Geronimo's sword.
An amusing controversy followed the recent surrender of General Licinio Geronimo to the Filipino leader. The federal party of Filipinos laid claim to his sword on the ground that he had killed it to them as a souvenir of his victory. Mr. Geronimo, however, declared that he had never delivered his sword, as he had never surrendered. Then it was found that this particular sword, the chief had turned over, was not his own, but one he borrowed for the occasion. Finally the federal party resigned all claim to the sword, leaving Colonel Thompson in possession of it. It now comes to light that the real weapon worn by Geronimo in the war is actually in the hands of still another officer.

A Life of Accidents.
Rebecca Wampler, said to be 100 years old, who died the other day in Dublin, Ind., had met with many accidents during her life. At the age of 6 years she fell from a picket fence and broke her finger. In 1833 she broke her ankle, in 1865 she fell down and broke her hip. In 1885 she fell from a tree, breaking her arm; in 1888 she fell out of bed, breaking her right arm, and in 1900 she broke her right hip for the second time.

Fascinating Abdul Hamid.
The character of Abdul Hamid must obtain what he has many facets. The latest of his visitors is Dr. Herzl, the Zionist leader, who reports that he is perfectly charming. "The sultan spoke to me with the greatest kindness. I found him a courteous, charming gentleman. One almost forgot he was this mighty potentate. He has kept himself in touch, I found, with all the latest developments of modern life and evidently is far from having those notions which some of our some associates with the Ottoman Empire."—London Mail.

BAND CONCERT.
A Mark of Appreciation.

As a mark of appreciation of the many kindnesses shown them by the people of Greenville, the Occoala Band will give a band concert, with a few specialties, on Friday night, Dec. 20th. While the concert is free to all, an opportunity will be given those who attend to help the poor of the community enjoy Christmas. For this purpose a contribution box will be placed at the head of the stairs to receive whatever anyone may desire to put in, from a penny up. The fund thus raised will be turned over to Mrs. J. B. Cherry, County Secretary of The King's Daughters, for distribution among the little children who are not able to have Santa Claus come to see them. All who do not feel able to contribute to this fund are as welcome to the concert as those who do contribute.

In case the weather is cold a fire will be kept in the opera house all day so as to have it thoroughly comfortable. Seats will be reserved for the ladies.
