

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR. GREENVILLE, N. C.

D. I. WHIGHARD, EDITOR AND OWNER. Entered at the postoffice at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter. TUESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1902.

A sad death occurred in the Southern depot at Greensboro, Thursday afternoon. Miss Augusta Southern, of Avalon, aged 18, was taken from the train sick, and died in ten minutes after reaching the ladies' reception room. In company with a sister she had left home only a few hours before to go to a health resort.

Dead. Mr. Randall Whitchard died Wednesday at his home near Parale, in Martin county. He was the oldest man in his section, being nearly 80 years old.

Judicial Convention. The Judicial Convention for the first District was held in Plymouth Wednesday during a recess of the Congressional Convention. The present incumbent, Geo. W. Ward, was nominated solicitor by acclamation.

Rattle Snake. Mr. Luke Smallwood was the center of attraction late Friday afternoon, as he went along the street dragging a big rattle snake behind him. He says the reptile was killed out in the woods.

Remembered Us. Today Mr. E. A. Raldrice, of Winterville, brought us a pair of brown Leghorn chickens raised by himself. Besides being a good painter by trade, he is something of a fancier and likes to raise poultry. He is a deaf mute but one of the most industrious men we know, and a warm friend of THE REFLECTOR.

Hospital Incorporation. The Secretary of State has incorporated the Pitt County Hospital, to be located at Greenville. The incorporators are Doctors E. A. Moore, C. O'H. Laughinghouse, W. H. Bagwell, J. E. Nones, Zeno Brown, and Messrs T. J. Jarvis, B. R. Cotton, R. J. Cobb, J. L. Little, W. B. Wilson, R. W. King, W. H. Harrington, C. T. Sumford, J. B. Cherry and Harry Skinner. Now everybody get to work for the hospital.

Fought the Chief. Friday afternoon Chief of Police J. T. Smith had somewhat of an exciting time with two white men on the street. He had arrested one of the men and was leading him with nippers to the lock up. As they were going along the other man ran up and made a fight of the officer, and when the grip was loosened on the first man he began fighting the officer also. Capt. Smith had to use his bludge and a few blows had our man down at the other bay. And next they knew the officer had two men arrested, both of them bleeding freely.

The Greenville Warehouse. Of course the readers cannot fail to notice the full page advertisement in this issue of THE REFLECTOR. The Greenville Warehouse is the pioneer of the market, being the first built in Greenville, and from the start it made the market and town have both had a wonderful growth. Mr. G. F. Evans was its first proprietor, and though the management changed several times as other houses were added to the market in succeeding years, the Greenville has always held its own and been a strong factor in the market.

Now "Uncle Gus" is back to his first love and is senior member of the splendid firm in charge of the Greenville Warehouse. One of his associates is Mr. D. S. Spain, a young man long identified with the market and a hard worker for the interest of the farmers. Mr. R. S. Evans, the other member of the firm, is a hustler from start to finish and has had valuable experience as a warehouseman.

This is a strong team at the Greenville Warehouse, and they have with them a corps of excellent assistants. Your interest will be well cared for when you carry your tobacco to the Greenville Warehouse. Read the advertisement and heed what it tells you.

THE MARKET OPENS.

Quarter Million Pounds of Tobacco.

The Greenville tobacco market began the new season today with tremendous break, and no special effort had been put forth to make the opening sale a very large one. But the tobacco came anyway from every quarter, and both warehousemen and buyers had a busy time of it. There were fully 250,000 pounds altogether at the six warehouses.

The first sale was at the Farmers warehouse with something like 35,000 pounds. The price started off well and kept up to the finish.

The second sale was at the Planters which rounded up with about 25,000 pounds.

The third sale was at the Farmers Warehouse with about the same quantity, 25,000 pounds.

The fourth sale was at the Planters which rounded up with about 25,000 pounds.

The fifth sale was at the Liberty which rounded up with about 25,000 pounds.

The sixth sale was at the Farmers Warehouse with about the same quantity, 25,000 pounds.

The seventh sale was at the Planters which rounded up with about 25,000 pounds.

The eighth sale was at the Liberty which rounded up with about 25,000 pounds.

The ninth sale was at the Farmers Warehouse with about the same quantity, 25,000 pounds.

Coughing. It was given up to die with quick consumption. It then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It improved at once, and now has perfect health. - Mrs. C. S. Smith, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough. The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

The Farmers Warehouse. The full page advertisement of the Farmers Warehouse in this issue will attract the attention of every reader and direct each to facts worthy of consideration.

