TAXES AND TAXES.

The Aldermen Make a Levy—Other Business of the Board.

The Board of Aldermen held their regular monthly meeting Thursday night with all the members present at the beginning of the session, but as they continued at work until midnight, three asked to be excused before the end came, leaving only a quorum to finish up.

J. L. Sugg, Alderman elect for the Fifth ward, took the oath and entered upon the duties of the office.

The election of an assistant police was taken up as unfinished business. One ballot was taken resulting in a tie between A. A. Forbes, Jr., and E. B. Dudley, each receiving four votes, when the matter was again postponed until the next regular meeting.

The Chief of Police was granted ten days further time to prepare the inventory of property belonging to the town.

The election of Chief and Assistant Chief of the Fire Department was deferred until next meeting. Petitions from J. C. Taylor & Co., and W. W. Thomas to be allowed to carry on a market business at places outside of the market house, were referred to the Market Committee for report at next meeting.

The Tax Collector, Chief, Assistant and Special Police made their reports of collections during the past month.

The Tax Collector presented a list of persons who had failed to list their taxes, and he was authorized to list all delinquents upon their paying him the usual fee therefor.

J. N. Hart, Treasurer elect, was given until next meeting to file his official bond.

The Tax Collector was instructed to pay all orders issued at this meeting out of funds in his hands, so that persons holding the orders would not have to wait until the Treasurer qualifies.

When the levying of taxes was taken up there was warm discussion, but it was mainly one sided, as Alderman Hooker stood alone for a reduction. The levy was made as follows:

For general purposes—60 cents on the $100 valuation and $1.80 on the poll.

For interest on bonds—42 cents on the $100 valuation and $1.26 on the poll.

For graded school—10 cents on the $100 and 30 cents on the poll. This makes a total tax of $1.12 on the $100 valuation and $3.36 on the poll.

Slot machines were permitted to be placed in the town and a license tax on each machine was levied at $3.33 per year or part of a year.

The tax of $2 per head heretofore levied on dogs was reduced to $1.

Alderman Eicklen, who had permitted his team to do some emergency hauling, was excused from paying any dry license tax.

The Street Committee was instructed to investigate the matter of a railroad side track being put in Eleventh street, permission for which the Board gave at its first meeting.

Restaurant licenses were granted to R. F. Gwaltney, W. C. Hines, S. W. Watkins, Stanley Hopkins and C. C. Forbes & J. K. Carnegie.

Application of B. F. Jolley for restaurant license was refused. A. J. Griffin tendered his resignation as Chief of the Fire Department which was accepted.

Accounts were allowed amounting to $302.21.

The Board then adjourned to hold a special meeting on Thursday, August 8th, at 1 p. m.

Found his Home in Ashes.

Pink Laving, who lives about five miles from town on the Sheriff's Ford road, lost his house and all its contents by fire sometime Saturday afternoon. He and all his family were at work in the field some distance from his dwelling. When they returned home at night they found their home and all its contents in ashes. They had nothing left but the clothes they wore. It is supposed the fire was caused by that left from cooking dinner.—Lincoln Journal.

OFFICE OF D. H. HARDEE, Sec. of State, Austin, Texas, Nov. 21, 1901. I have found Dr. Moffet's Teething Remedy very good for my teething children. When my oldest boy was a teething child, every succeeding day was one that we would inevitably lose him. I happened upon Teething and began at once administering it to him, and his improvement was marked in 24 hours, and from that day on he recuperated. I have constantly kept it and used it since with children, and have taken great pleasure in sending it to all mothers of young children. I found it invaluable even after the teething period was over.

MRS. D. H. HARDEE.

Governor Aycock says he will urge the next legislature to make provisions for the subsistence of troops while in camp. He thinks this is due the troops as they are always ready to obey the call to duty and never flinch. This move on the part of the governor will cause general rejoicing throughout the state militia. It is nothing but right that the state should foot the expense account for food while in camp.—Wilmington Dispatch.

1,900 Per Cent. Dividend.

