WEDNESDAY, JAN. 16th 1889.

[ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT GREENVILLE, N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.]

Governor elect Fowle will be inaugurated to-morrow. No doubt the ceremonies will be grand and witnessed by thousands of people.

By the time this issue of the REFLECTOR is printed and mailed it will be known in Raleigh who is to be the next U. S. Senator from North Carolina to succeed Senator Ransom.

Just as it should be and as we like to see it. A resolution was adopted by the Senate branch of the General Assembly that in cases of contested seats the unsuccessful contestant shall not receive mileage and per diem.

Governor Scales beat the President. His message to the General Assembly of North Carolina made nine columns in the Raleigh News and Observer.

Every man in the county should preserve a copy of the REFLECTOR containing in full the financial report. It is well arranged so as to be understood, showing every cent received and paid out in the administration of county affairs.

People abroad are now watching the REFLECTOR to see what Greenville is doing. In view of the coming railroad and the early establishment of various industries, capitalists will look at the town with an eye to investments.

The Legislature met a week ago to-day and very easily effected its organization. There were several offices to be filled and almost as many aspirants as there were members to vote.

Latham, editor of the Washington Gazette, Reading Clerk; Mr. D. R. Julian, of Rowan, Door-keeper; Mr. G. L. Kilpatrick, of Lenoir, Assistant Door-keeper.

All these are put down as strictly good men, and the press and the public seem perfectly satisfied with the selections made.

Now if the candidates the REFLECTOR has been advocating for two other positions that are in the giving of the General Assembly, are treated as handsomely as was Latham we will have no further requests to make just now.

The Board of Education have ordered the Superintendent to be in Greenville for the purpose of conducting examinations of teachers only one Saturday in each month.

The Spring Term of Greenville Institute opens next Monday. We are glad to learn the prospect is very good. New pupils should be present the first day so as to be properly classified.

Another lot of negroes left here for the turpentine farms last week. Some of our exchanges say that over 1,000 of them have recently passed through Goldsboro from various towns.

One of the policemen recently clubbed a man, who was drinking, with a cart rod, making a very ugly wound on the head. From what we can learn in this case the officer went very much aside from his duty. In the first place he was drunk without his response and there was no excuse for beating a man as brutally as this one was.

Personal.

Mr. John Simms has moved his family into the house belonging to the James heirs, in Forboston.

Mrs. Darius White, of Hertford, who formerly lived here, is now visiting the family of Mr. J. White.

Mr. J. F. McKee, who for some time worked in the carriage shop of this town, has returned to Greenville and taken a position with Mr. O. Cuthrell.

Sheriff Tucker seems perfectly at home in the Court room. It is his first term to cry "silence in Court," but he does it as glibly and with as much voice as most men.

Our Senator Williams from Pitt, begins work immediately on the opening of the General Assembly. On the second day he introduced a bill to reduce the rate of interest.

Mr. W. H. Willoughby, a young man who left this county a few years since for Fayetteville, is visiting his old home near Greenville. He came in to see us Saturday and reports having made much progress in farming and turpentine business last year.

Two young men from this county are partners in a Commission House in Norfolk. They are Messrs. E. J. and C. C. Cobb. Both these young men are well known here and their experience in the cotton business enables them to serve their customers to advantage.

Another industry for Greenville is a large lumber mill now being put in position by Col Harry Skinner. The mill is located on the river just above town. One more sign of our prosperity.

To stop advertising is on the order of pulling down your sign before your place of business. The enterprising merchant keeps his name before the public year in and year out and he reaps the reward.

Well, we've got to sweat and take the heat next summer. The report comes that the winter is so mild and spring-like up in Maine, that the ice has all broken and floated out into the sea and is saved. May be we can get a little from up about the North pole.

Well they say some are mad and some ain't. Too late for that now. You know what the law is and if you had paid your taxes in time your property would not have been advertised. It is a good thing for the county that we have a Tax Collector who enforces back taxes to push the law.

The Goldsboro Headlight tells of a case of abandonment. A colored woman in that county went off with the turpentine hands for Georgia, and left four helpless little children with no one to care for them. A most inhuman, unnatural act. She ought to be severely punished.

The Henderson Gold Leaf says the Vance Guards have been excused from paying poll tax both by the town and county commissioners. We mention this as an item for those in authority in Pitt county. There might be such an order in behalf of the Greenville Guard, with a proviso that attendance upon drills should be required.

A word about tobacco. Farmers, don't forget to plant a small patch of tobacco this year, those who have lands adapted to its cultivation—and many have. If enough tobacco is raised this town will soon have a warehouse, and even if one is not built right away the railroad will make it much better for you to reach other markets. So try some tobacco.

