Co: cord Times. In the Superior court of Iredell county last Saturday a verdict was rendered giving G. W. Jones, a citizen of Catawba county, judgment town of Statesville.

The circumstances of the case were as follows:

Soon after the election of Grover Cleveland in 1884, the Democrats had a big torchlight procession, speaking and general jolification, A great many Catawba people were there, among them the plaintiff Jones. In walking along one of the business streets in the dark he fell into an open cellar and dislocated bis hip. The next year he brought suit against the town for $5,000 damages. The case has been continued from one court to arother and only came to trial last week. The town gave notice of an appeal.
