MADE NAVIGATING OFFICER N. C. MILITIA

Captain James E. Clerk, senior member of the James E. Clerk Company, has been appointed by Governor W. W. Kitchin through the recommendation of Captain Thomas C. Daniels, of New Bern, N. C., commander of the North Carolina Naval Militia, navigating officer of the Second Battalion North Carolina Naval Militia with the rank of lieutenant. Captain Clerk has accepted the appointment. Lieutenant Clerk will also act as navigating officer of the Sixth Division North Carolina Naval Militia with headquarters in this city. This is quite an honor to our esteemed townsman and is worthily bestowed. Captain Clerk was the navigating officer on the United States steamer Elfrida when the Naval Reserves from here went on their annual cruise and for the start he proved his efficiency. This

We give below the list of initial contributors from Pitt county to Woodrow Wilson campaign fund. Lawyer C. C. Pierce has been appointed to look after these Pitt county contributions and already he is on the war-path after Democratic dollars which will give us a Democratic president.

The November election will give the Democrats of the United States a true Democrat in the White House. Co-operation is needed to place Wilson in the presidential chair and co-operation is expected and will be forthcoming as the list below indicates.

Every dollar contributed to the Wilson campaign fund will find the company of honest money when incorporated to the fund. No Oil trust money, no Steel trust money, no Harvey trust money, no Roosevelt or Taft only knows what trust money will rub against your money if given to elect the trustee type of Democrat ever nominated for the presidency. HOW ABOUT THE SCHOOLBOY?

"One of North Carolina's crying needs today is the medical inspection of schools and school children," said a prominent health authority recently. "Why?" he was asked. "Because it is a wanton waste of time, energy and money for parents and the state to endeavor to educate children when they have to dig their education out while laboring under a lot of physical defects or handicaps. Did you know," he added, "that taken the state over about 22 per cent of the school children have defective eyes, 10 per cent have diseased tonsils and from 30 to 40 per cent have hookworm disease, to say nothing of those having defective hearing, bad nutrition, skin diseases, lung diseases, etc.?" Furthermore, it is a crime against the innocents to send them to school to study under such handicaps.

Further inquiry brought out the following facts: Not one fond parent in a dozen realizes that there is anything wrong with his child. This is because many of these minor physical ailments have come upon the children so gradually that they are unnoticed by parent and child alike. Frequently one child will be found having several easily remedied defects. Many of these apparently minor ailments become serious defects or handicaps on the pupil's physical and mental ability if let go unheeded. Removing adenoids, fitting glasses to the eyes, treating hookworm disease, etc., frequently makes dull, backward children the brightest in the class. When such handicaps are removed children frequently advance in three years as far as they formerly advanced in four or five. Very few parents will permit such handicaps on their children when they once learn that they exist.

The ideal remedy would be the medical inspection of every school child in the state at least once a year. The medical inspector and teacher to notify the parents of any defects found. The parents will then, in most cases, have these defects remedied at once, and the child will be restored to his normal vitality and given an equal chance.

But not all of our school and health authorities are fully awakened to the importance of medical inspection of school children. Many of those that do appreciate its importance are not backed by public opinion. In a number of places in the state they already have medical inspection and this number is rapidly increasing every year. In the meantime, the best that most parents can do is to take their boys and girls to their family physician with the request that he examine them, carefully for defective teeth, eyes and ears, as well as for tonsils, hookworms and all other physical defects. When such defects are found, they should of course be remedied at once.

OPEN AIR SCHOOLS

With the opening of the fall school term, over 200 open air schools and fresh air classes for tuberculosis and anaemic children and also for all children in certain rooms and grades, will be in operation in various parts of the United States, according to a statement published by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Those who got left can charge it up to the fact that the other fellows got the most votes.

says, have been established since January, 1907, when the first institution of this character was opened in Providence, R. I. On January 1st, 1910, there were only 13 open air schools in this country and a year later the number had increased only to 29. Thus, the real growth in this movement has been with the last two years.

Massachusetts now leads the states with 86 fresh air schools and classes for tuberculous, anaemic and other school children, Boston alone having over eighty. New York comes next with 29 and Ohio is third with 21. Open air schools have now been established in nearly 50 cities in 19 different states.

