

Societies Gather With Howe's Big London Circus

The Great London Shows Consolidated will appear in Greenville Friday, Oct. 4th.

With the Glasgow World Famous $25,000 Regular Horse of Circuses acts is fully up to the standard set by the Howe Circus in the past. The Bartik Parisian troupe, are seen for the first time in America, the original Xanforta Family are among the big acts; Marie Meers of the Meers Sisters, the Riding Lowander, the Kentucky High School Horsemasters are seen only with this show. The clowns are funny, the gymnasts clever, the elephants numerous and the menagerie is large.

A free street parade will be given of great length and beauty.

American Bankers in Session DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 10.—At the opening of the thirtieth annual convention of the American Bankers' Association today between 1,500 and 2,000 visiting bankers, representing all sections of the country, were present. The amount of capital represented is given at upwards of $10,000,000,000.

Could Sink Singer Building Building Material Being Put To Good Use in This Town

At no time during its career as a community has Greenville witnessed so many buildings being erected at the same time. Never has such activity been felt as it is the case at present.

Work at the Hotel Proctor building is proceeding with a rapidity that speaks well for the contractors. The brick work is being pushed at a great clip, some people being of the opinion that by Saturday next the bricklayers will be out of the hole. We hope so; for when they get to the level of the street every body will be able to tell everybody else just where the elevator will be, where the offices will be located, etc. etc.

Manford's new store will be completed in another two or three weeks and by its present appearance it will surely be something worthy of a Main street.

Winslow's stables are being rushed to take care of the horse and mule market opening an event which will be finished this morning, with today's sales coming right behind. The Centre Brick did a good business and was again well provided this morning. Foxhall's Star, which took a rest yesterday was crowded this morning when sales were started.

Today as well as yesterday, some of the men "higher up" in the tobacco world are on the Greenville market and this reinforcement was felt in the prices.

Although not so much tobacco was on the market four of the five warehouses had on good sales today, something like 250,000 pounds being sold.

A much needed rest was taken up at the New Brick, where the tremendous amount of 121,084 pounds was sold yesterday. The Gem disposed of 36,000 pounds. Sales at this last warehouse as well as at the Liberty were finished this morning, with today's sales coming right behind. The Centre Brick did a good business and was again well provided this morning. Foxhall's Star, which took a rest yesterday was crowded this morning when sales were started.

Recent developments in the South do not appear to include any serious encounters. Rebels are reported to be operating in Durbin, Morelos and the State of Mexico.

Delayed reports tell of a battle lasting nine hours near the town of Pittsford. The rebels were finally repulsed by Major Ocaranza, commanding a force equipped with machine-guns.

A new rebel movement of which details have been obtained, has been reported from Muziz, State of Coahuila. Several bands of revolutionists have appeared along the line of the International Railway and there is some reason for believing that their objective is the border town of C. P. Diaz.

MEXICAN REBELS USING FRONTIER

Make it a Base For Their Operations SUPPLIES BEING CONCENTRATED

Mexicans Do Not Believe That Uncle Sam Will Take a Hand At Quelling Insurrection

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Mexican rebels under General Salazar, who began late yesterday a concerted attack upon the town of Ojinaga, opposite Presidio, Texas, were driven off by the federals and are now retreating southwardly in the direction of San Bernardino, according to a dispatch received at the War Department from General E. Z. Steves at El Paso.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—More disquieting reports of the situation on the Arizona border continued today to reach the War Department. Mexican rebels were said to be gathering in the vicinity of Cananea preparing for a long and forced march. Forces and supplies were being concentrated.

Although every effort is being made to learn the objective point of the most formidable expedition since Orozco's force was scattered, no satisfactory explanation has been found. Scouts report a force of close to four hundred well armed rebels opposite Quitman, Texas, while fifteen hundred more are reported encamped ten miles to the rear.

General Salazar still remains at Cabalones and is being closely watched by the American patrol to prevent intervention in Mexico. It was declared at the National Palace today that conditions are steadily growing better instead of worse and that it is a question of only a short time when peace will be restored. In the meantime every effort will be made, it was announced to protect foreign investments and their property.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The American Bankers' Association convention was suspended today, while the three sections, those dealing with trust companies, savings banks and clearing houses, held their annual meetings. The feature of the day in which most interest was manifested was the address delivered before the trust company section by George M. Reynolds, of Chicago, on "The Money Trust Inquiry." Postmaster-General Hitchcock spoke before the Savings Bank section on the "Federal Reserve Loans and the Banks." The clearing house section devoted the opening session to a discussion of technical matters affecting clearing houses.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The same order reigned at the hearing this morning. The two younger boys, notified by Stokes as the leader and with threats made them follow into the store, even helping them to scale the window through which entrance was gained.

Stokes denied this and exhibiting a pair of badly burned arms, swore that he did not do the climbing and that his wrists would have prevented it. The property that was stolen has been recovered, except for a few cartridges that were fired. The boys were bound over to Superior Court.

The clearing house section devoted the opening session to a discussion of technical matters affecting clearing houses.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—The general sessions of the American Bankers Association convention were suspended today, while the three sections, those dealing with trust companies, savings banks and clearing houses, held their annual meetings. The feature of the day in which most interest was manifested was the address delivered before the trust company section by George M. Reynolds, of Chicago, on "The Money Trust Inquiry." Postmaster-General Hitchcock spoke before the Savings Bank section on the "Federal Reserve Loans and the Banks." The clearing house section devoted the opening session to a discussion of technical matters affecting clearing houses.
