

EASTERN REFLECTOR

GREENVILLE, N. C. D. J. WICHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1901.

You men of Greenville who want to see the town prosper and amount to something in the commercial world, vote and work for bonds at the election tomorrow.

The Daily Free Press, of Kinston, has begun its fourth year. Mr. Herbert has always made it a bright, interesting paper, and he deserves abundant success.

A new counterfeit silver dollar has turned up at the Sub-Treasury in St. Louis, Mo. It is of the issue of 1892, and the workmanship is so perfect that none but an expert could tell it from the genuine, the only defect being a slight shortage in weight. It has been sent to the Treasury Department in Washington.

The most gigantic trust ever dreamed of is now the talk—an amalgamation of captives to consolidate all the leading lines of railroads in the country. Morgan, Vanderbilt, Rockefeller, Stillman and others are said to be behind the scheme. Similar reports have been heard before, but according to President Thomas, of the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville Railroad, there is something in it at this time.—Greensboro Record.

Wolves are increasing rapidly in many parts of the forest lands of Northern Canada. This undoubtedly is due to the large increase in the herds of deer throughout the country. As these have grown in number so have the wolves who live upon them. The killing of the ravages of the wolves has been made their way toward the settled parts of the country, until in many places they have become a nuisance to farmers, in whose fields of oats and other grain they often do considerable damage.

We have been expecting it all the time, and at last the claim is made that Funston has North Carolina blood in his veins. The Asheville Citizen is authority for the statement that the great-grandmother of Gen. Funston was Margaret Boone Mitchell, who was born near King's Mountain in 1769 and was a niece of Daniel Boone. Her husband and father were soldiers in the Revolutionary war, and two of her sons were killed in the war 1812. She had 28 grandsons and eight great-grandsons. In the civil war, and two great-grandsons in the Spanish-American war in the persons of Gen. Funston and Col. Mitchell. The latter assisted in the capture of Aguinaldo. Funston, therefore, has North Carolina blood in his veins and comes naturally by his fighting qualities.—Kinston Free Press.

Stupidity is responsible for the destruction of the Jefferson Hotel at Richmond. The manager was more solicitous for his carpets and furniture than for the preservation of the hotel. When the firemen arrived in plenty of time to extinguish the incipient blaze in the blanket room the manager stopped them, saying that he preferred to control the fire himself rather than have the upholstery ruined by water. Water is destructive to carpets, curtains and decorations. But it saves walls, floors and wood work. It stops the fire in this case from going beyond the room in which it started, although all the blankets and inflammable stuffs and the decorations in the rooms below would have been ruined. The manager had to decide quickly between a little ruin and a complete destruction of the magnificent hotel. He decided in favor of the latter. The Jefferson Hotel was virtually destroyed to save carpets and decorations. In every case of fire the people should be, stop the fire, save decorations afterward.—Pittsboro Star.

Bernard Out Off.

The News and Observer's enumeration of the candidates for District Attorney Bernard's job caused considerable comment among Republican politicians yesterday. A close friend of Senator Pritchard said:

"Bernard will not be reappointed. His term expires next February, then Judge Timberlake will be named for the place. That is the situation now."

"That Timberlake is a Populist." "Yes," replied my Republican friend, "that is true, but he seems to have a strong hold on Pritchard, who has always thought a great deal of him."

He went to say that Mr. W. W. Clark, of Newbern, was very much in the race and backed by strong endorsements, but that he would not be appointed.

"If a gold Democrat is named for any of these positions," he added, "it will more likely be for United States marshal, but even that is not very probable. The indications favor Dockery's re-appointment to that place."

United States Commissioner Nichols says the intimation that has been rather free with his endorsements of the accounts of commissioners does the district attorney on injustice. He added:

"The stamp has to certify as to the correctness of the case; the items were passed on in Washington. He has been quite strict with the accounts. I know he is out of some mine."

District Attorney Bernard yesterday returned from Greensboro, where he has been seeking endorsement and influence.—News & Observer.

