The premium list of the State Agricultural Society will shortly be issued. The regulations which governed as to field crops last year will govern this year. The premiums will be larger.

Duckery is a good man for the Democrats to knock down in the gubernatorial contest.

The Democrats meet to-day for the purpose of naming the man who will do the work for him.

The recent converts from Democracy fared poorly in the Republican State Convention last week, not one of these new men being given a place on the ticket and all their suggestions being disregarded. The nominees of the Convention are all straight-out, wool-dyed Radicals, and the fight this year will be made on strict party lines. We like this, for in a straight fight the Democrats of North Carolina always come out victorious over their Republican opponents.

There will be no side issues in this campaign to draw off luke warm Democrats and we look for a large Democratic vote and a sweeping majority in November.

The Republican Convention of the Fourth Congressional District met in Raleigh last week and adjourned without making any nomination. Of course they will all support Congressman John Nichols, who has announced himself an independent candidate, for he is as good a Republican as the meanest of them could wish to vote for. If nominated by the Democrats Mr. N.

B. Broughton will have no trouble in defeating Nichols despite the nondescript character of the platform upon which he is standing. We doubt very much if any other Democrat could be nominated who would poll as big a vote as Mr. Broughton, or who would be so sure of election.

The river and harbor bill has been favorably reported to the Senate. Senator Ransom has had greatly increased the amounts given the various rivers and harbors in North Carolina; Beaufort Harbor, $35,000; dition to the nomination of a full set of candidates for State officers, and Presidential Electors for the State at Large, the Convention will select delegates to the National Democratic Convention, at St. Louis, and will adopt a platform of principles.

The chief interest seems to be over the nominee for Governor, there being several names prominently mentioned. It is impossible for us to predict who will be the nominee. Of the three most prominent candidates mentioned--Fowler, Stedman and Alexander--Fowler seems to be in the lead, but the other gentleman have considerable strength and will have their claims vigorously pushed. It is possible that neither of these gentlemen can be nominated, and that a "dark horse" will receive the prize. In that event we think Judge Gilmer the man who will be selected. We anxiously await the action of the Convention. That the body will be very deliberate in their work and will select good and true men for the nominees we have no doubt. And we predict that the people of the State will approve of their course. The RE-

LECTOR stands ready to endorse the work of the Convention and will cordially support the nominees.

The magistrates of the county will meet here next Monday for the purpose of electing a Board of County Commissioners for the term of two years from the first of December, a County Superintendent of Public Instruction and for the transaction of such other business as may come before them. We hope every magistrate in the county will be present, and that all who come will appreciate the importance of the duties that will devolve upon them. The office of Commissioner is one of the most important--if not the most important--in the county and great care should be taken in the selection of suitable men to fill these positions. Messrs. Council Dawson, G. M. Mooring, W.

A. James, Jr., J. A. K. Tucker and T. E. Keel constitute the present Board of Commissioners, and that they have made excellent officers no one will pretend to deny. Inasmuch, therefore, as these gentlemen have made good Commissioners and have discharged the duties of the office creditably we see no reason why they should not be elected as their own successors. In fact, their past services should be a reason, and a strong one, for retaining them in office. All of the members of the present Board of Commissioners are shrewd and safe business men, are men of character and standingly opposed to the step thus taken. While we have nothing to say against those who have been named as the standard bearers of the prohibition party in North Carolina--while they are all good, honest, capable men, yet we shall vote against them, and call upon all the friends of Democracy to pursue a like course, for every vote you give to them and the party they represent, means a vote against the Democratic party. The Republicans will not desert their colors--rest assured of that. No Democrat can afford to throw away his vote in the coming election, and when you cast your vote for this third party, you not only waste your vote, but give substantial aid to the Radical cause. You have seen what Radical supremacy means in your own town in recent days, and can you bear even the thought of a Radical triumph in the State election? If you can, and if you want them to win, just rally around this third party, and the Radicals will laugh in their sleeves at your stupidity, and have cause to rejoice over the downfall of Democracy. The Democratic party has made the State rich and prosperous as she is to day; and if you want her name to be dishonored and her credit to be discounted abroad, and make her a "hissing and a by-word" among the sisterhood of States, cast your vote against the Democratic party and your desire shall be satisfied; but if you want her to march onward and upward in the scale of social, financial and religious progress and enjoyment, as she has been doing for several years past, cast your vote for the maintenance of Democratic principles and for the continuance of a sound and patriotic Democratic government.

Whatever else you may do, fellow-citizens of North Carolina, stand by the Democratic party.

