It Always Helps. says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Gardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Gardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Gardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. I wish every suffering woman would give a trial. I still use Gardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good." Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Gardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Gardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years. Get a Bottle Today!

Washington, June 22.—Conditions in the Yagu Valley, where the United States is faced with the possibility of landing forces to protect settlers against raiding Indians are described as desperate in today's State Department advice. One settler who left the valley on the last train and arrived at Nogales yesterday said half of the valley had been devastated without protest from the forty Villa troops who were the only soldiers in the region. One ranch, presumably American-owned, had been surrounded by four days by 60 mounted Indians and 300 on foot. The settlers were prepared to defend themselves against attack until American marines should arrive. He expressed the belief that Mayorrena's Mexican forces would be unable to check the Indians. Officials here believe, however, that the settler left the valley before any of the additional troops ordered to the Yagu Valley by Governor Mayorrena had been dispatched. More recent advice from American officials and others near the valley, it was said, had not reported any new attacks on foreigners. Mexico City Again Cut Off. Confirmations of the report that General Gonzales had begun occupation of Mexico City with Carranza forces was stillman's Vera Cruz said communication with the capital had been cut, presumably by Zapata raiders. Officials thought that might mean that Zapata troops had withdrawn from the capital and that raiding forces might be operating between General Gonzales and Vera Cruz. President Wilson said today he had no official knowledge that General Felipe Angelier, Villa's chief lieutenant was coming to Washington. It had been reported on the border that Angeles had been sent for by American officials, while another report was that he was coming of his own initiative to outline plans for pacifying Mexico. American Engineer Killed. Tulsa, Okla. June 22.—Robert Camp, an American mining engineer, had been killed by Mexicans at Monterey, according to a telegram message received here today by his brother, J. L. Camp, from Monterey. No details were given. Admiral Howard Gathering Information. Admiral Howard with his force at Tobari Bay, near Guaymas, reported today that he was gathering information of the present situation and had conferred with Consul Hostetter. A full report is expected from the admiral later. No further details of the defeat of the Villa expedition sent to restore order in the valley reached the city department. Officials believed only a small detachment of the eight hundred men sent by Mayorrena will not be engaged. Admiral Howard's forces of marines and bluejackets will not be

Washington, June 22.—New revolutionary activities in Haiti today caused the Navy department to order Rear Admiral Caperton and the cruiser Washington, now at Vera Cruz, over to Cape Haitien with 700 bluejackets and 200 marines. The Greenville Chautauqua is now in full progress, the performances of Tuesday which began the seven days entertainment here pleasing a large audience both in the afternoon and the evening. Prof. Chas. M. Newcomb, Superintendent of the Chautauqua in this city, proved a most interesting lecturer in the first of his lectures on "Three Representative Humorists." Professor Newcomb discussed Mark Twain in his lecture yesterday. The other two humorists that he will lecture on are Eugene Field and O. Henry. The Dunbar Noire Singers, composed of Mr. Charles Harding, pianist, and a quartet, Messrs. Harry Longstreet and Ralph Thomas and Misses Lucile Price and Freda L. Vines, were a splendid group of entertainers to help initiate the Chautauqua movement here. Their songs, dialogues and impersonations were of a refined type and this company showed itself to be indeed a versatile and artistic group, as was announced in the chautauqua program for the week. Their imitation of grand opera at the evening performance in which they sang the "Ave! Chorus", taken from Il Trovatore, which was given here at White's Theatre some time ago by the Boston English Opera Company, brought forth spontaneous applause. Perhaps one of the best and most highly enjoyed numbers of the opening program was the lecture by Chaucer J. Hawkins which concluded the evening program. This lecture on "Bright Eyes and Wild Hearts of Our Northern Wood", was an illustrated lecture. Personal experiences, corroborated by slides showing natural pictures of wild animals together with the lecturer's excellent descriptive ability exhibited in the story of his years spent in the woods, made his lecture one of the best and most entertaining of its kind ever heard here. The chronophotographs of Greenville people and different scenes snapped by the Chautauqua photographer during the day was also an added feature in the evening. Miss Josephine Wilson, leader of the Junior Noirets, was introduced to the audience just before the program in the afternoon closed. Miss Taylor outlined the purpose of her work and announced a meeting of the Juniors which was held directly after the conclusion of the afternoon entertainment. This organization is affected in one way, the meaning of "chautauque" spread among the little boys and girls in the city. The result of the movement will be seen on the last day of Chautauqua week when the "Ave! Chautauqua" play, "A Parent of Average Man" will be presented. This afternoon superintendent Newcomb gives the second of his lectures in the discussion of the Humorist of the day, Mr. Bennett Springer. Master of Magic, assisted by a number of other Chautauqua entertainers appeared on both the programs for today. Motion pictures will also be shown in the evening.