A gentleman gives us another copy of the teachings of the French and his so-called scientific methods. He says that for ten days, week before last, they had been holding a union meeting at the residence of John Smith, Beaver Dam. While the meeting was in progress Smith came to town to see Mrs. Knox, a female preacher, and carried her out to the meeting Monday last, before day, after taking all the money he had accumulated. Smith accompanied Mrs. Knox, who came to town and purchased tickets for both the Smiths, saying before he took the train he had been living in the South, and the Lord had directed him to take Mrs. Knox for his spiritual wife. Reports say they have gone to join Joe Lynch and Marshall Woodard here in Florida. Smith left a wife sick in bed and two sons and a daughter. Mrs. Knox is married and her husband is a resident of Campbell Creek, this county.

James E. Green went somewhere Sunday and came back Sunday evening. G. W. Evans, who went to Tarboro Saturday, returned Sunday evening. W. C. Dancy went a courting on Saturday evening and came back next day seemingly all O. K.

Simon Moye and wife have been down in Beaufort visiting the parents of Mrs. Moye. They report having spent a very pleasant time.

The millinery store of Mrs. C. A. Fair is very attractive and ladies seem to find it very much to their interest to visit her shop.

A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash prices for cotton seed.

The women who fought a duel the other day in Oklahoma actual used revolvers, and one of them was desperately wounded. These females must be of the "new woman" variety. The old way for women to fight is to pull hair and talk with their tongues.—Kinston Free Press.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, S. C., April 10, A SUGGESTION TO FARMERS.

Owing to the extreme scarcity of labor we would advise all farmers to arrange their tobacco rows so every eighth row will be five feet wide, and by so doing you can use your tobacco with less loss and cost.

There were some trucks used in certain sections last season for housing tobacco, and we find in every section where the truck was used there will be a great demand for them this season, and orders for several hundred trucks have already been placed and many more will doubtless come in yet. If you will lay out your rows as stated above it will take no extra manure and but little more land, and if you do not use the truck you can take your tobacco along the wide row much better, and if you are scarce of help you can use a truck. We are going to be head quarters for tobacco trucks of best style.

A. G. Cox Mfg Co. The Easter exercises by the scholars of the Episcopal Sunday school last Sunday were very interesting and much enjoyed by all present. This denomination has a nice Sunday school here conducted by Mrs. B. T. Cox and meets every Sabbath morning in the College chapel.

Miss Edie Kittrell, who has been visiting the Misses Nichols near Rockdale, returned home Sunday evening.

"Jumbo" left for Greenville yesterday, and being carried away with the sights and wonders of our capital city got left by the freight. The conductor seemed worried about him. Have you seen anything of our "Jumbo" if so take care of him.

The A. G. Cox Mfg Co., shipped some cotton planters to Princeton, N. C. The railroad officials failed to find the place, carrying far so far Norfolk, then brought them back in order to make another start. The query is, where is Princeton, N. C.?"

J. A. Mills and wife, of near Black Jack, spent Saturday and Sunday here visiting the family of G. R. Dixon.

"Balm of Gilead" for the relief of suffering women, for sale by Mrs. F. O. Cox, of this place, must certainly be a medicine of great merit, if one is to judge from its sales and the testimonials of those who have used it.

W. H. Galloway, of Grimesland, spent a short while here Monday.

James E. Green went somewhere Sunday and came back Sunday evening.

G. W. Evans, who went to Tarboro Saturday, returned Sunday evening. W. C. Dancy went a courting on Saturday evening and came back next day seemingly all O. K.

Simon Moye and wife have been down in Beaufort visiting the parents of Mrs. Moye. They report having spent a very pleasant time. The millinery store of Mrs. C. A. Fair is very attractive and ladies seem to find it very much to their interest to visit her shop. A. G. Cox still pays the highest cash prices for cotton seed. The women who fought a duel the other day in Oklahoma actual used revolvers, and one of them was desperately wounded. These females must be of the "new woman" variety. The old way for women to fight is to pull hair and talk with their tongues.—Kinston Free Press.

Pitt County Boy Abroad.

