WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 17th, 1893

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Last week we requested every reader of the REFLECTOR to look out this week and see if a cross mark appeared on the margin of their paper. Now we hope every one will look for the mark, and if it is found on your paper please take it as a special request to you to come at once and pay what is due us. There are now very few names on our books who do not owe for at least this year, and a large number owe for a much longer time. We need the money and only ask for what you owe us, which we have the right to do and expect payment.

We have been very lenient to some who read the REFLECTOR, and in not a few instances, be it said to their shame, they have shown their appreciation of the indulgence given them by proving false to every promise made.

This class will find two cross marks on their paper, and they are hereby notified that unless their accounts are paid by the first of January their paper will be discontinued and their name published. We intended to do this a year ago, but allowed ourselves to be begged off by a few on promise to pay soon, so we decided to treat all alike and give them another trial. But this time we mean business, and the week before January Court will publish the name of every subscriber who owes for two years or more.

Now we want every man who owes the REFLECTOR to come at once to see us, whether he can pay or not. If any are not able to pay we hope they will have honesty enough to come to see us in person and tell us so, and we will adjust the matter in accordance with their ability. Do not pass this notice unheeded.

The Baptist State Convention recently held at Henderson had a large attendance. Col. L. L. Polk was elected president; Rev. G.

W. Sanderlin, J. C. Scarborough,

Esq., and Rev. W. L. Wright, vice presidents; N. B. Broughton and Rev. G. W. Greene, secretaries;

A notable event has come and gone in North Carolina. The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution by the State of North Carolina, at Fayetteville last week was an occasion long to be remembered. The writer was present during part of the celebration, and does not remember to have seen so many people brought together in one place for one purpose. The people were there in thousands, all eager, all interested, the number being estimated at near 25,000. The principal streets of the historic old town were profusely decorated with bunting and colors presenting a gay scene with flags waving from every available point. The opening day of the Centennial, Wednesday, was ushered in with the booming of cannon. Before noon Gov. Fowle arrived and was met at the depot by the reception committee chief marshal J. S. Carr and his assistant, the military and thousands of civilians. A procession headed by the U. S. Marine Band formed and marched to the grand stand where the exercises began. The mayor of Fayetteville was presented who introduced Gov. Fowle, the latter making a most appropriate speech.

After the address the Governor held a reception at Hotel LaFayette where hundreds of people went to shake his hand. In the evening the Marine Band gave a concert at City Hall. No music was ever heard in North Carolina equal to that furnished by this band. Their music was varied and rendered with great skill, and the vast concourse of people was enthusiastic when they played,

"Dixie," which was played several times during the centennial, brought cheer after cheer from the multitude. This band was one of the great attractions of the occasion. The Durham Band also came in for a generous share of appreciation. We suppose its music can be surpassed by no organization within our State. A concert given by them at the hotel was very fine. Wednesday night the centennial ball was held, more than a thousand people being present.

Thursday was looked forward to as the big day of the Centennial, but when the sunrise guns awake people only to find that a heavy rain was falling, disappointment was great. It was evident from Washington Letter.

From our regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 22, 1893.

President Harrison now has an opportunity to show how sincere he was when he endorsed the civil service law. In his hands has been placed a report of the civil service commission showing the violation of the law by Republican officials by the collecting of money for the McMahon campaign fund. The Commissioners say that their report is accompanied by evidence which leaves no doubt of the guilt of the parties, and that whether they shall be punished or not lies entirely with the President. It is intimated that at least two of the Commissioners will resign if the President refuses to order the prosecution of the guilty parties. What the result will be is hard to say. But I don't see why President Harrison should hesitate a minute. Laws, whether good or bad, are made to be enforced.

The new Commissioner of Pensions is up to snuff when it comes to getting around the Civil Service law.

Here's a specimen case: the first or second day the commissioner was in office he promoted a watchman to be Superintendent of the Pen-

Cotton 94. Perfectly Grand, Boss Biscuit (and oysters) at the Old Brick Store. Moonlight. Seed Rye and Seed Wheat for sale. E. C. GLENN. Farmers are sowing wheat. 1,000 Peanut and Rice Bags for sale, and 10,000 Bushels Rice wanted by E. C. Glenn.

A popular time for marriages. Highest cash prices paid for Chickens and Eggs at H. Morris & Bros. To-morrow is Thanksgiving Day. Highest cash price paid for cotton Seed by E. C. Glenn. 10,000 bushels wanted.