New York, July 31.—The Evening Post says today that the dividend declared recently by the First National Bank before taking over the National Bank of the Republic was 1,900 per cent. on the old capital stock of $500,000. This dividend was more than large enough to enable the stockholders to pay for their share of the new stock to be issued on the increase of the bank's capital to $10,000,000, without the outlay of other cash.

"Ad" as Reminders.

Only the business man of long experience is able to realize how prone the people are to procrastinate, especially in the matter of making purchases. Their attention must be called again and again to their own obvious needs, and they must be spurred up to buy now what they have resolved but have neglected to buy. One important part of the purpose of advertising is to remind people that they need certain things.—Philadelphia Record.

State Auditor Dixon to day wrote all the sheriffs in the State a very important letter, telling them that the new revenue law requires that on the first day of each month they shall send to the State Auditor a statement of all the State taxes they collected during the preceding month and that they shall by the 10th of the month send such taxes to the State Treasurer. This does not mean merely privilege taxes, says the Auditor. It means all State taxes. Some sheriffs have construed it to mean merely privilege taxes, while others have made the payments to the county commissioners, but payments must be made directly to the State Treasurer. Not half a dozen sheriffs have so far complied with the law.—Raleigh Char. Observer.

EASTERN REFLECTOR
GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WHIGHAM, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 9, 1901.

The ordinance committee of the Board of Aldermen are at work upon the code of laws to govern the town for next year. If a clause is put in that will prevent chickens being a neighborhood nuisance there will be cause for thankfulness by many suffering citizens.

The complaint of scarcity of labor is heard in all directions. Yet with all this demand for labor, and an opportunity for everybody to get employment who wants it, there are plenty of loafers to be seen. The ordinary class of labor now will not work unless compelled to, and getting such wages as will enable them to make enough in one day to live several days, they loaf a large part of the time. The majority of them take no thought for the future and care nothing about laying up or accumulating anything, satisfying the present being as far as their ambition goes.

"Happened to an accident," and Mrs. Smith, "of near" Smithville, are two comparatively recent creations, but "nearby" for near by and "alright" for all right are hot from the bargain counter. We are indebted to the year of our Lord 1901 for them. You must have noticed them in the newspapers. Don't they look pretty? Charlotte Observer.

Will our good brother of the Observer tell us what should be used in place of "of near"? It may be bad English, but we expect there is worse.

A Sunshine Woman.

What a blessing to a household is a merry, cheerful woman—whose spirits are not affected by wet days or little disappointments, or whose careless kindness does not sour in the sunshine of prosperity! Such a woman in the darkest hours brightens the house like a piece of sunny weather. The magnetism of her smiles and the electrical brightness of her looks and movements infect every one. Her children go to school with a sense of something great to be achieved; her husband goes into the world in a conqueror's spirit. No matter how people annoy and worry him all day, far off her presence shines and he whispers to himself, "At home I shall find rest." So day by day she literally renews his strength and energy; and if you know a man with leaning face, a kind heart and a prosperous business, in nine cases out of ten you will find that he has a wife of this sort—Christian Work.

Notice to the School Committees.

You cannot now employ teachers as formerly. The law requires that you advertise in three public places the place and date at which you will elect a teacher. You meet at that time and place and elect your teacher and at no other time or place. This is the only method now of employing teachers and you will please observe it or your contracts with the teachers will do well to be void. Teachers also will do well to see that they are thus employed.

You will receive blanks in a few days on which to take the census. The law requires that these be returned by the first Monday in September. The party taking the census will receive two cents a name for so doing.

County Supt. of School.

Go List Tax Taxes.

Register of Deeds T. B. Moore has a notice to delinquent tax listers that all who come under that head should give heed to, otherwise they may be sorry when September comes. The law against failing to list taxes is strict

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.
What it Accomplished and the Results to Follow.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Aug. 8, Enonox Reflector.
It is with pleasure that I join with those who are giving their opinions of the institute recently held at Winterville. I think I have attended every institute held in the county since the civil war, and I am sure that this has benefited the teachers, and through them the children of the country more than all the former ones combined. Everything was carried on in perfect order, without a rough place, from the Superintendent down to the kind and orderly teacher.

