WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12th. Democratic Senator and Representative who have been in Washington since the election have not been disposed to talk for publication on the result, not because they are discouraged or because they consider the future of the democratic party in either doubt or danger, but on the general principle that it is always good policy for the defeated party to let the other fellows do the talking for awhile, just as they will have to do the legislating and administering of the country for awhile. For the same reason they think the talk about re-organizing the democratic party, which has been indulged in to a limited extent since the election, premature at this time. The best policy for the democrats to adopt for a while is to keep a careful watch on the republicans, show up every blunder they make, and do a whole lot of thinking. It will be two years before there is another congressional election, and until then, the democrats will have no opportunity to get control of any branch of the National Government. The gentlemen who are talking about holding conventions, etc. for a re-organization of the party at this time, are doubtless perfectly honest and wholly unselfish in their wishes for the future welfare of the party, but if they persist they will surely be suspected by many of being more anxious to get the party reins in their hands than of really helping the party. Party reorganizations, so far as leaders and principles are concerned, are things which generally take care of themselves, as has been demonstrated more than once in the history of the democratic party, and doubtless will be again. Party upheavals which are genuine, usually start from the bottom, the rank and file of any party know how to change leaders when they consider it desirable or necessary to do so.

head of the treasury, or he would not have fathered those freak interviews given out during the campaign to alarm the business interests of the country.

It is now practically admitted by republicans that the talk previous to the election of a repeal of the war taxes was nothing more than a campaign bluff. A call for the ways and means Committee of the House to meet on the 20th inst. has been issued. The bill the committee will prepare will merely revise the war taxes some campaign obligations are to be paid that way and will not repeal all of them.

The republicans know very well that with the total appropriation for the last session of Congress of $974,000,000 and the probability that a larger sum will be appropriated by the coming session. All or nearly all of the money produced by the war taxes will be needed. The bill prepared by the committee will probably reduce the war taxes in the interests of favored classes, something like $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 a year, but the bulk of those taxes will have to be paid by the people for an indefinite period.

If Mark Hanna and the fellows who run the machine with him do not load us down with prosperity for the next four years somebody ought to hit 'em with a pumpkin remarks the Wilmington Star.

Secretary Root has gone to Cuba and for two reasons his going has caused much gossip in Washington, where it is believed to be connected with matters of importance relating to the future of Cuba, the first of these reasons is that the Cuban Constitutional Convention is now in session in Havana, and the second is that this is considered the unhealthy season in Cuba. Mr. Root's health has not been robust since he had that operation performed on him a month or two ago, and he would hardly have chosen this season for his visit to Cuba, unless his going was important.

Just $100,000 more of good American money will be invested in the Philippines if the Senate ratifies the treaty signed by Secretary Hay and the Spanish Minister, which binds this country to pay Spain that amount for three small islands located just outside of the bounds set by the treaty which ceded the Philippines to the U. S.

The orders sent to Gen. MacArthur, from Washington to take the field in person in the new campaign that is to be waged against the Philippine insurgents as soon as the rainy season ends over there show that the administration takes no serious stock in the statement constantly made during the campaign that the reelection of Mr. McKinley would be followed by the collapse of the revolution.

That was good enough talk for campaign purpose, but now orders are to fight it to a finish. In ordering General MacArthur to take the field in person, Gen. Otis, who was so generally criticized for not doing so, is indirectly given a side-sweep.

Gossip has mortgaged several Cabinet portfolios in the second McKinley administration. One died in Washington, these stories make Mr. W. W. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, who helped Hanna squeeze the rich men and corporations of that town, just as St. John Wannamaker did previous to his entrance of the Harrison Cabinet, the holder of one of these mortgages, and some go so far as to say, that Mr. Gibbs is to become Secretary of the Treasury. If the story, it will be an awful throw down for Secretary Gage, who had understood that he was to remain at the GREENVILLE, N. C.

D. J. WHICHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1900.

Why not give politics a rest now and wait a good long time before beginning the next campaign. The people need a rest.

