From our regular correspondent. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 27, '89. President Harrison returned to the White House to-day for the season, and once more that historic residence becomes the Mecca towards which all office-seekers wend their way.

THOROUGHLY DEMOCRATIC, BUT will not hesitate to criticize Democratic and measures that are not consistent with the true principles of the party.

[ENTERED AT THE POST OFFICE AT GREENVILLE, N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MAIL MATTER.]

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9th, 1889.

The Salisbury Herald, J. R.
Whitchard's paper, has just celebrated its fifth birthday. Since putting in a new power press a few weeks since the Herald is making things hum.

Poor Wilson! We certainly sympathize with the good people of the town and county. Confessing Wamaker has appointed a negro named Sam Vick as postmaster of that town. It is a shame, to say the least of it, and John will live to reap his reward for such an outrage upon decent people.

Every tax payer this year will pay 3 cents on the $100 valuation for the benefit of the pension fund for disabled Confederate soldiers, their widows and orphans. Each poll tax will be increased 9 cents for the same purpose. There is not a man in North Carolina but who should be willing and glad to pay this tax.

Several of our exchanges are publishing clubbing arrangements with a sheet called the American Farmer and giving that paper pretty loud advertising. We venture that by the time they are through with the experiment they are ready to say they never tried anything more unsatisfactory. The REFLEC-TOR is sufficiently amused along that line.

The proposed colonizing of Geronimo's band of Indians in the extreme mountainous section of North Carolina has caused no little comment of late. Secretary of War Proctor wrote Governor Fowle about the matter and the latter in his reply opposed such a step. He said he thought such an arrangement would be the cause of much dissatisfaction in the State. The Governor is commended in his course.

What's the matter with Greeley?
Some may say he's all right, but he ain't. Here he has gone and turned a cold wave down on us without a bit of warning, and it caught us with our summer garb on, no stove up an no coal in the bin. Monday morning found lots of people rushing around with their bodies in something like a half moon shape and both hands stuck in their pockets.

We see an item like this going around in some of the papers: "An artesian well, near Wharton, Tex., struck water at 215 feet. The flow was strong, and the water makes every body drunk that drinks it." If you want to see the "coons" emigrate just spread this thing around. The "milk and honey" land can't stir up half the exodus fever as can a substitute for whiskey that can be had free as water.

The Concord Times tells us that when the circus was at Reidsville an attaché stole a dog and started off with it. The owner pursued and recovered the dog. We have not been pining for a circus to come within our borders, as we believe them to be heavy drains upon the country without the slightest good ever coming out of them, but we would be willing to try just one down here on a guarantee that it would steal and carry off nine-tenths of the dogs in Pitt county.

We heard a business man remark the other day that Pitt county had to have an Agricultural and Industrial Fair next year. He said Greenville had the best central location of any town in this section of the State, and a fair here would draw a large exhibit and immen-surable spectators from adjoining counties. He has said just what can be done, provided there is a display of enterprise on the part of those who should be vastly interested in it. No argument should be needed to convince the business community the benefits that would arise from it. A fair conducted as it ought to be, free from every species of gambling whatever, would prove beneficial to farmer, merchant, manufacturer and all. But this one man who mentioned it cannot have a fair by himself. What say the others?

The trial of ex-Priest Boyle before the Superior Court of Wake county, came to an end on Saturday night last. The REFLECTOR sent out a small extra early Monday morning giving an account of the closing of the trial. While this account was brief it covered the ground very well, there being no special information gained from reading the accounts of the testimony, and so forth, that have come in the papers since our telegraphic information was received.
Therefore we reproduce below what appeared on the extra Monday morning.

BOYLE CONVICTED.
Special to the REFLECTOR.
The following telegram was received at the REFLECTOR office Sunday, October 6th:
RALEIGH, N. C.—Boyle convicted. He is sentenced to be hanged the 29th of November next. S.

Other telegrams received later went to the effect that the jury was out only three and a quarter hours in making up their verdict, that after it was rendered Boyle made an address to the Court in which he denounced the prosecuting attorneys with bitter invective and created the greatest sensation ever known in a court room in the State. His counsel asked for a new trial on the ground that the verdict was contrary to the Judge's charge, and on account of exceptions filed that the Judge did not charge the jury specially with regard to the cries made by the girl.
Judge Armfield declined to set aside the verdict and grant a new trial, saying such a cause would not be proper unless the verdict was palpably contrary to the weight of evidence. After sentence was passed upon Boyle his counsel arose and appealed to the Supreme Court, which appeal was granted.