It was about 5:30 a. m. and yet quite dark. We had sent a small nigger on ahead to make a fire in the office preparatory to getting to work. (Don't understand as to say we get at that early every morning.) As we neared the office we heard the sound of chopping and kindling wood. We entered the front door and closed it behind us with some noise when there went up a full grown yell from the composing room followed by sounds of fast retreating foot steps on the back door. The nigger had mistaken us for a burglar and "bunched" His yells brought Watchman Christianman in to ascertain the whereabouts of such an uproar.

CLOSING SALE.

THE REFLECTOR is indebted to Dr. Zeno Brown for a handsome pair of buck antlers. The buck, a tremendous fellow, was killed by Mr. Guss Mills while the Doctor was on a professional visit to his home—the animal being run up near the house by the dogs for Mr. Mills to run out a few yards and kill it. Dr. Brown has since procured the antlers and brought them to us. They are very much appreciated.

We believe in a general diversification of crops and advise the farmers in that direction. Already this year, 1889, there have been hundreds and hundreds of bushels of corn shipped here from the West at a cost of about 65 cents per bushel. Now suppose our farmers were raising all this corn. They could do so very profitably at $3 to $3.25 a barrel and a large yield per acre could be realized when manuring and cultivation are properly looked after.

Ayer's Almanac for 1889, published by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., comes to us in the shape of a neat presentation book of about five hundred pages, being made up of numerous editions calculated for the latitudes of many lands. A score or more of nationalities are addressed in their own languages in this volume, and could they all be heard clamoring together for Ayer's Sarsaparilla and Ayer's Pills what a Babie would break fourth

There is one of the biggest rats about the REFLECTOR sanctum that predominates in the east. Sometimes at night when all else has become quiet, said rat makes a noise of almost as great proportions as though a floor was being torn up. And he is quite choice in his diet, making an occasional meal on a brand new paper or on some grain of brother Glenn's best selected seed grain. Catch him! Why he walks right over a trap and don't ever put a foot in it.

The case that elicited most attention at this term of Court was the trial of Bud Venters and Halsey Branch for the murder Calvin Cox. It was not thought that the case would end before to-day therefore we had reserved no space to report it in this paper. On Saturday a jury of 12 men selected from a rooming of 150 men and empaneled. The examination of witnesses began Monday morning, the case was given to the jury at 7 p. m., who at 9:30 returned a verdict of not guilty. Next week the REFLECTOR will contain a full report of the trial with the evidence.

Feach-blow cheeks and rosy lips, deep blue eyes and curly auburn hair, are possessed by the lovely girl whose face adorns Hood's Sarsaparilla Calendar for 1889. She wears a dainty bonnet, and the head is "cut-out" so as to look realistic. Hood's Calendar is easily the best of its kind, and like the Sarsaparilla it represents, is a good thing to have in the house. The pad harmonizes with the exquisite array of color above, while the dates are easily read. Hood's Calendar may be obtained of your druggist or by sending 6 cents in stamps to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

From the crowds that attend nightly and the shouts that go up from them we would say that Dr. S. Clark with his cakapoo medicine camp is affording considerable amusement to the people. The entertainments begin with a song from the Indians in their own dialect followed by a dance. They come character solos and jokes by Mr. G. S. Clark in negro attire. Messrs. Toomy and Lucy then give feats at tumbling and boxing, the entertainments closing with a farce between them and the negro, the different parts being interspersed with speeches from Dr. Clark. One night last week they sent up a balloon and another has been promised for tonight.

THE REFLECTOR wants one hundred new subscribers.

At the Institute.

The young ladies of Greenville Institute assembled in the chapel, Sept. 25, 1888, for the purpose of organizing a literary society. The number enrolled was 44. The present officers are Misses Helen Hicks, President; Ida Ervin, Vice-President; Leola Cox, Secretary; Mary Cannon, Parliamentary Officer; Bessie Jarvis, Reporter. Officers elected quarterly. The name adopted was "Athenian," and the motto "To Be, Not to Seem." The Principal of the school set apart one of the double rooms of the Institute in which the regular meetings of the society should be held every Wednesday afternoon. Hereafter it is to be known as the "Athenian Hall." LUCY COX, SECRETARY.

Whereas the people of Greenville having liberally patronized our festival on the night, Jan. 6, and whereas Col. Harry Skinner having allowed us the use of his store and chairs, and the Follman band having so kindly aided us in our work by their excellent music, therefore be it Resolved 1. That the Athenian Society in acknowledgement of the above considerations, tender their sincere thanks to the people of Greenville, to Col. Harry Skinner, and to the Follman band.

Resolved 2. That this Society thank the members of the Reform Club for their liberal donation of books, and all others who are aiding Greenville Institute in any way to establish a library.