Senator Pritchard is trying to work up a scheme to prevent Hon. F. M. Simmons from taking his seat in the United States Senate. And Pritchard is going to tackle a bigger thing than he is aware of.

Strange to say, the campaign in the Philippines has taken on increased activity as a result of the election, instead of coming to an immediate end, as had been promised by the Republicans in event of McKinley's success.

General MacArthur says that the Filipinos stick together on account of "ethnological homogeneity" which leads them to prefer "conspicuous leadership." That lends the vulgar assertion that "blood is thicker than water" all hollow.

If President McKinley had extended his invitation to his cabinet to remain with him for four years to come before the election, would he have received the same enthusiastic support that he did from two or three prominent statesmen who might be mentioned.

The best trust has put up prices again and the consumer must hold back his purse until after the election. Possibly, it might even have refrained from it altogether if Bryan had been elected and congress had stood ready to punish the trusts instead of encouraging them.

The Supreme Court of the State has appointed Attorney General Z. V. Welser as reporter. This leaves the office of Attorney General vacant to be filled with an appointment by Governor Bassett. There are several applicants for the position, but the Raleigh Post suggests that as it is similar to the third floor, R. D. Ginnard, Attorney General, to take the position and the Governor might as well appoint him and save putting a man up just to come down in a few weeks. However, the Republicans are not anxious to give to the committee a chance of sitting at the conference for a few weeks.

Noisy or not, the party has never hit on President McKinley more accurately and more cleverly than the London Spectator, which does an editorial on the American election last week with a reference to the successful candidate as a "genially eccentric man" who, seated in Filib's judgment chair, would have recently annulled the verdict of the people and have decided for Barabas? English lunatics of American political affairs and public men is prevalent, but no American citizen could have stood up on President more correctly than has been done by this London editor.—Charlotte Observer.

It appears to be settled that J. R. Joyce, late Republican candidate for Congress in the ninth district, will contest the election of McKinley, Democrat. No matter whether Joyce has any grounds of contest under the constitution, he would be free to do so unless the Republicans manage to decide that they have a big enough majority in the House without him. The merits of the matter won't enter into the case at all.—Statesville Landmark.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From the Interior Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 16th.

If radical republicans can have their way the coming session of Congress will see a political fight not equalled in intensity and bitterness since the republicans tried to pass the notorious Force bill. The object now is the same it was then to curtail the political power of the South. The present scheme of the radicals is to have the reapportionment bill under the new census provide for a reduction of the representation in Congress and of the electoral votes of nearly every one of the southern states. Needless to say that the democrats in the House and Senate will to a man fight such a bill to the last den with every legislative weapon at their command, and those weapons can be made effective enough in the Senate, if not in the House, to block all business for the entire session if it becomes necessary to prevent action on the bill. Mr. McKinley does not at present favor this scheme, but that gives no assurance that he will not favor it later. He is a follower, not a leader, of his party, and he is likely to repeat his Porto Rican success, if the radicals can control the republican caucus of the House and Senate. Senator Thurston, of Neb., seems to be hankering after the leadership of the radicals in the Senate.

Stop the Contests.

Now that the Republicans have won a large majority assured in the next Congress, surely they will be content with what they have and spare their friends and well-wishers a repetition of the disgraceful scandals which have so shocked and grieved them in the past. It is no longer necessary or even prudent to seat contesting Republicans especially those who have been notoriously defeated and whose misfortunes cannot be impeached by the common sense of reason. The party has a large working force—perhaps as large as can be safely handled—and even if all other things were equal, the propriety of increasing it would at least be doubtful. Let us hope that decency will be respected in the Fifty seventh Congress.

