WHY?

BECAUSE no other store anywhere is so diligent in the interests of the buying public to which it looks for support. BECAUSE nothing but absolutely reliable merchandise is admitted here at any price—that point is of vital import. BECAUSE the prices we ask are the lowest known to the merchandise world for goods of the quality we sell. BECAUSE every sale that we make is backed by an absolute personal guarantee of satisfaction to the smallest detail. BECAUSE every thing is done to promote your personal comfort while shopping, and to fulfill the most exacting requirements. And so we might continue to name reason after reason almost without end. No really careful buyer will pass the offers we make without investigating them. Look at this double column full of Economy opportunities for this week:

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 26. There was a remarkable scene in the Senate on Thursday. An old man, white with the snows of many winters and slightly bent, stood among the senators like Socrates teaching the men and youths of Athens. He appealed to them with an eloquence seldom equalled, to remain true to the faith of their fathers. For a quarter of a century this same old man, George Frisbie Hoar, has sat in the Senate chamber and no one has had occasion to question his republicanism, but on Thursday he announced that his conscience would not permit him to vote with his party on the Philippine question for its exponents had forgotten the faith of their fathers. We looked on with interest. We were not surprised by his declaration. We were not surprised by his declaration. We were not surprised by his declaration.

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 26. I enjoy the acquaintance of a friend in this town whose progressive notions (occasionally) breathed into my right ear while I am preparing copy for these letters; have pointed out accurately so often in the past that a fresh installment of them now-a-days is sure to "give me pause."

He has just raised a verbal political weather flag in front of me, as I write, and I fear me to take it down. I comply.

"Here's a pointer for you," he begins: "If Justice Walter Clark comes out of this fight a winner—that is to say, if he is endorsed by the State Convention as overwhelmingly as his friends now predict—then look out for a cold wave to strike, about next January, the Senatorial prospects of Craig Overman, Glenn Alexander, Watson, et al. Yes, sir! The Judge will be a candidate, sure pop! And his boom will be turned loose after the Legislature convenes. A seat in the U. S. Senate is the height of Walter Clark's ambition and has been for a number of years. And yet not so! He would make a better Senator than Chief Justice, and I guess he's the intellectual peer of either of the gentlemen named. Mind you, I don't predict his election or defeat. But he and some of his friends think that he can afford his chances with the above named bunch and stand as good a show as either of them."

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENTS.

The past week has been one of college commencements here—the Baptist Female University and Peace Institute holding their exercises simultaneously. The former graduated ten students (the first graduates from this new institution and the latter six. The A. and M. College boys will be in it this week.

At Greensboro one of the most interesting and important events of this character is in progress this week—the Decennial Commencement of that splendid institution, the State Normal and Industrial College.

North Carolina is in the list.

Large numbers of seventeen year locusts have made their appearance in Washington, and reports of similar visitation have reached the Department of Agriculture from Alabama, Pa., and Nashville, Tenn. The Dept sent out 5,000 postal cards throughout the country asking for immediate reports on the first appearance of the locusts. The department has a full record of their appearance in 1883, and its experts know where to look for them this week.

According to the charts, Maryland and Indiana, with the adjoining counties of their neighbor States, are to be most effected by the pest. The department entomologists say that young nursery trees and young shoots of mature trees are all that will sustain injury from the visitation of the locusts, and that there is no cause for alarm over their appearance. It is anticipated that the locust will be reported from other portions of Pennsylvania and Tennessee, and from New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and possibly a few other localities.

EASTERN REFLECTOR

GREENVILLE, N. C. D. J. WHICHARD, Ed. & Owner Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

FRIDAY, MAY 30, 1902.

The Charleston Exposition will close Saturday, May 31st. Financially it has not been a success, but it has been of great benefit to Charleston and the South.

As fast as county conventions are held throughout the State, the strength of Judge Clark for the nomination for Chief Justice is shown. Most of the counties that have met so far have endorsed him. Anson, Craven and Lenoir counties held conventions Saturday, and each endorsed resolutions to that effect.

The General Conference of the M. E. church, South, in session at Dallas, Texas, has created the order of Deaconesses. Only widows and single women are eligible to the order. The conference also placed churches under the ban, declaring it an amusement that members of the church should not attend. The work of the conference was expected to be completed in time for final adjournment Monday night.

A bill will probably soon pass both houses of Congress appropriating $300,000 for the construction of a light house off the Cape Hatteras. Should it pass and the light house be erected, it will be a godsend to mariners. This is the most dangerous coast on the stretch of Atlantic seaboard, and has been the scene of more wrecks than any other portion of the whole American coast line. The light house will be not less than 200 feet high, and will throw a light thirty miles out at sea.

Last week in Iredell county Superior court, at Statesville, two white men were convicted of stealing chickens and sentenced to six months each on the county roads. In passing judgment upon them Judge Shaw said that stealing chickens had heretofore been the peculiar province of the colored race, and they might perhaps consider this an infringement on their rights. We do not remember ever before to have heard of a white man being convicted of this crime.

Again comes the announcement that the war is ended and peace in South Africa assured. It has been evident that both the Britains and Boers would welcome a cessation of hostilities, but how to bring about a declaration of peace has been the difficult problem. Even now this last assertion that the war is ended may be only a report to be followed by renewed activities in battle. May we hope that entire peace is indeed near at hand, that the sword may be sheathed, the cannon hushed, the rattle of musketry silenced, and progress and prosperity once more take up the onward march.

Registration. The registration books in the several wards will be open on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Only those voters will have to register who have become citizens of the town since last election, those who have become of age since last election, and those who have changed residence from one ward to another. All coming under either of these classes must register if they expect to vote. See which ward you live in and attend to this.

Fair but false—store teeth.