Let us all give thanks to-morrow. One dollar buys a Solid Leather Ladies Shoe at J. B. Cherry & Co's. Our turkey has turned up missing $7.00 buys a Double Barrel Shot at J. B. Cherry & Co's. It is just four weeks to Christmas. Highest cash price paid for Fur by J. J. Cherry, Jr.

Capud is abroad in this section. You can get postage stamps, mail your letters and buy cigars at the Telegraph office. The river is full, but slightly overflowing. Try a Barrel of Sweet Home Flour Best in town at J. B. Cherry & Co's. The last day of November is near at hand.

One dollar buys a Whole Stock Maus Shoe at J. B. Cherry & Co's Good Bargains. The gobbler gobbles his last gobble today. Nice line of cigars at the Telegraph office. Next Sunday is the first day of December. I have two mules, one colt, a pony and some farming implements all of which I want to sell for cash. JAMES BROWN.

The price of eggs will advance as Christmas draws on. Currents, citron, raisons, nuts, candy, pulverized sugar at the Old Brick Store. The Literary Society meets at the Institute Friday evening. Pay up! Come and pay me what you owe me or you will find your claims in the hands of an officer. C. D. BOUTREE.

Its the time of year now every body leaves the door open as they pass out. All goods low down for the Spot Cash at J. B. Cherry & Co's. Friend Lang will have a handsome store in his new quarters across the street. The finest loaf of bread I ever ate was made of Point Lace Flour, at the Old Brick Store.

It takes something like the predictions of the Arizona Kicker to get this weather right. H. Morris & Bros. have the cheap and best shoes in town. To-day the turkey's head falls beneath the axe and to-morrow he adorns the dinner table. For a nice suit of Clothing go to H. MORRIS & BROS.

It will soon be too late to advertise Xmas goods. Better strike while the iron is hot. Don't fail to call on H. Morris & Bros. for Clothing, Shoes, Hats and all dry goods. N. Carolina Plaid (Homespun) 50 per yard, at J. B. Cherry & Co's. The Prettiest Line of Ladies Jewelry in town at MOSES HEILBRONER'S, the Jeweler. There was the largest crowd in town on Saturday we have seen here in several weeks. Good house and lot in town and in good neighborhood for sale, apply at this office.

THE MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION. To the people of Greenville: Whereas the President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina following the dictates of conscience and in obedience to the law of the land have appointed and set apart Thursday, Nov. 28th, as a day of special Thanksgiving, and feeling that the citizens of Greenville even in these times of short crops and financial embarrassments have received many blessings for which they should thank Almighty God, I therefore ask and earnestly request them— one and all—to faithfully observe said day by closing their places of business and attend Divine worship. F. G. JAMES, Mayor. This Nov. 13, '89.

Personal. Elder I. L. Chestnut, of Snow Hill, was in town on Wednesday. There are now ten Mrs. Browns resident in Greenville. Mr. C. M. Bernard went to Washington City a few days ago on business. Mrs. Arthur Harden, of Plymouth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Wilson. Mr. R. M. Hearne has gone to Greensboro to attend the N. C. Conference.

Mr. J. C. Robertson, of Robertsonville, called in to see us Monday. Glad to see him. That popular traveling salesman, Mr. B. C. Pearce, is here at his old home for a few days. Mrs. Haywood Clark and children of Tarboro, are visiting Mrs. G. W. Johnston, near town. Mrs. F. G. James and Mrs. E. C. Glenn are attending the N. C. Conference at Greensboro.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan and Master Charlie returned last Friday from a two weeks visit to Americus, Ga. Mr. J. F. Joyner has moved his family to Greenville. They occupy the Baker house on Washington street. Mrs. Terry Towns, of Atlanta, Ga., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Brown, for the past week. Mr. Ernest Wooten of LaGrange, spent a day or two the past week with his brother, Mr. Jno. L. Wooten.

One of the prettiest young ladies of Greenville gets married this afternoon to a popular young man of Farmville. Mr. Jos. P. Elliott, of the well known firm of Elliott Bros., Baltimore, has been in town since Saturday. Mr. J. H. Tucker and wife returned last week. Mrs. Tucker had been visiting relatives in Warren county for several weeks. Mr. E. A. Jacobs the old proprietor of Nag's Head hotel whom many of our people remember, died last week at his home in Norfolk.

