Instructions to Write Sent Automatically by the Brain to That Organ. J. G. tells the New York Mail some interesting things about the psychology of writing with the right hand. In the case of a left-handed person, J. G. is left-handed, but he was taught to write with the right hand. In college he learned that the left lobe of the brain controls the operations of the right hand, and vice versa. Mr. H. W. Dull has gone out of the retail business, and gone into the whole sale beef business. If any market men anywhere want beef see him. You should not sleep cold while a W. Ange & Co., has plenty of comforts and blankets at the right price. Killed on Log Cart While hauling logs last Thursday Willis Forebe was accidentally killed by a tree falling across the log cart on which he was setting breaking his hip and crushing his head. Broadus Wingate and Charlie Moyer were cutting the tree down. When they began sawing the tree down the old colored man got on the cart and drove the oxen out of danger, as he thought. He then stopped for some unknown reason. In the meantime the men were sawing on the tree. When they stopped sawing to drive a wedge behind the saw to throw the tree they told the log hauler to drive his cart further out of danger. Then they continued sawing on the tree thinking that all was well of danger, but when the tree began falling it turned on the stump, and fell directly on what they expected, thus falling across the man and crushing out his life. Willis has been in the employ of Mr. A. B. Braxton here for several years. He was a sober, trusty and faithful hand. Rugs, Mattings and all kinds of floor coverings at Harrington, Barber & Co. On Saturday night following the recital Nov. 7, there will be a debate by some members of the Hesperian and Columbian Literary Societies. SHOW NO FEELING OF ENVY

Unselfish Attitude of the Poor Toward Pleasures They Can't Participate In.

There is something strangely pathetic in the unselfishness with which the poor regard the pleasures of the rich. Consider the university boat race. One might expect the overworked and underpaid rowers to resent the time and money spent upon training a few expensive and unprofitable athletes. What we find is a spontaneous national enthusiasm, a concentration upon results which cannot practically affect in any way the concentrating enthusiast. People care about the boat race because it is a sport, a game, because it is a sport, a game, because they bet on it, and not because they bet on it, although they do. So even with the Derby, where the betting is a much larger factor. But how much more really sporting it all these selfless souls who cheer and gamble could be riding and racing on their own account! Our own betting laws are "objectionable" in that they discriminate unfairly between the methods of the rich and those of the poor, but in principle the restriction of gambling opportunities is a good thing to any one who is not extravagantly puritanical. Only it remains true that the proper cure for such social evils as betting is not prohibition but diversion.—New Statesman.

DESTROYING CHERISHED ILLUSIONS.

Scientific experts are never so completely happy as when they are destroying illusions which we have cherished from our childhood. A sunburned skin, which we are all so anxious to bring back to town at the end of August, is the latest thing to be condemned as unhealthy. Apparently "a nice healthy tan" merely means that its proud wearer has been exposing himself too rashly to the influence of the ultra-violet rays—which is condemned as by no means a healthy process. Another illusion shattered by the same expert is that the pallor of the man who is "tired" in the city is due to keep out of the bankruptcy court. He is only pale because the cloud of soot which hangs over the city has blown out the ultra-violet rays, which would otherwise alter his interesting appearance.

ONE DIMENSION.

A prosperous lumberman lives in western Pennsylvania. He owns a small railroad which runs from his lumber camp to the main line. He was riding the other day on a crowded car by the side of the president of the railroad. After some conversation, the president headed the lumberman his card. "What!" said the Pennsylvanian. "Are you the president of the railroad?" "I am the president of a railroad, too." "What is your road," was the courteous reply. "The M. & A." "Strange, I have never heard of it." "Well," said the lumberman, "my road may not be as long as yours, but it is just as wide."

NOT WORTH IT.

"So you saw the woman drop her purse," said Mr. Marks to his friend, "but lost her in the crowd. Did you advertise?" "Oh, yes," said Mr. Parks, "but I didn't get an answer. I put this in the papers: 'If the plain woman about forty-five years of age wearing a dress and hat of last year's style, who lost a purse containing $4.50 on Twenty-second street on Saturday will apply to the property will be returned.'" "Good heavens!" said Mr. Marks, "no wonder you didn't get an answer. No woman in the world would own up to that description for $4.50."

