WASHINGTON LETTER.

Yes, the second inauguration of Mr. McKinley was certainly carried through on an imperial scale. As in ancient Rome, the people are amused with gorgeous pageants, while they are losing their most precious profession—Liberty. It was fitting, perhaps, that a man who had just been given by a subservient partisan majority in Congress more automatic power than has ever possessed by any American President, and more than many kings are allowed to exercise, should be given an imperial inauguration. It was also in keeping with the public extravagance which has grown to such stupendous magnitude under his first administration as to stagger and frighten the conservative element of the country, that the more public should be spent upon his second inauguration than was ever spent upon the inauguration of any other President. Just how much this inauguration has cost the public Treasury will never be known, but that it is an enormous sum anyone can see. Four companies of Porto Rican troops were brought all the way to Washington to march in the imperial parade,—samples of colonial subjects, as it were; likewise the cadets from West Point and Annapolis, who had not participated in an Inaugural parade, since Grant's second, before, and the regular troops from every military post in reach. In addition to these, seven warships were brought near enough to have their entire crews in the parade. All of this cost a heap of money, of which much is added the $50,000, which is the use of the reversion office for the Inaugural ball, cost the Government. Like the legislation of the Fifty-Sixth Congress, now happily dead, the second inauguration of Mr. McKinley was conducted, regardless of expense, and the dear people must pay the bills for both.

Some war started a story that the two Colorado performing bears that were carried in the Inaugural parade by a fool-election bearer, were captured by Teddy during his recent hunting trip, and all along the line, was constantly heard: "There comes Teddy's bears." Mr. Roosevelt is said to have been made quite angry by the story and especially by the continued public reference to it. True to his declared intention of putting the Senate on record, Senator Morgan, offered his Nicaragua Canal resolution, providing for acquiring the right of way as an amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill. It was killed, as he expected it to be. The vote was 36 to 16 to sustain the chair's ruling that the amendment was not in order. Thus ended the disreputable though successful fight to prevent Nicaragua Canal legislation, which is overwhelmingly favored by the people of this country, and which the republicans pretend to favor to the extent of having had a bill passed by the House before the Presidential election. Senator Morgan cannot be blamed for having asked to be relieved of the duties of Chairman of the Committee on inter ocean canals, and he never spoke truer words than when he said: "The republicans are not friends of this canal and they know it."

Mr. McKinley didn't like the hour announcement of the Philippine amendment to the Army Appropriation bill, which heads off much contemplated looting by preventing the granting of long time franchises and the disposal of public lands in the islands, but he did not dare to veto the bill on account of the amendment, as that would have been a dead give away, showing his disappointment because the whole looting program could not be carried out. The Senate Cuban investigation cost about $15,000, and amounted to nothing. The report of the Committee says further investigation is unnecessary, because the frauds are now being handled by the Cuban Courts. It is understood that several prominent republicans felt very much relieved when the report was announced, owing to their knowledge that any real investigation would make things very unpleasant to them. Democrats have no reason to complain when the work of the Fifty-sixth Congress, which ended just before noon today, is studied. Being the minority party they could not prevent extravagant appropriation, but they did prevent the putting through the most extravagant single piece of legislation proposed—the Ship Subsidy bill. Just as they compelled the republicans to abandon the scheme to kill the bill regarding war taxes, both of which were substantial victories for the minority.

Father Greasy on Impachment. To a plain man who does not read the Constitution between the lines, the accused judges have committed a crime and misdemeanor. The prima facie evidence is against them and to volunteer for such a defense, to say nothing of its assurance, is to repeat the odious case of a "swift witness."

When the Constitution of North Carolina declares that: "The Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction to hear claims against the State, but its decision shall merely be recommendatory; no process in the nature of execution shall issue thereon." The declaration is as plain as that of the Declaration, "Thou shalt not steal;" and therefore, when the Supreme Court judges issue a mandamus to the Treasurer of North Carolina commanding him to pay certain money to a person named, that the Legislature has by special resolution, ordered not to pay to that individual, violated the rights of the Legislative branch of the State government, defied its authority, and committed an act which is defined to be a crime, and for which it defines the punishment, which is—impachment.

