STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina

Four cases of smallpox have been found in one house near Rocky Mount.

Governor Aycock has appointed H. M. Justice Judge of one of the new districts, the 14th.

According to the Southern, Tarboro is much excited over mad dogs. Two were seen in that town Sunday and a boy was severely bitten by one of them.

The storm Monday extended pretty much over the State. At Winston and in Granville county it developed into a cyclone, doing considerable damage.

Three confidants were being tried at Greensboro. They were arrested to make a "gold brick" trade with Paul Garrett, of Weldon and he set a trap which lauded them.

A carload of bananas refused by the consignees was sold at Charlotte, Saturday, for freight charges. Fine ones went as low as ten cents a bunch. Somehow Charlotte gets the best of whatever comes along.

The State Printing Commission has awarded the contract for the State printing to Edwards & Broughton and E. M. Uzzell, of Raleigh, jointly, they being the lowest bidder.

The Alderman of Charlotte have decided to accept of the offer of Andrew Carnegie to give $20,000 to establish a public library there on condition that the city provide for $2,500 annually to support the library.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

When some people lose their minds they don't miss much. You are not obliged to believe all the evil things you hear about yourself.

Your success is a crime which many of your 'friends' can never forgive.

The average girl looks out for a man with a fine figure—in his bank account.

The only thing a man wants after he gets all the money he needs is more money.

There are too many people in the churches who want to dead-head their way to heaven.

If all the people who give good advice would follow it themselves the world would be full of angels.

It is said that marriage is a lottery. We call the attention of the postmaster general to this matter.

There is one class of joiners who are not affected at all by any labor strikes. We refer to the ministers.

We are glad to know that it is no longer fashionable to call people lazy—they are only taking the "rest cure."

Harrowing a man's feelings won't help toward cultivating his acquaintance.

The course so cruelly inflicted upon the South, involving greater injury to the negro than his white neighbor, is gradually but surely working its way back to its birthplace. The Philadelphia Record says:

"But the question of the policy of disfranchising illiterate voters is quite another matter. There are very strong reasons for such a course of action. In Pennsylvania we do not hesitate to disfranchise citizens who are so indifferent or shiftily or impetuous as to neglect the payment of their taxes, be they ever so well qualified for the judicious exercise of their right. There is much more solid ground of public policy in barring illiterates away from the ballot box.

"Bringing the matter home to ourselves, would it make for better or for worse home government in Philadelphia if the sudden colored vote in the Seventh ward should be stifled by such a test of literacy and literacy as would be developed by making the right of the citizen to vote dependent upon his ability or non-ability to read the names on the printed ballot?"

Doctors Say:

Biliousness and Intermittent Fevers which prevail in miasmatic districts are invariably accompanied by derangements of the Stomach Liver and Bowels.

The Secret of Health. The liver is the great "driving wheel" in the mechanism of man, and when it is out of order, the whole system becomes deranged and disease is the result.

Tutt's Liver Pills Cure all Liver Troubles.

The Confederate Veterans of Chattanooga, Tenn. have begun a movement for the erection of an elaborate monument in commemoration of the "heroic women of the South during the civil war."

The plan is to receive only voluntary contributions from the different camps of that order, and already a liberal sum has been deposited in a bank for that purpose. It is definitely stated that only free offerings are desired, and no entertainments or other schemes for raising money shall be indulged in for this purpose.

BAY STATE AT BUFFALO.

The Historic Commonwealth of Massachusetts will be represented at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo.

It is being collected through the cooperation of various societies, such as the Sons of the Revolution, Daughters of the Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Daughters of the American Revolution, the Society of the War of 1812 and kindred organizations. The chairman of the Massachusetts Pan-American commission, Mr. Walter Gilman, says: "It is the pride of the various societies and is anxious that the wealth of historic material possessed by Massachusetts be adequately represented at the Pan-American Exposition."

The matter of a building has not yet been definitely decided, but it is probable that the old Providence House, which was one of the historic buildings of Boston, will be reproduced as a home for Massachusetts exhibits at the Exposition.

The building was not yet built when the old Providence House, which was one of the historic buildings of Boston, will be reproduced as a home for Massachusetts exhibits at the Exposition.

GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WICHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2, 1901.

Again comes the report that Aginaldo is captured, and unless it is dealt with in the next day or two he may be captured sure enough this time. The report says that General Fuston tugged the insurgent leader and has taken him to Manila.

There is a calling of conventions again in the cotton growing states to get the farmers to agree to reduce the cotton acreage. It may result as such efforts have resulted in the past—everybody thinks everybody else is going to cut down the acreage and this particular everybody puts in a larger crop than ever. If cotton don't come down to 6 cents next fall it will hardly be the fault of the farmer.

