It Needs a Tonic.

There are times when your liver needs a tonic. Don't give your liver a tonic that grips and weakens. Dr. Williams' Little Early Bitters is just the tonic for the liver. W. DAUGHTER OF RICH PARENTS

In a lonely house on Long Island near the summer home of the President of the United States, three died one day this week a woman who formerly moved in good society in New York and Brooklyn and who at the time of her death had wealthy relatives living in these cities. This woman lived and died all alone. No one knew anything about her or who her family were. She died of starvation and the effects of excessive drinking. Her neighbors say the house regularly by some one in the city of New York, but by whom no one knew. Her money, though, all went for liquor. The story goes that she had become such a habitual drunkard that her family put her in this house all alone and there kept her, supplying her with money enough to complete her run and bring an end to her miserable life as quickly as the vicious, degrading habit could do its work.

What a blot upon the Christian civilization of the American people of this enlightened twentieth century.

Neighbors hearing no signs of life about the place for several days forced an entrance in the house and a most appalling sight met their gaze. On a mattress in one corner of the room lay the woman. She was alive, but delirious from the effect of starvation and heavy drinking. In the house with her were five dogs living, but in emaciated condition, and two that had evidently died of starvation. Two dead chickens were found near the bed on which the woman lay and several live ones in other parts of the house—Wilmington Messenger.

Democratic Convention.

A convention of the Democratic party of Pitt county is hereby called to meet in the Court House in Greenville on Thursday, August 28th, 1902 at 11 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Legislature and the several county officers.

Township primaries will be held at the usual meeting places in the county on Saturday, August 23rd, 1902, at 3 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Legislature and the several county officers.

There has been organized in this State an association known as the Anti-Saloon League, having for its motto, "The Licensed Saloon Must Go." They are vigorously but quietly pushing their work, effecting local organizations in every county in the State and keeping their doings from public view.

To meet this issue and make a successful campaign against this organization which seeks the ruin of the retail liquor business, we must be prepared to enter the field and wage a vigorous opposition against this enemy.

Resolved, That the following be made a By-Law of this Association. (Here follow resolutions assenting Retail Liquor Dealers $5.00, Beer and Soda Dealers $5.00, Wholesale Liquor Dealers and Brewers annually $50.00, and non-resident citizens $75.00 annually; also a recommendation that members of the Association in ordering goods give the preference to those non-resident firms which pay their dues.)

The membership of this Association is promptly responding to this matter, and we trust we are in the result, you will forward your check for $5.00 at once, as we must put ourselves in position to meet the vital issue before nominations are made for the Legislature, and continue our vigilance until it shall meet and adjourn.

Now, if any man can read the above and not be impressed that it is his solemn duty to vote the legislative for whom he knows, we are greatly at sea. To pack the coming Legislature in favor of the Saloon, and then to remain in its lobby until all favorable legislation is secured, is the purpose of the North Carolina Liquor Dealers' Association. Christian voters of North Carolina, we look to you to do your duty in the present situation.—Raleigh Christian Advocate.

To the White People of Pitt County.

The people of Pitt County know your position in public matters, and their interests, but in view of the fact that many of my friends have expressed a feeling that I am a candidate for the Legislature—that they would like to see me in the Legislature, I make the following statement. I favor

The distribution of school money according to taxes paid by the rates.

Just taxation and economy, instead of newspapers to tremble when it was necessary to write the word "politics," and thousands of good church members have been afraid to carry their religion into politics, and vote for men and principles rather than parties.

Now is the time when it behooves every Christian voter in North Carolina to disregard the scattershot and march boldly into the very centre of the field of truth. It is extremely important that every Christian voter should know the man for whom he votes and know him as a lover of honor and truth and of the best interests of his fellow man.

A constitutional convention, if remedies could be had otherwise, is now if the people of Pitt County see fit to nominate and elect me, I will serve them as best I can, in the Lower House of our Legislature. HENRY T. KING.

Perhaps no branch of industry offers more to young men now than architecture. The young man who sets about acquiring an education which looks to a special preparation for a master in high class architecture can promise himself as much as if he should enter what have heretofore been called the learned professions. But young men who think of turning to such practical things often make the mistake of concluding that they do not need a thorough and finished education for such work. No matter what a young man proposes to do he needs an education. One does not know at what time or place an education will bear him out better than anything else.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The Palm of the Future.

Man that is born of woman is of but a few days and full of trouble, for the first days of his mother. In the day of infancy in the moving of life, he rooketh his tired body to sleep in a trust made cradle. His nourishment is trust for the trust at starvation wages. In the evening he is sick of a fever. He is attended by a trust physician who takes trust medicine, and dies only to be buried in a trust made coffin. Behold, he is altogether wretched!