Now, what had a Legislature to do, which had taken a solemn oath to support the Constitution, had the judges committed the act? Had they issued a mandamus which they defied the Legislature who were true to its letter and spirit? Had the Legislature usurped any authority that was not its own? Were these acts of the judges crimes or misdemeanors according to our fundamental law? If they were, then the duty of our Legislature was plain that he who runs might read.—Elizabeth City Economist.

EASTERN REFLECTOR.
GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WHITCHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12, 1901.

Cotton keeps going right on down. And McKinley has just been inaugurated. The Emperor's reign of prosperity does not seem able to hold the staple up.

The Education Committee of the Legislature has decided to appropriate $200,000 to the public schools of the State. This is an increase of $100,000 over the last appropriation.

It is the duty of every citizen interested in the future of Greenville to work for the bond issue. The measure should be carried at the election to be held on the second Tuesday in April.

The Supreme Court Judges appeared at the bar of the Senate Wednesday, with their attorneys, to file their answer to the impeachment charges brought against them by the House. It took one hour and thirty-five minutes to read the answer, three reading clerks taking a turn at it.

Charlotte, always up-to-date in everything, has established two day nurseries in that city. These nurseries take care of the little tots whose parents are compelled to go on and work by the day. Such humane institutions prove a great blessing to the children and relieve parents of much anxiety through the working hours of the day.

The fact stands out prominently that Greenville needs improvements, and needs them badly. Without these improvements the town will make no progress for years to come. We must either go forward or retrograde, and without the contemplated improvements the latter is inevitable. Every one should work to adopt the bond issue.

The State should provide for public schools and let the normal school alone. If there is anything to be done in that line, it is to build up the normal school. But those in charge of the school don't look at it that way. They are looking out for appropriations that will make soft money for themselves first, and then if there should be any savings the surplus to be thrown to the boys and girls who can never hope to get in sight of a normal.

The fifty days limit of the Legislature for which the members can draw pay expires with today, Saturday. Are there are yet some matters pending that need attending to it is likely the day will be in session a few days longer to complete them, but the members will have to stop their salaries at their own expense. The Senate having to conduct the impeachment trial of the Supreme Court Judges, the members of that branch can draw pay for the time it is in progress. It is said that the trial will continue about ten days, but it may be longer.

On the State's business he attended to the legislature in the sixty days allowed every two years? It is a noble and unjust to expect one to remain at Raleigh working for the State at their own personal expense.—Tartro Southern.

Very fifty days is plenty of time to get on with the law was proposed to the legislature could only every four years, or even less frequently, it would be all the better. The legislature meets too often, and elections are held too often, for the good of the people. Take the present Legislature, for instance, the work it has done that is of any benefit or interest to the State at large could have been transacted in twenty days. Fully three-fourths of the bills enacted have been of purely a local character and pertained to matters that might easily be transacted by the Boards of County Commissioners and by the Superior Court Clerks if the powers of these officials were enlarged just a little. This way of consuming the time of the Legislature would be no need of a Legislature every two years.

There seems to have been some very gross negligence practiced at Washington in the matter of paying government employes for work they have not done. According to a recent report of a special committee of the House to investigate the employment roll, a number of persons have been paid for work not done and for time not accounted for. Employes are much absent from their post of duty. It was stated that one employe had not worked more than six months in the four years he has been employed, has been drawing his salary all the time and has not been in Washington for eleven or twelve months. All these abuses ought to be corrected and the people look to their representatives in Congress to do it.—Scotland Neck Common wealth.

Asheboro Courier says one of our North Carolina papers in a recent issue, says the preachers of a certain town are delivering a series of sermons on the subject of "paying debts" and that they are notifying their members to be present at every service. To be sure it is not wrong to get in debt, and sometimes to stay in debt is all right, but it is wrong to neglect a debt when it can be paid. We always had the highest respect for the "Hardshells" because they do not let members remain in their church who refuse to pay debts when they can. It would be the proper thing for all churches to deal with their debtors to the same extent as these "Oxford Leaders."

Representative Brick, of Indiana, has a constituent who thinks he should have a pension because he sent a substitute to the civil war. "I am old and feeble," he wrote to Mr. Brick, "and I don't suppose I shall live a great while, but I need money while I do live. I think the Government owes me something. I paid a man $900 to buy my place in the war when I was drafted, and he was killed in action. Now, I think I am entitled to a pension or should get the $900 bill. Will you please see that I do?"