We have in mind the case of Dr. Richard A. Wise, of the second Virginia district, who was seated in the Fifty fifth and Fifty sixth Congresses by a purely partisan vote and in defiance of all justice and fair dealing. The facts are so transparent that they call for no review at this late day. No one acquainted with the circumstances ever doubted for an instant that Mr. William A. Young, Dr. Wise's competitor, had been legitimately elected. Prominent Republicans did not hesitate to express their disgust and shame, and when last year, Speaker Henderson had John A. Wise, the contestant's brother and attorney, ejected from the floor of the House, every honest member of the body applauded and sustained him. All knew that Young was the legal owner of the seat. Even those who voted, against equity, to seat Wise—who won out by a majority of less than three—felt compelled to blush and hang their heads. It was a bare faced case of influence and favoritism, and no self-respecting man could look on with indifference for weeks afterward, looking into a mirror without pain.

This year the force has been repeated, with the exception that Dr. Wise has another antagonist, Mr. Young having withdrawn from a contest in which he encountered nothing but the most insolent injustice. Again it appears upon the face of the returns that Wise has been defeated, and again we hear that he intends to appeal to a Republican Congress and to what is known as elections committee No. 3, of the House—a body which has earned an evil fame for miscrepancies and unhesitant partisanship. John A. Wise has been doing campaign work during the past few months, and he no doubt, will once more appeal to the party he has served so well for compensation in the form of seating in the United States District and Circuit Courts for a year, now in the Supreme Court of the United States. It came up in the Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond, Monday, and on the failure of attorneys to agree on certain points, it was sent up to the higher court. The suit involves the sum of $12,000, the proceeds from the sale of stock of the Winston Hardware Company, formerly owned by W. H. Gilbert, who went into bankruptcy. The money is held in trust by the court.

The Hope is in the Masses.

The platform of both great parties are so inflated on what will win the approbation of the people. The sovereignty of a party does not lie in its leaders but in its members and the members decide party policy. Education along political lines is the only effective means of acquiring party success. The only hope of the Democratic party is to educate the American voters on its policies and show them that they are for the best interest of the people. It is better to "reorganize" from the voters up than from the leaders down.—Gasoula News.

Happenings in North Carolina

Weldon is building a peanut factory. The state Presbyterian synod will meet next year in Charlotte. Secretary of State-elect J. Bryan Grimes has appointed G. W. Woodward, of Wake county, as his private secretary. The $100,000 damage suit of Rev. T. J. Gattis against Dr. J. C. Kilgo and others, will be called in Oxford next Wednesday. The Presbyterian Synod for the State is in session at Raleigh. Rev. Dr. W. D. Morton, of Rocky Mount, was elected moderator. Notice has been served on Congressman W. W. Kitchin, of the Fifth district, that his seat will be contested by his Republican opponent. The McCormick Harvesting Machine Company, of Chicago, has selected Charlotte as the distributing point for North and South Carolina. Wednesday night a mob broke into Stanley county jail, at Albemarle, and took away a negro prisoner who had committed murder. It is not known what disposition the mob made of the negro. Some of the labor union people in Alamance county who have vacated the homes belonging to the cotton mill owners, are now temporarily living in tents furnished by the National Union. Dr. Thos. D. Ward, who died in Raleigh last week, by his will, bequeaths $3,000 to St. Mary's Female College and $7,000 to the University of North Carolina to aid deserving students. The farmers are about through harvesting their crops and during the season they have received fairly good prices for what they have made. Regardless of elections and all other casualties they are in a remarkable state of preservation, and to some extent are prepared to observe Thanksgiving and enjoy the Christmas holidays. Whether it is owing to McKinleyism or the mercies of a Divine Providence, we are afraid to venture an opinion just at this time, as the Republicans are claiming everything in sight from a government mule to the future destiny of mankind in general. Oh, for a monarchy!

W. J. Wyatt brought some sweet potatoes in the other day, known as the vineless variety, the vine of which grow in bunches and is not near so difficult to harvest as our ordinary product. For sweetness and table use they can not be excelled. The Dixie and Free Silver Havana Cigars manufactured by the Winterville Cigar Co., have attained a notoriety, Miss Lillian became the bride of Mr. Robert M. Moye, of Greenville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. M. Watson at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. After the ceremony and receiving the congratulations of friends the couple drove to Greenville. From 9 to 11 o'clock a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye, father of the bridegroom, in West Greenville. Their home was elegantly decorated for the joyous occasion, and a sumptuous supper was served the guests.