The letter that appears below was written by Mr. W. R. Taylor, who is now in the Philippine Islands to Mr. J. R. Carson, at Bethel. These two soldiers together for five years at Fort Monroe. While the letter was not intended for publication, Mr. Carson sends it to us believing it will be of interest to many REFLECTOR readers, and we give it in just the spicy, personal vein in which it is written.

MANILA, P. I., Feb. 23rd 1901. MY DEAR OLD JIM: You probably think I am lost but you are mistaken. I am still in the ring. I don't believe I have written to you since I have been in this part of the world, so will give you a kind of insight as to my duties.

I left Washington, D. C., in November 1899 for the Philippine Islands and arrived here the 4th of January, 1900. It was worth any amount of money to take the trip that I had. I was in England, Spain, British India, Ceylon, Borneo and China. I crossed the Atlantic ocean to Gibraltar, from there to Malta, through the Mediterranean sea to Port Said, Egypt through the Suez Canal to the city of Suez in Arabia, out in and across the Red sea to Colombo, Ceylon, through the strait of Malacca to the Arabian sea to Aden, out to the Indian ocean to Singapore, from there to the China sea to Hong Kong, then to Manila and here I be.

Now don't laugh at the way I am going to spell a few historical words here for you know I am not a Bible reader and have not a dictionary. I will do the best I can. I saw the Mount Sinai where Moses wrote the ten commandments. The desert of Sahara in Arabia. Cities of Cairo and Jerusalem, several other places that I have forgotten the names and would only remember them by having a map of the old country and Holy Land. I can't begin to tell you on paper of my trip, I also saw where that push crossed the Red sea. We'll drop that. I am here and I guess here I be croak. I am in charge of the electric power plant in Manila. I have five dynamos and about four hundred storage batteries. I have a lot of work to do here and I have plenty of help, therefore it is not so bad. I think I will go back to America about July. I am getting tired of this country. I got special mention in General Greely's report of 1900 for work performed in the Philippines. I saw the report in Army and Navy Journal of November 24, 1900.

When I go back to the States I will go from here to Nagasaki, Japan, then to Honolulu, on to San Francisco, back to New York, which will put me around the world.

Jim, we never thought that there would be such changes in so short a time when we were out to sit back in the old Laboratory at Monroe, did we? Well Jim how is your picnicary or your family in general. I guess you have as many as two calling you papa, haven't you? Write me a long letter and tell me all about everything. I will not write much this time, I will tell you more in my next.

Do you ever see old Barnhill? When you see him give him my regards. Give me his address and I will write him. Good-bye. Your old chum, WALTER R. TAYLOR.

1st. Class Signal Serg't, Manila, Philippine Islands.

The Bond Vote Below is the vote as cast in the bond election on Tuesday:

Table with 4 columns: Ward, Registration, Bonds, April 10. Rows include 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th wards and a Total row.

Total 416 248 93 Of the vote cast the majority for bonds is 135, and counting all the uncast votes against the measure, as the law requires, there is still left a majority of 80 for bonds. The manufacturer of wheelbarrows has no trouble in keeping his goods before his customers.

THE FIREMEN.

Increased interest in the Company.

That nearly every member of Hope Fire Company should be present and answer to roll call at the monthly meeting, shows the interest the members themselves are taking in the company. This was the record of the meeting Monday night, and it was one of the most interesting they have had.

There were nine applications for membership, which will bring the roll nearly up to the full limit. A committee from the Board of Aldermen was present to look into the needs of the company and confer relative to the compensation of the engineer. This was all satisfactorily adjusted and a recommendation sent back by the committee to the Aldermen that the compensation be $2.50 for each time the engine is fired, it being the duty also of the engineer to keep the engine in good condition at all times.

The following officers were elected for the next term: W. F. Harding, Foreman. W. F. Burch, 1st As't Foreman. J. Z. Gardner, 2nd As't Foreman. T. H. Pender, Chief Engineer. D. D. Overton, Sec. and Treasurer.

Mayor's Court

Mayor J. G. Moye has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report: Edward Eganagan, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21. Henry C. Kinsan, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21. W. N. Hight and J. T. Harris, riotous and disorderly and assault, fined one penny and half costs each, $1.38 each.

