BACK TO FIRST LOVE

Married Same Man the Second Time.

Goldboro, N. C., August 27.—The story of fiction of Laura Jean Libby, entitled, "He Fell in Love With His Wife," has been eclipsed in Greenville county by an actual occurrence in every day life, where a woman fell in love with her husband, and married him. The pages of fiction, on which are founded the wild and fanciful imaginings of wonderful minds, do not contain a story more strange than the one of which The Post correspondents has just learned and which will be related as follows:

Some several years ago there resided in Pitt county, near the town of Farmville, a young lady named Miss Addie May, who was as well known there then as she is now, and has a father still living, who is a merchant in the town of Farmville. Over across the line in Greenville county resided a young man whose initials we could not learn, but whose surname was Dupree. These two young people met, loved and were married. The young man was somewhat dissipated and after two years of married life, which was not altogether pleasant and congenial, Mrs. Dupree sued for a divorce in the courts of Greenville county and obtained it. Some months afterward she met a foreigner who had come into the community by the name of Viscontes. He was intelligent, attractive and handsome, and when he asked Mrs. Dupree to become his wife she readily consented. This match was no more successful than the first. The foreigner was also dissipated and in addition to his bad habits he was lazy. It is said, and failed to provide for his family. On these grounds Mrs. Viscontes sued for a divorce, which was granted. Her last experience with matrimonial life covered a period of several years. After she had been separated from her husband for some months she again met her first husband, Mr. Dupree and fell in love with him and he with her, the second time. This peculiar love match resulted in a wedding in Greenville county, yesterday and Mr. Dupree was the groom and Mrs. Viscontes was the bride. For the second time they were married yesterday, and the writer trusts that their experience on the present happy occasion will be different from the one which preceded it some years ago.—Haleigh Post.

While most of the above is true, there are some errors in it. The bride has not a father. She lived and her business at Farmville, as her father died a number of years ago. Nor did the foreigner she married before he met him. After obtaining the first divorce from Mr. Dupree she saw an advertisement of a gentleman in Texas, wanting a governess. She answered the advertisement, terms were agreed upon, she went to Texas to be governess in Mr. Viscontes's home, and while there married him. This was in March 1890, Mrs. Dupree having obtained an absolute divorce from her husband, Mr. F. M. Dupree, the September term of Pitt Superior Court previous, 1889. Four years before, 1885, she obtained a bed and board divorce from him. The divorce from her second husband, whose name was James A. Lorenza de Visconti, was obtained at April term, 1901, of Pitt Superior Court. The second marriage to Mr. Dupree took place at Snow Hill Tuesday morning.

Amusements Come Too High.

Now that the theatrical and circus season is opening up, amusement lovers in North Carolina are confronted with the fact that any circus coming to this State can only play at one or two points where large crowds can be quickly gathered.

The reason for this is the immense tax, the lowest tax a big show being five hundred dollars per day, with a possible maximum limit of one thousand dollars a day.

What this excessive tax rate was made for, it is impossible to guess. It may be that the old idea that a circus carries all the money out of a country, caused North Carolina's legislators to place this practically prohibitive tax on the circus.

If the high tax rate was made to increase the State revenues, it has fallen short, it is a failure.

In the theatre line, it will be found that the license is excessive for those running the show houses, the result being that the amusement loving public must suffer, being given poor shows at high rates for admission, and if really good entertainments should be presented, the charge of admission would be beyond the ordinary citizen's pocket.

That there has been no prohibitive tax on base ball is a blessing, especially in Eastern Carolina and in this city, where the public has thoroughly enjoyed the summer by seeing many and exciting games, at no great expense.—New Bern Journal.

Plague Of Caterpillars.

The people are waking up to the fact that this is one of the greatest caterpillar years on record. This pest is usually unknown except in the spring, but there have been three crops this year. Along with the caterpillar has come another pest in the shape of a small worm, of a brownish red, with small white streaks, that infests certain of the shade trees, notably the cottonwood poplars, by the thousands and literally strip them of leaves. The superabundance of caterpillars, worms and bugs is accounted for by the long wet spell. Superintendent Mose Thomas, of Elmwood Cemetery, has waged a relentless war on the pests all summer and by dint of hard work has kept the cemetery comparatively free from them. As a result, the cemetery trees look as green and fresh as in the early spring, in striking contrast to many of the shade trees about the city. The New York and Baltimore papers have lately devoted columns to the ravages of the caterpillar in the parks of those cities and they say that nothing like it has ever been seen. The only way to get rid of the caterpillars at the present time is to burn them. The tree will be spoiled for the season, but the unsightly caterpillar will be gone.