Planters. The general opinion among the warehousemen and buyers is that the market opened well, and the satisfaction over prices among the farmers show that they are of the same opinion.

Planters. The Farmers Warehouse has an excellent corps of helpers, every man fitted for his place, and the farmers can look for only the best of treatment when they go there.

Planters. The Farmers Warehouse is the pioneer of the market, being the first built in Greenville, and from the start it made the market and town have both had a wonderful growth.

Being unable to obtain permanent relief, I resolved to try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Before I had taken one bottle I knew I had found what I had long looked for. After a few bottles I was cured of soreness in my left side that I had not been free from for ten years. I am letter to-day than for years. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure has given me a new lease of life. If any suffering person will use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I believe, if it is a diseased stomach from which they suffer, that they will receive permanent relief. Winterville Department. WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 2. A bright, blue-eyed, golden haired, rosy checked boy of four summers was in our office yesterday. He was a very little picture. # W OPEN THE BALL

At the end of last year it was shown by facts and figures that the

led the whole market by over a quarter of a cent a pound for the entire season.

This year the Sales Committee selected the

FARMERS

to open the new season with the first sale, and our prices on that day have already told their tale.

We take this occasion to thank our many friends who in the past have given us their patronage. To every one, rich and poor, without distinction, we are profoundly grateful, and to our past record we point with pride and the consciousness of having done our best.

We Don't Propose to be Behind

We shall spare no effort this year to take the best care of our customers. In backing this assertion we have the best facilities of every kind. Mr. Joyner this year will look exclusively after the sales.

We have secured the services of Mr. W. H. Jenkins, that veteran warehouseman of the Henderson market, whose genial smile and cordial hand shake is pleasantly remembered by many of our farmer friends. For twenty years he has been connected with the warehouse business of Henderson and thoroughly understands it from start to finish. He will assist, and as auctioneer will see that no pile goes until it has reached the top notch.

Mr. W. H. Dail will have charge of the office and see that you get your check as soon as your tobacco is sold.

We have a competent man for every place and if you will bring us your tobacco we will guarantee you fair treatment, honest weights and the cream of prices at all times. Thanking you for past favors and hoping to be remembered by you again, we are

SALISBURY'S RETREAT

WHEN Lord Salisbury laid down the reins of government the other day and retired from public life, he had not far to go to find the rest and seclusion for which he gave up the premier'ship of Great Britain. Twenty miles out of London, standing in the center of a great estate, is Hatfield House. It is the home to which the studly old statesman has retired, and it is one of the best in all England.

Although past the allotted three-score and ten, Lord Salisbury is in good health and will still enjoy many years of life in the quiet of his country home. He is a large landholder, owning about 20,000 acres and several fine country residences, among them Walmer castle at Deal, but Hatfield House, Hertfordshire, where he was born, will be the home of his declining years.

Hatfield House has been for centuries one of the notable homes of England. It became a place of interest more than 700 years ago, and since that time "the town, the miter and the coronet" the armorial bearings of the house of Capel, have held sway over its destinies.

The present structure was reared in the days of James I., but parts of the building antedate that period. Notable among these old parts of Hatfield is the "palace," which was the home of the Princess Elizabeth in the reign of her sister, Queen Mary.

The estate belonged to the Saxon kings until it was given by King Edgar to the monastery of St. Etheldreda at Ely. The manor house became the residence of the footsore and was occasionally used as a royal residence until the reign of Henry VIII., when it was deeded to the crown. Prince Edward, afterward Edward VI., lived at the palace, and it is said that he was there when the news of his father's death reached him, and that his accession to the crown took place at the study hall. A few years after he became king the young monarch conveyed Hatfield to his sister, the Princess Elizabeth, afterward Queen

WORK ON THE CANAL

TREATY WITH COLOMBIA FOR RIGHT OF WAY NEARLY READY.

United States Will Have Complete Control of Six Mile Zone—Compensation For Colombia—Provisions of the Treaty.

President Roosevelt seems to have wasted no time in starting negotiations to carry out the terms of the Isthmian canal law, with the result that the treaty is practically completed. The Colombian congress will probably meet in October to ratify the treaty.

Attorney General Knox assigned Assistant District Attorney General Russell to clear up the legal features of the transfer. The exact status of the new and the old canal companies must be ascertained, and Mr. Russell has authority to visit Paris in making his researches.

Secretary Hay and Minister Concha of Colombia have been negotiating the necessary treaty between this country and the Central American state.