Mrs. J. W. Perkins, Miss Martha O'Hagan and little Miss Bettie Tyson left last week for Baltimore where they will spend a month. We were glad to see in town last week Mr. L. B. Sheppard, of Norfolk, who by nativity is a Pitt county boy and formerly lived in Greenville. Mr. E. A. Moye, Superior Court Clerk, leaves next Saturday for St. Louis, to attend the meeting of the National Alliance, and will be absent about ten days. Mrs. Barrett, of Farmville township, widow of the late Capt. L. J. Barrett, has moved with her children to Greenville and occupies the James house in Forbestown.

Mr. Walter Salisbury, of Hamilton, passed through Greenville last Wednesday on his way home from school in Washington. We were pleased to have a call from him. Miss Ada Hardee, of Greene county, has been visiting Miss Nonie Smith for a few days. She came over to act as bridesmaid at the marriage of the latter this afternoon. Elder H. C. Bowen preached in the Methodist Church on Wednesday night to a large and appreciative audience. We were out of town and did not hear his sermon, but it is spoken of as a splendid effort.

Seldom have we ever heard such sweet music as the singing of Mrs. J. B. Cherry, of Greenville, at the Methodist church. She is by odds one of the finest vocalists we have ever heard, either on or off the stage.—Wilson Advance. Elder H. C. Bowen and Messrs. W. H. Wilson, of Williamston, W. H. Stancill, of Beaufort county, Fernando Ward and L. A. Mayo, of Pitt county, were in town on Wednesday attending the meeting of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Christian Missionary Convention. The meeting was held at the residence of E. A. Moye, Esq., President of the Board. Rev. J. G. Nelson preached in the Methodist Church here Sunday night. He is a young man, but a good preacher, and we venture he will carry as good a report to the State Conference as will go up from this District. He told us the other day that sixty-four members had been added to the churches on his circuit during the past year, and that every dollar due had been collected.

A Smash. An accident occurred at the railroad trestle Saturday. A bench trestle is being put in from the river bank out to where the abutment for the iron draw will be put. Three or four sections of this trestle were standing but had not been fastened in position, and some of the workmen forgetting this threw too much force against them when the sections came down with a crash. One man was thrown in the river, another jumped in, and another had his thigh very badly injured by a falling timber.

We saw some live opossums sold on the street, Monday. Every Monday morning of Monday the street is a market, and the opossums, in fact, to last. Washington papers get to Greenville from two to four days after they are dated. Quite a time for twenty-five miles. The North Carolina Conference meets in Greensboro to-day. Revs. G. A. Oglesby, R. B. John and E. C. Glenn are attending. Genuine all tobacco Havana Cigarettes, 10 in a pack, for 5 cents, can be had at this price at V. L. Stephens' or the Telegraph Office.

It is our opinion that at least fifty people of Pitt county attended the Centennial at Fayetteville. We could see lots of them down there. Last week trains began running through to Plymouth and now have a regular schedule there. Step by step the East is coming to the front. There has been considerable of an exodus stir among the colored people, during the last week or two, which may result in several of them leaving. A colored man died at the County Poor House early Sunday morning. He seemed in comparatively good health and ate his rations as usual on Saturday.

A lady complained that her miff was shedding hair, whereupon a young man suggested that some of Gully's Baldhead Preparation be rubbed on it. The police force are out in new uniforms with handsome overcoats and helmets. They look "starchy" as you please. Greenville don't get left by every town. Help the fatherless, the widow and the poor to-morrow, and by so doing bring down blessings upon your own head. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Judging from the extensive preparations that were made Monday and yesterday, the ladies of the Baptist church made a splendid success of their "Basket Social" last night. Last week Mr. H. Sheppard, Reporter, of Insurance Lodge K. of H., showed us a draft for $2,000 issued by Grand Treasurer of that order to the heirs of the late L. G. Heilbronner. Capt. W. A. Parvin, of the Sir. Beaufort, sent us four cotton blossoms Monday. Very late for blossoms, it strikes us, but there is no telling what our eastern section can bring forth. Mr. J. L. Grimmer told us Saturday that he had green corn of a new crop for dinner that day, and will have some again to-morrow. New crop corn on Thanksgiving Day is something unusual.

The Board of County Commissioners will meet in regular monthly session next Monday. It will be the beginning of a new fiscal year, and on that day all the county officers will have to renew their official bonds. A gentleman from Baltimore, who has been in town this week, was kind enough to remark to the editor: "I am a regular reader of the REFLECTOR and think you are improving it every week. It is a creditable paper."