The Superintendents have made in this institute a lasting moment to themselves. It will be said, in years to come when this work has grown to vast proportions, that Prof. Ragsdale and Davis were the founders. Their names will go down in history the modestly manner in which they conducted it was enthusiastically carried out by the Professors and they, in turn, were encouraged by the strict attention and earnest efforts of the teachers to learn.

I have never seen more faithful teaching or studying done in any school. I don't think there could have been made a better selection of Professors to visit their rooms during recitation was a treat. Prof. Coon, with his phonics and reading, teaching them with all the energy he was master of. How to Teach. Prof. Carr was deep and logical in his mathematical statements, always able to give the why and wherefore, which is so essential in this branch.

Prof. McWhorter was highly entertaining in his talks on grammar, giving them fine illustrations and diagrams, and would you believe it, some good old fashion parsing, which I greatly enjoyed. Prof. Lineberry was a success as a teacher of civil government, and physiology. He showed by his calm and selfpossessed manner that he knew what he was talking about, and he that he had the ability to impart it to others.

The high first grade certificates given by Prof. Ragsdale to Misses Cora and Ethel Carroll, former pupils of Prof. Lineberry, is a positive declaration of his ability as a teacher. Consider it the strongest advertisement that can be placed before the public. I will say to my friends in this county, who would have their children under a good teacher, and surrounded by good moral influence, send them to Prof. W. H. Lineberry, at Winterville. They will not regret it.

Mr. A. G. Cox deserves the thanks of every one who feels benefited by the institute; for it was by his untiring efforts that it was made so pleasant and comfortable. MARY SMITH.
[Perhaps the writer of the above will be more readily recognized by our readers if we call her by her most familiar name—Mrs. Polly Smith. Her opinion of the institute is surely the most valuable yet given, as no one is more capable of judging. Mrs. Smith is more than eighty years old and has devoted her life to educational work. Besides rearing and educating a large family of her own, she taught nearly every one for miles around her, and in the southern section of the county more people owe their education to her than to any one else.—Ed.]

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Aug. 6, Editor Reflector.
Much has been said of the institute that was held here and I appreciate the many remarks, made by the friends of education, yet it is not of this I would speak just now.

For more than two years I have had the honored privilege of being closely connected with the public school interest of Pitt county, and have tried to take some humble part in building up the public schools so that greater benefits might be received.

I have realized that the teachers must be a great factor in this work and have sometimes been discouraged, because I felt that we did not have the right teachers

To The Tobacco Farmers of Eastern Carolina.

The tenth year of the Greenville tobacco market is rapidly approaching. To those of us who have watched the progress of this market since the 23rd day of September 1891, there have been many wonderful changes. The first year there was only one warehouse and a single prize house, and there were sold Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds of Tobacco. Gradually since then our sales have increased and now Greenville is numbered among the largest bright tobacco markets of the world. To do this it has required the expenditure of large sums of money, heavy risks and a great deal of hard work, and I am sure the public will bear me out when I assert that I have borne my full share of these responsibilities from the very beginning. I have been directly connected with the market from the time the order was given for the first load of timber with which to build the first warehouse and I am the only one in the warehouse business now that had any connection with the market in its early history.

I shall this year have no one associated with me, as a partner in the warehouse business, but I have carefully selected as my assistants men of capacity and experience in the tobacco business. I have again secured the services of Mr. J. J. Willis, of Danville, N. C., one of the best judges of tobacco in Virginia or North Carolina. Mr. Willis has had wide experience in the warehouse business. He is clever, courteous and accommodating, and will gladly render our patrons any service he can. He can arrange tobacco on the floor to a better advantage than any man I ever saw.

Mr. H. A. Timberlake, an auctioneer of reputation and wide experience, has been secured to do the chin music act, but he wants it understood that he is lost nowhere on the warehouse floor and he stands ready to do anything that will advance the interests of our patrons.