Based on figures of population and mortality furnished by the United States Bureau of the Census, it is estimated that not less than 100,000 children now in school in the United States will die of tuberculosis before they are eighteen years of age, or that about 7000 of these children die annually from this one disease. Estimating that on an average each child who dies from tuberculosis has had three years of schooling, the aggregate loss to this country in wasted education each year amounts to well over $1,000,000.

This loss and much of the incident suffering could be materially decreased if open air schools or classes for these children and those who are sickly and anaemic were provided. The National Association estimates that there should be one such school for every 25,000 population, especially in cities.

ROOSEVELT OVERLOOKS HIMSELF

Mr. Roosevelt declares that Barnes Penrose and Guggenheim work hand in hand with the big interests. This is all true. How about Mr. Roosevelt himself?

It was not at the solicitation of Barnes and Penrose and Guggenheim that Edward H. Harriman raised a political corruption fund of $260,000. It was at the solicitation of Theodore Roosevelt.

It was not Barnes and Penrose and Guggenheim who failed to bring the machinery of the law into play to send George W. Perkins to the penitentiary for violating the Sherman Law in organizing the illegal harvest trust and who then accepted Perkins' millions to run for a third term for president. That was Theodore Roosevelt.

The corporation commission of the state holds that property owned by churches and used for other than church purposes, is subject to taxation. This decision grew out of the consideration of a case where a house and lot was willed to a church and the church rented it out for a residence.

GOOD ROADS TO BEAUFORT COUNTY LINE

There is a movement on foot to build a sand-clay road from Greenville via Grimsland to the Beaufort county line. We are told that people along the proposed road have already subscribed $1,500 for that purpose and a meeting will be held in Grimsland next Monday night to enlist the interest of the people of that section in the movement. Of course Greenville should take part in building such a road, and it was expected that the matter would be brought before Carolina Club Monday night, but the club failed to have a meeting. Such a road would benefit a large section of the county and there is hardly a doubt that Beaufort county would take it up and carry it on to Washington.

The old saying "Politics makes strange bed fellows" was never more applicable than in the present campaign.

Uncle Sam has come out flat and told Mexico that American citizens in that country must be protected.

REPUBLICANS FOR WILSON

Thousands of progressive Republicans will vote for the Democratic nominee for the presidency, in the opinion of Rudolph Spreckles of San Francisco, close friend of Senator La Follette and long prominent in the Republican party of California.

"I have given many years of my time and support to the progressive Republican cause and to honest effort to eliminate political bosses and bring about the establishment of a just and truly representative government, and shall continue to make that fight with me in my party; but I feel it my duty to support Gov. Wilson at the coming election, believing it to be the only proper course of progressive legislation in our nation at the earliest moment."

"Today I held a conference with Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, who stands out as the foremost figure in this nation as a protector of the lives and health of our children, and he informs me that he is opposed to the election of either President Taft or Theodore Roosevelt, because both failed during their administration to properly support the fight against the rich manufacturers, of harmful foods and drugs."

There is usually a woman in it. The arrest of Sidna Allen and Edwards was due to a lost letter to the letter's sweetheart and that of the two leaders in the Rosenthal murder was due to the carelessness of their wives.

Good Roads sentiment and state wide sentiment are two things that are growing in North Carolina. The next legislature will be expected to do something along both of these lines.

So far Pitt county shows up very small in contributions to the Wilson campaign fund, only three names of Pitt countians appearing in the News and Observer list of contributors.

A British scientist says if men want to continue to grow in height until they are 40 years old, they should travel on all-fours and not stand erect.

The Republicans did not do much in the way of a ticket Saturday, but that is about as was expected.

SOME STAR CATCHERS

National League Men Have Nothing on Americans.

Thomas and Lapp Did Not Suffer by Comparison With John Kling in World's Championship Series Played Two Years Ago.

For the last few years National League critics have boasted of their catchers and declared that the American league had nothing in the back-stopping line to compare with Kling, Archer, Doolin, Breenahan, Gibson and others of almost equal ability. Last year they added Chief Meyers, of the Giants, to their list of National League stars and declared the American League could not show the Indian's peer.