EASTERN REFLECTOR.
GREENVILLE, N. C.

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1901.

Isa certain Western State there are two families, one named Day and the other Sunday. They are neighbors. Mr. Day is the father of seven girls, while Mr. Sunday has an equal number of boys. Four of the Days have married Sundays, another is engaged, so it now appears that "every Day will be Sunday by and by."

The St. Paul Press, Republican, doesn't see why, if 75,000,000 United States people could get three cent sugar and better cigars for less money, by the annexation of Cuba, they should be thwarted by less than a hundred thousand sugar and tobacco men. Neither do we. But the 75,000,000 do not pool their issues and manipulate statesmen like the sugar and tobacco men do.—Wilmington Star

"The weather has been so hot in this county," wails a Southern Missouri paper, "that livermen have had to stand their horses in water an hour a day to keep their shoes from coming off, and wagons are going around with their tongues out. The catfish kick up such a dust in the bed of the Gasconade river that the river has to be sprinkled before you can go fishing. A spark from an engine set the big railroad pond on fire and burned up a wagon load of bullfrogs. The ground is so hard and dry that the crawfish holes in the low places are being pulled up and shipped off for gas pipes."

The Man Who Does Things.
Hon. John H. Small is the type of the Congressman who does things. He did not stop with his vigorous criticism of the Agricultural Department for not sending experts to Hyde and Beaufort counties to investigate the plague that is killing the horses. He went at once to Washington city, where he secured a promise from the Agricultural Department at Washington to send an expert immediately to investigate the horse disease. That's the way to do things. In a great terrible epidemic like that which creeps the farmers of the East, immediate action is necessary.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Why Do Negroes Suicide?
The New Orleans Times-Democrat discusses the fact that in recent years it has become common in Louisiana for negro women to commit suicide, but that negro men seldom fall on the same bar. Until recent years suicide among negroes was unknown. The reason now is perhaps because of the responsibility that rests upon them to care for themselves and their children—a responsibility which is often too heavy for them.—Raleigh News and Observer.

We have heard attention called to the fact many times that the negroes would always try to imitate white people in everything. So possibly they have seen the white folks take themselves off until they have caught on to it and try to imitate them.

Parental Responsibility.
The sermon of Rev. J. N. Booth in the Baptist church, Sunday morning, from the text "Is the Young Man Safe," was most timely, and it is a pity that more of the parents in the community did not hear it. He pointed out many evils that endanger the youth of today, and warned parents of the responsibility resting upon them. One strong point made by the speaker was that many parents have more regard for the care of their stock than for their boys—if the animal has wandered off out of place there is diligent search until it is found and safe under shelter again; but if the boy is out of place and away from home at night he is given no concern whatever, but allowed to wander wherever his inclinations may lead.

The Clerk of the Board was ordered to notify certain delinquents to appear at next meeting and show cause why they had not listed taxes for 1901.

Are Railroads Fairly Treated?

An esteemed subscriber asks us to say something about the treatment of railroads by the courts. Do they get a fair shake in damage suits? Do they receive the same equitable treatment in civil cases that jurors accord the natural persons? We think not. Since the temporary triumph of Populistic ideas in this country, there has been a steady and studied incultation of the idea that railroads, banks and other large corporations are the enemies of the people rather than the natural allies of labor. Railroads are public necessities.

While running for private gain, and through sections that naturally offer the best advantages, still they will shy from a line that offers to run through a hostile neighborhood.

The policy of a progressive people will encourage the building of railroads. While holding them to a rigid account for carelessness either in the management or equipment or their trains, it will permit them to feel that they should have exact and equal justice in the law. We write this without the remotest reference to any case cited in the Duke courts, but because we believe that the development of the South has been retarded by a feeling among railroad men that the courts would treat them like brigands and robbers.—Morganton Herald.

Clear Sidewalks.

The Board of Aldermen have ordered all residents of the town to clear the sidewalks of their premises by the 10th of September. The order is a timely one, for in some sections of the town ladies had to walk in the middle of the streets to get to church Sunday night.

THE MARKET HAS OPENED

Under more favorable conditions than ever before in its past history. We have larger and better facilities for handling tobacco than ever before and a larger number of good buyers who have orders for every grade of tobacco grown. Greenville is your market and the for highest market prices at all times, and clever, courteous treatment at the hands of every one connected with the Farmers Warehouse.

HEAR ME A MOMENT.

