

EASTERN REFLECTOR.

GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WHIGHAM, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1901.

Governor Aycock has requested Col. Harry Shuman and a number of other prominent North Carolinians to represent our State at the funeral services of President McKinley which will be held at Washington City Wednesday afternoon.

This entire Nation is in mourning, and in fact almost the whole civilized world. President McKinley is dead. He died from wounds inflicted by the hands of a cowardly assassin. He was murdered without a cause. No man has ever been elevated to the President's chair in this Nation who was more kindly disposed towards every one, no man has made or had a clearer record, no man ever gave occasion for fewer enemies, no man had a purer personal life and no man was ever respected more by his own and his opposing party. He began life in humble circumstances, and his life shows the possibilities of a life properly lived and used. He was true to every trust committed to him through life. He was President through a critical period in American history. Danger of foreign complications were present on every hand almost through his entire term of office. A less prudent man might have involved this country in serious trouble with more than one of the world's great powers, and yet he acted as not only to prevent this but to win the respect and confidence of the whole civilized world. It seems a great misfortune that he should have died just now. His name is honorably connected with much of American history and his memory will long be cherished by the American people. No section feels his loss more than the South. He seemed willing for the South to work out its social and political problems in its own way and its own line, and his death is a great misfortune to us just at this time.

By many it is said and believed that a man cannot be in politics and in public office and pursue a consistent Christian life. This sentiment is fairly contradicted in the life of President McKinley. He was a meek follower of his Master and lived to the end an unswerving Christian character and died with these last words: "God's will be ours be done." Taken all in all his life was one which is to be admired and will through the future ages of the world be held up for imitation to every noble, aspiring youth, not only in this, but in all lands where character and worth is appreciated and loved.

Color Bone Fractured.
Little Adelaide, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. A. H. Tait fell out the door at her home Saturday evening and fractured her collar bone. The little child went from the time of the injury until Sunday night before the extent of her injury was known, her parents thinking she was not hurt much. But she began to complain Sunday evening and a doctor was called in and found that she had fractured her collar bone. She was right badly hurt but we hope not seriously.

Increased Receipts from Taxation.
The increased collection of taxes under the new Revenue Law is beginning to show in the receipts at the State Treasury. During the past month the receipts exceeded those of any previous August, the receipts for the general fund being $175,882.65. The indication is that during the fiscal year the increase will be as large as expected.

It is important that those who go on excursions for pleasure or health should make some provision against the attack of bowel disease, which not only causes great inconvenience, but are sometimes fatal in their results. A bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer is what we need, a most efficient remedy against such attacks. Avoid stimulants, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 50c and 60c.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 16.

Since three o'clock Saturday morning, when the bell of the City Hall and those in the steeples of several of the principal churches here tolled the death announcement of President McKinley to a slumbering city, Raleigh has been in mourning—with the City Hall and other public buildings draped in the colors of death.

In all this town there is probably not a person who does not sincerely mourn the sad blow to the nation delivered through the death of its universally popular head—"the most beloved of all our Presidents since the time of Madison," says Governor Aycock. "He was a good man in all the relations of life; his private life is to us all an example and an inspiration," added the Governor.

Senator Simmons said: "It is doubtful if the death of any public man in this country has ever been sadder or has aroused a deeper feeling of personal loss and grief; and he recovered of his wounds, I believe the remainder of his administration would have been a veritable era of good feeling. Mr. Roosevelt is an able man, and though one of the youngest of Presidents, has had valuable experience in public life, he will doubtless endeavor to carry out the general policy of his predecessor."

ANARCHY MUST BE STAMPED OUT.
The assassination of three Presidents within the personal recollection of men not yet old is a horrible record, and the alarming growth of anarchy is recognized as the great danger now threatening this Republic. The demand for its suppression is unmistakable.

Senator Simmons in alluding to this said that "in due time Congress will doubtless devise suitable measures for safeguarding the lives of the heads of the Government—whose lives are shown to be in danger when the ordinary citizen is not—and to stamp out anarchy."

Heroic measures seem to have become necessary, and the people of this country are in favor of their application without unnecessary delay.

A large and representative meeting of the best citizens of Raleigh, irrespective of party politics (though chiefly Democrats), was held here Saturday, at which appropriate speeches were made and resolutions adopted.

