WASHINGTON LETTER

From Out Regular Correspondent. WASHINGTON, D.C., April 16, 1900.

Administration Senators and Representatives are wrangling fearfully over the plums made avail able by the Porto Rico Act, which goes into effect May 1. Nearly everyone of them is grabbing after at least one of the biggest and juiciest of these plums for a constituent and they are making Mr. Mc-Kinley very weary by their persistency. The selection of Mr. C. H. Allen to be governor was eutirely personal on the part of Mr. MaKinley, just as the same gentleman was personally chosen by Secretary Long to be Assistent Secretary of the Navy when "Teddy" Roosevelt resigned that office to become a rough rider. If some of the men who are after the other places over there succeed in getting them, Mr. Allen will have to Executive Committee held in keep his eyes wide open to prevent Greenville on the 14th day of his administration of the affairs of April, 1900, a convention for the the island getting into the break ers of scandal.