The Danbury Reporter says that the farmers of Stokes county are showing less interest in another year's crop of tobacco than ever before in its memory. It does not believe the crop being prepared for will exceed 75 per cent. of last season's production. A number of farmers have been heard to say that they did not expect to use any commercial fertilizer under their tobacco the coming season.

With Fitzhugh Lee and James H. Wilson finally retired as brigadier-generals of the regular army the hour of final regularization of the blue and the gray should be measurably advanced. Fitting honors have never been more worthily bestowed than in recompense accorded by a grateful nation to these two officers of the volunteer army.—Philadelphia Record.

Mr. McKinley has stated that he would not again send the nomination of either Schley or Sampson to the Senate for promotion. In that case they will both be retired as rear-admirals, Schley next October, and Sampson three months later, and Schley will receive no reward for having destroyed Cerberus's fleet.

ELECTION NOTICE.

To the Voters of the Town of Greenville.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina, at its present session, has passed an act entitled "An Act to Authorize the Town of Greenville to Issue Bonds for Works of Improvement" to the amount of Seventy-Five thousand Dollars, if the qualified voters of the town shall so vote at an election to be held on the second Tuesday of April, 1901.

And whereas, the Board of Aldermen of said town at a meeting held on the 7th day of March, 1901, in accordance with said act did designate the following places in the several wards in which said election should be held on the said second Tuesday in April, 1901 from 8 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m., to wit:

First Ward—at the Colored Old Fellows Hall on Front street.

Second Ward—at the Clark office on corner of Third and Greene streets.

Third Ward—at the Court House on Evans street.

Fourth Ward—at the Marcellus Moore store on Five Points.

Fifth Ward—at the Farmers Warehouse on Dickinson avenue.

At said meeting the Board also appointed the following named persons as Registrars and Judges of Election to hold and conduct such election, to wit:

First Ward—B. B. Jarvis Registrar. W. J. Cowell and S. P. Humphrey Judges.

Second Ward—Chas. Jno. O'Hagan Registrar. J. L. Sugg and L. C. Arthur Judges.

Third Ward—L. W. Lawrence Registrar. H. C. Hooker and H. A. White Judges.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.

Well, well! Teddy has tired of being the whole show already. He glared at the galleries, the occupants of which were appraising him, and threatened to have them cleared by the sergeant—at arms if the applause was repeated. Really, Teddy will have to take something for his ingraving modesty.

Senator Morgan is determined to keep before the people the fact that it is British influence that has caused and is causing republican opposition to Nicaragua Canal legislation. In view of the fact that the Hay-Bunauvarre treaty lapsed by limitation March 4, and in line with that determination Senator Morgan has introduced a resolution declaring the Clayton-Bulwer treaty abrogated. The republicans have met this by declaring that the Senate cannot alone abrogate a treaty, and have gone away back to 1808 to find a precedent showing that the House must also act and the President sign to bring about the abrogation of a treaty. This is because they do not wish to have Senator Morgan's resolution considered at the present extra session of the Senate.

Senator Morgan made a speech in support of his resolution that was one of the warmest heard on the floor of the Senate for a long time, in which he said of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty: "We will make no compromise with Great Britain on this subject. We will make no concession to Great Britain in relation to that treaty. What we shall do will fit and square with the people as opposed to that, is that we will declare it abrogated. If the vote on my resolution could be taken today it would inform the President that he has no two-thirds vote in the Senate to adopt any compromise he may make with Great Britain. If it is the purpose of Great Britain still to look for delay she will not get it. If it be her determination to pick a quarrel with us about it she will find the United States can muster at least half of the number of our people who voted for President in the last election-fighting men. And she will find, when the war terminates, that the steel band which binds the throne in London with Australia and India and passes through Canada will have been rent in twain; and with its severance down will go the empire."

Senators Patterson, of Colorado, Dubois, and Heifield, of Idaho; Harris, of Kansas, and Turner, of Washington, attended the caucus of Democrats held this week to consider ways and means of dealing with the republican scheme for introducing the Reed rules in the Senate and making that body, like the House merely a machine to record the will of one man. Senators Jones, of Nevada; Wellington, of Maryland; Teller, of Colorado, and Allen, of Nebraska—Mr. Allen will retain his seat in the Senate under the governor's appointment until his successor is elected or the legislature adjourns without electing a Senator—who now send themselves independent did not attend the caucus, but it is believed that they will join the democrats in opposing a closure rule in the Senate. Senator Teller says that whatever may be done at the regular session, he is very certain that no closure rule will be adopted by the Senate at the extra session. It is difficult to see how one can be adopted at any session without the consent of the majority, as the proposition can be indefinitely debated under the present rules.