A FIGHT OVER SWAMP LANDS.
The State Board of Education refuses to recognize the option of one Finch, who claims certain rights, secured under the Russell administration to the State swamp lands, for a "mere song," and the best of which he has been selling at advanced prices to others, and therefore refuses to sign his deeds to one of his customers, bringing suit. Thousands of acres are involved, but the Attorney General thinks the State will win out.

QUICK EXAMPLE OF JUSTICE.
William Monroe, the negro who assaulted a young white woman, lately married, near Charlotte, was hanged there last Friday, just thirty-three days after the commission of the crime. The scaffold pre- tended to be certain of "going to glory" from the gallows. This is probably the speediest legal execution that ever took place in North Carolina. The thirty days were allowed by the judge for the brute to prepare for death, else he could have been hanged four days from the date of the crime, had the law permitted—his trial was speedily enough. Let there be more such examples of "justice" and there will be fewer typhings, possibly—though I must say I have never thought it in my heart to condemn any relative of a good woman thus assaulted for lynching the brute, be he white or black.

THE MARKETS HAVE OPENED.
Under more favorable conditions than ever before in its history. We have larger and better facilities for handling tobacco than ever before and a larger number of good buyers who have orders for every grade of tobacco grown. Greenville is your market and the

THE MARKET HAS OPENED.

Under more favorable conditions than ever before in its history. We have larger and better facilities for handling tobacco than ever before and a larger number of good buyers who have orders for every grade of tobacco grown. Greenville is your market and the for highest market prices at all times, and clever, courteous treatment at the hands of every one connected with the Farmers Warehouse.

Farmers Warehouse Headquarters

HEAR ME A MOMENT.

I am in better fix to do business than ever before, and if work and the best prices will get it I am going to have your tobacco. I appeal to no passion or prejudice but upon the bed rock of truth and merit I rest my claim for your patronage. I ask you this year to give me a chance and I will take care of the balance. I have been running a warehouse on this market nearly 10 years and I think I know how to sell your tobacco. I have with me a corps of thoroughly competent, reliable and courteous assistants, who will use every honorable means to advance your interest. When you come to Greenville I ask you especially to come around and see me whether you bring tobacco or not. A hearty, princely welcome always awaits you at the Farmers.

Sincerely,
O. L. JOYNER,
Greenville, N. C. Prop. Farmers' Warehouse.

Winterville Department.

NEWS HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Sept. 18.
The young ladies of the Winterville High School held a meeting in the chapel last Friday evening and organized a young Ladies Literary Society. These societies are always beneficial intellectually, at the same time affording a source of amusement that is highly interesting to those who participate in them. We bespeak great results from this one as it is composed of the very best material.

Land for sale.—One tract of land known as the Fred White place, said to contain 157 acres, with ordinary building on it. The same can be bought on reasonable terms by applying to A. G. Cox.

Best Albritton, Mrs. Emma Cox and children spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. H. F. Keel, Miss Bessie, and brother, Edgar, also entertained Miss Annie Albritton.

1500 eggs to place in a tobacco barn to hatch out while he is curing tobacco. A gentleman says they will hatch better under a hen than a goose.

Hogs for sale.—A. G. Cox has 10 or 15 hogs he wishes to sell. They weigh from 100 to 125 pounds and are in fine order to fatten.

Mrs. Elizabeth McCullough, of Goldsboro, is spending the week with the Misses Wesson.

Mrs. H. M. Dixon and Miss Rosa Cox were in Ayden Saturday. Anyone who would like to have their laundry done in first class style will send it to C. A. Fair, Agent Kingston Steam Laundry, and he may send it on Tuesday.

Enery Dull, of Lizzie, and Samuel Newell, of Castoria, spent Sunday and part of Monday here, they came to place their sisters in school here.

Rev. Mr. Eure filled his regular appointment here last Sunday.

THE COTTON FARMERS AND GINNERS OF THE STATE.

HILLSDALE, N. C., Sept. 15, '01

Through the courtesy of the editor I address to you this letter on the cotton seed subject, and trust that it will be accepted by each reader as a personal letter to him. I know of nothing that should call for prompt action on the part of the farmers more than this.

