WALKER'S TONIC LAXATIVE

If you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, blotchy or maddish skin, or any symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system, WALKER'S TONIC LAXATIVE will cure you.

It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the muscular members of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels move regularly, your liver and kidneys cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Merely a Reminder. It is just as good for internal as for external troubles. It will stop the agonizing cramps in the bowels which follow exposure to cold and wet and taken internally will relieve all the various ailments which attend colds and influenza. It should be administered in warm water, slightly sweetened. There is but one Walker's Tonic Laxative.

Married. On the 26th one of the prettiest marriage ceremonies ever witnessed took place in St. Mary's church near Coakley, Rev. E. W. Gamble, officiating.

The contracting parties were William Cherry Dancy and Miss Selma Lewis Satterthwaite. Into the church filled with friends and relatives the lovely bride in a light brown tulle made suit, with hat to match, entered upon the arm of her brother, J. R. Satterthwaite. At the chancel she was met by the groom and by the grand ceremony of the church the train were made one.

The maid of honor was the bride's niece, Miss Mollie Satterthwaite. No sweeter or prettier maid ever walked up St. Mary's aisle.

J. Strong in the regulation dress of the hour was best man. The brides were J. L. Cherry and Felix Jones, both handsome and the personification of urbanity. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left for their home in Farmville.

Presents numerous, costly and useful were sent them betokening the estimation in which each and both were held.—Tarboro South-ern.

A FRIEND.

Why Easter is a "Movable" Feast. During all of March the sun is coming farther north. About the twentieth it crosses directly on the equator, and the day is just as long as the night. The time of the old Jewish Passover, and hence of our Easter, depends on this date. This latter always comes on the Sunday following the first full moon after the sun crosses the line.

This accounts for its being a "movable" feast.—March Ladies' Home Journal.

A Bank's Advertising. The advertising of a New York savings bank in the newspapers consists chiefly of a daily extract from the simple proverb of "Poor Richard." Franklin knew from experience the wisdom of saving, and these quotations are likely to impress readers who have neglected the rules of economy and thrift. Naturally the advertising bank will be the choice of these readers in the selection of a depository.—Philadelphia Record.

William Morgan, 69 years of age, was found dead in a ditch yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock on Mr. Speight Sutton's farm, about six miles from Kinston. Last Saturday he was known to have been when found there in his person—when found there in his person—when found there in his person.

A "reduced young lady" in Leavenworth, Kansas, is pining for some congenial masculine who would love her "for herself alone." As she incidentally remarks that in addition to her good points she is worth in cash $29,000, the probabilities are that she will find some sympathetic fellow who will volunteer to do that.—Wilmington Star.

A conductor on the Chicago and Alton railroad was agreeably surprised a few days ago by notice that he had been left $1,000 by an old gentleman as a mark of appreciation for courtesies extended while traveling on that road. Courtesy generally pays. There is nothing lost by it, anyway.—Wilmington Star.

It doesn't require a good penman to fight a wrong. A fat purse is a good thing to lean on. The hands of a clock are always on the front, and still they may be behind time.

Merely a Reminder. It is just as good for internal as for external troubles. It will stop the agonizing cramps in the bowels which follow exposure to cold and wet and taken internally will relieve all the various ailments which attend colds and influenza. It should be administered in warm water, slightly sweetened. There is but one Walker's Tonic Laxative.

HEALTH INSURANCE

The man who insures his life is wise for his family. The man who insures his health is wise both for his family and himself. You may insure health by guarding it. It is worth guarding. At the first attack of disease, which generally approaches through the liver and manifests itself in innumerable ways TAKE

Tutt's Pills

And save your health.

Advertising for Growth. It is reasonable that the advertiser should expect immediate returns from his announcements. In the case of permanent business however, the future also is worth considering. An establishment which is expected to grow can well afford to bear the cost of advertising which will give to it an enduring place in the public memory. The small merchant who is ambitious to become a large merchant must begin his growth in the advertising department.—Philadelphia Record.

The winter has been long and cold in Chicago, and the power of endurance of its people has been almost exhausted. To save themselves from the necessity of hibernating a German society devised a scheme for a night's festival in a summer garden. A large hall was transformed into a garden, huge trees being placed here and there and covered with artificial leaves. The walls were painted to represent the various vistas of country in summer. There were tables under the trees and a band of music. In short, everything was summery, especially after the hard winter of the year. Then came the people, the women dressed in white summer gowns and the men in white suits and trousers, while the children ran about barefoot. The whole thing was realistic, and when at midnight the people dispersed they were fortified for another three months of winter.

The Truest Thing We Ever Didn't Say. BUT PERHAPS WE DID AND ONLY REPEAT. Not sure whether we told you after inventory that our stocks were then in record condition, by which we mean CREATORS of thinkers. If we didn't it was the truest thing we ever didn't say.

Of all the hard lessons a merchant has to learn the hardest is this: NEVER CARRY OVER. Into goods lately bought, bought tight and still in fashion, it's mighty hard to plunge the knife. But do it he often must, or suffer later. It's due to you, as well as us, that we start the new season right. WE DO.

BLACK JACK ITEMS. THE RALEIGH STATUE. Contribution from School Children suggested.

EDITOR REFLECTOR: As a teacher it gives me great pleasure to know that an effort has been made to erect a statue in Raleigh to the memory of Sir Walter Raleigh.

I am sure if each teacher will lay the matter before his or her pupils, it will be but a pleasure to our school children to contribute something for this worthy work.

W. F. EVANS, Editor of THE REFLECTOR, who has already had honor in charge to receive contributions for the statue, would also receive and forward a special donation coming from the schools of the county.

W. F. EVANS. (It will give THE REFLECTOR pleasure to receive and forward such donations as the school children contribute to the fund for the erection of the statue.)

Booklet and Newspaper. For a business enterprise which requires to be introduced to the public by long explanations and descriptions an elaborate and costly booklet may be valuable as a form of advertising. It is impossible, however, to reach everybody with such a publication without a liberal use of newspaper space to call attention to it, and even then there will be very large portions of the people who will never send for the booklet, and among them many of the particular persons it is most desirable to reach. The newspaper, on the other hand, gets into the hands of virtually everybody and the expenditure of a sum equal to the cost of the booklet for newspaper space will accomplish more than the booklet can.—Philadelphia Record.

Larking on Street Corners and in the cars are vexatious current of air which cold touch sets the fumes of sewer gas and the miasma of the city. It is a modern magic in the form of Perry Davis' Kidney and Bladder Remedy, which will save yourself many a day of misery by keeping this good old remedy in the house. There is but one Panikler, Perry Davis.