While in our office the other night Mr. Frank Powell, editor of the Tarboro Southerner, told us there had been 2,100 errors reported against Mr. Bryan, the postal clerk on the A. & R. road, during two months. Why the Government will persist in keeping such incompetent men in the service, we are unable to see. It is not only so with the clerk on the A. & R. road, but the majority of the appointments in this State are little or no better. It is a shame to the present administration that such an inefficient mail service is being furnished.

We often see some mighty good things in the Durham Sun. Here is a specimen picked out of a late copy, that while brief expresses volumes in the words. It says "Millions of children are now resembled in the school rooms of the country. What they are taught there and how cared for has greatly to do with the future prosperity of the nation." Wise words they are, and every tutor in this broad land should be impressed with the responsibility of instructing aright.

The four new States, Washington, Montana, North and South Dakota, held elections last week and all went Republican by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 18,000. It slightly strengthens the Republican majority in the next Congress.

The New York Base Ball Club has won the championship of the American League in the series of games this season.

Rountree.
Splinters Picked Up Here and There.

Mr. Claudius Jackson has lost two horses in the last two weeks.
The misfortunes of a good man always arouse the sympathies of his neighbors.

Miss Kate Worthington's school, Tucker's school house, closed last Friday. The young folks had a jollification at night.

Some writer says that love is a species of insanity. If this be true, we have fearful apprehension as to the fate of several young bloods hereabouts.

Rountree is a very diminutive place, but some consultation is found in the fact that it is as large as any other place of the same size.

The following original and refreshing couplet was found in a young ladies album:
I love to see the green grass grow, For when it grows, my old horse knows it.
I love to see my old horse go,
For when he goes, he goes it.

A wedding in low life is to be celebrated here in a few days. Miss Ann Brown and "Uacle Jimmy Patrick" are the contracting parties. Both descendants of Ham.
No cards. They will take bridal jour to Swift Creek.
Mr. Patrick Miss Brown won and won. Two hearts will soon beat in unison.
We wish them all the joys this vain world can bring.
And a gay little Patrick every spring.
Masters Jolinie Pierce and Eugene Cannon are on the sick list.
Dr. E. H. Hornaday is their attending physician. We wish to see them out again soon.
There was preaching at Little Creek last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Bilbo, editor of the Free Will Baptist, published at Snow Hill and pastor of that church, preached his farewell sermon from the text, "Modesty is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come."

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance.

Messrs. Hooton and Spiers have their store crammed and jammed full of new goods, and are doing a liberal trade. They are strict, energetic business men and deserve to succeed. X.

Bethel Items.
October 7th, 1889.

There was a murder committed a few miles down the railroad last Monday. Two negroes had a fuss and one killed the other in self-defense.

Miss Dora James, from near this place, left last Monday to attend school in Tarboro.

Mr. Fred Latham, from near Washington, arrived here yesterday and started to school to Prof. Mc-Whorter to day.

We are having some nice weather now and the farmers are making good use of it housing their crops.

Several of the Bethel people attended the association yesterday, they all came back wet and mddy.

Business is improving rapidly and the merchants are wearing a pleasant smile. Bon.

Weather Crop Bulletin.
For the Week Ending October 4th, 1889.

CENTRAL OFFICE, Raleigh, N. C.
The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Crop Bulletin issued by the N. C. Experiment Station and State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Signal Service, show that, during the week ending Friday, October 4th, there was a deficiency of rain-fall, an average temperature and very much sunshine. No rain fell excepting light showers on September 30th, and the sky has been nearly cloudless the entire week. Light frosts occurred again in the early part of the week but caused no damage.
The nights have been cool with heavy dews while during the day the temperature has been normal.
The large percentage of sunshine has caused the soils in the cotton fields to open more rapidly, except on very large plants. Farmers are now busy gathering the staple, and the season has been very favorable for this important work. No complaint has reached the central office of damage done by the cotton caterpillars; dry weather seems somewhat to check their spreading. The corn crop is probably ripe enough to gather now in places. The prospects seem to be for continued fine weather and farmers are in good spirits.

EASTERN DISTRICT.—Few reports have been received. The weather has been slightly warmer than in other districts, with little rain and plenty of sunshine.

CENTRAL DISTRICT.—Weather very fine—veritable Indian summer.
Cotton picking progressing rapidly.
Corn should be nearly ripe enough to gather.

WESTERN DISTRICT.—Light frost early in the week caused no damage. Temperature slightly lower than in other districts.