The action of the National Oil mill men in New Orleans, on the 6th, where they met privately and fixed the price to be paid for cotton seed the coming season at 13 cents free on board boats with the usual rebate which is equivalent to 12 cents free on board rail, as though the farmer had no voice in the price of his products should sell for, should call for a protest from every cotton farmer of the South. This is but a foretaste of what the Trusts will do for the farmers when they get them fully under control. If the spirit of American independence which has ever characterized North Carolinians has waned may its fires be rekindled in the breast of every farmer on account of this action of the Oil Mill men. If you believe the farmer is entitled to a voice in naming the price at which his cotton seed shall sell, go to your Court House next Saturday, 21st, at 12 o'clock and there unite with your fellow farmers in saying so and in protesting against the action of the New Orleans Oil Men.

Select a strong delegation (about the 25th). Do not stay away and expect your neighbors to go, but go yourself and take him with you. This appeal is not made to any special class of cotton farmers, but to each and every one in the State. There is no time now for divisions or quibblings, but all should work in harmony with each other. We also invite the business and professional men to join us in this movement. Their presence and influence will be appreciated.

A letter just received from Harvie Jordan, Pres. of the Southern Cotton Growers Protective Association, states that he is in full sympathy with the movement and that he will endeavor to get the farmers in every southern state to cooperate with us. With determination on the part of the farmers the price fixed by the Oil Mill men can be "unfixed" as was the price of jute bagging ten years ago.

The farmer who refuses to act now should in the future keep quiet about the oppression of the Trusts, for he practically surrenders his right to the future. Let there be unity of action and success will be certain. T. B. PARKER.

Control of Boiler Disease.
The man with a sure cure for hog cholera can be "dred" of the premises the slightest fear of injuring an inefficient business enterprise or giving science a setback. Hog cholera is not unknown even by our best veterinarians. Until they know something definite about it, can we expect some ignorant blunderer with more enterprise than judgment to show us the right? This never has been true and never will be. The judicious use of preventive measures is the most effective weapon in fighting white diseases—Paras and Huns.

Resolved by Greenville Lodge No. 284, A. F. & A. M.
Whereas, the American people are again called upon to mourn the loss of their Chief Executive, and the Masonic Fraternity an eminent member, caused by the untimely death of the late President of the United States at the hands of a wicked assassin, and whereas Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. desires to place on record a testimonial of its regard for the splendid personal character of its sympathy for Mr. McKinley in this his greatest bereavement, and of those who are holding to anarchistic sentiments,

Therefore, by Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. at its regular communication on the 16th day of September, 1901, be it resolved,

1st. That in the death of Brother Wm. McKinley the Masonic Fraternity has lost its most distinguished member, and the Nation a great and good Executive.

2nd. That this Lodge extends to Mrs. McKinley its sympathy in her severest bereavement.

3rd. That the act of the assassin and of all those who are in sympathy with him deserves the greatest condemnation of all good people.

4th. That these resolutions be spread up in the minutes of this Lodge and a copy be furnished the papers of the city for publication and a copy sent to Mrs. McKinley.

RICHARD WILLIAMS,
J. L. FLEMING,
WM. F. HARDING, } Com.

During the Summer Season, can be come upon in suddenly and remain until the pain is driven away by a dose of two of Pains-Killer, the celebrated cure for all summer complaints, from simple cramps to the most aggravated forms of cholera morbus or dysentery. No household should be without the Pains-Killer. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pains-Killer, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

WE DO THE WORK.

And that is the reason the old Greenville Warehouse is selling so much tobacco. We get the highest price for every pile sold on our floor. The farmers see this, and appreciating the hard work we do for them they bring us their tobacco. We treat all alike, get the best price every time. Bring your next load to the Greenville Warehouse and we will show you the truth of this. We have every accommodation for you and your team.

We are independent of Warehouse Trusts.

MOORMAN, EVANS & CO.

J. C. MOORMAN. R. S. EVANS. D. S. SPAIN.

Washington's Patriotic Kinmen.
Lawrence, son of Perry, a distant relative of George Washington, had a most tyrannical temper, and one day in a fit of passion he cut down with his sword his steward, an old gentleman named Johnson. The latter had given no provocation for the deed, and the crime was an act of brutality irreconcilable with the principles of the Revolution. He was brought to trial for killing Johnson and was sentenced to hang. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive and Perry was sentenced to be hanged at Tyburn. Appeals were made to the king for clemency, but were refused. His fate was sealed. He was executed on the gallows. The house of lords was through during the hearing. The evidence proved to be conclusive