It is the expectation that the treaty now in process of negotiation with Colombia will be one of the most comprehensive and important international documents ever issued from the state department. Every possible contingency that may arise in the future will be guarded against so far as that is possible and especially with regard to the rights and interests of the United States.

The protocol signed last winter governed Secretary Hay and Minister Concha to a large extent in the drafting of a treaty. The amount to be paid Colombia for her relinquishment of exclusive rights to the United States will be $7,000,000 in gold, payable on the exchange of ratification of the treaty.

In addition Colombia is to receive an annuity at the end of fourteen years, to be determined by mutual agreement at that time. This annuity is expected to be $900,000 a year, as the immediate payment of $7,000,000 covering the period of the next fourteen years is considered a basis for placing the annual rental at $64,285.

The territory through which the canal will pass and which will be ceded in perpetuity to the United States will be absolutely under the control of this government, although to avoid possibility of local trouble it is likely that there will be no specific expression of conveyance of "sovereignty."

The treaty, in all probability, will not only authorize the Panama company to convey to the United States all its holdings on the Isthmus, including the railroad, but will contain a positive provision insuring exclusive privileges to the United States of construction and operating an Isthmian canal. The United States will also be given the right to protect the canal, which right will enable it to erect fortifications and, of course, to suppress the defensive works with American soldiers. The right to protect the property will give the United States the right to defend it even against troops of Colombia in the event of a revolution in that country.

Sanitary and police regulations will be enforced by a joint commission appointed by both governments. The United States will be asked to construct and maintain at each terminus of the canal a port for vessels, with lighthouses and other aids to navigation, breakwaters, dikes, jetties, cooling stations, docks and other appropriate works, all the expense therefor to be borne by this country.

In addition to this the United States is to maintain drainage and sanitary works and construct hospitals along the canal, while aqueduct and drainage works are to be erected in Panama and Colon. The cost of providing this water supply, however, is not to fall upon the United States without compensation, inasmuch as water rents are allowed to be collected by the United States, provided they meet the approval of Colombia.

In transferring the rights of Colombia to the United States there will be a transfer of such jurisdiction over the six mile zone as will permit the exercise of complete American authority.

is being assisted by Rear Admiral Walker, chairman of the Isthmian canal commission, and by ex-Senator Drexler, also a member of the commission.

Silent Critics.
Beryl—A good deal is thought of her singing.
Silly—It's merciful they don't put their thoughts into words.—Baltimore Herald.

The Bedroom Candle.
A woman who has a country cottage says that whether one has gas, gasoline, lamps or electricity in one's house it is always well to have a candle in each room. When a big storm comes, either the electric light wires and poles will be blown down, connections or machinery stopped, power house flooded, or in some way the gas or electric light is cut off.

For some purposes, such as carrying from one room to another and keeping in a bedroom to make a quick light in case of sudden emergency, candles are safe, clean, convenient and cheap. Any one who once adapts the custom of keeping a candlestick in each bedroom will never abandon it. Have low, plain candlesticks, they to keep clean, not easily broken and with a saucer shaped base, broad enough to catch all the drips and impossible to upset, and you will be glad a dozen times a year that you have them, and if you never allow a lamp carried from one room to another you will be less apt to collect your insurance.

For Baby's Comfort.
When there is a baby in the house, his comfort during the warm weather should be considered before anything else and every effort made to keep him healthy and cool. His meals should be given regularly and his diet confined to the simple articles of food that you have found to agree with him. Even then he is apt to have an attack of summer complaint, and it is well to have a remedy at hand, especially if you have some distance from a doctor. The following remedy has been used for years and has proved very effective. It is composed of equal parts of camphor, peppermint, nutmeg and rhubarb. When they are well shaken, put one drop in a teaspoonful of water and give a dose every hour or two until relieved. A tea made of wintergreen or peppermint is good for the colic.

Longest Ball Game.
There has been much discussion among the baseball aficionados about the record for extra innings. The longest game recorded was played on May 11, 1877, at Boston between the Manchester (N. H.) professional team and Harvard college, resulting in no score after twenty-four innings. The second longest game was twenty-two innings, between Tacoma and Seattle, played at Tacoma on May 10, 1891, and resulted 6 to 5 in favor of Tacoma.

An Insult Guide.
A German has just compiled a handy little book of insults. The work contains 2,500 invectives, which are classed under the headings of insults for men, insults for women, insults for either sex, insults for children and collective insults for syndicates, groups and corporations.