London, June 22.—Earl Kitchener secretary of war in the British cabinet, who is directing the military operations of the British empire in the great European war, is 65 years old tomorrow. It is to Kitchener that England has turned in the dark days of the great conflict. He has done wonders on the battle field, knows the needs of this day of machine warfare, and not a man who knows the hero of Khartoum. Atlanta, June 22.—While the militia was on guard at Governor Slaton's country home quiet prevailed both there and in the city today and there was no indication of a repetition of the exciting scenes of last night, which followed the announcement of the commutation of Leo M. Frank's death sentence to life imprisonment. At the governor's home it was stated that the militia will probably be withdrawn tonight. Officials of the state and city insist that last night's demonstration had ended the possibility of any menace to the governor by the people. A state of preparedness has been maintained, however, both by the police and military authorities.

Washington, June 22nd.—Admiral Howard sent by wireless to the navy department late today a statement presented to him by the Mexican military commandant at Guaymas, suggesting that Americans leave the Yagu valley, but promising to protect them if they remained, or to escort them if they departed. The commandant said a landing of American marines would be likely to "cause Americans trouble all along the coast." The following official statement was made public at the navy department: "Admiral Howard has forwarded to the navy department the following statement presented him by General Leyva, military commandant, Guaymas, Mexico, on board the Colorado yesterday: "Whereas Americans are invited to exploit Yagu Valley, there then existed no revolution and adequate garrisons were established along Yagu Valley and Indians were held in subjection, but now, taking all phases into consideration which may require unusual demands upon the military, it would appear logical for a few American who have remained in Yagu Valley to depart and not place their lives in jeopardy, rather than plunge two friendly nations into disagreement. "However, every guarantee will be given in an endeavor to afford Americans in question ample protection and if emergencies should require them to depart an adequate escort will be furnished them. Fifteen hundred Mexican troops are now available for that protection and General Sosa is now in the valley to command these troops. "And, whereas that military commandant and his officer would understand that a landing would be made under the most urgent necessity, and only for the protection of American lives, yet the masses might misinterpret the action and resent it, and undoubtedly some Indians would join their Indian brothers and furthermore such action might cause American trouble along the coast."

New York, June 22.—Confirmation of the most discussed French credit by American banks was received today when J. P. Morgan & Company announced the virtual completion of a one year loan to the Paris branch of the Rothschilds, the latter acting for the French government and the bank of France, as well as the syndicate of French bankers. The amount of the loan and its interest yield are yet to be determined, but it is intimated that the sum is not likely to exceed $50,000,000 and approximately five per cent. It will be secured by collateral in the form of high-grade American railway bonds to be placed with Morgan & Company. These bonds included some of the senior securities of America's premier roads, of which many millions of dollars worth are owned by French investors. To a large extent these securities are negotiable only in France, that provision having been made at the time of their sale to French investors. This will not affect the character of the collateral, however, should the bonds be offered to investors in this country, inasmuch as the special clause may be cancelled by private arrangement between the contracting parties. The proceeds of the loan will be used by the French government, and which recently has been the financial obligations incurred in the purchase of war supplies and foodstuffs. It is believed that the outcome of this transaction will tend materially to relate the strained credit conditions between this center and Paris and bring some sense to the London exchange market which recently has been the financial medium between New York and Paris.

Belhaven, June 22.—Local officers are holding two negroes who are believed to have escaped from some convict camp. One who gives his name as Stephen Dewey, is said to have been seen with a chain around his right leg about a week ago. He is five feet and one half inch tall, dark ginger cake color, about 35 years old, has a scar on right side of throat and weighs about 135 pounds. The other one says his name is George Thomas, alias George Thomas Hill. He claims to be from Elizabeth City. He is 5 feet, 3 or 4 inches tall, about 25 years old, has small, round head, small sharp eyes, flat nose and small mustache. Misses Anita, King and Ernestine Gibbs have returned from Elizabeth City where they have been on a visit for several days.

Denver, June 22.—One day of married life, Mrs. Dorothy A. Breslin held Judge Wright divorce trial of her suit for divorce against Harold Breslin, which she had made a mistake. Two days later she and Breslin had been pronounced man and wife, she told the court, she was compelled to leave him.