It is the hope of the country, and with its defeat vanishes the present and future glory of the grand Old North State. You cannot afford to imperil this glorious commonwealth by enlisting your energies and your suffrage in behalf of a cause doomed to disastrous defeat. There is not the ghost of a chance for this third party to succeed in the election this fall. The real battle is between the Democratic and Radical parties. The other is only a sideshow; and it bodes no good to our cause. Be not deceived in this matter. Vote for the Democratic nominees to a man--county State and National victory will be ours. Stand by your colors, Democrats. Let your banner still float in triumph from the spires of the State Capitol. Vote for your party.

County Superintendent of Public Instruction.

A Lady Speaks Strongly for the Incumbent.

WASHINGTON, N. C. May 21st, 1888.

MR. EDITOR:--A woman, but not a Belva Lockwood woman suffragist, yet I do not hesitate to speak in defense of right and justice when they are assailed.

To-day by mere accident, I read in a Raleigh paper that "The latest move on the political chess board of Pitt county is the effort now being made to decapitate Elder Josephus Latham, the worthy and efficient superintendent of public schools, to make room for one of our rising attorneys, perhaps either Mr. J. D.

Murphy or Mr. Buck King." This statement confirms the whisper of Madam Rumor, and I pronounce the whole proceeding a preposterous outrage. Mr. Josephus Latham has done practical teaching for twenty five years; a man of pronounced convictions, he has the moral courage to assert his opinions. No one will dare defame him, (except such as have, to my knowledge, spent their TIME and MONEY making FALSE accusations against him, because he dared to do right and would not come to unjust demands for their pockets sake in their petty districts.) There is in truth not one dark blot to discolor his fair escutocheon.

He has served several terms as County Superintendent, and Major

Finger, the State Superintendent has, to my knowledge, publicly renounced him one of the most capable, efficient and successful

Superintendents in the State. Mr.

Latham has made the subject a study, acquainting himself with all school literature, in reach and often consulting with the best educators in and out of the State, and with many County Superintendents; notably, Rev. Nat Harding of Washington, N. C. He has exchanged examination papers with him, striving always to elevate the nobility of the profession. He has done more for education in Pitt county than any other man, and is better mentioned, though they are very worthy gentlemen and as far as I know, may be walking encyclopedias.

I do know, however, that it takes more than all any position succeeded to the petty slings and calumnies of the press to defame a man of his standing.

I have known many a man of high position and high standing

defamed by the press, but never one of the standing of

Mr. Latham.

He is a man of high

It is a pleasure to drive one of his horses, for he never sends out a tired, faded animal, but furnishes good horses and comfortable vehifirst class livery and Mr. Keel is filling that want.

"After clouds, sunshine." How strikingly this is illustrated with us now.

Their new advertisement came in no mention of Higgs & Munford having purchased another lot of sample

Now let the sanitary condition of the town be looked after. It is really needed.

Last week all the towns were wet —very wet. Next week many of them desire to go dry.

There have been very few days during this month but what we have had some rain.

They generally call May the "beautiful month," but in that particular it proved a big fraud this year.

The health of a community should be carefully guarded. Citizens should see that every precaution is used.

The tide of travel has been Baltimore-ward, for two weeks, the conventions taking many people to that city.

By encouraging and patronizing the industries and enterprises of your town you promote its best interests.

We keep saying look out for clear weather. Now we hope it has come —until some wet weather is sent.

Personal.
Capt. J. K. Hutton, of Washington, was in town last Friday on business.

Her many friends will be pained to learn that Mrs. John Flanagan is very sick.

Mrs. J. B. Higgs with her children has moved to the home of Mr. R. A.

Mrs. A. M. Moore and Miss Fannie Green attended the Episcopal Council at Fayetteville last week.

Mrs. Dr. V. N. Seawell and child of Sanford, are visiting Mrs. P. E.
Dancy, Mrs. Seawell's mother.

Mr. W. O. Parker has rented the residence on Fourth Street, formerly occupied by the Misses Lawrence.

Rev. D. B. Clayton, Universalist preached in the Court House here Wednesday and Thursday nights of last week.

We regret to learn that our young friend Mr. J. G. Moye, has been in bad health for several days. All his friends wish him speedy recovery.

Mrs. Ada Cherry, of Greenville, whose voice has no equal in culture and sweetness, aided the choir at the Methodist Church during Conference.—Washington Progress.

Mr. D. W. Winstead, who for several years has been a member of a hardware firm here, left Saturday for Mississippi. On the night before his departure a number of his friends gave him a collation at Ryan & Redding's ice cream parlor.

The Republican Convention at Raleigh last week selected Mr. A.
M. Moore, of this town, as one of the Presidential Electors for the State at large. Perhaps he is as good a selection as they could have made, but he will never "get there," to vote for "Jingo Jems."

Many of our farmer friends will be in town next Monday. Remember the REFLECTOR office gives a cordial welcome to all.