Judge Chas. N. Hill in his announcement of his candidacy for the office of Chief Justice of North Carolina says at the solicitation of many friends I hereby announce myself a Democratic candidate for chief justice of the Supreme court, subject to the action of any State Convention composed of Democrats that may be held to nominate a candidate in opposition to Judge Clark.

A Democratic candidate, subject to the action of any State Convention composed of Democrats, to nominate a candidate in opposition to Judge Clark. What does Judge Hill mean? Has he forgotten that the State Democratic Convention met in Greensboro on July 16—and there nominated Judge Clark as its candidate for Chief Justice?

Has he conceived the idea that it is the policy of the Democratic party to nominate a candidate, and then call another convention to nominate a candidate to oppose the candidate already nominated, would it not be suicidal for the Democratic party to adopt such a method? Surely Chairman Simmons will not advise such a course. It is the policy of this party to stand by the candidates of the Democratic party and it proposes to do so now, but if the party anticipates calling another convention and placing another candidate in the field which candidate this paper is to stand by is the problem. It may be that Judge Hill has been sleeping—or that he has not kept up with the political course of the State and is still laboring under the impression that the State Convention has not yet met and that the fight against the nomination of Judge Clark is still on.

Wednesday evening, Aug. 6th, at eight o'clock, Mr. Bert Smith and Miss Mamie Lang were happily married at the home of the bride, which was very tastefully decorated for the occasion. After the wedding march, which was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Lillie Horton, came Mr. Frank Davis as best man with Miss Agnes Moore, maid of honor, who was dressed in pure white organza and carried pink carnations. Next came John S. Smith, of Tarboro, and Miss Lucy Bryant, of Salisbury; J. B. Johnson and Miss Lillie Smith, both of Greenville; Miss Mary Lewis and J. S. Smith, both of Farmville; David Lang, of Farmville; Roland Lang, of Farmville; and Miss Verneesa Smith, of Greenville. Then came the bride who was beautifully attired in white, bearing an carrying brides pose, beaming on the arm of the groom. They were met by Rev. D. H. Arnold who solemnly and impressively made them man and wife.

Well, it is about time for our imperialistic citizenship to begin diking out for another royal show. It is rumored that the crown Prince of Siam is preparing to make a visit, accompanied by his brother, Prince Chakrathoung and Col. Fhya Trajavalahin, his first aide de camp, and Capt. Eonang Saranidhin, his second. While lying in stores for this occasion, we would suggest some good work on pronunciation as a part of the outfit.

And now some fellow has found out that spirits of turpentine applied freely is better than corn Whiskey for snake bite.

But my; won't be here a time, making some folks believe it.

A man in Georgia, who started out to take a ten year nap, and was waked up at the end of five days, got so mad that he took a gun and blew his brains out. It didn't make a very big charge of powder.—Wilmington Star.

MR. SHEROD SMITH DEAD. On the 16th of July, as the dark shades of night were expanding to a bright and beautiful day, death entered the home of Mr. Ivy Smith and took Sherod, our beloved brother, from among his happy family circle. Sherod had spent the two years previous to this in clerking for Messrs. J. H. Flanigan and C. D. Smith, and this year he was intending to spend at school in C. C. College in Ayden. At the expiration of the spring term he came to his brother Ivy's with the expectation of working with him during vacation. He had not been there but a short while when he was severely taken with the dread disease, typhoid, and lived about three weeks. Notwithstanding the attention of skilled physicals, a trained nurse and kind mother and friends he suffered intensely and death was inevitable. Sherod was one of the best boys we ever knew, ever trying to do his duty. He never drank, or had bad habits, or used profane language in any degree, and would often ask his mamma what was best for him to do for he wanted to right. Oh, wasn't it heart breaking to see him suffer, one who was so kind and obedient and esteemed by all who knew him, but, Oh! he was too good for this unfriendly world and God in his infinite love and mercy has taken him to a better world above. He had covered with mamma a good many times about religion, and had two conversations during his sickness and tears in his eyes expressed himself very freely. It is hard to give him up. Just twenty two years old, still blooming into manhood, and still we do not weep as those who have no hope. Help us to be rejoiced to thy will O' God, "for nothing in my hand I bring, but simply to thy cross I cling."

Professor Slied, of Emory college, has an article in The Atlantic Monthly on the negro question, which has brought him into sudden notoriety of a kind naturally to follow a bitter arraignment of the people of the south by a southern man for his manner of handling and trying to solve a problem that has puzzled the minds of the greatest thinkers of both sections of the country.