In the Sickroom.
Absolute cleanliness and tidiness are necessary in a sickroom. The furniture should be simple and capable of being easily cleaned. Avoid all kinds of woolen draperies and let the curtains be of white washable material. If possible, all medicines and the attendant paraphernalia should be kept out of sight of the patient in an adjoining room. Glasses, spoons, etc., should be washed as soon as used and placed ready for the time when they will again be needed.

International Tennis.
The committee of the United States National Lawn Tennis association having charge of the international lawn tennis competitions for the Dwight F. Davis International Challenge cup announce that they will be played Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Aug. 6, 7 and 8, on the courts of the Crescent Athletic club of Brooklyn at 11th Ridge, N. Y.

$60 PRIZE

For Some Reflector Subscriber.

THE REFLECTOR has purchased a No. 9, ball bearing, rotary motion, drop head Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, the retail price of which is $60, and is going to make a present of this splendid machine to a subscriber of the paper.

The plan of giving away this valuable prize is as follows:

We have printed 1,000 tickets, numbered consecutively, and beginning the 1st day of August every person who pays $1 on subscription either to THE DAILY REFLECTOR or THE EASTERN REFLECTOR will be given one of these tickets. Those who pay $1 get one ticket, $2 two tickets, and so on. It matters not whether you are an old subscriber paying up back dues or a new subscriber paying in advance, every dollar paid counts the same and gets a ticket. One blank ticket has been sent to a person outside of the State to be numbered, the number to be known to no one but himself. This ticket after being numbered is sealed in two envelopes, these two enclosed in another envelope and mailed to Mr. J. L. Little, Cashier of the Bank of Greenville, to be kept in the bank by him until all the 1000 tickets are out, when the one at the bank will be opened and the number announced, and the person holding the ticket with the same number will be given the machine.

If you are already a subscriber to THE REFLECTOR now is a good time to pay up all arrears and some in advance, getting a ticket for every dollar paid. The more tickets you get the larger number of chances you have at the machine. If you do not take THE REFLECTOR now is the best time to subscribe, get the campaign, home and general news, and at the same time have a chance to get this fine sewing machine. The sooner the tickets are out the sooner somebody will get the machine. Tell your neighbor about this and get him interested.

Everybody knowing anything about sewing machines knows that the Wheeler & Wilson is the best. If you want to see it and have its good qualities shown you go to Sam White's store any time after Aug. 15th and he will take pleasure in showing you how it works, and telling you that THE REFLECTOR is going to give some subscriber a valuable prize in this Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine.

Open the Door of Your Heart.
Open the door of your heart, my lady,
To the angels of love and truth
Whom the world is full of unnumbered joys
In the beautiful dawn of youth,
Casting aside all the things that mar,
Saying to wrong, Depart!
To the voices of hope that are calling you
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my lady,
To the things that shall abide,
To the holy thoughts that lift your soul,
Like the stars at eventide,
All of the faithful flowers that bloom
In the realm of song and art
Are yours if you'll only give them room
Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my friend,
Heedless of class or creed,
When you hear the cry of a brother's voice,
The sob of a child in need,
To the shining heaven that o'er you shines
You need no map or chart,
But only the love the Master gave,
Open the door of your heart.

Democratic Convention.
 A convention of the Democratic party of Pitt County is hereby called to meet in the Court House in Greenville on Thursday, August 28th, 1902 at 11 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and the several county offices.

Township primaries will be held at the usual meeting places in the townships Saturday, August 23rd, 1902, at 3 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates and alternates to said county convention, the nomination of candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constables and also to elect a Township Executive Committee. The number of delegates and alternates that this will be the course pursued by the officials. It is good news. In view of the dictum some persons thought or feared there would be a hitch in the running of the machinery, but that was not so. Some had suggested that a way out of the difficulty was to have a constitutional amendment dividing the taxes so that white taxes go to white schools and they allow whites to vote, if they so desired, money to the negro schools to aid the other, as the taxes the negroes pay would of course be a drop in the bucket. This plan, however, will not work and would not stand the test of the court. Another suggestion was made that the 15c school tax made that the 15c school tax and that each race be allowed to supplement it by vote in its particular district or county. But the construction which will be given by the school officials will make either of these things unnecessary of consideration.

Reflection of a Bachelor.
 It takes an awful lot of faith to believe that a woman is built like her clothes make her seem to be. The further a woman can go and yet make herself believe she is not over the line, the surer she is that there is no harm in it. A woman has such a natural gift for hunting trouble that when she thinks she hears a burglar's footsteps she can begin worrying for fear there might also be one in her mother's house, too.