The secret of why Senator Carter so unexpectedly sank the River and Harbor bill to death in the closing hours of the recent session of Congress has been ascertained. He acted for Mr. McKinley, who, with his little veto, Carter was chosen to do the work because as he was about to leave the Senate he did not object to offending influential Senators and he knew that the failure of the bill would not make him any enemies in Montana. It is said that Carter's reward will be aid from the administration to return to the Senate, and falling in that a fat Federal office for himself or the control of Federal patronage in Montana as he may prefer.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., March 6.

Mrs. C. A. Fair returned Tuesday evening from Baltimore and the northern markets, where she purchased the largest and prettiest line of silks for ladies' waists, embroideries, insertions, gilt trimming and millinery ever brought to this market. The ladies are cordially invited to call and examine her stock.

1,000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. The Hunsucker Carriage Co. receives orders for buggies by the car load.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner left Monday evening for Kinston, where he has been spending the week with his son, who is a merchant in that place. Rev. Mr. Faulkner will fill his regular appointment at Ayden tomorrow.

Misses Vairia and Gladly Fleming left on the train yesterday morning to visit relatives near Greenville. They will return Monday and resume their studies at the Winterville High School.

10,000 good second-hand white oak spokes wanted by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Herbert White was here again Wednesday in his capacity as insurance agent. Herbert is popular here and does a nice business every time he comes.

We are rather inclined not to notice the presence of James L. Fleming in our town last Wednesday. We didn't see him, but heard from him, and as he is a pretty good fellow we cannot pass him by.

Johnnie Tucker, of Grimesland, who has been in attendance upon the present session of the Winterville High School, we regret very much to say, owing to the continued sickness of his father, had to give up his studies and return home. Johnnie is a tip-top boy and we hope soon to have him with us again.

Eddie Clark, of Black Jack, spent yesterday here.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kinston, was the guest of A. G. Cox Wednesday. Mr. Blanchard and the directors of the Winterville High School contemplate building a large three story dormitory for the accommodation of the students. The building will be erected at a very early date. And still we forge ahead!

Charles H. Lancaster, who has been so seriously ill near here for the past few weeks, we are glad to learn is very much improved and there are favorable indications of his final recovery.

G. T. Tyson, of Beaver Dam, called to see us Tuesday.

Make a Note Of It.

The newspapers of the State will make note of the fact that the new libel law is quietly sleeping in the House committee. Some of the members of House are opposed to granting the newspapers of the State a just and reasonable libel law. They want the support of the newspapers in the campaign, but whenever the newspapers ask for simple justice, they want to refuse them the slightest consideration. The newspaper that spends its days and nights working for the election of such men is foolish.—Raleigh Times.

If there is a CROSS MARK in the margin of this paper it is to remind you that you owe THE EASTERN REFLECTOR for subscription and we request you to settle as early as possible. We need what YOU owe us and hope you will not keep us waiting for it.

This notice is for those who find the cross mark on their paper.

LOCAL REFLECTIONS.

Honor Roll
The Greenville public school closed today, and the following pupils deserve honorable mention for their work during the last month: Alma Tucker, Charles Tucker, Mattie Jenkins, Ethel Cheek.

God Bless Them and Their Work.
Three little Misses, Nina Harris, Allie Estelle Greene and Eloise Fletcher, called together at THE REFLECTOR office, Friday afternoon, bearing the message that they had been appointed a special committee by the Bright Jewels Society to call in person and thank the editor for his remarks on the report of their work published in Thursday's paper. THE REFLECTOR has never felt more honored than by the visit of these little girls and the message they brought. It made us want to join with "Uncle Betts" in saying "God bless the children, they are His ministering angels." If all possessed more of the child spirit, and exemplified more child-like love and faith, the world would be so much brighter.

