

EASTERN REFLECTOR.
GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WHIGHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1901.

So much discussion this early again calls up the fact that elections are too frequent. The people do not have time to settle down from one campaign before the politicians and candidates begin stirring them up for another. The country would be better with a good long rest from political excitement.

If Pritchard lands Skinner in the District Attorney's office for Eastern Carolina there is going to be a row in the camp of the white Republicans of that section and they will have a severe argument with the Senator. We think they will have just cause for indignation. Some how we can't get away from and do not care to get away from the idea that the horse that plows the corn is entitled to the fodder.—Winston Sentinel.

Hub, man! Skinner has not done anything else but plow corn for the Republicans ever since he left the Democratic party. True part of the time he had a Populist flag stuck in the bridle, but the plowing was all in the same field.

In some towns of this State the pericardial slot machines were prohibited by the last Legislature through the work of Senator Broughton are still being conducted. They are certainly as clear a violation of the law as any species of gambling can be. The Greenville REFLECTOR states they are running at full blast in that town. Why, then, are not the town officers liable under the Aycock anti gambling law?—Raleigh Times.

Every Monday every police officer in the town goes before the Mayor and makes oath that he knows of no gambling going on in the town, notwithstanding the numerous bar-rooms in which these slot machines are in almost constant operation.

There are two plans of operation open to the Republican party in dealing with the matter of tax reduction. The safe way and the right way would be to cut down taxation first and make appropriations afterward. The other way is first to authorize extravagant expenditures, so as to eat up the surplus and make no change in tax rates. With schemes of subsidy, navy enlargement, canal digging, irrigation of arid lands and other costly undertakings ready to launch when Congress shall meet, and with the prospect of logrolling combinations to push them to final success, it is quite safe to predict the probable course of action. Given a surplus open to attack, what chance will the tax payers stand against the subsidy beggars?—Philadelphia Record.

Had you stopped to think how many people could be called honest and retain their good name as an honest man if you would strain a point and pay a dollar you owe. He could go and pay some other fellow the dollar he owes, and this one could do likewise, and on and on, until 25 people could get paid off with the same dollar. It is the first world only put the thing in motion. Suppose you try this plan and see if it does not work out well.—Ex.

Hon. J. R. Young, Insurance Commissioner, is sending out posters calling the attention of officers and all citizens of the State generally to the law requiring that all fires be investigated by the chief of the fire department or the fire committee in the cities and towns of the State, and that the result of such investigation be reported to the commissioner at Raleigh.

Our army and navy officers are in favor of dispensing with the sword which has become more ornamental than useful.

Case Near Marrying the Bridesmaid.
Only the self-assertion of Miss Mary Bowers, the bride elect, saved William Michaels from marrying the bridesmaid at the Canton Congregational church last night. Through a misunderstanding of marriage conventions Michaels escorted the bridesmaid up to the altar, and his best man marched up with the bride.

The party assumed wrong positions, the bridesmaid getting between the bride and the groom, and when Rev. Thomas Beaden knelt began the ceremony, he, of course, addressed the bridesmaid instead of the bride. The bridesmaid was so perplexed that she allowed the groom to take her hand.

The bride astonished the clergyman by stopping the ceremony. She quickly changed positions with her bridesmaid, took the hand of the bashful groom, and the mixed up ceremony was happily concluded.—Baltimore special, 17th, Philadelphia Record.

It Gladdens the East.
Under the above head a New-Bern correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer says:

I am reliably informed that the Southern Railway will resume the schedule into Goldsboro of its early morning train on Sunday, 24th inst. The whole east will hail the coming of this train with gratitude. The Atlantic and North Carolina officials will change the schedule of their speedy train to connect with the Atlantic Coast Line train at Kinston morning and evening, and at Newbern evenings. By this arrangement passengers from Raleigh and the west can make close connection for Greenville, and returning make close connection at Kinston for the west, and those for Falkesville, Jacksonville and the Wilmington and Newbern branch, will connect at Newbern for Goldsboro, Raleigh, Greensboro and points west.