I am in better fix to do business than ever before, and if work and the best prices will get it I am going to have your tobacco. I appeal to no passion or prejudice but upon the bed rock of truth and merit I rest my claim for your patronage. I ask you this year to give me a chance and I will take care of the balance. I have been running a warehouse on this market nearly 10 years and I think I know how to sell your tobacco. I have with me a corps of thoroughly competent, reliable and courteous assistants, who will use every honorable means to advance your interest. When you come to Greenville I ask you especially to come around and see me whether you bring tobacco or not. A hearty, princely welcome always awaits you at the Farmers.

Sincerely,
O. L. JOYNER,
Greenville, N. C. Prop. Farmers' Warehouse.

AUGUST TOBACCO SALES.

Tremendous Gain Over Last Year.

Mr. M. A. Allen, Secretary of the Greenville Tobacco Board of Trade, handed THE REFLECTOR the report of sales on the Greenville market for the month of August, with comparative figures for the same month last year. The sales for August, 1901, were 1,633,094 pounds, while for August, 1900, there were 632,741 pounds sold. These figures show a gain for this year of 1,020,953 pounds, an increase of more than 200 percent. As our readers may be desirous of knowing what neighboring markets are doing we also give the figures from Wilson and Kinston for comparison. In August this year Wilson sold 3,125,304 pounds, last year 1,322,476, a gain of 1,802,828. Kinston sold this year 1,864,094, last year 1,047,509, a gain of 816,585.

These comparative figures show that Greenville made the largest percentage of increase of either of the three markets. Just why sales have increased so much this year we are not able to say, unless it be due to the good prices prevailing. Surely there is not as much tobacco raised this year as last, and at the rate it is coming to the market the crop will all be sold before Christmas.

Strange Phenomenon in Ashe.

Ashe county has the strangest phenomenon yet reported as a supposed result of the continuous rains. On Phoenix Mountain, about four miles from Jefferson, crowds have been gathering for several days to see the openings in the sides of the mountain. There are three of these openings, varying in width from two to nine feet and of a depth of from two to six feet. There are no slides of earth at the points, but a sharp division of the soil and the rocks imbedded there.

The dead trees which are lying on the face are dragged to one side of the opening, or left spanning them; the rocks, which lay upon the surface, are upon one side or the other of the openings, with their edges suspended over the cavity. Strangest of all, the trees which were growing at the place of the cracks in the earth, are split at the bottom and now span the opening in the earth, one half the tree on one side and the other half upon the other. Where the edge of a tree just touched the point of division in the earth, that edge is shaved off and the tree left standing.—Charlotte Observer.

Winterville Department.

NEWSPAPERS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 4.

The Winterville High School opened with the flag of our country flying to the breeze and students pouring in from every section of the surrounding country. Already our enrollment shows a representation from Craven, Lenoir, Wayne, Greene, Beaufort and Pitt counties with large numbers yet to come. Prof. Lineberry is glad, the teachers are all smiles and A. G. Cox don't know whether he is a Cox or somebody else.

Rev. C. W. Blasehard, of Kinston, with his little son, Wingate, and little daughter spent the day here yesterday.

Miss Lena Spain, who has charge of the primary department of the Winterville High School, arrived Saturday.

At a recent meeting of the board of Town Commissioners J. R. Johnson was appointed Mayor, instead of G. W. Parker who is away, and J. W. Sparks policeman and tax collector with instructions to have his bond ready by next meeting.

W. H. Parrot went to Henderson Saturday.

Misses Valeria Fleming, of House, and Corolla Mumford, of Ayden, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Mimie Cox.

Eggs at 15 cents per dozen at B. F. Manning & Co's.

Misses Clyde Dawson, of Littlefield, and Olivia Cox, of LaGrange, spent Saturday with Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Miss Daisy Mumford, of Ayden, was visiting in town Sunday.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are constantly selling carts and wagons.

Mrs. S. G. Nine spent Monday in Greenville.

C. A. Fair received a telegram Saturday night from Emmetsburg, Md., announcing the sudden death of his youngest sister, Miss Fannie Fair. Mr. Fair, who is very popular among our people, has their fullest sympathy in his sorrow.

Knowl Meyer, of Washington, D. C., spent Saturday with Mrs. J. D. Cox.

Mr. Herring, of Kinston, came up yesterday and placed two of his boys in Winterville High School. We were glad to have him spend the day with us.

One car load of lime for sale at B. F. Manning & Co's.

We were very much pleased last Monday evening to meet our young friend, Miss Fennie Ragsdale, of Greenville, who has entered as a student in the High School.

Miss Lizette Murphy, of Farmville, who was visiting Miss Ophelia Parker, returned home Monday morning.

Averages that Count.