It is Repairing.
As long as no one else would solve the problem, the Board of Aldermen settled it for themselves by saying it was repairing and not erecting a building. So the fifth street owners get back their House that the fire came so near taking away for the next puzzle that may be sprung on them.

Philippine Fruits.
There was an extra car attached to passenger train No. 34, which arrived in Charlotte last night over the Southern Railway from Atlanta. It was a Pullman sleeper, and its occupants were insane soldiers who were being brought home from the Philippines. They were landed at San Francisco a few days and were there placed in the car which is carrying them through to Washington. The car contained a sergeant and sixteen privates, every one of them crazy. Four or five of the men were handcuffed.

Honor Roll.
At the close of Mrs. Manning's school, the following names deserve being enrolled upon the roll of honor:

MABEL.
Nora Forbes, Neva Forbes, Hatie Sutton, Nannie Sutton, Nancy Smith, Carle Smith, Mary Parker, Mand Sutton, Juanita Manning.

Show Your Interest.
The article in THE REFLECTOR Friday relative to the fire department has put some of our property owners to thinking. We hope they will continue this thinking until Monday night, the time for regular meeting of Hope Fire Company, and be induced to attend the meeting and show some interest in the company. It is for the protection of your property that the company exists, and you are the one who should be most interested.

CHIEF GRIFFIN RESIGNED.

A Serious Loss to the Fire Department.

It is with regret that Capt. A. J. Griffin has resigned as Chief of the Fire Department of Greenville. He has been a most efficient officer in that position, giving his closest personal attention to all the apparatus of the department and keeping it in order, as well as getting in the thickest of the battle whenever a fire occurred. Noman has tried harder than he to get up a good fire department and what the town has is due in a great measure to his efforts. At the same time it has been very mortifying to the Chief to see that the citizens of the town showed so little appreciation and took so little interest in the fire department. It was enough to discourage him that the property owners of the town, who ought to be interested, would not join the department and help to make it better, and would not even extend a helping hand to the volunteer boys who would go struggling along through the sand with the hose reel to save somebody's property, yet those same people were quick enough to criticize and even speak abusively about the department when things were not done just in accordance with their notions. This spirit, or disposition, is responsible for the present state of affairs.

THE REFLECTOR wants to see the fireman encouraged so that the department may be efficient, and time and again in the past urged its claims upon our citizens. The fire department is composed entirely of volunteer membership, and it can hardly be expected that men with any sensibility about their duties and hardships required when those whose property they protect take no part with them and help to bear none of the burden. The property owners must change their disposition toward the firemen if they want to see a good company.

FARMVILLE RIPPLES.
FARMVILLE, N. C., March 5 1901. Since our last ripple many changes have taken place. The weather is cold today, but a few days prior to this have been warm and pleasant.

The farmers in this section are making splendid progress in getting ready for planting their crops.

Mr. S. M. Albrington, who has been spending some time in Winterville and Kinston, returned home Monday last. Her many friends were glad to see her return.

Rev. D. W. Arnold and J. M. Windham made a flying trip to Raleigh this week.

The death angel entered the home of our friend, Mr. Tom King Wednesday night, and took for its own Mrs. King. Our hearts go out in sympathy for the bereaved husband and the two sweet little children who mourn their loss, and hope they can carry less may be near eternal rest.

Mrs. Laura Murphy, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Lang, returned to her home near Kinston, Sunday.

Rev. Louis Everette is now occupying the new and handsome residence lately erected by W. G. Lang, on East street.

The residence of Eli Williams on Main street has lately received a fine coat of paint and looks quite handsome now. Much credit to R. L. Joyner who has had the work in hand.

The C. W. B. M. auxiliary will hold its exercises in the Christian church here next Sunday evening at 3 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

HATS ON OR OFF!

One respect in which Southern and Southern men differ. According to the etiquette of the day, it is not requisite that a man shall remove his hat in the presence of a woman in a public thoroughfare or conveyance. Nobody thinks of a man's going into a street or a railroad car or a cab because he is in the company of women. The elevator of a business building or a hotel is certainly a public conveyance, and the elevator of a public thoroughfare, for example, in our opinion, comes toward the fair sex does not require a man to remove his hat in either place because there happens to be a woman present.