Some get a suit of clothes to suit their taste regardless of the price but if you will see B. D. Forrest & Co you can get a ready made suit to suit your taste and pocket book, as he will have a reduction sale on ready made clothes for the next thirty days. Mr. H. W. Dull has gone out of the retail business, and gone into the whole sale beef business. If any market men anywhere want beef see him. You should not sleep cold while a W. Ange & Co., has plenty of comforts and blankets at the right price. Gaylord-King Wedding

The old adage, "History repeats itself" was fully exemplified in the Christian Church of Greenville, N. C., at eight thirty P. M. Wednesday October 25th, when the attractive Miss Mattie Moyer King of this place became the bride of Mr. Louis Woodson Gaylord, of Plymouth, N. C., on her mother's twenty-third anniversary. The church was beautifully decorated in green and white and seldom has Greenville witnessed a lovelier marriage. Long before the appointed hour the church was thronged to the streets because of the popularity of the couple. The guests were received in the front hall by the bride party and introduced to the receiving line which was composed of the bride and groom Miss Annie King, Miss Lottie and Mr. Avery Gaylord, Mrs. A. O. Gaylord, Mrs. Tom Gaylord, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Underwood, and Rev. J. J. Walker. In the back hall they were served punch by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hall, Miss Mary Shelburn, and Mr. Norman Warren, and Miss Mary Smith and Mr. Jim Hines. From the punch bowl they were directed to the gift room where they were received by Miss Edith Fagan and Mr. J. Key Brown, and Miss Mae Schultz and Mr. John Horne. Receiving in the sitting room were Miss Nell Pender and Mr. Arthur Chesnut, Miss Ward Moore, Mr. Clinton Bowen, Miss Lucille Cobb and Mr. Alex. Blow, Miss Elizabeth McNaair and Mr. J. B. Kittrell and Miss Jennie Shaw and Mr. Tom Dupree, presided over the Bride's Book. In the dining room delicious cream and cake were served by Misses Ericotina and Ethel Forbes, Christine Tyson, Christine Johnson, and Florence Blow. The bride and groom went through the country to Wilson, where they boarded the train for Northern Cities. The many presents received among which was a lovely bar plus of rubies and diamonds bought in Brazil, given to the bride by the aunt of the groom, Mrs. T. J. Jarvis, attest the esteem in which the couple is held. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful diamond cluster ring which was his mother's when she was a young lady. The out of town guests were: Mrs. B. R. King, Mrs. R. D. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Underwood and Miss Georgia Davis of Goldsboro, Miss Cammie McNeil, Lumberton, Miss Hattie Covington, Laurinburg, Miss Elizabeth McNaair, Maxton, Miss Lillian Fountain, Raleigh, Miss Laura Carter, Wilson, Mrs. Alice King, Mr. Townsend, Farmville, Mrs. B. W. Cady, Miss Jennie Shaw, Mrs. J. F. Taylor, Kinston, Miss Olivia Burbage, Como, Mrs. A. O. Gaylord, Mrs. Tom Gaylord, Mr. Avery Gaylord, Miss Lottie Gaylord, Mr. Loyd Horton and Dr. Carl Harper, of Plymouth, Messrs Ben and Jim Joyner and Mrs. Helen Watkins, Farmville.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Gardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Gardui, my back and head would hurt so bad that the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Gardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give

There is no doubt that they will be raised by an overwhelming majority if the voters understand their full import. Let the press give the true meaning in every issue between now and election day.

Senator Simmons.

I have closely studied the amendments under careful examination and mature reflection it is my opinion that these amendments, one and all, are wise and personally I shall support them, and I sincerely hope that they may be adopted at the coming election and become a part of the organic law of the State.
F. M. SIMMONS,
United States Senator.

Ex-Governor Kitchin.

I have given much consideration to the Amendments as a whole, and think that every voter should support them. I regard Amendments Nos. three, seven and ten as the most important ones.
Instead of containing any element of danger, I am satisfied that the Amendments relating to taxation confer the duties and responsibilities of their office and against State indebtedness than does the present Constitution.
I heartily commend them all to the voters of the State.
W. W. KITCHEN.

Ex-Governor Glenn.

I am heartily in favor of all the Constitutional Amendments, and am campaigning for the State for them.

North Carolina Drainage Association to Meet at Wilson Nov 18-19

One of the most important and interesting conventions of the year is to be held by the North Carolina Drainage Association to discuss the question of the reclamation of the swampy and overflowed lands of North Carolina. Since the organization of the Association the drainage of these lands has reached large proportions, the area drained, or now being drained being in the neighborhood of 800,000 acres; and a careful estimate shows that there are within the State 2,800,000 acres of un reclaimed wet and swamp lands. The reclamation of these lands means millions of dollars to the State in increased agricultural values and the elimination of malaria from these sections.

GREENVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 13, 1914. NUMBER 75

MEN OF PITT.