Greenville has organized a base ball association. Whether it will produce anybody that can play or not remains to be seen.

We are requested to announce that the ladies of the M. E. Church will have a festival during the week of June Court.

The warm weather takes the crowd to Ryan & Redding's. Milk shakes, lemonade, ice cream, soda and all such, you know.

Life always seems more worth living on a beautiful day, but it requires some cloudy days to make us appreciate the bright ones.

The heavy rains last week caused a rapid rise in the river. The water is quite high now but does not cause inconvenience in passing.

The Merchants' Hotel at Washington, kept by Spencer Bros., is a popular house with the travelling men. All fare well who stop there.

Everybody now says, "Aint it warm?" Not long since the cry was, "Aint it cold?" Who'd live in a world that was always the same.

The Southern Guardsman has been revived at Winston, with Will X.
Coley as publisher. It contains matter of interest to the Guard of the State.

The M. E. Conference just closed at Washington is said to have been the largest attended and most interesting of any ever held in this District.

Judging from the quantity of lumber being placed upon the bridge the repairs to that structure are to be general. The work will not be done before it is needed.

The REFLECTOR has received many compliments upon its neat typographical appearance since putting on a new dress of type. We are proud of the print.

On the first Thursday in June Greenville Lodge No. 284 A. F. & A. M. will hold a communication for the annual election of officers. A full attendance is requested.

Our people will soon be casting about as to where they shall spend the summer. Believe we will take ours in Greenville, this year, unless delinquent subscribers do better.

Saturday was more like a day that belongs to this season of the year. Clear, bright and wearing quite a summer temperature. We have had other days like it since.

Some friends of the REFLECTOR are showing their appreciation by helping us get new subscribers.
That is how all should do, take a lively interest in your county paper.

We want every Democrat in the county to have the REFLECTOR, at least during the campaign, and for that reason have made the price only 75 cents for the balance of this year.

The recent bad weather retarded the farmers in their work. We hope there was no damage done beyond this and that a few days of good weather will set the crops right.

A meeting will be held in Farmville on the second Sunday in June, so we are informed, for the purpose of re-organizing the Temperance Reform Club. Several speakers will be present.

We want every reader in the county to feel that he has an interest in the REFLECTOR. Its columns are open to all for a free discussion of topics that will be interesting to the general public.

Beginning with the first of June, it would be a good idea for all the stores to close early and give the clerks a rest. Most of our dry goods houses have already adopted an early hour for closing.

Reader, have you not made us promises concerning the amount you owe the REFLECTOR that remain unfulfilled? Hold a few moments honest consultation with your conscience and see if you are acting entirely upon the square. Those to whom this applies will confer a favor by settling upon it at once.

A Large Catch.
The run of shad has been something remarkable this season. The skimmers caught them in large quantities last week and they are very fine—as fine, in fact, as those caught earlier in the season.

Important Day.
The Board of County Commissioners and the Magistrates will hold a joint session next Monday.
They will elect a Board of Commissioners and a Superintendent of Public Instruction and will levy the taxes.

Come On.
Since so many of the Greenville girls attended the Conference at Washington, we learn that some of the boys of that town are anxious to engage board by the week up here.
Tell them, brother Gazette, board is cheap here.

Postponed.
Owing to the steamer Greenville having been previously engaged for the day, the Baptist Sunday School cannot have their excursion picnic to Yankee Hall to-morrow, as had been announced. The date will be made known in due time.

Noon Meeting.
A very enjoyable prayer meeting lasting from fifteen minutes to half-hour is held every day in the Reform Club Room. These are held for the business men and all would derive spiritual pleasure and benefit from attending.

Hail.
We learn that a heavy hail and wind storm passed through the Northern portion of the county on last Friday. Considerable damage is reported from the Keelsville neighborhood. It was the severest hail storm they have had in several years.

Warning.
The committee in charge of Masonic yard request us to warn persons against entering the premises and breaking the flowers. The yard has been frequently trespassed upon of late and if the offenders do not desist they may expect to be prosecuted.

You're Behind.
Mr. J. M. Stewart, of Grove township, this county, saw squares on his cotton as early as May 20th. Who can beat this?—Dunn Signboard.

That's nothing! We were riding through the country last Sunday and saw two or three bolts of open cotton in a field.

Attention Firemen.
The members of Rough & Ready Fire Company are requested to meet promptly at the Mayor's office, on Monday, the 4th day of June, at 2 o'clock, P. M., as business of importance will be transacted.

ROBT. G. HODGES, Captain.

Grand.
The electric display arising from the approaching clouds, early Friday night, was a marvel of beauty and caused many to gaze at it in wonder. The heavens seemed one continuous sphere of brilliancy, so rapid did the vivid flashes follow each other. About midnight the rain came down in torrents.