Having said, however, that courtesy does not require the removal of a man's hat under the circumstances recounted, we do not mean to disparage in the slightest degree the chivalrous interest of the man who does remove his head covering. If you feel that you ought to take off your hat in an elevator, do so. If you are uncomfortable with it, get it off at once. Those things are largely matters of custom. In New York men keep their hats on with a persistence that is somewhat shocking to the Southern. If the man in Gotham has any doubt about whether he should have his hat in his hand or on his head, you will not find it in his hand. He takes as much respect as the law will give him. On the contrary, it has not been very long since it was the proper thing in Charleston for a gentleman to stand with his hand on his hat during all the time he was conversing with a lady even if he met her in the street, and for a woman to be, for a few minutes, dressed in state South Carolina who observed that pretty but unhygienic custom in this very day. Virginia, it will be observed, is about half way between Charleston and New York—Norfolk Landmark.

KNOW HIS BUSINESS.

The Little Boy Was Thoroughly Frightened as He Discovered "Little boy" exclaimed the portly lady, "you ought to be at school instead of trying to work a lift." "It is not trying to work a lift," was the answer; "I'm working it, and if you wish to ride I shall be happy to accommodate you, so far as any obligation to be at school is concerned, I mean to remind you that this is a legal holiday, and any citizen coming to an institution where I am pleased to say, I am at the head of my class."

"You have no business trying to work that lift, anyhow."

"Because you are too young to know anything about it."

"This lift is worked by hydraulic pressure, the principle relied on being that water exerts pressure in proportion to the height of a column rather than in proportion to the diameter. In multiple use of this characteristic water is admitted into a cylinder, the pressure being regulated by the use of valves and a stable combination being made possible by an ingenious system of counterweights. I could go further into the minutiae of the particular machine, which of course has its variations from other models," he added as he stepped in a momentary "but I doubt if you could follow the technical terms whose use an accurate description would make it difficult to understand. You that if, after what I have said, you think you know more about this lift than I do, you are at perfect liberty to step in and take its management out of my hands."—Pears's.

West Around the Spear. Before Bismarck reconstructed the Empire, the United States and Germany a dozen little principalities used to annoy travelers by stopping them at their frontiers until they had satisfied the custom house demands. A Yankee once had his carriage stopped at the frontier of a petty principality in the Her Ober controller at the custom house came forward and, much to his indignation, was received in a somewhat way. The Yankee was ungenerously enough not to get out of his carriage or even to take off his hat. The Her Ober sharply demanded the key of the tourist's trunk, which his subordinate began handling roughly.

"Here! Hands off!" shouted the Yankee, "I don't want to see the United States of America to be controlled by you. Put those trunks back. I'll not go through you at all. I'm here, I'm in no hurry and I don't care for losing a day. You're no good. You're only a spot. I'll go around you."—Chicago News.

"It was a man who opened the door when the look guard saw the bell, but a woman stood by for the bell, and she was the one who opened the door. There had been a few warm words. "It would like to talk to the help of the house for a few minutes," said the look guard.

"That is utterly impossible," replied the man pleasantly. "You may see her if you wish, but you can't talk to her for a few minutes that is in my opinion a woman's business."

The chief of all this is perhaps the most of it. Yet, according to an estimate by the Government, in 1900, the United States had a population of 75,000,000.

UNCLE SAM'S DISPLAY.
Government Exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition.
The United States government has appropriated $50,000 for an exhibit at the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1901. To view the exhibit buildings and their multitude of treasures alone would be well worth going a long distance. The exhibit is more beautiful than those of the government group at the Columbian Exposition, while the cost is less than was expected. It has little less than was expected.

EXPOSITION SCULPTURE.
Pan-American has the Best Ever Seen at a Show.
In its sculptural adornment, as well as in several other respects, the Pan-American Exposition will far surpass any enterprise of the kind ever held. There are over 125 splendid original groups, and they are to be used around the Court of Fountains, the Lapidary and the Electric Tower. They will establish the purposes of the buildings and exhibits and bring out the poetry in what may seem exceedingly prosaic things.

After crossing the Triumphal Bridge, which is the grand formal entrance to the main court and is itself to be decorated with splendid statuary, one will see to the right and left, at opposite ends of the main court, the Fountain of the Sun and the Fountain of the Moon and the Fountain of the Stars. The Fountain of the Sun, by Charles Grady, is the central fountain at the east end of the main court.
