

VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY FOR JETTON

Required Only 30 Minutes For Jury to Render Decision

UNWRITTEN LAW TRIUMPH

Counsel Contended That Jetton Shot Dr. Wooten in Defense of His Home and That His Act Was Justified

CHARLOTTE, Feb. 21.—The verdict "not guilty" pronounced by the jury in the case of the state against Robert Monroe Jetton, charged with the murder of Dr. W. H. Wooten, at Davidson on the night of February 19, was received with a wild demonstration at 11 o'clock tonight.

The jury said the case about half an hour and the "unwritten law" triumphed, as had been freely predicted since the beginning of the trial.

Crowds packed the court room and jammed its doors from the commencing of court this morning until the jury returned the verdict.

Counsel for the defense spent their half of the eight hours allowed for argument today in contending that Jetton shot Wooten in a fit of passion and that his act was justified by the "unwritten law" and self-defense.

The prosecution asked for one of three verdicts, first degree murder, second degree murder or manslaughter, contending that Wooten was an armed man in his home and that he was killed and that he had never wronged Mrs. Jetton in any way.

The testimony of Mrs. Jetton on the stand was that she first visited Davidson in 1909 and had lived there for some time. She married Mr. Jetton October 28, 1912 and Jetton met eight years ago at Davidson and had been acquainted ever since. She met Dr. Wooten on her first visit.

In answer to questions by her lawyer, she said: "Dr. Wooten was always familiar, acting peculiarly for a married man."

"Did you have improper relations with him before marriage?" her counsel asked.

"I did not."

"Did you after you were married?" her counsel asked.

"On the night of the 19th of February I heard a knock at my door. I went to the door and saw the doctor in the shadow of the door. He asked me what I wanted. He replied: 'You know what I want,' he pushed me into the house. He caught me by the wrist and pulled me into the bedroom in spite of all I could do. He told me to keep my mouth shut and put his hand over my mouth. I tried with him to turn me loose. He pulled down the shade and lowered the lamp, and pushed me down on the bed the second time. I told him some one was coming. He replied: 'Let them come.' My husband rushed into the room. He said to Dr. Wooten, 'God damn you, you are here, you are here.' Dr. Wooten rushed toward me. I ran into the yard. I heard the pistol shot and I ran back to the house."

Smearhater with Jetton expressed the opinion in the court room tonight that the judge's charge favored the prosecution and would lead with his when they heard him acquitted.

Jetton claimed that he killed the physician when he found him attacking his wife. Mrs. Jetton when she stated this statement. In a dying statement Dr. Wooten avowed his innocence of evil intent. He stated that Mrs. Jetton had invited him and that he came to the Jetton home and saw a new dress and that but for the inclement weather on the evening of the shooting, Mrs. Wooten would have

Murder And Arson Committed by Robert Bando
CHARLOTTE, Feb. 24.—A charred body, believed to be that of Clerk Preston Lowry, and the statements of citizens, who were attracted to Smithfield's store at Barber's Junction, by a pistol shot at 8 o'clock, go to indicate that a store was robbed, murder probably committed and the store fired by the robbers at that place tonight.

The first to arrive at the scene said that two boxes were against the front door of the building, the safe door was open and a lamp, turned low gleaming feebly on the floor beside it, while flames were spreading from the rear of the building all over the store. No attempt was made to see if the contents of the safe had been tampered with, but in the limited time a search was made for Lowry, who was supposed to have been in the store.
He could not be found, but by the light of the embers, when the building was in ashes, a body was found in what had been the back part of the building. This is supposed to be that of Lowry, as it was practically certain that he was in the store at 8 o'clock.
No examination was made of the safe tonight. Sheriff McKenzie with deputies from Salisbury, are searching for a clue to the robbers if such there were, but the affair tonight is a seemingly impenetrable mystery.

LARGE CONGREGATION HEAR ABLE DIVINE AT METHODIST CHURCH, "GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY" OF THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.
A very large congregation attended the services in Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, Sunday night, it being the observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Knights of Pythias. The members of Tar River Lodge K. of P. attended, a body and occupied the front pews. The sermon was by Rev. J. M. Daniel, pastor of the church. From the text "For we are brethren," he preached a sermon of force and eloquence. He fittingly emphasized the bonds of friendship that have existed from time the words of the text were spoken by Abraham to Lot down through the succeeding ages, and the value of a man, strong in character, who is always ready to extend the helping hand to the weak. The strong ties of devotion between Daman and Pythias were referred to beautifully by the speaker. It was the kind of sermon that leaves a lasting impression.

Horticultural Advice
ENEMY TO BEAUTIFUL TREES
Cottony Maple Scale in Past Ten Years Has Wrought Serious Damage to Many Valuable Trees.
The cottony maple scale is an insect that for the past ten years has been a serious enemy to thousands of beautiful and valuable trees. The food plants of the scale are numerous, the most important being the soft maple, linden, box elder, elm, oak, willow, poplar, beech, hawthorn, sycamore, locust, hackberry, orange, mulberry, grape, poison ivy, Virginia creeper, rose, honeysuckle, currant, peach, plum, pear and apple.
In dealing with the insect it is necessary to consider in each case the advisability of artificial means of controlling it. In some localities the natural enemies of this pest have done very efficient work, making in many cases applications of remedies unnecessary. The Illinois experimental station states that the scale appears in great numbers at intervals of eight or ten years.
The infested trees, advises the department, can be treated during the dormant season with a strong solution of kerosene emulsion without any injury to the trees. This emulsion used at 25 per cent. or more in strength, or white oil soap at the rate of one pound to a gallon of water, has been reported to be very effective in killing the scales hit by the spray.
In spraying during the period when the trees are in foliage a weaker solution must necessarily be used. It is not safe to use kerosene emulsion stronger than a 10 to 12 per cent. oil, and even at this strength there might be a slight injury to the foliage. It has been demonstrated that a single application of a 10 per cent. kerosene emulsion applied at the proper time in summer, will destroy the majority of the recently hatched insects and two applications, one applied at the middle and the other at the end of the hatching period will destroy four-fifths of them.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, but his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without my riding me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years' continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

CHURCH BUYS A PARSONAGE.