Tobacco Goes High as a Kite.
"Tobacco has gone higher than a kite," said a prominent tobacco man this morning, and higher prices are looked for from day to day. Even the sweepings of the warehouses, that sold for 75 cents a hundred recently, are bringing as much as five dollars now. Every grade of tobacco has risen within the last ten days, some of it as much as a dollar and a half a hundred, and a well known manufacturer said this morning that he had never known prices as high as at present. Some believe to the belief that the market will shortly be glutted in consequence of the present situation, while others think the market will all be cleared by Christmas.—Richmond Times.

Girl Mysteriously Disappeared.
Elizabeth Child, N. C., Nov. 21.—Miss Nellie Crosey, daughter of W. H. Crosey, mysteriously disappeared last night. The police and citizens are searching for her. The river was thoroughly dragged, but no clue as to her whereabouts has been found. A young man who has been paying attention to the missing girl was the last person seen in her presence. He was arrested upon suspicion and given a preliminary hearing, resulting in taking his own recognizance to appear before the mayor. Chief of Police Dawson telegraphed to Suffolk, Va., for bloodhounds.

An Interesting Question.
We publish elsewhere in today's paper a communication from Col. J. C. L. Harris that raises an interesting question. He asks the question that inasmuch as the new constitutional amendment does not go into effect until July, 1902, no voter can be deprived of his vote because he did not pay his poll tax by May of that year—two months before the amendment goes into effect. If the point Mr. Harris raises turns out to be well taken it will have no effect on the amendment except to postpone the operation of the poll tax feature until 1904.—Raleigh News & Observer.

Don't get gay with the editor, says an exchange. A young woman poked fun at the editor of the Bluffton, Ind., Banner, because his trousers were patched. The editor went home and sued her husband for $10 he owed on subscription.

An umbrella may not be of much use in a football game, but you can turn it inside out without breaking any ribs.

Winterville Department.
NEWSPAPERS AND BUSINESS NOTES

WINTERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 23. Wonder if the entertainment suggested for Thanksgiving is bearing fruit. We are listening, eager to listen.

Hunting parties are quite numerous and careless shooting a common occurrence. Better be careful, or the services of the coroner will be required.

B. F. Manning is his smiling self once more. He has been sick for some time and his friends are all glad to see him at the old stand. It looks more natural.

Jasper McCotter, of Ayden, spent part of the day here yesterday.

A car load of nice flour has just been received by B. F. Manning & Co.

A. G. Cox has made sale of all the land he has been advertising and still the people are continual coming to buy. The Winterville items in REFLECTOR are certainly carefully read.

Two new homes have just been placed in the hands of carpenters for construction.

A. G. Cox has two horses and one mule for sale. Any person desiring to buy a medium class farm team will do well to see him.

10,000 yards wire fence for garden use for sale, 5,000 yards of garden fence ready for the market. Now is the time you need your fence so come at once.

Prof. E. L. Middleton, of Cary, spent Wednesday here.

Rev. J. H. Rich, of Farmington, N. C. was here this week soliciting funds with which to build a church at Belhaven in Hyde county.

BROKE IN STORE.
Thief Captured With Blood Hounds.

Tuesday night the store of W. H. Wilson, a colored man, at Penny Hill, was broken into and robbed. The thief got in by prizing open the back door by the store. Some meat and other goods were stolen.

Wednesday morning Mr. W. C. Hines received a telephone message to go out with his blood hounds and see if the thief could be trailed. Mr. Hines left with his dogs at once and reached Penny Hill about 11 o'clock. The owner of the store had been thoughtful enough not to let anyone go about the door where the thief got in, so the dogs were quick to strike a trail. They followed the trail down by the creek and across the bridge over into Edgecombe county to the house of Foreman Staton, colored, who was taken in custody.