Washington Letter.
From our regular correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4, '89

The Cabinet meeting held to-day was a little strong Pension affair and raised a small cyclone, and before that had passed away the velocity on the bench of the Supreme Court brought about a hurricane.
At least two members are bitterly opposed to the appointment of Attorney General Miller, which Pres.
Harrison seems determined upon.
It must have been a rather embarrassing position for Mr. Miller, who was present.

President Harrison is still wrestling with the problem of trying to find a man for Pension Commissioner who can satisfy the applicants for pensions without creating a financial deficiency. The thing is impossible, but of course it's none of our business, if the administration wants to wear itself out in that way let it go ahead. The latest man named as likely to have an opportunity of declining to occupy Corporal Tanner's shoes is ex-Gov.
Hartman, of Pennsylvania. Two men stand ready to occupy the position, Brown, of Ohio, and Campbell, of Kansas, but their readiness makes President Harrison shy of them.

Mr. Blaine is at last President, not of the United States, but of the "Three Americas" Congress. He was elected to the position Wednesday when the Congress met and organized. Ex-Senator Henderson, of Missouri, was elected President pro tempore. Mr. Blaine's speech of welcome to the members of the Congress was a model of its kind, and is highly praised here by members of both parties. Immediately after adjourning to November 15, the Congress will meet on the President with whom the members took leave. Thursday morning they left on a special train for a tour of the North East and West. They are certain to be impressed by what they will see and will return to Washington prepared to discuss more intelligently the matters brought before them. It is thought at the State department that the Congress will sit about three months.

Democrats here express considerable disappointment over the result of the elections in the new States.
They had been to expect some thing different. Secretary Tracy's difficulty in getting a Naval officer to command the Kearsage, which started from New York Tuesday for Hayti with Fred Douglass, our minister to that country as a passenger, has been the subject of a great deal of joking around Washington this week. As soon as it was known that the commander's cabin had to be given up to Fred, nobody who knows the personal habits of that individual blamed the Naval officers for getting out of the dilemma in any way possible. Secretary Tracy got very mad, but all the same I'll bet a big red apple Tracy would not entertain Douglass five or six days at his private residences for a year's salary. Douglass is a very brainy man, but he is a negro for all that, and no white man who respects himself will care to be closely associated with him in a social war. I am inclined to believe with the Kentuckian that "there's as much in the blood of people as of horses."

Ex-Representative Harris, of Virginia, who has just made a trip through that State, says the Democrats will have a walk over, and that Mahone will never again be heard from politically. I have in good authority that several members of the administration have gone on all hope of Mahone's election.

Senators Hampton, of South Carolina, and Harris, of Tennessee, are very wide apart in their ideas of a correct solution of the race problem. Senator Hampton has for a long time advocated the purchase of land in Mexico, or of an island, and the colonization thereon of the negroes of the Southern States. Senator Harris being asked what he thought of such a scheme replied: "I do not consider it practical at all. The negro does not want to be colonized and if the devil only had those who are trying to make practical capital out of him there would be no trouble to speak of." Senator Harris is one of the large number who believe that the business of Congress has grown to such dimensions that continuous sessions ought to be held Representative Breckenridge, of Arkansas, thinks all the republican talk about the rules of the House intended to work the courage of the weakened republicans up to the point of seating all eighteen of the republican contestants.

Charges have been filed at the department of State against Reed Lewis, of Pennsylvania, consul agent at Morocco. He is accused of having attempted to extort a large sum of money from a vice consul as the price of his retention in office. Mr.
Lewis is one of President Harrison's appointments.

The Knight Templars are beginning to arrive for the Conclave.
They will remain here ten days.

SAVANNAH, GA., July 18th, 1886.
Dear Friend: Dr. D. S. Harmon has desired an answer to a question: On February 23rd, 1885, (before you left Atlanta for California), I brought my wife to your office, (I presume you will remember the case.) You examined her eyes and said no medicine would do her any good, that you would make her a Glass to wear always, and that the pain would be stopped. My wife followed you to your institution, and the pain was immediately stopped.
I was in Atlanta 4th of July of this year, and two of your best friends (M. D.'s) got into an argument in regard to my wife's case. One said that Dr. Harmon stopped the pain by the color of the glasses. What is your opinion: was it the color or number of the glass that stopped the pain? Write immediately.

Mr. R. Greene, Jr., has moved into one of Col. Skinner's houses on Cotanche street.

Mr. J. B. Moore has moved his family into the Morrill house on Plank Road street.