Joseph Johnson, disorderly conduct and jumping trains at depot, fined one $1 and costs, $3.25. Peter Henby, drunk and disorderly, fined one penny and costs, $2.21.

Henry Ernie, disorderly and using profane language, fined one penny and costs, $2.25. John Plummer and Leone Patrick, riotous and disorderly and assault, fined $1 and half costs each, total $6.35. George Dudley, riotous and disorderly conduct, not guilty, dismissed.

Here's A Good Way.

A Howard man has been trying a novel experiment during the last year. He watched the stock markets, and made supposition investments, of which he kept careful track. At the end of the year he found that if his suppositions had been out of pocket just $300,000. It is a fine illustration of the fate which lies in wait for the amateur in the stock market.—Kansas City Journal.

No woman objects to having a palmist study the lines in her hands, but she draws the line at having a physiologist study the wrinkles in her face.

WOMAN

IS LIKE A DELICATE MUSICAL INSTRUMENT. In good condition she is sweet and lovable and sings like a song on a joyful harmonious string. Out of order or unstrung, there is discordance and dissonance. Just as there is one key note to all music so there is one key note to health. A woman might as well try to fly without wings as to feel well and look well while the organs that make her a woman are weak or diseased. She must be healthy inside or she can't be healthy outside. There are thousands of women suffering silently all over the country. Misses Erwin's health is the best. While there is nothing more admirable than a modest woman, health is the first importance. Every other consideration should give way before it. Bradfield's Female Regulator is a medicine for women's ills. Its benefits and quickness of action are well known. It is a fine illustration of the fate which lies in wait for the amateur in the stock market.—Kansas City Journal.

Mr. Klettsacker, the restaurateur, is quite an artist as well as an excellent caterer. He made quite a number of children happy when the Easter eggs he be beautifully decorated for them.

The four negroes convicted of breaking into the store of Mr. J. C. Gaskins, at Griffin, were sentenced to the penitentiary two years and six months each. An appeal was taken to Supreme court.

Got Thirty Years. Daniel Williams for burglary returned a verdict of guilty in the second degree. Judge Coble sentenced him to thirty years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

General Funston has done very well, indeed, but and/or compels the admission that after Hobson, the Dewey house, the Sampson-Schley controversy, and the Roosevelt bears and lions, the country is cloyed with the hero business.—Pittsburg Press.

They should Use Their Power. In his sermon in the Methodist church, Sunday night, Rev. H. M. Eero said if there was a whiskey-cured town anywhere that town was Greenville. He spoke another truth when he said there were some church members in the town to relieve it of this curse if they would use their power and influence in that direction.

School Board Organized. While the old Board of County School Directors continue in office until the first of July, the new board appointed by the recent Legislature, met Monday for organization, under the direction of the State Superintendent.

The new board consisted of G. B. King, A. G. Cox and B. M. Whitehurst. Mr. King declined to qualify and W. F. Harding was elected in his stead.

The board organized by electing A. G. Cox chairman, and adjournment was then made until the second Monday in July.

Some Speak to Me, some to You

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1901. E. B. Ficklen went to Tarboro today.

Thos. McGhee left this morning for Raleigh. W. T. Mangum went to Wilmington today.

Dr. J. C. Greene, of Snow Hill, spent Sunday here. H. B. Clark, of Washington, spent Sunday here.

Miss Bessie Harding returned to Bethel this morning. Rev. J. B. Morton returned to Tarboro this morning.

F. G. Whaley came in from Halifax Saturday evening. A. J. Moore and wife returned Saturday evening from Richmond.

W. S. Greer left this morning for his home in Baltimore. He will be back when potatoes are ripe. Miss Margaret McManis, of Philadelphia, came in Saturday evening to visit Mrs. W. B. James.

Mrs. H. B. Siedge, of Tarboro, who was here to attend the funeral of her father, Mr. D. B. Evans, returned home this morning.

Miss Sallie Cotton, of Cottondale and her guests, Misses Henderson and Boyden, of Salisbury, came down Sunday morning to spend Easter here.