On Board U. S. S. Colorado, off Guaymas, Sonora, Mex. June 21, by radio to San Diego, Cal., June 22.—Fifteen hundred Villa troops under General Sosa were promised as protection for foreigners in the Yagu Valley at a conference aboard the warship Colorado today between Admiral Howard and General Leyva military commandant at Guaymas. ENGLAND AND SOUTH AFRICA

A few days ago General DeWet, a British subject of South Africa, was tried and convicted of treason. General DeWet had incited a revolution against the English crown, and for this he must serve six years in prison.

General DeWet is to be pitted in a small measure. It will be remembered that he was one of the most important of the leaders that fought for the independence of South Africa in the Boer War several years ago. General DeWet has been fighting for his country in the same manner that George Washington and our forefathers fought for the freedom of this country in 1776.

South Africa is under the rule of Great Britain, but the people want a government of their own, and they must, eventually secure it.

England has, in the present European war, charged Germany with committing horrible atrocities against the innocent civil population of Belgium, and of murdering dead and wounded soldiers on the battlefield.

England should also remember that she has accused of doing the same thing to the civil population in the Boer war. Not only did she murder the wounded soldiers on the field, but she had her soldiers fire on women and children in several instances during the war.

These are things that she should remember and she should also remember that General Christian DeWet was fighting for the freedom of his native country, and that the world will not give her any praise for the treatment she may accord him, if brutal.

Germany says that England throws bombs on unfortified towns. England says Germany throws bombs on unfortified towns. England says Germany has got to stop it—oh, what's the use?

Well, some of the bride's that missed getting a hold on a June husband had the consolation that another June will roll around in about twelve months.

"Eid" Stephenson, of the Raleigh Times, has had his photograph taken. We would like to have a copy of his likeness to adorn our whistly sanctum.

Still the fellows continue to throw their hat in the ring. So many of them are hooked for a run that we have lost count of the dear boy's names.

And the playground still goes as something useless, while the children dodge automobiles on the streets, constantly in danger of being killed.

Ah, this life is full of thorns and roses, pretty girls and homely men, and we hate to part from it.

Elijah went to heaven in a chariot, but that does not mean that he will be taken up in the same manner.

An exchange says that if the "D" in DeWet is silent, why in DeWet did they put it in there.

Oh Cowan, simplify your bombasticisms. We are liable to misconstrue your statements.

A man's life is in jeopardy when he disputes his wife's word and fails to vamoos immediately.

Say, there, you bone-headed knocker. If you don't like this town, get out of it.

Merchants should be doing some advertising to catch trade from the chautauqua visitors who will be here next week.

That girl who wrote all that poetry in her examination can cook good biscuits she is all O. K.

We hear some fellow's who have put their fist to a "scrap of paper" talking anxiously about the scenes.

And the blackberry wine is about here. Take a swallow dear, and see if it is good.

It's a long, long way to Christmas.

HAVE YOU THE TIME?

Have you got the time to wage a little private clean up plan, or are you to be engaged with your business affairs to give a little time, thought and labor to the health of yourself and neighbors? Right now is the time for Typhoid to set in, and it would be well to have the premises around your house cleaned up and made sanitary.

There is no excuse for you to delay this. You will never have a better chance than to start right today. Get a move on you.

SOMETHING WORTH WHILE

Yesterday saw the opening day of the Greenville Chautauqua, and we'll wager dollars to doughnuts that all who witnessed and heard the performance of yesterday evening and night, felt that they were amply repaid for the time and money that it took.

The chautauqua is something more than we realized. It is great. It is grand. It is an educator worth while, and it amuses at the same time.

It dispels the dull cares from your mind and sends you to your home, gay and happy. Go down this evening and see if what we say is true.

PATRONIZE THOSE WHO HELP US

It would be a great favor to us if the readers of this paper would patronize the merchants who give us advertising, and at the same time, mention the fact to the merchant that you saw his ad in the Reflector. It helps us and helps the merchant, too. It is a boost for the business, and makes the merchant feel that he is getting his money's worth.

At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning Mr. William E. Tolson and Miss Ethel Brown married today.

At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning Mr. William E. Tolson and Miss Ethel Brown were married in the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church of this city.