There is nothing too harsh for this professor to say against his own people for their treatment of the negro. Professor Slied charges that he negro at the south is "dehumanized and treated lower than a brute." He declares that the average white man of the south would sooner kill a negro than a forty dollar mule; that "if the negro is thought of at all in a general way it is with the most abhorrent feeling and contempt." Another serious cause of complaint by him is that when negroes travel, "that the depot they may not enter the room for the whites and on the train they must occupy their own separate cars. Roughly they are treated as they are at the restaurant of the whites or rest on the whistles' feet."

Professor Slied's article can be divided under two heads—one is the misstatement of facts and the other is asking more for the negro along the line of social equality than the negro asks for himself. Every one knows that his charges as to brutal treatment are false. The leaders of the negroes of the south have refuted them time and time again. As to his plea for social equality—no matter how much Professor Slied may desire to associate with the negroes on terms of perfect social equality, he will find that the negroes do not want to be on these terms with him. On these two subjects this professor should read the speech of Booker Washington, President Dudley and other colored men of their character and standing.

America is not sufficiently civilized for Professor Slied. We advise him to move to Haiti or San Domingo, or perhaps the inhabitants of these islands may be rather too exclusive for him in their distinctions of even shades of color. So to find his true level he may perhaps have to travel as far as the wilds of the upper Congo.—Wilmington Messenger.

Wilcox Said to be Giving Way. Norfolk, Va., Aug. 11.—Condemned to die for the murder of Nellie Crossby, at Elizabeth City, N. Fresh Gossip From Near-by Vicinities. Gathered by Our Correspondents and Reported in REFLECTOR Readers.

Winterville Department. NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES. WINTERVILLE, N. C., Aug. 13. Again we urge upon our friends who feel an interest in the town and surrounding community to bring us the news. We want the outside world to know we are in the land of the living and that we are no sluggards. We want them to know we are wide-awake and abreast with the times and that we are a live, energetic go-ahead people. That there is cash here and room for more, in fact that we can offer as many inducements for capital as the next place going. So bring us the news and friends we will get there with every leg up and don't you forget it.

The result of Dan Cooper's tumble from his bike Sunday is a skinned chin, a bruised lip and a black eye. His appearance seems to be the result of a cyclone. Cards will not be sent out to the Hunsucker Cox marriage to friends in town and vicinity, but all are cordially invited to be present at the church to witness the ceremony. Mrs. Bennett Speight, who has been at the hospital in Baltimore for sometime, we are pleased to learn returned last week very much benefited by the treatment she received. Mrs. F. O. Cox and Master Bruce come home Saturday from a visit to Kingston. Miss Lydia Roberson, of Robersonville, who has been visiting the Misses Chapman since Friday returned home Monday morning. Misses Lula and Lela Stocks, of Ayden, have been on a visit to little Miss Annie Nelson since Saturday.

G. W. Evans, J. L. Hamilton and Jeremiah Nichols were to depart Saturday and returned Monday morning. Persons wishing first class laundry will bring it or send it to C. A. Fair by Monday evening the 18th inst. Mr. Fair patronizes the Wilmington Laundry, one of the best in the State. Our young friend Charlie Baker, of Shelderville, was here visiting Sunday. Charlie was one of our special friends during the last session of Winterville High School and we are pleased to learn he will attend next session. It is seldom "Old Contentment" the Banner Democratic township of the county asks favors from her party, but at the next convention she will ask the endorsement of L. L. Kittrell as a suitable candidate for the General Assembly. Mr. Kittrell is a farmer of good sense, sound judgment, keen perception and knows the needs of the farmer and mechanic. He has the manhood to express his convictions and as we take it is well capacitated to discharge the onerous duties of a legislator. Farmers of Pitt and Surrounding Counties. Let me have your attention a moment. I have purchased the Planters Warehouse and will have charge of it this season. I have been identified with the Greenville Tobacco market almost from its start, and am familiar with every detail of the Tobacco business. It is my purpose in conducting the PLANTERS WAREHOUSE to run it in the interest of those who sell their tobacco on my floor, knowing that the more I help the farmer the more I help myself.

No effort will be spared to make every pile sold at the PLANTERS bring the highest price. Knowing the value of Tobacco, having ample capital to carry on the business assisted by the best helpers that can be procured, I can make it to your interest to sell at the PLANTERS. Plenty of room to take care of your team, and all the farmers who come to stay over night will find ample accommodations. Bring me your tobacco if you want best prices.

