The Chinese Boxers have gone into training again.

So far Wilcox has succeeded in his efforts not to escape.

Isn't it about time that dog stopped warming tobacco?

Wilmington has a jealous eye on the tobacco market. Look out for a new one next season.

Speaker Henderson's attitude is that of a man who has positively decided not to change his mind.

It is reported that many Kansas farmers will burn corn this winter. The coal stove seems likely to take a back seat.

A fire at Wilmington Wednesday morning destroyed 200 bales of cotton. That shortens the crop correspondingly.

Peary's report will be a great relief to those gentlemen who spend most of their time cherishing arctic aspirations.

A Kingston man who claims to have cut his third set of teeth, would seem to be in a position to father a remedy for bald-headed guns.

The Washington Gazette-Messenger says Beaufort county has more inmates in the insane asylum than any other county in the State.

Senator Beveridge says the cause of trusts "is to be found in the complex conditions of modern life." Now you see what "darkened the hole."

There will be another double size issue of THE DAILY REFLECTOR Saturday. Copy for advertisements to be inserted in it should be handed in Friday.

With the weather already approaching the overcast point and the coal strike yet unsettled, some folks are beginning to wonder how they are going to keep warm the coming winter.

A New York broker was arrested in San Francisco for "making eyes" at passing girls. Right, them who will disgrace his play-slogony with a "goo goo" de serves trouble.

The death of Nicholas Fish, a New York millionaire, as the result of a saloon row, promises to keep the guessers busy for a while. About three women are supposed to be at the bottom of it.

Somebody in Lexington is advertising "a fresh milch cow for sale." If any subscriber has de-spaired of getting a sour milch cow, or a butter milch cow, he might compromise on this one.

We take pleasure in reassuring the dear old soul who may still entertain apprehensions for the safety of the North Pole. The authorities will assign Lieut. Peary to duty in the United States.

The esteemed Kingston Free Press should not fawn at the mouth of a snake because of what the Greenville tobacco market is doing. Greenville is attending strictly to her own business, and is selling immense quantities of tobacco at the best prices of any market in the State. That's what.

With the explanations of the Republicans, the surmises of the Democrats, and the conjectures of the general public, the hope is encouraged that somebody will yet discover Speaker Henderson's reasons.

Anyone at all conversant with national affairs, who failed to escape the news of President Roosevelt's carriage-trolley catastrophe, will not be surprised to learn that William Jennings Bryan has had his'n.

Dr. Leyds denies that the Boer generals have abandoned their proposed tour of the United States. Wouldn't it be well for Elizabeth City to have these notables at the fair, along with President Roosevelt and Carrie Nation?

Two Cubans fight over a girl in Tampa. After a half-hour's struggle with pistols and fists, they break down, shake hands and make up, the girl witnessing the combat from her seat on a door step. Which confirms the opinion that some women are hard to move when they become set in their ways.

That must have been a terrific scene indulged in by Prof. John Duckett, chief clerk to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. While lying on a bed with his hands propped under his head the professor let go a sneeze and dislocated his shoulder. It took two doctors seven hours to get the bones back in place.

Something of a sensation has been created in national political circles by the declaration of Congressman D. B. Henderson, Speaker of the last House, of re-nomination from his district in Iowa. He has been a Congressman for ten consecutive terms. His reason given for not accepting the nomination again is that his views do not accord with his party on the question of tariff and trusts.

The issue of the Southern Tobaccoist, of Richmond, for September 16th, might very properly be termed a Greenville edition, in that it is made up of matter concerning this town. It gives ten pages to descriptions, with illustrations, of the Greenville tobacco market and other business of the town. The article, which is excellent, was prepared by Mr. J. B. Lightfoot, who recently spent some days here in the interest of the Tobaccoist.

The modern tendency of condensing bulky necessities has resulted in the Compressed Spirits and Chemical Company, which will market the genial and rejuvenating eye-opener in tablet form—good old rye for the vest pocket and stamp case. This will obviate many difficulties. The festive tuckler was a great old stand-by, but it was inconvenient. A safe repository for a snug quart, while you are in the parlor reciting Thomas Moore or Byron to Mary Ellen, isn't always easy to find. So much bulk in one pocket would undoubtedly attract the attention of feminine curiosity, besides committing you to an embarrassing explanation in case it slid out of your hip pocket at some stage of the evening's exercises. You just had to leave it outside, excuse yourself occasionally for a forage of the heavens, and run the risk of having Mary Ellen's little brother discover and report your stuporous incoherences in behalf of the weather department.

