

FARGO, N. D. Sept. 5.—Colonel Roosevelt is to carry his campaign into North Dakota tomorrow. His program calls for special speeches in this city and Jamestown, with a number of short addresses at train-stops. Roosevelt visits has aroused much interest among the politicians of all parties here and there is a great amount of speculation as to what he may have in the coming election. The political situation in North Dakota at the present time is probably different from that presented in any other state. In the Republican primaries last spring Roosevelt was badly beaten by La Follette. The delegates to the national convention at Chicago voted for La Follette from start to finish. It is said that many of the Progressive leaders here are still inclined to look upon Roosevelt as having been responsible for the elimination of the Wisconsin senator from the presidential race. However, the Democrats have undertaken an energetic campaign to turn the anti-Taft votes from Roosevelt to Wilson. Whether the Roosevelt visit will be able to stem the tide of this movement remains to be seen.

Progressives Meet at Syracuse SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 5.—Several thousand enthusiastic delegates and visitors rallied in Syracuse today for the opening of the state convention of the Progressive party. In order that there might be ample time for the speech making it was decided by the party leaders to make the convention a two day affair. Today's program provided for but one session, devoted to the work of organization and winding up with an address by Governor John S. Watson of California, the vice presidential candidate on the Roosevelt ticket. The real business of the convention will be transacted tomorrow.

THINK OF HART & HADLEY, Hardware GREENVILLE, North Carolina

"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is admirable. It is original in its treatment of the issues of the campaign. I am sure the address will impress the country favorably." JOHN W. KERN, SENATOR, INDIANA: "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is a masterpiece, setting forth with great clearness his conception of the work to be accomplished by the Democratic party under his leadership. It is in complete harmony with the progressive sentiment of the country, but also appeals strongly to every legitimate business interest."

GOV. WILLIAM H. MANN, OF VIRGINIA: "I think it was an admirable speech. It was wise, conservative, comprehensive, prophetic not only of Democratic success but of Democratic supremacy, for years to come." GOV. FREDERICK W. PLAISTED, OF MAINE: "It is a splendid presentation of the issues for the American people. It rings true in every sentence and in every word. It represents the spirit of the Democracy of today. It is the address of a statesman."

GOV. EUGENE FOSS, MASSACHUSETTS: "It was an admirable presentation of the real issues upon which the campaign will be fought this fall. I think that it is bound to strengthen Governor Wilson among the thinking people of the country." GOV. GEO. W. DONAGHEY, ARKANSAS: "It was a great speech. It will ring through the country. It is just what he should have said. The people have never felt more confident of success since the first nomination of Grover Cleveland."

JOHN E. LAMB, EX-REPRESENTATIVE FROM INDIANA: "Speech is discreet, able, safe and sane. Governor Wilson believes in the efficacy of the scalpel rather than the big stick. His dissection of trust and tariff evils is unique and convincing. His suggestions of reform in the methods of government and reduction of tariff schedules will meet with approval of legitimate business and the laboring masses as well."

HOKE SMITH, SENATOR FROM GEORGIA: "I am delighted with Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance. It is a superb statement of the present purpose of the Democracy and points the way for justice to all through real progress by law, under the Constitution. With his election assured, it should give confidence to honest business and new courage to those who need a square deal."

JOHN F. FITZGERALD, MAYOR OF BOSTON: "Governor Wilson's acceptance is characteristic of the man. He lays his soul bare to the people and asks them to join with him, irrespective of party, in righting present wrongs without undue clamor or injury to legitimate interests. He is a man of the highest type of thinking and I believe this epitomizes one of the nation's greatest needs at the present time. It will be President Wilson overwhelmingly in November."

THOMAS MOTT OSBORNE, AUBURN, N. Y.: "Governor Wilson's speech fits the occasion and the man; progressive but not wild; sane, strong and unmistakably Democratic. It makes an inspiring appeal to the people, indicating clearly and nobly the spirit in which the leaders of our regenerated Democratic party must work; not one of mere partisan make-believe, but of honesty and justice toward all."