The dogs not getting to Penny Hill in fully ten hours after the robbery was committed and then running the trail so readily was a piece of fine work for them.

Good Changes.
Another change has been made in the schedule of passenger trains on the Atlantic & North Carolina railroad that will be of interest and benefit to people over this way.

The evening train going west will leave New Bern at 6 o'clock, passing Kinston at 7:07. This will make a good connection with the Weldon and Kinston train over this road which is due at Kinston at 6:45. By this new schedule people will again be enabled to leave here on the 5:47 train and get to Goldsboro in time to connect with the night train going north and west.

We also hear that the early morning train between Raleigh and Goldsboro is to be put back on, and if this is done we can again get Raleigh papers here on the morning freight train from Kinston.

Whichever-Dey.
The following cards have been issued:

Mr. and Mrs. George Walters Deed request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Annie Wortham to Mr. Claude Linden Whitchard on the evening of Wednesday, the fourth of December, nineteen hundred and one at half past seven o'clock. At 312 State street, Norfolk, Virginia.

The United States cruiser Cincinnati is the only all-steel vessel in the United States navy with a life-size figure head at her bow. A figure of Liberty, in steel and wood, stands out from her graceful stem. A simple shield representation of the coat of arms of the United States is the only ornamentation of the prow of our United States war ships.

North Carolina is in an era of development that is simply phenomenal. Capital is pouring into the State and factories and shops are going up in all directions. Thousands of acres of farm lands are being sold to progressive people from other States coming here to better their condition. The old North State has an enviable future.—Winston Journal.

Unlike some of our exchanges, the Times can see no harm, or impropriety, in a man acknowledging that he wants an office, even a judgeship. In these days if a man wants an office and I don't ask for it he is not likely to get it. And if the best men don't ask for office less worthy men will fill them.—Rich Square Times.

SICK MADE WELL.
WEEK MADE STRONG.

Marvelous Elixir of Life Discovered by Famous Doctor. Scientist That Cures Every Known Ailment.

Wonderful Cures Are Effected That Seem Like Miracles Performed.—The Secret of Long Life of Olden Times Revealed.

The Remedy Is Free To All Who Send Name and Address.

After years of patient study, and delving into the dusty record of the past, as well as following modern experiments in the realm of medical science, Dr. James W. Kidd, 128 First National Bank Building, Fort Wayne, Ind., makes the startling announcement that he has discovered the elixir of life. That he is able with the aid of a mysterious compound, known only to himself, produced as a result of the years he has spent in searching for this precious life giving boon to cure any and every disease that is known to the human body. There is no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claim and the remarkable cures that he is daily effecting seems to bear him out very strongly. His theory which he advances is one of reason and based on sound evidence in a medical practice of many years. It costs nothing to try his remarkable "Elixir of Life," as he calls it, for he sends it free, to anyone who is a sufferer, in sufficient quantities to convince of its ability to cure, so there is absolutely no risk to run. Some of the cures cited are very remarkable, and but for reliable witnesses would hardly be credited. The lame have thrown away crutches and walked about after two or three trials of the remedy. The sick, given up by home doctors, have been restored to their families and friends in perfect health. Headaches, neuralgia, stomachic, heart, liver, kidney, blood and skin diseases and bladder troubles disappear as by magic. Headaches, backaches, nervousness, fevers, consumption, coughs, colds, asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and all affections of the throat, lungs or any vital organs are easily overcome in a space of time that is simply marvelous.

Partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, dropsy, gout, scrofula and piles are quickly and permanently removed. It purifies the entire system, blood and tissues, restores normal nerve power, circulation and builds up perfect health. It is produced at once. To the doctor all systems are alike and equally affected by this great "Elixir of Life." Send for the remedy today. It is free to every sufferer. State what you want to be cured of and the sure remedy for it will be sent you free by return mail.