Thanks to the publisher, Rev. L. Branson, for a copy of Branson's Almanac for 1890. This Almanac is compiled and all its calculations are made within the borders of our own State, which fact should make it more valuable than any other. Did you keep watch, like we told you last week on that five word advertisement? Well, now look at it again and you will find something up that V. L. Stephens has to say. He has just opened a nice assortment of candies and other confections. The guests of Hotel Macon will feast on new vegetables to-morrow. Manager Moore tells us he will have lettuce, onions and cabbage of the new crop for dinner. We want to hear from the section that can beat this on two crops of vegetables a year.

There are four brothers in Greenville that have married graduates of Greensboro Female College. Two of these married sisters, and the wives of the other two were such intimate friends that the last married was a waiter at the marriage of the other. The farmer who will begin work now toward gathering manures and preparing his farm, and then beware of planting a mortgage or spring any foreign fertilizers in the spring, will find himself in better circumstances next fall than the man who goes contrary to the above. The editor acknowledges the receipt of a very pretty invitation to a mid-winter basket picnic and dance, given by Banner Council No. 51, Royal League, Chicago. The invitation was sent with the compliments of our friend Mr. J. B. Johnson, Jr.

A young man we know borrowed a dumb watch and carried it with him visiting. The hands were set at twenty-five minutes past ten and he stayed until nearly midnight. We would advise the young lady to have her own time piece and not depend on the young gent. Andrew's circus seems to have "stuck in the mud" in this section of the State. We hear that they could not fill their engagements last week at Scotland Neck, Rocky Mt., and Tarboro. They had to tie up at Williamston several days. The circuses had just as well keep out of this part of the country. On fourth page of this paper will be found a combination offer of the REFLECTOR and Wide Awake and other splendid publications sent out by D. Lothrop Publishing Co. Wide Awake is one of the finest magazines published for young people and the others are just splendid for the little folks. Read and see upon what liberal terms you can get these publications with the REFLECTOR.

The colored people of this section are going to have a big tournament Christmas day. They have already begun preparations. The prizes will be awarded to the successful knights. We heard a dealer express his surprise, the other day, at the large sales he is making of Northern hay right here at the time when plenty of home made hay and fodder ought to be on the market. He said his sales now would average two tons a week. That is one thing the matter with this country, the people are buying from abroad too much of such articles as they ought to raise in abundance right here at home. The men continue to do good work at the daily prayer meetings they are holding. The attendance at the night meetings is always large, and there are some conversions every week. Such efforts as are being put forth can but result in great good to the community. The meetings should have the encouragement of every christian and they should be present as often as possible.

The boys will have their fun. Last Wednesday night they sent a poor old colored man first to Lang's dry goods store, then to Hackett's hardware store, then to Y. Wooten's drug store, and at last to the REFLECTOR office hunting for "granny-lated sugar." We told him we were very sorry that "we've got some but it's all gone." We made lemonade with it last July. He seemed at a loss when Van Stephens seeing the chance took him to his store and raked in the kelter. In order to prevent our friends throughout the country from bringing their produce to town to-morrow, or coming for the purpose of trading and find all the stores closed up, we reproduce our article of last week concerning the observance of Thanksgiving Day, together with the names of those who will close their places of business. We hope the observance of the day will be general and that all our people will attend church. Services will be held at one or more of the churches in town, the ringing of the bell at the usual hour to-morrow indicating which will be open. Remember to take some money with you to help the collection to be taken for the orphan institutions.

Attention Firemen. The members of Rough and Ready Fire Company are requested to meet promptly at the Mayor's Office on next Monday, Dec. 2nd, at 2 o'clock, P. M. Business of importance must be transacted and a full attendance is desired. R. G. HODGES, Capt. Died. Sister Julia Dan, the subject of this sketch, was born in Pitt county, N. C. She died near Mount Pleasant, Nov. 3, 1889 in the 74th year of her age. Sister Dan joined the Disciples Church about 17 years ago, and was baptized by Elder Joseph Latham. She lived a worthy member until her death. She found the grace of God sufficient not only in the trials of life but a solid comfort in the hour of death. She quietly passed away into the "Sweet By and By." She leaves a husband, three sons, six daughters and thirteen grandchildren to mourn her loss. May the blessing of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ rest upon them and may they all be prepared to meet their dear mother where there will be no more death. What a happy meeting it will be to meet to part no more. The funeral was conducted by the writer. E. D. HATHAWAY.

