GREENVILLE, N. C.
D. J. WICHARD, Ed. & Owner

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1902.

The trouble that is bound to come, according to political and other prophets, will come from the spirit of overpopulation that now seems to pervade every corner of the country.

It is said that the Cozes are negotiating for the purchase of the immense water power at Roanoke Rapids, near Weldon, and propose to erect there the largest cotton mill in the world. Such an enterprise will mean much for the State.

The Daughters of the Confederacy of Charleston have sent invitations to all the Chapters in North Carolina to attend a reception on Saturday, April 12th, to be given in the Assembly hall of the Woman's building at the Charleston Exposition.

The Democratic State Executive Committee met in Raleigh Tuesday and selected Greensboro as the place for holding the next Democratic State convention. The contest between Raleigh and Greensboro was close and spirited, the vote being a tie on two ballots.
Greensboro finally won by a majority of one. Raleigh has only itself to blame for losing the convention, the people having become tired of putting up with the poor accommodations that city offers for holding conventions.

Some people in discussing the law relative to a failure to pay poll tax by May 1st depriving the deliverer of the right to vote in the succeeding election, have asked if this law applies in municipal elections as well as in State and county elections. The law does so apply. You must have your poll tax receipt from the town Tax collector to enable you to vote in the town election, just the same as you must have your poll tax receipt from the Sheriff to enable you to vote in the State and county election. And these receipts must be obtained before May 1st.

The lynching of the negro at Washington strongly calls to mind a defect in our law. That defect committed a heinous crime, poisoning a whole family, and so far as his intentions went was just as guilty of murder as though all his victims had died. Fortunately for the latter they were all saved by timely assistance, and under such circumstances the negro could not have been given only a few years in the penitentiary, a punishment no ways fitting the magnitude of his crime. Doubtless this thought prompted the people to take the law in their own hands and mete out the punishment the crime deserved. Lynchings are deplorable but good laws promptly executed would stop them.

Leprosy in America.

Washington, March 24.—The secretary of the treasury today sent to the senate a report of a commission of medical officers of the marine hospital service appointed to investigate the origin and prevalence of leprosy in the United States. The report shows 278 cases of leprosy in the United States distributed by states as follows: Alabama, 1; California, 24; Florida, 24; Georgia, 1; Illinois, 5;
Iowa, 1; Louisiana, 155; Maryland,
1; Massachusetts, 2; Minnesota,
20; Mississippi, 5; Missouri, 1;
Montana, 1; Nevada, 1; New York, 8; North Dakota, 15; Oregon, 1;
Pennsylvania, 1; South Dakota, 1;
Texas, 3; Wisconsin, 3.

Six persons were baptized and received into membership in the Missionary Baptist church last Sunday night.

A long distance telephone was placed in the office at the depot of the A. C. L. last Monday. Now our people can talk in the distance, if they can't travel it.

There will be a meeting of the Democratic vote in J. R. Johnson's store on Tuesday evening April 1st at 7 o'clock for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various offices and electing an executive committee to serve for the next twelve months.

Miss Nellie Manford, of Ayden, spent Sunday with Miss Minnie Cox.

Rev. C. W. Blanchard is conducting a protracted meeting in the Missionary Baptist church this week.

The band have secured the services of Prof. A. A. Forbes as instructor.

The Episcopal Sunday school will observe Easter Sunday with all the necessary incidents to the occasion.

Check by Jowl—Four young guys with aerobic and bicycle propensities balling from our sister town, Ayden, paid us a visit last Monday and most magnanimously offered their services in their special line provided a voluntary contribution was taken by our citizens in payment therefor. Their offer was respectfully declined.

R. G. Chapman went to Calico
Monday and returned yesterday.

New buildings in our town are so numerous we can make no special mention. Suffice it to say we are in the midst of a regular boom.

Rev. H. M. Eare, of Greenville, will preach in the chapel next Sunday afternoon. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Misses Addie Johnson and Rosa Hooker, of Greenville, and Miss Lucy Galloway, of Grimsland, after spending several days visiting friends here, have returned to their respective homes.