CHAMP CLARK, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES: "Considered from a literary standpoint Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance will take high rank in the political output of the year. It will make pleasant reading, and, therefore, will prove a fetching campaign document. He discusses the issues of the day philosophically, clearly and forcibly. His courteous tone will ally opposition and win him friends. It is an admirable pronouncement."

Further questions nettled the mayor or still more. I decline to answer, he cried when asked if his system was defective. Curran to Sue Gaylor For Libel New York, September 10.—"The time for handling Mayor Gaylor with kid gloves is past," Alderman Curran, chairman of the aldermanic committee, investigating graft in New York, declared in a formal statement issued today.

"If Mayor Gaylor is not on hand at this afternoon's session of the committee he will be served with a subpoena and if he fails to respond I follow going to the courts to compel him to answer." Alderman Curran's statement followed on the heels of Mayor Gaylor's refusal yesterday to confer with him regarding the committee's procedure. Mr. Curran repeated his declaration today that he had instructed his counsel to bring suit for libel against Mayor Gaylor, charging the Mayor with having made "maliciously false statements" about him.

Alderman Hamilton, a member of the committee, said: "I endorse every word Alderman Curran has said. The Mayor has trifled with us long enough."

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 10.—With a record breaking display in almost every department, the Wisconsin State Fair opened its gates today for a week's business. In connection with the fair a was opened this afternoon a race meeting under the auspices of the Great Western Circuit.

"Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is marked with broad vision and clear thought, expressed in language every American citizen understands. As a business man and manufacturer, I am especially pleased with his positive and statesman-like position on the paramount issue of tariff reform and his demand for an immediate downward revision. In sincerity, precise statement and comprehensive grasp of great principles and their application of the fundamental needs of the country, the speech is Jeffersonian to the core. It contains no appeal to passion and excites no prejudice. Governor Wilson has presented to his party and to the nation, clear conception of the truth and progress upon which the pending campaign is between the concentrated powers of privilege and the aspirations of the people to realize, in their government, and their economic, industrial and social relations, the full measures of the principles of freedom and justice. The reforms he advocates are far-reaching, but they are necessary, sound and practical. The speech will awaken and stir the national conscience and lead to a triumph that will restore to the people the control of their government and inaugurate a new and happier epoch in the life and development of the republic."

NEW YORK "WORLD": "Governor Wilson's speech of acceptance is the ablest, clearest, sanest statement of high public purpose this country has known in a generation. Without passion, without invidiousness, without partisan bitterness, without denunciation, without egotism, without demagoguery, he has driven a straight line to the heart of the supreme issue of American institutions—the partnership between Government and Privilege."

NEW YORK "TIMES": "It is applicable. The dominant thought, the very soul of his discourse, is the common interest of all the people, their partnership in our activities and our prosperity. The partnership idea comes from his mind, not as a sublimated political theory, but as a practical, immediate remedy."

MEXICAN REBELS USING FRONTIER SUPPLIES BEING CONCENTRATED ARE CHARGED WITH STEALING YOUTHS CAUSE NO END OF LAUGHTER AS THEY SERIOUSLY CROSS-EXAMINE EACH OTHER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Mexican rebels under General Salazar, who began late yesterday a concerted attack upon the town of Ojinaga, opposite Presidio, Texas, were driven off by the federals and are now retreating southwardly in the direction of San Bernardino, according to a dispatch received at the War Department from General E. Z. Steves at El Paso.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—More disquieting reports of the situation on the Arizona border continued today to reach the War Department. Mexican rebels were said to be gathering in the vicinity of Cananea preparing for a long and forced march. Forces and supplies were being concentrated. Although every effort is being made to learn the objective point of the most formidable expedition since Orozco's force was scattered, no satisfactory explanation has been found. Scouts report a force of close to four hundred well armed rebels opposite Quitman, Texas, while fifteen hundred more are reported encamped ten miles to the rear.