Mr. A. A. Forbes (Uncle Pig) whom everybody knows and who knows everybody, will be obligingly on hand in everything and will do his part in making everybody comfortable. Our office force is clever, competent and will settle with you after your tobacco is sold so quick and satisfactorily that you will be sure to come again. I am determined that nothing shall be left undone that will advance the interests of my patrons. I shall have good stables for your team and clean comfortable quarters for your men.

Now in conclusion let me say to you that from the best information I can gather we have very bright prospects for good prices. Care your tobacco well, grade it carefully handle it neatly, and then bring me one of your first loads and I'll hard work, good prices, kind, courteous treatment, and the best accommodations for you will be numbered with our future patrons. With grateful acknowledgment of all past favors, I am
Sincerely your friend,
O. L. JOYNER,
Prop. Farmers' Warehouse,
Greenville, N. C.

to depend upon. While they were among us during the institute, I found that I had been much mistaken, for we have a great number of zealous, faithful teachers, and I think that I can never again feel these uncharitable toward them, and should be glad to beg their pardon. I presume that most of them have their hearts burdened with the great work of teaching our children and have endured great hardships in order to prepare themselves for this great and noble work.

Let me say a word just here to the many committee men who have selected me their friends of our children and school interest. You should use care and judgment in selecting a teacher, suitable for your district and then don't make her feel bad by telling her that it is worth no more to teach school than to cook or grade tobacco, and you wish the public school system was done away with. Show your appreciation and a disposition to make everything comfortable and pleasant for her, and thus you will help her to be more patient in awaiting the trials and difficulties of the school room, which you can't control. See your neighbors and get them to send their children to school, for your teacher will be pleased to see them come and it will be for their good.

If not out of place, I would say a word also to parents: You may have great love for your child and let it have its way rather than correct it. If so the child may expect the teacher to let it do as you have done, but don't worry when your child complains. Never find fault with your teacher because she asks you to get a different book or prefers to teach a new method, but rather feel that she has been carefully trained and is doing competent work of choosing and ably executing it.

Now we are going to have more money to spend in our public schools than ever before and we will have better teachers with their hearts in the work. Let's stand by them and make our public schools more successful than ever before. A. G. COX.
P. N. Hope the teachers and friends will strive to make your educational course, which you have so kindly offered, a great stimulus to the common education. Many thanks for the same.

SALISBURY, N. C., Aug. 6th, Editor Reflector.
There are two very essential things a county institute can and ought to do, viz: to increase and broaden the knowledge of teachers relative to the subjects taught in the schools and also to show the teachers the best way to teach these subjects to children.

These were the aims of the recent institute and summer school at Winterville. That it, in some degree, attained the aims just set forth is confidently expected, judging from the regular attendance of the teachers of the two counties as well as from their four weeks' study. It would, perhaps, not be modest for me to refer to my own work, which consisted largely of instruction in primary methods, in any way other than to say that every teacher enrolled attended almost every lesson and manifested more interest than I have ever seen manifested in any similar school. I have no reason to doubt that the same was true of the work of all the instructors.

I take this opportunity to thank the teachers of the two counties, the people of Winterville, Superintendent Davis and Ragsdale, and all others for making my stay in the East pleasant and profitable. CHAS. L. COSS.

The Hunsucker Carriage Co. have made two shipments of buggies this week. A little tobacco money makes the wheels turn. Our people are very much elated over the change of schedule of the Weldon and Kinston railroad. To get our mail before night is a luxury we haven't enjoyed for quite a while.

I have no reason to doubt that the same was true of the work of all the instructors.

I take this opportunity to thank the teachers of the two counties, the people of Winterville, Superintendent Davis and Ragsdale, and all others for making my stay in the East pleasant and profitable. CHAS. L. COSS.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.
The firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., which has formerly been composed of W. T. Lipscomb, S. T. Hooker and B. E. Parham, has been dissolved. The said W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker will continue the business at Liberty Warehouse under the firm name of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., and the said W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker are now the owners of all amounts due the old firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., and will pay all the outstanding claims against the same. W. T. LIPSCOMB, S. T. HOOKER, July 30, 1901.

