

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1901.

Quit a number of the North Carolina editors go to Buffalo this week to attend the Pan American exposition.

We hear people from some sections of the county where rural free delivery has not been established, expressing the wish that they might have the benefit of such a mail service.

Czolgors, the assassin of President McKinley, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree.

We are sorry to print the announcement of Hon. Jas. E. Shepherd that he will not be a candidate for the nomination for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Believing that the teachings of his life New York Journal have had much to do with encouraging the spirit of anarchy in this country, the people in two sections of Greater New York last week held a public meeting.

Never try to tell what you don't know—life is too short

TRIBUTE TO M. R. EURE

Greenville Bar Adopts Resolutions on His Death

At the adjourned meeting of the Greenville Bar held in the Court House, the committee on resolutions, Messrs. Swift Galloway, F. G. James, J. L. Fleming, H. W. Wheelbee and W. F. Harding submitted the following report:

At an adjourned meeting of the members (resident and visiting) of the Greenville Bar, held on the 21st day of September, 1901, their committee, appointed to adopt a testimonial of respect to the memory of their deceased friend and brother, Mills R. Eure, Esq., respectfully submit the following:

Mills R. Eure, a member of the Greenville Bar, departed this life on Tuesday morning, the 17th day of September, 1901, in the 30th year of his age.

In 1893 his uncle, General W. P. Roberts, having been appointed by President Cleveland as Consul at Victoria, B. C., selected Mr. Eure as his Secretary, who discharged the duties of this position with great fidelity and acceptability.

In 1898 Mr. Eure removed to this town where, as a partner of Donnell Gilliam, Esq., he established himself in the practice of the law, in which he continued to the time of his death. Here, as in his native home, his attractive qualities of head and heart won to him the affection and esteem of the entire community.

Major W. H. Long has disposed of the following cases in his court since last report: Noah Sutton, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.40.

William Atkinson, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $3.30. Bill Anderson, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $1.15.

Jerry Washington, carrying concealed weapon, bond over to January term of Superior Court. Frank Stokes, fast and reckless driving, fined $1 and costs, $3.60.

Charles Evans, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and cost, $2.95. Oscar Harris, drunk and disorderly, fined $1 and costs, $2.95.

John Savage and Robert Johnson, riotous and disorderly conduct and assault, bond over to January term of Superior Court.

Every term of court makes it plain that an old law on the statute books needs re-enactment. Attorneys in a case are unrestrained and can speak all day if so disposed, thus consuming the time of the court.

Brains and great executive ability are potent factors in a man's success, but without the firmest and most thorough grounded principles of cardinal honesty they are factors which cannot make for success. It is the combination of great ability and sterling integrity that places a man in a position of large interests and keeps them there.

WE DO THE WORK.

And that is the reason the old Greenville Warehouse is selling so much tobacco. We get the highest price for every pile sold on our floor. The farmers see this, and appreciating the hard work we do for them they bring us their tobacco.

We are independent of Warehouse Trusts.

A Black Snake Kills a Cow. Mr. D. A. Whitney appeared in the mayor's office one day last week and said that he was very much perplexed as to what was going with the milk from his fine cow, as she was only giving a pint a day. He set a diligent watch over the cow, and at last slipped upon a huge black snake in the act of sucking her. He procured a hoe, struck the snake and cut it in two. After killing the reptile the cow belched and bellowed at an awful rate. He says the snake was five feet long and exceedingly large.—Raeford Correspondence Lumberton Robesonian.

Importance of Advertising. That advertising in the newspaper has become essential to success in most enterprises appears from many indications. A striking proof is the extraordinary development of the business of writing advertisements for the newspapers.

One of the oldest and most successful schools of this city has found it expedient to establish a department for the training of "ad" writers. It is only a question of time when every kind of business will make its announcements regularly through the newspapers.—Philadelphia Record.

To Southern Women. The Messenger a fortnight favored the proposition to erect a fine, superb monument to the women of the south. They most richly deserve such a fitting memorial for they were grandly noble, self-sacrificing and intensely patriotic.

The Confederate Veterans are talking of erecting such a monument, and it should be pressed vigorously until the work is completed.—Wilmington Messenger.