Perhaps they were right. Certainly Kling showed up the Detroit catchers during the world's series of 1907 and 1908, while Gibson most assuredly had it on the Tiger receivers during the battles in the fall of 1909. It was presumably the superiority shown by the National Leaguers in those three seasons that caused their partisans to declare the younger circuit was weak behind the bat.

It is Thomas and Jack Lapp, however, did not suffer by comparison with John Kling in 1910, while the same pair held their own with Chief Meyers last fall. Now the American League is developing a bunch of young receivers who bid fair to compare favorably with the best in the National League before many more seasons pass by.

Jack Lapp, because of his three years in the American League, can now be considered a rank veteran. He is also approaching the ranks of star.

Johnny Kling.

dom. But he is not the only one. What about Jimmy Block, who has caught many games for the White Sox this season and capably handled the deliveries of Walsh, Benz, Lunge, Scott and Mogridge and batted close up to .350 at the same time?

George Stovall has installed as his chief catcher Paul Krichell, who is a graduate of the International League. This youngster is the owner of a good whip and a keen batting eye. Washington has a pair of youngsters who would bring a good round sum if placed on the market—Eddie Ainsmith and John Henry. Ted Easterly is not a youngster, but he is entering upon his second career as a backstop and has more than fulfilled expectations by jumping into the line as Cleveland's premier receiver. Young Steve O'Neill is another Cleveland catcher who will be watching. Other young catchers who are showing that they measure up to big league requirements are Nunnemaker, of the Boston Red Sox, and Oranow, of the Tigers.

Grimshaw All in.

Myron Grimshaw, with the Louisville Colonels last year, but who was scheduled to join the Indians June 1, will not report. In a letter to President Sol Meyer the veteran stated that he was not in condition to play ball. He offered to report and give the Indians his best service, but the tone of his letter indicated that he is about all in as a diamond performer.

President Meyer wired him not to come and lines have now been cast for another outfielder.

Purcell in the Field.

With Jayvin Purcell in the infield at Jersey City, Billy Purcell has been shifted to the outfield, which would indicate that Billy's arm is all right again. It is only the lame arm that caused Boston to let him go.

HE WAS WISE

Tom—When he goes to church he puts a nickel in the contribution plate and when he goes to the theater he pays $2 for his seat.

Jack—That shows that he wants to be close wherever he goes.

THE KIND HE WANTED

Cholly Gayburd—Do you believe the story of Jonah and the whale?
Grace Saintry—Why, of course I do. I believe every word of it.
Cholly Gayburd (enthusiastically)—Dear Miss Saintry, will you be my wife!

TO MAKE SURE

Miss Hascogne—Er-before announcing our engagement, count. Let me think perhaps it would be more satisfactory if you had your-er-tittle guaranteed.

LEAVING IT TO HIM

Willie—What yer goin' ter name the baby?
Lulu—Goin' ter let him grow up and make er name for himself.

ACCOUNTED FOR

"Any good fishing about here?"
"Fine!"
"Are you a fisherman?"
"No; I sell bait."

A REPRIMAND

Mr. Williams (to son)—What an old brack brudder of yers!
Son—He dun cuttin' sticks, pop.
Mr. Williams—Dar, now; dat's nigh all er body. Why don't you correct yo' farseness and say he am amper-tain' tumbsh, niggah, an' talk laik white folks?

ON A BUSINESS BASIS

Big Sister—Now, Jack, I'll give you a nickel if you'll be good and not bother when Mr. Sotly calls tonight.
Jack—All right, sis, and for a dime extra I'll promise not to put dad wise dat he's there.

RUDE FELLOW

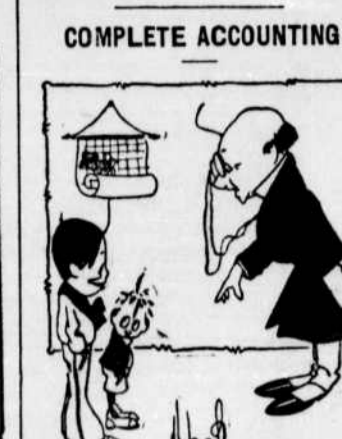

Reggy—Gracious. Such a vicious natush Percy has!
Clarence—Has he really?
Reggy—Frightful. I had some words with him today, and he deliberately reached out his hand and diswanged my hair.