Announcement.
The firm of W. T. Lipscomb & Co., is now composed of W. T. Lipscomb and S. T. Hooker, they having purchased the entire interest of B. E. Parham in the business stand. The undersigned desire to thank our friends and customers for their past patronage and to state that we will continue to do business at the Liberty Warehouse where we will always be pleased to serve them. We are fully prepared to protect the interests of all our customers and to secure for them the highest prices for their tobacco.

W. L. BROWN,
Cotton Weigher for Greenville.

Voluntarily and conscientiously, and with much pleasure we recommend to our readers Fair-Killer, and speak from experience when we say that it removes pain as if by magic, and is one of the best remedies in use for Rheumatism. It is applied locally internally, and is especially useful in cases of acute neuralgia, and in cases where it would be difficult to get relief in any other way. It is not a drug, and is safe for all ages. It is sold by all druggists, and is also sold by mail. Price 50c and 60c.

NOTICE.

We desire to announce to the tobacco growing public that we will run the old Greenville Warehouse the coming tobacco season. We ask a liberal share of your patronage and promise to merit the same by a close personal attention to business. It is well known, and conceded by all, that the Greenville Warehouse has the best lights under which to show tobacco advantage. We have had many years experience in the business, and are thoroughly familiar with the trade in all its branches. We will have comfortable rooms with clean new box stalls for their team, and Col. T. H. Walker, the well known joker, will act as farmers' host. Mr. G. LaFayette Moore, who as a drummer, has built up such an honorable reputation for fair dealing with his customers, will be with us as floor-manager and general assistant, and extends to his friends a cordial invitation to sell their tobacco at

The Greenville Warehouse.

Mr. Robt. M. Barham, a gentleman of culture and an auctioneer of ability, will be with us, and will be glad to have his friends in the tobacco belt sell with us, where he will work for their interest. We respectfully submit five reasons for earnestly soliciting a liberal share of your patronage.

1st. Because we are independent, and refused to have anything to do with the Warehouse Combination.

2nd. We are conducting strictly a warehouse business, and are not trying to buy cheap tobacco, but use all means in our power to sell tobacco as high as possible, as our interest and the farmers are one and the same.

3rd. Because Greenville with her fourteen prize houses, steam drying and stemming establishments, has ample facilities and capital to handle the entire crop of the surrounding section. Her buyers have orders and contracts from every tobacco manufacturing country on the globe.

4th. Because our relations with these order and contract buyers are of the most friendly and cordial nature, and we have ample means at our command to push every sale to the full limit of its value.

5th. Because, with all the bright tobacco manufacturing concerns of the world, domestic and export speculators, attending every sale at the old Greenville Warehouse, with our determination and the hearty co-operation of every man connected with us, to use every effort in his power in the interest of our patrons, and the hearty support of the buyers, we are in position to sell tobacco as high as the highest. Respectfully,

MOORMAN, EVANS & CO.

THE NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.
To begin with, what would any town worthy the name be without a newspaper and the factotum of a man who runs it—often more for accommodation than for the dollars and cents realized from its circulation? Echo answers, What?

As an individual who has had some experience in that, and with firm belief, that the most important man in any town is the editor and much discussed newspaper editor, bluffed and blotted excuse for a paper my proposition still holds good, for all that I do not even excuse the minister, the doctor or the banker. To be sure these men are prime essentials—but the newspaper man is not only an essential: in these days, he is a necessity—a kind of "sine qua non" kind of good luck, half fellow well met individual.

It has always been strange to me—it is to-day—why a newspaper editor is expected to use his time, his press, his type—in short put everything in himself and in his shop, at the disposal of the men of every attire, class and profession, oftentimes, not only not receiving any cash emoluments, but more often not so much as a hearty "thank you."

