YOUR PRIDE IN THIS TOWN

Your pride in this town is about the best kind of pride you can have. It is an unselfish pride. It is pride in your neighbors and what they have done. For they made this town—not only paid for the pavements and built the schoolhouses but planted the trees and showed their faith in this place by making it their home.

But pride in your home town requires something from a man besides pride. He ought to help it to grow and to improve. He ought to do his share by keeping his house in repair, by adding in improvements for the town's good and by voting good men into office who will best look after its interests.

Then, and not until then, will a citizen have a real right to speak of his town with pride. It will be a town in the making of which he had a part. Not only will he be proud of the town but the town also will be proud of him.

Some of the cities and towns are having a public Christmas tree, not a tree with presents for everybody but a tree on a public square decorated and lighted up with electric lights of all colors. They are very attractive and are much enjoyed by everybody, young and old alike. A special program consisting of speaking and singing is also added in some cases.

Now when so many people are kind and receiving presents some thought should be given to those who will not receive any presents. There will be many children left here in the city who will not receive any presents. There is room right at our own doors for some good work along this line.

The schools of the county are to be commended for the splendid work they did in improving their grounds and buildings on December the 4th. The judges who awarded the prizes report that the day was well observed all over the county and that the people entered heartily into the spirit of the day.

Many of our exchanges are now getting out special Christmas editions. Some of them have a larger number of pages than usually while others have extra special features in their regular issues. The spirit of the holiday season is here and the newspapers are not behind in showing it.

That measure regarding the reduction of the salaries of postmasters will, no doubt, raise a large amount of protest from those now filling these positions.

Kinston is to have a union station to take the place of the several stations it now has. A union station is a decided advantage to a city or town and any one which acquires such a station is to be congratulated.

Much comment is being made on the large amount of liquor which is being received here. Extra cars and extra help are required to handle the increased business. And for every shipment of this liquor a money order has been sent away from this State. Hard times has not affected this business it seems.

The Durham Star is out with a special "Booster-Industrial Xmas edition" showing up this city wonderfully. While Durham is one of the best known cities in this country such a splendid issue as this one will help very much to make it better known.

The movement toward whole-time health officers continues to grow. At most every week we hear of another county having secured one. And the reports from those counties already having one indicate that they are highly successful. No matter how well a county is prospering or progressing if it does not have a health officer it lacks something which it should have by all means.

The time has come when the children will be handling fireworks of all kinds and the parents should be very careful to see that their children are not injured in such a way as to cause tetanus. Most of the deaths as a result of Christmas and fourth of July celebrations are caused by this disease. Too much care cannot be exercised in such cases and since the children must have the fireworks the parents must see that they are not injured.

Now since this State has a compulsory school law those who heretofore neglected to send their children to school should arrange to comply with its requirements. It does seem that a law ought not to be necessary to compel school attendance. Every parent should be glad of the opportunity to send his children to school, and he ought to be willing to make some sacrifice when needed in order that his children may be educated. This compulsory school law is one of the best on our statute books.

OTHERS THOUGHTS.

The fellow that insists that a man lies to see his name in print is not correct every time; for instance, in the city court proceedings, it makes anything but pleasant reading, but in this as in everything else, a newspaper must be impartial or forever remain in bad repute. What do you think about that? Well, it means that those who have followed The Star's advice are getting money like pulling it up in the road. Why not try English walnut?—Star, Wilmington.

It Makes Hard Times. Some who are in position to know whether they do or not, declare that many people in this section of the State—Vance county, if you please—made more debts last winter and spring than they could have paid in five years of the most prosperous times. We have never envied anyone whatever property that happened to come his way, but if such a condition as that is the outgrowth of profligacy, it is not so bad after all that something has happened to put on brakes. Henderson Gold Leaf.

The farmer actually pays a premium for his land. He pays it in time expended in getting to market, in value of drafting animals and the food they eat and in the extra hands for their care and handling; in increased number of vehicles and wear and tear on them, and in the decreasing product of land that has less attention and care. If the country had a system of smooth and hard highways it would blossom like a rose and prosperity would follow in the wake. Herald, Robertsonville.

A South Carolina farmer writes the Columbia State that the South can not compete with the West in growing corn, wheat, oats, hay, etc. The South won't have to compete with the West in the world's markets, for it will take years for the South to supply its own demands. However, if the South can grow corn at 25 cents per bushel, it is not offered to pay the West 75 cents for a bushel. The West really can't compete with us in supplying our own demands. That corn club boys have proven that.—Wilmington Star.