Mrs. Sarah Proctor, who lives two miles from town, returned home last week from a visit to Virginia.

Mr. Rufus Fleming, of Pactois came in on the train last night, returning home from the North.

Hon. T. J. Jarvis, of this town, will deliver an address at the Edenton Agricultural Fair on the 22nd.

The brokerage firm of Murphy & Redding has dissolved and Mr. Murphy has moved back to Kinston.

Rev. G. L. Finch leaves this morning to attend the meeting of the Tar River Association at Gardner's in Warren county.

Mrs. S. M. Schultz and little child are visiting her parents in Rocky Mount. Mr. Schultz went up Saturday and remained until Monday.

Mrs. L. V. Morrill and children of Marlboro, have been spending the past week with the family of Dr. W. M. B. Brown, father of Mrs. Morrill.

We failed to mention last week that Mr. S. T. Hooker accompanied Deputy Sheriff King as a special deputy in taking the prisoners to Raleigh.

We were glad to have a call yesterday from Mr. G. P. Hart, an attorney of Rocky Mount. He used to be a newspaper man and doesn't forget the brethren.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry spent a few days of last week at LaGrange visiting her son, Master Jimmie, who is a cadet at Davis' School. She returned Saturday evening.

We were glad to shake hands with Capt. Bill Parvin, the other day. It sounds like old times to hear the chime of his steamer, the Bouquet, on the Tar again. He is a clever captain.

Mr. W. G. Grimes and Miss Norma Waldo, both of Hamilton, will be married on the 16th. Miss Waldo was a teacher in Greenville Institute one session and has many friends here.

Mr. Frank Powell, editor of the Tarboro Southerner and Secretary of the Edgecombe Fair, called on us last Wednesday evening. He is visiting several of the Eastern towns advertising the fair.

Mr. Lid Alley, of Wilson, has been detailed as postal clerk on the Scotland Neck & Greenville road. He is a very competent man and the Greenville people can expect a better mail service so long as he is on that route.

Rev. J. N. H. Summerell is a beautiful speaker. His sermon Sunday night showing how God's goodness and mercy comes at the time to meet every requirement of the christian was truly inspiring and comforting.

Senator W. R. Williams, of Falkland, will address the farmers at Black Jack, Pitt county, on the 26th inst., and at Vanceboro, Craven county, on the 28th. You farmers in those sections, if you want to hear something good turn out to hear him.

Dr. Harman, the optician whom our people have found to be a clever gentleman and honest in every particular has yielded to the many requests made that he not leave Greenville yet and will remain a few days longer. See him before it is too late, if you need his services.

Everything you do to advance your county paper stimulates the paper to proportionate better action.

To-morrow Senator W. R. Williams, of this county, will deliver an address at Northampton county fair.

For $4.10 you can get a round trip from Greenville to Raleigh and one admission to the State fair, next week.

Capt. Williams has received an invitation to attend the Fayetteville Centennial with his company. We hope the Guard can attend, it would be a pleasant trip for them.

A gentleman walked up to us yesterday and said us this text in your paper: "Ye cannot serve God and mammon." The only explanation he gave for the use of his text was to remark: "There is too much pretended religion in this community."

Greenville sent a good crowd to the Kehukee Association at Conoho Sunday. The excursion train left here with about one hundred on board and about fifty more were picked up on the way. The crowd present on Sunday was estimated to be well up in the thousands.

Mr. J. P. Bowie, of Contentnea, one of the most practical farmers in the county, was in town yesterday. He told us there was a frog on his place that every time it croaked seemed to say "Go pay the printer." We wish a few hundred people in Pitt county had such a frog on their premises.

The mails are now coming in on the train, and after they get regaled the change will prove a great convenience to our people. As not much more of our mail will pass through the hands of the present postal clerk on the Albemarle & Raleigh road, we expect there will not be so much of it marked "mis-sent."

We learn from the Democrat that Scotland Neck is pushing right ahead for a new hotel. A stock company has been organized and work will commence ere long. Here is an example for Greenville. A good hotel is of vital importance to a town and neither of those in Greenville meets the requirements.

Old Coins.

In his collection we noticed 5 franc pieces dated 1811, Spanish coins 1790, Mexican dollars 1837 American quarters 1834, dimes 1839 half dimes 1835, half dollars 1803, 1807, 1811, 1812 and 1817. He also has some Centese coins that are only on seventy-second of a cent in value, and a small copper coin about the size of a one cent piece, upon one side of which is "Army and Navy" and upon the other "The Federal Union, it must and shall be preserved." If any of our readers have old coins which they would like to dispose of they can do so by calling at M. R. Lang's.

