GREENVILLE, N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.]

Congress reassembles to day after holiday adjournment.

The Henderson Gold Leaf is seven years old. We hardly know how to say enough good things about Thad Manning and his paper, for the Gold Leaf is a special favorite with us, one we look forward to the day it arrives and are quick to look at it when it gets here. We hope it will continue with Thad Manning as an editor until it is seven times seven and even longer.

Hons. George Brown, Jr., of Washington, and John G. Bynum, of Morganton, have been appointed Superior court judges to fill the vacancies in the first and eighth Judicial districts caused by the resignations of Judges J. E. Shepherd and A.
C. Avery, who have been promoted to seats on the Supreme court Bench. The REFLECTOR can speak for the first district and believes the selection to be an excellent and satisfactory one.

It looks perfectly natural to see Minister Jarvis on the streets of Greenville again, shaking hands with the people who love and honor him. The ex-Governor is enjoying splendid health and looks equally as well, as vigorous and as young as when he last left here for Brazil, nearly two years ago. And he looks capable of doing just as good and faithful work for the State and party as he has ever done.
Since getting a look at him the REFLECTOR is still stronger in favor of his being elected to the U. S. Senate. The chances now seem very much against Senator Ramsom. One thing is sure, if Ramsom does not get the nomination on the first ballot he is done for, and with 34 votes claimed as pledged to Alexander, and 35 votes claimed for Jarvis—while there are only 120 Democratic votes on joint ballot —it looks like Ramsom will not succeed himself. Let the new Senator be Thomas J. Jarvis.

The old year has been dying for some time and now it is dead. So we have been informed by our contemporaries. We also get some information from the Almanac about the matter. We were not much surprised at this action on the part of the old year, we have had some experience with old years before and we have always found them liable to turn up their toes and kick the bucket about the 31st of each December, so we were prepared. It is, we suppose rather a good thing that the old year does die occasionally.
It gives unmarried brethren of the press an opportunity to get off sentimental eulogies about "the fatal frosts of chillful disappointment" and the hopes that bloomed, as the roses bloom, beneath the sunshine of anticipated appreciation but to fade, as the roses fade, "neath the cold storms of adversity. The death of the old year is also a Godsend to embryo poets, in that it offers an excuse for the writing of a lot of soulful Amilie Rives—Ella Wheeler Wilcox verses about the weepful-ness of the what might have been &c.
There has also been a new year born. If there are any of our patrons who have not yet learned of this fact they will probably be made fully aware of it ere long by the State press, besides we have a lot of Branson's Almanacs on hand which give a good deal of information on the subject and only cost 10 cents each—one given free to each new subscriber who pays for the year in advance. The most popular thing about the new year is the making of good resolutions. Although there is a good deal of prejudice against it, there is nothing positively wrong about the making of these resolutions, it is the breaking of them that causes trouble, and the average man can break about three for every two he can make. New year is also very popular with the movers, while the chronic mover is ever on the lookout for a chance to change his residence, a new year is his especial delight. At that time he can be sure of the assistance of his more settled brother, the occasional mover, to help him turn the air blue by energetically repeating his prayers backwards. There are a great many other things we could tell about new year but we know that unless Father Time goes contrary to all precedent there will be another new year in about twelve months and we want to save something for that time.

A & I O W.

DIST. ASSEMBLY No 1
HALL No. 21
Dec. 1st 1888.