Now that the impeachment trial has become a thing of the past about the only interest the public feel in it is to know how the Senators voted. They may want to remember that sometime in the future. Five articles were voted on separately, the vote on the first one being as follows:

Guilty—Alexander, Arrington, Aycock, Bray, Broughton, Burroughs, Calvert, Fox, Granger, James, Justice, Lindsay, McNeill, Miller, of Pamlico, Morrison, Morton, Scott, Smith, Spaight, Thomas, Travis, Vann, Ward, Watrous, Webb, Woodard—27.
Not guilty—Brewer, Buchanan, Candler, Crisp, Currie, Dula, Foushee, Glenn, Henderson, Leak, Landon, Long, Marshall, McAlister, McInosh, McIntyre, Michael, Miller, of Caldwell, Plunk, Robinson, Sikelester, Stungfield, Suggs—23.
Democrats voting not guilty were Brown, Currie, Foushee, Glenn, Henderson, Leak, Landon, Long, McAlister, McIntyre, Stungfield, and Suggs.

That was a sad case printed in The Danville Bee yesterday where the North Carolina father came to Danville to get his daughter who had gone astray. She had been a good girl at home but had been a member of the church and Sunday school—and she had left home and stopped in Danville, and chose to become a woman of the town. All the time that she was living beneath the roof of the red tiled windows which floated the scarlet flag of sin she wrote to her people letters full of cheer and hope and told how she was prospering as a sewing girl. Finally the eyes of the old people were opened by a friend. The father came, bowed down with grief and found his unmarried daughter with a child six weeks of age and he took her to his arms and carried her back to her home—back where innocence and virtue and love and hope still dwelled. How many fathers would have done what that old man did? Many doubtless, but not all. As he carried his sorrow in silence and returned with the soiled and pallid daughter, maybe, maybe somewhere beyond this world of strife, a white-winged angel saw the old man did and write upon the scroll: "Both shall be saved!"—Danville Bee.

And what about the man who is the author of the downfall of this girl? Doubtless he is being received with open arms in society and regarded as a fine fellow, as is usually the case with such. The villain ought to be wearing striped clothes and doing time in the penitentiary. It is time society (?) was realizing that such a man should not be countenance by people of respectability.

The fellow who has never had a rival in love isn't much of a lover. A man doesn't have to be liberal to give his daughter away when she is married.

ANOTHER FACTORY.

Will Make Sash, Doors And Blinds.
About a week ago THE REFLECTOR stated that some good news had been promised it relative to manufacturing enterprises for Greenville. We are able to give this news today, the facts being furnished us by Mr. F. M. Hodges, the secretary of the new organization.

A company has been organized to build and operate a sash, door and blind factory, with a paid in capital of $5,000, privilege to increase to $30,000. Those taking stock in the factory have held a few meetings to talk over the matter. Friday night they held a meeting at which organization was effected. The following officers were elected: President—J. G. Moyer, Secretary—F. M. Hodges, Treasurer—J. L. Little, Directors—J. A. Andrews, C. S. Carr, J. R. Moore, R. W. King, C. B. West.

A couple of Durham young people were principals in a romantic marriage Wednesday night. The young lady jumped out of the window of her home into her lover's arms, they drove about six miles in the country and were married in the public road at 11 o'clock.

BLACK JACK ITEMS

BLANK JACK, N. C., March 28. Ed Lupton, of Ayden, failed to fill his appointment here Sunday night. The cause was such unfeeling weather.

Miss Lucy Linton, formerly a teacher of Ayden Seminary, took charge of a school near Grimesland Monday.

Abram Dixon, an little niece, Beva Mills, went to Washington Saturday and returned Sunday.

Quite a large crowd attended the funeral of Mr. Redding Hudson last Wednesday. He died suddenly Monday evening. The little five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Moore was buried Monday. He lived only a few days after being seriously burned.

Wedding bells are echoing in the neighborhood of Black Jack. We are glad to state that Mr. Jesse Mills, who has been seriously ill with mumps, is able to get out again.

Mrs. Rena Smith and daughter, Lula, returned last Sunday from Vanceboro.

Little Miss Beva Mills came in Thursday evening from an extended visit to her papa's. We were glad to hear her back.

Josh Mills, of Greenville, was here today.

Luiner and Heber Dixon went on a flying trip to Beaufort county Sunday.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina
The graded school at High Point has been closed for a week or two because of the death of a pupil of scarlet fever.

The State Guard will have an encampment at Wrightsville beach in July or August, three regiments going in camp at the time.

The ice manufacturers of the State have formed an association to control the price of ice and lessen the cost of manufacture.