Railroad Business Good. The officials of the Norfolk Southern Railway Company, say that business is all that they could desire. This is indeed cheering news and should tend to inspire confidence in all who are the least bit scared over any of the railroads.

The railroads have a right to travel and when they can say that business is good, there should be no cause for worry.—New Bern Journal.

The House has decided to stop drafting just a little at least. By a vote of 171 to 159, they are to receive only the bare expenses of themselves and immediate members of the family in the way of mileage, instead of 20 cents flat. "Immediate" members of a family might mean ten or twelve persons. Why did they not receive it to a flat rate of five cents? However, the move is along the right line.—Record Greensboro.

We have so much faith and confidence in Woodrow Wilson that we are not afraid to say that he honestly believes that if he had been one of a half dozen positions of eminent responsibility in the chancelleries of Europe last spring he would have prevented this terrible war. So tremendous is the power of righteousness. So overpowering is the influence of a real man.—New Bern Journal.

The Newspaper. Some men boast that they have no time to read a newspaper. It is a foolish boast. Generally the men who only seek to cover up their mental laziness with a boast.

Will all his shortcomings, the newspaper is easily the most wonderful thing of this wonderful age. If you do not think so it is because you have not studied it deeply from all angles. To be out of touch with it is to be out of touch with life. If it does not touch your life it is because your life does not touch the world's life.

The habit of reading has done more to increase the average length of life than any other thing, the boast of science to the contrary notwithstanding. It keeps the mind young by keeping it active; it stimulates interest in life and interest in life is what makes it worth living. The newspaper brings the world's panorama before the reader's eye. Every day it allows him to view life from a different angle. It is a mental stimulus that keeps him out of the rocks of despair. There is nothing finer than to be in touch with the world in its varied activities.

To criticize a newspaper is one of the easiest things in the world—and one of the cheapest. Take it all in all the newspaper is the best exponent of modern civilization. It is closer to the lives of the people than the school or the church. We do not stop long enough to confess it, perhaps, but it is, in the main, a great agent for good. Our complex civilization would be impossible without it. It is the keystone that upholds the arch.—Durham Sun.

Cat Bites Children. Rocky Mount, Dec. 18.—While at his chores about his home, Carter Gordon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gordon of this city, was attacked by a cat and bitten severely about the leg. The cat was driven off and in a few moments bit two other persons, a small boy and a man. The cat was finally killed, and his head sent to the Pasteur Institute at Raleigh. The victim of the mad cat will likely go to Raleigh to take the Pasteur treatment.

NORTH CAROLINA TO EXHIBIT

To Have Part in Government Health Exhibit at Exposition. That North Carolina shall have a part in the Government Health Exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition next year at San Francisco, is the request from the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor. The State Board of Health has been called on to contribute its model village, a part of the Board's better Health Exhibit, as a representative feature of its better health work. This village, in which the number of births in the homes is shown by lighted windows and the number of baby deaths by the lights going out at the windows, was brought to the notice of the Children's Bureau through North Carolina's recent health exhibit at the American Public Health Association at Jacksonville, Florida. The model, that has not failed to attract national attention, is original with the State Board of Health, being the exclusive work of that board.

ORPHANAGE MEN WILL MEET HERE

A great deal is said and written about the desirability of living in great cities, but as a matter of fact there are no such things—simply because men will not live in them. Even a great city is but a union of communities like this. London, the largest city in the world, grew out of a collection of villages that still retain much of their old identities. Investigate Chicago or New York or any other great city and you will find that while men will huddle within a small area for purposes of business, they insist on getting out into the suburbs or into independent residential sections for the purposes of living.

Now, living is the most important business that a man has to do. He picks out a place for it with the same care that he picks out a location for a factory, a store or an office; and, whenever it is possible for him to pick out the place that he likes the best, he picks out a small town, unless he is one of those foolish persons who think that joy is to be found in a calaret and pleasure in a crowd. If the normal man cannot take up his residence in a small community, that is his dream of the future.

Certainly those of us whose lives are cast in smaller towns therefore ought to congratulate ourselves. We have here one of the best towns in the world, at least in the making. We don't have to move to a metropolis to be happy, if our tastes and our desire are normal. We can make ourselves happy and the whole town happy by trying to make this not a bit town so much as a good one.