Mrs. Emma Alligood, of Scotland Neck, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Dudley, left Saturday evening for Ayden to visit her parents here.

TUESDAY, APRIL 9, 1901. W. B. Moseley returned Monday evening. Mrs. W. H. Harrington went to Tarboro today.

J. J. Harrington left this morning for Goldsboro. J. D. Garden returned Monday evening from Henderson.

H. M. Hardee, of Norfolk, spent last night here and returned this morning. J. V. Johnson went to Ayden Monday evening and returned this morning.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1901. W. W. Mosley went to Farmale today. Jesse Speight went up the road this morning.

W. E. Perry, one of THE REFLECTOR force, is sick. W. L. Cobb has gone to Belhaven to buy a lot of fish.

Representative Harry Stuhls, of Martin, is here attending court. Mrs. J. W. Higgs and child left this morning to visit her parents in Rocky Mount.

J. L. Carper returned Tuesday evening from Baltimore where he had been for treatment in the hospital. His friends are glad to see him restored to health and back with us again.

Impressive Funeral. There was a large attendance at the funeral of Mr. B. D. Evans Sunday afternoon. Services were held in the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. B. Morton, assisted by Rev. H. M. Eero. The tribute paid by Mr. Morton to the deceased was beautiful and pathetic. He truly pictured his life as one continued, uninterrupted, unruined stream of service to Christ and humanity. The speaker said this scene did not look like death, but only the falling into sweet, peaceful sleep when the end of the journey had been reached. His memory is blessed.

Mr. J. C. Cobb Hurt. Last Friday afternoon Mr. J. C. Cobb, of Beaver Dam township, was about his saw mill superintending some work. He was in the act of assisting in turning over a large log when he missed his footing and fell, the log rolling over on his back and shoulders. He was very painfully hurt and it is almost miraculous that he was not instantly killed under the immense weight of the log. Mr. Cobb is the father of Messrs. E. J. and W. L. Cobb and Mrs. Oia Forbes, of this town. We are glad to know that he is getting along as well as could be expected with his injury.

GREENVILLE TOWNSHIP.

Family jars are not desirable bric a brac.
You never miss the water till the germs all die.
Dispite the popular belief, all is not fair in love. Lots of homely girls get that way.
Bachelors are never popular with young mothers because they invariably refer to the baby as "it."
The advanced woman is sometimes sent to a retreat.
It takes a sharp young man to cut out his rival in love.
The ambitious chap can make his life isn't his write name.
A good name isn't of much value these days unless it is written on a check.
Every woman feels that her love letters would make interesting reading after she is dead.
April keeps the weather man guessing.
So far as eggs were concerned no one seemed to observe Easter here yesterday. The little boys should have had their pockets full of red, green, blue and yellow Easter eggs, but they didn't. The custom in vogue in the western part of the State evidently does not prevail here. Up there every little boy commences to collect eggs a week or so before Easter and his stealthy and frequent raids on the home hen nests cause the egg market to rise cents and cents. On Easter morning he fills every pocket full of eggs and goes to church, and after church and for the rest of the day he spends his time "tighin' 'em. He holds

Reflections of a Bachelor

A red-headed girl has got to have money to have auburn hair. Probably Romeo knew that if he didn't climb up, Juliet was bound to come down.
No wonder the Chinese don't get along in China. They have to worship their mother-in-law.
No woman ever learned how to make a speech in public without forgetting how to put up peaches. A woman doesn't get all there is out of life till the children get big enough for her to tell her husband he ought to be ashamed to say such things to her before them.—New York Press.

The question of the hour—

"What time is it?"
Choir singers are usually chants acquaintances.
The theatrical manager should thank his lucky stars.

THE FOLLOWING FROM THE GALVESTON NEWS WILL APPLY EQUALLY WELL TO NORTH CAROLINA.

There is plenty of work in Texas for men who want work. There is no room for the loafer, white or black. The man who will not work must live, just as the man who will work must live. If he does not labor he must get his bread in some way that is not fair and honest. It is a public question, and as such the state should deal with it. Crime is committed by the idle. The roads need working.
