THE

EASTERN REFLECTOR.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

There are ninety and nine that lived to In want and hunger and cold ; That one may revel in luxury, A: d wrapped in his silken fold ; The ninety and nine in their hovels

The one in his palace with riches rare. They toil in the fields, the ninety and nine, For the fruits of our mother earth; They dig and delve in the dusky mine. And bring its rich treasures forth; But the wealth released by their steady

To the hands of the one forever flows By the sweat of their brows the desert

And the forests before them falls; Their labor has builded humble homes, And cities with lofty halls; Dut the one owns cities and homes

While the ninety and nine have empty

But the night so dreary, so dark, so long At last shall the morning bring. And over the land the Victor's song Of the ninety and nine shall ring, And echo afar from zone to zone Rejoice, for Labor shall have its own -Toiler.