General Salazar still remains at Cabalones and is being closely watched by the American patrol to prevent intervention in Mexico. The situation at Ojinaga, where there are several Americans, is causing this government some uneasiness. Instead of a strong federal garrison, as reported, it has been learned that the federal commander has only 1,200 men. The rebels are gathering in increasing numbers in the vicinity.

What Mexico Thinks MEXICO CITY, Sept. 10.—Government officials continue to regard as absurd the reports that the United States government is seriously considering intervention in Mexico. It was declared at the National Palace today that conditions are steadily growing better instead of worse and that it is a question of only a short time when peace will be restored. In the meantime every effort will be made, it was announced to protect foreign investments and their property.

Postmaster-General Hitchcock spoke before the Savings Bank section on the "Federal Reserve Loans and the Banks." The clearing house section devoted the opening session to a discussion of technical matters affecting clearing houses.

Hayes Swears Waldo Ordered Him to Stop Raids In His District

EX-INSPECTOR HAYES, ON STAND, MAKES DIRECT ACCUSATIONS AGAINST HEAD OF NEW YORK POLICE DEPARTMENT. RECEIVED DIRECT ORDERS FROM WALDO TO KEEP "HANDS OFF" FROM CENTERS OF VICE AND DISORDER. LATER SOUGHT TO HAVE HIM DENY THAT HE HAD RECEIVED SUCH ORDERS FROM THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT. KNEW IT WAS IN VIOLATION OF THE LAW.

Comissioner Waldo on Stand Says He Obeyed the Law and Not Mayor Gaynor

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, recently a police inspector but reduced to captain because Commissioner Waldo says he mislaid instructions given him, went on yesterday.

Hayes was his own best witness. From him in unqualified terms came the charge under oath:

That Waldo had sought by threats and intimidation to force him to deny that he had received orders forbidding him to go into disorderly houses for the purpose of suppressing them;

That Waldo had been directly responsible for the lack of effort in the Fourth Inspection District to close disorderly houses and gambling places;

That Hayes had made monthly reports of his lack of effort to the Commissioner, whose orders he was carrying out;

That when Hayes did overstep the orders and conduct raids on disorderly houses, he had been assailed and rebuked by the Commissioner;

That in the presence of First Deputy Commissioner McKay, Waldo told him (Hayes) not to make raids that McKay wanted made;

And, finally, that in ordering him to make no raids, Waldo had practically compelled him to allow violations of the law and thereby caused Hayes to violate his oath of office.

The District Attorney has uncovered a mass of evidence in the Rosenthal case showing that illegal rackets were wide open in the Fourth Inspection District but it was this condition that caused the trial yesterday, although Hayes was the commander of the district involved. The Commissioner made no charge against his subordinate on this score; Hayes is being tried not on the accusation of neglecting his duty, but because he said out loud that the Commissioner had told him one thing, while the Commissioner declared he had said another.

The case, growing out of so insignificant a source, promises to be rich in results before its conclusion is reached. It was learned last night that the hearing of yesterday had produced such striking evidence along certain lines that District Attorney Whitman would attend today's session to familiarize himself with matters that are believed to be certain subjects for Grand Jury action.

The fact that the case went on at all was a surprise until it was pointed out that in going ahead Thomas B. Thacker, counsel for Hayes, has scored a shrewd point. Lawyers hold that when Hayes was reinstated Thursday for the purpose of making a denial of statements attributed to him in the press all charges previous to the reinstatement were violated. It was expected that Thacker would offer the reinstatement as a plea to block the trial, but he did not do so. He chose the opportunity presented to him of defending the case, having everything to gain and nothing to lose. If he succeeds in acquitting Hayes, he is that much to the good, when if Hayes is "broke" Thacker can go to the courts on the plea that Waldo had no right to try Hayes after ordering his reinstatement. Thacker would not talk about this point yesterday, but it is known he has held conferences on the subject. One of the best lawyers in the city said yesterday there is no doubt that the contention is right and that as a result Hayes, through Waldo's blunder, is in an impregnable position.