Misses Cora Carroll, Sadie Carroll and Daisy Cox spent Sunday in town.

Mr. Talbot Manning, of Grindool, came over Friday evening and remained until Monday with her son, who is a student in the High School.

Mrs. Murphy Woodard, of Wichard, is visiting the family of M.
G. Bryan. She has also placed her son in our school.

Richard Randolph and J. H.
Averett, of Greenville, came down Sunday to see the girls, and they saw them, too.

Let Them Come.

Our friends the advertisers are making strong demand on the columns of THE REFLECTOR to tell the people of their excellent stocks.
Well, they know a good thing when they see it, and they know where to put an announcement for the people to read. We will make room for all that come, and it is getting to look like they are going to make us buy another press and enlarge the paper.

The New York police arrested a professional "fake fit thrower" the other day. It was his practice to fall down on the sidewalk in front of a fine private residence and pretend to have a fit, whereupon he would usually be carried into the house, doled with restorative and presented with money by the sympathetic proprietor after receiving a hard knock story. By this means he sometimes made as much as $18 or $20 a day.

SPRULL-MOORE.

Morning Marriage at Home.

At 8 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. James L. Moore, near Greenville, his daughter, Miss Lillie O. Moore, was married to Rev. George Edward Sprull, of Williamston, S. C.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. N. Booth in the presence of a number of the friends and relatives of the family.

After the marriage the couple left on the 8:30 train for a visit to the groom's parents at Henderson, after which they will go to Williamston, S. C., where Mr. Sprull is located as pastor of the Baptist church.

There was quite a handsome display of bridal presents sent by the admirers of the bride, of whom there were many. While Greenville regrets to lose so charming a young lady, she is followed by the best wishes of every one.

The Value of a Good Name.

The decision of the jury in the Crosby murder case teaches a moral that everyone should take to heart, for it shows that a good name is better than riches.

Wilcox may be guilty or not but it is almost certain that had his reputation been good he would never have been convicted on the testimony offered.

Nor is this all, had his previous life been what it should have been, people would not have jumped at the conclusion of his guilt, nor would the citizens of Elizabeth City be clamoring for his blood and seeking by every means proper and improper to influence the jury to bring in a verdict of guilty.

St. Paul never uttered a truer saying than when he had his secretary to write the Corinthians that evil communications corrupt good manners.

Wilcox began the construction of his gibbet when he began to lead the life that brought reproach to the mother that bore him.

Verily the fate of Wilcox should be a warning and lesson to all.
—Tarboro Southerner.

Governor of Missouri Would Postpone Fair.

St. Louis, Mo., March 24.—Governor Dockery, of Missouri, does not believe the St. Louis World's Fair can be held in 1903. His opinion is based on the shortage of time for preparing exhibits.
He says he believes at least two years should be allowed for getting buildings up and exhibits prepared.

When asked if he thought the Fair could be held in 1904, and if it would be advisable to hold it during a Presidential year, he replied yes to both questions. "I think that by 1904 we could have the Fair entirely ready in all its features and departments, and I do not believe the St. Louis Exposition Company would realize that 1904 is a Presidential year."

Merry Makers.

I will organize on Saturday evening at 2 o'clock at my home, a society that will go under the name of "Merry Makers" in which I wish all the children in town to take a part, both boys and girls.
We will devote a part of the time to some literary course suited to the members. It will cost to be come a member 10 cents and 5 cents monthly dues, to keep up the expense of the society such as buying music and things which will be necessary.

I hope that everybody will read this, and consider the matter before they send their children.

It does not make any difference how small or large you are, as there will be something provided for all to do. We also would be glad to have older people who are interested in such work unite with us as we will gladly make them honorary members.

MISSIE QUINN.

Mr. Orey, of Virginia, wants the government to appropriate a large sum for good roads in this country and asks for only one fourth as much as has already been expended in the Philippines. He believes that other things, like charity, should begin at home.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

A little 4-year-old girl run over and killed by a street car in Charlotte, Monday evening.