I say, the strange part of it to me is why should an editor—as a business man—be expected to give of what he is and has, when every other business is not out for such fun, but for the ubiquitous dollar? Is it his fault or, if not whose it is? I have my opinion but I prefer some one else to give an expression of the truth.

All is not shadow in a newspaper man's life, for does he not have the glorious privilege of riding, at his own sweet will, on a piece of card board, otherwise sometimes called a past? But alas! this does not run his business, or add much to the financial end of his business; but "miracle dicta!"—for all this and all this, he manages to be more cussed and discussed than any man in town, and is spoken for by living—well, he manages to exist from one issue to another.

Let me whisper this into the ear of the reading public at large: Barring a few—a very few—there is no more arid, loyal, progressive citizen in any town than the fellow who gets out a newspaper. Paste this in your hat, and when you are disposed to fall out with him because he does not conduct his paper so well as you would take off your hat and read and raminate. O! it is the plain home made unvarnished truth. I can prove it by several hundreds of unpaid fellows of the craft, who ought to thank me for telling the truth on them.

To the North Carolina editors—as a class, and a whole—I lift my hat. A more loyal sturdy, nervy, progressive set of fellows are not harbored within the confines of this good State.

AFRAID TO RUN FOR THE DOGS.
GREENVILLE, N. C., Aug. 5, 1901. EDITOR REFLECTOR.

The communication of W. C. Hines in your issue of Saturday, 3rd inst., is worthy of serious thought and consideration. So great has become the feeling against blood hounds that I am informed that Mr. Hines cannot procure a negro boy to make a track to practice his dogs in training. Many negro boys say they would like to make the money offered by Mr. Hines, but they are afraid of violence from the negroes if they furnish tracks for the training of the blood hounds. There is evidently some importance to be attached to having a pack of blood hounds near at hand, by this class. If this is endorsed and approved by the negroes generally as a class, it is not to their credit. There are many negroes in Pitt county who are good citizens, and who comply with the law, and who uphold the law, but when it comes to pass that a negro boy is threatened because he furnishes aid and assistance to prevent crime there is need of every precaution to protect the community. Every citizen should have a pack of dogs. CITIZEN.

I have purchased a pair of Fairbanks scales with solid pair brass pans costing $67.75 and I believe first class in every respect. I shall, so far as in my power, do equal justice to all.

TOO BAD.
An Unhappy Thirteen Comes in.

Just as the Atlantic Coast Line gets schedules arranged by which Greenville can get Raleigh night via Kinston at 11 o'clock a. m., the Atlantic & North Carolina road goes to work and changes the schedule on that road so as to miss the connection at Kinston by just 13 minutes. That is too bad, and the A. & N. C. officials ought to let their morning train leave Goldsboro at the same time as before, so long as the A. C. L. has already made a change to connect with them. The thirteen minute gap should be filled up so the trains will connect at Kinston and bring mail and passengers right on to Greenville and other intermediate points.

Owing to our train not leaving Kinston on time this morning the connection was made and Raleigh papers and passengers came through 'all right, but the two trains should have a regular connection at Kinston and not depend on chance.

Taken To Hospital.
Mr. Parlie Manning, who on Sunday a week ago dislocated his spinal column by falling on his head while bathing in Griddle creek, was Monday taken to Baltimore for treatment. It is hoped by means of the X-rays to find the cause of his continued paralysis.

Two Dead in One House.
On Sunday, Aug. 4th, Mary Elizabeth, wife of Abraham Briley, died on the farm of Matthew James, near Bethel. Next day their son, Samuel, died. She had been sick only about seven days and he about five. They were buried at the same time. She was a good Christian. He was a good little boy. A. D. BETTS.

The A. T. Co.'s New Buyer.
Greenville gains a valuable addition in the person of Mr. M. A. Allen, formerly of Reidsville, who has located in this market as buyer for the American Tobacco Co. He is a gentleman whom any town could be proud to number among her citizens. The Greenville market is fortunate in having him here. Mr. Allen's family will join him here in the fall.