The winner was uncomely slow in coming back to the point from where the race started and where his hand was raised. Furthermore, when he did come back he was ballasted with several rocks, bricks, empty bottles, timber and a flow of language which made the air turn blue around him. And, here comes the inconsistency of things material; although a winner in the modified marathon, the "nigger" was given his papers that caused the trial yesterday.

Stands on Record.

"The attempt to attack Gov. Wilson because of certain statements which he made in writing history and in commenting upon events of history as they appeared to him as historian, will fall signally. As our great metropolitan newspaper pointed out, Mr. Rosenberg and his kind are simply 'blowing against the wind.' Governor Wilson is running for President on his record as a public man and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses.

"He is running for President on his record as a public man and with that record the public is fairly well conversant, and it will continue to learn more as the campaign progresses.

Our republican brethren are entitled to all the thunder they can make out of Governor Wilson's writings. I hope they will read them carefully and thoroughly. They will be able to gain a great deal of valuable information and when the context is read along with the excerpts which have been taken from his works for the purpose of placing him in a false light, I have no fear as to the results. All that is needed is a thorough understanding.

Enfield Man Loses $10,000 in Notes

SCOTLAND NECK, Sept. 8.—T. Lee Whitaker was here Saturday from Enfield and while here lost several very valuable papers worth more than $10,000. Fortunately a little boy picked up the package on the streets and going in the store of J. W. Allbrook dropped one of the papers a minute for Evans. Mr. Allbrook happened to notice it and picked it up. He immediately tried to find Mr. Whitaker, but he had left town returning to Enfield. After going several miles on his journey, Mr. Whitaker missed his papers and immediately began a search for them, returning to Scotland Neck. Meantime Mr. Allbrook looked up the little boy and recovered the papers.

WOODROW WILSON IN SIDE CAMPAIGN

Comes Out Against Former N. J. Senator

"NO MORE MACHINE RULE"

The Democratic Party Program Was Once Shattered by Smith. Must Not Do It Again

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 8.—Governor Woodrow Wilson, Democratic Presidential nominee, today declared war on James Smith, Jr., a Democratic candidate for United States senator from New Jersey, an office which he held during President Cleveland's administration.

Governor Wilson expressed himself in a statement addressed to the voters of New Jersey, issued tonight. He pointed out that the return of Mr. Smith to power would mean a restoration of machine rule.

Two years ago Governor Wilson opposed Mr. Smith's candidacy for United States senator but on the issue that James E. Martine was the legal choice of the Democratic primaries. The governor was sustained by the legislature. Today the governor went a step farther in his opposition to Mr. Smith by charging him with utterly defeating the program of the Democratic party once before when the tariff issue was preeminent.

The governor's statement follows: "The return of Mr. Smith to power would mean a restoration of machine rule. It is my intention to prosecute any one trespassing on any of our lands with or without gun or dog, for any purpose whatever, without permission.

Notice is hereby given to the public that our lands lying along Tar River have been posted according to law and it is my intention to prosecute any one trespassing on any of our lands with or without gun or dog, for any purpose whatever, without permission.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD

The Belgian Socialists are actively organizing a huge strike of every kind of labor, by which they hope to secure universal suffrage pure and simple, as against the present plural vote, which gives the upper classes such an advantage over the lower.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor has framed the recent action of President Samuel Gompers, in revoking the charter of the Animagated Society of Carpenters and Joiners, which had filed to obey the order of the Atlantic convention that it unite with the United Brotherhood.