The exercises of the evening began with the performance of the grand iron can by Prof. Longfellow, accompanied by the various members of the club under the leadership of most high-y Cantorian Golenzhly Helpstedt. The leader was called and Supreme Snorer Back-sprung Normal being found absent was fined $300. Bro. Colossal Sunbeam arose greatly to the relief of the somewhat fragile chair he was occupying, to move that Bro Normal be allowed a rebate of 140 per cent for cash. Bro. Normal having arrived in the mean time said that it afforded him much pleasure to second the motion. The Supreme Chin Worker said that the motion might also afford the brother an abundance of pocket money during the holidays, if it should be entertained, but the financial condition of the club would not justify any such motions just at present so he would remit the fine and suspend judgement. Bro. Trustfulness-Whilom complained that while in the presence of his best girl and several other less interesting personages he had found the Supreme Chin Worker to be using his conversational powers to the detriment of his peace of mind and had made the usual sign of silence. That the said sign had been totally disregarded by the said Supreme Chin Worker and incalculable damage had thereby done to his matrimonial prospects. The Supreme Snorer decided that the Supreme Chin Worker should contribute 50 cents toward repairing the blighted Scribo.
The Supreme Chin Worker thereupon complained that on the same occasion he had found one of his rivals to be too conspicuous and had giving the usual sign to the most Merciful Scribo for his assistance in the removal of said rival. That the Scribo had failed to render any assistance whatever, and that the said rival had escaped unharmed.
A verdict of guilty was returned against most Merciful Scribo. Trustfulness Whilom was sentenced to soothe the disappointment of the Supreme Chin Worker to the extent of a half a dollar. The Supreme Snorer informed the club that a glorious opportunity had recently unfolded itself to him, in that he had received an invitation from the parents of the bright particular star that was at present looming above his matrimonial horizon to be present and assist in the mastication of their Christmas turkey and he would request that the prayers of the club should be offered for him that he might make most of his opportunity.
The most noble Prevaricator suggested that it might be more appropriate to pray for the turkey, that is if the brother was to carry the same mastating apparatus along with him that he used in destroying the turkeys at our club meetings.
Prof. Longfellow took the floor to ask the advice of the club as to the method he should pursue in regarding the advantages which he had lost to his rivals by an enforced absence of the brother to carry the turkey to the South. Did the Northern States come to Mr. Cleveland with such appeals? Not at all.
They, like men, waited for the "overt act" and we should do the same."

A great failure in business is sometimes less lamentable than a failure in health; Laxador preserves the health.
Price only 25 cents.

We often wonder what induced Dr.
Ball to invent his celebrated Baby Stry-ch, but we understand now, that he was a married man

For Reading Clerk, House of Representatives.

Mr. H. A. Latham has claims superior to all other contestants. He was a prize speaker at the University when he graduated paying his way "by the sweat of his brow." He has always been a sterling Democrat, and for the past three years has devoted his time, talents and earnings to the cause of Democracy. His patrone the Washington Gazette, which circulates largely in the entire east, was a potent factor in the big democratic gains of the last campaign.
He is capable, deserving and the east should be recognized by his election. Give us Latham of the Gazette for Reading Clerk.

MARTIN CO. DEMOCRAT.

"Dixons Had One Trick." remarked the professor, in a discussion of favorite authorities, "which always struck me as an oddity. I mean his habit of pining some distinctive word or phrase on a character, which must be uttered on all occasions. Now people in real life don't irritate like parrots. At least, I know of only one person who is liable to such criticism—young Bowden, my neighbor. The picture of health isn't he? well, his pet phrase, which I've heard him repeat to persons a score of people suffering from coughs and weak lungs, is, 'Take Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.' No wonder, either, for it saved him from a consump-tive's grave."

spread at the rate that it has up to this time, when the Fifty-first Congress meets every republican Representative will be a candidate for Speaker. This week has brought out three new candidates, notwithstanding Christmas and the Congressional recess. They are: Messrs.
Lodge, of Mass. Bayne of Penn., and Farquhar of New York.

It is proposed to add a schedule of inquiry to those allowed by the House bill providing for the eleventh census. The new schedule is to be a complete census of the Confederate soldiers now living, with their terms of service. There is already a provision for returns of Union soldiers. The proposition will be considered at the next meeting of the Senate committee on the census.
The Blaine fight is getting to be very interesting to democrats, as it has now reached a stage which will make it certain that it will go right along for the next four years, no matter whether Mr. Blaine goes in to Mr. Harrison's cabinet, or gets snubbed by the President-elect. Mr.
Harrison only has the privilege of deciding whether he will furnish the Blainites with the sinews of war and have them for nominal friends, or turn them out in the cold and have them for open enemies. There is no middle ground to form the basis for a compromise. Democrats all hoping to see Blaine "turned down" by Harrison, as they recognize the fact that he has it in his power to make Harrison's administration a failure, and the defeat of the republican party in 1892 a certainty, if he chooses to fight, and his friends are stating openly that he proposes war to the knife if he is not made Secretary of State.

The hotel at which rooms have been engaged for Mr. Harrison and his family is a favorite one with wealthy Englishmen, and its proprietor is such a snob that whenever he has a member of the English nobility as a guest, which is quite frequent, he always runs up the British flag on the flagstaff of his hotel and keeps it flying as long as they remain. It will be a little awkward for him if an English lord happens to arrive during the time that Mr. Harrison is there. But Harrison is a great admirer of the English nobility, unless he has greatly changed since he was in the Senate, and perhaps he would not object to stopping at a hotel which flies the English flag.

