THE LEADERS IN

Our FALL and WINTER stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, etc., have arrived, and all friends and customers are invited to call and examine goods and prices.

Having purchased the entire mercantile business of John S. Congleton & Co., including notes, book accounts and all evidences of debt and merchandise, we solicit their former and increased patronage. Being able to make all purchases for cash, getting advantage of the discounts, we will be enabled to sell as cheaply as any one South of Nosfolk. We shall retain in our employ J. S. Congleton as general superintendent of the business, with his former partner Chas. Skinner as assist ant, who will always be glad to see and serve their old customers. A special branch of our business will be to furnish cash at reasonable rates to farmers to cultivate and harvest their crops, in sums of $100 to $2,000 with appoved security.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Greenville, N. C. To Break The Solid South.

Raleigh Chronicle.

A number of wealthy gentlemen, of Birmingham, Ala., made rich by Protection, have recently paid a visit to President-elect Harrison and requested him to appoint good men to office in the South and as-suring him of their belief in Protection. If he will encourage the Protective sentiment in the South, so they say, a new political party will be organized which will break the solid South. These millionaire-Democrats, so called, agree to be the organizers of a new political party. They offer to sell out them-This is not the first time that such propositions have been made. Every now and then some man who wants notoriety or protection of control of Public Instruction—Sidney M. Finger of Catawba.

Attorney General—Theodore F. Davidson, of Buncombe. selves and ask others to join them. notoriety or protection advertises that the South is ready to sell out . Chief for a few offices. Such men do not Wake. represent the sentiment of the people of the South, as they always find in election years.

When these Protec ion advocates in the South talk about starting a new party it reminds us of the boy Who was angry. Some of his playmates had given a party and had not invited him, and he was very mad about it. His mother desirons to appease his anger said, "Never mind, my boy, I will give a party and invite nobody but you." These millionaire Protectionists have organized a party and to it none will come except themselves. They will have about as lonesome a time as any set of men ever had.

As the Chronicle has often said before, the South is not solid for any outside influence or desire. It is solid from necessity. It is as much a social as a political question. Just so long as there is no change in our condition and environments, just as long will the South remain solid, all this talk about new parties will be merely bosh and nonsense. The sooner these millionaire Protectionists understand this, the better for them. If Mr. Harrrison knows anything he knows that these men do not represent the sentiment of the Southern people and that their new party will have no more following in the South than Belva Lock-

Small manufacturing and industrial enterprises of all kinds are springing up in all directions. The South is daily multiplying its production of various articles for which it has heretofore been dependent upon other sections. Glass factories in Alabama and Georgia demonstrate that the South can make her own glass. Car works at twenty or show that the South can produce cars and locomotives at a lower cost than they can be made in the North or West. Furniture and carriage factories all over the South are beginning to supply the home demand, while canneries a: e saving hundreds of thousands of dollars to the Southern people. No where else in all the world is the raw material for every line of manufacture so abund ant as in the South. Scarcely a week passes without some industry entirely new to this section being while canneries a: e saving hundreds entirely new to this section being to wealth, while enterprises in estblished lines of industry are dai-I enlarged or duplicated -- Messenger

A New Set and Few Lawyers.

Stanly Observer. The coming Legislature will have in it but 19 lawyers, 11 in the Sen-ate and 8 in the House. Farmers, on you will hang the responsibility of legislation for the next two years. It is contemplated by citizens of Morehead City to establish a college in or near that city on the cooperative plan. It is believed that a sufficient amount can be raised for the purpose, and that a good, practical education can be obtained at not exceeding sixty dollars per annum. with our new Governor's mansion at Raleigh. It is not yet completed, and will be costly to furnish. Then we pay our Governor such a poor salary that he could not afford to keep open house in it unless a very rich man. It has been suggested to put it to other uses, and let the Governor board around, like the old time schoolmaster. That would about fit the average idea of official time schoolmaster. NAI ONAL DEMOCRATIC

Jeffersonian Democracy, pure a simple, is good enough for the STAL Single handed among the metropolist press, it has stood by the men called by the great Democracy to redeem the goernment from twenty-five years of Republican wastefulness and corruption and despotism to the South. For the four years past it has been unswerved in its fidelity to the administration Grover Cleveland. It is for him new performer of Democratic honesty in or lieves that any tribute exacted from the people in excess of the demands of government economically administered is essentially oppressive and dishonest. The scheme fostered and championed the Republican party—of making the government a miser, wringing millions annually from the people and locking them up in vaults to serve no purpose but invite wastefulness and dishonests it regards as a monstrous crime against but invite wastefulness and dishonest it regards as a monstrous crime again the rights of American citizenship. #### To Break The Solid South.