NO ROOM FOR DOUBT

"His environment inclines him to reticence."
"You think so?"
"I'm positive. He lives with his wife and her mother."

This is My Birthday
Duke of Leeds
The Duke of Leeds, who recently paid his first visit to Canada and the United States, was born Sept. 18, 1862. The first Duke of Leeds became Lord High Treasurer of England and was the well known Minister of Charles II. The present Duke succeeded his father in the title in 1882. He was a member of parliament from 1887 until he succeeded to the peerage. From 1895 to 1901 he was treasurer of the Household and he has since been a member of the London County Council. The Duke possesses an estate of about 25,000 acres. The ancestral seat is Hornby Castle, a stone castle situated in Yorkshire. In 1884 the Duke was married to the

When Dreams Come True—His Mill Burned as He Slept

SCOTLAND NECK, Sept. 14.—John R. Askew lost his large saw mill at the 31-mile siding on the Norfolk and Carolina railroad several miles from Scotland Neck, early Thursday morning. Mr. Askew says his loss is about $2,000, besides $500 or $600 worth of lumber that was on the yard and he carried no insurance. The fire was discovered about 4 o'clock in the morning and is supposed to have originated from the boiler room as there was no fire about the plant the day before, says in this room.

A peculiar thing about the fire, Mr. Askew says, was that about 12 o'clock the night of the fire he awoke after having a dream that his mill was on fire and got up and went out in his yard and looked in the direction of his mill to see if he could see any sign of fire. He says the dream weighed on his mind so much that he could not sleep any more during the night. When he left his home in Scotland Neck early in the morning it was with grave fear that he would find his dream true and upon reaching his mill he was not surprised to find it in ashes.

Child Dislocates Hip

A few days ago Howard, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Allen, fell off the porch of their residence on Cotach street. It was not thought at the time that the child was seriously hurt, but failing to get better a minute examination was made this morning when it was found that the left hip is dislocated.

Big Crowd Hears Judge Clark

At scheduled time, Chief Justice Clark, who has been a visitor in Greenville since last night, made his address in the court house. A great crowd of Clark enthusiasts and some supporters of the other candidates gathered to hear the Chief Justice's speech in favor of his own candidacy for the United States senate.

Mr. A. A. Forbes was introduced by Mr. D. M. Clark and after a few words in which he cleverly recovered from a slip presented the speaker to the audience. Owing to a slight cold, Justice Clark's voice was rather harsh and low at the beginning of his speech, but improved as he went on. Judge Clark did not assail any of his competitors for the Senatorial seat, but referred to their records in as much as he considered these records as public property. In speaking of these records, it might be just as well to say that whilst Chief Justice Clark devoted some time to Simmons and his dealings with one Lortimer, since moved from the senate, he could not say much for the governor, for although Mr. Kitchen had been in the public eye for twelve years he had done "not a thing". Judge Clark's anecdote to illustrate Simmons standing "off" the platform was well received by the intelligent audience.

Bad Feeling Results in Duel

KINSTON, Sept. 14.—As a result of a roadside deal on the driftn truck at night, Ed Faulkner was painfully, though not fatally shot, his son Gay slightly wounded and Doc Wallace and his son Ed, arrested for the shooting. The elder Faulkner is said to be on the road to recovery while the boy's wounds were insignificant. At a hearing for bond both Wallaces were released on $1,000 bail by the justice. The affair was the result of bad feeling of long standing. The Wallaces and the Faulknors are neighbors and live three or four miles apart here. The Faulknors and Doc Wallace were going home at the same time and Ben Faulkner pulled at Wallace continually during the trip. It is said that Faulkner was drinking. Wallace turned into his yard and the elder Faulkner called him out from the house with the threat to have it out with him then and there. Wallace came out, bringing a gun and followed by his son, Ed. From his buggy in which he was riding, Ben Faulkner opened fire with a revolver and this was returned by Wallace with the shotgun. A fusillade followed and Faulkner received a charge of shot in his head and neck and the horse which he was driving was hit in the head while the back of the vehicle was filled with lead. Young Faulkner was struck by scattering shot in the back. His father not driving fast enough to suit him, Ed. Wallace took the gun from the old man's hands and continued the hostilities himself. Neither were hurt.