We watched the sale awhile today at the Greenville Warehouse and noticed how Mooreman, Evans & Co., handled for the farmers who sold with them. Mr. Pierce, of Conestoga, sold 50 pounds of $10.75, 35 at $21, 27 at $36, 41 at $27, 80 at $16.50, 76 at $11, 122 at $8.50. And Mr. Woolard, of Carolina, sold at prices running from $12.50 to $27, giving an average of $19. These are the sales that please the farmers and make them carry their tobacco to the Greenville Warehouse.

A Convict Killed by the Guards.

Raleigh, N. C., September 2.—Late this afternoon as a train was bringing to the penitentiary State convicts employed in getting clay from pits five miles south of here, Clint Williams, colored, of Salisbury, a convict serving a thirty-year term for murder, jumped off the train and dashed forward. The guards gave him a rattling volley with shotguns and rifles and literally riddled him with bullets and bullets. He was brought to the penitentiary and died in three hours. No others attempted to escape.

First Taxes.

Mr. R. H. Harris, of Swift Creek township, was the first man in Pitt county to pay his State and county taxes for 1901. The tax books were turned over by the County Commissioners to Sheriff Harrington Monday, and Mr. Harris went as once to his office and paid.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

The undersigned having duly qualified before the Superior court clerk of Pitt county as administrator of the estate of Sarah L. Smith, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the estate to make immediate payment to the undersigned, and all persons having claims against the estate are notified to present the same to the undersigned for payment within twelve months from the date of this notice, or it will be placed in loss of recovery. This 4th day of September, 1901.

WE DO THE WORK.

And that is the reason the old Greenville Warehouse is selling so much tobacco. We got the highest price for every pile sold on our floor. The farmers see this, and appreciating the hard work we do for them they bring us their tobacco. We treat all alike, get the best price every time. Bring your next load to the Greenville Warehouse and we will show you the truth of this. We have every accommodation for you and your team.

BONDS SOLD.

A Premium of $4,250 for Them.

The Board of Aldermen held a special meeting Saturday night to take action on the sale of the $75,000 five percent thirty year bonds for public improvements. There were two offers for the bonds. One was from Farnon, Leach & Co., of New York, at $100, they to retain the money on deposit to be drawn on by the town as it was needed for the improvements, the town to receive 4 per cent interest on the deposit. The other offer was from Rudolph, Kleybolte & Co., of Cincinnati, at a premium of $1,250 for the entire issue, the town to have benefit of the accrued interest on the bonds from July 1st, when they bear date, until they are delivered to purchaser. The Board accepted the latter offer.

The offer of the New York firm would have been worth about $2,000 more to the town, but the objection the Aldermen had to this offer was the bonds and the money being in the same hands.

The Church and Divorce.

The General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, which meets triennially, will convene on the 2nd of October in San Francisco. We rejoice to learn that the chief subject which has been engaging the attention of the committee on canon is that of marriage and divorce. It is stated that a large majority of the convention will be in favor of refusing to allow a marriage of a divorced person under any circumstances, with the single exception of a case where the former marriage was annulled by a decree of some civil court of competent jurisdiction for a cause existing before matrimony. We presume that this estimate in anticipation of the views of the convention is correct. It is probably based upon the action of the committee, sitting in the recess, so to speak, all of whom with one exception, voted for closing the door against any marriage of a divorced person except as above. The one member of the committee who dissented from the committee's action was only to the extent of proposing to allow the marriage of the innocent party where the decree of divorce was granted on the ground of adultery.

A Little Son of Mr. J. H. Farrow.

The offer of the New York firm would have been worth about $2,000 more to the town, but the objection the Aldermen had to this offer was the bonds and the money being in the same hands.

The action of the committee is to be applauded. Scandals in divorces and marriages have increased with great rapidity, and amazingly in brasseries and almost every repulsive feature. We have no "House of Lords" in this country possessing the virtue and courage necessary to sentence a big placed divorced man (their peer, in fact) to jail for bigamy, and if we cannot rely upon the churches we must find ourselves in a sad plight as the hearse took a kicking notion and done some damage to the front of the buggy.

Schools Opened.

The schools of the town began their fall term Monday with good prospects. Prof. Ragsdale had forty boys present at the Academy. Before getting going, out of town the horse took a kicking notion and done some damage to the front of the buggy.

Unreasonable and Unjust.

No people who are wise can regard railroads with hostility or be disposed to oppress them or wrong them unjustly. They are the great developers of a State's wealth, of a nation's wealth. They have done great things for North Carolina. It is all right to make them bear their share of the public burdens, but it is unreasonable and unjust to treat them as monsters and to seek to war upon them in revenge or from a desire to rob them.—Wilmington Messenger.