J. J. Cobb, of Roanoke Rapids, was murdered and his body thrown in the canal. There is no clue.

J. W. Mullen has won his fight for re-appointment as postmaster at Charlotte, though charges against him came near losing him the job.

Prof. W. H. Neave, a noted musician of Salisbury, died Tuesday, aged 82. He is remembered by some Greenville people, having instructed a hand here some twenty odd years ago.

Front Door Mirror.

Recently in passing through possibly the prettiest village in the Cotswolds I saw an excellent idea that might with advantage be introduced elsewhere. Within the knocker on the front door, which in this instance was about on a level with the face of the visitor, was placed a small convex mirror. Supposing the visitor is paying a call of either congratulation or condolence, how advantageous must it be to put the right expression on his countenance, either festive or doleful, before he knocks at the door.—London Graphic.

His Negative Side.

Ell Mink knows a "barred farmer" of Princeton, N. J., who died the other day, recently made the following confession: "I have never been married or in love, never smoked, chewed or touched a drop of beer or other intoxicants; never played dominoes, checkers or cards of any kind and cannot tell one card from another. I have never been to a play, even in church, or a circus; never saw the inside of a theater, have never skated with a girl on the ice, though I was when a boy considered quite a skater, and I think few men experienced the pleasure that I did when a young man."

How He Finally Preached.

you," he answered.—Chicago Post.

I saw her take him in her arms and hold him to her breast.
She pledged her love to him and said they nevermore would part.

And then, as if by magic,
he broke her love like this:
She bent and on the bench took leaves of a match on his.

Then to herself he said to sigh:
"Here's where I live, my dear." The words were his, by all the world
I know.

BEST FOR THE SOUTH.

SEED POTATOES

ONE OF OUR LEADING SPECIALTIES.

We have thousands of barrels in stock; the best Flute-grown and Virginia Second-Crop Seed.
Wood's 1902 Catalogue gives comparative crop results, both as to quality and yield, with Maize-grown and Second-crop seed. It also contains much other useful and reliable information about Potatoes. Write for Catalogue and Special Potato Price List.

Wood's Descriptive Catalogue

Will give reliable, practical, up-to-date information about all seeds, giving names of the best varieties, and the best time to grow, most accurate way of growing different crops, and much other valuable information. Special interest in every

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

If you cannot reach the spot yourself get some one to assist you, for it is essential that the liniment be rubbed in most thoroughly.

It cures the ailments of horses and all domestic animals. In fact, it is a skin healer and pain killer no matter what the patient is.

How to Grow Cotton for Profit.

Prepare your land well, manure well and plant a variety that will command a better price when you offer it on the market.

Two years ago I secured a peck of seed, planted them on half an acre of land and picked a bale of cotton that weighed 420 pounds, shipped this cotton through Mr. E. J. Cobb together with several other bales of good variety and this bale sold for three eighths of a cent more per pound than the lot. The lot is far superior to any cotton sold on this market and the yield is far ahead of anything we have in this country. Numbers of the best farmers in the county saw my crop growing in the field and pronounced it as fine as they ever saw.
I am now offering these seed for sale at $1.00 a bushel. Parties wanting any of these seed will please send me their order at once as I only have a limited quantity for sale.

For a Lame Back,

ness of your body there is nothing that will drive out the pain and inflammation so quickly as

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

If you cannot reach the spot yourself get some one to assist you, for
it is essential that the liniment be
rubbed in most thoroughly.

It cures the ailments of horses and all domestic animals. In fact, it is a skin healer and pain killer no matter what the patient is.

Prepare your land well, manure well and plant a variety that will command a better price when you offer it on the market.

Two years ago I secured a peck of seed, planted them on half an acre of land and picked a bale of cotton that weighed 420 pounds, shipped this cotton through Mr. E. J. Cobb together with several other bales of good variety and this bale sold for three eighths of a cent more per pound than the lot. The lot is far superior to any cotton sold on this market and the yield is far ahead of anything we have in this country. Numbers of the best farmers in the county saw my crop growing in the field and pronounced it as fine as they ever saw.
I am now offering these seed for sale at $1.00 a bushel. Parties wanting any of these seed will please send me their order at once as I only have a limited quantity for sale.