Stamps. The mails now coming in at night and departing early in the morning will cause a demand for postage stamps at an hour when none can be obtained at the postoffice, as the Postmaster tells us he cannot sell them after night. To meet this demand and for the convenience of the people, a stamp counter will be established at the REFLECTOR and Telegraph office where stamps can be procured every night. To make this remunerative as soon as arrangements can be made a cigar stand, stationary and literature will be added, with the hope that the sales arising from these will compensate for the trouble of keeping the stamp counter. The sale of the stamps will begin to-morrow (Thursday) night and will be in charge of Clarence Whitchard.

Tarboro Fair. Last week this town was billed for the Tarboro Fair, which occurs in Rannymede Park, near that place, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, November 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th. This eighth annual exhibition, which is under new management and control, promises to be more successful and more interesting than any ever held by the Association. These fairs at Tarboro have always drawn large numbers of people from Greenville and Pitt county, some of our people have competed for and won premiums upon their exhibits, and there is no reason why the same cannot be done this year. The premium list sent out shows the offers for the best exhibits to be indeed large. There is scarcely anything that can be exhibited but what a premium is offered therefor. All products of the farm, garden and dairy are mentioned in the premium list, as well as stock, poultry, household articles, fancy work, art, machinery, &c. Of course these liberal offers of premiums will cause the exhibits to be large so those who attend will find plenty of interest to look upon. There will be much to amuse and interest the visitors to this Fair at Tarboro. The railroad will give special rates so that it will cost but little to attend. Remember the date.

Theatrical. The theatrical season was opened in Greenville on last Friday night by the Carrie Stanley Dramatic Company in Monte Cristo. They were greeted by a small audience when it should have been large on the opening night. Miss Stanley assumed the role of "Count Monte Cristo," a character that is a difficult one and which was handled by her to the entire satisfaction of all. Mr. Chas. B. Burns ably supported her, as nothing else could be expected from one so competent. On Monday night the new American comedy "Flossy, the Mad Cap," a story of the Johnstown flood, was presented and the largest house of the engagement greeted them. Miss Stanley assuming the character of "Flossy Standford," a Johnstown girl, jolly, full of fun, "up to snuff" in every instance, but would stand by her dad every time, held the audience the play through, and was all that could be expected. Mr. Burns as "Job Standford," Flossie's father, was as we all expected, fine. Miss M. Gloveta Eller, as "May Marsden," acted her role to the gratification of all. Mr. Ross Williams, as "Arnold Wentworth" and did the character full justice. Mr. Chas. Hayne, as "Shatters" extracted the dilapidated linen from the shabbyry, in fact he could "shatter" the starch out of a shirt and burst off the buttons. Every time he put in his appearance he was greeted with an uproar. "Where'd you get that meat?" "As an old fire-fighter, I must speak." The stage setting of the bursting of the dam at Johnstown was grand. The company go from here to Washington.

New Advertisements. J. P. Quinley, Administrator of Joseph Latham, advertises a tract of land for sale.

Osborne C. Nobles, Administrator of Wm. H. Smith, has a notice to creditors in this paper.

W. H. Allen, grocer, comes before the people in an advertisement today. He invites your attention to his nice line of goods, which, while he does not boast that they are better or cheaper than he ever been sold before, he claims to be just as good and just as cheap as any other dealer can offer you. Call on him.

Closer Communication. "The REFLECTOR" wants to see the closest relations—both business and social—exist between the people of Greenville and Scotland Neck. The railroad now brings us very close together, and we can work to the mutual interest of each other. What says our brother of the Democrat?—REFLECTOR.

The Democrat says the same. We desire to see much of the Greenville people and hope to let them see much of us. Yes, we ought to have business relations—in fact we see no reason why these relations may not exist. We hope to see North Carolina pride soon so well wrought up that, all things else being equal, our merchants will buy from each other.—S. N. Democrat.

The Revival. Rev. Thos. H. Leich, Evangelist, accompanied by Mr. Fred Marshall as musical leader arrived in Greenville Saturday and began a series of meetings in the Methodist church on Sunday. He is a powerful speaker and says what he has to say in a manner that goes straight to the people. He speaks plainly, un-mummed congregations, the house being filled to its utmost at the night services and the attendance being unusually large at the day service. Such large congregations show the deep interest that is being manifested, and we hope the labors of the Evangelist will be accompanied by such Divine power and such an outpouring of the Holy Spirit as shall result in the conversion of many souls in this community. Mr. Marshall is a charming singer, has a sweet tender voice, and his solos frequently bring tears to the eyes of his hearers. Services are held twice each day, at eleven o'clock in the morning and half past seven in the evening.