The Union of Salem, Ore., have succeeded in having the city council pass an ordinance providing that resident laborers shall have the preference over non-residents with contractors on public work. At the last election the city charter was amended so that resident laborers should have the preference and the ordinance carries the amendment into effect.

Army Worm Makes Its Appearance in Wayne

MT. OLIVE, Sept. 6.—The much dreaded army worm has put in its appearance hereabouts and, according to reports given in by some farmers, is playing havoc with the hay crop. Strange to say, where peas have been sown broadcast with a view to harvesting a crop of pea vines and hay mixed, it is said that the army worm is eating the fields clean of grass and leaving the peas standing.

Russia Remembers Borodin

MOSCOW, Sept. 7.—Modern Russia looks backward 100 years today in bow low to the writers who met the French legions in the sanguinary battle of Borodin, the fight which greatly weakened the strength of the invaders and led later to the disastrous retreat of Napoleon from Moscow. The battle was fought 100 years ago today near the little village of Borodin, not a great distance to the west of Moscow, where an elaborate program of festivities was carried out today in celebration of the centennial anniversary.

Wilson to Address Veterans

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 7.—With fluttering flags and martial music, the gates of Atlantic City were thrown open today to greet the delegates and visitors to the ninth annual convention of the United Spanish War Veterans and the Ladies Auxiliary of that organization. Headquarters were opened at the Hotel Rudolph this morning and several informal features of the convention program will be carried out tomorrow. Governor Woodrow Wilson will be here the first of the week to address the delegates and review the big parade, in which United States soldiers and sailors and the militia will participate with the veterans.

Moonshiner Gets Long Term

ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Sept. 6.—Abner Bryant was today sentenced to 13 years in the state penitentiary at Richmond for the murder of John Montcastle. The jury was out three hours before deciding on a verdict, several of them at first being for the death sentence.

The crime, committed November 9, 1911, was a cold blooded one. Both men were moonshiners and Bryant suspected Montcastle of telling on him. He met Montcastle and struck at him and when Montcastle fled shot him in the back. Bryant then escaped and was caught last January. His trial consumed four days.

PAUL, Minn., Sept. 9.—Nearly two hundred delegates representing state organizations in all parts of the country and provincial organizations in Canada are assembled in this city to attend the third biennial convention of the International Union of Steam Engineers which opened here today at the Ryan Hotel, the headquarters of the convention. COUNSEL IMPLICATES GAYNOR

According to Hayes Mayor Gaynor Tied His Hands in Proposed Aids to Inlet Resorts in Gotham

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The relation between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department, the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his policy formed the basis of a re-entireless cross-examination undergone by Mayor Gaynor today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector suspended on charges of making false statements reflecting on the commissioner.

For nearly an hour Thomas Thacker, Hayes' counsel, sought to read into the record the mayor's speeches and utterances on the vice problem. Thwarted in his efforts by Terence Farley, assistant corporation counsel, appearing for the police department, the lawyer finally gained recognition from the trial commissioner, Douglas L. McKay, this declaration: "The mayor's policy was one under which the social evil was recognized as an unconquerable problem which had to be endured, but that the evil had to be present a front of outward decency; that in the failure of Inspector Hayes to raid disorderly houses he was merely reflecting the policy, and that any orders issued to him by Police Commissioner Waldo were directly in violation of that policy."

Mr. Thacker was then permitted to proceed with his cross-examination along the lines he desired. "Does not Mayor Gaynor direct your witness to avoid raiding disorderly houses?" he asked the witness. "He does not, snapped the commissioner. "Have you ever observed the mayor's views on the excise question?" The mayor's views, Mr. Waldo replied, almost before the question had been asked, "were given to the police commissioner under Order No. 17 in 1910. That order is still in force."

"Don't you know the mayor's views on vice are that we have to suffer this evil?" "I don't know anything about the mayor's views except what he told me," he never told me anything like that."

Has Mayor Gaynor ever instructed you how to deal with disorderly houses?" "He has never given me any instructions on that subject."