WELL WORTH SEEING.
(From News and Observers)
People who spend money and travel long distances to Expositions have a right to know whether or not they are going to get the benefit of their time and money.
"Is it worth seeing?" is a question asked of all exhibitions and especially of all Expositions.
He has made a special visit to Charleston to study the South Carolina Inter-State and West Indian Exposition and in Sunday's issue of the News and Observer—The Charleston Exposition Edition—he has set forth truly and fairly the great attractions of a truly great Exposition. He has not told of every beautiful sight of every great exhibit, for that is an ever-changing panorama in the "Ivory City," but he has written of the Exposition in a broad sense and leaves the filling in of details to the visitor who goes to Charleston.
It is a great Exposition, more than that, it is a magnificent Exposition, and no one who attends it will be disappointed or have a moment's regret, but instead there will be a supreme feeling of satisfaction.

THE CHARLESTON EXPOSITION

The Magnificent Display of the South in the Exposition and its of the World

THE "IVORY CITY" FAIRLAND

South Carolina Inter-State and West Indian Exposition Presents Great and Unique Features that Attract Thousands of Visitors.

A GREAT AND HOLLY MIDWAY

The purpose is to add to former efforts and to inaugurate a new era of progress and advancement in all the States of the South and West Indies. It is an Arabian Nights dream translated into lines of beautiful buildings, arising out of artistic parks and plazas where rippling waters and fountains shimmer in the sun.

SPLENDID AND UNIQUE

The high water mark of Southern Exposition has been reached in Charleston where the South Carolina Inter-State and West Indian Exposition is now in its full swing.

THE MEN AT THE HELM

The men at the helm of the Exposition are a group of men of high ability and high character. They are the men who have made the Exposition what it is today.

CAPT. P. W. WAGNER

President of the Exposition. He is a man of high ability and high character. He is the man who has made the Exposition what it is today.

MR. SAMUEL LAPHAM

Exposition Director. He is a man of high ability and high character. He is the man who has made the Exposition what it is today.

MR. W. H. WELCH

Vice President of the Exposition. He is a man of high ability and high character. He is the man who has made the Exposition what it is today.

MR. J. H. AVERILL

Director General of the Exposition. He is a man of high ability and high character. He is the man who has made the Exposition what it is today.

excavation made for a lake. In the center of this, fully twenty feet below the surface, is the site of the Charleston. It is beautiful by day, but at night, the effect produced by the shimmering reflections of the ivory palaces seen in the water, is a sight to be remembered.

PALACE OF COMMERCE

This is one of the three Palaces located in semi-circular form by colonades. It is a magnificent structure, and its architecture is a masterpiece of the art of the day.

THE GOVERNMENT EXHIBIT

An appropriation from Congress came to Charleston in the shape of a building. It is a magnificent structure, and its architecture is a masterpiece of the art of the day.

The Exposition grounds are a picture of beauty. They are a masterpiece of the art of the day, and they are a sight to be remembered.

BY CAR AND STEAMER

The Exposition grounds are a picture of beauty. They are a masterpiece of the art of the day, and they are a sight to be remembered.

COL. C. S. GABSDEN

This is the chief feature of the Exposition. It is a magnificent structure, and its architecture is a masterpiece of the art of the day.

MR. SAMUEL LAPHAM

Exposition Director. He is a man of high ability and high character. He is the man who has made the Exposition what it is today.

PALACE OF AGRICULTURE

This is the completion of the central axis, and here is the magnificent building made from the columns of South Carolina, most artistically arranged.

THE SUNKEN GARDEN

This great feature of the Exposition is a masterpiece of the art of the day. It is a sight to be remembered.

THE WOMAN'S BUILDING

It was a wise choice that made the old Colonial home the Woman's Building. It is a magnificent structure, and its architecture is a masterpiece of the art of the day.