Thanksgiving. Greenville will observe Thanksgiving day. A REFLECTOR representative has made a canvass among the business houses of the town and those whose names appear below signified their intention of closing up on that day. A. N. Ryan, Latham & Pender, Harry Skinner & Co., W. B. Wilson, Culley & Edmonds, V. L. Stephens, J. J. Cherry & Son, E. C. Glenn, Moses Heilbronner, J. S. Smith & Bro., W. A. Stocks, J. A. Smith, J. A. Bradley, J. C. Tyson, Mrs. E. A. Sheppard, J. J. Corey & Bro., W. S. Rawles, Briggs & Munford, Alfred Forbes, H. Williams Jr., McG. Erenal, J. A. Andrews, Little House & Bro., D. W. Hardee, L. H. Weathering, C. T. Savage, A. Savage, C. A. White, Jas. Long, S. E. Shelburn, A. J. Griffin, Mrs. L. Griffin, S. M. Schultz, Mrs. M. T. Cowell, Mrs. B. H. Home, W. H. Cox & Co., J. B. Cherry & Co., H. F. Harris, M. R. Lang, D. D. Hasket & Co., J. L. Wooten, H. Morris & Bros., W. H. Allen, Johnson Norcott & Co., B. F. Manning, O. Hooker, J. B. Bergeron & Bro., Greenville Carriage Works, J. D. Williamson's carriage shops, Low Tariff Carriage Factory, King & Co. In addition to those all the lawyers will close their offices. The express office will be closed except from 7 to 9 A. M. and from 6 to 8 P. M. The Postoffice will be closed except at hours for arrival and departure of mails, no money order business will be transacted. All the public offices at the Court House will be closed. The REFLECTOR office will follow its usual custom and close. The Telegraph office will be closed except for an hour in the morning and an hour in the evening.

This means an entire suspension of business for Greenville on that day. While the act is no more than we all owe to God who has bounteously blessed us and given us all that we have, still it must be said to the credit of the business men of Greenville that there was not a dissenting voice, but every one cheerfully assented to closing when called upon. Our citizens are not slack in good works, and the REFLECTOR now makes a further request that they generously remember the poor and the orphan on that day. Thanksgiving services will be held in one or more of the churches, of which announcement will be made in next issue. Our many readers and friends throughout the county are requested to make a note of this suspension of business in town, so that they may not come in on that day for the purpose of selling produce or making purchases.

Roll of Honor. The following is the roll of honor for the first quarter of Greenville Institute: A. W. Outerbridge, Larry Heilbronner, L. H. Wilson, S. W. Erwin, J. T. Erwin, Bessie Harding, Lizzie Blow, Priscilla Allen, Helen Laughinghouse, Novella Higgs, Morinda Nichols, Bessie Tyson, Lina Sheppard. PRIMARY DEPARTMENT:—*Chamie Nobles. Those marked * made the highest average. Killed in a Window. Mr. J. P. Joyner told us the other day that a negro boy was killed near Falkland, recently, in a very peculiar manner. The boy was fastening up the house from the inside in which his father lived, intending to make his exit through a window left unfastened for that purpose. In getting out of the window the sash fell catching his neck against the window sill in which position he struggled to death. The boy was about 12 years old.

The Contract Awarded. The bids for grading and trestling the Coast Line's branch extension from Greenville to Kinston were opened here yesterday. A large number of railroad contractors were, therefore, in the city, and a dozen or so bids were put in. The contract was awarded to Messrs. O'Hearn Bros. & Scott, of Johnson City, Tenn. They are to complete the work on or before the first of next May. Messrs. O'Hearn Bros. & Scott are large contractors, and also have a contract for grading 110 miles of the Charleston, Cincinnati Railroad near Johnson City.—Wilmington Messenger. To The Public. Notice is hereby given that there will be hereafter two Public Schools in the White School District No. 66 of Pitt County, which comprises the town of Greenville, one for males and one for females. The schools will open for the reception of pupils on Monday the 11th of January, 1890. The School Committee desire to employ two teachers for one scholastic session of twenty weeks, and applicants for these positions will be received until Dec. 20th, 1889, at which time appointments will be made by the committee. Applications should be made in writing and addressed to J. B. Yellowley, Chairman, and applicants should furnish references as to qualifications and experience. The committee desire to make these schools equal in efficiency to the best private schools, and wish to employ teachers who are thoroughly competent. The salaries will be $30 per month. J. B. YELLOWLEY, Chair. JACK WHITE, B. F. SUGG, School Committee. Now is the time to subscribe to the REFLECTOR only a $1.50 a year.