A Philadelphia boy came narying from the effects of his first cher of tobacco and is now in a hospital being treated for nicotine poisoning. He can at least have the consolation of knowing that his second attempt, which will be as soon as he gets out of the hospital, will not be so bad.—Raleigh Times.

A short cotton crop will seriously affect those farmers who depend upon cotton alone as a money crop. But with a soil that will produce any and everything there is no excuse for doing this, and if they insist let the blame rest where it belongs.—Durham Herald.

Boston Dudley, Kentucky, is a native of Virginia. He says that a negro "whose intelligence is sharpened by the training of the school room, but whose moral nature remains undeveloped, is but a more dangerous animal."

Governor Aycock has employed ex-Judge James E. Shepherd, ex-Judge James H. Merrimon and George Routt to defend the State in the suit brought against North Carolina by the State of South Dakota.

The latest fad with the New York 400 is the "sun parlor." It is a good scheme, and the advantage is that a man who can't afford a sun parlor in the house can have one out in the yard.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS
THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is commended by Statesmen, Professional men and thousands of other prominent in the world's activities. For its fine discrimination in sifting the actual news from conflicting reports and the presentation of current events in their just proportion. They comment on the news from daily paper sensationalism. All men and women who wish to know what the world is doing find it an intellectual necessity. Judge from the letters received from hundreds. Its editorial is comprehensive and labor saving to the busy man or woman. Its timely contributions on important topics are by the best informed writers. Its reviews of other magazines give the best of their best. It is profusely illustrated. These reviews will enable all thoughtful men and women to judge of its value to them.

PRESIDENT
"I know that through its columns 'Review of Reviews' and appropriate news have been presented in clear and very highly indexed. I think that I could not otherwise have a very important part of my own access to, because all earnest literary, and practically a necessity and thoughtful men, no matter for one in public life."—J. D. Wadsworth, U. S. Senator, Ohio.
"It is one of the best and most interesting of the publications of the day."—Charles W. Fairbanks, U. S. Senator, Indiana.
"I do not have a great deal of time to read magazines, but I take value. I have sometimes found pleasure in saying that the 'Review of Reviews' is the only one that I find a place on my table."—George F. Baker, U. S. Senator, Ohio.
"I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."—George C. Cleveland.

The Old Reliable.
There is to be another year, unless the almanac fails. At any rate the Ennis Publishing Co. has sent us a copy of Turner's North Carolina Almanac, the old reliable, for 1902. It wears the same old familiar face and is filled with its usual good store of useful information.

Was It Snow or Steel?
A slight fall of sleet or hominy snow occurred yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. It melted very soon, however, upon reaching the ground and was hardly distinguishable from rain. Snow was reported during the day at Florence and Camden, S. C., and at points in Western North Carolina.—Wilmington Star.

At the home of Mr. Noah Forbes, father of the bride, three miles from Greenville, at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Miss Nora Forbes and Mr. W. E. Jolley, of Greenville, were married by Elder Fred McLawhorn. Immediately after the ceremony the couple came to Greenville and held a reception at night at the home of the bridegroom at Pitt street.

Telephone Change.
Mr. H. P. Hill, of New Bern, has been appointed Superintendent of the Carolina & Virginia Telephone Company's Greenville exchange, vice Mr. W. A. Beavars, transferred. Mr. Hill is a thorough telephone man and experienced electrician, and a clever gentleman. He will leave nothing undone to make the Greenville exchange first class in every particular.

Decatur, Ala., Nov. 20.—James Wynne, an Oxford blacksmith, narrowly escaped being buried alive today. After the funeral services, the casket was opened at the grave, when the body was seen to move. The casket was hurried back to the home of Wynne, where he revived and is now under treatment. Wynne had been pronounced dead by physicians and he lay apparently dead for two nights and a day.

Nothing will make a more appropriate Christmas present than a good Teacher's Bible or a Parker Fountain Pen. Nice line of both at Reflector Book Store. You might come pick out your choice and have it put aside until wanted.
