

EASTERN REFLECTOR

GREENVILLE, N. C.

O. J. WHICHIARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1901.

If Charlotte wants to keep up with the procession now she must have a kidnapping. If you don't mind out Greensboro or Concord may get ahead of you.

The New York Journal began its existence some years ago by imitating the World. The World has returned the compliment of late by imitating the Journal. Now each says the other is a fool. This seems almost comprehensive enough to fill the bill.

Governor Russell sent his message to the General Assembly on Thursday. Some of the prominent features of the document are a strong endorsement of the establishment of a reformatory for youthful criminals, recommendations for more liberality to State institutions and for an increase of the Governor's salary.

Many of the State papers are advocating an increase the Governor's salary. The present Legislature should do this. It is not established to North Carolina that her Governor receives such small pay that he cannot afford to live in the house provided for him without drawing on his own resources. The salary for the Governor ought certainly be no less than our Congressmen receive.

One of the early bills introduced in the Legislature is to abolish the law of two years ago that makes abandonment for one year grounds for divorce. Since that law was passed the divorce mill has ground so rapidly in North Carolina that the civil has become most glaring. It should never have become a law and the sooner it can be repealed the better. The Bible legalizes but one cause for divorce, and that is law enough on the subject.

We have heard a great many of our farmers say that they will not plant more cotton this year than they did in 1900. We believe this is a wise decision. We think the farmer would do well to raise plenty of home supplies and then divide his money crop between cotton and tobacco. Some writers have predicted that this year the south will be a great field of cotton—so to speak. We hope it will not be so, because it will mean low prices, mottled farms and hard times—Kinston Free Press.

The Superintendent of Education for the State of South Carolina shows in his annual report that while more money is appropriated for the education of the whites than for the blacks there are more blacks than whites attending at the public schools. There are 153,802 colored children attending the schools, for which there was appropriated $292,171, this being at the rate of $1.30 a pupil. There are at the schools 126,805 white pupils, for whom there was spent $700,510, or $5.54 a pupil.

Over $62,000,000 was donated and bequeathed for public purposes by residents of the United States during the year 1900. Nearly $25,000,000, or considerably more than one half of the above named sum, went to universities, colleges and other educational institutions. Of the remaining $37,000,000 a little more than half went to charities, while nearly $9,000,000 was given to churches. The sum of $2,000,000 was divided about evenly between museums, art galleries and libraries.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11th. Mr. McKinley has the grip, and if he is half as badly frightened as the leaders of his party are he is not to be envied.

It isn't Mr. McKinley's present condition that has frightened the republicans, but the possibilities it calls to their minds.

When Teddy was given the second place on the ticket it was not with any idea that he would ever be President. That is why even Mr. McKinley's slight illness alarms them. They know the grip is treacherous.

Some of the Senators worked themselves up into quite an angry mood during the debate on the "cautious" amendment of the Army bill which has been before the Senate all the week, and unparliamentary language has several times been used. It is a temper in a teapot, which has been encouraged because the men responsible for the bill would rather have the "cautious" than the high standing army talked about. The Senate voted against the "cautious".

The $1,000,000 River and Harbor bill was taken up by the House and after a comparatively short debate passed without serious opposition.

The papers in the appeal in the Molinaux murder case, which will be filed at New York this week, make 6000 typewritten pages.

A New York Syndicate said to include J. Sloot Fassett, has bought the F. Souda gold mine, near Opatlan, Mexico, for $3,500,000.

The Supreme Court having decided that artie exists between P. J. O'Connell, Democrat, and W. A. Lytle, Republican, candidates for Mayor, a special election will be held at Worcester, Mass.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

William S. Jennings, a cousin of W. J. Bryan, was inaugurated as Governor of Florida.

A bill has been introduced in the Colorado Senate restoring capital punishment, and providing for election.

A bill introduced in the South Carolina Senate makes it a misdemeanor for a cotton mill to employ children under 12 years of age.

The Philadelphia Record observes that "the fighting strength of an army is largely a question of fitness," and that "to fight men must be properly fed, accoutred and provided with the requisites of strength and mobility." All of which dicta are negatived by the history of the armies of the Confederacy, the soldiers of which fought like demons, on empty stomachs.—Charlotte Observer.

We are of after a lot of fine horses and mules and will have a special sale at our stables on Friday and Saturday, 11th and 12th. Greenville Livery Company.

H. B. Hardy, Salesman, W. H. and J. B. Bieves exhibited here this week raffled 820 pounds. They did well. They were offered $41 for the hog but declined it.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

The House has passed an appropriation bill. Under it no State loses a representative, and Illinois, New York and Texas gain three each; Minnesota, New Jersey and Pennsylvania two each; Arkansas, Colorado, California, Florida, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Missouri, Mississippi North Carolina, North Dakota, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin one each.

Bit the Sheriff. This morning Sheriff O. W. Harrington went over to the Cross Roads with a warrant for a colored man named Chas. Cutler alias Charles Ward. The Sheriff found his man and went to arrest him. The negro fought the Sheriff savagely and bit him severely on the right wrist. The officer overpowered the obstreperous darkey and brought him to jail.—Daily Reflector 12th.