WEST INDIAN BUILDING

This is placed at the entrance to the Midway and it contains a most interesting exhibit from these islands about the world's work.

THE PALACE OF FINE ARTS

The Palace of Fine Arts is a masterpiece of the art of the day. It is a sight to be remembered.

THE AUDITORIUM

The Auditorium is a masterpiece of the art of the day. It is a sight to be remembered.

SOME STATES AND CITIES

Turning to the northwest towards the "Natural Section" we find at its entrance the Pennsylvania Building, a massive structure of granite and marble.

OVER LAKE JUANITA

Here, on the edge of the Lake is the building known as "Venice in America." It is a masterpiece of the art of the day.

THE WOMAN'S BUILDING

EVERYTHING GLORIOUS

From now until the close of the Exposition there will be nothing but the most magnificent and beautiful things to be seen.

THE NEGRO BUILDING

Diagonally across the Common from the Louisiana Purchase Building, through a live oak grove, is the Negro Building. It is a masterpiece of the art of the day.

LOUISIANA PURCHASE BUILDING

This is a masterpiece of the art of the day. It is a sight to be remembered.

of the Washington course of the Jockey Club. A speedy string of horses are run daily and there is each afternoon a great interest shown in the racing.

THE EXPOSITION MIDWAY

It is an imposing entrance that Architect Gilbert has designed for the Midway, and it is worthy of the fun and frolic and the knowledge that is to be gained by its use.

MRS. WILLIAM ALSTON PRINGLE

Secretary of Woman's Department. She is a woman of high ability and high character. She is the woman who has made the Exposition what it is today.

NORTH CAROLINA WEEK

The magnificent exhibit made by North Carolina is an attraction which will be an added power to draw North Carolina to the Exposition, and from all over the State they are going to give aid to the Exposition in making a success of her Exposition.

OUTSIDE ATTRACTIONS

Leading in this list is a visit to Fort Sumter, situated in plain view from the Exposition, whose name tells of its history. It is a sight to be remembered.

THE OLD MILL

Out of the light into darkness, the mill glides on the water and you are in "The Old Mill." It is a sight to be remembered.

THREE GREAT HOTELS

The average man who contemplates that he is making a visit to the Exposition, and that he is making a visit to the Exposition, and that he is making a visit to the Exposition.

their notes fellowship and good will. The new postoffice, a magnificent building, is a sight to be remembered.

EXPOSITION GROWING MORE BEAUTIFUL

The later number of the Charleston News and Courier says of the present state of affairs at the Exposition: "Yesterday was a typical winter day in Charleston, with a cold, clear sky, a sun which shone brightly, and the air filled with the perfume of flowers, and the trees and bushes were in full bloom."

LAXAKOLA THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE

If you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, headache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, bloated or muddy skin, or any symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system, Laxakola Will Cure You.

It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels move regularly, your liver and kidneys cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Mothers seeking the proper medicine to give their little ones for constipation, diarrhea, colic and similar troubles, will find Laxakola an ideal medicine for children. It keeps their bowels regular without pain or griping, acts as a natural tonic, restores appetite, aids digestion, relieves restlessness, clears the coated tongue, relieves fever, calms fretfulness, restores sleep and makes them fat, happy and healthy. "Children like it and ask for it."

For Sale by

Laxakola is not only the most effective medicine for constipation, but it is also the most palatable. It is a true tonic, and it is a true laxative. It is a true medicine, and it is a true cure. It is a true tonic, and it is a true laxative. It is a true medicine, and it is a true cure.

A FIVE DOLLAR JOKE.

Mr. Lee Fairchild, who is coming to the front as a humorist, visited San Francisco not long ago and, like many literary pilgrims to the west, determined to pay a visit to Mr. Joaquin Miller, poet of the Sierras, who lives in a charming villa in the Contra Costa foothills across the bay from the Golden Gate.