As a matter of fact, you didn't expect Hayes to raid disorderly houses within his district did you?" "I expected him to raid every disorderly house as to whose operations he could obtain evidence."

You know, didn't you, that disorderly houses had flourished for six months in Inspector Hayes' district; that these houses were operating every day and that they were not being raided?" "Yes, I knew it. I knew that disorderly houses had been flourishing in that district for a year. But I presumed that Inspector Hayes was making every effort to close them up."

Commissioner Waldo was a refractory witness. His replies were long and couched in general terms and he had frequent encounters with Mr. Thacker. The district attorney's office expressed satisfaction today in the discovery of a Salvation Army lassie, who had rooms near the Hotel Metropole and was an eye witness to the murder of Rosenthal.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE OPENED DAY BEFORE YESTERDAY WITH EVERY SIGN OF ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL YEAR

WAKE FOREST, N. C., Sept. 6.—Wake Forest College opened yesterday with the largest enrollment in its history. Most all of the old students of the three classes who did not graduate last year have returned to continue their work. The freshman class is the largest by far of any year heretofore and there is yet a very sorry and a very bright prospect in every home, boarding house and dormitory is very nearly filled. Indeed the rooming capacity here is very limited. If the college had more rooming capacity, the number of students would be much larger than it is now. It is not over estimating it, when the writer states the enrollment this year will run close to five hundred. A few more days and the rush will be over, and the men will be right about it. In every regard this year bids fair to be the best year in its history of the institution.

Dr. Hubert M. Potest, who had a leave of absence for one year took up his active work this week as head professor in the Latin department of the college. Hubert, as we call him, is a much loved fellow by all the boys and it does us good to have him with us. He is a live wire in every phase of college life—athletics, societies, associations work, and class room work. He is a genuine man.

The friends of the college will be glad to know of the action taken a few days ago by the trustees of the institution, regarding a new dormitory. This has been much needed for some time and the trustees have at last heard the cry and are answering it in the form of a $40,000 building. The plans are being made and at a very early date the foundation will be laid for a new modern dormitory which will accommodate at least one hundred and fifty boys. Every one rejoicing over this good news, and before a great while we will have that which we need badly.

The Y. M. C. A. has planned to give a banquet in honor of this year's freshman class on next Monday evening. At this banquet it is hoped that most every man college will line up for the work the association has planned. It is trying to give to the fellows that which they will most need when they enter the arena of practical life and that needed is character.

Today was the first practice of football. Capt. Holding tried out both the old and the new men. Everything looks hopeful. The whole line of last year's team has returned and most of the back field men. There are quite a number of new men who bid fair to make good and more than fill in the vacancies of the old men who will not return. Coach Thompson will reach here Monday and begin his work of whipping the men into the very best condition possible. The largest senior class in the history of the college met today and elected the following officers: President, Sam Long. Vice president, L. C. Smith. Secretary, Joe Watt. Treasurer, N. E. Wright. Prophet, Frank Smithers. Oorator, W. T. Baucum. Poet, E. W. Lane. Historian, J. L. Carpenter. Executor, L. G. Young. Statistician, Henry J. Langston.

$300,000 DEAL AT KINSTON

KINSTON, Sept. 6.—A transaction involving more than $300,000 was completed here when a transfer of the property of the Ellington-Bryant Timber Company and the Kinston Manufacturing Company was made to J. S. Deal and Sons, Ray and Thurman Deal, of Norfolk, Va. Prior to the transfer of the Ellington-Bryant company's holdings to the Deals its property, which consists of some 125,000 feet of standing timber in Lenoir, and Jones and Duplin counties, was transferred to the Kinston Manufacturing Company and by the latter to J. S. Deal and Sons. After the transfer of the property had been completed a new company was organized and incorporated with J. S. Deal president; Thurman Deal vice president; Ray Deal secretary and treasurer; and G. V. Corper, ex-president, director. The new concern will operate the large lumber plant heretofore operated by the Kinston Manufacturing Company. The mill is one of the most modern and best equipped of its kind in eastern Carolina and has a large daily capacity.