The will of the late Noah Biggs has been published and by the provisions of it he has given large parts of his estate to various institutions in which he was greatly interested. No one can help but feel that he has made a wise disposition of his property after reading his will. Although he gave much while he was alive he has given much more in his will and all to worthy causes.

President Wilson is having trouble with some of his recess appointments. These appointments were made without the approval of the Senator from that State and when they were sent to the senate they failed to be confirmed. This is about the first time the President has had any trouble with his appointments.

NEIGHBORLY ADVICE

Freely Given by a Greenville Citizen.

When one has suffered tortures from a bad back and found relief from the aches and pains, that person's advice is of untold value to friends and neighbors. The following neighborly advice comes from a Greenville resident.

Mrs. J. C. Savage, 112 Eleventh st., Greenville, says: "About a year ago I was bothered with my kidneys. I had a dull pain in my back and could not rest well at night. In the morning I was sore and stiff. Dizzy spells were frequent and when I stood and then try to straighten, my head swam, making me blind for a few minutes. The sections for my kidneys were too frequent and annoyed me considerably. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured from Bryan's Drug Store gave me much relief. After using four boxes, my kidneys and bladder were fixed up in good shape and the soreness across my loins was relieved."

Memory of Prof. Ragsdale.

The East Carolina Teachers Training School has prepared and published a booklet in memory of Prof. William H. Ragsdale. It contains a number of addresses which were delivered at a memorial service held here on May 4, 1914, and published in this booklet for the first time. The addresses are full of tributes to this worthy and good man. He is given credit for doing much of the educational work which has been done in this county and although he was busily occupied in this work he was able to take a front place in the affairs of the county and State. The Training School owes much of its present success to his aggressive, persistent leadership and work. In all of his work, as was aptly brought out in one of the addresses, he stood unflinchingly for two great ideas, righteousness in private and public life and efficiency through education.

Those who contributed to this booklet are: Prof. Robt. H. Wright, Dr. J. V. Joyner, Dr. H. W. Spilman, Mr. A. T. Cox, Hon. J. B. Grimms, Rev. C. M. Rock, Prof. C. W. Wilson, Prof. E. C. Brooks, the faculty of the Training School and the Board of Education of Pitt County.

Increase Has Been Desired For Over Four Years And Had Been Refused Once Before During Past August

Washington, D. C., Dec. 18.—Further increases in freight rates were granted to the eastern railroads today by the Interstate Commerce Commission in a decision from which Chairman Harlan and Commissioner Clements dissented vigorously.

Except in lake and rail traffic, coal, coke, iron ore and certain other traffic, upon which the Commission heretofore has fixed rates adjudicated "reasonable," all railroads operating in the territory between the Atlantic seaboard and the Mississippi, north of the Potomac and Ohio rivers were allowed the flat five per cent increase for which they have been asking for four years.

The railroads hoped to get increases which would add to the annual revenues some $59,000,000. The commission's decision is expected to give them additional revenue approximating $30,000,000.

The roads east of a north and south line drawn through Buffalo, Pittsburg and Charleston, W. Va., won by today's decision the increases otherwise denied them in the Commission's decision last August. The roads west of this line, which got partial advances in the August decision, received further advances; so that now all the roads in what is described as official classification territory will enjoy uniform advances in both class and commodity rates.

Need Additional Revenue.
 The majority of the Commission held that the roads had established in the latest hearings a greater need of additional net income than ever before. This is due, the decision held, to exigencies arising out of the war and to an already existing necessity for additional revenues to maintain railroad properties. Chairman Harlan in his dissenting opinion, held that sufficient aid had been given the roads by the August decision and that the findings of the majority were "morally wrong." Commissioner Clements based his dissent upon what he regarded as the inability, in law of the Commission to take cognizance of anything in the making of rates other than their justice and reasonableness.

NOTICE
 Notice is hereby given that at the regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Pitt County, to be held Monday, January 4th and January 5th, the Board on the 5th day of January 1915, will hear the petition to discontinue the Public Ferry at Yankee Hall, across Tar River, and also hear the petition to lay out a public Road in Pactolus Township across the lands of J. O. and W. E. Proctor, and J. P. Davenport, through what is known as Bull Ridge and the Yankee Hall farm, now owned by said Davenport.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS
 Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.
 Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it. I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it. I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me." Theford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.