The church was simply but artistically decorated with potted flowers, sweet peas and gardenias. Mrs. S. T. Hite presided at the organ and played soft music while the guests assembled. Immediately before the bride entered the arm of her father and she was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Frank W. Brown, of Baltimore. The bride wore a becoming going-away suit of valley lilies. Rev. Jno. R. Matthews performed the ceremony. Lohengrin's wedding march was played as the bridal party entered, also as a recessional.

Mr. and Mrs. Tolson left immediately after the ceremony for Atlantic City, Niagara Falls and the Great Lakes, after which they will be at home in Detroit. Miss Brown is the accomplished and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown. She has a host of friends, who regret to see her leave the city. The groom is a prominent newspaper man of Detroit. The high esteem of the couple was shown in the numerous and handsome presents.

(Washington Daily News.)
Some people wouldn't pay a nickel to see the statue of Liberty do a handstand on her pedestal and there are others who wouldn't pay a nickel for an advertisement, in spite of the fact that they are sure of getting more than their money's worth. Both are in the same class. Don't disturb them. Let the cobwebs grow.

The Voice

No, Genevieve, the man is not exactly demoted, he is just doing a little work for the local baseball club. The reason he rides up and down the street yelling like a wild man is not for the express purpose of frightening children and horses, but that form of advertising by any means so expensive as newspaper space and it is probably worth what it costs.

Fire Prevention Meet
Asheville, June 22.—Owners of Western North Carolina timber lands are planning to hold a conference at Montreal during the time that the North Carolina forestry association is in session there to prepare for the central and prevention of forest fires in this section of the state during the approaching fall. Thousands of dollars are lost each year as a result of fires which sweep the mountain sides and it is the hope of the men in session there to prepare for the protection of their holdings from fire in the fall—the season of the year when the fires are most frequent.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior court of Pitt County in Special Proceedings 1912, entitled J. P. Harris, administrator, vs. J. H. Morris et als, the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash before the Court-house door in Greenville, N. Let Cobwebs Grow

Some people wouldn't pay a nickel to see the statue of Liberty do a handstand on her pedestal and there are others who wouldn't pay a nickel for an advertisement, in spite of the fact that they are sure of getting more than their money's worth. Both are in the same class. Don't disturb them. Let the cobwebs grow.

No, Genevieve, the man is not exactly demoted, he is just doing a little work for the local baseball club. The reason he rides up and down the street yelling like a wild man is not for the express purpose of frightening children and horses, but that form of advertising by any means so expensive as newspaper space and it is probably worth what it costs.

Having qualified as administratrix of J. H. Bunting, deceased, late of Bethel, Pitt county, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of the said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned within twelve months from date of this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. The Allies Reap Rich Successes On Western Front

Further Successes Reported for the Austro-German Armies in Galicia.

Paris and Berlin Chronicle Little Activity in Western Theater. General von Linsingen Drives Russians Across Zlota Lipa River—England Will Allow 10,000 Bales of American Cotton to Enter Sweden.

Rumania to Remain Neutral. Berlin, June 29.—Foreign Minister von Jagow and Chancellor von Bethman-Hollweg arrived in Vienna, declaring that they have assurances that Rumania will remain neutral during the war.

Will Allow Cotton to Reach Sweden. Washington, June 29.—England has agreed with the Swedish Cotton Men's Association to permit 10,000 bales of American cotton to reach Sweden Monday.

War Summary. London, June 29.—General von Linsingen has driven the Russians across the Zlota Lipa river, a tributary of the Dniester, where yesterday's Petrograd dispatches stated that the Russian army would establish itself on a new line against the Austro-German advance in Galicia. At the same time the German forces have crossed into Russian territory near Tomaszow, Poland. The Russians are beginning to evacuate positions they have occupied along the lower San.

Enormous numbers of German troops are being transported from the eastern front to the west. The greatest secrecy surrounds the movement. Official reports from Paris and Berlin chronicle little fighting of a nature calculated to change materially the situation of either adversary.

The most notable action was the fight in the Vosges, where the French suffered a momentary check. Their advance posts were thrown back during the night and the contest continued in the morning. After a terrific counter attack, in which the Germans were again dislodged, it is reported from Paris that the French again occupied all the ground they had lost.

A slight advance was made by the French infantry north of Verdun, in the Aras sector. In a sharp engagement the French gained the summit road from Lunas to Abiauh and by dint of hard fighting were able to push their advance position a few hundred yards forward.

Anglo-French troops on the Gallipoli Peninsula are heavily bombarding the Turkish right wing, according to the Turkish report, but the other side has not yet announced the result of this operation.