The Memorial Baptist church has changed its plan, noted recently, of building a parsonage on the south-east portion of the town, and has purchased the Cherry house and lot nearly opposite the church on Greene street, to use for that purpose. The deed for this property was executed yesterday. Being just across the street from the church makes the location very desirable for a parsonage.

Attractive Kewpie favors were cut for at the many tables and the whole occasion was one of laughter and merriment.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, bringing to the table a most happy and enjoyable event.

J. W. BAILEY TO ADDRESS CONFEDERATE VETERANS

Mr. Editor:

Will you allow me space in your columns to say that the old soldiers and the citizens of Pitt at large, are in an anxious mood to see the committee on Exercises has secured the Honorable J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, to deliver the address at the Reunion of Bryan Grimes Camp of Confederate Veterans on May 12th (the 10th being Sunday) memorial day. There should assemble with these Confederate veterans the gray a large crowd to hear this distinguished son of our state, who is one of the leading minds of the progressive thoughts of the state. As a scholar, thinker and speaker he is second to none in North Carolina, and his address will be as fortunate as to hear him will not be disappointed.

WYATT L. BROWN, Chairman of Committee.

Little Minnie Mae Smith Continues to Improve, Feb. 21.—Minnie Mae Smith, the little 11-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith was taken with the appendixitis in December, but her people thought there was nothing serious about the child's illness. The child continued to grow worse. However at length they took her to the Robert Bruce Memorial Hospital at Kinston. Her case had already developed into the peritonitis when she got there. Dr. J. M. Parrott told her parents that there was absolutely no hope for her without an operation and only one chance in a thousand with the operation. The insertion was performed in each side. He reported that the child was dead and his grandmother started to the burial. But it was ten weeks yesterday since Little Minnie Mae went to the hospital and her little eyes are as bright as little jewels. She is now proving every day and we are hoping that she will soon be able to walk about again. Dr. J. M. Parrott says that this case has been the most remarkable one in the history of his practice. It looked as if there was no possible chance for the child to live. Her parents and friends are very grateful to Dr. Parrott for the excellent attention he gave her.

30 Years In Prison For Aged Woman

WAYNESVILLE, March 3.—Judge Frank Carter, presiding over Swain county Superior court, has sentenced Nancy Hannah Kille, of this county to 30 years in state prison.

Attorneys for the woman entered a plea of guilty of second degree murder yesterday.

The woman, who is 67 years old is accused of having killed her six-year-old grandchild, Rogena Putnam, last spring by placing the child in a cave on a mountain side and watching the entrance up, leaving the child to die from exposure to cold and starvation. The crime was committed during the cold weather of last March and excited intense indignation in this county. The aged prisoner is now in Haywood jail, whence she will be taken to Raleigh later in the week.

ST. PAUL HAS A BIRTHDAY

ST. PAUL, Minn. March 4.—Flags were displayed on public buildings in St. Paul today in token of the city's sixtieth birthday anniversary. St. Paul was incorporated as a city March 4, 1854 though it had existed as a settlement and military post for many years prior to date.

The opening of the International league season has been set back almost a week. The league was started April 15 last year, but will not get under way until April 21 this year.

While the city, railroads and private companies were seeking ways to remove snow, yet there are nightly meetings by small groups of self-determined "municipalists" who assert their need of foot and place to sleep.

Last night St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal church two hundred and fifty of these men were fed and offered work at twenty-five cents an hour shoveling snow, they refused to work at that price, demanding thirty cents.

Rev. William Miller Gamble, welcomed the men on behalf of the Socialists Fellowship of St. Mark's and said that unemployment was tolerable. He then introduced Frank Gamble as chairman of the meeting.

"At last we have a chance to let the city know what we want," Tannerbaum, who is an Industrial Worker of the World leader, began. "We are members of the working class. Everything in this city has been secured for April 15 at Durham. The game with Washington and Lee University, scheduled for March 20, has been cancelled.

NEW YORK, March 4.—New York expects to entertain a big collection of baseball fans at the end of this week, when the world's tourist will be welcome here from their long trip. A special train carrying several hundred Chicago fans is due to reach town tomorrow and other large delegations are reported about to start from Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburg, Washington and other cities.

The Biltmore Hotel has been selected as headquarters for the demonstration of welcome and the touring Giants and White Sox will be taken there after their arrival at the end of their trip on that day there will be meetings of the officials and club owners of the National and American leagues and it is likely the gathering will be taken advantage to hold meetings of baseball owners at the end of the season.

On Saturday night virtually all of the men who control the national game, together with an army of players, sporting writers and invited guests, will gather about the ball board at the Biltmore Hotel for a banquet arranged in honor of the globe trotting baseball teams.

What's this! The Springfield Third league baseball club scheduled to play exhibition game with the St. Louis Federals. More trouble for organized baseball.

Clark Gray has placed the club almost a week. The league was started April 15 last year, but will not get under way until April 21 this year.

NEW YORK, March 3.

Work for thousands was furnished in New York and vicinity by the snow storm. The demand for snow far exceeds the application by several thousand business and regular force the street cleaning department had 5,000 men at work removing snow last night and it was estimated today that 10,000 more would be needed if the principal traffic streets were cleared.