Releigh Chronicle.

A number of wealthy gentlemen, of Birmingham, Ala., made rich by Protection, have recently paid a visit to President-elect Harrison and requested him to appoint good men to office in the South and as-suring him of their belief in Protection. If he will encourage the Protective sentiment in the South so they say, a new political party will be organized which will break the solid South. These millionaire-Democrats, so called, agree to be the organizers of a new political party. They offer to sell out them selves and ask others to join them. This is not the first time that such propositions have been made. Every now and then some man who wants notoriety or protection advertises that the South is ready to sell out for a few offices. Such men do not represent the sentiment of the people of the South, as they always find in election years. When these Protec ion advocates in the South talk about starting a new party it reminds us of the boy who was angry. Some of his playmates had given a party and had and he was and sirons to appease his anger said, "Never mind, my boy, I will give a party and invite nobody but you." These millionaire Protectionists have organized a party and to it none will come except themselves. They will have about as lonesome a time as any set of men ever had. As the Chronicle has often said before, the South is not solid for any Burke.

Zabulon B. Vance, of Mec ontside influence or desire. It is condition and environments, just as long will the South remain solid, all this talk about new parties will be merely bosh and nonsense. The sooner these millionaire Protectionists understand this, the better for them. If Mr. Harrrison knows anything he knows that these men do not represent the sentiment of the Southern people and that their new party will have no more following in the South than Belva Lockwood's.

Small manufacturing and industrial enterprises of all kinds are springing up in all directions. The South is daily multiplying its production of various articles for which it has heretofore been dependent upon other sections. Glass factories in Alabama and Georgia demonstrate that the South can make her own glass. Car works at twenty or twenty-five points and locomotive works in Richmond and Roanoke show that the South can produce cars and locomotives at a lower cost than they can be used in the North Public School Superintendent—Joseph than they can be made in the North Latham or West. Furniture and carriage factories all over the South are beginning to supply the home demand, while canneries a: e saving hundreds LADIES' BUFF SHOES ARE of thousands of dollars to the Southern people. Jeffersonian Democracy, pure simple, is good enough for the STA Single handed among the metropolit press, it has stood by the men called the great Democracy to redeem the government from twenty-five years of Republican wastefulness and corruptionand despotism to the South. For the four years past it has been unswered in its fidelity to the administration Grover Cleveland. It is for him not converted to the state of Grover Cleveland. It is for him not effect that the desired of the cleveland and Thurman—for for years more of Democratic honesty in on national affairs, and of continued nation al tranquility and presperity.

For people who like that sort of Democracy the STAR is the paper to read.

The STAR stands squarely on the National Democratic platform. It be lieves that any tribute exacted from the people in excess of the demands of government economically administered is essentially oppressive and dishonest.
The scheme fostered and championed the Republican party—of making to government a miser, wringing millione. government a miser, w ringing million annually from the people and locking them up in vaults to serve no purpose but invite wastefulness and dishonest it regards as a monstrous crime again the rights of American citizenship. Republican political jugglers may call the state of the State and the server of the state of the State and the server of the state of the state publican political jugglers may call "protective taxation;" the STAR's name for it is robbery.

Through and through the STAR is great newspaper. Its tone is pure an wholesome, its news service unexceptionable. Each issue presents an entome of what is best worth knowing the world's history of yesterday. It stories are told in good, quick, picturesque English, and mighty interesting reading they are.

The SUNDAY STAR is as good as the best class magazine, and prints about the same amount of matter. Besides the day's news it is rich in special descriptive articles, stories, snatches of current literature, reviews, art criticism, etc. Burdette's inimitable humor sparkle in its columns; Will Carleton's delight ful letters are of its choice offering Many of the best known men and women in literature and art are represented b