Revival.
The meeting begun last week at Allen's School House, a few miles above town, is meeting with abundant success. Many conversions are reported and a large number are anxiously seeking the way of salvation. The interest is very great. Rev. Geo. J. Dorell, of Hamilton is assisting Rev. Mr.
Wildman in conducting the services.

Amusing.
We do not like to complain of a congregation holding religious services, but the manner in which some of the colored churches in town conduct their meetings is most annoying to persons living adjacent to them. They keep the meetings up until a very late and unreasonable hour, creating shouts and noises that can be heard several squares distant.

Public Debate.
The Philomathian Society will have a public debate at the Institute Chapel, Thursday night, June 7th.
Subject: Resolved, Intemperance has been a greater evil than War.
Affirmative—A. T. Griffin, W. A.
B. Hearne, W. O. Little. Negative —A. D. Johnston, O. L. Joyner, and F. C. Harding. After the debate, Major Henry Harding will make a short talk on the advantages of Debating Societies. All former students of the Institute are requested to attend this debate, for the purpose of organizing a Students' Association of Greenville Institute.
Speaking will commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

How They Do.
Perhaps the ruling power of the town government might be classed with the "penny wise and pound foolish." Among their first acts was to withdraw the payment of $8 per month from Mr. T. F. Christman, the night watchman employed by private citizens, for which patrism he had been serving as night police in addition to his regular duties. Still they can pay two other men $40 per month each for doing comparatively nothing in the day time. And it goes without saying, as we have heard it numerous times, that "Tom Christman as night officer was worth both of the day police."

Excellent Sermons—Able Ministers.
One of the best sermons we might say the most edifying and inspiring—to which it was ever our pleasure to listen, was delivered by Rev. J. W. Wildman in the Baptist Church on last Sunday morning, his subject being Patience. Would that every person in the community could have been present and heard this able discourse. It was followed at night by another excellent sermon upon Charity. Within our recollection Greenville has had no more learned and powerful minister than Mr. Wildman, and he daily grows more popular with our people.
Truly he is man of superior attainments and will accomplish good work for the Master wherever he labors. May his lot long be cast here.

Jail Delivery.
Greenville had another jail delivery Sunday morning, in broad day time. The jailer went to the prison in the morning and turned the inmates from their cells into the corridor, as usual. He then left and upon returning about two hours later with their rations found the building empty. It was discovered that the prisoners had cut a hole through the brick wall separating the corridor from the fuel room, and passing through this the balance of the exit was almost without obstruction. Near the hole was found an axe, a chair post and a piece of plank that had been torn from the floor. With these tools they made quick work of it. How they got the axe is not known but it is supposed one of the prisoners slipped it from the fuel room. The jail had five occupants, four of whom made their escape. The other was a partially insane man who got out and went to look for the Sheriff instead of going off with the prisoners.
This makes the second time prisoners have escaped from the jail this year.

Invitations.
The REFLECTOR is indebted to Cadets E. C. Yellowley and W. F.
Pittman for a pretty invitation to the celebration of the Washington and Jefferson Literary Societies of Davis School, LaGrange, on June 6th.

Messrs. H. H. Wilson, J. L. Fleming and W. J. Little also have our thanks for an invitation to the exercises by the class of '88 of Wake Forest College, June 12th, 13th and 14th. The Wake Forest invitation is the newest and handsomest we have seen.

Thanks for an invitation to the commencement exercises of Henderson Female College June 5th.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to the commencement exercise of Wilson Collegiate Institute for young ladies June 6th.

An invitation has also been received to the commencement of Anora Academy, June 15th. Mr. H. A.
Latham will deliver the annual address.

All eyes turn toward Raleigh today and anxiously await the announcement of the nominees of the Democratic Convention.

We publish a very interesting letter to-day from Allen's School House. Such communications are always enjoyed by the readers of a newspaper and we would like to have more of them. Let us have them from every section of the county.

For Superintendent.

MR. EDITOR:—The time for electing a Superintendent of Public Schools draws near and if you will allow space in your highly esteemed paper, I will say a few words in behalf of our present, most worthy Superintendent. I have heard it talked of that he will be "tuned out of office," and for what? Is it because he has so faithfully performed the duties resting upon him while serving the people in that office? or do they think there can be a man found who will make a better Superintendent or one better qualified for the discharges of the duties of that office? If so, they may stop. He will not be found. "B. W." in his letter two weeks ago claims that "only an experienced teacher is qualified to superintend, and train teachers in the best methods of teaching. He is perfectly right, but where is a man more experienced, or one who has been more successful in teaching, or who keeps better up with the latest methods of teaching than that esteemed gentleman, Rev. Josephus Latham. Let us have him again by all means.