If John Wauanmaker becomes Postmaster General, as now seems likely, we may expect to see "bargain counters" established in every postoffice for the sale of shop worn postal cards and stamps.

Chief Justice Fuller and family have already become great favorites in Washington.

The Southern republicans will have fourteen members of the next House, which will enable them to control its organization a fact which they have already given notice, they intend to work for all its worth in the way of patronage. They will demand a liberal share of the House officers, consisting of the Clerk, the Sergeant at Arms, the Doorkeeper and the Postmaster. They have not as yet intimated how many of these offices they consider a liberal share but the fact that they will demand all of them has already created considerable uneasiness among republican aspirants from other sections.

Speaker and Mrs. Carlisle recently entertained at dinner Gen. and Mrs.
McCreary, of Kentucky, Mr. and Mrs. Mansom of Illinois, and Representative and Mrs. Townsend, of Illinois.

Said a prominent Southern man to me yesterday: "How nonsensical is all this syncretistic and puerile stuff going up daily to Harrison, asking clemency at his hands toward the South. Did the Northern States come to Mr. Cleveland
with such appeals? Not at all.
act" and we should do the same."

SUCCESSORS TO JOHN S. CONGLETON & CO

GREENVILLE, N. C.

THE LEADERS IN ALL KINDS OF STAPLE GOODS.

Our FALL and WINTER stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, etc., have arrived, and all friends and customers are invited to call and examine goods and prices.

Having purchased the entire mercantile business of John S. Congleton & Co., including notes, book accounts and all evidences of debt and merchandise, we solicit their former and increased patronage.
Being able to make all purchases for cash, getting advantage of the discounts, we will be enabled to sell as cheaply as any one South of Norfolk. We shall retain in our employ J. S. Congleton as general superintendent of the business, with his former partner Chas. Skinner as assistant, who will always be glad to see and serve their old customers.
A special branch of our business will be to furnish cash at reasonable rates to farmers to cultivate and harvest their crops, in sums of $100 to $2,000 with approved security.

The Register of Deeds hereby gives notice to all merchants and dealers to come forward and give in their purchases within the first ten days of January as required by law.

One of your first resolutions should be take your county paper and pay for it.

Since removing to our new shop, the Greenville Carriage works have enlarged the business and are better prepared to do work quickly and in the most workmanlike manner. Come to our new shop, at the old Flanagan stand, if you want a good vehicle or need any repairing done.

Plenty of hunters were out on Christmas day but we have not heard of much game.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—I respectfully call your attention to the fact that I am permanently located at Greenville and am fully prepared to do only first-class tailoring in all styles. I have samples of all the latest foreign and domestic novelties in suitings. Suits cleaned and repaired.

SOME MASQUERADERS among the colored people created a little amusement on Christmas day.

TO MY PATRONS. This week the Old Reliable Carriage Factory is being removed to the shops just North of the Court House where all my friends and customers are invited to call. The shops will be greatly enlarged and my facilities for doing first-class work this year will be better than ever before. Don't forget the place, just north of the Court House. Returning sincere thanks for past patronage I hope for a continuance of the same.

Very Respectfully J. D. WILLIAMSON.

The Board of County Commissioners will hold their first meeting for 1889 next Monday.

Leap Year has gone and during the next three years the girls will wait for the boys to woo them.

The REFLECTOR has received an invitation to a tournament and ball at Bell's Ferry to-morrow.

Christmas was much enjoyed by the little folks, and their pop crackers went pop, snap, bang all day.

We hope our subscribers in the country will come in during Court week and pay their subscription.

Three or four agents from the turpentine districts South of us have been in town this week hiring hands.

We begin the very first month of the year by giving you five REFLECTORS. You like that don't you?

The man who made good resolutions yesterday and intends keeping them will pay what he owes the newspaper.

Send the REFLECTOR to any absent friend or member of your family, if you wish to make them a gift that will be appreciated.

Personal.

Rev. J. W. Wildman is spending a few days in Virginia.

Mr. G. L. Heilbronner left this morning for Tarboro.

Miss Lizzie Redding spent the holidays in Washington.