GATHERING AT INGELTARRE

About Forty Guests Entertained at Dinner On Sunday at his pretty country home at Ingeltarre, Mr. O. L. Joyner had the tobacco growers of the Greenville market and their office forces, as well as a few intimate friends, to take dinner with him. The tables around which about forty guests gathered, were spread on one of the large porches of the home and the feast was greatly enjoyed. The chief dish was barbecue, cooked and served in real country style and many declared they had never tasted better. After dinner the guests remained through the afternoon, passing the hours most pleasantly together. Mr. Joyner is a cordial entertainer.

Worth Consideration

It will do good to read and consider this from Cotton and Cotton Oil News: "It is strange that governments will expend hundreds of millions of dollars for navies and forts and arsenals in time of profound peace while their appropriations for agriculture are only a few paltry thousands. To build mighty battleships which are intended for destruction of life and property and to neglect agriculture, which is the support of all nations, is a policy so shortsighted and so wicked as to challenge not merely the wisdom but even the sanity of the lawmakers of the so-called civilized peoples of the earth".

Rebels Across Border Losing Ground Against Federal Troops

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 16.—Fighting has ceased at Ojinaga, retaken yesterday by Federals. Reports from Presidio, Tex., today said the Rebels had retreated to the hills to the south, according to advices received by General Steever, from U. S. army officers at Presidio. The Federals captured 17 rebels at Ojinaga. The Federal loss was given as "light". Agents of the department of state and justice have left El Paso for Presidio, where U. S. Troops are holding Col. Pablo Orozco, Sr., father of the rebel commander. Col. Orozco, who was captured with Col. Pablo Orozco when they crossed the border Saturday evening probably will be brought to El Paso.

Want Bull Moose Editorials Stopped

GREENSBORO, Sept. 14.—Superior Court Judge W. H. Wholesome has postponed the hearing of the petition of minority stockholders of the State Dispatch of Burlington, for an order to restrain the paper from publishing editorials favorable to Roosevelt and Johnson. A majority of the stockholders voted to insert the Taft and Sherman ticket and support Roosevelt and Johnson, whereupon minority stockholders appealed to the courts, alleging the agreement of the corporation has been violated.

Wilson Given Great Reception In Home State of President Taft

Democratic Nominee Delivers Speech in Ohio and Wins A Place in Heart of Buckeye State People

CONTINUES ADVOCATING INTELLIGENT RULE OF THE PEOPLE AGAINST INTERESTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Through Ohio and Indiana Governor Woodrow Wilson did some impromptu campaigning today that was as vigorous as it was unexpected. No previous arrangements had been made for speeches and the train schedule was twisted by delays early in the day, but crowds gathered along the route and Governor Wilson made near by a dozen speeches from his car. He replied to former Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, who charged in a recent speech that Governor Wilson, if elected would be boss-controlled. State senator Fred Kistner and Mayor Pickle, of Logansport, Ind., boarded the train and told Mr. Wilson about Mr. Beveridge's speech so that when the Democratic candidate reached Logansport he hit at Mr. Beveridge to a large crowd. "I understand that in a speech made last Saturday night," said Governor Wilson, "a very much esteemed friend of mine, namely, Senator Beveridge, said that he entertained a very serious fear about me, that if I were elected president I would be controlled by the bosses. I never suspected before that Senator Beveridge was a humorist; because if he did not know that was a joke, he ought to have known that it was a joke. When did you ever hear that I had changed all my political habits? "The way you can tell whether a man is going to be controlled by the bosses or not is to judge whether he is in reach of a boss or not. Do you know what a boss is? A boss is a political agent of certain special interests, who see to it, through him, that people they can control are put in office and that laws they don't want are kept off the statute books and the men who do that are the men who are interested in the great monopolies of this country. "I am sorry to observe that whereas the Republican party has practically fostered the trusts and the Democratic party proposes to prevent monopoly in this country the third party, represented by Senator Beveridge, proposes to take the monopoly into partnership with the government by accepting it as an inevitable necessity and bringing it under the regulation of law; that is to say, making it a legalized institution of the country. And when the men who have created monopoly are accepted partners of the government do you suppose they are going to dispense with the men who are their necessary agents, namely, the bosses who determine who are to occupy office and what the legislation is to be? "Who created monopoly?" interrupted a man in the crowd, and he repeated his question several times. "The men who created monopoly, my friend, to answer your question," continued the governor, "are the men who have taken advantage of protective tariff to get together to make great combinations of industry to shut out competition and to make sure that the prices are in their own control. And every Republican leader in our generation has been in league with those men." "Who are they?" broke in another voice and the governor's reply brought cheers. "They are the men who have set up the great trusts," he said. "Everybody knows the list of them. These men are the heads of the steel trust, of the tobacco trust, of the Standard Oil trust, and of all other trusts—that everybody knows. I am surprised that you didn't know the names of them before. These men have supported those who have controlled our government in the last 15 years and they are supporting them still. And if for my part do not entertain any hope of the government of the United States being freed from the control of trusts and control of bosses who are the agents of trusts, through the instrumentality of the adoption of the trusts into the care of the government itself."

