Big Sale Every Day.

Any warehouse can have a large break on first sale, but it takes the last sale to show how the farmers esteem a warehouse, The Green-ville Warehouse had last sale to day, and yet the house was nearly full. The Greenville gets such good prices that the farmers con-clude it will pay them to wait even until the last sale. So the Green-ville has a big sale every day.

On Payment of Cost.

The next Legislature should onact a law, withholding all cost from magistrates and constables until a conviction is had in the higher court. This would not only put an end to the dismissal of cases on payment of cost, but it would put a stop to petty prosecution in mag-istrates' courts, and engender a higher reward for the courts and the law.—Charlotte News, act a law, withholding all cost from

Mr. Dupree was born near Falk land, in this county, and spent his early years upon the farm. He re-ceived a good education and also studied and obtained license for law but never entered the practice. He moved to Greenville in 1878 to accept a position as Deputy ander Sheriff Allen Warren, and filled the office several years most cceptably. Later he became a ravelling salesman for a large wholesale shoe house and controlled an extensive trade through eastern North Carolina. In his business dealings he was always strictly upright, and every one had ut-