Mr. J. H. Tucker is off to Warrenton for a few days business.

Mr. E. C. Glenn left yesterday for Norfolk and Baltimore on business.

Mr. J. W. Goodwin left this morning for a three weeks commercial tour.

Mr. S. M. Schultz and wife have been spending a few days in Rocky Mount.

Miss Mattie Rountree, of Kinston, spent the holidays with Mrs. Dr. Frank Brown.

Mr. J. I. Perkins left yesterday for Richmond to buy a stock of horses and mules.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Stephens attended the Baptist union meeting at Hamilton last Sunday.

Hon. L. C. Latham came home from Washington City to spend the holidays with his family.

Mr. J. P. Haskett, of Kinston, spent Christmas with his brother Mr. D. D. Haskett.

Mr. J. R. Rouse who a few years ago left this town for Kinston has returned with his family.

Miss Havens Cherry who has been teaching at Youngsville, came home to spend the holidays.

Messrs. W. G. Edwards and W. J. Edwards have moved their families from Scotland Neck to Greenville.

Mr. B. F. Forbes, who during the fall clerked for his uncle, Mr. A. Forbes, left last week for his home in South Carolina.

Mrs. Henry Sheppard and Mrs. D. J. Whitchard left this morning for Greenville county to visit their sister Mrs. W. H. Ragsdale.

Minister Thos. J. Jarvis and his excellent lady arrived in Greenville in time to spend Christmas with their relatives. They received a cordial welcome to their old home.

Mr. H. F. Keel is in Richmond selecting horses and mules for this market and expects to have a cargo to arrive in a few days. Henry is a good judge of horses.

We were glad to have a call recently from Mr. R. L. Bonner, engineer of the Warrenton railroad, who was on his way to Washington, his former home to spend the holidays.

Messrs Willis and James Fleming from Wake Forest, Charlie Laughinghouse, from Chancel Hill, W. M. Bernard, from Chocowiny, Cadelet Willie Moore, from Horner's School, Oxford, and Cadelet Edward Yellowley, from Davis School, La Grange, came home to spend the holidays.

We learn from the Durham Plant that Lient. J. J. Bernard, a native of Greenville who some years ago moved from here to Durham, has been promoted to the Captaincy of the Governor's Guard, Raleigh. The former Captain, Mr. E. G. Harrell, has been elected Major of the First Regiment.

On Monday Mr. J. G. Moye resigned his position as clerk for Mr. A. Forbes and yesterday entered the store of Messrs. J. B. Cherry & Co. of which firm he is the junior member. Joe is one of the cleverest and best salesmen in town and possesses splendid business qualifications. He requests all his old friends and customers to drop in to see him at his new place.

Rev. Mr. Oglesby, the new Presiding Elder for Washington District, preached in the Methodist church on the fourth Sunday in December and on Christmas day. It has not been our pleasure to hear him yet, but his congregation are delighted with him. Socially he is a pleasant, affable gentleman and will make many friends here. We hope he will make Greenville his home.

Our good friend, Mr. A. Arnheim, returned on Christmas eve from San Francisco, Cal., where he had been for several months. Mr. Arnheim, expected to move his family to that place and they would soon have joined him there, but his many friends here are glad that he decided to return to Greenville. On his return from California Mr. Arnheim made an extensive trip through the west and it is interesting to hear him tell of his travels. He stopped a few days at Trinidad, Col., where our former townsman, Hon. S. S. Wallace lives, and says that in a very few years it has sprung from a small town to a large city.

J. J. Perkins offers good horses and mules for sale and invites you to examine his stock before buying. See advertisement.

We are indebted to the Pope Manufacturing Company and the Russell & Morgan Printing Company for beautiful and useful calendars.

The sale of land by William May, Executor of Mary A. E. May has been postponed to the first Monday in February. See change in advertisement.

During the month of December the Register of Deeds issued licenses to 34 couples, 16 white and 18 colored. The names will be published next week.

Friend, did you make a resolution yesterday to live a better life during the new year than in the past? If so be a man and stand by your resolve. Do not be again enticed into evil.

Many of our readers express themselves as greatly disappointed missing the REFLECTOR last week. We are glad they enjoy its weekly visits so much that an issue is eagerly looked for.

A real estate owner was last week heard to remark: "I am certainly a railroad man. I have two vacant houses for rent and have received ten applications for them." The money men should build more houses.