NOVE-BARNHILL.

Two Popular Young People Wed. This was a beautiful parlor marriage solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Barnhill, near Grindrod, when their daughter, Miss Lillian, became the bride of Mr. Robert M. Moye, of Greenville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. M. Watson at 3 o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. After the ceremony and receiving the congratulations of friends the couple drove to Greenville. From 9 to 11 o'clock a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moye, father of the bridegroom, in West Greenville. Their home was elegantly decorated for the joyous occasion, and a sumptuous supper was served the guests.

Murdered Her Baby.

Dunn, N. C., Nov. 13.—A most cruel and unnatural murder, near here, was unaccounted yesterday by the discovery of the body of a child drowned in an old well in the edge of Cumberland county. It was found to be the two-year old child of a negro woman, living near town, by the name of Melissa Clegg. Upon being arrested, the heathen mother confessed that it was her child; that she carried it while asleep and threw it in the well and took a pole and held it under water until drowned. She gave as her reason that she could not take care of it and wanted to get rid of it. The murderer will be sent to Cumberland county jail to await trial in that county.

Guiteau's Widow to be Married.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—A license was issued today for the marriage of Mrs. Annie Dumire and Enoch Allen, Mrs. Guiteau's widow, who was the assassin of President Garfield in 1882. Allen is her third husband.

The real milk of human kindness never runs out. The broken engagement is the real wedding ring. It is the coal dealer who never gives himself a weigh.

Some men are most interesting when they have nothing to say. The most promising men in this country are those who never pay a cent.

This world is a great barber shop where every man awaits his turn to be shaved. The man who has boils on his neck is not necessarily a cabbage head.

The married man who goes on a tear will have occasion to worry over the rent. It is generally the man who finds fault with his surroundings.

One half the world doesn't know how the other half lives—but they are beginning to find out. It is always better to draw people to you by a snuff than to drive them from you by a frown.

In greater New York the new assessment roll of the Tax Commission shows an increase over last year in valuation of real estate amounting to $250,000,000.

Real estate have passed the three billion mark, the exact aggregate being $3,168,557,700. Assessments of personal property on the other hand, have materially declined, the total for the five boroughs being $185,574,493 for this year as against $185,903,563 a twelve month ago.

Public franchises granted to corporations are valued for purposes of taxation at $219,679,351.

Wise And Otherwise. The desire of knowledge, like the thirst for riches increases ever with the acquisition of it.—Sterne. With beating heart she up and listened. Yes there was the noise again. "Henry," she whispered, "I'm sure there's some one in the dining room. Get up and see."

"No, you don't," replied Henry, sleepily, "you want to sneak over into my place, where it's warm."

One of the best effects of thorough intellectual training is a knowledge of one's own capacities.—A Bain.

If we could get a consensus of honest opinions from foreigners we should not doubt to find that our dominant national trait is—bad business. We probably never shall live down the effect produced by the swagging, rich "trippers" and the shuffling girls who first represented us in Europe. They still are believed to be the true American types. "The American vulgarizes all that she touches," was once written into an almanac.—"An American Mother," in the November Ladies' Home Journal.

A Smile in Each.

Lots of farmers can raise about everything except money. It isn't always safe to bank on what a bank teller tells you. A close friend—the stumpy Quaker.

A receiving teller—the gossiping woman. The low cut ball dress is open to criticism. It's funny that the gilded youth never shines. Even the esobar railroad conductor can't get along without his pouch.

Some men are like cheap posters; a little money causes them to be stuck up. It's the worldly people who want the earth. Cigarettes and cigars are always puffed up. Poor coffee shouldn't furnish grounds for divorce.

Some politicians never collar a prisoner without a few cuffs. No, Maude, dear, shipwreckers are not always on the lookout for bargain sails.

In the game of life lots of girls would rather win a diamond than a heart. Fortune's smiles, like those of a woman, areickle. A man may be a cross country rider and still be amiable about it. Strange as it may seem, it is the very fresh child that is usually spoiled.