Boy Scouts Avert Serious Accident

ELIZABETH CITY, Sept. 16.—T. S. Only and wife had a narrow escape when their horse became frightened and ran down Main street, which was crowded with shoppers. Fortunately two "Boy Scouts," Ralph Bartron and Lee Jackson, happened to be near, and caught the runaway horse before he had injured both Mr. and Mrs. Only quite seriously. "I am sorry to observe that whereas the Republican party has practically fostered the trusts and the Democratic party proposes to prevent monopoly in this country the third party, represented by Senator Beveridge, proposes to take the monopoly into partnership with the government by accepting it as an inevitable necessity and bringing it under the regulation of law; that is to say, making it a legalized institution of the country. Richmond, Va., Sept. 16.—General George Washington (Curtis) Lee quietly observed his eightieth birthday anniversary today at his home, Haverthorpe, near Burk station, Fairfax county. General Lee is the son of the late General Robert E. Lee, whom he succeeded as president of Washington and Lee University in 1871. Since 1897 he has been president emeritus of the university.

GANGMEN REFUSE TO TALK ROSENTHAL DEATH IMPORTANT LETTERS WERE SECURED

GYP THE BOOD AND LEFTY LOUI REFUSE TO MAKE ANY STATEMENT IN CONNECTION WITH KILLING

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Harry Horowitz, alias "Gyp the Blood," and "Lefty Louis" Rosenweig, whose arrests on Saturday night completed the round-up of the gun-men indicted for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, were arraigned this morning before Justice Gott in the Supreme Court.

At the request of counsel for the prisoners, pleading was adjourned till September 18. Former Magistrate Wable, on behalf of the prisoners, asked to enter tentative pleas of not guilty with leave to withdraw, but decided to wait until next Wednesday before pleading. The wives of the prisoners and Max Kahn, the alleged pickpocket arrested in the flat occupied by them, were held in $2,500 bail each, as material witnesses. Horowitz and Rosenweig took a keen interest in the proceedings. They had no statements to make. Horowitz and Rosenweig evinced no more disposition to give information or make any admissions than they did yesterday, when Assistant District Attorney Moss grilled them for three hours regarding the night when Rosenthal was shot down near the Hotel Metropolitan. The two prisoners declined to talk about the murder until after they had conferred with counsel. Party or more letters and postcards found in the rooms of the two men may furnish important information to the state's attorney. Detectives ransacked the apartments from ceiling to floor. Beneath the boards of the floor and tucked under carpets correspondence was found which Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty says is of importance to the prosecution. Assistant District Attorney Moss was prepared today to make a demand upon the police department for these letters. Mr. Moss said he was unable to understand why the news of the finding of the letters had been withheld from him.