A GRADUATE WIFE. My mother wished me to marry, and my wife to be a highly educated woman. If I married a girl I should have a woman for the home alone—my mother said Mrs. Desjardins plotted for me to marry one of the latter's twin daughters, a college graduate.

OLDEST AND BEST

First in the Market and First in the Interest of the Farmer.

The GREENVILLE WAREHOUSE,

The Pioneer of the Market, is right with you this season, and in better shape than ever to take care of the farmer and get the highest prices for his Tobacco. It is conceded that we have the BEST LIGHTS OF ANY HOUSE ON THE MARKET, and nothing in the way of hard work in the interest of those selling with us will be left undone.

Past records prove what we can do for you. G. F. Evans---Old Man Gus---is back to his first love. He was the first proprietor of the Greenville Warehouse, and after trying others has learned none is so good as this, and he is here again to make high prices talk at the old Greenville.

R. S. Evans and D. S. Spain, the other members of the firm, are right at home on the floor of the Greenville, having been connected with it for several years. The farmers know them and know how hard they WORK FOR HIGH PRICES.

The new season is on us and we are ready for business. If you want the best prices to be had every time bring your Tobacco to the "Old Reliable."

The Greenville Warehouse,
G. F. Evans & Co., Proprietors.

COOL CLOTHES

Would your suit look any cooler if you saved a few dollars on it? If so, look at the suits we are selling for $5.00, $6.00 and $8.00.

In weather like this you want everything to count for coolness, and hence the fit is an important part. You can't very well keep cool when you're raving mad at that bad-fitting coat that pulls down on your favorite shoulder bone.

Flannel coats and trousers, Oxford mixed flannel, just the thing for men who want to be in fashion, but not way in it. If you buy here, we take the risk. "Money back if you want it."

Married.

On Wednesday 6 inst., in the Methodist church at Coronado Mr. C. F. Harris, of Falkland Pitt county, N. C., and Miss Mattie Lee Fouché, of South Carolina, were married by the Rev. Mr. Stokes. The bride and groom reached Greenville Saturday enroute to their home at Falkland. Mr. Harris is a son of Mr. John S. Harris a prominent farmer of Falkland township and is one of our best young men.

Delightful Sermon.

Rev. J. B. Ficklen, of Rome, Ga., preached a most delightful sermon in the Presbyterian church here Sunday morning. His text was "All things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose." If any one present failed to be comforted by the beautiful analysis of this grand text, the fault was in the hearing and not in the preaching. Miss Bertie Bunn, of Henderson, sang a solo during the offertory at the service.

Flower Guessing Contest.

A most enjoyable at home was given Tuesday night by Miss Ethel Cheek, complimentary to a number of her friends.

White Man and Negro Hang on Same Tree.

Lexington, Mo., Aug. 12.—A quiet crowd of 150 Lafayette county farmers took Charles Salyers (white) and Harry Gates (colored) from the county jail here this morning and hanged them.

The men were the confessed murderers of George Johnson, a popular farmer, who was shot dead while pursuing Salyers and Gates after they had attempted a raid on his chicken coop.

The farmers rode and drove into Lexington last night and about 12:30 a. m., made their way to the jail. The prosecuting attorney of the county and several guards were in the building but they saw that resistance to the lynching party would be futile and offered none.

Members of the party were equipped with crowbars, files and axes and work was quietly and quickly started at the opening of the cells. Salyers and Gates occupied separate compartments and nearly half an hour elapsed before both men were secured.

With the trembling prisoners safely in their possession the crowd started for the cemetery, three miles from the centre of the town. Beneath a low tree the leaders halted and the crowd formed a circle, with the prisoners in the middle. The stillness was hardly broken until the prisoners were asked if they wanted to make any statement. Salyers, the white man, did not evince one half as much courage as did Gates, the negro. He said Gates had done the actual shooting and that he was to blame. Salyers pleaded for his life but his words were cut short and Gates was told to speak.

He admitted being present with Salyers on the chicken raid in which farmer Johnson was killed. He said he did not know which of them fired the fatal shot and that neither had intended murder.

"We both confessed to the prosecuting attorney," he said, "and he said we were equally guilty and would have to hang. I guess my time has come."

Ropes placed around the culprits' necks, were drawn tight and the two were hanged simultaneously to the same tree. The crowd then dispersed. At daybreak this morning the bodies were cut down and brought from the cemetery to an undertaking shop here. This morning a coroner's jury was empaneled. There is no doubt that its verdict will be that the prisoners came to their deaths at the hands of unknown parties.

In Lexington there is no popular demand for the prosecution of the lynchers.