It is to be hoped that these tablets will be non odorous or perfumed, so that one will still be able to distinguish a lord's breath from the atmosphere of a big juice factory.

Ayer's Hair Vigor has been restoring color to gray hair for fifty years, and it never fails to do this work, either.
You can rely upon it for stopping your hair from falling, for keeping your scalp clean, and for making your hair grow.

CAMP BRYAN GRIMES

Annual Meeting in Greenville Thursday.

The reunion of the Confederate Veterans of Pitt county, at the court house Thursday, Sept. 17th, in its large attendance and business like procedure, furnishes matter of great interest to the old soldiers, and to their sons and daughters, who naturally share the spirit that makes these occasions possible and profitable.

Reorganization was effected, with the following officers for the ensuing year.

H. Harding, Commander, H. A. Blow, Secretary, Committee on Arrangements, etc.—C. D. Rountree, E. A. Moye and Jno. F. Boyd, Greenville; J. J. Laughinghouse, Chisler; J. B. Kilpatrick, Swift Creek; John Pearce, Contenten; Job Tyson, Beaver Dam; John T. Parker, Farmville; Henry Harris, Falkland; T. A. Thigpen, Belvoir; J. L. Brown, Bethel; J. B. Whitehurst, Carolina; D. H. James, Pactolus.

Commander H. Harding made a brief but very suggestive address, followed by requests for speeches from Hon. Larry Moore, W. F. Harding and J. L. Fleaming, who responded, much to the entertainment of those present.

The REFLECTOR is pleased to note the provisions made to put future reunions of the old soldiers under business management. The committees appointed and the invitation to the Daughters of the Confederacy to co-operate with the Central Committee, will no doubt result in much more satisfactory arrangements for the next reunion than has been possible under the method depended on heretofore.

Thursday, Sept. 19th, 1902, was selected for the next reunion.

Protracted Meeting. Rev. J. T. Edmondson, who will conduct a meeting for some days in the Baptist church, arrived Thursday evening and held his first service at night. His text was "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." His talk was a very earnest one to Christians, as to how they can become useful in the Master's service and fish for men for Him.

The service tonight will begin at 7:45 o'clock, sermon at 8:15. A request has been made that the stores close at 8 o'clock so all may have an opportunity of attending the meeting.

The more voice a man puts into an argument the less logic he puts there.

WINTERVILLE, N. C. Sept. 20 1902. Perhaps it may have grown monotonous to many of our friends who honor us by reading Winterville Items, yet for the life of us we cannot refrain from giving expression to our exuberance over the glorious success attained by the Winterville High School. Especially when we are brought in daily contact with the pupils and feel what a most excellent class of young ladies and gentlemen have honored us with their presence. Every day for the past week new students have arrived and the Principal is expecting 15 or 20 more next Monday.

Indeed glorious, and we don't think anyone will begrudge us our pleasure. The enrollment will easily reach 300 during the session.

B. F. Manning & Co. will pay 25 cents per bushel for cotton seed or they will exchange 1300 pounds cotton seed meal for one ton of cotton seed.

Dr. B. T. Cox left yesterday morning for Baltimore, accompanied by Southey Cox who will have an operation performed for appendicitis. We sincerely hope the operation may be successful and that Mr. Cox may return home fully restored to health.

Somebody got us badly mixed up in the first paragraph of our last item. Be careful, brother, we can't do much, but help us a little if you can.

Not being able to fill orders for Tar Heel wagons we are now also making a wagon which we call our "Oak A", which we are equipping with the best ready made hickory rim wheels we can purchase. You will understand that these wagons are not taking the place of our "Tar Heel", not by any means. We are making Tar Heel wagons right on as fast as we can, but as we have the whole thing to make, wheels and all, we can't turn them out as fast as we can the "Oak A" which is equipped with ready made wheels.