Reuss & Harris, doing business at the Cross Roads two miles from town, made an assignment last Friday. Liabilities $1,800 assets claimed $1,000.

The children of the Baptist Sunbeams Missionary Society had an interesting exercise in that church on the morning of the fourth Sunday in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Love gave two enjoyable entertainments in the Opera House here the week before Christmas. Our people were much pleased with them and would give them a good house should they come this way again.

Important meeting K. of H. On the 1st Friday night in January, 1889 the installation of new officers for the year 1889, will take place. A full attendance of all the members is desired, and other matters of importance to be attended to.

The big hog owned by Mr. J. H. Mill, which we mentioned sometime ago was slaughtered the week before Christmas. The gross weight was 860 pounds and the net weight 716 pounds. This is the largest hog of the season. Pitt county, as usual takes the lead in porkers.

It is expected that the population of Greenville will very much increase this year, but the people can not come unless there are houses for them to occupy. The property holders should erect enough good, comfortable dwellings so that none who desire to come need be turned away because of failure to get a home.

Higgs & Munford are preparing to move into larger and more commodious quarters, and during the next thirty days must reduce their stock in order to save trouble in moving. They are going to miss no sales, but will put goods right down at cost in order to get them out of the way. Now, if you want bargains call on them.

Some of our subscribers who have been getting a blue cross mark on their paper will not receive the REFLECTOR after this month unless their accounts are paid. All the names which have to be dropped from our list because of non payment will be published.

The Sunday School scholars have not had a dull time these holidays, but each of them have had a very enjoyable party. On Wednesday night of last week the Baptist school had theirs, on Friday night the Methodist held theirs and on Monday night of this week the Episcopal held theirs, all of them in the Opera House.

The Christmas number of Wide Awake, published by D. Lothrop Company, Boston, Mass., at $2.40 a year, is one of the brightest and handsomest magazines we have seen these whole holiday times. There is not a dull page about it. The articles and illustrations are just splendid. For the new year it has a larger array of contributors and promises to be more interesting than ever.

On Friday night before Christmas the pupils of the Institute gave an interesting entertainment consisting of recitations, readings, dialogues, music, etc. It is so late now and we are crowded for space so the programme is omitted. Prizes were awarded to Messrs Joe Jarvis and Roscoe Little for writing, and to Messrs Myrtle and Lillie Wilson for punctuality. Prof. Duckett announced that the work for 1889 would begin more prosperous than ever.

The members of the Methodist Sunday School, three miles above town, superintended by Mr. J. White, had a New Years Eve Cantata on Monday night, the proceeds of which apply to the purchase of a library for the school. We have heard that the entertainment was very creditable and interesting. They will come to Greenville to-morrow (Thursday) night and repeat the cantata in the Opera House. The proceeds go to a good purpose and we hope the entertainment will be greeted with a large audience.

Something Like Work. It has been a hard task on the editor to get out the REFLECTOR this week notwithstanding the fact that no paper was issued last week. Besides having a heavy run of job work the county statement had to be set up and we did not have a printer in the office who could do either of these kinds of work without having to be shown how to fix a greater part of it. Just as soon as a good printer can be secured, which will give us more time to attend the editorial work, we are going to show you some more improvements on the paper.

The Baptist Almanac for 1889.

The N. C. Baptist almanac for 1889, edited and published by Rev. C. T. Bailey, editor of the Biblical Recorder Raleigh N. C. is on our table. It is a reliable publication for everybody and a necessity for Baptist families. It contains, among other things full statistics of the various religious denominations in the State and United States, complete state government directory, full court calendar, complete directory of all Baptist boards and institutions in N. C. besides an article on "what is communion", biographical sketches &c. Price 10c address, Rev. C. T. Bailey, Raleigh N. C.

Carriage Shop.

Mr. Robt. Green, Jr., manager of Greenville Carriage works, has bought the shops heretofore occupied by Mr. J. D. Williamson, in front of the Hotel and will move in this week. Mr. Williamson will move to the shops vacated by the G. C. works and will raise the building to two stories and make many improvements for better facilitating his work. Mr. O. Cuthrell will open a new factory on Fourth street that has just been fitted up. So if the friends of Pitt county want riding vehicles or any repairing done this year they only have to come to Greenville.

The North Carolina Legislature meets on the 9th.