You are earnestly invited to leave your fields and factories, and store and places of business and, with your wives and sons and daughters, assemble at your court house, at ten thirty A. M. Friday, November 13th, 1914, to take part in the impressive ceremonies of unveiling the monument erected on the Court House Square, in memory of the Confederate soldiers of Pitt County.

The Singletary Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy have planned and labored to secure the erection of this monument; and they now desire to see a great concourse of the men and women of Pitt County here, when it is unveiled, to rejoice with them in its completion. It was erected to perpetuate the memory of your beloved heroes, and the daughters of the Confederacy are sure you will take great pleasure in participating in these ceremonies. The Governor of the State will be here to tell of the valor and heroic deeds of the Confederate soldiers in one of the greatest conflicts of all the ages.

The Daughters of the Confederacy urge all who can to gather, with them, around this monument erected to exalted courage, to patient endurance and to willing sacrifices; and they pray that all who gather there may get a new baptism of the love of Country and Home, and may get a new vision of a people who stand for higher ideals of life, and who believe that true greatness, in Nations and in individuals, comes from rendering noble service and doing exact justice.

MRS. THOS. J. JARVIS,

Reported Allies Have Reached German Soil at Three Points of Battle Line

NEW YORK, NOV. 10.—A REPORT JUST RECEIVED HERE STATES THAT THE UNITED STATES CRUISER NORTH CAROLINA HAS BEEN BLOWN UP BY TURKS OFF THE COAST OF TURKEY. IT WILL BE REMEMBERED THE NORTH CAROLINA WAS SENT TO EUROPE HELD MONEY FOR THE AMERICANS STRAND IN THE WAR ZONE.

London, Nov. 9.—At three points in the area of hostilities—in Silesia, in East Prussia and in Alsace—forces of the allies were on German soil today, and for the first time since the outbreak of hostilities conditions seem to promise in the opinion of British military observers, a reversal of the rules of the contending armies.

Despite reverse the Austro-German armies have suffered in the East where the Russians have set their feet on German territory, the Germans are said to be still sending reinforcements to the West in an effort to knock down the resistance of the French British and Belgians.

AMENDMENTS LOST.

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—All amendments to the State Constitution have been lost. This was made certain when Mr. W. S. Wilson, secretary of the Constitutional Amendments Campaign Committee reported the total vote for and against the ten amendments in sixty six counties of the State. The remaining thirty-three counties in the extreme East and West of the State will not materially affect the result apparent now. Against the tax amendment, which was No. 7 in the list there was a vote of 22,864 for and 45,026 against.

$125,000 FIRE VISITS FARMVILLE

Two Big Warehouses and Other Buildings Completely Destroyed—Partly Insured

Water System Inadequate

The Board Unchecked Until Late in the Night—Sections Blow to Farmville Tobacco Market in Height of Season.

Farmville was visited Monday night by a very disastrous fire causing heavy losses. The fire originated at about 10 o'clock in the steam plant of L. G. Morrow & Co. which is adjoining the warehouse owned by this same firm. The fire spread quickly to the warehouse owned by Mr. C. R. Townsend which was also destroyed. Before the flames could be checked they had burned two prize houses owned by the American Tobacco Company together with the tobacco in them, a store belonging to Mr. E. P. Pippin.

The warehouse and prize houses were totally destroyed and were entirely covered with insurance. The store of Mr. Pippin had no insurance at all and is a complete loss. The telephone company's cable was burned and every electric wire also burned. A horse belonging to Mr. Morrow was burned in the stables near the warehouse.

The fire was not under control until late in the night and for the fact that a new system of water works had been recently installed much heavier losses would have occurred. An estimate of the total loss makes it about $125,000.

The Banner Warehouse owned by Mr. Morrow together with the stables was valued at about $20,000 and the Planters Warehouse was valued at $100,000 and some at a time.

So far no cause has been discovered for the fire, but it is supposed to have caught from the furnace of the steam plant which had been in use during the day.

This fire falls heavily on the town of Farmville and the people who own the warehouses are most needy. There is no doubt but that the burned buildings will soon be rebuilt.

Boundary Suit Settled.
North Carolina Wins Suit Over Boundary Line.
Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—The boundary dispute between North Carolina and Tennessee over land in the Tennessee river (river grants), was decided today by the Supreme Court in favor of North Carolina.

The land which returns to North Carolina by this action is a considerable area of mountainous country. It was claimed by Tennessee to be part of the area conveyed by gift to the United States from the State of North Carolina for the formation of the State of Tennessee.