Old Coins.

Mr. Alex Heilbroner has quite an interesting collection of old coins, and the other day showed us a quantity of them he had just purchased. In his collection we noticed 5 franc pieces dated 1811, Spanish coins 1790, Mexican dollars 1837 American quarters 1834, dimes 1839 half dimes 1835, half dollars 1803, 1807, 1811, 1812 and 1817. Every time he put in his appearance he was greeted with an uproar. "Where'd you get that meat?" "As an old fire-fighter, I must speak." The stage setting of the bursting of the dam at Johnstown was grand. The company go from here to Washington.

New Advertisements. J. P. Quinley, Administrator of Joseph Latham, advertises a tract of land for sale.

Osborne C. Nobles, Administrator of Wm. H. Smith, has a notice to creditors in this paper.

W. H. Allen, grocer, comes before the people in an advertisement today. He invites your attention to his nice line of goods, which, while he does not boast that they are better or cheaper than he ever been sold before, he claims to be just as good and just as cheap as any other dealer can offer you. Call on him.

Closer Communication. "The REFLECTOR" wants to see the closest relations—both business and social—exist between the people of Greenville and Scotland Neck. The railroad now brings us very close together, and we can work to the mutual interest of each other. What says our brother of the Democrat?—REFLECTOR.

The Democrat says the same. We desire to see much of the Greenville people and hope to let them see much of us. Yes, we ought to have business relations—in fact we see no reason why these relations may not exist. We hope to see North Carolina pride soon so well wrought up that, all things else being equal, our merchants will buy from each other.—S. N. Democrat.

The Revival. Rev. Thos. H. Leich, Evangelist, accompanied by Mr. Fred Marshall as musical leader arrived in Greenville Saturday and began a series of meetings in the Methodist church on Sunday. He is a powerful speaker and says what he has to say in a manner that goes straight to the people. He speaks plainly, un-mummed congregations, the house being filled to its utmost at the night services and the attendance being unusually large at the day service. Such large congregations show the deep interest that is being manifested, and we hope the labors of the Evangelist will be accompanied by such Divine power and such an outpouring of the Holy Spirit as shall result in the conversion of many souls in this community. Mr. Marshall is a charming singer, has a sweet tender voice, and his solos frequently bring tears to the eyes of his hearers. Services are held twice each day, at eleven o'clock in the morning and half past seven in the evening.

PEARLINE

Is the latest and greatest improvement in the way of soap. It combines miraculous dirt-removing, time and labor-saving qualities with perfect harmlessness; the finest and coarsest articles are alike washed more easily and better than with any other soap or compound. Pearl-line does away with the most of the rubbing, hence it saves the most of the wear. It is the continuous rubbing on a board which wears out your clothes, rubs off the buttons and strings—not so much the wearing. It cleans paint, china, windows, glassware and carpets without taking up. Over one million families are now using Pearl-line. Its popularity is unparalleled.

Beware of cheap imitations which claim to be Pearl-line, or "the same as Pearl-line." IT'S FALSE—they are not, and besides are dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled, but they are all good grocers. Manufactured only by JAMES FYLER, New York.

A Big Wedding

A letter has been received from Mr. M. Bateman, of Mackey's Ferry this State informing the State Secretary of the Farmers' Alliance that he has decided to be married on Farmers' Alliance day at the State Fair here next month. Bateman is a member of the Alliance, and had some days ago made arrangements to be married on the 1st of October, dressed in garments made of cotton-bagging. He took that way of showing his destination of the Jute Bagging Trust. His wedding is public here in his snowy white garments will attract a great crowd, and will be very novel. The Alliance people take particular interest in it, and Bateman will get all sorts of presents. They will endeavor to get the Governor to perform the marriage ceremony, assisted by the Chaplain of the State Alliance.

There will be ten groomsmen, who will be chosen out of the 2,700 members of the Wake county Alliance. They will also be attired in clothing made of cotton bagging. The bride will be dressed in North Carolina plaids, as will also be her ten bridesmaids. It is safe to say that the ceremony, which is to be performed at the Fair grounds, either at the grand stand or at a special stand will be a grand attraction and deeply interest not only the Alliance people but the general public.