LOCKE CRAIG SPEAKS

Locke Craig Specially Invited Those Republicans Seeking Party Government to Join Democracy

GREENSBORO, Sept. 6.—Locke Craig, Democratic candidate for Governor, spoke to the voters of Guilford county at the Grand Opera house last night, the burden of his speech being an attack on the Republican party for the industrial evils which he charged the party with allowing to creep into the life of the nation. He touched lightly on matters of everyday state concern, dealing with the national question which he considered the people of this state should be concerned over very strongly.

He called upon Republicans who desire justice and freedom and national unity to join the democratic party, and always the party of progress since the nation began. Mr. Craig said the Republican party had been broken into fragments that will never become united again.

He spoke for more than an hour while the crowd which well filled the opera house, and in which were many women, withstood the heat. He drew frequent applause, particularly as he attacked the opponents of Democracy and the creators of the evils in the land.

Congressman Stedman presided and presented Mr. Justice to introduce the speaker of the evening. Congressman Stedman said many years ago he was attracted by the personality of a certain young man, about whom he spoke then prophetically. Today, he said, he is the candidate for governor of this state and he ought to carry the state by a great majority, though it behooves every Democrat to go to the polls and vote his name is Locke Craig and he will be presented by E. J. Justice.

Mr. Justice said in beginning that all who know Mr. Craig would agree with his estimate of the man. "It is not often that one who introduces a man has the close relationship as the man I introduce and myself."

"I have seen him under all the circumstances that try men, have known him when he was popular to speak to the popular cry, but I have never known him when he did not stand for brightness, measuring other men by what he would like to be. I have never known the candidate for governor by the Democracy this year to sound a false note. He has never compromised any principle that affected the rights of the people."

"Instead of going to Congress from the tenth district I have seen him prefer to go to his legislature to fight for a reformation. "He has been nominated by a rejuvenated progressive Democracy in a year when boss control has been bettered to fight the great battle before this state."

DEMOCRATS HAVE $175,000 TO DATE

Fund Contributed by About 12,000 Persons

GEN. CARR HAS GIVEN $100

Up to Date Two $10,000 and 5 $5,000 Contributions Have Been Received by Treasurer Rolla Wells.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Twelve thousand persons have contributed thus far to the Wilson and Marshall campaign fund. The fund at present totals $175,000.

This was stated tonight at Democratic national headquarters, which at the same time made public a list of contributors containing, it was stated, the names of all who had contributed the sum of $100 or more to the fund.

G. McAdoo the acting chairman of the Democratic national committee declared a political standard, had been set by this election. "The American people," he said, "will never elect another President without knowing the sources from which financial support is drawn."

Rolla Wells, treasurer of the committee, declared that while the sum received was encouraging, it was "totally inadequate," to conduct the campaign properly, but he believed that contributions would continue.

The largest contributions made thus far were by Henry Morganthau, chairman of national executive committee; P. C. Penfield, a wealthy Democrat of German descent; and Gerry Goldman, a New York banker. Each gave $10,000.

Five $5,000 contributors were received. The givers were Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, who is vice-president of national finance committee; Rolla Wells, former Mayor of St. Louis, the national treasurer; Cleveland H. Dodge and Jacob H. Schiff, New York bankers, and Hugh C. Wallace of Tacoma, national committeeman from Washington.

TWO AVIATORS KILLED

STEVENAGE, Eng., Sept. 6.—Two more British army officers lost their lives while flying today.

Captain Patrick Hamilton had taken Lieutenant Steward with him as a passenger in his biplane. The two officers had flown for a considerable time when a strong wind suddenly sprang up and in endeavoring to make headway against it one of the wings of the aeroplane collapsed.