12 NAVAL CADETS DROWN IN MICHIGAN

YOUNG MEN PREPARING FOR A NAVAL EDUCATION ARE CAST INTO WATERS OF A ROTHB LAKE

ALL BODIES NOT RECOVERED YET

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Three more bodies were recovered from Lake Michigan, near Lake Bluff today, bringing to eight the list of known dead in the lake for the night when a 26-foot cutter, containing 24 recruits of the United States naval training station overturned while the party was out sailing. Three boys still were missing. Searching crews under the command of officers of the station, dragged the lake for the bodies recovered today was that of Chief Gunner's Mate W. E. Negus, who died heroically trying to save his companions. Chicago, Sept. 16.—Investigation was renewed at the United States naval training station at North Chicago today to determine the number of apprentice seamen who lost their lives yesterday afternoon in the accident in Lake Michigan off Lake Bluff. Besides the five identified dead, four others were recovered and possibly others they accepted as being missing. Privates Canham, Wadler, Erickson, Shorack and Field cannot be accounted for.

State-Wide Primary in Minnesota

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 16.—Minnesota's direct primary law, which has a second choice provision as its distinguishing feature, will be given its first try-out tomorrow, when the several parties will name their candidates to go on state, congressional, legislative and county tickets at the general election in November. The Proctor Hotel walls are climbing above ground now. The days and nights are now near equal in length.

Young Man Elopes With Lady His Aged Father Was to Marry

STERLING, Ill., Sept. 16.—Richard Lewis, eighteen years of age, son of a wealthy farmer, eloped Wednesday night with Mrs. Hazel Champlin, forty-five years old.

Mrs. Champlin has been the housekeeper at the Lewis home since Mrs. Lewis died five years ago. She was to have married Lewis, Sr. Friday, and elaborate arrangements had been made for the wedding. She is an attractive blonde of the dashing type and the elder Lewis states that he will welcome her home as his daughter-in-law, although he had hoped to make her his wife. The couple purchased tickets for Des Moines, Ia., where Mrs. Champlin formerly lived and where they are reported to have been married today. Mrs. Champlin has two sons, aged 16 and 19.

James C. Needham

James C. Needham, one of the veteran members of the California delegation in the national house of representatives, was born September 17, 1864. The interesting event occurred in an emigrant wagon, in the vicinity of Carson City, Nev., while his parents were en route to California. Mr. Needham was graduated from the University of the Pacific in 1886 and from the law school of the University of Michigan three years later. After being admitted to the bar he began the practice of his profession at Modesto, Cal., which place has since been his home. He was elected to Congress by the Republicans of the Sixth California district in 1899 and has since been re-elected six times. The days and nights are now near equal in length.

PITT COUNTY
FARMER IN RALEIGH

INTERESTING INFORMATION AS TO THE ADVISABILITY OF CO-OPERATION IN FARMING

AGRICULTURE GREATEST ASSET

Mr. Editor: I, in company with a goodly number of Pitt county's best citizens, attended the farmers meeting in Raleigh on the 27th of August and I want to tell you readers that the program was just splendid; the speeches by experts in their line were entertaining and instructive. The pre dominating idea was cooperation. One speaker told how Denmark had recuperated from an unfortunate war when the taxes rose to five dollars per acre upon agricultural land and now in less than fifty years Denmark has more money per capita than any nation except England; all this prosperity brought about by co-operation among the farmers in buying and selling. If these farmers can succeed so well why cannot we farmers even out-strip them. In the marketing of our cotton we might save enough money every year in Pitt county to build a sanatorium in our enterprising town of Greenville or we could save enough in one year to build a good road from Farmville to Grimesland. In order to do this we must have a cotton warehouse in every thriving town in the county, where we can sell or store our cotton until we are ready to sell.

Dr. Hopkins, of Ill., said that finely ground phosphate rock used with stable manure gave better results at about one half the cost of acid phosphate.

There was a sale of pure-bred Berk shire hogs the afternoon of the second day and Pitt county bought nearly one fifth of them.

I hope to see most of these hogs at our Pitt County Fair.

I saw only three ladies from Pitt but these reported having a good time and they thought a very profitable time. Good bread is a household necessity and they had an expert bread maker who demonstrated to the ladies that any woman of ordinary intelligence might bake excellent bread if she only knew how and would take a little pains.

I really believe the farmers' daughters and wives could spend a pleasant and profitable three days at the farm-meeting.

It's dry here—very dry.