Mormons are making many converts at Mount Olive, Wayne. One day this week nine persons left that town for Utah. Most of the converts are among the poor and ignorant.

A Charlotte man ate 48 bananas in 20 minutes, Tuesday night. He said he had never had enough of the fruit before, but he seemed to get his fill this time. He was alive at last account.

A couple of Durham young people were principals in a romantic marriage Wednesday night. The young lady jumped out of the window of her home into her lover's arms, they drove about six miles in the country and were married in the public road at 11 o'clock.

LAMP FALLS.

Early Wednesday evening a large lamp in the store of Ricks & Wilkinson fell and caused much damage to their stock. Mr. J. A. Ricks, of the firm, was north purchasing goods. Mr. C. L. Wilkinson, the other member, had just closed the store a few minutes before the accident to go to his supper.

The cause of the lamp falling was due to the pulling out of the hook by which it was suspended from the ceiling. It was the rear lamp in the portion of the store occupied by the clothing department. Under and near where the lamp hung were the counters and drawers filled with clothing. The lamp fell right in the midst of this stock of clothing and instantly there was a big blaze. There were many people passing along the street going to the postoffice and the fire was quickly discovered.

The store was broken open and a crowd rushed in to put out the fire. An alarm was given and for awhile there was great excitement. So much oil and clothing burning made a dangerous looking fire for the time being. Owing to its prompt discovery it did not take many minutes to put it out, but in this short time great damage was done, hardly a garment in the clothing department escaping injury and much of it being burned.

Ricks & Wilkinson had on hand $4,000 worth of clothing on hand, and to look at it now it has the appearance of being practically a total loss. The stock was insured.

During the excitement someone took advantage of the situation and robbed the money drawer of what money was in it, something over $50.

The building, which belongs to Broop & Hooker, was somewhat damaged about the floor, ceiling and counters. This is covered by insurance.

THE END OF THE CENTURY CLUB.

On Tuesday the Club was most charmingly entertained by Mrs. J. L. Fleming at Hotel Macon. The meeting was called to order by the president and business of importance transacted. Members were urged to keep up their work with pen and ink when the magazines and books are received and passed, as failure to do so will subject them to a fine.

After the business was disposed of the hostess distributed papers composed of questions the answers to them being the names of flowers. The result of the contest was a tie between Miss Woolford and Mrs. Picklen and was drawn by the latter.

After partaking of delightful refreshments the Club adjourned to meet at Cottondale on April 9th.

A. H. Brown and R. P. Priest, of Maiden, Mass., who have been visiting Prentiss Cotton, at Cottondale, took a train here this morning for their home.

Mess. Harvey Jones, Tom Hooker, T. J. Moore, B. A. Tyson, M. H. Quinley, C. B. Mayo, of Greenville, and Dr. Geo. B. W. Hadley, of LaGrange, were in the city to attend the concert.—Kinston Press, 28th.

Judge Carroll Cook, San Francisco, makes the unique complaint that he has not enough work to do. His honor declares that there has not been a criminal case in his department for a month, and that as a consequence he is suffering from ennui. Under its new charter San Francisco pays no fees to public officials, and it is said that a large falling off in the number of criminal prosecutions has resulted.

No other sovereign in the world has so many physicians as has the Car. They number twenty-seven, and all selected from among the medical celebrities of Russia. There is first a physician-in-chief; then come ten honorary surgeons, two oculists, a chiropodist and honorary chiropodist, two court physicians and three specialists for the Cararia.

Drank Whiskey and Died.
The seven-year-old daughter of P. E. Barham, in Rockingham county, on Tuesday morning told her mother she was going to get drunk to see how it felt. Soon after she was found lying in the yard speechless, she having drunk a pint of whiskey, which she had hidden in an outhouse. The physicians were summoned, but could give no relief. She died in a few minutes.

An Elopement.
A few days ago there was some excitement a few miles in the county about the elopement of a white woman named Baker with a colored man of ginger cake hue named Savage. It seems that Baker moved from near Ringwood to this community about the first of the year. A few days ago Mrs. Baker, and the negro both became missing and nothing more has been heard of them.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

King's Daughters' Convention.
The twelfth annual convention of the International Order of the King's Daughters and Sons will be held at Greenville, N. C., on April 30th and May 1st and 2nd. All circles in the State are earnestly requested to send delegates and at once to notify Mrs. J. B. Cherry, Greenville, in order that arrangements may be made for their entertainment.

Local Reflections.

If the town had electric lights the use of dangerous lamps could be avoided. Vote for the bonds.

The Kings' Daughters are making much preparation for the meeting of their State convention here April 30 to May 2.