The machine fell to the ground from an altitude of 250 feet and was destroyed. The bodies of the two officers were found in the wreck. Captain Hamilton had obtained his pilot's certificate only on March 12th, this year. He was an infantry officer belonging to the Worcestershire regiment, but was attached for duty to the army flying corps.

German Aviator Killed by Fall

Munich, Bavaria, Sept. 6.—A German military aviator was killed near here this morning during a reconnoitering flight. Lieutenant Steger, of the Bavarian army, had ascended in his biplane to make a report of the position of the opposing force in the local maneuvers. The weather was very stormy and when his machine had reached a height of 33 feet it suddenly buckled and crashed to the earth.

Lieutenant Steger died shortly after he was picked up. He was a novice in aviation, having obtained his aviator's certificate only three weeks ago.

Labor Notes.

Three decisions have recently been made by the Illinois state supreme court which are important to the organized labor movement. The sus court sustained the constitutionality of the Women's Insubordination act, which was passed by the legislature in 1911; the constitutionality of the chauffeur's license automobile act, and the right of labor unions to call strikes or use any lawful means in maintaining and furthering their organizations.

Governor Wilson is Dr. Wiley's Champion in Pure Food Controversy

WESTERN PEOPLE HEAR DEMOCRATIC CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT DEFEND NOTED EXPERT OF THE CHEMISTRY DEPARTMENT, DR. HARVEY W. WILEY.

"Woody" Shoots Progressive and Republican Platform Full of Holes

At All Times a Young Man's Fancy Also a Woman's

SIoux City, Iowa, Sept. 17.—Firm support for Dr. Harvey W. Wiley in his controversy over the enforcement of the pure food country stood prominently in a speech by Governor Wilson at the Interstate Fair today.

He drew attention to what he considered to be the ineffectuality of boards of experts such as the board of chemists established under the administration of President Roosevelt. He is the custom with the people of use to a commission or board of experts to handle either the tariff or bridge. Among those who went thus to pass the time were a visiting young couple, Gov. Wilson visited for the first time a local young man. As time his objection to the tariff board these in slow trend measured the time his objection to the tariff board steel girders that spans the Tar, it was noticed by others passing that the couple had become very much engrossed in each other.

Whether the young man had reached the point of bringing before his fair companion the vision of a home in Greenville which he proposed that she share with him, with the incident discussion of planning and furnishing the same to the queen's taste, cannot be mentioned with certainty as the cause of their earnest conversation. All the same it was something that made them oblivious to all things going on around them. The hum of nearby voices, the rattle of passing wheels, the clatter of automobiles, were sounds that fell on deaf ears so far as these two were concerned. To them all the world was just these two and they looked neither to the right nor to the left, but at each other.

Finally there came an automobile bearing down upon them from the rear, and the cries of others to look out for danger attracted their attention not at all. On came the gas car, the chauffeur honking for dear life, but it swerved not the couple from the straight course they were pursuing nor distracted the interest riveted in each other.

There was to be a tragedy? Other pedestrians paused to see and those riding rubbered in expectancy. But the chauffeur kept his eye on the couple. He slowed down to limit and finally brought his car to a standstill within three feet of them. Hurriedly alighting he stepped quickly abreast the couple and politely asked if they would mind stepping a little to one side just long enough for the car to pass.

Then it was that they looked around and seemed to come back to earth long enough to find that a hundred eyes were riveted on them enjoying the ludicrousness of the situation.

The Reflector tenders its services to publish the announcement.

"They were not asked that question because if they had been they would have said 'Yes, it can be used in that way and Dr. Wiley knew that it was so used in that way.'"

"I want to warn the people of this country to beware of commissions of experts. I have lived with experts all my life and know that experts don't see anything except what is under their microscope, under their eye. They don't even perceive what is under their nose and an expert feels honor bound to confine himself to the particular question which you have asked him."

The Reason Why.