CONDITIONS IN THE MEXICAN COUNTRY NOT IMPROVED

Says Bulletin Issued by State Department—Americans Fleeing from Capital.

U. S. AGENTS ARE BUSY GUARDING NEUTRALITY

They Are Watching Mexican Leaders in All Parts of this Country—General Angeles, Villa's Right Hand Man, Suspected of Being Involved in Huerta Plot—Suggestions for Action for the United States to Take.

Washington, June 29.—The Carranza agency here gave out a statement to the effect that American citizens are fleeing from Mexico City into the military camp of the Carranza general, Pablo Gonzales, which is about three miles southeast of the city.

The agency also says that a committee of the diplomatic corps is asking the Zapata officials to protect the property of foreign governments. The Carranzaists here say that Zapata is about to evacuate Mexico City.

The state department gave out a short bulletin today stating that conditions in Mexico "are not reassuring."

It is stated that Carranza is rushing troops to reinforce General Gonzales.

The navy department has received a dispatch from the New Orleans at Popolobampo stating that the town of Los Nachis was raided by the Indians on the west coast on June 17th, when a British subject, John Jamieson, was killed, but that all is quiet in that section now.

Some officials here believe the time has arrived for a definite step in Mexican affairs. Two courses are now open. One is to increase the pressure on Carranza to compel him to negotiate with Villa and the other is to eliminate Carranza personally from consideration and attempt to get together Villa and prominent men allied with other factions to hold a convention to select a candidate for president, for whom all could concentrate.

It would be assured of recognition by the United States, and the latter plan is believed to be the step President Wilson will take.

Agents of the United States government were all over the country today watching carefully the movements of prominent Mexicans who have been active in Mexican politics, to see if there are no violations of American neutrality.

The arrest of Victoriano Huerta and Pascual Orozco at El Paso and the strict surveillance over Generals Felix Diaz, Hondragon, Blanquet and Felipe Angeles, now living in the United States, and others, is a part of the American government's policy to prevent the setting afoot of any new military movement in Mexico. Officials here feel that the revolutionary situation in Mexico ought not to be further complicated by the introduction of new elements.

Possibilities that others may be identified with the so-called Huerta faction intensified interest here today in the investigation by agents of the department of justice into the citizenship of one of the European believers are involved. It was said today that the department of justice was in possession of some evidence which seemed to connect General Angeles, Villa's right hand man, with the city after being gone several months.

KINSTON GETS A NEW ALL BRICK WAREHOUSE

New Central Will be One of the Most Substantial and Convenient in State.

NEW BUILDING WILL COST NEARLY $25,000

Has Floor Space of 33,000 Square Feet and Not a Post Anywhere—Light and Tobacco Will be Perfect in Any Part of Warehouse and Other Conveniences for Patrons of House. Artesian Water Pipe Into Building.

Kinston, N. C., June 30th, 1915.—Kinston's first brick warehouse is nearing completion when the Central will be one of the most substantial and conveniently arranged warehouses for the sale of leaf tobacco to be found in Eastern Carolina or any part of the state for that matter. When the work that is now under construction is completed, which will be soon, the building will be an entirely new structure and very greatly improved in many ways from the warehouse as it was originally built.

Last year the proprietors, Messrs. J. H. Parham, H. C. Wooten and E. P. Wooten spent about $10,000 in extension and other improvements. This year between $12,000 and $15,000 more in improvements have been added which makes the warehouse an entirely new building. It is now 110 feet wide by 350 feet long, giving a floor space of 33,000 square feet. There are several new features that will make it especially valuable for the display of leaf tobacco on sale. There is not a post in the entire floor space and only two in the masonry building, which are in the front and supporting sleeping quarters for patrons of the warehouse. The roof of the building has been lowered, which greatly aids in shedding light, a very important factor in selling leaf tobacco on warehouse floors. There is not any part of the building that there isn't plenty of light to show off the tobacco.

In the front part of the building there has been constructed ample sleeping quarters for farmers who come here from a distance to sell their tobacco at the Central and this is to be made comfortable for them. From a great overflow artesian well water will be conducted into the warehouse and flowing all the time for the convenience of those in the building. The office, which will be in the corner of the warehouse at Heritage and west North street, is to be handsomely fitted out and there will be double scales set aside, one in each end of the long building.

Kinston tobaccoists are making extensive improvements to take care of the business for next season and the Central will be right in the forefront.