HIGGS & MUNFORD. Greenville, N. C.

NEW YEAR'S EVE.

BY K.

You say the old year is dying to night, And I hear the solemn old church bell toll And the moon is throwing its shadowy light

Over the hills where its soft echoes roll, Soft echoes that seem to linger and stay Among the tree tops so ghostly and grim To murmur awhile and then die away.

Farewell, farewell to the dying year, Farewell, farewell to its weal and its woe, To its June time sun and its wintry snow, With its pangs of joy and its clouds of pain.

Oh! friend, would you welcome it back again? Yes, the old year is dying; and soon will be past The hours it has borrowed from time, To add to eternity's treasury vast. One more jewel of precious sublime.

And the bell's deep voice still breaks on the night, As the notes sweep rapidly on, For the old year is plumbing, 'tis plumbing for light, And is going—'tis going—'tis gone, And still the wind whispers its evidence drear.

A last farewell to the bygone year, A last farewell to its weal and its woe, To its June time sun and its wintry snow, With its pangs of joy and its clouds of pain. The old year can never come back again. Greenville, N. C., Dec. 31, 1888.

Fire Alarms. Greenville had two fire alarms on Saturday before Christmas. The first was about four o'clock P. M. caused by fire on the roof of Dr. Williams' kitchen. It was put out without damage to the building.

About ten o'clock at night another alarm was given coming from the prisoners in jail. That building had caught on fire under the iron floor to one of the cells. There was not wood enough to burn much, but the iron floor had to be cut through and a hole knocked through the lower part of the brick wall from the outside before the fire could be reached and extinguished, which took three hours. Some members of the Fire Company as well as some citizens worked hard to get the fire out. We cannot estimate the damage to the building but it is not very great.

Married. On Tuesday the 15th of December, at the residence of Mr. Luby Harper, in Greene county, Dr. J. N. Bynum and Miss Maggie A. Shepherd, both of Pitt county, were married by Rev. I. Harding, of Kinston.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 19th, at Oak Grove church, in Swift Creek township, this county, Mr. L. B. Stokes led to the hymenal altar Miss Mattie Dixon, Rev. J. L. Winfield officiating.

At the residence of the bride's father near Pactolus, on Wednesday Dec. 19th, Mr. R. W. Smith, of Falkland, was married to Miss Mattie Little, of Pactolus, Rev. Geo. J. Dowell officiating.

To each of these couples the REFLECTOR extends hearty congratulations.

Capped.

A very nice little incident occurred at Hotel Macon on Christmas morning. While the regular boarders were at breakfast one of them arose from his seat and in behalf of the guests presented the Proprietor Mr. Moore, with a very gorgeously painted Jumping Jack. Of course it gave friend E. B. the "dry grins" but he accepted it very gracefully with few blushes. He did not know however, that this was only a prelude to something better that was to follow. Shortly after breakfast he was summoned to the room of one of the guests, and looked somewhat surprised to see all the others assembled there. Without giving him time to recover from the surprise and take in the situation, Mr. J. H. Tucker stepped forward and in a truly beautiful and flowery little speech presented him with a very handsome monstache cup and saucer with compliments of the guests, expressing their appreciation of the many courtesies and kindnesses shown them by the clever proprietor.

Mr. Moore replied in language that was indeed eloquent and appropriate, thanking the guests for this manifestation of appreciation, and assuring them that the future would call forth his every effort to entertain pleasantly and satisfactorily to the wishes of those who dwell under the roof of Hotel Macon.

Easy expectation, increased power of the lungs, and the enjoyment of rest are the rewards upon taking Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to all consumptives.

Cuts, burns, and all other wounds can be cured in a short time by the use of Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain. Price 25 cents.

has no equal for all purposes for which soap is used. It is the greatest known economizer of time, drudgery, and wear and tear in washing and cleaning.

MILLIONS of packages of Pearline are consumed annually, by economical, intelligent housekeepers—women who are quick to embrace modern saving ideas; or, not doing the work themselves, are bright enough to supply their servants with Pearline. They get the best possible results, and have fewer backaches and complaints. Their clothes and paint wear longer because they are not rubbed to pieces.

Beware of imitations which are being peddled from door to door. First quality goods do not require such desperate methods to sell them.

Pearline sells on its merits, and is never peddled.

Manufactured only by JAMES PVLE, New York.
