2 PRIZES IN EACH CONTE CONTEST

> A Grand Prize for the Leader of each Contest on Points.

1st Contest opens Sat. Nov. 2; closes Sat. Nov. 16 2nd contest opens Sat. Nov. 16; closes Sat. Nov. 30. 3rd contest opens Sat. Nov. 30; closes Sat. Dec. 14.

Winning names will be announced and prizes presented to successful contestants on the Monday following the closing day of each contest.

In each and every one of the contests a First and Second Prize will be awarded, provided the young lady contestants fully comply with the rules and regulations of the contests, as set out

The young lady scoring most points in all three contests will be awarded an extra prize at the conclusion of the Third and last contest, consisting of a handsome diamond ring. This over and above whatever other prizes she may win in the individual contests.

Rules of the Contest:

-- Any lady, married or single, residing in Pitt County can be a candidate in any or all of the three contests.

-Candidates' names must be sent in by filling nomination blank to be found at the bottom of this announcement, and mailing to Contest

-Winning in any of the three contests does NOT bar the winning contestant from participating in the other contests.

-Candidates may secure their subscriptions anywhere, there being no division into dis-

The first prize in each contest will be awarded to the young lady scoring 500 points or over. Second prize to be awarded in each contest to the contestant scoring most points after the leader. However, she will not qualify for a second prize unless her score shows 300 or more points. But it is distinctly understood that in order to win a first prize a contestant must have a score of 500 points or more.

-The young lady scoring most points in all three contests will be awarded a grand prize consisting of a handsome diamond ring, over and above other prizes which she may have earned during the three contests.

-The contest manager will decide all points which may arise in the course of the contest, and candidates in entering these contests agree to abide by all rulings which he may