The Greenville Supply Co. are preparing to build a large brick warehouse on the corner of Dickinson avenue and the railroad.

The highest praise has been given me by those to whom I have sold the Standard Sewing Machine. S. M. SCHULTZ.

Leading Cotton Counties.
The fifteen cotton counties of the State are in the order named as follows: Robeson, Richmond, Union, Mecklenburg, Wake, Anson, Wayne, Johnston, Halifax, Pitt, Edgecombe, Northampton, Cleveland, Wilson, Fredrick.

Special Term.
Governor Aycock has ordered a special term of court for Pitt county, beginning Monday, May 27th, and continuing two weeks. Judge W. A. Hoke has been assigned to hold this special term. It is for the trial of civil causes only, and is to take the place of the March term that could not be held.

Jefferson Hotel Burned.
Friday night the Jefferson hotel at Richmond was destroyed by fire. All the guests were saved but there were several narrow escapes. The fire originated in the blanket room on the fourth floor and is thought to have been caused by a defective flue. The Jefferson was the finest hotel in the South and was the pride of Richmond. Its destruction is a great misfortune.

Marriage Licenses.
Register of Deeds T. R. Moore issue 1 marriage licenses to the following parties last week:

WHITE
J. H. Stocks and Pattie Cox.
COLORED
Abe Pitt and Fannie Knight.
Hermond Shock and Jennie Valentine.

During the month of March the total number of issues was 21, of which 8 were for white and 13 for colored.

WINTERTVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERTVILLE, N. C., March 30. A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.
Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use a tobacco truck and thus house your tobacco with much less labor and cost. There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet. If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not use the truck you can tote your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be head-quarters for tobacco trucks of best style. A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

A cyclone has struck us. We can neither think, manufacture nor do we know of anything to write about. These are dull times in the old town and were it not for the many pretty girls and gallant lads that crowd our streets morning and evening, we would sigh for pastures new, as it is, we want to stay here a little while longer. The girls can't spare us.

1000 good lightwood cart hubs wanted by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

Since the boys have removed many of the stumps and had a general cleaning up, the appearance of the college ground is very much improved. There is more to be done yet boys if you intend to make it what it ought and should be.

The oldest man in the county, we suppose, live but a short distance from here. He is Mr. Green Letchworth and is 92 years of age. He is still a lively old gentleman. He has lived to see his descendants of the fifth generation.

The popularity of the Winterville Wire Fence is steadily growing. During the past week large quantities of fencing have been sold in this and adjoining counties.

Rev. J. K. Faulkner is absent in attendance upon the union meeting of the Neuse Baptist association, which met in LaGrange yesterday. Mr. Faulkner was expected to preach the opening sermon. There are more pretty girls in and around Winterville than any other two places of its size in the world.

Mrs. Dr. C. A. Blount, of near Renton, was here yesterday on a shopping tour.

Misses Mary Fleming and Lisle Overton, of Stokes, are visiting the family of P. A. Highsmith.

Mrs. Harcy Stokes, of near Grimesland, is on a visit to Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Mrs. A. D. Cox and Miss Annie Stone left this morning for LaGrange, to attend the Union meeting now in session at that place.

A. G. Cox is still paying highest cash price for cotton seed. Josh Manning, who went home on business the first of week, has returned and resumed his studies at the college.

No Editors in Hell.
An editor died and slowly wended his way to hell. The devil met him and said: "For many years past thou hast been the blame for the errors thy printers have made in the paper. The printers have devilled thee on Saturday eve for wages when thou hadst not a red to thy name. Men have taken thy paper without paying a cent, yet, verily, and cursed thee for not issuing a better one. Thou canst not come in. In this place there will be a continual dunning of delinquent subscribers (hell is full of them) and the sad wailings of the town killers will be like unto an amateur brass band playing a dirge in rag time. Begone! Heaven is your home."—Lexington Dispatch

Paine's Celery Compound

Fifteen years ago I had to give up business on account of poor health. I was suffering from a number of old chronic diseases and had complete nervous prostration. In 1881 I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and soon found that I was getting the better of my complaints. I continued using it until I was restored to good health.

Up Against O-u-g-h. A Frenchman thirsting for linguistic superiority recently began a course of English lessons with a teacher of languages. After toiling conscientiously through a good many exercises, the following dialogue between the pupil and his master was overheard: "I find the English very difficult, can you pronounce t-o-u-g-h?" "It is pronounced 'tuuf,'"

THE ESTABLISHED FACTS. There are three business facts which have long been regarded as established—that there is no worthy article at a reasonable price which cannot be sold by the right kind of advertising; that the newspaper which has a large circulation is the best medium of publicity; and that an advertisement which is specific and which quotes prices is the most effective.