"What will you charge me to drive to Joaquin Miller's?" Fairchild asked of an Oakland cabman. "Five dollars," was the response. "The humorist got in and started away over the long, rugged road leading to the poet's side hill hermitage. It was evening when he started. The night had settled, and the moon was up when he arrived. He paid the driver and was about to open the rustic gate to the famous home when the cabman said dryly:

"I suppose you know that Joaquin is not in California at the present time. He has gone home to the humorist thought quickly and, smothering his indignation, replied: "Oh, yes, of course; I merely wanted to see how his place looks by moonlight."—Saturday Evening Post.

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

Pressures of Anticipation Eagerly Looked Forward to by a Woman.
"Tomorrow you will be free."
The scene was in one of those marble palaces that front one of the greatest avenues of the world, and the two actors were a man and a woman, both members of that social set whose doings are chronicled with such singularity.

The man's pale cynical, desipated face lighted up with some show of satirical interest as he spoke. "It will be a great day for you," he said, "will it not? I spare you from the contemplation of my own joy. But tomorrow when our divorce decrees shall be granted—how you must be looking forward to tomorrow!"

This time it was the woman's voice, soft, rhythmically ingenuous in its cadences and yet so subtly elusive a woman's voice that if one had ears to hear it might have been possible, from its varied strains of vibrations, to untangle the skein of her life, with its midnight, its after-midnight, its forenoon and its afternoon. What crisis had lent this undercurrent of callousness to its tone?

"No," she replied. "I am looking forward to the next day, for it is then that I am to be married again."

Strange Disappearance of the Dump-lings.

An Experience.
"You know," said the prudent person, "that no one ought to eat meat three times a day. It destroys health."

"Yes, I know it does. I tried it awhile and nearly worried myself into the grave over the grocer's bills."—Washington Star.

A News Average.
Hasting Editor—How many murders did that man commit?
Assistant—One of the reporters says three, another says five and another says nine.

Hasting Editor—Three, five, nine, eh? Oh, well, we have to strike an average. Make it 5.9.

Keeping Him Dumb.
"You ought to be more economical," said young Mrs. Torkins' mother.
"Perhaps I ought," was the answer, "only, you know, I'm afraid it might be a temptation to illness for Charley."—Washington Star.

Sympathetic Woman.
Mr. Gossett—Dr. Polus says if I don't ease up a bit in my work I'll be dead in a year.
Mrs. Gossett—But you will have nothing to reproach yourself with, since you've got your life insured.—Philadelphia Press.

NOTICE.
Great Timber Sale.

By virtue of a Decree of the Superior court of Pitt county made at March term 1902, in a case therein pending, and filed in the Probate of the Last Will and Testament of the late Thomas J. Shepard, I will, on Tuesday, April 22nd, 1902, sell for cash to the highest bidder in front of the court house door, in Greenville, all the standing timber of Pine and Poplar measuring 12 inches and upward at the time it is cut on the following described tracts or parcels of land belonging to the estate of said Thomas J. Shepard to wit: One piece of land on the South side of the Shepard Mill pond, containing about forty acres, bounded by the line of timber sold to Greenleaf Johnson Lumber Company by said Shepard and the main road, called the South road, leading from Picoles to Shepard's Mill race. One other tract lying on the North side of said Mill pond, containing about two hundred acres, bounded by the road from Shepard's Mill race to Robertsonville and the lands of the heirs of J. W. Perkins, the lands of W. B. Roebuck and Henry Swann.

Will somebody please tell the truth about the cow and her end? In the country when a cow suddenly grows pale and lethargic and ceases to do business with the water wagon some old negro comes along and says, "She's lost her end," and straightway he fastens a lot of greasy fish tags to a hoe handle and runs them down the animal's throat. At once the cow resumes her complexion and her connection with the dairy, and notwithstanding her bereft condition of upper teeth chews away as vigorously as a gum girl. This is a fashion of fishing a cow with old tags a superstitious, or does her internal machinery really require occasional doses of rod flannel. And when the old-time negro—the only genuine cow doctor—dies, what in the world will become of cows who are unfortunate enough to lose their ends? The Old Man declares that this subject is more interesting to him than politics.—Charlotte Observer.
